Field Representative of the Board of Pensions and Relief, and A. Ray Moore, who by charts showed the climbing claims, as more and more men come to the retiring age.

It was explained that the New Plan, when adopted by this conference, would care only for men who join the conference after its adoption. That there is still the responsibility of providing adequate support for the men now on the rolls when they, their widows or children, become Conference Claimants.

Very close study and analysis by the Commission on Conference Claimants made it clear that in addition to the almost $1,000,000 now in the funds, an additional $600,000 would need to be raised to provide for these claims.

C. R. Montague moved the adoption of the following resolution which was seconded by J. W. Patterson of the Lay Electoral Conference, and after full discussion was carried:

"That we recommend to the Annual Conference that for the purpose of creating a Guarantee Reserve Fund, we put on a two year campaign for $600,000, the first year to be used for the writing of annuities, wills, etc., the second year to be used for taking subscriptions on the three year basis, thus completing the campaign. That the ministers of the conference pledge themselves to pay ten per cent of the $600,000.

"It is understood that on annuities, wills, etc, that $2. received from these sources, shall be required to count as $1 on subscriptions.

UNIVERSITY CHURCH: Merle N. Smith presented the special report of the Committee on University Church, embodying resolutions of the Board of Education as follows, and the entire report was adopted.

"WHEREAS: University Church, after three years of experiment to determine its right relation to the University of Southern California, during which it sold its property and moved its morning service of worship, and much of its Sunday School to the buildings of the University, and now finds itself without any cooperative relations with the University, and back in the old building for which it is paying a monthly rent of $200.

"AND WHEREAS, University Church is obliged to build a new structure in order to save its very life, and through its Official Board has voted unanimously to begin the building at once,

"AND WHEREAS, the personnel of its constituency, its history in the neighborhood, its standing in the conference and in the city, compel it to recognize the interests of the multitudes of students who, through the years to come will be attending the University,

"AND WHEREAS, The Board of Home Missions and Church Extension has promised to pay one-tenth of the cost of the new building, not including lots and furnishings, and on condition that said church shall minister to the students of the University, and that the money thus paid from said Board shall be out of designated gifts in World Service by the Churches of this Conference,

"AND WHEREAS, said University Church, while able to erect a building for its own constituency and community interests, without assistance, is not able to build such a structure as will meet the demands which its relations to the University must place upon it,

"THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, that this Board of Education of The Southern California Conference recommends:

"First: To University Church: that in the choice of a location for the new church and in the plans for the building, the interests of the University Students must be kept constantly in mind.

"Second: To the Board of Home Missions and Church Extension: That if by any means it can be made possible, that it increase its offer of 10% of the cost of the building to 25% of the cost.

"Third: To the churches of this Annual Conference: that they 'shall come up to the help of University Church' that it may maintain its own existence, minister to the people of its own community and do a most efficient work among the students—

First—By early designating a liberal portion of its World Service to University Church:

"Second—By making early payment of these designated gifts."

Further consideration of this matter was postponed to the afternoon session.

The Disciplinary questions were asked of the Class to be received into Full Membership and were satisfactorily answered. Upon motion of Registrar Alfred Inwood, they were admitted into Full Membership.

The Bishop addressed the class on "The Fatherhood of God," stressing the parental element in the Master.

"The Bible is a progressive revelation of the Fatherhood of God."

"If Jesus revealed God as Father to our spirits, and told us to be like God, then the main thing that is in us must be the likeness to the parental nature that is in God alone."

"Every baby is God's revelation."

"It is possible for us as ministers to have our hearts filled with fragments of the great Father heart of God, until we bear that parental attitude to our people."

"Unless a man has this parental heart towards his people, he is already a failure."

"Do we let our own children slip away from us? No, we hold on and will not let them go. Let us hold on to our people, and not let them go, bearing them in our arms to the great Father."

"You younger men will not have this parental nature so strongly developed, but it must develop with you through the years, if you are to fill your place as pastors."

The Conference adjourned with prayer and benediction by Dr. Luther Freeman, pastor of the Congregational Church at Pomona, an old time friend of the Bishop.

"It is further understood that in case of an emergency that ought to locate the session of the Conference for a given year in some other church that such adjustment be left to a Commission of Three on Permanent Site to work out harmoniously.

"2. We recommend that the site of the Conference for the next four years, subject to the above provisions, be at First Church, Long Beach."

During the discussion on this resolution the Bishop resumed the chair.

President Emeritus George F. Bovard, spoke on the report. Time for any speech in the debate was ordered limited to five minutes. After extended discussion, the report was adopted, which carried with it the continuance of the Commission for further survey and investigation.

The report is as follows:

SCHOOL OF RELIGION

At the last session of Conference, the report of the Board of Education verified the news which had been brought to us that the Trustees of the University of Southern California had voted to become a self-perpetuating body, with Trustees no longer elected by the Southern California Conference which had organized the University. The report of that board included the following in regard to the School of Religion.

"Your Board, in harmony with the desire of the University, recommends the appointment of a commission to cooperate with that of the University, which shall study this whole question and report its findings to the next session of this annual conference touching the aim, location, erection and endowment of such an institution."

To which was added the following action of the conference, and incorporated as a part of their report:

"We respectfully request the University trustees to set aside from their funds an amount of money that shall represent our past contributions to the university and that shall constitute the beginning of the foundation contemplated, and that our acceptance of this report is conditional on such equitable cooperation."

Following these instructions, the cabinet appointed as such commission, J. Lewis Gillies, J. L. Corley, J. A. Geissinger, John Oliver and F. G. H. Stevens.

Because but three or four of our conference know the history of the institution, here are a few facts for the background.

Almost fifty years ago, at West Los Angeles, in the wheat fields near the University station on the Southern Pacific line to Santa Monica, was established the College of Liberal Arts, which was to be financed by the sale of surrounding property which had been divided into building lots. A typical Southern California venture.

With the boom of the later Eighties came the establishment or projection of other colleges at the University. Chaffey Agricultural College at Ontario and McClay College of Theology at San Fernando actually came into existence. Other lands were given at Inglewood and San Diego.

With the collapse of the boom, the university faced extinction. Lands were sold to pay running expenses. McClay was moved from San Fernando to the campus in West Los Angeles. Chaffey was given up with an agreement by which a part of the property was retained by us.

At that time the property at West Los Angeles consisted of one three-story brick building and two two-story wooden buildings.

Southern California again revived. Under the presidency of Geo. F. Bovard, the main building was enlarged. Colleges of Oratory, Music, Law, Dentistry and Medicine were added, one after the other. At this time offers to relocate the university at what is now Huntington Palisades were turned down, as was a later suggestion to locate it at what is now California Riviera on Beverly Boulevard, one mile west of U. C. L. A.

The conference in 1917 launched a million dollar campaign for new building and endowment.

The enlarged program meant increased running expenses. When R. B. Von KleinSmid came to the presidency, he and the Board of Trustees united in their desire to make this a great city university. This conference accepted their leadership and followed on in the desire for greatness. Time and time again in the past ten years, our university, through its representatives, has come to this annual conference, stating the great need of a campaign for enlarged endowment. But always the answer was that the time was not yet ripe. President Von KleinSmid's slogan was "Control Implies Support."

Faced with a growing deficit, the administration authorities themselves planned for a great jubilee year and the raising of a five million dollar endowment.

The action by which the university trustees severed formal relationship with this conference, was precipitated by two causes:

First: A certain estate note had been signed in favor of the university. The payment of this estate note was contested by other heirs on the ground that the university as chartered, had no right to accept such funds in trust because the trustees were not a self-perpetuating body. The trustees under the former charter were acting under sections 652 and 653 of the civil code, which, while they dealt with schools and colleges, made no provision for finances. It was under this that all the various colleges had formerly been consolidated. But at the session of the State Legislature in 1927, sub-division 2 of section 650 was amended so that the provisions of 650 were made to apply, thus permitting self-perpetuating boards of trustees of colleges and seminaries to hold such funds.

The second difficulty was that large givers, while they had no radical objection to giving to schools that were under denominational control, did refuse to give to any board of trustees which might be changed at the will of some church body, and thus would not perpetuate the principles and policies now in force.

It was the combination of these two which brought the trustees to your Board of Education a year and a half ago, and secured their consent to the separation. So much for history.

Now let us face the facts as they are. The conference allowed the university to grow so large that it could not be supported by us. The new policy requires that a majority of the board shall be members of the Methodist Episcopal Church. The general Board of Education of our churches still considers it a Methodist School to a degree that it shares in our educational funds from World Service. Such is the ruling of Secretary W. S. Bovard.

The action of this conference, if your commission rightly interprets it, was to find some method of either securing control of the School of Religion or of convincing the university trustees that they should turn over to the conference a certain portion of the funds heretofore raised, in order that we might embark upon the establishment of an institution directly under our control.

Three courses are open to us.

First: for the School of Religion to continue as at present under the direct control of the university, to be governed by their board of trustees, we to have an advisory committee, if we choose, we to assist in raising funds for its support.

Second: An affiliated school with a separate board incorporated and acting with the board of trustees of Southern California under contract. The president of the University would make the choice of faculty, to be approved by the two boards, and the income from the trust funds to be applied to its support and the balance of the funds to be raised by this conference,—amounting to approximately $25,000 a year.

In each of these cases the buildings of the university would be used.

The third plan would be for an entirely independent school, which must meet the requirements of the University Senate. This would require the establishment of one building devoted exclusively to the school, a library of at least 5,000 volumes, a faculty of at least five professors giving full time, and a productive endowment of at least $300,000 exclusive of student fees. For all of which finances this conference would need to be responsible. On the matter of finances there is at present less than $50,000 available from the original McClay fund. $8,500 annually comes from the World Service funds of our Board of Education. The committee from the university trustees insists that under the terms of bequests and gifts they would have no right to turn over any money to us, since it is being used at the present time for the purpose for which it was raised,—that of Christian education.

The commission therefore recommends its further continuance for the purpose of

First: Requesting the survey of the entire university finances by a special auditor of the Board of Education, now employed in similar tasks.

Second: For the purpose of coming in touch or opening negotiations with one or more other denominations that we may secure their reaction concerning a union school of religion either at Southern California, Pacific Palisades, at U. C. L. A., or any other place where the Conference might determine.

F. G. H. STEVENS.

E. L. Eaton, Field Secretary of the Board of Temperance, Prohibition and Public Morals, was introduced and spoke of the work of that Board.

CONFERENCE EVANGELISTS: E. J. Evans read his report as Conference Evangelist and it was adopted. (See Report).

CHANGE OF DATE OF CONFERENCE: W. C. Hodgson presented the following report from the Committee on Change of Date of Conference, which was adopted by a standing vote, 151 to 79.

"The following resolution is found on page 35 of the 1928 Minutes:

'Resolved that we request the Board of Bishops to fix the date of holding our annual conference in the latter part of June, the same to take effect in June, 1930.'

On the same page is the statement that the district superintendents be requested to present the proposal to their respective Quarterly Conferences.

Your committee has sought information for this report from two sources—the casual inquiry of laymen and pastors about the seat of this conference, and the reports of the district superintendents.

The informal inquiry of many of the men for their opinions of the proposed change has shown that they are more than two to one for the change.

The reports of the district superintendents show the following:

The Quarterly Conferences did not all vote upon the issue. A large number of them reported that they were willing to leave the matter with the Annual Conference. One district superintendent reported in total votes cast for and against the proposal, but did not report how many Quarterly Conferences voted. There is no indication whether the vote in any conference was close or unanimous.

From these reports we find:

Fresno, Long Beach and Pasadena Districts are in favor of the change; Arizona is against it, and Los Angeles and San Diego Districts are about neutral in the vote. One district voted a total of 262 votes for the change and 264 against it and 116 indifferent. A total of 2 votes against the change.

Total votes cast for June—105.

Total votes cast against June—40.

Total votes cast for September 1st—3.

Total indifferent votes—17.

These are, of course, Quarterly Conference votes.

If the total vote not for the change to June be counted against the change, then we have 60 Quarterly Conferences voting against the change to 105 voting for it.

We append here a group of arguments heard from the men as we have conversed with them about this change of date:

I. Against the change:

1. A new pastor moving into a section where the summer heat is intense will be disheartened at the outset of his pastorate.

2. Any pastor moving will find his new charge wholly inactive and many of his members absent, and face discouragement at the beginning of his work.

3. A church is less likely to give a pastor a liberal vacation at the beginning of the year than at the close of the year.

4. Interchange of transfers with other conferences will be more difficult with few or no other conferences in session.

5. Other things being equal, we shall have the difficulty of the readjustment to the change.

II. Arguments for the change:

1. The new pastor will have several months to know his field and get acquainted with his people before the intensive work of the year begins.

2. The pastor will never need to be away at Conference on Rally Day in the Sunday School.

3. The financial stress in closing the conference year will not come in vacation time.

4. The children's school year will not be broken into by the family moving weeks after school opens.

5. The Baltimore Conference has voted to hold its conference session in June.

The Committee is not unanimous for the change of date, but recommends that the change be made as provided in the resolution of this conference one year ago."

BE IT THEREFORE RESOLVED, that a committee of not less than nine, representing the different interests of the Church, shall be appointed by the Cabinet for this purpose."

CONFERENCE CLAIMANTS CAMPAIGN: C. E. Leitzell introduced the following resolution and it was adopted:

"In accordance with Conference action that a campaign for $600,000 be put on for a Guarantee Reserve Fund for the Retired Ministers and inasmuch as the ministers voted to assume 10% of that total amount, or $60,000, therefore the Commission on Conference Claimants brings the following resolution:

"Whereas, it is impossible for us to inaugurate a plan for the raising of this $60,000 that will be satisfactory to all concerned, and

"Whereas, the term of the campaign is for two years with a three year time limit for payment of the subscriptions, and

"Whereas, we deem it unwise to levy any assessment on the men,

"THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED, that we recommend that every minister in effective relation pay into the Fund each year for five years, beginning with October 1, 1929, an amount equal to the following schedule of his cash salary:

"Salary of less than $2000 an amount equal to 1%.

"Salary of $2,000 to $3,000 inclusive, an amount equal to 1½%.

"Salary above $3,000 an amount equal to 2%."

HISTORICAL ASSOCIATION: On motion of A. Ray Moore, the Conference constituted a Historical Association to be composed of C. O. Kimball, F. D. Mather and E. J. Inwood.

FILE OF MINUTES: O. B. Waite requested copies of the Minutes of the earlier sessions for completing a file at Pacific Palisades.

SANTA PAULA CHURCH: The Bishop brought to the attention of the Conference that he had received a petition from Santa Paula Church requesting a merger with the Presbyterian Church of that city. It was ordered that a committee of five be appointed to represent the Conference in the matter. The committee named consisted of John Oliver, G. B. Cliff, E. J. Inwood, Willsie Martin, O. B. Waite, with retiring District Superintendent Alfred Hughes and the new District Superintendent, W. C. Loomis, as advisory members.

Question 1 was asked and it was stated that A. Ray Moore was bonded for $20 000 and his Secretary for $3,000.

Question 28 was asked and W. A. Betts, F. D. Mather, J. W. Neely, John Nicholson, and S. S. Sampson were named as Triers of Appeals with C. B. Dalton and H. A. Ingham as Reserves.

RESOLUTIONS: Walter B. Cole read the report of the Committee on Resolutions. The Secretary put that portion of the report which dealt with the presidency of Bishop Hughes, and it was adopted. The remaining sections of the report were adopted. (See Report).

CLOSING: It was moved that after devotions and the reading of the Appointments, the conference adjourn.

Bishop Hughes spoke in reference to his former presidency of this Conference and the growing difficulty now had in Cabinet work, because there was no longer a decided increase in financial support and church growth.

In brotherly attitude which showed the mellowness and depth of his heart's sympathy, he prayed that the year's tasks might be assumed by the men in the spirit of devotion.

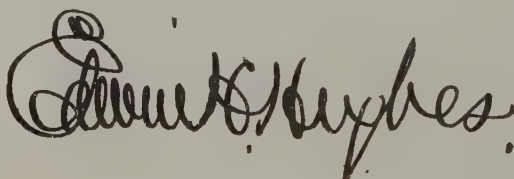

The Bishop read the appointments of the deaconesses.

The Appointments were read and the Conference adjourned with benediction by the Bishop at 5:51 p. m.

(Minutes of the sessions of Saturday morning and afternoon, of Sunday, and of Monday morning and afternoon were examined and found correct.

J. E. DUNNING, Chairman,
Committee on Examination of Minutes.)

(a) District Superintendents

ARIZONA DISTRICT

In bringing this, my sixth annual report for the Arizona District, I desire to record my gratitude to my Heavenly Father for a year of unbroken personal health and vigor. It has been my privilege to travel over forty thousand miles in the line of duty, and while there have been many hardships, and the road at times has been rough and rocky and the nights long and full of discomfort, yet the joy of Christian fellowship with pastors and laymen has been so real as to make everything else of no significance. I shall always remember the kindness of parsonage homes, and the unfailing courtesies and love which have been given me.

Change of Personnel: In June, C. C. Hartzler, stationed at Hayden as a supply, was called for his third term of missionary service in Africa, and the year was completed by Paul Babcock.

Unsatisfactory conditions having arisen at Needles, that charge was, for purposes of administration, transferred to the Pasadena district. At the same time, on request of the Blythe charge to be returned to a California district, this charge was placed on the San Diego district.

Our afflicted ones during the year have been Hardy A. Ingham, Mrs. G. W. Imel, Mrs. E. W. Stricker, and Mrs. R. B. Scott, all of whom have recovered and are in excellent health. David Roberts, a retired brother, who spent over thirty years of active service in Arizona, was very ill during the year, but has made such a good recovery that he is present at this Conference. Frank R. Speck, retired, has had a bad year, and is making a brave battle to recover his health. Just a few weeks ago C. V. Gustafson, the assistant pastor at Tucson, after a year of splendid work was stricken, and has been ordered to a sanitarium for the next few months, with the promise of the physician that he will, after a good rest, be completely restored. The Tucson Church requests his reappointment for another year, and will see that he is cared for.

There has been but one birth during the year, that of a fine boy in the home of Brother and Sister Paul Lomax at Clarkdale.

Young People's Institute: The annual institute met at Groom Creek, in June, and had over two hundred in attendance, with one hundred and fifty-one paid registrations. The faculty was chosen from the pastors, and the instruction was of a high order, and the attendance on classes was almost perfect for the entire week. J. L. Corley gave his usual fine assistance, and Dr. W. S. Bovard, Secretary of the Board of Education, was present for two days giving inspiring addresses.

Church Schools: The attendance at the schools has been badly broken by epidemics of influenza and spinal meningitis. It has, however, been a good year in teacher training classes, and in sub-district schools held at Jerome, Prescott, Williams, and Winslow, and in an interdenominational school of religion at Phoenix. Daily Vacation Bible Schools were held on nearly every charge, and the attendance was remarkably large and the work accomplished of a very high standard. It is interesting to note that the enrollment of the schools is over two thousand more than the church membership, and the 1929 enrollment is 2400 larger than six years ago.

The Ladies' Aid Societies have been active as usual, and report 12,000 calls and $17,000 paid to the support of the churches.

Both Home and Foreign Missionary Societies have had a good year, and report an increased giving to their many projects.

Good Samaritan Hospital: Arizona is proud of the Good Samaritan Hospital, which has been given the highest rating of standardization by national medical men. Fifteen thousand dollars of free service has been rendered, and for the first time in its history the income has not only paid all running expenses, but has also paid all interest charges on the debt, and several thousand dollars were spent in needed improvements. So popular has this hospital become that patients are being turned away daily because of crowded conditions. After the best expert advice of hospital authorities the Board of Directors, composed of the ablest business men in Phoenix, have decided to add a new wing to the Hospital, which will provide for a sufficient number of beds which the present hospital staff can handle without any additional overhead. A campaign in March netted $120,000, and plans are rapidly maturing for the erection of the new building.

Jerome.

Glendale, Arizona.

Building and Improvements: A beautiful auditorium, seating five hundred, has been completed at Glendale, and so attractive has it become in the community that over one hundred people have united with the church since dedication.

The Jerome church, completed last year, has been entirely paid for, and the contract let for a new parsonage. Dean Fisher gave splendid service in the dedication of these churches.

A community plant costing $6,500 is being erected at Williams, and this will provide adequate Sunday School and recreational facilities.

At Tucson the old church on the south side has been sold and plans have been drawn for the new plant, which will cost some $125,000, and be erected on the commanding site just opposite the west entrance of the University campus. We have many loyal laymen in Arizona, and it is my joy to tell of the notable service which one of these has rendered. Brother Elias Hedrick and his invalid wife, of Tucson, have in the past six years given to the Tucson Church, the Good Samaritan Hospital, and our retired preachers, funds aggregating over seventy-one thousand dollars. These good people, who have given so liberally, are not wealthy but they love the church and they have desired to place their savings of the years where it will live on after they have passed to their eternal reward.

Foreign Speaking Work: Again I desire to call attention to the need of a united program for work among the Mexican people in Arizona. The neglect of this in Western and Southern Arizona on the part of our church is shameful. These simple hearted folks are everywhere, and constitute, with the Indians, nearly half the population of the State. One small Mexican church at Mesa is the sum total of activities of the Latin American Mission, and three men are employed by the Southwest Spanish Mission. It would seem that these two mission conferences have disputed long enough over territorial rights, and should do something worth while in taking care of this worthy people. If Methodism does not intend to do this, then we should withdraw and let some other denomination have the field, or turn it over to the supervision of the English speaking churches.

Moral and Political Aspects: The Christian and moral forces of Arizona have won some fine victories in the past year. Under the leadership of the Anti-Saloon League, with R. E. Farley as Superintendent, and an outstanding group of able men as directors, the State, normally democratic by 70%, was carried for Herbert Hoover, the Dry Quaker Republican, by 16,000 majority; while for United States Senator, William Ashurst, the Dry Catholic Democrat, was successful. Brother Farley is a remarkable leader. His work for law enforcement is outstanding. In addition to having the confidence of the Christian people, including the Mormons and Catholics, he also is respected by all political leaders and has so welded the county, state and national enforcement officers that Arizona has a high standard of law observance.

Physical Developments: Arizona is in the midst of a great and substantial growth. Thousands of people have flocked into the Salt River Valley, where the greatest development is taking place. Great hotels have been builded for winter tourists, and from November to May it is estimated that fifty thousand people enjoy the sunshine, free from snows and the cold of the eastern states and the fogs of the Coast country. Towering business blocks have been erected, and the residential section of Phoenix resembles very much the marvelous development which has taken place in the Wilshire district in Los Angeles. It is estimated that ten thousand people have moved to Phoenix in the past six months, and this fall and winter will witness the coming of thousands of others.

One is reminded of a passage in Farrar's History of Arizona, where the story is told of a visit which General Sherman made to Arizona Territory just after the war with Mexico. General Sherman was not very deeply impressed with the country, and wrote the department that the land was worthless and would not grow anything, and that even the rivers ran upside down, and he added—"We have just had a war with Mexico and took from the Mexican Government this land, and I would recommend we have another war and make her take it back again." Now in this worthless land are living three hundred thousand English speaking people, and almost as many Mexicans and Indians.

This baby State of the Union ranks 45th in population, one-fifth in size, but the last census shows the highest per cent of gain in population of any State in the Union, it being 17% greater than its nearest rival. 19% greater than California, and 50% greater than New York. Maricopa County alone last year had $45,000,000 worth of agricultural products. Eight hundred million pounds of copper were mined. This is 60% of all copper produced in the United States, and 35% of the world's output. Besides this, ten million dollars of lead, silver, gold and other minerals were mined. The mining pay roll of the State is three million dollars per month, a million dollars monthly increase over last year. Add to this the cattle and sheep raising, and to this the lumber industries of the State, and the wealth of the State is marvelous. To these great assets must be added her natural scenic wonders, which are unsurpassed. If one has once come under the spell of her deserts, her Grand Canyon, her petrified forests, her mighty mountains, her glorious sunsets, never again will he be satisfied with cities and towns, and paved streets and concrete sky scrapers, and the noise and confusion of industry, and the gay frivolities of amusement seeking folk.

These have been grand and wonderful years to this District Superintendent, and he thanks God for the experience of Arizona contacts, both physical and human.

Methodism was divinely led in the early history of this State. Her leaders were men of faith and vision who planted churches in every worthwhile center. Rich mining camps, once scenes of industry, are now abandoned, and some have entirely disappeared, but everywhere I find remnants of old churches and people who remember the heroic men who carried the Gospel of Salvation. On the foundations which these men of God laid, a staunch, courageous, vital Methodism today is growing. The past six years have witnessed the coming of red blooded young men to be the leaders in our churches. Everywhere there is a new morale. The personnel of our Official Boards and the membership of the churches has been greatly changed. There is a new type of substantial, educated, consecrated leadership which promises much for the future. Able business men, superintendents and teachers, skilled technicians, thoughtful and earnest young people have been attracted to the churches.

Summary: A summary of the past six years reveals no startling advances. The salary increase in 1929 over 1923 is $9,582, an average increase per charge of $400.

The total number received in six years on probation, confession of faith and transfers is 5,238, an average yearly gain of 873 or 18½%.

But so great have been the removals that the actual increase is less than five hundred. This is largely accounted for by the disasters of 1922-23 when Arizona suffered in the cotton slumps, which literally drove thousands of people to seek new homes, and which resulted in hundreds on our church rolls being marked "Non Resident."

The property values, exclusive of the Good Samaritan Hospital, are now $621,000, an increase of $158,000.

Paid for Ministerial Support—$275,314.

Church and Parsonage Building and Improvements—$135,000.

A total for the six years of $809,762, or a yearly giving by less than five thousand members of $151,627, or an actual per capita giving of $33.00 per year. This is an increase over the preceding six years of about sixty per cent.

This record has been made possible by the faithful, earnest work of the pastors, and the loyal cooperation of as consecrated group of laymen as may be found in any district in Methodism.

FRESNO DISTRICT

During the year, the angel of death has hovered over no parsonage home. No children have been born to our district parsonage families. Sickness has bothered us. The "flu" was severely felt and affected our work adversely.

Background. Fresno is an agricultural district. The plight of the agriculturalist in America and particularly in the fruit growing sections, continues to be the ever present problem of the whole people of our district. The farmer has no one to whom he can pass the mounting cost of production. He must bear it himself. Many, formerly prosperous, have held on till now. But resources are exhausted. The limit has been reached. In one section it is reported that fifty-two ranches passed into the hands of the banks in three weeks. In another, that ninety per cent of the ranches have been lost to the former owners. The government stabilization program will ease the situation for a year, but a miracle of organized cooperation will have to be achieved among folks of many different races, if it ever becomes possible for the producer to receive his proper share of the sale price of the consumer. If this should be attained, it would be immediately possible to double production and repeat the causes of difficulty.

This situation is reflected immediately in our churches. People who have been leaders and supporters, go away. Budgets fall. Salaries of the preachers are reduced. I know of but one increase of salary in the Fresno District, for the next year. That is at Kerman, where L. O. Dabritz is pastor. For those who stay the load is heavier. Automobiles and good roads have made many country churches unnecessary. Stevenson has been sold and the money used to ease the situation at Dinuba. Armona, Fairview, Island, Waukena, are not now in use for preaching purposes. All this, however, is the dark side of the picture. Fortunately, there is a brighter side. Bakersfield, Taft, Coalinga, and surroundings flow with oil.

Cotton and dairy products do well in Tulare County, while oranges and lemons glisten in the sun against the foothills of Porterville and Lindsay. The Government stabilization program will bring better prices for a year, brightening the picture, alleviating the situation in general.

Owens Valley does not lose its charm nor cease to intrigue the valley dwellers. Most of the ranches have been purchased by the city of Los Angeles and all town property appraised. At Big Pine, the city sold to the church a ranch house for a dollar, which was moved on the church grounds and fitted up for a parsonage at a cost of over twelve hundred dollars. Within a year, the city announced its appraisals of property and it was reported that "All the Methodists intend to leave." The property has been connected with Bishop and deeded in trust to the conference. Services will probably be held there at least for a while. Independence and Lone Pine will go right on, one being the county seat and head of the city administration in the Valley, the other being the home of many of the city employees. Bruce Ellis and his wife are busy in the work here. Bishop, also, will continue as a tourist, and a mining town, as well as headquarters for fishermen and those loving the mountains and the great out of doors.

Woman's Work. The Ladies' Aid Societies are well organized in each church in the district. They assist in creating an atmosphere in which successful undertakings are carried out and they help to put them over. They have made a multitude of calls in the interest of the church, have fostered the social life, beside raising a large amount of money. Their District Federation meets quarterly, with an attendance of from two to three hundred.

The Woman's Home Missionary Societies are well organized in many places. With study they feed the fires of missionary interest. With servitude and gifts they build their own soul life and the kingdom of God. Their giving will show an increase of about $600.

The Woman's Foreign Missionary Societies, using the same method as their sister societies, are successfully maintaining the interest in the cause of womanhood throughout the world. There is great interest in the work of the society and their missionary appeal is still effective. The gifts through their treasuries will show an increase. In several places the woman's organizations are federating in the interest of economy of time and effort. In some places they organize a Woman's Council, including both missionary societies and the Ladies' Aid, the societies being departments of the council. In some places the Missionary Societies merge their work. It is difficult for small churches to maintain so many organizations.

Young People. This year, for seven days, among the lofty mountains, in our own Camp Sierra, with a splendid faculty and a supporting constituency, two hundred and eighty-four young people spent the time in seeking to know Christ, his work and his cause better, and to find their place in His great world. The churches readily bear witness to its wholesome effect in the lives of those who go. The young people are thoroughly organized by chapters, sub-districts and districts. They also take active interest in the conference organization.

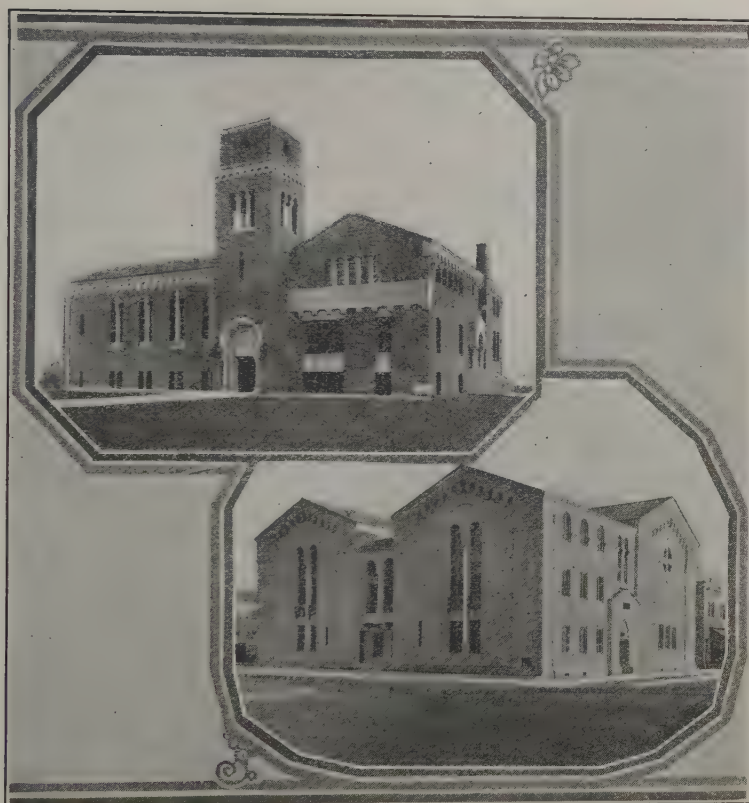

Debts. The following churches have made progress in payments of church debts during the year. Fresno has paid $18,000. Fresno Grace, $1,900. Merced, $2,000.

New Buildings. Two new buildings have been erected and dedicated during the year. Trinity Church, Fresno, held so long in the realm of the hoped for, now has a beautiful structure, located on the most commanding corner of the campus of the Fresno State College, and in one of the finest residential sections of the city. Representing a property valuation of about $71,000, a gem of architectural taste, its loyal membership is planning, under the enthusiastic leadership of J. E. Vandagriff, who has been pastor for six years, an ambitious program of religious education.

This church represents the Wesley Foundation approach to the State College, has had assistance from the Board of Home Missions, and from the district, as well as from interested individuals. The Board of Home Missions has designated this church as a Home Mission project, and has authorized the raising of $15,000 in designated gifts for which World Service credit will be given. Fresno District this year, has raised about $4,000 of this amount. Invitation is hereby given for churches and individuals outside of our district to make this enterprise the beneficiary of their consecrated benevolence.

Including this $15,000 above mentioned, the entire cost is covered with subscriptions and other assets, with the exception of $10,000 in the form of a Revolving Fund loan from the Board of Home Missions which is had without interest and need not be paid until five years.

First Church, Bakersfield, having been crowded for room for its large group of young people, has moved its parsonage two blocks down the street, and has erected upon the site, a splendid new educational and recreational plant, at a cost of $50,000 for the buildings only. Under the leadership of Leonard Oechsli, who with fine consecration, missionary zeal, and high enthusiasm, has harmonized the forces and directed their energies to the achievement, this building has been completed and the entire cost provided in subscriptions.

In a recent bulletin, Brother Oechsli congratulates the church that this all has been achieved without skimping the missionaries on the far fields of the church's endeavor, for, in addition to the building enterprise, this year, this church will show an increase to World Service giving of $1,100 over last year. Two churches in the district this year, decided to specialize on their current expenses and not to strive for World Service. Both have had a hard year financially. In every case where the command of the Master, "Go ye and make disciples of all nations" has been taken seriously, the entire work has been made more wholesome and finances have been easier for those having charge of current budgets.

Trinity Church, Bakersfield, is crowding its walls and is laying plans under the fine leadership of W. H. Rogers, for a new and adequate building. This church has a strategic location and a great door of opportunity opening before it.

The Work of the Minister, always difficult, is difficult in the present because of the far reaching changes going on in the minds of the people. When America set out to educate all of the people, she started a program which is revolutionary. With our schools, high schools, junior colleges, and colleges, with our technical and professional schools, universities and post graduate institutions, more people have received a higher education than ever before.

For the first time we have a generation in control of affairs in the state and church, which is scientifically minded. This generation does not approach religion from the standpoint of the theological or metaphysical ideas of a century ago. It looks at the world as it is, collects data, organizes it and draws conclusions which it considers valid for present practical purposes, even though they do not correspond with the views of the fathers.

It is interesting and profitable to observe how this generation responds to the evangelistic efforts which are being made today. When approached in the way to which their minds have been trained, people respond to the spiritual appeals of Christ as they have ever done.

In our district, this year, there have been a number of union evangelistic campaigns in which our pastors and people have participated. Several revival meetings have been held in local churches, conducted by outside evangelists. All have done some good, and pastors bear witness to that, but on the whole, they have been disappointing. Mass movements toward religious life and faith that saves are right, but the man who comes before a community to represent the religion of Christ, must have the training that enables him to know how to interpret Him to a scientifically trained generation, if he would get a wide hearing. We have many pastors now, many the product of our colleges and seminaries, who command the respect and are eagerly listened to by the people. Some of these men are in small places, some in large. It would be difficult to follow them with a dogmatist anywhere. The church needs evangelists, highly trained for their tasks. It is futile for a man who has not been able to pass the tests for conference membership to decide that he "Has a call to the evangelistic field." Faithful pastoral labor, by a godly minister who has interpreted the past and knows Christ, taking people singly and in groups, beginning where they are and leading them on, is both popular with the people and has been found successful as a method in building the kingdom.

Special Mention. At Livingston where about one-half of the church is Japanese, where three members of the Official Board are of that race and 60% of the Sunday School, an interesting field is offered for the study of race relations. The Japanese are highly respected and there has been little friction within the church on account of them. However, disillusionment comes when they try to realize the same situation in wider relationships. The pastor, W. S. Matson, won the $500 prize offered by the American Eugenics Society for the best sermon on eugenics. This enabled him to take a trip to the Orient, visiting in China, Japan and Korea for background. He will now be authority on Oriental American matters.

At Grace Church, Fresno, E. E. Marshall has come to a final decision that he should move to another work and turn over to another the affairs of Grace, after a pastorate of eleven years. The people resisted it as they have for four years. Brother and Sister Marshall have a way of winning the hearts of men and women and especially the children, to themselves and to Christ. He will leave as a result of his labor here, a $30,000 church plant, a group of young people who know what Christianity is, largely because of him, the love of a group with which he has worked, the respect of the entire city, and the tradition that in eleven strenuous years, he has never once lost his patience. Fortunate the church that secures his leadership.

Fresno, First Church, occupying a great field and with a loyal group of workers, is unique this year in one thing it is doing which I have never known another church to do. In the midst of its lean financial situation, it has paid $18,000 on its indebtedness. This church has raised and paid this year, a budget of $41,000.

R. N. Merrill of First Church, Long Beach, came to our Epworth League Institute this year, as a member of the faculty. He did us splendid service, but he took away, to be Minister of Education at the great church of which he is pastor, K. L. Danskin of Del Rey, our leader of Recreational Activities at the institute and Pastoral Advisor for the District Epworth League. Fortunate Long Beach.

Taft has had three happy years under the pastorate of W. L. Summers. Everything is going well, a fortunate situation for the launching of a building effort to secure a new church plant.

At Kingsburg, the Swedish Church has voted to become an English speaking church, and C. H. Sundstrum who has served them for ten years wishes to turn this people over to another leader. He has had a wonderful pastorate and is greatly beloved.

B. C. Brewster of Mountain View, on account of serious illness in his family, is requesting of the conference, the Supernumerary Relation.

E. Klawiter, pastor of the German Church, Fresno, on account of deafness, as well as advancing years, will ask for the Retired Relation.

Lemoore was visited in the early summer by a disastrous fire which destroyed a large part of the church. The damage was covered by insurance. The property is now repaired and M. S. McGee, who is serving his fifth year as pastor, is planning for a larger program than ever, during the coming year.

For the fine fellowships, for numerous courtesies unflinching, for the hospitality of parsonage homes and those of the laymen, for willing assistance freely given in difficult places, delightful friendships constantly enjoyed, and for the privilege of serving the most alluring and compelling cause which we know, and for numerous evidences that there is walking with us in this service, a Master presence whom though unseen, we love, I express unstinted gratitude and thanks to Almighty God.

CHARLES D. LEWIS

LONG BEACH DISTRICT REPORT

I herewith present my final report for the Long Beach District:

Interconference Appointments: Jan. 16, Alfred C. Abbe was released from the pastorate at San Miguel and later appointed to Zelzah.

April 1st. Henry I. Rasmus, Jr., of Paso Robles was appointed pastor of Mount Olive in Los Angeles and Waldo Reinoehl of St. Luke's Los Angeles was appointed to Paso Robles.

April 17th, I. Frank Roach of First Church, Long Beach, and Richard N. Merrill of Miami, Florida, exchanged pastorates. Brother Merrill has found ready entrance into the heart beat of his church, city and conference. His brotherly spirit, willingness to share his splendid personality, his interest in putting the vast resources of his church back of all our connectional interests, assures a guaranteed leadership of which we will be proud.

Claude A. Smith, who for five years with remarkable success served First Church, Long Beach, as the Director of Religious Education, was appointed to the same position in First Church, Pasadena, August 1st.

On Sept. 1st, Kenneth L. Danskin of Del Rey and Kemp J. Winkler of Chatsworth were appointed to First Church, Long Beach, as Director of Religious Education and Associate Pastor.

R. W. Plannette of Fillmore and Grover Ralston of Wilmington were granted special leave of absence June 1st.

With sadness of heart, I record the death of Mrs. S. S. Sampson of Huntington Park, Sept. 11th.

Francis Marilyn Gilbert was born to the parsonage home in South Gate, April 6th. Lenore Wilson Abbe, to the parsonage home in Zelzah, June 3rd. Patricia Ann Evans to the home of Capt. Ted Evans, our Conference Evangelist, Sept. 1st.

The marriages of Harvey H. Hocker and Miss Mable Steel occurred in Santa Barbara, Oct. 1st, 1928; and Howard C. Taylor and Miss Helen Marie Dohner, Sept. 14th, 1929, in San Luis Obispo.

Clyde P. Metcalf of Owensmouth, early in the conference year was critically injured when struck by a passing automobile. He has rendered our conference and church a significant ministry and now requests the Retired Relation.

Mrs. E. J. Bradner, critically ill for the year, is now making progress toward recovery.

Young People: The District Epworth League Convention held at Ventura had over 500 registered delegates, the largest in our district history.

J. L. Corley has visited 20 churches during the year. Seventeen Standard Training schools have been held with 1099 students. Fourteen Daily Vacation Bible Schools were held with an enrollment of 2693. Possibly the most significant development on the Long Beach District this year is the plan to inaugurate week day religious education at the Horace Mann School in Long Beach.

We have added a thousand increase each year in the church schools enrollment, and the average attendance has risen from 10,000 to 14,221. Practically 5,000 young folk have been received into church membership.

Pastoral Items: The pastors report 1474 received by transfer, 575 confession of faith, 704 preparatory memberships, a total of 1753; 920 transferred to other churches, 80 withdrawn, 225 deceased. There have been received into preparatory membership this year 480; 966 have received Christian baptism, 380 adults, 570 infants; 48 weeks of special evangelistic meetings have been held by twenty-four of the churches. 44,306 pastoral calls have been made, 16 pastors have made 1000 or over. Santa Monica leads with 4002 for the two pastors.

Increased Salaries: Thirteen churches have promised increases, totaling $4760. Artesia, Paul J. Kluth, $200; Compton, Harvey H. Hocker, $300; Huntington Park, S. S. Sampson, $300; Lompoc, Governor Porter, $300; Atlantic Ave., Don S. Ford, $500; E. Long Beach, R. K. Swenerton, $300; North Long Beach, W. C. Eddy, $240; Piru, Frank Toothaker, $600; Seal Beach, Fred R. Moseley, $300; Torrance, R. A. Young, $520; Zelzah, Alfred C. Abbe, $300; Magnolia Park, T. C. Harrison, $200; Grace—Inglewood, Dan Miller, $200; Ventura, Fred B. Trotter, $500.

Buildings: Ventura. The new church in Ventura was dedicated Sunday, December 16th. The pastor, Fred B. Trotter has given this church five years of superb leadership. He presents to Ventura City and conference the finest Protestant church in the county. The structure is complete, having a unit for education, a unit for worship, a unit for recreation, cost $125,000, paid $80,000, debt $35,000, $20,000 in subscription and all is provided except $15,000. The pipe organ, costing $6,500, was the gift of Mr. and Mrs. Russell Walker.

Sunday afternoon, March 10th, the new church in Lynwood was dedicated in the presence of the largest number of people ever assembled at a religious service in that city. The cost of the church is practically $40,000 which represents an investment of $200 per capita for its membership. The pastor, W. W. Ralph, was appointed to this church three years ago. The income of the church has been about $1,000 a month for three years. The membership and pastor deserve great credit.

1. Magnolia Park. 2. Grace, Inglewood. 3. Huntington Park.
4. Maywood. 5. Lynwood. 6. Davidson City. 7. Ventura.

Magnolia Park: T. C. Harrison has given magnificent leadership. The church stands on a prominent corner of Magnolia Boulevard and Catalina Street, the lot costing $6,500. The building cost $30,000, paid to date $16,000 in cash, and $14,000 more is covered in good subscriptions. Bishop Charles Wesley Burns dedicated the church, June 2nd. This church organization, only three years old, bids fair to become in five years one of the greatest churches in the San Fernando Valley.

Sunday afternoon, September 1st, the new church of Davidson City costing $10,000 was dedicated. The fraternal spirit of Long Beach and other churches toward this enterprise is a bright memory. Too much credit cannot be given J. H. Rodgers, a layman, and C. W. Shearer, the preacher, for this striking achievement. The church is paid for and a home to be used as a parsonage has been given to the church.

Ralph W. Lee of Simi, utilizing his Men's Brotherhood, has purchased the old church sold two years ago, for $1,000 and donated it to the Latin American Mission. His quarterly conference stated they expected to pay monthly on the Mexican pastor's support, and to assist the Mexicans by instituting a night school for them in the church.

Three years ago we considered abandoning Grace Church, Inglewood. That year Dan Miller became its pastor. He has renovated the church, built a parsonage and garage, and is now completing an Educational Unit, costing $4,600. The only indebtedness on all three improvements is $1,800 and they have doubled the pastoral support.

The Cudahy church has been moved to Maywood, Harold J. Smith is leading his people in the task of remodeling and enlarging it. The building will be used as the Sunday School unit in their building program, and is valued at $7,000.

The growing church of Torrance, led by R. A. Young, has complete plans for a social hall and church auditorium to match their present Educational Plant, and they are now engaged in building one section costing $3,500. $825 has been spent painting and improving the present unit.

Fred R. Moseley, pastor at Seal Beach, has completed a remodeling and enlarging program, costing $1,800 and payment of the mortgage of $2,300. The City Missionary Society gave them $1,000 and they paid the balance. This is a remarkable feat for Seal Beach.

Glenn R. Phillips, under the pressure of constant growth, was compelled to build an addition to the church auditorium of North Hollywood costing $6,000. His pastorate here is one of the outstanding district achievements. As District advisor on Evangelism, he rendered service to our pastors this year.

S. S. Sampson, enjoying the continual growth in membership in Huntington Park Church and a Sunday School enrollment of 1927, with an average attendance of 1158, built this year a Sunday School unit costing $15,000. The whole church plant has been splendidly decorated and painted on the exterior.

C. B. Dalton, pastor at Redondo Beach, early in the conference year, with the aid of the Brotherhood built a recreational hall costing $2500.

New Parsonages: Kemp J. W. Winkler and wife of Chatsworth have been the happy occupants of the new six room parsonage, dedicated October 28th, costing $3,666. They have paid to date $2,100.

Harvey H. Hocker and family have recently moved into the new seven room parsonage at Compton. The total cost was $5,100 and is all paid.

Atlantic Boulevard, under the leadership of its pastor, Harold J. Smith, moved the old parsonage from Cudahy to Maywood. Complete reconstruction now provides a parsonage of six rooms thoroughly modern, worth $5,000.

Redondo Beach was provided a new parsonage through the generous offer of Mrs. Rebecca J. Palmer. Her fine home valued at $8,000 was exchanged for the old parsonage. The church received the property without encumbrance, she receiving the old parsonage and an annuity of 6% on $3,000.

Churches Discontinued: The territory in which the Palomar church is located united with Lynwood, making it unnecessary for us to continue two churches.

Our church in Tujunga has built a $50,000 church which is able to care for all the religious needs of this area and since there could be no future to Tujunga Terrace we have closed it this year and its half dozen members joined our nearest Methodist churches. I am requesting that when final disposition of the property is made the proceeds be divided, giving Paso Robles Church $1,000, the balance to be applied on the indebtedness of the Roscoe Church. Cabinet action was taken on this matter in according with the discipline. A restrictive clause in the deeds has prevented sale of the property.

New Property: Paul Huebner has purchased a lot costing $1200 as the location for a new parsonage at Oxnard and has completed payments on pipe organ and installed furnace at a cost of $1570.

B. L. Jennings, at a cost of $20,000, has purchased a splendid corner on Lincoln Boulevard as the location for the new church in Venice.

Property Improvements: J. E. Houlgate of Van Nuys spent $3,132 installation of an Estey Pipe Organ and enlargement of the choir loft. The streets have been paved around the church and the total appearance of the church property is greatly improved.

John Oliver, our conference host, has spent $4,800 in a new roof, decorating the church and purchasing new carpets.

Other Property Improvements: Bardsdale, $550; Burbank, $150; Compton, $200; El Segundo, $60; Home Gardens, $100; Hynes, $207; Huntington Park, $407; Inglewood, First, $460; Lompoc, $350; Spaulding, $51; Piru, $528; Lynwood, $250; Redondo Beach, $250; San Fernando, $750; San Miguel parsonage, $400; Grand View, $300; Santa Maria, $150; Santa Monica, $300; Sepulveda, $50; Torrance, $825; Watts, $60; Whittier, $638. Total $16,276. Paid $11,155.

Church Debts: East Long Beach, R. K. Swenerton, pastor, was the church designated in 1925 as the church with the largest per capita debt; 200 members and $40,000 debt. They have paid this year $5,2000, reducing their debt to $23,350, an average of $3,330 every year since the church was built.

Belmont Heights, Long Beach, E. J. Inwood, pastor, in 1923 reported a debt of $60,000 and a membership of 308. By paying $5000 this year the debt is reduced to $22,550; an average of $6242 every year since the church was built.

Other churches are following their good example. Santa Barbara, $6,000; Atlantic Avenue, Long Beach, $5,000; El Segundo, $5,084; Redondo, $5,494; Huntington Park, $4,000; First, Long Beach, $28,000. Altogether 27 churches have paid a total of $83,693 on old indebtedness. From 1923 to 1929, $529,469 has been paid, an average of $88,245 every year.

The San Miguel Circuit, composed of San Miguel, Estrella, Shandon and Creston, will be coupled with Paso Robles next year under the Larger Parish Plan.

The District Meeting: Laymen and ministers from all sections of the district gathered April 17th in First Church, Long Beach, for the District Meeting. It was a great day of inspiration and challenge, and dedication to the tasks of World Service. Designated gifts were voted as follows: $20,000 for San Pedro Indebtedness; $4,000 for Spanish American Institute at Gardena; $2,000 for special work on the Madras District in India under the leadership of Dr. Kingham.

Long Beach Harbor District Missionary Society: A joint quarterly conference of the churches comprising the Harbor District was held at First Church, Long Beach, Tuesday evening, June 15, 1929. Five hundred people gathered for the banquet on this notable occasion. After thorough discussion of the vital needs, it was unanimously voted to organize a missionary society; and to ask the churches for an offering of fifty cents per capita for the needy churches. Davidson City and Seal Beach were designated to receive $1,000 each for immediate needs.

A vote was taken at a meeting of the officers in Grace Church June 31st, authorizing the officers to legally incorporate the society that it may receive gifts, annuities, etc. I am of the firm conviction that the laymen and ministers within the next few years will build up a reserve fund that will enable them to keep pace with the ever increasing developing territory. The churches in San Pedro, Wilmington, Terminal Island, Davidson City, Seal Beach comprise the society. Officers elected are: President, H. Rae Simonson; Vice-President, John Foster, Jr.; Treasurer, C. T. Walker; Secreary, R. K. Swenerton.

A wonderful spirit of good will prevails. We have divided the city responsibilities of our weaker churches in the following manner. First Church, the responsibilities for California Heights, Atlantic Avenue, Signal Hill; Grace Church, North Long Beach; Belmont Heights, the territory east to Seal Beach. The shepherd spirit of these stronger churches will guarantee life and success to these weaker fields.

Women's Organizations:—The Ladies' Aid, The Woman's Foreign Missionary Society and the Woman's Home Missionary Society have had a splendid year.

The loyalty of the women on this district is truly characterized in the trenchant word of Mrs. J. J. Bryant, Corresponding Secretary of Woman's Foreign Missionary Society, "There has been this year a very keen interest and a deeper spiritual sense of the needs than ever before."

The Ladies' Aids have made 62,637 calls, and raised $56,400 in cash. Woman's Foreign Missionary Society. Members 6054, a gain of 7½%. Offering $28,372, a gain of $2,635 over last year.

Woman's Home Missionary Society. Members 2,793. Offering, $23,674.11 cash, and $5,169.34 cash supplies.

World Service and Designated Projects: The arrangement made with the World Service Council, allowing credit on the apportionment for designated projects, has met with enthusiastic favor, and has been conducive in creating a splendid morale for World Service.

San Pedro was designated by the district meeting to receive $20,000, and $17,500 has been paid by the district. E. E. Helms of First Church, Los Angeles, gave us $1,500. Merle N. Smith of First Church, Pasadena, $1,000; total $20,000. These outside gifts enabled us to meet the full $20,000.

San Pedro put on a campaign for $20,000 to match the designated gifts over a three year period. It subscribed the $20,000 and has paid to date $3,300 on its debt and all its interest.

Spiritual life and progressive church administration is greatly on the increase under the leadership of Fred H. Ross. By Quarterly Conference action they voted to use their church on the Larger Parish Plan basis. The racial groups of the city will be organized under First Church leadership with the privilege of using its building. We shall couple Grand View and Terminal Island Churches with First Church and B. C. Cory, its supply pastor, will be on the pastoral staff.

Dr. J. J. Kingham of the Madras District in India was pledged $2,000 and we have paid $2,292.

The Spanish American Institute of Gardena was pledged $4,000, and we have paid $5,000.

World Service: Santa Monica leads with a gain of $1,800, Huntington Park second, $1,571 gain; Grace, Long Beach, third with $1,038 gain, and Santa Paula fourth with a gain of $683.

First Church, Long Beach leads with the largest offering, $18,179, and Whittier second with $7,400.

The total offering will be over $78,000, an increase of over $8,000.

Summary: During the six years, 29 new church buildings have been erected and dedicated, 15 parsonages and 16 educational buildings constructed, 13 have changed locations. The minutes reveal the property valuation in 1923 to be $1,827,626, this year $3,367,950—an increase of $1,549,324. In 1923, 14,550 members were reported, this year 19,822—an increase of 5,272.

The salaries of the men have also increased. In 1923 the average salary, including house rent, was $2,155; this year $2,790. The total givings to missions and disciplinary apportionments increased. In 1923 at the peak of our Centenary giving the total receipts were $121,056; this year, $132,329, a total increase of $11,000. When churches give sacrificially they do not die, but discover fountains of real life. The total for disciplinary benevolences for the six years is $803,000.

These statistics indicate the fact that the abundant life is to be found in successfully giving away the life you have.

To Bishop Adna Wright Leonard, who appointed me to this task; to E. J. Inwood, who bequeathed to me a district well-manned with splendid morale; to Bishop Charles Wesley Burns for his multitudinous labors in our behalf; to Bishops Edwin H. Hughes, Francis J. McConnell and Charles L. Mead, with whom I have had the privilege of service in our cabinet; to the Board of Home Missions and Church Extension for aid granted; to the members of the Cabinet for fine comradeship; to the supply preachers; the unexcelled laymen of our churches, the wonderful group of ministers and their families who have wrought the achievements comprising this report: I acknowledge a worthy sense of debtorship and gratitude. With joy I bequeath to my successor the greatest group of laymen and ministers it has been my privilege to know.

Clyde M. Crist was not an easy man to follow. He left a six years' record of enviable results; he was generally popular; and his assignments of pastors left to his successor was all that could be desired. There has been no break in these during the year.

Two of our parsonage homes have experienced the deep sorrow of the loss of wife and mother. But little over one month after last year's session, Mrs. J. F. Humphrey, wife of our pastor at Brawley, was suddenly stricken and in a few days crossed the threshold into the eternal. Shortly before Easter the "gates of death" opened to Mrs. George A. Warmer, wife of our pastor of First Church, Santa Ana. These two households found hosts of friends who gave them unstinted, warm-hearted, support in their dark hours.

No other serious illness has visited our pastors and families, excepting Brother Warmer, who, after another critical surgical operation, is with us to-day in robust health.

A baby boy has come to bless the home of the Chamberlins of Santa Fe Springs, and a baby has been added to the Williams family of Elsinore.

Two honored members of this Conference ask for the Retired Relation, Brother Sheridan Phillips, age limit, and Brother J. F. Humphrey, for physical disability.

In as concise a form as possible I will present the items which have come to me promptly from all the pastors.

CHURCH DEDICATIONS: At Fullerton on Sunday morning, April 14th, the beautiful new edifice valued at $196,000, including the $10,000 pipe organ, was dedicated by Bishop Burns. The finances are in good shape, and less than $20,000 is yet to be raised. This church has increased its membership 55; its World Service $438; and salary $400.

On the same afternoon the Banning church was dedicated, also by Bishop Burns. The total cost of this church building, an unusual one for the sized community, is but $34,851, including a $5000 pipe organ. The entire sum is provided for.

Our Santa Ana First church. A most complete, in every particular, Church School Unit, costing $100,000, was dedicated the first Sunday in March by Bishop Burns. The financial obligations are fully met. In addition to the ample quarters for every Church School Department; the full basement dining room, where it is possible to seat 600, and where an average of 550 have attended the mid-week Church night during the winter series; a complete kitchen; there is a beautiful and artistically appointed chapel for the holding of devotional meetings and marriages and memorial services.

The membership of this church has increased 100, the pastor's salary has been advanced $600; and the World Service will show a total of $7624.

Normal Heights, San Diego was our chief problem as we took the District last October. The membership of the church there rallied to the pastor's leadership. San Diego Methodist got behind the project, as well as the entire District. The Board of Home Missions allocated $20,000 designated World Service Funds. Dr. Walter Torbet, Western Representative of that Board, gave of his time to engineer the finances. Mr. C. W. Wilson, President of the San Diego City Missionary Society, acted as treasurer and stabilized the finances and secured the cooperation of the creditors until we have finally handled the general church grants and the like. The debt of over $60,000 has been reduced now to $51,000. With the sale of some lots, the subscriptions secured during the dedication period and the ultimate paying in of the $20,000 World Service Funds, and the refinancing of obligations, we see the clearing of the entire indebtedness within three years.

Bishop Burns was present on Sunday, April 28th, and dedicated Magnolia. About three years ago the Alamorio church building was completely destroyed by fire. During this year a new site was purchased at Magnolia and a new building erected at a cost of $10,000. It is a marvel for beauty and utility as a rural church. The art glass windows are memorials. But $400 remains to be paid on this enterprise. It was dedicated on June 16th, by the district superintendent.

NEW PROJECTS: Central Church, San Diego, one of our oldest in that city, has been condemned, but by the officials complying with certain requirements of the city Inspector, temporary occupancy was granted. The membership has been much reduced by removals, but these people are among the bravest and most loyal I have even known. Plans have been accepted and work is soon to begin on the new plant, consisting of an ideal worship unit and Church School and Social unit. The total cost will approximate $25,000. The Home Mission Board has granted the request for a $2500 revolving loan, and the old building material provides $10,000 to $15,000. The balance is being provided for by subscriptions.

Here at Point Loma, San Diego, we have a society but one and one-half years old. The membership has grown from eleven to nearly one hundred, and the Church School correspondingly. The work of the church has been carried on in a Merry-go-Round building, and pastor and people have kept things in a whirl. A lot was purchased early in the conference year, and the corner stone of the first unit was laid Sept. 8th. This will cost $15,500, and will house all departments until the entire plant may be completed. We are hoping that the Board of Home Mission and Church Extension will grant $2000 from the Opportunity Fund.

IMPROVEMENTS: We have paid on improvements at Escondido, First,—$1122; Fallbrook, $400; Hemet, $1300; Holtville, $1175; Nestor, annex, $1800; Riverside, Arlington, $1000; Riverside, First, $1500; San Diego, Asbury, $1000; Mission Hills, $300; Inwood, $1200; German, $700.

New Pipe Organs: First Church, San Diego, has installed a $25,000 Pilcher Pipe Organ, and recarpeted the auditorium at a further cost of $4000. Banning's pipe organ cost $500, and Costa Mesa, $4000. Asbury, San Diego, has ordered a Pilcher Organ of similar value, and a couple of months ago was presented with a memorial Electric Lighted Cross.

DEBT PAYING: Elsinore, $500; Garden Grove, $2300; Indio (bal.) $120; Orange, $1800; Riverside, First, $1000; Tustin, $829; San Diego, Mission Hills, $1000; Inwood, $200; Park Boulevard, $3100 ($2100 of which was interest; Trinity, $650; Anaheim, First, $8500.

Totals reported to me: For new projects, $116,635; on debts, $21,202; improvements, $32,534.

Advances. The indications from advance reports from the changes indicate a net increase of 1040 in church membership, $3000 in World Service, and net increase in pastor's salaries for the ensuing year, $2270.

RELIGIOUS EDUCATION AND EVANGELISM: Gradually the adjustment to the new order is being made. The hope for the church of to-morrow is to be found in Religious Education, and this, more and more, is to be charged with a mighty passion of spiritual power.

We are doing more in evangelism than we give ourselves the credit. That pastor who reported that he had within a short period received 29 at the altar of his church for renewal of covenant, following pastoral visits with wise personal work, had as much reason to report 29 conversions as in the former days the same number had responded under the order of that period in a revival meeting.

OUR YOUNG PEOPLE: The young people of our churches in the District are a great joy to me. The Epworth League has functioned in a most successful way. It has been my pleasure to meet with the District Groups often. The Convention at Arlington, Riverside, was largely attended; the program was of a high order; the plans for the year were far-reaching. This convention was followed by Retreats in which as many were reached as in the convention. A plan was put in operation to unite the Imperial Valley Group with the San Diego city and county group. The first meeting together was held in the Laguna Mountains June 7-10. The institute at Idyllwild was attended by many of our best young leaders.

WOMEN'S SOCIETIES: The W. F. M. S. and the W. H. M. S. continue to give their members information about their lines of work, and to get the money for foreign and home missions.

The Ladies' Aid Society, called the greatest money-raising agency of the church, continues to be, but has added a more important adjunct. Now the calls match the dollars, and this year they come so near being on a par that I am warranted in reporting that in San Diego District they have raised $45,000 and made 45,000 calls, beside the thousands of bouquets sent to the sick and the sorrowing and the shut-ins.

SAN DIEGO CITY MISSIONARY SOCIETY: This organization, which is quite new, is carrying on a very important work for the success of San Diego Methodism. The meetings held monthly with dinner and fellowship and program has lifted materially the morale of our city Methodism, and has united our membership in backing every needed enterprise in which the church ought to interest itself. It gave incalculable stimulus to the Normal Heights situation, and has backed with sympathetic interest and thousands of dollars every church project in the city. Our great First Church and pastor has been the aggressor in this movement, and has been joined by every other church and pastor.

SOME IMPRESSIONS: Dr. Hollingshead, travelling with me the fore part of the year, taking a map of the State, and drawing a line through Santa Fe Springs, remarked, "You have the only Southern California Conference; the rest is up-state." The City of San Diego with its 160,000 is a Protestant city and a Methodist city. We are well planted with the ten churches we now have. We should have three additional ones immediately. Add to this the county by the same name. Drive up the Coast to Huntington Beach and note the new town sites and the growth of every town and city. Pick out those allocated to us for care and the places on that Coast where we should have new Methodist Churches.

Then visit the large and rich domain of Orange County, where perhaps we do not have the need for outside help, but still a few places where we ought to strengthen the present churches and add a new structure or two. Riverside County, with the city of Riverside of 32,000 population, with three Methodist Churches, led by First Church carrying on successfully, and faithful to the Kingdom interests. That county from Corona to Blythe is as wide as the state of Missouri and the north and south dimensions of Iowa. The superintendent to administer Blythe must travel by train from San Diego, and the round trip involves 922 miles. Think of the vast stretches in that county untouched.

Then take the drop from Beaumont at 2500 feet above sea level to the sub-sea-level of Imperial County—an Empire. Already that Valley is experiencing the thrill of a new movement anticipating the building of the great Boulder Dam. We have but two church buildings in that section of which we may be proud,—at Magnolia and the new Japanese Church at Brawley. El Centro is the metropolis of the Imperial Valley. I was there Sunday and found a different spirit,—one of enthusiasm and desire to relocate and build adequately, and the assurance they will do their part. Brawley, with the finest site imaginable, ready to respond to a leadership that will rally the forces and build on that corner. Holtville, where we have more than held our own, but with inadequate equipment for such a growing group of young people, and every organization well programmed, but an embarrassing debt hinders. For all this vast area and the imperative needs, the Church Extension Society is able only to allocate $1000 per annum. Methodism must find a way to furnish the needed challenge to these important centers and needy fields. World Service is better understood and appreciated and the response is accordingly better. But, of the 60 charges, eleven raise three-fourths of the total World Service and five-sixths of the total for all benevolences and claims. This is no reflection on the balance of the churches, many of these represent more of effort and sacrifice, than some larger churches. Again, I am impressed with the need of doing what some are doing, viz., add young men to our official boards.

Then we need to cultivate that too large percentage of our church members who very seldom, some never, attend the services of the church, nor contribute to its support.

We have held during the year four group meetings, one in each division of this district territory. Really these constitute four district conferences.

Six of the smaller charges will be combined into three, with considerably more support and this will furnish additional appointments for three conference men.

To the pastors and laymen of the San Diego District for the hearty and cordial support they have given me this year, for their manifold courtesies and their cordial hospitality which have greatly heartened me, and to the other cabinet members and Bishop Burns and Bishop Hughes for their consideration, I desire to express my sincere appreciation.

J. LEWIS GILLIES

LOS ANGELES DISTRICT

Local and Individual: In concluding six years of service I cannot go into personalities, with "small" exceptions—three of which are John Wesley Robinson, Jr., Robert Louis McKibben, and Larelle Frances Engle, parsonage arrivals, properly "trailing clouds of glory."

To be strictly up to date I should bring to you an exhibit of graphs, with a diagram of rising and falling lines of achievement, based upon columns of statistics. I shall refer the census-minded to the archives of our most worthy Brother O. W. Reinius, and his accomplices, and recommend that you make your own graphs, excepting these facts:

In the six years, from October 1st, 1923, to date, Los Angeles district reports the following:

Increase in Church Property, above indebtedness—$1,391,900. Present value of property—$4,578,000. Present indebtedness—$615,527. Indebtedness in 1923—$271,720. Increase in Church membership (not including inactive)—3,158. Present number of Inactive Members—1,657. Present membership (including probationers)—21,168. Increase in Salaries—$32,314.

A movement of people unequalled in history has posited its apex on the Los Angeles District. The city has increased in population 100,000 annually during my term—an immigration greater than the movement of Goths, Huns or Vandals. Probably an equal number has also spread out fanwise along the narrow rim of coast where the climate is so enchanting. Meanwhile the bewildering social, economic, mechanical and moral revolutions swirl about us until William James' description of life as it appears to a newborn child is apropos—"a blooming, buzzing confusion."

The entire church system is involved in precedents and traditions which are now invalid; bewildered leaders grope while organized Christianity crumbles and Protestantism bleeds to death from the loss of communicants who do not endure transplanting to the Coast. Meanwhile the sheer necessity constantly presses upon us to lay foundations, while we still have the day of opportunity. Certainly these years have not been monotonous.

New movements and new requirements crowd us. Perhaps chief among them in insistence is the effort to evangelize by education and to develop a spiritual life which will survive all changes because it is vital, not static. In addition to the older traditions of the college, which indeed seems to be waning as a church responsibility, we have had the fine leadership of the Board of Education, under J. L. Corley, who for ten years has blazed the trail over which our hosts are passing toward the Promised Land of trained teacherhood. Educational Directors are functioning in our larger churches in close contact with the denominational program; many of our churches regularly hold Vacation Bible Schools. Frequently we cooperate with other denominations, an excellent way to promote the unity of Protestantism. The Epworth Leagues are leading in the difficult task of correlation.

For a time the apparent demand for community programs led our people who were building to adventure in ministering to the social and athletic needs of neighborhoods.

This involves special edifices and a greater number of employed workers, and might even alter the historic objective of the churches. The development of such enterprises entails heavy financial obligations. Now the Public Schools, Y. M. and Y. W. C. A., and Athletic Clubs, are putting in playgrounds, courts, gymnasia, etc., and it seems probable that our churches will revert to a simpler program; perhaps in the reaction we may again make a more definite effort to evangelize our neighbors.

The social changes, the alteration of transportation, the demand for an elaborate program requiring a staff of workers, for costlier music, etc., is eliminating the small church. A civilization which erects its palaces of marble and steel for its banks, towering city halls, its great chambers of commerce, will not long worship the Deity in shabby shacks on obscure streets, a la Browning's Dissenters' Chapel in his "Christmas Eve." Parish boundaries are utterly impossible for us Methodists, despite the occasional demand of some minister who finds people next door to his church going downtown—or at least telling him that they do.

The quickened movement for Americanization since the war has brought several foreign language churches into our Conference and District. Their problem is not yet solved. We who have sent many missionaries to foreign lands find that God has tilted the earth, and lo! we are invaded by a polyglot of tongues surpassing the throng in Jerusalem on Pentecost. Their children are Americans, they are taking prizes in athletics, honors in high schools and colleges, marrying our sons and daughters. That moribund Quarterly Conference "Committee on Foreign Language Peoples" has a worthwhile job ahead, and our "100 per cent Americans" must overcome race prejudice and win these peoples into Christian experience and church membership.

Denominational Cooperation: The Anti-Saloon League, great consolidation of Protestantism against the liquor business, has proved invaluable; it is more greatly needed today than ever before, and our people will continue cordially to support it. The State Church Federation, whose Secretary, F. M. Larkin, has received the highest honors this conference can give a member, functions in its field. The City Church Federation makes a constantly increasing effort to do the things for which united evangelicalism is responsible in Los Angeles. Our Denominational Superintendents' Council is steadily endeavoring to prevent unwholesome rivalry in the establishment of churches and Sunday Schools. Out of this has grown the University Religious Conference, unique as a combination of Roman Catholics, Jews and Protestants, to care for the spiritual life of students in the U. C. L. A. W. C. Buckner and several of our laymen represent us efficiently in this new and remarkable work. The United Church Brotherhoods has become a potent factor in civic and political life.

Los Angeles Missionary and Church Extension Society: This organization must be the great dynamo for our City work. Many churches are feeble, and if a little help can be given at the right time may grow into mighty organizations.

Policy: Annually I have submitted to you my policy, and I now sum it up as follows:

1. The Church should minister to life. Where weak churches could be consolidated with goodwill, and made more efficient, I helped to do it. Mergers were made: Epworth with Echo Park; Pico with Arlington Heights on the new site—Saint Paul's; Saint James with University; Westlake with Wilshire; Moneta with Gardena. Each of these which has had sufficient time to test by results, is justified. Churches are not to be merged for the purpose of eliminating the sacrificial element in sustaining them, but solely to increase efficiency and advance the Kingdom.

2. Use no missionary money except where it might produce results. This policy has been followed as closely as possible, and led to the discontinuance of Elysian, Brooklyn Heights and East 38th Street. I have established but two new churches—Saint Luke's and Westwood.

3. Carry on inherited projects. This has been done faithfully where vitality warranted it. The Church of All Nations had its inception in other years; we organized and promoted and completed the building enterprises during this administration, aided by the Conference subscriptions of some $70,000, and the munificent donations of Messrs. Bush and Voorhis, and the family of Walter Fisher. The Hollenbeck Center (Grace Church), the Pacific Palisades Association, the Methodist Hospital, have had my sympathetic and active cooperation.

4. To Persuade Quarterly Conferences. Sometimes the effort was successful; sometimes it failed. Frequently church sites are chosen without consultation either with the District Superintendent or other authorities; indeed there was no Board of Church Location existing in the entire Conference during the first year of my administration. I constituted one for the District, arbitrarily, because we needed it.

5. Endeavor to encourage and assist pastors. I have worked in close sympathy with the pastors.

6. To inculcate loyalty to our great denomination, to its leadership under the Bishops, to my comrades, to the conference. I have faithfully administered in accord with the expressed wishes of the conference, even when my own opinion differed.

7. Young ministers. I have felt it my privilege to give especial attention to the young ministers; to encourage those who show evidence of the Divine Call, and of the development into usefulness; quietly and kindly scrutinize all who come under my administration, discouraging those who plainly lacked the elements of success. The tragedy of the church is the minister who mistook his calling, the man who never should have been received into the conference.

8. Strategic Points. As heretofore reported, we have stressed some carefully determined strategical locations, in some of which substantial assistance has been received from the Board of Home Missions and Church Extension, and some of which we have been able to aid from the City Society.

These are: Melrose Park, where we moved Larchmont Heights Church more than a mile to the southwest, giving it a fine field unoccupied by any other church, where E. H. Nicholson has been skillfully handling the serious problems produced by financial and other calamities happening to a devoted people. Florence Avenue, where Russell E. Clay has led in changes and readjustments with skilled management, until this historic organization now advances $600 per year in salary and has taken corresponding forward ground in other things. Santa Barbara Avenue, where Arthur T. Hobson has led in erecting the first unit of a beautiful Church.

Santa Barbara Ave., Los Angeles.

Within a few years one of the great churches of the Pacific slope will flourish at Gardena where "our folks" seriously undertook the plan of ministering to a community which is well populated but had not even a public hall, and as a result found themselves compelled to pay $1200 taxes in one year. The City Society came to their aid as much as possible, but a long pull is ahead before the church can do its real work in the community. After many years of struggles with poverty, in a field where the Presbyterians far surpassed us, Moneta finally voted to unite with Gardena, which can serve both communities, and henceforth are one.

Our first colored church, Wesley Chapel, for twelve years under the leadership of A. P. Shaw, has been obliged to find a new location, its constituency having entirely removed from the neighborhood of Eighth and San Julian Streets. After consulting with the Board of Church Location, and the Missionary Society, they bought on 46th and McKinley, the City Missionary Society assisting them. It is a fine, flourishing society, but its membership is of the poor and humble, with little means. The only way we can henceforth help our African brethren is by assisting their own churches. Hamilton, our other colored Church, S. M. Beane, pastor, is happy with the new organ, and doing excellently.

Saint Mark's is located at a vital point in the City's life. The struggle to minister in the broad community program tasks their means, and we have helped them substantially. On their part they have "played the game" loyally with our City and World Service program.

York Boulevard, William McKinley Walker, pastor, has neither so large a field nor program, but is a useful neighborhood church, through good leadership and the sacrificial lives of its devoted membership.

Annandale, Wilfred Kent, pastor, has a niche in the hills, with no other church near, where people largely own their homes but are of limited means. Their beautiful church is a blessing to the community, and the refinancing of their debt with City Missionary assistance will doubtless enable them to meet their responsibilities.

Woodcrest, 107th and Normandie, James E. Ferris, pastor, occupies a neighborhood which one day will contain one of Los Angeles' great churches. We have purchased a second lot to compensate for the widening of Normandie Avenue. Wilshire Church designated its subscription of $11,000 to our Methodist Extension Fund for this attractive work. We had expected to begin the chapel this summer, but were delayed. It ought to go forward within a short time.

University Church, through all its adventure and sorrows, has held together under William C. Hodgson's skillful, optimistic leadership. It is of extreme importance to the denomination and must have greater assistance than district funds can render, and they are promised one-tenth of the cost of the building from the Board of Home Missions and Church Extension through designated gifts. For the third time they have secured a location, and expect to build immediately.

Pacific Palisades has the first unit of its beautiful chapel well under way, under Alfred Inwood's leadership. Here, too, Church Extension funds have given substantial assistance, and we are greatly indebted to that princely friend of our work, Mr. R. C. Gillis, for a large contribution which enabled us to build. Bishop Brown laid the cornerstone, August 18th.

Our supreme adventure was seizing the strategic location at Wilshire Boulevard and Warner Avenue, aided by the Board of Home Missions and Church Extension. We purchased lots costing $50,000, where Westwood springs up as by miracle about the U. C. L. A. In our Loyalty Crusade, First Church subscribed $58,500, and designated it for that project. We secured a small committee of devoted men who studied the situation and decided that we must go forward and, in a manner congenial to the neighborhood. Paul H. Helms and wife gave us $25,000 in cash (in addition to $5,000 he had already subscribed), to enable us to build. Two splendid citizens—not Methodists—have gone on the Board of Trustees, Gordon B. Kauffman, Architect, and Director E. C. Moore of the State University. The new chapel is nearly completed, and a pastor will be appointed at this conference. Here is another Los Angeles instance of something for which we had no precedent—the buying of costly property and the erection of a building before we had a membership, but there was no other way as there was no place available for services or Sunday School. Many have performed notable service in Los Angeles, but I doubt if any name will ever shine in our galaxy more brightly than that of Elmer Ellsworth Helms. In appreciation of his notable work, the generosity of First Church, and the leadership of Paul H. Helms and wife, this unit has been named "Helms Chapel."

At First Church, Hollywood, Charles F. Seitter has patiently and diligently wrought against peculiar difficulties, and the beautiful structure now standing against the mountains and looking down Highland Avenue, its spire pointing men to the skies, is the answer. The laymen of this great church are entitled to a holy pride and gratification in the achievement.

Wilshire Church, Willsie Martin, pastor, has been consolidating and becoming homogeneous. It has secured a desirable location on the corner of Third Street and Arden Drive. The accomplishment of the task undertaken two years ago is yet distant; present holdings of the former Westlake Church and parsonage, and the present Wilshire property, must be disposed of and a large sum of money must be provided to erect the great temple, needed in this region.

Rosewood Church has been saved by the remarkable leadership of John Matthew Baxter. On every Sunday of his pastorate (except brief vacations) he has received members into this church; this year 93. He has built up a capable official board, paid the great overhead charges and $5,000 on the debt. The entire Conference and World Service apportionments are met in full. He and his noble wife are the answer to the Rosewood problem, as well as being the parents of Bruce and Martha!

Bethel, led by John Wesley Robinson and his delightful wife (and now by John Wesley, Jr.), occupies a splendid field and this year paid the church debt and Bishop Burns dedicated the building.

9. To Delevop American Churches. I have sometimes felt almost resentful at our conditions in this city, risen from a policy born out of sympathy for the underprivileged, which, by means of our divided responsibility, has poured missionary funds into the work for foreign language folk, but has had so very little for our American work, which after all must sustain the entire fabric of Home and Foreign Missions. The slow, far reaching socialization program certainly appeals to sympathies, but meanwhile our American churches are disappearing from the city, and we are not entering the new fields where within a brief time great populations will be located—a large proportion of which are Methodist material, and thus we are steadily losing this great city where we still are in the Day of Beginnings.

Those wise in city conditions have looked for some time with interest tinged with anxiety at Vincent, where the shadow of A. W. Lampport still rests "as a great rock in a weary land."

We have a triangle—Westland, Sunnyside, and a Sunday School at 109th Street. We must not permanently establish three weak churches to be nursed by mission funds; they should be consolidated. If a good church building can be erected it will minister to a large American population.

On the historic East side we have a situation growing yearly more complicated. Grace Church, under Carl Seitter; Euclid Heights, J. E. Dunning, Belvedere, H. C. Burgess, have all wrought diligently against overwhelming odds.

Finis: It will be permitted me for a few sentences to be personal. I was a young newspaper man in Lincoln, Nebraska, when One whom I had not seen, passed by, and I was changed. The Methodist Episcopal Church licensed me to preach three months after my wife and I became members; within six weeks I was made a pastor; in six months was taken into the Conference. For forty-one years my name has stood on Conference rolls, subject to annual appointment.

The early training as a newspaper man has occasionally asserted itself and finally broke forth in two volumes which have been published during this superintendency, both the result of the urging of congregations and ministers to which it was easy to yield.

The Methodist Episcopal Church has ever been kind to me; it loved and helped me while I struggled for an education; it trusted me with important fields of labor, some of which I conscientiously felt were beyond my ability, but I did my best. I have seldom spoken of the consecration I made when Thomas Bowman placed his hand upon my head and prayed—"Lord, fill him with the Holy Ghost." It was that I should not consciously seek my own advancement, but should serve Him with singleness of heart. To this hour I have never sought nor consciously influenced an appointment. I have not sought honors in rivalry with my brethren, nor to climb over another. To be one of you has been sufficient. My feet have stumbled, my eyes have seen dimly, my hands have been clumsy, my tongue has sometimes been too quick and sharp, but I have never used the church of my Lord as a ladder, nor sought my own promotion in it. God knows I have been full of faults, many of which today seem so unnecessary, but I have loved the Church, and have been dead in love with Jesus Christ.

These six intense, wearing, happy years have come to the end. I lay down my superintendency, always too big for me, with a feeling of relief, despite the natural reluctance to utter the words with which I shall close.

Among the heroic figures looming out of the mighty Past I greatly admire the Titan—Moses, and the way he completed his task. No District Superintendent, Bishop, nor Quarterly Conference rejected him because of his age, but, having made a full hand through life, "his eye was not dim nor his natural force abated." It was ideal that when he ceased "to make a full hand" he also ceased to live. This is not given to many of us; ours rather to yield reluctantly before the oncrowding young life, scarce admitting that we have reached the Indian summer. Yet we can meet "twilight . . . and after that the dark," and "greet the unknown with a cheer," bidding others Godspeed who run with the torch we rejoiced to carry. No minister whose heart burns with the passion of the Cross can with joy make the request I now present, but judgment tells me I "should accept the universe," and be content with God's way, meeting the inevitable, standing up, eyes front. I ask that at the close of this session of Conference I may be granted the retired relation.

PASADENA DISTRICT

The following figures compiled from pastors' reports submitted within the past ten days are herewith compared with final reports on similar items in the Pasadena District for the four years preceding:

FULL MEMBERS: Our full membership roll shows a loss of three hundred fifty-six, despite the fact that there have been received this year fourteen hundred twenty-nine by transfer and five hundred ten by profession of faith—a total of nineteen hundred thirty-nine. That means that twenty-two hundred ninety-five have been removed from the rolls during the year. While many have transferred to other churches, yet the great majority of these people have found lodgement in the “non-resident—inactive” list. This points to one of the major tragedies of our day: we are getting members by the thousand, whom we cannot hold. Only a church vitalized by a passion for reaching higher and more difficult goals than we have lately been seeking can stop this trend and avert disaster.

Church Schools: Our church schools are growing in size and effectiveness. The widespread and serious epidemic of “flu” which came upon us before Easter and continued for weeks, just at the peak of our school year, depleted the ranks and brought down our average attendance for the year. On an average Sunday, eleven thousand eight hundred eighty were present, which was eight hundred eighty-nine below the previous year.

Young People: The young people's group is the largest we have ever had, and furnishes by far the most encouraging phase of present-day church life. The church which will meet the challenge of faith and daring which surges through the ranks of her youth just now will save herself and serve the age. Royal Reisner, one of our young pastors, has been appointed Conference Director of Epworth League and Young People's Work. He is a young man of exceptional qualifications for leadership. Already his influence is felt throughout the conference.

Women's Work: The three women's societies have handled during the year $399,475. The Ladies' Aid societies have reported thirty-eight thousand, eight hundred ninety calls on sick and strangers and in the interest of the church.

World Service: Pastors report $81,986 for world service on apportionment; the largest collection for five years, and $3831 in excess of last year.

Pastors' Salaries: After a steady rise for a number of years, pastors' salaries have apparently reached the peak, and this year saw six of them reduced for a combined loss of $2530. At the same time eight were increased by a total of $2700; so that the district total showed a gain of $170. For next year three have advanced, a total of $1000, while four have reduced, a total of $2320, leaving a net loss in the District total of $1320. When salaries are reduced pastors and district superintendents see trying times. A pathetic feature of this procedure is the naive way in which quarterly conferences assume that by passing a resolution, absolving the pastor from blame for the salary cut, they can send him on to another charge without his feeling the loss in any way.

Pasadena Plan: The Pasadena Council of Methodist Churches has this year raised in cash and subscriptions $90,000 to assist our colored church, Scott Chapel, and the Washington Street church, in building on their new sites. Led by Merle N. Smith, and his far-visioned associates, First Church, Pasadena, laid down $80,000 for this enterprise, and not only inspired the other Pasadena churches to subscribe an additional $10,000 but also pointed the way to what may be a solution of similar problems throughout Methodism. Holliston Avenue, Hartzell Memorial, Lincoln Avenue, and Altadena, despite their own heavy burdens, caught the spirit of First Church and contributed $10,000 toward the strengthening of our common Methodism in Pasadena. Scott Chapel will receive $30,000, and their new $45,000 church is now rising on a splendid site which they purchased at a cost of $16,000. Washington Street will receive $60,000 toward the $135,000 needed to pay for a site and erect the first unit of a plant which, with the site, will cost $190,000.

New Buildings: Bishop Burns dedicated the magnificent new Church School plant of First Church, Glendale, March 10th. With the old church, remodeled inside and out to conform to the new educational and recreational unit, this becomes one of the notable structures of our conference. The completed project cost $247,350. The pastor, Will A. Betts, who has led with skill and courage in this achievement, reports a full membership of one thousand eight hundred seventy-nine.

First, Glendale, California.

Herbert A. Hooper has secured pledges amounting to $8,000 toward a proposed $12,000 Church School addition at Lancaster. He also writes that the contract is in escrow for a new parsonage, which is to be purchased at a cost of $3,900.

George Steed at Covina reports a beautiful new parsonage nearing completion, on the site of the old one by the side of the church, at a cost of $5,635. This full amount is provided in subscriptions payable on demand, so that the building will be paid for when completed. The Ladies' Aid Society has $1000 in hand for new furniture.

Debt Paying: E. F. Gates has reduced the indebtedness at First Church, Alhambra, by $90,000 in two years. A most remarkable achievement.

John Nicholson, at Temple City, led his people in a campaign which produced $13,000 in cash in three-year subscriptions. The old mortgage was paid, the debt reduced by $3500, and a new mortgage for $10,000 secured.

OTHER PAYMENTS—Other debts were paid as follows: Glendale, First, $24,326; Glendale, Pacific Avenue, $300; Monrovia, $5000; Glendale, Central, $1400; Pasadena, Washington Street, $1100; San Dimas, $1000; Highland, $840; North Glendale, $300; Baldwin Park, $720; Pasadena, Emmanuel, $500; Las Vegas, $600; Montebello, $2000; Rosemead, $500; Redlands, First, $7500; Lancaster, $800; Pasadena, Scott Chapel, $1300; El Monte, $500; Monterey Park, $400; Trinity, Pomona, $500; Pasadena, First, $5590; Pasadena, Hartzell Memorial, $1000; Needles, $600; Yucaipa, $179.

Evangelism: Seventeen churches in the west end of the district joined in a Loyalty Crusade in the early fall. An outbreak of "flu" which came at the climax of the crusade, greatly reduced the results, but the plan was splendid and results well worth while. A similar plan was adopted later in the year by Upland and Ontario with very happy results.

Walter C. Loomis, at San Bernardino, leading his own forces, climaxed a six months campaign on Easter Sunday when he received into the fellowship of the church 429 new members.

Capt. Ted Evans and Warren C. McIntire, conference evangelists, have held meetings at several points on the district. I can heartily commend the work of these men. They always make good.

Shadows: On July 4, 1929, Mary Elizabeth Reynolds, wife of W. Alonzo Reynolds, our pastor at First Church, Pomona, passed away after a long illness. A beautiful character, finely attuned to the ministry, leaves her husband and two small sons in loneliness. They hold the love and sympathy of the church at Pomona, and this great body of brother-ministers.

RESOLUTIONS

To our brother pastors John Oliver, L. J. B. Tabor, and E. J. Inwood, and the splendid people of Grace and Belmont Heights Churches: We wish to express our sincere appreciation for their gracious entertainment of this Southern California Annual Conference; for the unstinted way in which they have given themselves to make up happy and comfortable. We thank them most heartily, with special mention of the homes that entertained, also the Ladies' Aid Society and the Boy Scouts.

To the Chamber of Commerce, the officials and citizens and business institutions of Long Beach, the Lang Bus line, together with all who gladly added to our pleasure: We extend our thanks for the many courtesies extended to us. We hope that our visit has been mutually profitable.

To the several newspapers of Long Beach: We express our gratefulness for their publicity and kindly consideration.

To our faithful secretaries, our efficient treasurer and our patient statistician, together with their several groups of able assistants: We tender our sincere gratitude for the fine service rendered.

To our presiding Bishop Edwin Holt Hughes: We cannot say too much in appreciation for the splendid spiritual addresses he has brought to this conference, for his warm fellowship, for his brotherly and sympathetic spirit. Truly he is a man sent of God to us.

While we greatly miss our resident Bishop Charles Wesley Burns, we nevertheless greatly rejoice in the wonderful uplift Bishop Hughes brings to us.

Furthermore we wish to heartily commend the fine conference program in its entirety—the stirring evangelistic messages in the evening and the splendid devotional talks in the morning.

BOARD OF EDUCATION

Our conference this year has done two outstanding pieces of educational work, diverse in their character but both making a fine contribution to the higher intellectual and cultural life of our Southland.

The Pacific Palisades Association: The Association will bring its own full report, but should be mentioned here. This child of the conference has from its beginning steadily aimed to form a popular educational center where groups of various kinds could gather for study and inspiration, and never has it succeeded more than during the past season. Through its Assembly program it has this summer made a most vital and commanding contribution to the thinking and life of today. This was reflected in the one theme running through all its courses—the Spirit of the Modern World—discussed in varied forms by representatives of many schools of thought. Broad, unsectarian, timely, it faced the issues of the modern world with an outlook and freedom commensurate with the challenge of modern life, withal in utmost loyalty to Jesus Christ and with the open-mindedness of Methodism.

In addition to its stated program it brought together time after time varied groups of religious workers and students who faced the problems of their own life and work in notable fashion, and who found in study, conference and recreation a new vision and a new power for service. Nothing this conference has undertaken has been more praiseworthy, and nothing brings a greater challenge to us for devotion and cooperation.

No one can measure its value to contemporary life as it sought to bring all our social problems to the touchstone of the Master's mind and spirit and to create a peace-minded world.

For all this rich educational program the heartiest thanks of this conference are due Oren B. Waite who made all this possible.

The Interdenominational Conference: Had the Association done no more than make possible the Interdenominational Conference on The Christian Way of Life it would have made an exceedingly valuable contribution to our day. This conference, largely through the wise planning of J. L. Corley made a large place for itself as this year it sought again to bring the way of the Master to bear on our social, industrial, religious and international problems and to demonstrate the unity of the Christian body. Plans are already being made to give a still finer conference next year.

The Church Schools: The second great contribution was in the department of Religious Education. Here many of our problems center and here touching the church of tomorrow their solutions lie. Fortunately the church is becoming education-minded. The old methods are passing, the new and more scientific are taking their place.

Here growth has been marked. Ten years ago there came to us as our leader in this work, J. L. Corley, and the decade has brought notable achievements. There have been great advances in the building of adequate plants, in scientific organization and administration, in training of leadership (we have on our files the names of about 5000 credit students), in Vacation Bible Schools, in the movement for week-day religious education, in the new Young People's program in wholesome co-operation with councils of religious education.

This conference has come to be looked upon throughout the whole church as a kind of experimental center and many of the plans and methods as developed here have become patterns for other conferences where similar work has been undertaken.

You will be glad to know that last year nearly 1000 of our workers were credit students in the 70 Standard Training Schools held in Southern California, fostered by our Board in cooperation with the Council of Religious Education; that 6,000 of our Methodist boys and girls attended the 65 Vacation Bible Schools held; that last year over a hundred and eight thousand students were enrolled in our Church schools (a gain of more than thirty thousand in the past decade); that during this very decade over 37,000 came into membership in the church from these schools and that over a million dollars were spent in this definite religious work. We all wish the growth had been larger, but we thank God and take courage for still greater things.

And through all these things our Conference Director, J. L. Corley, has had a most vital part. Your Board desires here to express its hearty appreciation of the work he has done and asks his reappointment to this field. Also that he be requested to speak to this report.

Young People's Work: Closely allied with this and a part of the work of your Board is the Department of Epworth Leagues and Young People. Here the need of correlation was keenly felt and in fine spirit the young leaders have sought to work out plans that would correlate the various working forces of our youth. Their task is not easy but it will be accomplished by them. A fine arrangement with the Central Board brings back to us all the Rally Day Offerings for specific work among young people. And your Board urges all our pastors to take the utmost interest in this day and fund. This arrangement makes possible the employment of a full-time Director for this work, and the young people themselves have chosen a member of this conference, Royal H.

Reisner, as their leader, and we ask his appointment to such service and that he, too, be asked to speak to this part of this report.

Five District Conventions were held during the past year, attended by over 2,750 of our young people. Besides these there were four Institutes which drew to them 784 registrants, and an Area Council attended by 150 of the League Officers. They have set before themselves the highest standards. As their leader expresses it, "They have one ideal: making Christ a living reality in the life of youth." They ask your hearty support and we are sure you will give it.

A Forward Program: Looking forward to the new year your Board would emphasize five great things:

1st. Correlation: Our churches, wherever practicable, trying to correlate the various societies with a view of eliminating overlapping and duplication.

2nd. Study of the new lesson materials: These are available now from the Beginners to the High School Department and are all prepared from the pupil-centered not material-centered standpoint. Personality not mechanics is the aim. Life as a whole to be infused with the Christ spirit and life. But until the purpose is understood by the teachers there will be a lack of appreciation of this new material, with its more vital and modern approach and the task rests on us pastors to give them to see this larger value.

3rd. Leadership Training. That need is fundamental. We may hope for the success of our program only as we secure not only consecrated but well-trained leadership.

4th. Religious Drama: Believing in the far-reaching value of a properly guided program of religious drama we should like to see full advantage taken of this method of education to meet the recreation, culture and worship needs of life.

5th. Vacation Schools: No words are needed to justify these. They have abundantly justified their worth and we would urge the attempt to have one such in every community.

Evangelism: Over and above all these things we present to ourselves and to you this urgent question: How can we deepen the evangelistic spirit and effort in our Church Schools? We are sure your hearts crave this above all else. This is the supreme good and this must be our crowning aim. May the coming centennial of Pentecost bring a new Pentecostal life into all our schools.

Education Anniversary. Your Board made the experiment during the past year of an Education Day, giving the day to the discussion of our educational tasks and opportunities. So successful was it that it is hoped to make this an annual affair and we ask your heartiest cooperation.

During the year we have been favored time and again with visits by Dr. W. S. Bovard or other workers from the Central office who have given us the finest help.

Spanish American Institute: Besides the Church Schools we have other institutions doing fine educational work, among them the Spanish-American Institute, where there has been marked progress during the past year. This was most manifest in the student activities and in the lives of the students, many of the boys dedicating themselves to Christ and uniting with the church.

Through the kindness of friends at Sunnyside "The Genevieve Stockton Memorial Physics Laboratory" was made possible. This is the initial step in the development of the Science department of the Institute and it is now able to present a complete junior and senior High School course.

Fifteen students were graduated from the Junior High School and thirty from the Senior.

The rating of this institution as a project for designated gifts has greatly helped in financing the year's work and the fiscal year closed without indebtedness.

We nominate as Directors for the class of 1933: F. S. Wallace, Clyde M. Crist, John Oliver, Frank Linder, Wilmot Smith and Miss Bessie A. Wilson.

All these constitute a large contribution our church is making for the higher culture of life. So important is it that we ask you to endorse the recommendation to be made by the Finance Commission that the same amount as last year, $3,000, be apportioned for this work under your Board of Education and we are sure you will, for even this is a very meagre sum for so great a task.

University of Southern California: During the past year, under the able administration of Pres. Von KleinSmid, our University has had another year of great prosperity. Still loyal to the fundamental ethics of our faith and to the tradition of Methodism this offspring of our conference has gone forward with leaps and bounds.

Next year it will celebrate its semi-centennial and men will recall the names of Frambes, of Bovard—Marion, Freeman, George—of Phillips and Cochran, of Widney and White, men who laid the foundations deep and strong, for whom no praise is too great.

When the University was founded Los Angeles was a small town of about 11,000 souls: now a metropolitan city of a million and a quarter. Forty-five years ago the university had about fifty-five students enrolled, last year over seventeen thousand. In 1884 three students made up its graduating class. At its last commencement 1741 received their degrees and diplomas, among them four with that of Doctor of Philosophy. So great has been the development of even the last year that approximately a hundred have been added to the University faculty.

The University is doing a notable work through its allied "University of International Relations" in advancing the cause of world peace by supplying the facilities for accurate knowledge, and by the training of statesmen and of teachers for the departments related to world affairs.

Last year several important additions were made to the University curriculum:

- 1st A School of Citizenship and Public Administration, to provide training for officials and employees in City, County, State and Federal office.
- 2nd A School of Merchandising: To train for business career. So deep was the interest of business houses in this that the mercantile institutions of Los Angeles have promised to this school $25,000 each year for the next five years.
- 3rd A School of Philosophy established last May and made possible through the gift of the Seeley W. Mudd Memorial Building and which school is unique in Western University life in purpose, organization and facilities.
- 4th Departments of Oriental Studies and of Petroleum Engineering.
- 5th A Legal Aid Clinic in connection with the Law School providing legal aid for indigent but worthy folk and giving law students a case laboratory.
- 6th A Radio Education Division, by means of which the University has been able to make its resources in a number of fields available to a large and scattered group.

Buildings: There have also been important additions to the University buildings: the Seeley W. Mudd Building, already mentioned, to be completed in the fall, and costing about $300,000. There will be begun a gymnasium building costing about $750,000. In addition to these the University will soon take over a four-story hotel to be called "The Graduate Lodge," to provide quarters for women graduate students.

The School of Religion: Probably your interest is deepest in the University School of Religion. The change a year ago in some legal aspects of the university organization brought the recommendation from this board that a commission be appointed to confer with a like one from the University on the whole matter of a school of religion. That commission will bring its own report. But you will be glad to know that during the past year the University School of Religion has grown greatly in strength, covering its own field with greater adequacy. This greater strength and higher standards of instruction have brought it nearer the high grade requirements of the University, and in consequence the reputation of the school among churches and ministers has greatly advanced. Students from many denominations, from many races and from different parts of the world have been enrolled in its student body.

One of the best contributions was the biennial lecture course of The New Era Foundation, delivered this year by the distinguished Quaker, Dr. Rufus M. Jones, on "The Nature and History of Mysticism," whose lectures were of the highest quality and drew large audiences.

Graduate Work: When the School was reorganized its plan required the offering of three consecutive degrees, Bachelor of Religion, Master of Theology, and Doctor of Theology, a new departure in theological education. It is giving special attention to this advanced work, seeking to make that work of the highest order and so of large value to the life and ministry of this conference and of other Christian bodies. Last year thirteen received the degree of Master of Theology. Up to date the facilities for the doctorate have been insufficient, but the demand is now so urgent that steps must soon be taken to meet this need. Nothing finer could be done by this conference than adequately to endow this School of Religion.

Wesley Foundation: Alongside of this is the work of The Wesley Foundation, out of which is evolving one of the most significant movements in the higher educational life of today. Religion is increasingly finding an assured place in higher education, withal finding itself confessed, distraught and challenged by the new spirit and discovery of the day. More and more the State institutions are coming to dominate our educational life and attracting to themselves increasing numbers of students from our Christian homes, and no duty is more urgent on the church than to make provision for the religious care and guidance of these. To do so is to determine the moral outlook of tomorrow. As reported last year at our own State institution there has been formed "The University Religious Conference," a conference through which, working together, Protestant, Romanist and Jew can care for the religious life of their respective communicants, and into this, our Wesley Foundation has heartily entered, doing the best its meagre facilities afforded, but making fine choice in selecting a member of this body, R. J. Taylor, to be Student Advisor in these fields. This church must make this religious caring for its college students one of its major interests and the Wesley Foundation must broaden the scope of its operations. It ought to include our own University in its work. In the glamor of a new movement the older must not be overlooked. The church must see that at both U. S. C. and U. C. L. A. adequate provision is made for the personal culture of the religious life of their student bodies. We therefore recommend an increase in the amount apportioned for the "University Pastors" and that of the sum raised some portion be given our own institution.

And as representatives of this conference in the directorate of the Wesley Foundation we recommend the election of W. C. Buckner, Willsie Martin, C. I. D. Moore and Frank S. Wallace.

University Church: Closely allied with the religious life of our university is the University Church, now without a church home but bravely facing the task of providing a plant fairly adequate for its great work, and your board asks this conference to heartily endorse this project and to request the Board of Home Missions and Church Extension to make this enterprise one of its major projects and donate to it not less than 25 per cent of the building cost of the plant proposed, for no more strategic center for Christ is found in the whole denomination.

May the spirit of the Master so rest on us that we may be able to bring the mind of today under the mastery of His mind.

ALFRED INWOOD

THE WESLEY FOUNDATION

Scope: Our study reveals that our youth are patronizing the following State and Independent Institutions in this Area:

University of California—In four centers.....	22,000
University of Nevada—Reno	1,000
University of Arizona—Tucson	1,600
Leland Stanford Jr. Univ.—Palo Alto.....	3,000
Seven State Teachers Colleges (estimated)....	12,000
Sixteen Junior Colleges (estimated).....	11,000
Thirty Centers—Total	50,600
The Methodist Constituency is fully.....	5,600

Aim: Our Wesley Foundation aim is to move steadily toward adequate religious training for these children from our altars, such training to supplement the education of the State and not to duplicate such education.

Method: From the Wesley Foundation Joint Committee $5,000 came to the Area this past year. $3,000 came from the two California Conferences. From individual subscribers $7,500. Budget $15,500.

With this $15,500 we (1) Continued the work at Berkeley (1600 Methodist Students), (2) Continued work at Fresno (400 Methodist Students), (3) Aided the Tucson enterprise, (4) Opened a promising work at Palo Alto, (5) Joined with the Presbyterians in work at Davis and (6) established certain basic principles for our work at the University of California in Los Angeles (700 Methodist Students). It is the immediate purpose of your representatives, built round the four conference members elected by the California Conference and four members elected by the Southern California Conference, plus the Bishop of the Area, to continue these six Wesley Foundation projects, each of which is led by a minister in a California Conference.

Outlook: Eventually, to strengthen our churches adjacent to the other State and Independent Institutions and to carry our share of the Religious Education costs where we join with sister bodies we will have to seek an endowment. For the churches to neglect its own youth, who are so advantageously grouped by the educators of the state, is to take a place beneath the rank of the infidel. By confining activities to these six centers, by the economy of the Wesley Foundation method, this cause will find its own friends produce funds and become a powerful ally for Methodism on this coast.

E. W. BLAKEMAN, Director

PACIFIC PALISADES ASSOCIATION

The Experience of the Pacific Palisades Association for the past year has gone far toward realizing the original conception of the institution as Methodist in ownership, non-denominational in spirit and policy, and pan-denominational in service. During the year 64 organizations have used the equipment with a total of 290 days' tenancy. Of this total, Methodist organizations have used the equipment for 28 days only. Each year sees new additions made to our clientele, with practically all our old patrons coming back to us year after year. Naturally, the most continuous use of the various centers comes during the period of the summer vacation. We have, nevertheless, had a very considerable use of the grounds at other periods of the year, some one or more organizations being our guests during every month of the twelve.

The Southern California Holiness Association conducted a most successful meeting at the beginning of the summer season. The preaching was evangelistic in type and sane in content, meeting a real demand among a large group in our Protestant churches. Our Methodist Camp Meeting Association has voted to cooperate with this established organization for the future, as will appear from its own report to this Conference.

The Summer Schools and Assembly had a prosperous year. There was improved attendance as evidenced by gate receipts, and a fine spirit of enthusiasm on the grounds throughout the season.

One of the outstanding features of the Assembly was the series of lectures on the Chautauqua Pioneers' Foundation. Dr. Miles H. Krumbine, pastor of the Parkside Lutheran Church of Buffalo, N. Y., was the lecturer, speaking on the general theme, "The Future of Morals."

The growing appreciation of the Assembly as an ideal place for family vacations is perhaps best evidenced by our children's activities. The report of the Playground Director shows a daily attendance ranging from 25 to 100 children; the kindergarten enrolled 16, and the Daily Vacation Bible School 57.

The School of Religious Education, conducted under the auspices of the Southern California Council of Religious Education and directed by J. L. Corley, had this year a considerable increase in attendance.

For the first time a School of Religion, designed particularly to interest pastors and church workers, was added as a feature of our summer activities. It is planned to follow this with a series of Summer Schools sponsored by various established Schools of Religion in the east. This first session was put on through the cooperation of Garrett Biblical Institute and was advertised as Garrett on the Pacific. Through the cooperation of President Eiselen, Dr. Leslie E. Fuller was detailed to represent Garrett and to teach during the three weeks' session. Associated with him was Dr. John Wright Buckham, of the Pacific School of Religion. Supplemental courses by Dr. J. Hudson Ballard of Occidental, Dr. Miles H. Krumbine, of Buffalo, New York, and Bishop Wallace E. Brown of Helena, Montana, were likewise available to registrants. The total registration numbered 24, and represented several of our leading Protestant denominations.

However, in estimating the value of our summer activities, it should not be forgotten that for practically the entire summer three of the four other centers are fully occupied and the fourth for about half the period. We have had during the summer season over four thousand different young people on our grounds staying for periods ranging from two to ten days. Enthusiastic statements from the leaders of these various groups testify to the value of the service rendered by the Association through its equipment. While statistics in this field are perhaps not to be taken too seriously, it is nevertheless significant that a total of more than one hundred commitments to the Christian life, and a slightly larger number of commitments to definite life service, have been reported to this office from the various conferences held during the summer.

The Interdenominational Conference on the Christian Way of Life was a fine climax to the season's activities. The attendance was practically double that of last year, and the leadership of Dr. Goodell, Dr. Kurtz and Colonel Robins was superb. In no single series of meetings at Pacific Palisades in my experience has there been such a fine mingling of intellectual strength with emotional fervor, all kept within sane bounds, as was manifest during the ten days of this Conference. Thirteen different denominations and 54 communities are represented in the present membership. The Conference will pay all its bills for this year and have a small surplus. A special committee was appointed by the Executive Committee of the Conference to work out some plan by which it can be adopted by the Association as a permanent part of its activities, though permitting the Conference Board to remain intact as an organization.

Financial problems, though on their way to solution, are still difficult. Maintenance and public utility charges are heavy, both because we are within the city and because of the peculiar character of our property. Taxes are also a heavy drain on our resources, calling for a payment of $7,528.93 for the fiscal year 1928-29. The temporary equipment with which the Association began its career is rapidly demanding replacement with better and more permanent construction. Up to date this year the sum of $11,815.22 has been expended in betterments. New assembly halls in the Upper and Lower Young People's Camps, a new classroom in the Institute grounds, and eighteen new housing units in the Assembly grounds are among the chief improvements. The cafeteria has been transformed into a cafe with almost complete replacement. A similar program will be demanded for some years to come in order to meet replacement needs sufficiently to permit service to our constituency. Notwithstanding these demands, we shall live within our receipts for the year and shall be able to report sufficient additions to the Building and Endowment Fund to bring the total to about $16,000. We have also through the year added slightly to the trust fund known as the Chautauqua Pioneers' Foundation.

Under the terms of the sale to Mr. R. C. Gillis, the Pacific Palisades Association reserved a church site which it was to convey to the local church when the time for building had arrived. By the terms of the sales agreement, Mr. Gillis was to release this property from the trust indenture. He later added one lot to the original reservation. In February a financial campaign was put on to provide funds for the erection of the first unit of the church building, and upon its successful completion five lots valued at $21,000 were conveyed to the church board of trustees, the release price being promptly paid by the Pacific Land Corporation, the successor to Mr. Gillis. The building now in process of erection will be ready for dedication about February 1st, 1930.

While we no longer have direct interest or responsibility in the matter of the subdivision sales of Pacific Palisades properties, our ultimate prosperity and the complete release of our properties from the lien of the trust indenture are nevertheless inseparably bound up with the successful outcome of the sales campaign of the Pacific Land Corporation. This campaign is being steadily pressed, but moves slowly as do all similar enterprises in Southern California at this time, with the exception of the development in connection with the University of California in Los Angeles. The Pacific Land Corporation is steadily meeting its payments to the Association and is making progress in the liquidation of the bonded indebtedness. In view of the continued depression in real estate, it is certain that we owe all that we have at Pacific Palisades to the courageous assumption by Mr. R. C. Gillis of the obligations created by the Association through the Huntington purchase. The sympathetic cooperation of the Pacific Palisades Association and the Southern California Annual Conference is due him and the Pacific Land Corporation in their efforts to complete the sale of this property and to liquidate all its indebtedness.

In accordance with the By-Laws of the Association, the Southern California Annual Conference names a list of not less than fifteen eligibles from which trustees of the Association must be chosen to fill vacancies as they may occur during the year. Your Board of Trustees suggests the following for that nomination: C. D. Lewis, A. V. Stoughton, C. F. Seitter, E. P. Clark, W. R. Morehouse, A. Ray Moore, Ray C. Harker, O. B. Waite, F. M. Couch, Frank Taggart, W. G. Cline, R. C. Gillis, C. M. Watson, J. F. Fox, C. C. Hopkirk, F. G. H. Stevens, Walter C. Buckner, Charles B. Dalton and Benjamin S. Haywood.

In closing, may I remind the Conference that in the plant held by the Pacific Palisades Association there is not only large financial value but also a cultural instrument of tremendous worth. Its full potential service will be rendered only as the ministry and membership of the Protestant churches of the southwest realize its possibilities and use its facilities. It cannot succeed if regarded merely as a denominational possession or merely as a place for summer vacations. Created and owned by Methodism, it must be held in trust for the service of Christians of all faiths at all seasons of the year. It must seek and obtain their interest and support. They should have representation on our Board of Trustees. Only as these things are accomplished can the full usefulness of Pacific Palisades be realized.

CONFERENCE BOARD OF HOME MISSIONS AND CHURCH EXTENSION

At the call of the chairman and the secretary, five meetings were held during the year. Careful examination was made of all applications, and the Disciplinary requirements were carefully observed. The records are carefully kept, the minutes being read and approved at every meeting. The attendance at the Board meetings is very satisfactory. The officers are: A. Ray Moore, Chairman; L. T. Guild, Secretary; Chas. E. Carver, Treasurer.

Received from the Board for Maintenance of Churches	$21,852.08
Received from the Board for District Church Extension	5,735.00
Received from the Revolving Fund for Trinity Church, Fresno	2,000.00
Received from Opportunity Fund for Santa Barbara Avenue	2,000.00

The above does not include moneys sent direct to the Board as special help, nor amounts donated to enterprises not under our administration.

The Board of Home Missions and Church Extension has given us prompt and cordial assistance in every possible way. We feel that our churches which have been aided by this great organization are not always as appreciative as they should be of what has been done by it. Where churches have had assistance in the hour of their need, and become strong enough to do so, it would be well if they would repay to the Board that assistance, in order that it might go to and bless other communities which are needy.

The Board has been greatly impressed with the need of a re-survey of the field. This should be made in the near future, in order that appropriations could be made more intelligently. A representative of the Board will present to this Conference our request that a commission be appointed for the study of the problems of home mission work in our territory, and to consider the possibilities of our Conference organizing to take care of the same, as well as to continue our support to the Board of Home Missions and Church Extension. If the Conference will grant this, appoint such a commission, and instruct them to report to the Board, so that action can be taken early in the year, we feel that it will greatly help our work.

A representative of the Board will also bring to the Conference a suggestion that we have a standing committee upon Church projects, so that the Conference will have some kind of control or at least be able to give some advice before churches enter upon costly enterprises.

At the last Conference our report recommended that there should be a rearrangement of our method in allocating Home Missions maintenance, but nothing was done with this suggestion.

LOS ANGELES MISSIONARY AND CHURCH EXTENSION SOCIETY

During several years past it has been our policy to build up a Board of Trustees composed of strong men and women, representative of the best business and spiritual leadership of our church. This is not easy, for such people are usually overloaded with business and the responsibilities of their local church. We have at this time a Board composed of unusually competent men and women. It convenes regularly and transacts a large amount of business. Every financial expenditure and all important administrative affairs are subject to their approval.

In the effort to interest our churches in the work of our Society we have set up in each Quarterly Conference the Committee on United Methodist Interests, the chairman of which becomes a member of the City Missionary Society. This makes a liaison between the local church and our organization, and will assist the Executive Secretary by giving him a committee to cooperate in each local Church.

The enterprises under the care of the Society have gone forward with increased activity during the year. The Hollenbeck Heights Social Center is managed by Grace Church, of which Carl Seiter is pastor, and receives assistance from the Community Chest, but is not under the direct supervision of this Society. We have also been carrying on at Saint Mark's, where the Board of Home Missions and Church Extension has given a substantial appropriation for their assistance. Our major work is the All Nations Foundation, Robert A. McKibben, Superintendent. A report of the varied activities carried on there would make an interesting volume. The increased demands of the work require a budget for the coming year of $56,000. Of this amount $7,240 is contributed from the Board of Home Missions and Church Extension. We have help from the Community Chest, and the rest is provided in other ways.

This year we have given considerable financial assistance to Melrose Park, Santa Barbara Avenue, and Saint Luke's. We have also given substantial assistance to Wesley Chapel in their effort to secure a new location; to Gardena in their struggle with a heavy debt; and to Eagle Rock, which was put upon our district during the year; to Annandale, which occupies a very worthy field; and are in the act of assisting York Boulevard. Some business calamities, deaths, and other vicissitudes have weakened Melrose Park, and it must still have the nourishment of the Society. Saint Luke's has not gone forward as we had hoped, but at the present time there is a new development in the church life which gives us much encouragement.

During the present administration we have undertaken to put in a financial foundation for the future interests of City Missions. We established the Charles Wesley Burns Revolving Fund, in the sum of $2,677, which has been utilized in developing new work. The Church Building Fellowship, inaugurated by the pastors of the district, reached in subscriptions the sum of $19,850, of which $9,140 has been paid in. Early in the Conference year we joined with the Presbyterians and Baptists in the Loyalty Crusade, and received subscriptions in the amount of $89,060, estate notes $16,150, annuities 15,500, and obligations underwritten and guaranteed by Official Boards $16,600, making a total of $157,837. The Society now has total assets of $448,000.

The Wilshire Church designated its subscription for the Loyalty Crusade in the interests of Woodcrest Church, at 107th and Normandie, in the amount of $11,300. Mr. T. P. Barber has drawn the plans for a building in this highly desirable location, and the brave little church is planning to go forward and erect a first unit of this substantial building in this very important location.

Quite congenial to the spirit of Los Angeles has been the carrying forward of the Westwood project. Three years ago this Society, by the aid of the Board of Home Missions and Church Extension, purchased three lots on the corner of Wilshire Boulevard and Warner Avenue, at a cost of, including carrying charges, special assessments, etc., more than $50,000. The subscriptions for the Methodist Extension Fund from First Church were designated for this project. A Board of Trustees has been organized. Mr. Paul H. Helms, son of the pastor at First Church, is chairman, and we are honored by membership in the Board of Gordon B. Kauffman, President of the Boy Scout Council of the Bay District, and Dr. E. C. Moore, Director of the U. C. L. A. Mr. Paul H. Helms and wife have donated $25,000 to this enterprise, in addition to $5,000 which they gave in subscription at First Church. The chapel is being erected, the property has been deeded to the new organization, and they ask for the appointment of a pastor from this Conference for the first time, to the Westwood Methodist Episcopal Church. The cornerstone is to be laid the Sunday after Conference, October 6th, by Bishop Adna Wright Leonard. In honor of the great interest of the First Methodist Church in this enterprise, of the loyal and cordial support of E. E. Helms, and of the great interest and generosity of Mr. and Mrs. Paul H. Helms, the unit now being erected has been named Helms Chapel. This may be the first instance on record wherein a substantial church has been erected, the site paid for, and the pastor appointed, before there is any considerable membership. It is explained by the rapid development of the community, and the fact that there is no where within reach a suitable building with which to begin work. It is another illustration of the "unusual," for which we had no precedent. The Denominational Superintendents' Council has unanimously designated the Westwood Methodist Episcopal Church to be the home for students desiring religious nurture and care. To this end we will have an associate membership, and our Student Advisor, R. J. Taylor, will cooperate with the pastor who is to be appointed.

The importance of this Society as the instrument for team work between our churches is so great that it has now become necessary to have the services of an able and efficient man as full time Secretary. The Trustees unanimously asked, and the Cabinet recommends the appointment of A. L. Baker to this position. The enlarged budget requires some increase in the amount asked from the churches, but this will be returned many fold in the increased efficiency of the Society. We now have a license to write annuities, and expect to do some business of this kind. Under this new leadership the Society confidently expects to seize new strategic sites, help our struggling churches to build, to establish Sunday Schools, and to aid in the development of the Kingdom in this great City as we have not been able to do heretofore.

The Board of Home Missions and Church Extension has shown the deepest sympathy with our work in this City. Dr. Walter Torbet assisted us during the campaign for the Methodist Extension Fund. Dr. Channing A. Richardson has been here since his appointment as Secretary for Cities, and has gone thoroughly into our many problems. Dr. E. D. Kohlstedt himself has given unusual attention to our difficulties, even investigating specific cases. There has never been an instance brought before the Board when we have not had the sympathy and active co-operation of the Secretary and the Secretary for Cities. Los Angeles is greatly indebted to them.

The Trustees of the Los Angeles Missionary and Church Extension Society are elected by the Annual Conference, and the following nominations are presented for your approval:

GOODWILL INDUSTRIES

Goodwill industries is a link in the world wide chain of evangelistic, educational and benevolent activities which binds the races, the nations, the classes and individuals under the name of Methodist and projects the spirit of John Wesley into the 20th century life. The link is newly forged but its strength matches the older links. Goodwill is very much an attached service of the Church.

Seven days a week does this branch of the Church keep its doors open, its chairs warm, (and its beds too) for our day is 24 hours long. We preached to an aggregate of 93,125 persons last year, in 1676 different services and used 117 preachers in this program. The daily Chapel service sounds the keynote of our work. This is our way of "maintaining the glow" and rekindling spiritual fires in the lives of those who come to us. Our Filipino work is Methodism's only service in the Southland to our brown brothers. THUS WE PREACH.

Toddlers, school age youngsters, middle aged and old are comprehended in the classes and groups receiving instruction all through the year. The Summer School for working mothers' children is a 10-weeks' extended Vacation Bible School. Visual education by stereopticon and motion picture captures the attention of even sluggish minds, and the English and Spanish classes make better and less provincial Americans of the scores who take this work. An orchestra has been developed also; a woman's chorus, too—just to cultivate the finer side of life in the workers. THUS WE TEACH.

Sometimes Goodwill is indicted because it lives too closely to its slogan of "Not Charity, but a Chance," by not freely dispensing clothing, meals, etc. We do believe that all who are able should work for what they get. Yet we gave free clothing on 587 orders, 202 free lodgings, 255 baths, 4877 meals last year, to say nothing of the personal service rendered by our Welfare Department.

Against this, 311 clothing orders were worked for, as were 4812 lodgings, 368 baths and 6099 meals. This is exclusive of the thousands of dollars paid in wages.

The restaurants served 215,000 meals, the dormitory provided 9627 lodgings, 20,230 shower baths were taken, and the free laundry was used 4478 times. 2754 different persons applied 33,571 times for work and 2597 received 20,850 jobs. 1752 different persons have worked in the Goodwill Industries, while 435 were found jobs outside.

The Men's Club with gospel services, reading, game room and other privileges has been of much service during men's idle hours.

The Day Nursery provides beautiful, efficient service to children of mothers who have to work. It is inadequate, presenting several hazards, and sadly needs a well adapted building with playground.

Craft Shop work is more appreciated than ever and several of our large furniture houses now send their repair work for our blind and seriously crippled to do on the sole ground of quality work. 1361 chairs were caned, 858 rugs woven and 744 baskets made.

Generous friends made possible some sort of an outing to every worker and child during the summer, many of them at the beach. A beach lot has been donated and we hope for a house thereon soon. 675 attended the Annual Picnic in August. Christmas and other special times received considerable attention, Goodwill friends contributing generously.

During the year we have acquired additional land on contract for a future location of an enlarged plant, already a vital necessity. An addition to the garage has been built to care for our increasing number of trucks. A new dormitory will be open soon. THUS WE SERVE.

THUS WE WORK.

2,474,790 copies of our Goodwill News have been distributed from our plant.

The Woman's Auxiliary has been promoting our work among the churches, ladies' aid societies and women's clubs with splendid results under the secretaryship of Mrs. Elaine Anderson Dudley.

Our San Bernardino Branch under the direction of R. A. Blume has completed ten months of fine work: 6718 bags have been placed; 4007 effective truck calls made; 13,631 hours of labor given to an average of 13 persons per day.

Santa Ana Branch under the management of John Winterbourne has moved and come into new life and activity. It has a real Industrial Plant now.

Long Beach has been operating for six months with increasing success.

Our Assistant Superintendent, Myron Insko, appointed since last year, has entered splendidly into Goodwill service.

Our Board of Directors, under the Presidency of Chas. E. Carver for eleven years, splendidly represents the communities where Goodwill is working and loyally supports every phase of the Goodwill work.

We appreciate the fine cooperation of every man in the Conference. Those in the immediate vicinity of our Industries and its branches have given their services in a generous manner.

Methodist folks should appreciate the magnitude of the need to which Goodwill ministers in their name. It is not asking for much money but earnestly seeks all that Methodist homes discard, and urges that rummage sales and paper drives for other interests be forgotten in the earnest effort to assist the old, handicapped and needy, helping such to help themselves by giving "Not Charity, but a Chance" through the Goodwill Industries.

We are happy over a good year and hopeful for a better one to come.

F. H. BLAIR.

PLAZA COMMUNITY CENTER

Again we are able to report unusual progress in the work of the year just closing. Our new building has attracted both additional clients and volunteer workers to assist us in the service rendered. As a consequence, we report a 21% increase in the total registrations for our Clinic and General Welfare department. Standards of work have also been raised, and we believe that improvement has been made in the general organization of the work. The Plaza Community Center Club was organized last May, with election of its officers to carry on a work which had been started some time previous. This organization, made up largely of women, for the present, is set to give publicity to our missionary enterprise in all our churches.

More and more the value and importance of what we are doing is being recognized. In view of the remarkable increase in the volume of work, the local Community Chest, of which we are members, made a 21% increase in their tentative appropriations for our agency for the coming year. Our Board of Home Missions and Church Extension is loyally supporting the work, and our local friends have increased both in numbers and giving so as to make possible this larger ministry. We have been glad to have Dr. E. D. Kohlstedt, the Corresponding Secretary, Dr. C. A. Richardson, head of Department of Cities, Dr. Ezra Cox and others of our church officials visit us during this past year, to see what we were actually doing. Their re-action has been most favorable. We invite all our friends to visit us when possible, in order to get a better conception of the nature and extent of what is being accomplished at this missionary center.

There have been some changes in personnel. Mr. F. Ray Risdon, who has been connected with our Latin American work almost from its beginning, and Miss Blanche R. Randall, who for nine years served in our clinic, have both resigned as members of the paid staff, but are still rendering part-time volunteer service. We regret, exceedingly, that personal affairs necessitated their withdrawal at the height of their usefulness, but greatly appreciate the invaluable contribution which they have made to the establishment of this work, as well as their continued interest in its future. Miss Luella Adams and Mrs. M. J. Brown are the names of our two new workers, drawn from two of our local churches. In addition we have had to add a registered nurse for half-time in the clinic. We are greatly in need of more Christian physicians, who will offer two or three hours of service each week, to take care of the large numbers of patients.

Our Christian Training School, by changing its hours of meeting to a time more convenient for those enrolled, was able to extend its services to a larger group. Twenty-seven were enrolled, five of them being from the Presbyterian Mexican churches, the remainder including official members, Sunday School teachers and workers from our surrounding Mexican mission churches, as far away as Anaheim. Instruction for the coming year will commence in October. We are greatly in need of $1,500 to put on an additional worker, a part of whose duties would be to organize work among the young people in literary, recreational and social groups.

Our Children's Home is now caring for eighteen Mexican orphaned children. Steps are being taken, and appeals are being made toward securing a permanent location, with room sufficient to relieve the overcrowded conditions. Under splendid management, the prospect for gratifying results from this constructive effort, are bright indeed. Other children are awaiting admission, but there is no room.

Some interesting figures follow:

Total registrations in clinic and general welfare—14,199.

Visits and calls in homes, hospitals, etc.—704.

Employment found for women—320.

As regards our clinic, there were 246 clinic days, with a total of 7,771 cases. Of these, 1897 were free cases, and medicines and treatments thus amounted to $1009.90. New patients numbered 1862; 1,019 whooping cough serum treatments were administered from January to August, our clinic having taken over this special work at the request of the city. Our clinic received a total of $2,496 from patients treated.

With 150,000 Mexicans in Los Angeles, and our plant centrally located, and with a continuously expanding service, ours is a great opportunity for doing a fine piece of real missionary work, which will make for international good-will and better understanding, the while we build the kingdom of God among men.

W. T. GILLILAND.

PACIFIC OLD PEOPLES' HOME

There are now thirty-five life members and thirty-six sojourners in the family of the Home. The average age of the life-members is 78 years. Thirteen are past eighty; 10 past seventy-five; ten past seventy; one past sixty-eight; and one past fifty-seven. Health conditions have been very good, and the death rate surprisingly low. Only three heard the heavenly summons.

The best possible provision is made by the management for the physical, mental and spiritual well being of all who abide with us. The food provided is plain, substantial, toothsome and varied. A nurse cares well for those who are ill or suffering from extreme senility. Every Sunday morning there is divine worship in the little church. Prayer and praise services are conducted Wednesday and Friday evenings. Good reading matter is placed within the reach of all. They, who are hungry for the "Word," meet weekly for study and discussion. Use of these means of grace is not compulsory, but many gladly avail themselves of the opportunity. Special days, Christmas, Easter and Thanksgiving are observed with appropriate programs and beautiful repasts. Thus the Home is made a place where Christian love dwells. The Home is controlled by a Board of Directors, consisting of ministers and laymen, who met eleven times during the past year. Evidently they deem the Institution of prime importance; for they gladly give their time and most careful attention. The Board elects the Superintendent, and requests his appointment by the Bishop. The Superintendent conducts the religious meetings, or has it done, exercises general oversight, purchasing supplies, and attends to financial matters between meetings of the Board. The help is always the best attainable, and the buildings are kept in a good state of repair. The management exercises the utmost economy compatible with efficiency, and in consequence has never found it necessary to appeal to the Conference for funds to meet current expenses, but has always covered expenditures with receipts, and unless the present policy be radically changed, there is no reason why the same should not be the case in the future.

From the above it would appear, that a rosy future is assured to the Pacific Old Peoples' Home, and yet the Board of Directors has a burden which they invite the Conference to share, namely the present and future adequacy of the Institution, which sufficed for the California German Conference, but falls far short of covering the needs of a Conference of 100,000 members. The capacity of the Home is 70, and we have 71.

Certainly the ministers and members of the Southern California Conference cannot say to those, in advanced years, who apply for a Christian Home, "Am I my brother's keeper"—and coldly direct them to the State and County, if they would be among them to whom the Master will say: "I was hungry, and ye gave me to eat; I was thirsty, and ye gave me to drink; I was a stranger, and ye took me in."

Realizing this, the Directors purpose a building program of five units, which shall be begun without delay with the first unit, which will more than double the present capacity of the Home, and provide a Hospital floor, the lack of which is keenly felt at this time. The cost of the first unit will be about $210,000. From the Endowment Fund $100,000 can be transferred to the Building Fund, which will necessitate the raising of $110,000. It is the conviction of the Board of Directors, that the amount can be secured by quiet solicitation without diverting support from other worthy enterprises, or needy institutions.

J. H. DURBAHN

METHODIST HOSPITAL OF SOUTHERN CALIFORNIA

Two years ago the critical situation of the Hospital was presented to you, and one year ago the adjustment that had been made by writing a bond issue of $600,000@5½%, payable semi-annually, and a loan of $60,000@5% on four notes of the Woman's Home Missionary Society, without collateral.

Today we report to you that three payments on bond issue have been met, which means $7,000 bond reduction each time beside the interest, and the first note of $15,000 with interest has been paid. Everything has been paid to date. It is difficult to say how it has been done, but it has been done by combining the pledges of auxiliary women, some very special gifts, and the use of some of the reserve earnings of the Hospital itself.

This has been a most strenuous year, but the co-operation of the Executive Committee, the Hospital Board, and the officers and members of the Woman's Home Missionary Society has been complete. The hospital has been fortunate indeed in having the advice of men willing to give time and business experience to meeting the serious problems confronting it. Their assistance has been invaluable.

Now as to the hospital itself. We report an excellent year and a satisfactory condition. Under the efficient management of Miss Forth, acting Superintendent, and Mr. Gould, comptroller, work has moved steadily forward, with an increase of hospital earnings over operating expenses, and this surplus creates a reserve fund with which to replace necessary equipment and meet emergencies.

The medical staff has been exceptional, and the School of Nursing is fully accredited; 6,012 patients have been served, and I think it would be of interest to you to know that 876 babes have made music in our "ball-room," as Bishop McDowell terms the nursery at Sibley Hospital, also that 14 dear babes raised lusty voices on Sept. 9th, their Admission Day.

Much replenishing of furniture has been undertaken, and the painting of the exterior (at a cost of nearly $3,000 and given by three members of the Executive Committee) has improved the appearance greatly.

The Hospital Guild, with Mrs. James Donovan, Chairman, and her able assistants, is an important factor, with its prayer circle for patients, its watchfulness of nurses, its securing nearly $4,000 of voucher credit for the auxiliary women who have made all the surgical dressings, and medical and sanitary articles necessary for patients (over 8,000). The discount work has amounted to $10,288. You have heard for several years of $20,000 to $25,000 per year free and discount work being given. But the Executive Committee felt this was an injustice when the hospital was so involved, that full interest on endowment funds should be given, but excess of that was being met by the W. H. M. S. itself which was already caring for the heavy financial burden. They recommended to the Hospital Board that in order to serve a larger number of ministers and their families a discount be made to all, instead of free service to the few for which this fund would provide, and we believe this satisfies every one as fair. Possibly the ministers have not realized how their numbers have augmented since the establishing of this fund, and greater endowment is hoped for fervently.

Much more could be said, but time is limited. We are appreciating the close relationship that has always existed between your ministerial body and the hospital in the service of your members as Field Secretaries for years, and your vote of cooperation and support two years ago, and last year, your action that the hospital cause should be presented on the Sunday before Thanksgiving from your pulpits. Not all were able to do that last year, because of previous plans, but we trust each pastor will give at least a 10 minute message this year. With a payment of $23,922.50 facing us by Dec. 15th you can realize that we need your favorable commendation just as truly as you need the women in all the church enterprises. By a concerted effort this fine institution can be enabled to fulfill its function in caring for sick and suffering ones, and we have faith it will be accomplished, faith in our women, faith in our church support, faith for the larger gifts we are confident will come, faith that our Father's sanction is with this cause, and that victory will ultimately result.

MRS. SILAS SPROWLS.

GOOD SAMARITAN HOSPITAL

The year just closed finished the most successful year in the history of our institution. I wish that I could visualize to the Conference just what has happened and what is happening in our Phoenix Hospital. Few people, even in Phoenix, realize how rapidly we have grown, the amount of work we are doing, and the great strides our institution has made.

When I look back six and a half short years ago and realize that we were in a small rented residence with about half a dozen beds, and then know that the past year we have cared for almost three thousand patients; that we have net assets of more than one-half million dollars; that we are a standardized Class A hospital with a Class A building with what we think is the outstanding school of nursing in our state. That we have a hospital staffed with a competent, capable group of graduate nurses; that in addition to the superintendent and assistant superintendent we have two night supervisors, a surgical supervisor, an obstetrical supervisor, a supervisor for each floor, a full time instructress in our school, a graduate technician in charge of our laboratory, a graduate dietitian in charge of our kitchen, a trained historian and seventy-five other competent and capable people working in the different departments; and know that with this organization we are giving such splendid service that we have been able to return to the homes of those who have entered our doors sick, discouraged and despondent, almost ninety-seven per cent; we feel that we have accomplished a work worth while.

I am not capable of painting a picture that would do justice, of the tender ministry to the sick and suffering, the long night vigils, the weary hours of watching and waiting, and the faithful efforts to the pain racked bodies and souls, but our record speaks for itself.

It has been generally understood that hospitals cannot pay their way. Our record for the past year, according to our audit, shows that the last year our institution, out of its earnings, has paid interest on debts and annuities totaling $8,740; has spent $10,901 for new equipment and maintenance, and has done more than $15,000 in charity work, and shows a profit of $1,530.

One of the hardest problems the past year has been to refuse many patients during the winter and spring months who wish to come to us for hospitalization. It is hard to refuse people over the telephone but it is much harder to refuse people when they have come to the institution, sick, and we were unable to give them a bed. This we had to do a number of times, and send them elsewhere. This condition has caused the Board to face the problem and try to remedy it. So last spring we asked the community for donations and while we did not receive as much money as we need, the community responded to the extent of $120,000, and we are now trying to re-finance and build an additional wing to care for seventy-five more people, also a power plant and laundry.

This program requires about $300,000. We find it a hard time to re-finance. The reputation of hospitals nationally for paying their obligations is not good, and for that reason it makes it harder for us and we are not going beyond our ability to pay. But someone has to provide more hospital room in Phoenix and our Board feels that this is their obligations and I am sure they will work out a program in the near future that will remedy this condition.

I wish to emphasize the strength of our Board. On it we have twenty-one members representing eight of the largest Protestant denominations in Arizona, and the Jewish Synagogue. We feel that, while this is a Methodist institution, that for our city we should have a strong Protestant Hospital supported by the other churches and so far we have received this splendid cooperation and support from them.

Our wonderful development has not been the product of any one or of any few men's effort, it has been and is today the product of collective effort, faithful diligent employees, loyal Board members, skilled physicians and a host of interested friends. All these, all these years have helped to carry the load to make ours a temple of healing.

COMMISSION ON CONFERENCE CLAIMANTS

As secretary of the Conference Claimants Endowment Fund and treasurer of the Corporation funds of the Conference, I desire to make a combined report, as both of these positions have to do with the raising and investing of money for the benefit of our Retired Ministers.

It has been a good year, bringing to us some encouragements and at the same time revealing some things which must be accomplished in the future. We have only to stop and look at the service years of the men who are now on our retired list and then add to that the years of service of those who are fast approaching the time when they too must come on the Fund, to realize that we have a gigantic task before us as a Conference. Twenty-five men have the right to retire this Fall in addition to some who, on account of disability, will have to take that relation. Add to these, twenty-five or thirty more, who will have the right to retire in the next four years, and it is easy to see the size of the task that confronts us. We could very easily become discouraged if we dwelt long on that side of it.

I am happy to say, however, that one of the most encouraging things is the fact that this Fund is ever on the hearts of the church. The names of people who are interested are constantly being sent to the office for our attention. Strong laymen have said that it is one cause that challenges them to their best giving. I believe we have a hopeful outlook if we will but give the facts to all our people.

1924 CAMPAIGN: Last year I gave a report of the campaign put on by Wm. M. Jeffers in 1924, showing what had been subscribed and what had been paid thereon. I think it will be of interest to you to know what has happened to it since that time. In that campaign the subscriptions by individuals amounted to $327,835. Since then we have added $10,000 to the subscription list, making the total $337,835, and we are happy to report that of that sum we have in our treasury $323,977, or 95.9 per cent of the total. It just lacks $344 of being 96 per cent paid. I believe we will be able to collect one more per cent of the total, but surely not more than that, for death has removed a good many from the list. Very few have denied their subscriptions.

ENDOWMENT FUNDS: By comparing the statement which is in your hands with the one given last year and printed in the Minutes, you will see our assets have increased this year $133,424.90. We just lack $63,844.15 of being to the million dollar mark as our total assets in both Endowment Funds. We have specialized this year on trying to put our properties and investments into the best condition possible. Some times property is given to us which has no financial return at the time of the gift and it is necessary for our Board to give careful attention to it in order to make it a producing asset. We have made sixteen sales and exchanges this year involving $166,000 worth of property. Some of these sales have been made within the past month and do not figure in the returns. The statement which has been given to you for your careful study gives in detail amounts in our assets which have not produced this year. Our investments are now in a splendid condition for a good return during the coming year.

RETIRING FUND: Last year we suggested a plan to avoid putting on another campaign, suggesting the raising of a new fund to be known as the Retiring Fund. I still believe that if all our churches had carried out that program we could have completed our task without putting on another campaign. However, there was a feeling in the churches that they did not want an extra apportionment and many of them did not make any payments on it. Some of the churches have paid all or part of this year's apportionment for this fund and the question has been asked as to what it will mean for them when many of the others have not paid anything. May I suggest that it would be very unfair for us to receive from some and others ignore it, and I should like to ask this session of the Conference to go on record as giving credit for every dollar which has thus been paid, that credit to be applied to any future campaign which may be put on for the Retired Minister's Fund.

ANNUITIES: Some splendid annuity contracts have been written this year, three of them being for more than $10,000 each. It is a field that should bring real benefits to our cause and should be greatly encouraged among our people. Since the main part of this report was written we have had the pleasure of writing an annuity for $40,000 which does not appear in the summary of assets which has been placed in your hands. This fine annuity comes to us through the help of Brother C. R. Montague of Trinity Church, Pomona, it being from a member of his church. We hereby tender our thanks to the donor for this splendid gift and to Brother Montague for his part in it.

I sincerely hope this Conference session will not close without some plan being adopted for bringing in additional money. I have been opposed to another campaign, but we face a condition that makes something imperative. Unless something is done we will be compelled to either materially increase our apportionments to the churches year by year, or allow our retired brethren to get along with much less than they should have. If you could read the letters that come into the Board of Stewards you would know that the latter is impossible.

In conclusion I desire to pay a word of tribute to the men on the Board of Trustees of this Conference who have worked so harmoniously during these years. The combined service of the present Board amounts to 94 years. There is no pay for these men and yet they give a great amount of time during a year for the advancement of our cause. Fine judgment has been shown by them or this report would not be possible. I also want to thank the preachers and the laymen for their unfailing loyalty and kindness. No one could have a finer co-operation than I have had and for all these things I give hearty thanks.

BENEVOLENCES AND WORLD SERVICE

The World Service Data Book, presenting the present outlook of the World Service of the Methodist Episcopal Church, contains many valuable suggestions for pastors and local churches to which we recommend your careful attention. In the first Outlook Conference, held at Evanston, Illinois, two questions were considered:—First, "What is World Service? and how can all Methodists come to know its meaning?" Second, "How can each Methodist be fully enlisted for his personal share of World Service?" These two questions may well engage our profoundest attention, and pastors and churches may find assistance in answering them through the World Service Central Office.

Only one Methodist out of three contributes anything financially to World Service. Every Methodist is heir to the wonderful record of his church in evangelism, and in Christ-like ministries to the neediest in the whole world. To be informed about the world's needs and the church's program to meet them is the best way to enlist support for it.

We recommend a wider use of The World Service Bulletin, and the World Service News, a thorough organization of the Church School into a Missionary Society, under wise leadership adapting monthly programs to every Department. The Missionary training of the young will insure the future expansion of the Kingdom.

We recommend further the finest co-operation with, and encouragement of the Women's Missionary Societies of our church and a careful study of the reasons for their constant and steady growth.

We recommend that pastors preach Missionary sermons often for information, broader vision and deeper passion, also constant public prayer for missionaries and mission fields, and that wide use be made of the pamphlets furnished free by our Boards.

We recommend a "Parish Abroad," or, the support of students, native pastors, or, Bible women, with personal letters from the field, to be read in church and church school.

We are confident that any church that will follow a part, or all of these suggestions, will develop a lively interest in world needs, will increase the offerings, and will be more passionately evangelistic in its own field.

We are not unmindful of the splendid generosity of our people who have responded to the needs of a world ministry, thus making possible the wonderful missionary achievements of this age.

C. J. OLESON.

STATE OF THE CHURCH

The potency of the church is in proportion to its appropriation of the power of the Holy Spirit. The committee on the State of the Church feels that one of the greatest needs in our day is the deepening of our spiritual lives. The minister is the key man, the shepherd of the flock. We have an unexcelled opportunity this year in the celebration of Pentecost. We, therefore, urge that the greatest possible use be made of this occasion in an effort to secure a renewed consecration for His work.

We are justly proud of our Methodist fellowship. However, much of the restlessness and perhaps, at times unbrotherliness, could easily be eliminated. One of the district superintendents in his report called attention to the undesirability of the present unwritten law of "grades." At other times cabinet members have told of the situation created by different geographical and climatic conditions. The shadow of these things is always hanging over the heads of the Conference and often times so darkens life that it is difficult to see the One we call Lord and Master. We preach the gospel of service to our people. We ask our administrators, the bishops and district superintendents, to serve with an equalized salary regardless of the field of their services, but we have not dared to apply this principle to the men in the pastorate. We are humiliated when we see a great city school system practice this principle before the church and announce that all teachers with the same amount of service and training doing the same kind of work will receive the same salary regardless of the section in which their school is located. We hear it said that it will take away the initiative of pastors—if so are we not then denying the practicability of the teachings of the Master who said, "Whosoever wants to be great among you must be your servant"? We will never do away with the restlessness and unbrotherliness until we put the service motive first. The crying need of this hour is the actual practice of the teachings of Jesus in all relationships—racial, international and industrial as well as personal. We never can proclaim this message effectively until we first begin to practice it. If we cannot practice the principle of service above profit then how can we ask our laymen to do it in the fierce competition of the business world?

In order to lessen the restlessness and unbrotherliness in our fellowship and live as well as preach the gospel of service we recommend that a commission of seven be appointed to study all suggested solutions of other conferences as well as our own and bring in a plan or plans at the next session of the Conference looking toward a minimum salary, a more equitable distribution of all salaries and a maximum length of residence in the frontier areas of the Conference.

It has been said "United we stand, divided we fall." This is certainly true of the Church of Jesus Christ. If it is to conquer for Jesus Christ it must march forward with a united front. We must continually emphasize that we are co-workers with God regardless of denomination or creed. We heartily endorse the increasing spirit of denominational and interdenominational cooperation.

We recommend that a scientific religious survey be made in the community before any new church is established, thus eliminating any possible problem of an overchurched community in the future. We also recommend that our ministers and churches unite other churches in their respective communities in every effort for constructive Kingdom building such as evangelistic services, daily vacation Bible schools, leadership training schools and programs for wholesome recreational life. We suggest that our ministers and churches take the initiative that the Master's prayer "that they may be one" may be realized. Then, as Jesus said, "The gates of hell shall not prevail against it."

R. E. CLAY

INTERNATIONALISM, DISARMAMENT AND PEACE

As a constituted body of Christian Ministers we earnestly believe in, and endorse, and pledge ourselves to support the following statements:

I. Internationalism: We believe in the "Internationalism" taught by Jesus which embraces all peoples, nations, and languages and whose bond of unity is, "OUR FATHER who art in Heaven"; and whose objective is, to seek and serve and obey the ONE TRUE GOD forever.

We believe that if men were friends of God they would be friends of one another.

But, we also believe it to be our duty in CHRIST JESUS to make the advances in friendship; to be merciful, forgiving, generous, kind, not to show contempt, and not to judge, but to go on looking for no reward (personally), and never to despair as the MASTER taught.

THEREFORE: We endorse those movements which seek to promote the conscious efforts of the people of each nation to see graces and qualities of character and artistic ability and possibilities of fellowship in their fellowmen of other nations and races to which they had been blind before.

We commend the steps taken in the educational field for cooperation and understanding by the international exchange of students, professors, clergymen and commissions of friendship. We hope that these will prove to be contributing factors in the world achievement of the goal of Christ.

We receive with pleasure the information of the growing spirit of co-operation in business.

Also we look with growing satisfaction upon the accomplishments of those institutions inaugurated by governments or sponsored by them, such as the League of Nations, the Permanent World Court of International Justice, the Institute of Pacific Relations and like governmental efforts of the nations to study, and seek a solution of, the questions of racial prejudice, human rights, economic rivalry and exploitation, and the reduction of armaments and land forces.

But above these secular efforts of internationalism, we hold as of far greater import and value the missionary labors of Christendom. We believe that only GOD is competent to lead the world to a better day.

II. Disarmament. We rejoice in the progress of the Idea of Disarmament during the past year. And are devoutly thankful that the nations are giving ear to the voice of HIM who calmly said in the face of pikes and swords, "Put up your sword." We are glad that civilization is taking at least one lesson of the World War to heart, namely, (in the phrasing of our beloved Bishop Quayle) that "The rattle of saber and sheath is not the music to which eternity makes march".

We pray our Heavenly Father's blessing upon the forthcoming conversations on naval parity and reduction of armaments soon to take place between the Premier of Great Britain and the President of the United States of America; and hope that the conversation, like the Briand-Kellogg Pact of Paris will be extended to include all nations of the world.

We are confident that our government will not allow the Military Establishment to exceed "the barest necessity for defense" lest "they become a threat of aggression against others and thus a cause of fear and animosity of the world." And we are confident that further reductions in armament and in the Military Establishment will be made as public safety and national welfare will permit.

III. Peace: We are in hearty sympathy with our President, the Honorable Herbert Hoover, and support the steps he proposes for the outlawry of war and the securing of a just and lasting international peace, namely, the steps of conciliation, arbitration, and judicial determination for the settlement of international disputes.

THEREFORE: We urgently recommend the appointment of a "Peace Committee" in every local church in accordance with the optional provision granted by the General Conference of 1928, whose duty it shall be to foster the peace and goodwill and brotherhood sentiment of the congregation by means of literature, lectures, and other legitimate methods; and to cooperate with the committee from other churches in the interest of World Peace and World Brotherhood.

GOLDER LAWRENCE.

SOCIAL SERVICE AND PUBLIC MORALS

All relationships among men are fields for Christian conquest. The aim of the Christian religion, both personal and social, is that men may have life and have it more abundantly. The Christian life begins when the individual for himself seeks, in the spirit of Christ, to link his will with the Father's will.

The slums with their conditions of vice, crime, disease, poverty; the under privileged among childhood and youth; the countless numbers handicapped through physical disability and old age; the condition resulting from unemployment; surely these have been and are among the field for Christian conquest, and Methodism in her great social service program of yesterday and today, has rendered signal service in these fields, and among these peoples.

THE NARCOTIC EVIL: Recognizing the great need of an awakened public conscience pertaining to the growing narcotic evil, we heartily endorse and ask the church to cooperate in the narcotic educational campaign to be conducted by the Narcotic Research Association on this Coast.

OPENING OF THE BORDER. We heartily approve the recent action of our government in Washington when they refused to lift the restriction on the number of hours the border may be open to and from Tia Juana. We believe that the extension of these hours would only lead to further violation of law and give aid to the smuggling of liquor. We deplore a custom of decent American citizens whose curiosity and patronage simply help to keep alive the evil and iniquitous practices of a town of which Mexico is ashamed.

SOCIAL JUSTICE: We feel that the trial and conviction of Tom Mooney and Warren Billings in connection with the Preparedness Parade in San Francisco in 1916 was a miscarriage of justice. It has been proven without a doubt that the whole case was a "frame-up" against two citizens who had annoyed certain big interests in the Industrial World. We heartily join with Judge Franklin A. Griffin in whose court Mooney was convicted, and with U. S. Webb, California's Attorney General and with an increasing host of citizens throughout the country in asking Gov. C. C. Young to grant these two men a pardon from Folsom prison. In the name of all that is fair and just we feel that these men should be given their liberty at once.

THE EIGHTEENTH AMENDMENT: There are three things which call for serious attention in the state of California.

FIRST, THE BOOTLEG PRESS: For ten years the bootleg section of the Press have been trying to make a failure of prohibition. The test of a law is when that law is fully enforced. We are compelled to believe that the opponents of Prohibition dare not trust the honest enforcement of the law they are opposing. We have a right to insist that for the next ten years the public press of America do what it can to make a success of prohibition, otherwise, America may be compelled to talk to the bootleg press in terms of circulation.

SECOND, THE MODERATE DRINKER: The old drunkard is no longer a menace. It is the man who thinks he can take it or let it alone. By his patronage of bootleg liquor he is making crime rich and by his example he is making crime respectable.

The heart of America is right. It remains for every citizen by precept and example to sustain American institutions, whose subsidence President Hoover says "We are witnessing."

Further, we must earnestly cooperate in creating and organizing in every county public sentiment which will register in the election or appointment to enforcement positions, officers who themselves respect the Law they are set to enforce.

THIRD, EDUCATION AS IMPORTANT AS ADMINISTRATION: The task will not be finished by this generation, but by the thirty-five million children in the graded schools of our country who when the Eighteenth Amendment was written into the Federal Constitution of the United States were in the realm of the unborn. To these "Citizens of Tomorrow" must be given the knowledge of the truth about prohibition. To the full fruition of prohibition the Church of the Living God is committed in everlasting covenant, never to be broken.

THEREFORE, we commend to the continued confidence of our Southern California Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church the Anti-Saloon League of California, Arizona and New Mexico.

We further ask the appointment to the Executive Committee of the California Anti Saloon League of

A. J. Wallace, Elmer E. Helms, Willsie Martin,

INDUSTRIAL RELATIONS

We are to approve that which is worthy, and cleave to that which is good. There is much in our so-called machine age, which makes for the abundant life, and much upon which we cannot lay holy hands in approval and blessing. Machines are not of necessity materialistic. They are the thoughts of men made actualities. They have power, when dominated by the good spirit, to make life more abundant for all. We welcome every new discovery of science and every new invention which has in it the potential power to enrich life, but we will challenge them all in the name of the fair Christ and ask, "Whose shall these things be?"

We call upon our churches to set their own houses in order. We are the one organization upon this earth held together by love, seeking not its own, and set wholly to the service of man and the establishment of the Kingdom of righteousness upon earth. The great major note of this conference is, that it must begin in the hearts of men. We welcome that emphasis and remind ourselves that it must extend to every human relation and that He must reign until He has put every enemy of the good life under his feet.

There is tremendous social dynamic in the Protestant type of worship which finds God more in the wistful, worshipping folk, than in bread or wine, pictures or symbols. Know ye that ye are the temples of the living God, and that such temples are holy. Those who know themselves and other humans as the temples of that Most High can not deal carelessly and irreverently with the bodies and souls of men. It is no accident or mere coincident that the Wesleyan movement and the labor movement have commingled, and before we surrender the form of worship which is our heritage, let us consider well, the social redemption as well as the individual salvation inherent in it.

We will not always be understood when we say, that property is a sacred stewardship. Property held for power and profit we must challenge in His name. Personality is prior to and superior to property and must have the right of way. We will not always be understood but He was not always understood, but the world is His, He made it, and it must come to Him, or perish.

REPORT OF EDGAR J. EVANS, CONFERENCE EVANGELIST

The past season has been one of the busiest since I have been Conference Evangelist. It has been one of the happiest and most successful years. We have continued our policy of assisting pastors meet the problems of their own particular situation rather than forcing upon every place a cut and dried program. In one church we did not make any altar calls; in another church we made only two or three; and in still another we had scenes which every night resembled an old time camp meeting.

In several churches we put special emphasis upon church membership, while in one or two we made no attempt whatever to increase the membership of the church because the pastor did not feel that was the immediate need. In every place we emphasized night after night the saving and keeping power of Jesus Christ. Meetings were held in the First Church, Hollywood; Point Loma; Crescent Heights; Lincoln Avenue, Pasadena; Glendale, Arizona; Rialto; Costa Mesa; Highland; Corona; Lemoore; East Side, Long Beach; Escondido; Lynwood; and Magnolia Park, Burbank. The majority of these meetings were two weeks and a few, ten days in duration. Mrs. Evans assisted me in all meetings, especially in our work with young people. Offerings for the year amounted to $3434.

E. J. EVANS

REPORT OF W. C. McINTIRE, CONFERENCE EVANGELIST

During this Conference year I have held twenty-one meetings, as follows:

Two in Congregational Churches, Berean and Lincoln Memorial, both in Los Angeles.

Two in the East Pasadena Nazarene Church.

Two camp meetings, Atlanta, Texas, and Mt. Carmel, Ky.

One in a school house at Malaga, Ky.

One in a Rescue Home, Shreveport, Louisiana.

Three in Colleges, Pasadena Nazarene, Pasadena Pilgrim and Marshall Baptist, in Marshall, Texas.

Two in Methodist Episcopal Churches, South, Hebron, Ky., and Lebanon, Missouri.

Eight in seven Methodist Episcopal Churches, San Dimas; Tustin; Colton; Grace Church, Fresno; Douglas, Arizona; Elton, Louisiana and Marshall, Texas.

My observation is that evangelists who have a sympathetic understanding of the problems of the pastor and the church, and who are constructive in method and message, are in increasing demand. I am happy in this work to which God has called me, and rejoice to report sweet peace and victory in my own soul.

I have received for my work $1640.

DEACONESS BOARD

Earnest and consecrated work has marked the activities of the Deaconesses of the Southern California Conference during the past year. Under the efficient guidance of Miss Verta Naylor, Superintendent, the Home in Los Angeles has truly been a home in every sense of the word for our Deaconesses.

During the year there have been two additions to the personnel of the Deaconesses in this Conference. Miss Dora Butler, coming from First Church, Omaha, Nebraska, is now located at First Methodist Episcopal Church, Gardena. Miss Alice Hawkins, a graduate from the Kansas City Training School, has just taken up her duties at First Church, Alhambra.

Miss Jennie May Brown, serving at the Goodwill Industries, at her own request, was honorably discharged, and Miss Pearl Kostenbader requests continued leave of absence. Mrs. C. W. Horton and Miss Margaret Fries request retired relation.

Miss Flora Cho, who was engaged in children's work in the First Japanese Church, Los Angeles, is on leave of absence, attending the University of California at Los Angeles, more adequately to fit her for her chosen work.

Miss Mary J. Ryan, who has been teaching in the San Francisco Training School, has returned to this Conference and is now Director of Religious Education at First Church, Redlands.

Miss Alice Louise Brown, Religious Educational Director at First Church, Whittier, is asking to be transferred to this conference.

Excellent work is being done by Miss Mildred Hughes, teacher in our Spanish school at Tucson, Arizona, and Miss Marie Dodge Cook, Chaplain at the Good Samaritan Hospital, Phoenix, Arizona, and Miss Elizabeth Boardman, assistant at Robincroft.

Miss Clara Mills will again resume her duties at First Church, Pasadena; Miss Jennie M. Gasser at Asbury Church; Miss Ida Hickman at University Church; Miss Dennis E. Smith at First Church, Los Angeles; Miss Ada Tarr and Miss Marie Hoge at the Church of All Nations; Miss Ethel Ristine, Deaconess at Large. The above are all doing work of a high standard and great efficiency in the Master's service.

One of our beloved workers, Mrs. Mary Widaman, went to her Heavenly reward on November 17th, 1928.

A poster announced: "A score or more of children and young people believed to have gone in the direction of no Sunday School." Was it worth while to have taught over three thousand the past year in the churches and missions of our cities? One thousand and three hundred in daily Vacation Bible School; over eight hundred in Junior League; two hundred plus in Intermediate League; six hundred preparatory members in classes, and almost one thousand in Bible classes, and at least twenty-one nationalities represented in these groups?

Much supply work has been necessary, amounting to $1,864.22; and $1,647.79 in money was used to relieve the suffering and bring some degree of comfort. 11,889 calls were made in homes and hospitals; 744 meetings conducted; 8,531 children are in the kindergarten and 5,000 in club and class work.

"Workers together with God." Such is the privilege of those who have labored in the Deaconess work during the past year. To come in close contact with the children, the women and men who need Christ—here we find the poor, the sick, the suffering, and help to bring sunshine into their darkened lives.

BENJ. S. HAYWOOD

CALIFORNIA STATE CHURCH FEDERATION

The culmination of the many movements of the past year, looking toward church harmony, if not Church Unity, all grow out of the organization started just twenty years ago, of "The Federal Council of Churches of Christ in America." The tremendous significance of that movement in its various forms can only be understood when we keep in mind that there are 217 denominations in the United States and only 110 of them have churches in California; but 80% of all the members of the Protestant churches in the country are members of the twenty-eight denominations in the Federal Council and the remaining 187 denominations have but 20% of the total membership; only thirty-two denominations have more than 150,000 members in the United States.

FINANCES: Five years ago, the State Church Federation was overwhelmed with debt. Today, we owe not a dollar and have a small sum in our current expense account as well as a revolving fund for emergencies. Our accounts are audited by the Certified Public Accountant, Ralph W. E. Cole.

It should be understood that the Denominations as yet, do not pay enough to cover the budget authorized by the Annual Meeting. The deficit and other expenditures authorized by the Annual Meeting not in the budget, are provided for by individual special contributions.

OFFICE WORK: Our office is kept busy with a very large amount of correspondence, it is almost impossible to realize that during the last year our mail cost us $293, of this amount about $120 was used in our reform work, which does not come every year and special funds were secured for this particular purpose. The balance indicates that we have posted at least 11,500 pieces of mail in our regular work.

During the year we have written a number of articles and paragraphs for the church papers. In harmony with the authorization of the Annual Meeting several years ago, we have published two or three issues a year of the Federation News with a circulation varying from three to four thousand copies, mailed to about 2600 clergymen and about one-half as many laymen. In order that the organization shall do its best work, the time must soon come when the paper will be published not less than bi-monthly.

COMITY COUNCILS AND LOCATION OF CHURCHES:

One of the most important departments of the work of the California State Church Federation are the three Comity Councils with headquarters at Los Angeles, San Francisco and Fresno. These councils are composed of the Superintendents of the denominations affiliated with the State Church Federation. This organization holds ten meetings during the year and the attendance runs from 12 to 18. The subjects taken under consideration in the interest of harmony and cooperation among the various denominations average not less than one hundred a year. The most important work is the allocation of communities for new churches. During the past six years, more than 200 communities in the State have been allocated to individual denominations from which other denominations agree to stay out until a second church is authorized by the Council.

CITY FEDERATION: In harmony with the instructions received, the Secretary has promoted the organization of City Federations or Councils of Churches. It is very probable that there will be three new city federations organized this year and others during the coming year.

RELIGIOUS EDUCATION: Two very significant movements have been put into operation during the year in this department. A friend of the cause, has provided the salary for an associate secretary, who devotes most of his time to research work for the promotion of Religious Education, planned by the Federal Council of Churches. Mr. Maurice Rossman has devoted most of his time to this work, under the direction of J. L. Corley, the General Secretary of the State organization. Mr. Rossman has written a valuable "Brief," dealing with the development of a proposed approach to the problem of week-day Religious Education in the State of California, which has been widely distributed in the State among Educators and directors of Religious Education.

A MIRACLE IN CALIFORNIA: The miracle is the organization of "The University Religious Conference," at the University of California at Los Angeles, composed of Protestant, Roman Catholics and Jews. The organization has been incorporated and is planning to provide a building near the University grounds for its purpose, to cost about $150,000. A budget of $56,000 has been agreed upon for the constituent groups and the Conference administration.

INTERNATIONAL RELATIONS: In order that there shall not be overlapping in the various departments of work and thus unnecessarily increasing the total expenditures to promote Christian ideals the Annual Meeting made the organization of the "Council of International Relations" of which Mr. George Gleason is President, its committee on World Peace.

REFORM WORK: Reform work is of such a character that it is necessary for an organization of this kind to be exceedingly careful in taking any active part in any movement which is not unanimously endorsed by the denominations in the Federation. This policy has been strictly adhered to by the Secretary.

In conclusion, we can say of the State Church Federation what the Executive Secretary of the Pittsburgh Council said in his Annual Report as follows: "Beyond question the most outstanding value of the Council is the fact that it affords a medium for the expression of unified Protestantism. Herein the churches of different denominations work together on their common tasks, face together their common problems, find together the unity of the spirit in the bonds of a common fealty to one Lord and Saviour, Jesus Christ."

ANTI-SALOON LEAGUE DEPARTMENT OF ARIZONA AND NEW MEXICO

Arizona and New Mexico, larger in area than ten Eastern states, with an international border longer than any other; traversing a wild, rugged desert country, yielding practically unguarded access to the sea by the way of the mouth of the Colorado River; with a wet nation to the South in almost constant state of revolution; with a population forty per cent Spanish speaking and twenty per cent Indian; presents a problem of considerable magnitude.

While our 800,000 population seems small and because of the vast Missionary needs of the frontier settlements, Indians and Mexicans, the churches are poor in purse and numbers; they present the same time-consuming need for contact upon the part of your Superintendent as are required in the states of larger population.

Serving actively upon our headquarters committee at Phoenix are found business and professional men, Mormon Church presidents, working in full cooperation with Methodist, Presbyterian, Baptist, Christian, Congregational, Episcopal and Lutheran Ministers as well as representatives of other faiths.

We have traveled this conference year more than 49,000 miles by automobile, more than 11,000 miles by train and during the Fall, considerable distances by airplane. We have delivered 216 addresses, have broadcasted 21 times over the radio, have spoken 182 times in public schools and colleges, we have mailed out 211,000 pieces of literature and have mailed from our office approximately 100,000 letters; we have furnished 1,180 interviews to the press. The Honorable W. S. Stephens, Treasurer of our headquarters committee at Phoenix, has received $7,684.37.

This has been a year of great legislative activity on the part of the League. The New Mexico legislature adopted a dry enforcement code without change as written by your Superintendent and approved by the Anti-Saloon League Board of Trustees. The opposition to this legislation was terrific on the part of the wets and its enactment represents the most signal victory ever achieved by us in New Mexico since we carried the state years ago for constitution prohibition.

In both states during this year, we obtained signal victories in the enactment of legislation providing for temperance and narcotic instruction in public schools.

In Arizona at the beginning of this year's work, we were confronted with a very serious lack of harmony as between the several law enforcement agencies. We have tried out an experiment which has proved a signal success. We have avoided as much as possible dealing in any individual cases of enforcement and have undertaken to make our office a coordinative influence between the various law enforcement agencies. This has worked so successful that our office in Phoenix has become a regular clearing house of contacts between these several agencies. At the close of this year all law enforcement agencies are working in a splendid harmonious manner.

No two states could have finer examples of clean citizenship in the governor's chair than has New Mexico and Arizona at this time, and it is our belief that greater progress has been made in the last six months in these two states in behalf of respect for the constitution and all law and the enforcement thereof than has been made in the previous nine and a half years.

RADIO BROADCASTING

AN UNFULFILLED PROMISE: "Communication is a tool, a progressive invention, whose improvements react upon mankind and alter the life of every individual and institution. We can understand nothing rightly unless we perceive the manner in which the revolution in communication has made a new world for us."—Charles Horton Cooley.

To those who have looked hopefully upon radio as a dynamic instrument for elevating cultural standards and fostering good citizenship and noble idealism, the actual result has been more than disappointing. Undoubtedly, broadcasting is the most effective medium of mass communication yet devised. In the United States, however, its educational and social possibilities have been unrealized. Plainly, the wedding of this art with a commercial progenitor has begotten a cultural hybrid.

THE NATIONAL EMBARRASSMENT: "A generation ago," observes James G. McDonald, Chairman of the Foreign Policy Association, "the educationalists missed their opportunity to help save the movies from cheap sensationalism. They, as a group, seem unconcerned with the probability of missing a similar opportunity which may never recur to help make the radio what the movies might have been." On the floors of the Senate and House of Representatives, and in the reports of hearings having to do with broadcasting; in magazines and the best newspapers; from civic and club platforms; and in home circles, protest can be heard against the prevalent use of broadcasting.

There being no question about the extent of the influence of radio psychology,—taste, habits, thought and action for the individual and for the mass—the problem is being faced as to whether this influence is to be fixed for good or ill. Is the permanent effect of the new invention to be, in the main, merely a widespread popularizing of what is cheap, vulgar, commonplace in music and entertainment; meretricious in art; and unauthoritative, fragmentary and fallacious in education? Or is radio to spread among the people the very best of what is thought and has been uttered by great minds whether in politics, or music, or morals, or religion? Is it going to "transmute the findings of the scholar into the very fabric of our civilization," popularize learning and idealism and adapt them to the living needs of the people? Is it going to familiarize the electorate with all the facts obtainable from those qualified to expound public issues such as are presented by our increasingly complicated social and economic life? Is it to be an auxiliary of democracy, or an adversary? Is it to be a latent force only, sold out to commercialized entertainment and private interests?

A PLAN FOR REALIZING RADIO'S GREATEST USEFULNESS: It was such consideration which led a number of leaders in California, educators, representatives of civic institutions, business men and clergymen to accept the invitation of the official committee of the Southern California Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church, and evolve a plan for an organization capable of realizing radio's highest possibilities in the fields of adult education, juvenile instruction, music, art, drama, religion, sociology, civics, special intelligence, formal and technical learning,—in short, to engage in every appropriate service which would beneficially affect the welfare of the individual, the home, the special group and the public at large.

THE PACIFIC-WESTERN BROADCASTING FEDERATION: The Pacific-Western Broadcasting Federation, incorporated, is governed by an autonomous, self-perpetuating board of directors. Its articles of incorporation provide that it shall remain forever non-profit-making; non-partisan; non-sectarian; and, except in so far as loyalty to truth and devotion to the common good implies or requires the contrary, it shall be non-propagandic.

It is an agency with the specific intention of making clear to the public the privileges and responsibilities of good citizenship; of stimulating intelligent participation in government and community interests; of encouraging world fraternity; of endeavoring to aid the religious groups to function as a whole for all the citizenry in all departments of organized life. It has the resolute aim to preserve the disinterestedness, the integrity, the authenticity of education and educational activity in radio broadcasting. It will cultivate the arts, minister to the public health, foster mental hygiene, and diligently endeavor to increase happiness and promote human progress.

Studies and pick-up points, with remote control apparatus, will be established in convenient locations in centers of culture, thus facilitating the cooperation of the best talent under natural working conditions. Through these feeders drawing from the centers of culture and population in a section of the country long noted for the high standards of its intellectual and civic life, will be delivered to the great broadcasting station its program material. Thus, the Pacific-Western Broadcasting Federation will be enabled to secure larger exercise of influence for the nation's noblest institutions and afford wider range of service to its best leadership.

RELIGION AND THE RADIO: Of special interest to such a group as this,—men who are supremely interested in "that kingdom of humanity which is in so large part the Kingdom of God," for the Son of Man's sake,—is the relationship of radio to religion. In the current issue of the Federal Council Bulletin, Roger Babson, writing on church federation, devotes a paragraph to the extreme desirability of every church federation having its own broadcasting station. "The radio offers as great an opportunity for a new era of religious and educational renaissance," he affirms, "as did the printing press three centuries ago."

The church membership of fifty years ago was largely recruited by mass evangelism. "Apparently," however, says Mr. Babson, writing at length in another periodical, "the churches are in the same situation today that the old guilds were in a hundred years ago when the steam engine was invented. The steam engine did not decrease the interest in manufactured goods, but rather greatly increased the output of manufactured goods. The method of work was greatly revolutionized, however, and the factories became the means of production and of displacing the guilds. Those who recognized and capitalized this change were very successful, but those who failed to do so fell by the wayside. May not the churches of America be facing a similar situation today? Let us not be like those who fought for hand labor and who refused to adopt looms and spinning machinery."

During the past year, it was the privilege of the speaker to attend a prayer-meeting of Dr. S. Parkes Cadman, taking place at his own church, in Brooklyn. There were not more than twenty-five or thirty persons present. The next Sunday afternoon, however, Dr. Cadman addressed an audience estimated at ten to fifteen million people. What made the amazing difference? Radio! Financial investment of a million dollars or more are often tied up in our metropolitan churches. The church buildings are locked up a very large proportion of the time. They usually render a ministry during a few hours each month, to several hundred or several thousand persons. The same amount of capital invested placed in a great radio broadcasting station would render a vital spiritual ministry, —to hundreds of thousands of persons from sixteen to twenty-four hours per day throughout the year. Pause a moment and compute the comparative cost of production, the per unit price of results obtained.

If every pulpit in Christendom were suppressed tomorrow, the Gospel of Jesus Christ might be transmuted into every home around the world by means of this "viewless messenger of heaven." That is not said to berate the pulpit, but to emphasize the importance of broadcasting. No agency for missionary education and reaching the un-churched is so effective as radio. In no other field is universal cooperation so necessary, so normal, so Christly. It is the zero hour for a daring advance in the way of true catholicity. Radio to the minds of numerous statesmen in the church, is the instrument ordained of God to bring this to pass.

STATUS OF THE FEDERATION: First it was necessary to set up an organization. This was accomplished by the official Conference committee and reported at the session last year at Santa Barbara. Secondly, approval had to be secured from the Federal government, which by many was said to be out of the question. The Federation sought awards of construction permits to establish a 50,000 watt transmitter to be located in Southern California and used for local and national broadcasting. It also applied for a 15,000 watt high frequency transmitter to relay its programs to other nations. These concessions were granted. When exercised, the awards are variously estimated at a valuation of from one to three million dollars. Their psychological and social worth are beyond the mind to estimate.

The third major concern is the financing. With special acknowledgment of gratitude to a certain Congregationalist layman who has already put $25,000.00 into the undertaking, it is possible to report the corporation's finances well taken care of, to date.

The effect of converting the world into a vast auditorium, of proclaiming the evangel of Jesus, of bringing the arts within reach of every home, of enabling the key personalities of the nation's collective life to relate themselves to their fellow-citizens for the opening of minds and hearts to ideals of which the majority is scarcely aware, cannot but be far-reaching. It is believed by some that the psychological, social and religious potentialities released by the radio are sufficiently great to warrant the opinion that its application during the next ten years will predetermine the course of history during the remainder of the century.

In Memoriam

GEORGE W. WILSON

On January 25th, George W. Wilson very quietly and peacefully fell asleep. He will not answer the roll call at this Conference, but is in the immediate presence of His Lord.

George W. Wilson, the youngest of twelve children, was born in Ireland. His father, a ship captain, died at sea when he was a child of nine. His Godly mother did not long survive the shock of his father's death and two years later she, too, went to her reward. Left an orphan at eleven, he could never get away from the influence of both father and mother. When she was dying, his mother called him to her side, placed her hand on his head, and made him promise to meet her in heaven.

When thirteen years of age, he came to America with two sisters, settled in Buffalo and two years later when he was fifteen was soundly converted. Immediately, he was called to preach, hesitated for a time, but soon gave his full consent and was committed to his life work. For some years, he was in the regular itineracy, then he entered the evangelist field where his greatest work was done. From 1905 to 1913, he was Chaplain at the Soldiers' Home.

George W. Wilson was a remarkable man. He had unusual powers of both mind and heart. As a clear, logical thinker and an expositor of Methodist doctrine, he has not been excelled in our Conference. He was a marvelous man of prayer. A few times stand out with us of his mighty wrestlings with God that were like Jacob at Peniel or Elijah on Carmel. He had a wide ministry in the evangelistic field, was often the companion of Bishop W. X. Ninde, holding Pentecostal Meetings in his conferences. Brother Wilson was a strong champion of the doctrine of Perfect Love. He was a writer as well as a preacher and his book, "Truths As I Have Seen Them," will remain one of the classics on Methodist doctrine and experience.

His funeral was one of the most triumphant we have ever attended. L. T. Guild, J. E. Ferris, E. E. Helms and Dr. John Gillies, and the writer took part, and a large number of ministers were present. Dr. John Gillies, noble veteran himself, knew Brother Wilson in his early ministry; he described vividly the revivals he held with him, their tremendous effect, and abiding merit, and said that his own son, J. Lewis Gillies, and his daughter were converted in those meetings. What a tribute for a hero of the Cross!

A minister is often judged by his children. Brother Wilson had a noble family. His first wife, Jennie Thurston, was the mother of four of his children. She died in 1882. In 1884, he was married to Elma Boggs who has been his faithful companion during these years. She still survives him and is the mother of four children. His oldest son lives in Providence. Mrs. Warren Scott, Mrs. Arthur Lindley, Ethel, Bernice, George, Jr., and Ralph all survive their father. To these, we express our sympathy in such loss, but rejoice in their goodly parentage.

George W. Wilson was a man of radical makeup. He was a fighter for what he thought right, yet he was a man of great tenderness of heart. This writer knew the warmth of his big nature and has had a great personal loneliness at his home going.

May his mantle fall upon us who yet remain to preach the Gospel he loved and preached so well.

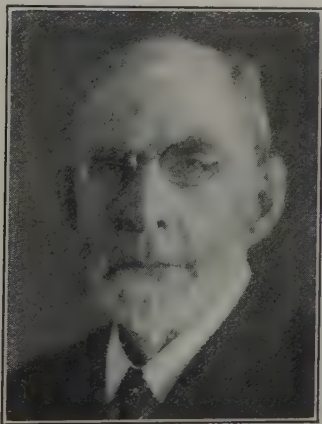

"Servant of God well done;
Thy glorious warfares past,
The battle's fought, the race is won,
And thou art crowned at last."

FRED H. ROSS.

A. W. LAMPORT

When the word came that Dr. Lamport had been admitted to the company of the immortals, a multitude of his friends and former parishioners felt the hallowing touch of the hand of God.

A native of Indiana, he was born on February 8, 1847. When only a boy he joined the Union Army and was a fierer the latter part of the Civil War, marching with Sherman to the sea.

He was admitted to the North Indiana Conference in 1871, and continued in the effective relation for nearly 54 years. Several of his pastorates were notable and powerful. He was for three times pastor of First Church, Richmond, Ind. In 1902, he was transferred to the Southern California Conference, and for six years was pastor of First Church, Pasadena. His subsequent appointments were Trinity, Pomona; Vincent and Larchmont Heights, Los Angeles.

He is survived by four sons, Homer Hudson Lamport of Lomita, Calif.; Herbert Wesley Lamport of Chicago, Ill.; Harry B. Lamport of Los Angeles, and Warren D. Lamport of Long Beach.

The funeral service, at Dr. Lamport's request, was held in Holliston Ave. Church, Pasadena, and was participated in by C. E. Leitzell, C. E. Barnes, a former colleague in Indiana, and the writer. Interment was in Mishawaka, Ind.

What a fine type of Methodist minister Dr. Lamport was. He preached the gospel, and by his life illustrated it. He possessed rare equipoise of character; strength and gentleness, tact and firmness, courtesy and consideration for the views of others with outspoken loyalty to his own convictions, found in him harmonious and admirable union. He was an evangelical preacher; his preaching centered in the great verities of redemption. He was a scriptural preacher; by long and continuous study he achieved unusual knowledge of the Scriptures and skill in their presentation. He was an evangelistic preacher; invitations to immediate surrender to God and the redeeming Christ came easily from his heart and lips. He was a courageous preacher; the liquor traffic, for instance, always knew where to find him and learned to respect his fighting quality.

He excelled as a pastor. In Pasadena, after 21 years, his memory is an inspiration and a benediction.

He was a companionable man and minister. He was serious but never morbid. He not only loved books but he loved humanity. His alert mind, his cheerfulness and ready laughter, his quick sympathies, his wide outlook on the affairs of the world and the Kingdom attracted to him young and old.

His executive and business ability was of high order. He was patient, laborious, giving careful attention to details, slurring no task, however insignificant.

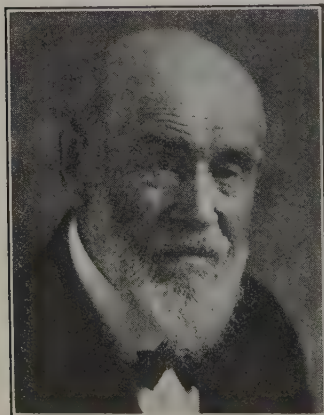

His devotion to his family, his joy in his sons, was beautiful and admirable.

"A good minister of Jesus Christ," faithful to every trust, loyal to his home, his Country, his Church and to God, he left on every community he served the impress of a beautiful life and a sincere and sturdy character, and he has come at last into "the inheritance of the saints in light."

MERLE N. SMITH.

SAMUEL B. WOOLPERT

Samuel B. Woolpert was born near Peru, Ind., May 29, 1847. Here he grew to manhood, at a period when the nation was rent with civil strife. Feeling the urge of patriotic devotion, he enlisted in the service of his country when he was not far advanced in his teens. This early expression of unselfish loyalty was one of the marked characteristics of his life which manifested itself through all his years. The war having closed, he established a residence in Kansas and feeling called to the Christian ministry, he entered Baker University as a student. In this relation, he was associated with Bishop Quayle and other notables who were at that time preparing themselves for their future work.

On Sept. 18, 1870, he was joined in marriage to Martha Hodges of Topeka, Kansas, and for more than 58 years, these splendid spirits lived in happy concord, and established a delightful Christian home which radiated the faith that he preached and gave full proof of the Christian belief in which they lived. In 1877, Brother Woolpert joined the Kansas Conference, where he labored for 10 years, accepting assignments to charges which, in that day, were small and providing a very uncertain support.

In 1887, he was transferred to the Southern California Conference and for 13 consecutive years, he and his good family lived and labored in its bounds. At this time the rapid march of development of the Southwest was beginning its forward stride, and here he helped to lay the foundations of some of our leading churches; notably among these is First Church of Glendale of which he was an early pastor.

In 1899, his health failed. Since that date, he has been a faithful and helpful supporter of the local church, very much loved and honored by the congregation of the First Church of Alhambra.

Brother and Sister Woolpert gave full proof of their devotion to the church in their years of whole-hearted service; but they did more than this—they lived modestly and frugally and gave a large portion of what came into their hands to the various causes and institutions of the church.

They loved the church, and rarely can we find a devotion so complete as they revealed through the years. It is from such homes as these, that we can expect people to be called to the ministry and to that no less honorable position of minister's wife.

Maud Woolpert became the wife of O. W. Reinius of this Conference, a position which she filled with high honor till the day when she was taken from toil to reward.

Since the day of her departure, the conversation in the Woolpert home has dwelt much upon heaven and the land of pure delight, and on Monday afternoon, Feb. 25, 1929, Brother Samuel Woolpert followed his faith and hope into the land of life eternal. Funeral services were in charge of the pastor, E. F. Gates, assisted by A. Ray Moore, and S. J. Rogers.

Brother Woolpert leaves a devoted wife of over half a century's companionship, and a son, Royal M. Woolpert of Oakland, Calif.

His body rests in beautiful Forest Lawn and the fragrance of his life abides with his friends.

E. F. GATES.

THOMAS S. URENN

Thomas S. Urenn was born in Illegan Downs, England, in the year 1840 and passed to his reward, September 27th, 1929.

When 27 years of age he left England for South America, sailing around Cape Horn and arrived in Chile, December 8th, 1867. As a local preacher he had conducted religious worship every Sunday during the long voyage of three months. Locating at Copiope, Chile, he took up the work of teaching, and while there organized "The Union Church," holding the first service, August 10, 1868. In spite of severe opposition by Romanist leaders the church steadily gained under his leadership. Later, Wm. Taylor, the great missionary apostle, came as minister to this church and so well under these leaders were the foundations laid that this church remains today in increasing prosperity.

Four years later he came to California and took his place in the membership of our church and became, too, a devoted citizen of this republic. Here he met Fannis Frances Freeman, to whom he was married in 1873, and together they lived and worked in devoted service in our church until five years ago when she preceded him to the heavenly home. Three daughters survive them, two sons having passed away a few years ago: Mrs. Pengilly, of Tacoma, Wash., Mrs. Clyde E. Mort, of Rialto, Calif., and Mrs. Robt. Allen of Los Angeles.

In 1872 he joined the Nevada Mission Conference in which territory he labored for nine years, coming to Southern California in 1881, where he entered heartily into the work of the conference and where he ministered to the following congregations: Santa Barbara, San Diego, Compton, Tulare, San Luis Obispo, Ventura, Hueneme, Glendora, Garvanza, and Gardena, everywhere his ministry being a great blessing to the congregations. In 1904 he retired from the pastorate and in this retired relation spent the closing years of his life, but ever maintaining his deep interest in the work of the church. On Friday morning, September 27th, the Heavenly Father called him and he entered into rest—to rest of body but to spiritual adventure and eternal activity.

Strong in body, vigorous in mind, devoted to the work of the conference, always holding his brethren in affectionate esteem, he had moved among us a strong and kindly soul, “a good minister of Christ Jesus,” and had done his full share in laying the foundations not only of the church here but of the State in our imperial Southland. He had fought a good fight, he had finished his course, he had kept the faith, and now the Master has crowned him with that crown of righteousness. He had promised to all who love and serve Him. And we can sing:

“Jesus Thou Prince of life,
Thy chosen cannot die.
Like Thee they conquer in the strife
To reign with Thee on high.”

The funeral service was held Tuesday, October 1st, conducted by E. E. Helms, assisted by A. Ray Moore and the addresses were given by Alfred Inwood, F. D. Mather and Dr. Luther Freeman, pastor of the Congregational Church, Pomona, a relative of Mrs. Urenn. The body was laid to rest in beautiful Hollywood cemetery, G. E. Monkman having charge of the beautiful service there.

ALFRED INWOOD

MRS. W. ALONZO REYNOLDS

On Independence day, at their parsonage home in Pomona, W. Alonzo Reynolds and his two sons, W. Alonzo, Jr., and Philip, bade good-bye to wife and mother, when after an illness of nearly two years the soul of Mary McKennan Reynolds was set free and became independent of the sufferings of this earthly body.

After a courtship which began in their childhood school days, W. Alonzo Reynolds and Mary Elizabeth McKennan were married June 25th, 1912. The seventeen years of companionship between this young pastor and his wife was most ideal. Both in the home and in the Christian ministry Mary Reynolds found it easy to enter into the life of her husband with hearty sympathy and rare understanding. She was a graduate of James Milliken University at Decatur, Illinois, and a member of the Delta Delta Sorority.

Her devotion to her Christ and His Church and to her family was noble and beautiful. During her long illness her faith was strong and sure.

When, during the last few months, she came to realize that she must say good-bye to her family and the Church, she calmly planned all details of her funeral, especially requesting that her friends should not incur the expense of purchasing flowers. It seemed to her that such money might better be dedicated to Kingdom building. But her friends went into their own gardens and gathered flowers which had been planted and cultivated by their own hands, until the church where her body lay was a gorgeous mass of California's most beautiful blossoms.

The funeral, which was largely attended, was held in the First Church, Pomona, where Brother Reynolds is pastor, and was in charge of the writer, his District Superintendent, assisted by A. Ray Moore and George A. Warmer. She was buried in Inglewood cemetery.

"It seemeth such a little way to me,
Across to that strange country, The Beyond;
For it has grown to be
The home of those of whom I am so fond.

And so for me there is no Death,
It is but crossing, with abated breath,
A little strip of sea,
To find one's loved ones waiting on the shore,
More beautiful, more precious, than before."

WALTER C. BUCKNER.

MRS. A. E. JOHNSON

The span of earthly life of Mary Aurilla Piper, born Oct. 10, 1861 at Glenco, O., was almost three score years and eight—sweet in childhood, attractive in girlhood, and noble in womanhood! As a doctor's daughter, she early learned to meet and sympathize with people, a trait which proved of great value as the wife of a Methodist minister.

She was married in 1885 to Arthur Edward Johnson who had been principal of the school she attended in Glencoe, O., and thus she entered into the labors and ministry of a successful itinerant which recorded the duties and privileges, the ideals and visions, the economies and sacrifices, the defeats and victories of the parsonage home and twenty-eight years of gracious and fruitful service.

Would you know something of the toils and cares, the activities of the home and the church of this zealous parsonage mother? Go to Frazeyburg, Columbus and Malta, O., Washington Court House, O., to Portsmouth, O., where their daughter Margaret, now Mrs. Robt. Dutcher, was born; to Neward, O., where their daughter Agnes was born; to Gilliopolis where Brother Johnson was District Superintendent. Then, on account of his failing health, follow them across the continent to San Luis Obispo, California, Sawtelle; Grace Church, Long Beach; Glendora, and Marengo Ave., Alhambra. In all these different communities, Mrs. Johnson made a host of friends and was commended for her great earnestness, her friendliness, and spiritual grace. At Sawtelle, Mrs. Johnson had an almost fatal attack of pneumonia which considerably weakened her general health.

In 1913, Brother Johnson passed on to his coronation. His family continued to live in Alhambra in the residence which had been in process of building at his death.

During these intervening years, Mrs. Johnson has been failing in health but only in the past two years had she become especially frail. But her interest in the church which was paramount never lagged. As a member of the Official Board and Women's Societies she was faithful beyond the measure of her strength—even to the day of her death, July 11, 1929.

Mrs. Johnson had an alert mind and found much enjoyment in the reading of the choicest literature, the church periodicals and in the study of current events.

She was a woman of deep conviction, resolute purpose and unflinching loyalty. She was devoted to her home and loved ones with a perfect mother's love and leaves to her sorrowing daughters the priceless legacy of a Godly life.

To her, Jesus Christ was not merely a conventional Saviour from her sins but a blessed Redeemer, a gracious Sanctifier, an abiding Comforter. This was her glowing testimony in the last prayer service she attended. She did what she could. She gave all she was and rejoiced in the certainties and verities of the glorious Gospel of the Son of God.

She has heard the music of the Master's call and entered into an "inheritance, incorruptible, undefiled and that fadeth not away," a "house not made with hands eternal in the heavens."

The funeral service was held in the Marengo Avenue Methodist Episcopal Church, Monday afternoon, July 15th. Grant G. Stewart, Edgar W. Pasko and F. G. H. Stevens, intimate friends of the family, had part in the service with the pastor. The interment was beside her husband at San Gabriel Cemetery.

M. G. WENZ.

MRS. J. M. RICHMOND

Sarah Virginia Richmond was born at Portsmouth, Ohio, May 28th, 1854 and died at Garden Grove, California, March 27th, 1929, age 74 years and 10 months. She was converted and united with the Methodist Episcopal Church in childhood. She had a clear and satisfactory experience which was not clouded with doubts and fears in her declining years.

She was united in marriage to J. M. Richmond in January 1883. To them was born one child, a son, William Harrison, who died at the age of 10 months.

At the time of their marriage Brother Richmond, then a young itinerant Methodist preacher, was the pastor of the Mt. Auburn church in the Illinois Conference. She was educated in the public schools of Illinois and later she became a student in Blackburn University at Carlinville, Ill., where she prepared for the teaching profession. Sister Richmond as a young bride gave up her profession as a teacher in the public schools and immediately entered into the work of the church with her pastor husband. They retired from the active work of the ministry, in the Fall of 1920.

In 1894 she came with her husband to Winchester, California and thenceforth their lives were intimately and closely identified with the growth and development of the Methodist Episcopal Church in the Southern California Conference, where they served successfully on the following charges: Murietta, Oceanside, Grangeville, Sanger, Sultana, Easton, Delrosa, Westminster, Exeter, Cottonwood, Irwin and Atwater. For the last eight years she lived in retirement with her husband in their own cottage home in Garden Grove.

For the past nine years Sister Richmond was an invalid and for the greater part of this time she was confined to her home with almost constant illness.

Through all her suffering she was tenderly cared for by her devoted husband who remained ever by her side doing every thing possible to mitigate the sufferings incident to her afflictions.

Sister Richmond loved her church and in it she found an agreeable and congenial field for the work she felt she was called to do. She was especially fond of the Sunday School and was highly successful in her work with the boys and girls in the various charges where she labored diligently to bring the children and young people to know her Lord.

In our rounds of pastoral visitation we were often in the home of this afflicted but patient servant of the Lord and many were the happy seasons of grace experienced with her and her husband as we often prayed together. She was a firm believer in the Word of God. In her last illness she gave her husband the assurance that all was well. Death came to her as a blessed relief from her bodily afflictions for now she has entered into the joy of her Lord where there is no more sorrow or suffering, to live eternally in that "land that is fairer than day".

Sister Richmond is survived by her husband, J. M. Richmond of Garden Grove, and one sister, Mrs. Ada M. Sanders of Atkinson, Nebraska, and one brother, William Haller of Jacksonville, Illinois.

J. M. OCHELTREE.

MRS. JAMES BLACKLEDGE

After six years of preaching and teaching in the Philadelphia Conference, Brother James Blackledge was sent to Japan to help organize our new Methodist College at Aoyama, Tokio.

In 1883, Miss Katharine Treat of Zanesville, Wisconsin, made the trip to Japan in the company of Rev. and Mrs. David S. Spencer, landing in Yokohama, September 23, and on the next day she was united in marriage by the Rev. Robert S. McClay, of sainted memory in this conference, to James Blackledge—the simple ceremony taking place at our First Methodist Church building, 221 Bluff, Yokohama.

Here they lived in a house on the Compound, in the company of Julius Soper, J. C. Davison and D. S. Spencer. J. O. Spencer later married, and he and his wife made their home with the Blackledges.

At the time of the birth of their second child, blood-poisoning was contracted, which left her a partial invalid until the end of her life. This, in connection with nervous difficulties growing out of the climate, compelled the family of four to leave Japan in 1886, and they located in the Southern California Conference, where Brother Blackledge has since served both in the pastorate and in the College of Theology at the University.

Mrs. Blackledge gave the best of attention to the care of her home possible under the circumstances, and their sorrow was further added to by the loss of the boy, who died quite young.

Even through her years of suffering, Mrs. Blackledge developed her keen literary qualities, and was an author and writer of marked ability.

Throughout her later years, her husband was her constant attendant and nurse.

Her death occurred in Santa Monica, California, where they made their home after Brother Blackledge's retirement, on October 10th, 1928, and the funeral services were held in the same city three days later, being conducted by A. Ray Moore and F. G. H. Stevens.

Her husband and her daughter Evangeline, who is married and has a home of her own, are left with the memory of a wife and mother who bore suffering well and now has ceased therefrom.

DAVID S. SPENCER.

MRS. J. F. HUMPHREY

H. Viola Pruitt, the daughter of John and Sarah Spilman Pruitt, was born in Vanderburg County, Indiana, March 25, 1870. Her parents, deeply religious, early instilled in their daughter a beautiful, simple faith in God which deepened as the years went by.

During her girlhood the family moved to Illinois, and it was while both were students at Lincoln University that Miss Pruitt and John Franklin Humphrey became acquainted. They were united in marriage, November 1, 1888. After serving pastorates in the Illinois Conference, they moved to California in 1904, joining the Southern California Conference in 1905.

Mrs. Humphrey by nature was especially fitted to be a minister's wife—there was always the kindly smile, the sympathetic word, the calm and steady facing of varied situations and unselfishness daily practiced. All her life she served the church with loyalty and devotion, being particularly interested in the Sunday School, always teaching a class or superintending a department, and in missionary work, almost invariably holding the post of President wherever her husband was stationed.

Brother and Sister Humphrey had just passed their fortieth wedding anniversary when Mrs. Humphrey was suddenly stricken and passed away Nov. 5, 1928, her gentle spirit unfolding in the great Forever.

Besides her husband she is survived by three daughters, Mrs. Clive S. Hinckley of Redlands, Mrs. R. R. McDonald of Anaheim, and Miss Betty Humphrey of E. Lansing, Michigan, and five grandchildren.

Memorial services were conducted by the Ministerial Union of Brawley on Nov. 6, and a beautiful family service conducted by Benj. D. Snudden, Nov. 12 at Redlands, with interment at Hillside Cemetery.

A devoted wife, a wonderful mother, a true friend—the memory of her is as a glow in the hearts of all who knew her.

MRS. CLARA WILDMAN.

MRS. S. S. SAMPSON

Bertha Lolo Cook, daughter of John and Elsie Cook, was born in Anthony, Kansas, July 17, 1879. Her parents removed to Riverside County, California, when she was a few months old. Ten years later they established their home in San Luis Obispo County, where she received her schooling at Nipomo.

At the age of twenty, beautiful of form and feature, winsome in personality, she was united in marriage with S. S. Sampson, beginning in the Santa Maria parsonage to meet the exactions incident to the life of a pastor's wife, to be met with ever-growing success through the ensuing thirty years.

Apt to learn and quick in adaptation to new demands, Mrs. Sampson seemed to achieve from the beginning the perfection of service that usually must be acquired in years of experience. Recognizing the first importance of the home in the Christian system, her love and devotion centered there and always made the parsonage a most efficient helper of the pulpit. An intuitive sense of true motherhood made her the companion of her children, at once their mentor and example in all good things. Her reward was in their love and respect that was almost or quite an adoration. To her sons, Philip, Kenneth and Paul, and her daughter, Virginia, are left to be enshrined in sacred memory all the virtues of one of the best of mothers. The cheerful courage that never failed, the faith inwrought by the Holy Spirit, gave abundant answer to the prayer expressed in a favorite hymn: "Oh! For a faith that will not shrink!"

A beautiful life went to an early crowning when, on September the eleventh, Nineteen Hundred Twenty Nine, Bertha Sampson went home to God.

E. A. HEALY.

MRS. JOSEPH E. FISHER *

Deodata Chadsey, the daughter of Alfred B. and Susan Chadsey, was born at Wickford, Rhode Island, March 29th, 1855. On August 3rd, 1886, she became the wife of an itinerant Methodist preacher, Joseph E. Fisher. Three years later Brother and Sister Fisher came to the Southern California Conference, and for seventeen years they rendered an untiring service.

Mrs. Fisher possessed those qualities of mind and heart that made her an efficient helper to her husband, and her genial hospitable nature, along with that of his, made their home a happy resting place for their many friends. While our departed sister was of a retiring nature she was most genuine in the loyalties and those who knew her best loved her most. In her quiet way she ministered a loving service to Christ, and many now arise to call her blessed.

After the death of her husband, Mrs. Fisher moved her residence to Pomona and joined the Trinity Church. Her last illness made it necessary for her to go to the San Antonio hospital, where she died July 2nd, 1929. C. R. Montague, her pastor, and the writer of this memoir, conducted the last loving service, and she was placed alongside her husband in the beautiful Bellevue cemetery in Ontario. There are sacred and tender memories that survive this gracious spirit who gave unstintedly her labor of love in her service of Christ and His Church.

Surviving Mrs. Fisher are one sister, Mrs. Ellen A. Reynolds of Upland, California; and two nephews, A. C. Reynolds of Upland, and Ralph Reynolds of El Centro, California.

CLYDE M. CRIST.

MRS. CAROLINE MARY SCHULTZ

Caroline Mary Schultz, daughter of the late Rev. J. Young, was born Nov. 4th, 1851, in Janesville, Wis., and died in Los Angeles, Calif., June 21st, 1929, in the seventy-eighth year of her life. She was the child of a Christian home. Her father was for many years an efficient Methodist minister in the Middle West, and the favorable environment and definite Christian influence of the home led her to an early conversion and a lifelong membership in the Methodist Episcopal Church. She was in the fullest sympathy with its doctrines and work, and charmed by its wonderful history and generous prospects. She was married to George J. Schultz, a minister of the West-German Conference, Nov. 11th, 1869, and for forty-three years she shared the trials and triumphs of an itinerant life and was a valuable co-worker with her husband in the Master's cause.

When no longer in the parsonage she kept up her interest in all the work of the church. She met the responsibilities, endured the hardships, bore the burdens and with queenly grace adorned the place of honor she so nobly filled. Months of physical weakness and suffering preceded her death. The constant care of her daughters was necessary. Yet her faith in God and His promises never wavered and with calm confidence she looked forward to a reunion with her loved husband who had thirteen years before preceded her to the heavenly rest. She is survived by one son and six daughters. The funeral services were in charge of the writer in the absence of her pastor, R. Zurbuchen.

J. H. DURBAHN.

MRS. EMMA FIDELIA GOODELL

For nearly eighty-five years Mrs. Emma Fidelia Goodell gave her life to bring joy and happiness to a Methodist preacher's home. For twenty-three years she took her girlhood share in the home of Reverend Levi Lanpher of Northern Vermont and the influence of her radiant life was a benediction to all who came in touch with that home. Not unmindful of the life of the Methodist parsonage and knowing its full responsibilities as she had seen them as a daughter, she gladly accepted that full responsibility again when she became the wife of a Methodist preacher with whom she was to go out into a larger field of service. On November 26, 1872, she was united in marriage to G. W. Goodell and for almost fifty-seven years they remained faithful and ever-increasing lovers. What a wealth of love and service she brought to this new field! For several years she had been a successful school teacher and indelibly did she stamp her personality upon the lives of those young people.

The first part of their fruitful ministry was in Vermont, but in 1885 they transferred to the Southern California Conference where they served at Fresno, Bakersfield, Bellevue Avenue, Los Angeles, afterward called Epworth Church, and Westminster, where on account of the illness of this good woman they were compelled to take the retired relation.

Two sons were born to this couple, one of them being loaned to this world but twenty-five months, and beside him in the cemetery at South Walden, Vermont, this mother was laid to rest. It was the evening hour of August 22nd, 1929, that this faithful servant went to her coronation, leaving behind a son and husband. Funeral services were conducted by the writer, at the Little Church of the Flowers, Forest Lawn Cemetery, Glendale, California.

A. RAY MOORE.

MRS. ELIZABETH VOGEL

Elizabeth Vogel was born in Rheinboellen, Prussia, Germany, Sept. 18th, 1856, and died at the home of her daughter, Louisa Thommen, Palo Alto, California. She was the daughter of C. Junker of blessed memory in our Mission work in Germany, and from her childhood she lived a life that was a blessing to all. Led to Christ in her tender years, life to her was earnest and important. As she was well educated and had a sunny nature, she made herself very useful in the vineyard of her Master. While single she was the right hand of her father in his hard field of labor, and when she married John C. Vogel of the West German Conference in 1879, who preceded her to the homeland five years ago, she was a tireless helpmeet of her husband in the Mission work. Sister Vogel was well endowed by nature with those qualities which contribute to strength and nobility of character, but a clear conversion and rich Christian experience, which grew richer with the passing years, intensified her natural gifts and made her life beautiful and exemplary. With her, religion was something to be lived out every day, finding expression in loving deeds and kindly acts. The years spent in the parsonage were given up to loving ministry in behalf of those with whom she was associated, and many will rise up at the judgment to call her blessed. Like her Master she was humble in spirit and somewhat retiring in disposition, but she always drew people to herself by her unconscious goodness which was real and genuine and deeply impressed those who came to know her. She is survived by two sons and three daughters. The funeral was conducted by G. Waasa in Oakland First German Church and was largely attended. She was laid to rest by the side of her husband in the beautiful Mountain View Cemetery, Oakland Calif.

J. H. DURBAHN.

MRS. GEORGE A. WARMER

Jennie Evangeline Craig was born in Drayton, North Dakota, November 24th, 1883. She was born of pioneer parents, the Craigs moving from Eastern Canada to North Dakota in the early days. The Warmer and Craig farms joined each other so that the children of the two families were thrown together at an early age. Together they attended the country school and then through the High School at Drayton. This school friendship ripened into affection and eventually into a very happy union. After graduation from high school, Mrs. Warmer taught school for two years and saved enough money to attend the teacher's college at Mayville, North Dakota, from which she graduated. She resumed her teaching until marriage to Geo. A. Warmer. After his graduation from the University they established themselves in the parsonage at Frazee, Minnesota. From there they went to Boston to continue study in the School of Theology.

During this period, Mrs. Warmer developed tuberculosis and was ordered immediately to Silver City, New Mexico. After a short stay they came to Ontario, California. After five months of complete rest, Mrs. Warmer was again able to take up her home responsibilities.

They served the following pastorates: one year at Goleta, four years at Lindsay, six years at Bakerfield, three years at Westlake Church, Los Angeles, and in 1927, went to First Church, Santa Ana.

Three months after coming to Santa Ana, Mrs. Warmer came down with a severe cold and an attack of the "flu", which revived her old trouble. Everything humanly possible was done and after a long brave fight, she passed peacefully away on March 20th, 1929, twenty years after their marriage.

To their union, four children were born, George Jr., Charles, Florence and Craig. Mrs. Warmer had the qualities that went to make up the ideal home maker. She was a constant inspiration to her husband in the exacting duties of his profession, quietly taking her place in the activities of the church. Her husband's friends were her friends, and those who knew her best loved her most. She believed profoundly that a woman's first duty was to her home and children, and not for one moment did she swerve from that high ideal. This home was characterized by a noble devotion nowhere excelled.

Her quiet faith, and noble courage will be immortalized in the lives of her dear ones and all those who knew her.

THOMAS L. BURDEN.

MRS. ELI McCCLISH

When the news that Mrs. Eli McClish had passed to her eternal reward was carried abroad, there were many in both Northern and Southern California who felt a distinct shock, and a sense of loss. She died as she lived—with calm confidence in God, and her children about her.

Mrs. McClish was above all else a Christian mother, and her children rise up and call her "blessed." Speaking for the children Clarke L. McClish, her oldest son, said, "Her life was our ideal of what a Christian should be. She lived and died that way. She frequently said, during her last illness, that she had 'fought a good fight, and kept the faith.' We all knew she had." Surely here is a saint's epitaph, not carved in marble or granite; but written in a mother's love, sacrifice and ministry on the hearts of her children.

Louise Adelaide Clarke was born at Oswego, New York, on November 1st, 1849. In her girlhood she moved with her parents to Illinois. Here she met a kindred spirit, and on December 25th, 1872, at Onarga, Illinois, she was married to Eli McClish. He was a young man whose vision swept the frontier horizon and beyond; whose imagination pictured the growing empire as the kingdom of Christ, and whose speech was golden eloquence under the touch of the Divine Spirit.

She came with her husband and family to California in 1891, and served with him in the California Conference. Here the great work of Dr. McClish was in the Presidency of the College of the Pacific at San Jose. Mrs. McClish took the college to her heart. Its interests were her interests, and whatever she could do for it she did with her might. Students and faculty where all embraced in her wholesome, hearty and generous sympathy.

In 1906 the family came to Los Angeles, and Dr. McClish became a member of the Southern California Conference. To the churches which he served Mrs. McClish brought the sunshine of her optimistic faith, and the rare atmosphere of her courage.

The last years of his life Dr. McClish spent as Chaplain of the National Soldiers Home at Sawtelle, California. And it was here that the deep sympathies of Mrs. McClish found full expression. The aged veterans held a peculiar appeal for her. Though the weight of the years was upon her the mother instinct went out to the soldiers, and she regarded them as her boys.

Dr. McClish, through his brotherliness, and the stirring eloquence of his sermons, drew the veterans to him. They flocked to his ministry and many sought the salvation of Christ. It was at the high tide of this ministry that he fell like a good soldier, at his post, on February 17th, 1918.

Her modest, unassuming nature was content to share in the glory and achievements of her talented husband during his life; but when burdens and responsibilities came she rose equal to the demands. And it was in the years of her widowhood that her children came to understand fully the beauty and strength of her Christian character.

From 1918 till the time of her death Mrs. McClish was a member of the Vermont Square Church, Los Angeles. She was actively interested in the women's organizations of the church. Her spiritual fellowship with youth remained with her to the end. Especially was she interested in the World Service movement of the church.

A short time before she passed away she said to those standing by her bedside, "This is our wedding anniversary, and I thought I would certainly spend it with him." Thus her thought went forward to a reunion with the husband who had preceded her to the heavenly country. She passed quietly and peacefully away on October 12th, 1928. The funeral services were held at the Ruppe Mortuary, Los Angeles, October 15th, 1928, with B. Dudley Snudden officiating, assisted by Rev. E. W. Mecum, assistant chaplain at the Soldiers Home during the chaplaincy of Dr. McClish. The interment was at the National Cementery, Sawtelle, beside the resting place of her husband.

Dr. Clarke L. McClish read a beautiful poem at the funeral service.

MRS. I. L. SPENCER

"To weary hearts, to mourning homes,
God's meekest angel gently comes,
No power has he to banish pain,
Or give us back our lost again;
And yet, in tenderest love, our dear
And heavenly Father sends him here.

O thou who mournest on thy way,
With longings for the close of day;
He walks with thee, that angel kind,
And gently whispers: 'Be resigned;
Bear up; bear on, the end shall tell,
The dear Lord ordereth all things well.'"

These words of the poet, Whittier, impressed themselves deeply upon the mind of Mrs. I. L. Spencer in the last months of her life. They voiced her own sentiments and feelings. She had deep "longings for the close of day," when she should wend her way to the Father's house in peace.

During weary weeks that dragged themselves, with leaden feet, into months, she learned the art of heroic resignation. And, because her life had always been one of activity, to be resigned, to be limited to a kingdom of four walls, and an hospital cot for a throne, called indeed for the heroic. But it was under these conditions that her Christian faith, and hope, and courage found full expression.

Minnie Frances Lapham was born in Decatur, Illinois, on December 19th, 1865, the daughter of William Wade Lapham and Mary Jane Crowder Lapham. She early manifested those traits of refinement, love of music, and artistic ability which marked her whole life. In 1885 she came with her parents to California. The family took up their residence in Los Angeles, and here, in her young womanhood, she found her gold at the rainbow's end. For it was while serving as organist at the Main Street Methodist Episcopal Church, that she was wooed and won by the pastor, I. L. Spencer. They were married on March 28, 1888, and began a united service for the cause of Christ. They served in ten pastorates, covering a period of some twenty-five years.

Mrs. Spencer said by her life, "Where thou goest I will go, where thou lodgest I will lodge; thy people shall be my people, and thy God my God". This spirit made her the minister's helpmeet indeed; unlocked for her the doors of hearts and communities. It was a breath of spring, the fragrance of flowers to tired men and women. And in that spirit she served with her husband in the following churches: Main Street, Los Angeles; Lompoc; Ventura; Union Ave., Los Angeles; Vernon Ave., Los Angeles; San Fernando, Monrovia, North Pasadena, Whittier and Compton. Brother Spencer preceded his wife to the City of God, slipping away in 1927, in South Pasadena.

Throughout her life Mrs. Spencer was an interested member and active worker in the W.F.M.S. and W.H.M.S., and held many high offices in these organizations. It could not be otherwise because she had the sweep of God's kingdom in her vision. She had a Kingdom outlook because she had a Kingdom mind. She was also actively interested in the Goodwill Industries, and the W.C.T.U, besides being a member of other organizations.

From 1909 till 1922 Mrs. Spencer was an active worker in the South Pasadena Church. From 1922 till the time of her death, she was a member of the First Church of Los Angeles.

After months of patient suffering she slipped away to her eternal home on October 13, 1928. The funeral services were held in the parlors of First Church, Los Angeles, October 16th, with Franklin D. Mather and B. Dudley Snudden officiating.

Mrs. Spencer is survived by four children, Howard H. Spencer of Los Angeles; Mrs. Donald M. Begole, of Marquette, Michigan; Bruce W. Spencer and Lynn Spencer; and an only sister, Mrs. Walter A. Keith of Los Angeles.

ISABEL LIVINGSTON

Isabel Livingston, nee Martin, was born in Oneida, Ontario, Canada, July 17th, 1864 and after almost 65 years of preparation here, joined her sainted husband in the home prepared for the faithful, May 27, 1929.

February 13th, 1889, she was united in marriage to John Charles Livingston of Nanticoke, Ontario, Canada. To this union was given a son, W. Stanley, now living in Long Beach, California and a daughter, Lillian, who with her father waited her coming.

In 1893, Brother and Sister Livingston with their family came to California and settled in Fresno, where Brother Livingston engaged in the business of carriage and cabinet making and painting.

Brother Livingston became interested in the work of the ministry and in 1897 was received into the membership of the Southern California Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church and was assigned to Kernville as his first regular charge. Brother Livingston remained active in his ministerial work until the day of his death December 6th, 1925 at Casa Verdugo where he was beginning the fifth year as pastor.

In this, he was loyally and lovingly aided by his wife, Isabel, she having faithfully fulfilled her duties as a wife and mother, and as Queen of the Parsonage.

Keen of mind, sympathetic to every need of the work; always eagerly ready to respond to the heart cry of those in any sorrow or distress, Sister Livingston burned out the strength of a naturally frail body. During the latter years of her life, she was an invalid, spending the years in sanitariums, until her release came to join her loved ones and many whom she had served as the minister's wife.

The light of her dear life went down,
As sinks behind the hill
The glory of a setting star—
Clear, suddenly, and still.

The blessing of her quiet life
Fell on us like the dew;
And good thoughts where her footsteps pressed,
Like fairy blossoms grew.

"Blessed are the dead who die in the Lord; yea, saith the Spirit, that they may rest from their labors; for their works follow with them."

BEDE A. JOHNSON.

MRS. MARY WIDAMAN

Deaconess

Mary Tuthill was born July 30, 1859, at Epworth, Iowa, where she spent her early years and graduated from Epworth Seminary. For six years she taught school in the state of Iowa. Later she was married to Mr. Widaman, after whose death she decided to devote her life to some form of Christian ministry. In 1899 she entered the San Francisco Training School for Deaconesses and Missionaries, and was graduated in 1901. She was consecrated to the office of deaconess September 12th, the same year. Her training included graduation from the Pacific Hospital at San Francisco. With this equipment and a conviction she entered her task.

Her first appointments were in the parishes at San Francisco, Sacramento, San Jose; Ogden, Utah; and Ontario, California. In 1914, an attack of heart trouble forced Mrs. Widaman to take a leave of absence for three years, after which she was transferred to the Southern California Conference and appointed to do Travelers Aid work, at the Santa Fe Station, Los Angeles, where she served three years.

Then came a call for a deaconess to superintendent the community settlement which was being established in San Gabriel, California, and Mrs. Widaman was chosen for this important work among the Mexican people. The progress of the work during her ministry there speaks of the choice as being the right one. From this time on, almost to the close of her years, Mrs. Widaman gave herself to settlement work among the Mexicans, in the mission at Rivera and the church at Pasadena.

In 1923 failing health made it necessary for Mrs. Widaman to take a less strenuous task and she was appointed to superintendent the Deaconess Rest Home at Huntington Beach, which service she rendered until forced to retire in February, 1926.

One cannot follow a character through a career, such as we have before us, and not be impressed with the versatility of the life, its ability and its trust in God.

After a lingering illness her triumphant home-going occurred from the Methodist Hospital, Los Angeles, California, Nov. 17, 1928. Truly she left the world richer than she found it, for the inner riches of her gracious life reached out and enriched the lives of others.

MINUTES OF THE THIRTIETH ANNUAL MEETING OF THE LAYMEN'S ASSOCIATION, BELMONT HEIGHTS METHODIST CHURCH, LONG BEACH, CALIF.

Sept. 26th and 28th, 1929

The meeting was called to order in the auditorium of the Belmont Heights Church at 9:15, Thursday, Sept. 26th, 1929, President Wilmot T. Smith presiding. Rev. Harry Shepherd led the opening devotions.

Walter S. Wilson of Phoenix was delegated to see that greetings were conveyed to the Annual Conference.

Bishop Hughes was next introduced and addressed the Association. His contacts with his laymen were most interesting and interspersed with pithy advice, which frequently brought forth laughter, but always carried a point long to be remembered.

Rev. Harry Shepherd next addressed the Association on the theme, "A Simple Appreciation." Mr. J. W. Patterson led the meeting in singing.

Dr. Bert Edward Smith, Executive Secretary of the Men's Work Commission, was next introduced. His address dealt with the need of a properly constituted men's organization throughout Methodism.

Following his address the following resolution was read by W. R. Stewart of Arizona, and immediately received several seconds from the floor: "WHEREAS, the organization and enlistment of Methodist manhood for larger service seems to be one of the most important immediate tasks facing the church, and WHEREAS, a church-wide movement seeking to accomplish this task is now under headway, and WHEREAS, the General Conference Laymen's Association and the Men's Work Commission have both recommended that the Annual Conference Laymen's Associations modify themselves to become the Annual Conference unit of the General Brotherhood of the church, THEREFORE, be it resolved that the Southern California Laymen's Association merge itself into the Southern California Conference Brotherhood, adopt the constitution proposed by the Men's Work Commission, and engage in an all year round campaign to arouse and utilize men in the program of the church.

The point was raised by the chair that customary procedure required that all resolutions be handed to the Resolutions Committee, to be reported to the Association at its discretion. The motion was made by John Turner of Lindsay, and seconded by Mr. Cain of Sanger, that this rule be waived and that we proceed to the consideration of the resolution. The motion was carried. The point was then raised that where the waiving of such a rule was involved, a two-thirds majority was required. Much discussion followed and the chair finally ruled that the motion had carried. Mr. Stewart of Arizona was given the floor to speak to the motion.

Motion by Judge Copeland, seconded by W. G. Cline, that all speeches be limited to three minutes. Motion carried.

Dr. Bert Smith was again given the floor to explain the plan recommended by the Men's Work Commission. Mr. Fred Parr of San Francisco, president of the Laymen's Association of the California Conference, was invited to the platform and introduced by Dr. Smith. Considerable time was spent in consideration of the resolution. Many spoke for and against it. Many questions were answered by Dr. Smith. The question was finally called for and the motion for adoption of the resolution was carried by a vote of approximately 150 to 25.

The following committees were announced by the chairman:

Resolutions Committee: L. Copeland, Chairman; Wilfred Twinch, Dr. A. P. Hamman, W. G. Cline, R. O. Deacon.

Nominating Committee: M. J. Bicknell, Chairman; Clark Standiford, C. R. Cain, B. H. Scudder, Wm. A. Burch.

The session then adjourned. Attendance 350.

Saturday, Sept. 28th, 1929, meeting called to order at 9:15 by the President, Wilmot T. Smith.

Song Service, led by J. W. Patterson.

Devotions by F. A. Powell.

Dr. E. P. Dennett was introduced to present the work of the California Christian Advocate.

Rev. W. C. Loomis then addressed the Association on the subject, "Lay Evangelism in Action." He received the undivided attention of all present while he outlined in detail the campaign of personal evangelism, which was conducted by the laymen in First Church, San Bernardino this past year. It was the consensus of opinion of the Lay Association that this plan should be given the fullest publicity and that samples of literature should be made available for free distribution.

The motion was made by C. C. Jenkins, seconded by B. H. Scudder, and carried, that the matter of publicity for the plan of Lay Evangelism, as outlined by Rev. W. C. Loomis, be referred to the officers of the Laymen's Association, with full authority to act.

Motion by W. G. Cline, seconded by Clark Standiford, that when this Association merges with the new Brotherhood Association, funds remaining in our treasury become the assets of the new organization.

The report of the Resolutions Committee was then presented by Chairman L. A. Copeland, and the following resolutions were adopted:

(1) Resolved, that we, the members of the Laymen's Association of the Methodist Episcopal Church of Southern California, commend and support the district attorney of Los Angeles County, Buron Fitts, and endorse his efforts for the suppression of crime and lawlessness in Southern California.

Be it further resolved that a copy of this resolution be forwarded to the press and to Buron Fitts.

(2) Whereas, we the members of the Laymen's Association of the Southern California Conference, have read with pleasure the efforts of our President, Herbert Hoover, to enforce all laws, Therefore be it resolved that we heartily commend his action. Further we commend the action of the many publications and organizations which have given him support, and further we call upon all Law Enforcement officers and other organizations to cooperate with President Hoover in this great work.

(3) Whereas it seems quite advisable to the many thousands of Methodists in the Southern California Conference that the Methodist Book Concern establish a depository, or at least a sales room in the city of Los Angeles.

And Whereas we have been informed through our representative on the Book Committee, Brother Frank S. Wallace, that a sales room would probably be opened in said city by the Book Committee provided the Methodist Headquarters in Los Angeles were removed to a more central location, therefore

Be it Resolved by the Laymen's Association of the Southern California Conference that it would look with great favor upon such a movement of moving the Methodist Headquarters of Los Angeles to a more central point, having reference both to the location of the First Methodist Church of that city and the down-town retail district.

Be it Further Resolved that a copy of these Resolutions be sent to the District Superintendent of the Los Angeles District and to Mr. Frank S. Wallace.

(4) Whereas we of the Laymen's Association of Southern California have been wonderfully entertained during this session by the Belmont Heights Church folks, therefore we do now express our gratitude by a rising vote of thanks.

It was moved, seconded and carried that the Treasurer be instructed to pay such bills as the outgoing President approved.

It was moved, seconded and carried that a check for $10.000 be sent to the janitor of this church.

It was moved, seconded, carried that a vote of thanks be extended to our President Wilmot T. Smith, and the other outgoing officers.

Mr. J. H. Turner reported that $1.75 remaining from the collection taken by the Lay Electoral Conference had been turned over to the Laymen's Association.

H. M. Boys spoke representing the San Francisco depository of the Methodist Book Concern.

The report of the Nominating Committee was presented as follows:

Pres. F. A. Powell—Secy. M. J. Bicknell—Treas. Dr. A. T. Howe.

District Vice-Presidents—Arizona—P. J. White

The devotions were conducted by Mrs. C. O. Kimball, who gave a very thoughtful and helpful talk and concluded with prayer.

The minutes of the last meeting were read and approved.

In the absence of the treasurer the following report was read by the secretary:

Received from Mrs. Burden in 1928, $9.23, to which had been added seventy-seven cents to make an even $10.00 to be turned over to the new treasurer.

Mrs. John Oliver, chairman of the nominating committee, made the following report:

For President, Mrs. E. E. Marshall; Vice President, Mrs. E. F. Gates; Secretary, Mrs. Glenn R. Phillips; Treasurer, Mrs. Wilfred Kent.

Committee on Resolutions: Mrs. C. E. Leitzell, Mrs. L. O. Bostwick, Mrs. J. Hunter Smith.

Committee on Nominations: Mrs. George B. Cliff, Mrs. D. K. Burnham, Mrs. J. W. Neely.

Committee on place of meeting and program: Pastor's wife of entertaining church—she selecting her own assistants. Signed by Committee, Mrs. John Oliver, Mrs. W. C. Botkin, Mrs. A. W. Shamel.

Mrs. Merle N. Smith read the following report of the Resolutions Committee, which, on her motion, was unanimously adopted:

"Your committee on resolutions present the following report:

"Resolved that we render thanksgiving to our Heavenly Father for our having had the privilege of sharing for another year the duties, the labor and the joys of church and parsonage life.

"We bring to our hostess, Mrs. Oliver, and to her assistants, our cordial appreciation of their kindness and courtesies in making our stay here a delightful one; and to all those contributing to our pleasure in the program and social entertainment of this afternoon, we express our thanks.

"Because the outlook of this organization is not restricted to our own local and personal affairs, but ~~being~~ vitally concerned in national and world welfare, be it resolved, that we welcome the organized efforts toward world peace, and pledge our cooperation and all possible support. Especially may we commend the projected conference of President Hoover and Prime Minister MacDonald with the view toward reduction of armaments. We also heartily endorse and will help support the law enforcement program of President Hoover.

The angel of death has visited many parsonage homes during the past year. The Ministers' Wives Association grieves with those bereft, with them looks upward with the Christian's hope of immortality.

"For all the saints who from their labors rest,
Who Thee by faith before the world confessed,
Thy name, Jesus, be forever blest,
Hallelujah! Hallelujah!"

May we emulate the beauty and usefulness of their lives as we keep them in blessed memory.

The names of those members who have entered into life this year are as follows:

Mrs. James Blackledge, Mrs. Joseph Fisher, Mrs. G. W. Goddell, Mrs. J. F. Humphrey, Mrs. A. E. Johnson, Mrs. J. C. Livingston, Mrs. Eli McClish, Mrs. W. Alonzo Reynolds, Mrs. J. M. Richmond, Mrs. S. S. Sampson, Mrs. Geo. J. Schultz, Mrs. I. L. Spencer, Mrs. John C. Vogel, Mrs. Geo. A. Warner.

Resolved that these resolutions be spread upon the minutes and that a copy of that portion relating to our departed members be sent to the bereaved families.

Respectfully submitted,

MRS. WILLSIE MARTIN,
MRS. WILL A. BETTS,
MRS. MERLE N. SMITH."

It was ordered that a copy of the resolutions having to do with World Peace and Law Enforcement be forwarded to President Hoover.

Mrs. Oliver introduced the President of the Ladies' Aid Society of Grace Church who addressed the meeting and introduced the chairman of their committee who served refreshments in the patio.

Adjournment.

"Your committee, appointed at the last session of the Conference to consider the relation of our church at Santa Paula to the proposed merger with the Presbyterian Church, met our pastor and people at Santa Paula soon after Conference; and, upon an open and frank inquiry found that our people were not ready for such a step. We, therefore, recommended that our church hold the best possible fellowship with our sister denomination, and cultivate the spirit of good will in co-operative, Kingdom community service, looking forward to the ultimate consummation of the union of the two denominations.

"Your Committee believes that all such unions must be preceded by a frank and open courtship of all the people, and that some kind of federation should precede actual union in order to conserve all the interests of the Kingdom which have grown up in both denominations. There must also be an equitable exchange of territory and churches in any merger in order to preserve a fair balance of denominational rights and investments.

AND BECAUSE it is evident that the varied phases of our World Service program will be served by closer correlation with the total program.

BE IT RESOLVED that we request the Cabinet to make such re-arrangements of personnel as may be necessary in order that the Conference Board of Foreign Missions, the Conference Committee on Bene-

BISHOP'S ADDRESS TO THE CLASS: The Bishop spoke to the class in part as follows:

"I never come to this period in the Conference session without a cry in my heart that the great pioneer spirits of our church might come back and teach me what to say.

"I wonder if, after all, these blessed souls whose message was of salvation through Christ, and of the down lighting of the Holy Spirit could lead us through the wilderness of the modern life to lay hold of the great massed centers of population and lay them at the feet of Jesus Christ?

"It is vastly more difficult today to preach the gospel. Three words I would drop into your hearts, and I wish that you might look upon me as a brother back from the trenches and the battlefields.

"First, I am urging a scholarly ministry. You must make Jesus Christ real and dominant and regnant in the hearts and minds of boys and girls who are thinking in scientific terms, and pretty much the altitude of your ministry must be measured by the depth of the Holy Spirit in your lives.

"When you cease to buy books, you have reached the dead line.

"You are to be a man of God who has come with a message of God, couched in such scientific and spiritual terms that your community and your city will feel the weight and impact of your ministry.

"Second, I want to urge you to a shepherding ministry. I wonder if you caught the full significance of the words of the question, when I asked if you would visit from house to house and instruct the children? I wonder if you realize that the greatest ministry in the next dozen years will be the shepherding ministry?

"Your ministry, with clean hands and hearts and lives, is to your people as a shepherd.

"There are two things that the laymen ask of the bishop and the cabinet. Strange to you, perhaps, they do not ask from what college you come. The things that they want to know are these: Can you preach? Will you shepherd the church?

"Books do not constitute the greatness of your message. The great pastors have been great shepherds.

"But the third urgency of the modern ministry is this: I would urge you to be surrendered men. Are you dead sure that you are in love with Jesus Christ? Are you keeping back anything in your full surrender to Jesus Christ?"

"You will succeed! If you exalt the Christ who shows the way out.

"God bless you! I hail you with a cheer. I give you my brotherly blessing!"

Conference closed at 12:45 with the benediction by E. A. Healy.

"Be it resolved—that we pledge ourselves to work and pray for such a vision and understanding of the spiritual significance of Jesus Christ and the gospel for our lives and for all life that we shall be able to go forth with a new abandon and spiritual enthusiasm to proclaim the everlasting gospel of the Love of God in Christ to our fellowmen. Resolved that we work and pray for a genuine, deep revival of religion that shall change the hearts and the relations of men, Christianizing our several communities and spreading Scriptural holiness throughout the world.

"And to this end let us use every legitimate means. In particular let us call our people to prayer individually and in groups. Let us practice the art of looking for souls and winning them. Let us map out our particular parishes not to make surveys but to call on the people thereof in friendly and evangelistic visitation, inviting them to our services and speaking as directly about religion as opportunity may be given. Also let us use our church school rolls and especially our cradle rolls as evangelistic leads and above all let us make our preaching primarily evangelistic.

And so may there come upon us and upon our churches and our generation a great pentecost, a great spiritual awakening that shall lift all life to a new spiritual level.

Signed for the Cabinet by Charles Wesley Burns,

Walter C. Loomis, Secretary."

CONFERENCE DEVOTIONS: W. C. Eddy presented the following resolution and it was adopted:

"1. Whereas in this the Pentecostal anniversary month of the 20th century all Christendom is seeking to revive and perpetuate the conditions and spirit which occasioned Pentecost in the first—and

"2. Whereas the unutterable need of the present hour throughout the church among the ministry and the laity is a revival of the spiritual power that characterized the lives of the New Testament disciples—and

"3. Whereas such spiritual power comes only through long-continued, oft-repeated, heart-searching prayer, sacrificial living, and holy abiding in Christ—and

"4. Whereas we as ministers greatly need the inspiration and blessing that comes not only through meeting together for business conference, and social fellowship, but more especially the benediction which comes through praying together—and

"5. Whereas prayer and devotion have not been given authoritative recognition upon our Conference programs of late years commensurate with their profound importance, being confined to a few hurried minutes at the beginning of the morning sessions when oftentimes half or even two-thirds of the brethren are not present, a few hurried minutes at the close of the morning sessions, when, as often happens, because of the encroachments of the previous business session our Bishop must attenuate his thought, or an occasional prayer by some designated brother during the sessions, together with a high and holy altar hour on Sunday afternoon the spirit of which needs to be injected into every business session—therefore

"BE IT RESOLVED: That at the next session of the Conference the Program Committee be instructed to make provision in the midst of every business session for a ten-minute interlude, wherein at a convenient point in the proceedings our Bishop or Chairman shall call the Conference to its knees that we may pray audibly and silently as the Spirit gives us utterance."

The Conference spent the next ten minutes in the singing of "O Happy Day" and in prayer and meditation.

In view of the tremendous problems which now confront us in this Conference, problems that require the utmost understanding and steady statesmanship, it is imperative that the Captain on the bridge be fully conversant and sympathetic with all our needs, resources and opportunities.

Realizing that we have such a leader in our resident Bishop Charles Wesley Burns,

Believing that statesmanship and the interest of the Kingdom require the continuance of his administration,

We therefore respectfully and urgently petition the Board of Bishops to assign the presidency of the next session of the Southern California Annual Conference to our resident Bishop, Charles Wesley Burns.

"Having been officially notified through the publication in the Advocate of the Report of the General Conference Commission on Reserve Pension Fund Plan, that any Annual or Mission Conference may begin operations under said plan on or after March 12th, 1931, and Believing that said plan offers the best solution of our Conference Pension problem, both as to its operations under the original Pension System and also in regard to future Pension obligations:

"Therefore Be It Resolved that the Southern California Conference hereby adopts the said Pension Fund Plan and authorizes its Commission on Conference Claimants to take all necessary steps looking toward the beginning of operations under the Plan as soon as possible after March 12, 1931."

This governs all those men who later join the Conference but has no bearing at all upon those now in membership in the Conference, these being cared for on their retirement by funds already in the possession of the Conference or to be secured by the coming campaign.

Reports

(a) District Superintendents

ARIZONA DISTRICT

A Methodist preacher's life is one of strange adventure. During many years of membership in this Conference I have listened to the reports of the Arizona Mission and the Arizona District, and have associated this youthful commonwealth with desert wastes inhabited by cowboys and Gila monsters. When in the providence of God I was sent to work in this part of His Vineyard I found that the promise of Isaiah—"The wilderness and the dry land shall be glad, and the desert shall rejoice and blossom as a rose"—was fulfilled. Arizona is a fascinating land, with its many pre-historic mysteries. With what awe one stands before these habitations where thousands of years ago lived and loved and struggled a race of men. Whence they came, or whither they went, no scientist has been able to discover. These ancient men had an appreciation of the beautiful in God's handiwork, for they made their homes in sight of the awesome Grand Canyon, the marvelous vistas of the Painted Desert, and the cliffs of gorgeously colored mountains. And now with man's ingenuity in turning loose the streams from the mountain sides upon the thirsty valleys, we have blooming orange grooves, vast stretches of waving cotton, forests of majestic date palms, and milk and honey, to satisfy the heart of man. Arizona, with its fabulous wealth in mines; its agricultural possibilities; its entrancing scenery and unparalleled winter climate, is rapidly becoming the rich man's playground. The Arizona district constitutes one of the most vital problems and greatest opportunities that confronts Methodism in all of this western land.

During the year our ranks have been invaded by the messenger of death, and our faithful and beloved brother, Thomas H. Dodd, gave up a valiant fight against sickness, and went home to rest. He left an impress on Arizona Methodism that will keep him in loving memory for many years to come. The last five years of his ministry were spent with the Federated Church at Ajo, where he superintended the erection of a beautiful house of worship. During his illness and at the time of his death his devoted people gave as fine a manifestation of the Christ spirit as I have ever seen. When it became evident that Brother Dodd could not soon return to his work, the Quarterly Conference voted to give him a three months' vacation, on full salary. A few days after this action a member of the Board visited him in the Good Samaritan Hospital at Phoenix, and realizing that Brother Dodd was a very sick man, he returned home and called the Board together, and on their behalf wrote to the District Superintendent asking that, regardless of the health of Brother Dodd, that he should be returned to them for another year. After his death this Board paid to Mrs. Dodd the three months' vacation salary, together with a supplementary gift, and the payment of all funeral expenses.

I shall not attempt to mention, in this report, the name of every minister on this District, but this much I must say. A more loyal, faithful and cooperating company of fellow workers cannot be found anywhere. This statement is verified by a condition that I think is at least rare. Either by Quarterly Conference or Official Board action, or through interviews with official committees, every church on the District has requested the return of its pastor.

This short Conference year has been full of activity. The combined labors of ministers and laymen have been graciously rewarded by our Heavenly Father. Bishop Burns visited us three times. His splendid addresses, brotherly kindness, and gracious consideration of others, have inspired us to greater endeavor, and enlarged our faith regarding the possibilities that belong to us in Christ Jesus. On one of these visits the good Bishop brought the Cabinet with him, and on the Sabbath each of these brethren occupied our pulpits morning and evening. This visit of the Cabinet to Phoenix made a profound impression upon our people, and strengthened their consciousness that they are indeed a real part of the Southern California Conference. So pleased were the laymen over this visit that they invited Bishop Burns and the Cabinet to a most delightful luncheon at the Hotel Biltmore, and the group was honored at this gathering by the presence of Governor Phillips.

Good Samaritan Hospital. The Good Samaritan Hospital, under the leadership of Mr. J. O. Sexson, is a great piece of Kingdom work. A new wing will soon be under construction. A full report of this truly Christian institution will be presented at the proper time.

Anti-Saloon League. In these days of law breaking and bootlegging it is comforting to have one of our own family in a position of responsibility, who can be trusted to do everything in his power to promote decency and righteousness. Our own R. E. Farley is still on the job as Superintendent of the Anti-Saloon League in Arizona, and we as a Conference may well be proud of him.

Mexican Work. I concur in the judgment of my predecessor regarding our Mexican work. The one dark spot of Arizona Methodism is to be found in the lack of vision and coordination of our ecclesiastical machinery and missionary money in the interests of our Mexican and Indian population. If the Conferences involved do not stop quibbling over territorial rights, and give some one on the ground a free hand and financial support in caring for these helpless but lovable people, Methodism will have to answer for her neglect. At this very moment, if given the needed liberty and financial support, a work among our Mexican friends in Tucson could be carried on that would bring in rich returns to the Kingdom of Christ. So far as we are concerned, nothing is being done for these people at the present time.

The Brotherhood. One notable gathering of the year was the Laymen's Council, under the leadership of Dr. Bert Smith. The enthusiasm created at this meeting has continued up to the present time. Immediately following this Council, the laymen of the District entered into a State-wide campaign for the organization of the man-power in every church. Mr. C. C. Jenkins, District President, and his co-workers, have rendered to the Superintendent and the Church most valuable service. If we had had a twelve months year it is quite certain that a Brotherhood would have been organized in every church on the District. These splendid laymen have stressed the matter of evangelism in a masterful way. They are just getting warmed up to their task, and we may well anticipate greater things from them during the coming year. One of the Brotherhood leaders said a few days ago—"I predict that the Arizona District will double its membership during the next five years".

The Observance of Pentecost. The united program of ministers and laymen, for the observance of Pentecost, was faithfully carried out. Evangelistic appeals, special services, training classes, gospel teams, personal visitation, and educational means were used to get the Gospel message into the minds and hearts of our constituency. A goal of 19% increase in membership was set by the joint committee of ministers and laymen. All of the reports are not yet in hand, but from the figures available it appears to be quite certain that we will reach the 19%, or so near to it that we have just cause for rejoicing.

A Few Statistics. $8,429 paid on improvements; $4,218 paid on indebtedness; 8,431 pastoral calls, and 185 baptisms are the figures handed in by the pastors up to the present.

World Service. The interests of World Service have been faithfully presented. It had been our hope to make a substantial increase over last year. However, it looks as though we are to be disappointed in this. During the past few months we have suffered severe financial depression. The fall in the price of copper has caused the partial shutting down of the industry. Hundreds of men have lost employment. During this past week word has come of the possibility of some of the smelters closing down completely. These conditions have taken large financial support from many of our churches. Whatever may be the final returns of our World Service giving this year, it should be understood that the pastors of the District have loyally done their duty.

Epworth League. The Epworth League Institute was a remarkable success this year. It was held at Mormon Lake, and the registrations broke all records in its history, having a total of 250. No finer group of young people can be found anywhere than those who abide within the bounds of this District. Edwin W. Stricker was for the sixth time elected Dean of the Institute, and Recter W. Johnson was elected Business Manager for the coming year.

Building and Improvements. We are able to report some new buildings and improvements. Jerome has a fine new parsonage. It is tastefully and comfortably furnished, which serves to cheer and inspire the heart of the pastor who has the privilege of toiling in this great mining camp. The parsonage at Mesa has been thoroughly renovated and furnished. Wilcox, too, caught the spirit of improvement, and revamped the parsonage until it was made a delightful and comfortable home for the preacher's family. Douglas had a fire in its church which proved to be a blessing. The damage was so extensive as to necessitate going over the whole building. This loyal people went at the task with a hearty good will, and as a result they now have practically a new auditorium, nicely furnished, and appropriately decorated. Gilbert has made extensive repairs on the church. The roof was put in proper shape, the tower was completed, and the walls retinted, and they now have a cozy and pleasant church in which to worship and work. At Williams a new recreational hall was opened this year. This addition to their equipment has provided not only for recreation and amusement, but for the educational work of the Church School. Another important event in this charge this year was the advent of a fine baby boy; he is a dandy little fellow, and no one will blame the happy father, Clarence Wagner, if he looks a little more important than usual.

The Grand Canyon. Through the courtesy of the Manager of the El Tovar Hotel, at the Grand Canyon, we have been granted the privilege of holding services in the Music Room on Sunday evenings. The pastor at Williams is serving this point.

Through the devoted efforts of one of our busy laymen, Mr. W. R. Stewart, of Mesa, a new work has been started at Higley. The ladies of this community earned sufficient money to buy four lots, upon which to establish a Christian center for this desert section. On January 8th, Bishop Burns broke ground for a new church. A new building is now almost completed, and Bishop Burns will be asked to conduct a dedicatory service at his convenience. This enterprise does not represent a large expenditures of money, but it does represent a most sacrificial and daring adventure for Christ and His Church. This people, most of whom lost their cotton crop this year, and who are thereby compelled to deprive themselves of many things, thought it not dear to see that there should be a house of worship standing in the community, wherein they could assemble to give praise to the Giver of all good, and to gather inspiration and strength for the further struggles of life. Without money and without price, Brother Stewart has thus far cast his lot with this people, going to them every Sunday to conduct their Church School and preach the Gospel.

Glenn Phillips has not only recognized but he has accepted the challenge of First Church, Phoenix. Situated as it is in the heart of this rapidly growing city, makes it imperative for Methodism to take a forward step in order to keep abreast of the general advancement and growth of the city. He has skillfully led his people to a point of vision that prompted them, at the Fourth Quarterly Conference, to vote unanimously for the adoption of the pastor's program, which embodies the erection of an imposing place of worship for the Mother Church of Arizona. It will take time to work out this program, but "the die is cast", and the great project is taking shape in the hearts of pastor and people.

The most outstanding single achievement of the Arizona district for this year is undoubtedly at Tucson. Edwin Stricker has led the people of First Church through setbacks and difficult situations and over apparently insurmountable obstacles, until finally there has arisen at the entrance to the campus of the State University a perfectly magnificent, dignified, architecturally beautiful building, completely furnished and adequately equipped for educational work among the students of the University and the young folk and children of our constituency. In my ministerial experience I have never seen an achievement in church building worthy of higher praise than rightfully belongs to Edwin Stricker and his coworkers in this great enterprise. Bishop Burns laid the cornerstone on March 20th, and now the completed structure awaits his return for the dedication.

In conclusion I would like to express my sincere and deepest appreciation of the cordial reception extended to me by both ministers and laymen. The gracious hospitality shown to me in the homes of many laymen, and in the parsonages, has warmed my heart and given me courage. In this small District I have traveled, in 8 months, 11,000 miles in my own car; I have covered 3,000 miles in the cars of different laymen; and by railroad I have made upwards of 17,000 miles, making in all 31,000 miles.

I would not be true to myself if I did not give voice to my gratitude to Bishop Burns for his wise counsel, brotherly attitude, and the unflinching generosity of his time and strength in helping to make possible the achievements of the year.

W. A. BETTS.

LONG BEACH DISTRICT

A new unsophisticated Superintendent presents his first report. I have accepted my field of service at the hand of the appointing powers for twenty-nine years with gladness, whatever the appointment has been, so I have accepted this great task.

My predecessor, James Alfred Hughes, opened the gate and handed me the key with that same Christian spirit which has ever marked his ministry. His advice from time to time has guided me through many a winding path.

NO CHANGE IN PASTORS: The district had been so well manned by my predecessor that every pastor "stayed put" and there has been no change during the year.

VITAL STATISTICS: The Vital Statistics are meager; no one has been born; no preacher has been married; the death angel has come only once, calling Mrs. Don W. Nichols, Jan. 4; little sickness has visited our parsonages. E. J. Inwood, after a major operation and a vacation in the Methodist Hospital, has come back better than ever. Already the dean of the Conference in years of service, he has taken a new lease on life and the doctors tell him that many a young man would be glad to have his physique. Mrs. E. J. Bradner has spent most of the year in a wheel chair but has been able to co-operate in the work both in the church and pastoral obligations. Mrs. H. O. Simmons has recently undergone a serious operation, from which she is at the present time rapidly recovering. Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Palmer have given both their sons in marriage during the year. The world is richer by two more Christian homes established by these two fine young men. During the year Mrs. Howard Clark's father, who made his home at the parsonage at Santa Paula, passed to the better country.

RETIREMENTS: E. Sedweek and J. E. Houlgate will retire at this session of the Conference. It has been given to few men to finish their life's work in the midst of such success as has marked their ministries at Moorpark and Van Nuys. May they have many years of well-earned rest.

MEMBERSHIP: The record of the district accomplishments should begin with a statement of net gain in membership. Forty-six churches have had a net gain of 1477; eight churches have had a net loss of 81, making a total net gain of 1396. In this net gain the first seven churches stand as follows: At the top of the list is First Church, Long Beach, Richard N. Merrill, pastor, with 148; second, Huntington Park, S. S. Sampson, pastor, 102; third, Whittier, Ray C. Harker, pastor, 96; Fourth, Maywood, W. C. Botkin, pastor, 85; fifth, San Pedro, Fred H. Ross, pastor, 81; sixth, North Long Beach, L. J. B. Taber, pastor, 80; seventh, Owensmouth, W. W. Ralph, pastor, 70.

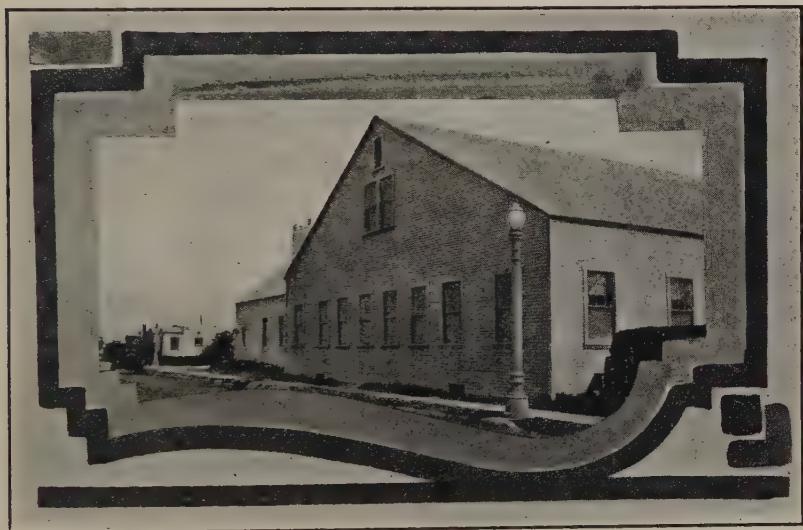

SUNDAY SCHOOL ENROLLMENT: In spite of the church-wide slump in Sunday School enrollment, we have held our own. Enrollment last year was 27,106, the enrollment this year is 27,182.

WORLD SERVICE: Nearly every church reports a gain in World Service for the nine-month period. The amount reported by the pastors for this period is $79,800; the amount reported for twelve months last year was $74,867. In all fairness it should be said that this includes a Designated Gift of $25,000 by Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Meador of First Church, Long Beach, for a student church in Manila. This amount is entitled to first column credit as legitimately as smaller Designated Gifts. The proper voucher is in the hands of the pastor.

DEBT REDUCTION: Practically no new debt has been added to the district during the year. The standing indebtedness has been reduced as follows: Artesia, $3,000; Magnolia Park, $5,500; Burbank, First, $4,000; Chatsworth, $1,050; El Segundo, $3,350; Huntington Park, $5,000; First, Inglewood, $400; Grace, Inglewood, $50; First, Long Beach, $1,000; Grace, Long Beach, $2,461; East Long Beach, $3,100; Belmont Heights, $5,600; Atlantic Ave., Long Beach, $2,000; Ventura, $8,000; Van Nuys, $1,400; Wilmington, $850; Christ Church, Watts, $300; Lynwood, $1,000; Maywood, $75; Ocean Park, $500; Owensmouth, $350; Paso Robles, $2,000; Redondo, $2,000; Roscoe, $576; Santa Paula, $8,708; San Pedro, $21,000; Simi, $300; San Fernando, $1,125; First, Santa Monica, $225; Santa Maria, $6,000; Santa Barbara, $12,000; Seal Beach, $106; Torrance, $875; Tujunga, $1,030; a total of $98,293.

The above amounts include help from the Church Extension Funds, most of which was arranged for by my predecessor. There still remains on the district a debt of $658,185.

NEW BUILDINGS: Southgate, Ford L. Gilbert, pastor, has erected a new Sunday School plant, which was dedicated by Bishop Burns. George Richmire has built a fine new parsonage at Watts; more than half the cost was saved by a wise plan in securing labor and material. During the year Bishop Burns dedicated the new church at Maywood, erected last year.

1. South Gate.

FUTURE BUILDING PLANS: Venice has $100,000 pledged for a fine new church. This project has been made possible by the consecrated service of the pastor, B. L. Jennings, over a period of six years inspired by the co-operation of a staunch layman, Mr. Fred G. White, who has thrown his resources with the people of this church.

THE WOMEN'S MISSIONARY SOCIETIES: These consecrated women have carried on the work with the usual enthusiasm, ingenuity and determination. For the nine months the Women's Foreign Missionary Society has raised $18,208; the Women's Home Missionary Society $18,466, with additional supplies of $691.

LADIES' AID: The Ladies' Aids of the district have been federated, with Mrs. Guy Mowry of Torrance as President. The total amount raised during the year is $42,076, with 56,480 calls; First Church, Long Beach, leads with 8,443; Grace Church, Long Beach, is close second with 7,340.

EPWORTH LEAGUE: It will be difficult to find anywhere a more enthusiastic company of young people than the Epworth League of Long Beach District. Their Sub-District Conventions have been held regularly throughout the year with attendances sometimes assuming the proportions of a District Meeting. The District Convention was held at First Church, Long Beach, with large attendance and a helpful program.

BROTHERHOOD: There are many enthusiastic Brotherhoods throughout the district. The peak of interest was reached at the District promotion meeting held at Long Beach under the direction of Bert E. Smith, General Secretary. Believing that the Long Beach District stood near the head of all the districts of Methodism, your Superintendent last week sent an air-mail letter to Dr. Smith inquiring as to our standing. He received the following telegram: "Long Beach District ranks among first four United States in attendance and ranks first in sustaining membership for World Brotherhood movement". Five hundred men attended the Promotion banquet and $650 was raised the same evening for memberships. This fine success was attained largely by the organizing ability of Dr. A. F. Hamman, at that time President of the District. H. Rae Simonson is the new President and stands ready to help any church wishing to organize a Brotherhood.

HARBOR MISSIONARY SOCIETY: Harbor District Missionary Society includes thirteen churches and continues to function with great efficiency and this year has pledged a $5,000 lot for a new church to be erected in North Long Beach.

NEW WORK: At this session of the Conference a pastor will be appointed to California Heights, Long Beach. This fine new residence district presents a wonderful opportunity for a new church organization. A good Sunday School has been maintained here for several years by the Atlantic Avenue Church. This Sunday School will form a nucleus for the new undertaking.

DAILY VACATION SCHOOLS: Sixteen daily vacation schools have been held or are now in session.

DISTRICT MEETING: The preachers and their wives gathered at First Church, San Pedro, May 1 and 2, for a two-day session. The talent was confined principally to our own men and many kind words of appreciation were heard for the helpful sessions. Fred H. Ross and his church entertained the preachers and their wives over night and gave them a boat ride on Friday afternoon.

PROBLEMS: Several churches presented to the Superintendent find opportunities for financial strategy. Santa Barbara, encouraged by a designation of $25,000 from the district, pledged their entire indebtedness over a period of five years. Maywood is still a problem—in the midst of a population of 25,000, people must have some Church Extension help. W. C. Botkin has done heroic work in the face of fierce difficulties.

Roscoe has property valued at $19,000. It is $18,999 in debt. Don Nichols accepted a nominal salary and had led these people from gloom to optimism. This church is in a center of what will one day be a thickly settled community and Dr. Walter Torbet plans in a few days to put on a campaign to save the situation.

With the help of $18,000 from the district, San Pedro has reached a place of self-confidence. The pastor and Official Board wish to express their appreciation to all who have assisted.

Santa Maria burned a $5,000 note and is over the top of the hill. Wilmington with nearly $20,000 has by no means given up.

HIGH MARKS: The Ladies' Aid of Magnolia Park, C. T. Harrison, pastor, used 1044 bouquets as the vehicle of their sympathy and friendship.

Cahuenga Park, A. C. Abbe, pastor, has doubled its membership and raised the salary from $1200 to $2100.

Huntington Park, S. S. Sampson, leads the district in Sunday School attendance, reaching a peak of 1614, with an average during the year of 1327.

Paso Robles, Waldo S. Reinoehl, pastor, read 16,000 pages of Stewardship literature and signed up fifty tithers.

First Church, Long Beach, Richard N. Merrill, pastor, increased its pledged contributors from 643 to 1034. 1600 members attended a series of Fellowship Meetings preceding the financial campaign.

Compton, H. H. Hocker, pastor, received 85 new members at one service.

FREE RIDES: Early in the year Paul Lomax's mother invited him to accompany her on a trip to the Holy Land. He accepted and has returned with a fund of first-hand material and inspiration. His church at Arroyo Grande was supplied with great acceptability during his absence by one of our retired members, F. M. Clark.

W. I. Lowe of Tujunga and Harry Banks of Hynes were sent by their respective Kiwanis Clubs to the International Convention at Atlantic City. Brother Lowe had the extra honor of being the prize five-minute speaker and goes to Atlantic City to entrance the East with a bit of Western oratory.

LARGER PARISH: Some of the problems of the smaller churches are being solved by the larger parish plan. I found at Paso Robles a combination of five churches working together for the welfare of each other. Pastors Reinoehl and Carter have done good team work and this parish will be further developed during the coming year. Another larger parish will be established in the near future with San Pedro as the head. A completed parish will include Terminal Island, Grandview and Davidson City; to each of these churches will be appointed a young pastor, each of whom will be a member of San Pedro First Church staff.

EVANGELISTIC CAMPAIGN: Plans are being made to organize each church on the Long Beach District in a personal visitation evangelistic campaign to cover the entire coming conference year, with the anticipation that on next Easter day 5000 people will be received into membership. The Quarterly Conferences are voting unanimously to participate and the plan points to the most comprehensive evangelistic effort ever attempted in the Methodist Church. One thousand personal workers will be organized and will carry on the campaign through a period of six months, which will bring a spiritual reaction into every department of the church. We have high hopes and instead of reporting a net gain of 1400 next conference it will be 4000 or more. The momentum of a district-wide Evangelistic program fully organized for an entire year has never before been tried.

RADIO BROADCAST: One of the innovations of the district has been the establishing of the Long Beach District Radio Pulpit, whereby the Superintendent broadcasts each Sunday morning from 8:30 to 9:00 o'clock over station KGER items of interest with reference to the work. He will be in touch every Sunday morning with all the preachers who will take the pains to tune in. The Evangelistic campaign will be promoted by this agency. Although costing a considerable sum, broadcast for a year has already been provided by interested persons. Rex B. Barr has been appointed Radio Pastor and will bring a message in the absence of the Superintendent.

I cannot close this report without making several personal recommendations. First, that there should be some General Conference action, or whatever else is necessary, to provide that one representative of the Board of Home Missions and Church Extension Society should live on the Pacific Coast. The recommendations of this representative should carry authority.

Second, there should be a column in the printed minutes to record debts on current expenses so that when money is borrowed to pay the retiring pastor, at least there will be a record for his successor.

Third, that there be no change in the geography of the Long Beach District during the present administration. The time for a change is when the new District Superintendent is appointed.

Fourth, that there be a conference commission on new buildings in order that by sympathetic advice and co-operation churches will not be so likely to become entangled in almost hopeless debt.

I am thankful to the Heavenly Father for a place of service, for perfect health and congenial relations with all my brethren. I have kept the pledge made to myself that I would preach in every church during the year. I like my job and look forward with anticipation for a great year of Christian co-operation.

W. C. LOOMIS.

FRESNO DISTRICT

New Supt.
Leonard Oechli

Retiring Supt.
Chas. D. Lewis

It is now for the sixth time my privilege to give an account of the stewardship committed to me as Superintendent of the Fresno District. In many ways this has been a fruitful and a happy year, though fraught with anxieties and deep demands on our faith.

At the close of the last Conference, 9 months ago, Bishop Hughes appointed Frank R. Newman as pastor of the church at Del Rey. He and his accomplished wife took up the work with fine and eager fidelity. They were becoming acquainted with the task, and were finding a warm place in the hearts of the people, but within a few short weeks Brother Newman was taken ill. He rallied and spoke at a New Year's Eve service, but within a week after he fell suddenly at his post, and "was not, for God took him". His funeral was held in the church of which he was pastor, and was attended by his brother ministers, in large numbers, by laymen of the District, and visiting friends. His brief ministry in Del Rey was characterized by devoted loyalty to Christ, and careful attention to the spiritual needs of the people.

SONS OF THE PARSONAGE have arrived to gladden two of our district homes during the year. On December 7th, Lyman Bruce came to make his permanent residence with Brother and Sister Bruce Ellis, of Independence, over in Owens Valley; and on March 6th, Harold Elden, Jr., allied his fortunes with Brother and Sister Harold E. L. Carlson at Wasco.

FINANCIAL BACKGROUND. Our district is rural. Within its bounds is produced the bulk of the raisins of the country. Fruit, grain, dairying, are the industries which support the majority of the people. But raisins are so unprofitable to raise that the Federal Government has proffered lavish assistance to stabilize the industry of grape products. Eighty-five per cent of the acreage planted to grapes must be signed into the control by July 9th, or the effort will be given up. Suspicion, greed, memories of exploitations, reluctance to surrender independence in marketing; these restrain the farmer, the most conservative of all our people, from signing. The ablest business men believe that the plan would turn losses to profits in the grape industry, restore a flow of business in many lines, and create a new atmosphere of hope and optimism well founded. But we have also cattle on the ranges, sheep in the stubble fields and plains, oranges in the foothills, and oil in the bowels of the earth. These have been profitable.

CHURCH PROPERTY: 29 churches have made improvements in the property, at a cost of $6,600. 17 have paid debts to the amount of $17,660. New buildings are contemplated during the coming year, as follows: Trinity, Bakersfield, where W. H. Rogers has led his people in a successful debt paying enterprise, which has netted $300 per month for 20 months. On May 18th, amid great rejoicing, the District Superintendent preached the sermon, and Grandma Wheeler, 91 years of age, touched the lighted match to the $6,000 mortgage, thus destroying the last dollar of debt. This people will soon commence the erection of a new social and educational plant. An extension Sunday School has been started by this church during the year, 2 miles in the outskirts of the city, which will later develop into another Methodist Church.

Independence has for some time been collecting a fund, and plans are now laid to enlarge and equip the church for greater service.

Wasco purchased a large dwelling house, moved it to the church property, remodeled it and made it into a very serviceable annex to the church property at a cost of $4,000.

Porterville, where 105 members were received into the church on Easter Sunday, is planning for an educational and recreational building, to cost over $30,000, work to commence this fall.

Redecorating of the church has been done at Kernville, Corcoran, Caruthers, and Calwa.

At Atwater, a good friend of the church, though not a member, left in his will a trust which will produce approximately $400 per year to maintain the exterior of the church and parsonage, together with the grounds, all of which have been lawned and planted with shrubs and flowers.

Taft is collecting a Building Fund, and hopes to sail into a building enterprise on the crest of some one of its periodic oil booms.

WORLD SERVICE: Report this year, May 31, shows $19,033, an increase over same date last year of $2638. The Board of Home Missions has rendered very valuable assistance to the district in maintenance and in the establishment of the Wesley Foundation work at Fresno State College. Many of our people have become interested in particular persons or causes on the foreign field. They believe in these, and so maintain their interest in World Service as visualized in them. Permission to designate our gifts to a concrete project on our district has also helped. As a result of this, Fresno District has in the year ending May 31st, made the largest increase over the giving of the previous year of any district in the San Francisco Area.

In spite of unfavorable conditions and on account of the faithfulness of pastors and people to the evangelistic emphasis, our statistics will register an increase in membership of the churches.

WOMAN'S WORK: The women of the District have, as always, valued the church and been appreciative of the spiritual riches of life. They have been tireless in the Sunday School, the Ladies' Aids and the Missionary Societies, and every department of the church.

The report of the Aid Societies will show that they have made 15,596 calls in the interest of the church, have served thousands of meals at its get together meetings, and have turned to the treasuries of the Lord during the short year, over $23,000 in cash.

The District Federation of the Ladies' Aid has met quarterly, has an attendance of over 300. Its programs have been of a high class, and it has served as a clearing house for devices and methods of work and service which has been invaluable. The total purpose of the Federation is to make the work of the local church more effective.

Mrs. Lewis, who organized the Federation and has been its President for four years, has surrendered the leadership to Mrs. L. E. Warren.

The Woman's Foreign Missionary Society has been ably led by some of the choicest women of the District. These women are conscious of the needs of the women of other lands. Touched by the spirit of Christ, they cannot remain idle in the face of the known need. On Fresno District they will pay into the cause they represent, approximately $3,000.

The Woman's Home Missionary Society has looked at the need of the women and children and the home churches, and has said—"we will help". They will report nearly $4,000 as raised for the cause.

The Conference organization this year will do itself the credit of sending Mrs. Wright as a representative to the meeting of the General Executive.

OUR CHURCH SCHOOLS are constantly extending the scope of their activities. Under the stimulating guidance of J. L. Corley, helped by the incomparable publications of our Book Concern, Training Schools for workers are becoming rather common, and efficiency is increasing. The desire for additional instruction has produced a large number of Vacation Bible Schools, many interdenominational, and at Grace Church, Fresno, the Week Day School has continued its work as in former years.

PERSONNEL: At the close of the Conference last year Wasco and Bishop were left to be supplied. E. Clayton Burgess was transferred from Gloucester, Mass., to serve at Bishop. He brought his charming wife and baby over the long trail and settled down in the parsonage by the foot of the High Sierra Crags. He has done splendid work, the people have given him a new Ford car, and greatly desire to keep him for a long time.

Harold E. L. Carlson, of Marion, Iowa, ordained by Bishop Hughes to the Methodist Ministry, loaned for a period to the Congregationalists, was brought out and put in charge at Wasco. He is highly appreciated and will come up for recognition of orders and admission to our Conference.

On the death of Brother Newman at Del Rey, E. N. Dabritz, a returned missionary from Sumatra, sojourning in Southern California, was appointed as supply pastor. Under his leadership all is going well, and his return as pastor is desired.

Within the last 5 years, I have brought to the work of the Church and to the Southern California Conference, 14 splendid equipped and pro-professionally trained young men, called of God to the ministry. Because of their efficiency in the churches they make the work of the District Superintendent easier, and I am sure that a real contribution to the Conference has been made.

Shortly after the close of the Conference an exchange was arranged whereby L. R. Bayard came to Hanford and A. F. Hasse went to Costa Mesa on the San Diego District.

At Alpaugh, J. T. Carson was compelled, on account of sickness, to be away from his pulpit for a few weeks. During his absence his daughter filled the pulpit so satisfactorily that the people desire to have the family stay with them for another year.

TAFT, where folks in the church enjoy each other unfeignedly, end where they sing warmly—"Our Summers, They Last All the Year"; where a Tithing Band solves financial problems, and they are gathering the overflow into a Building Fund for the future.

MOUNTAIN VIEW, where a circuit will be formed with the Congregational Church at Arvin, each retaining its own identity, but served by a Methodist pastor.

MERCED, "Gateway to Yosemite", where throngs of tourists from the ends of the earth surge past our doors, where Methodists of the North and South have combined, where the Exchequer Dam affords abundance of water to insure crops, where an eager and forward looking city expects Methodism to build to serve its many needs. What a chance for the right man.

KINGSBURG, where Pastor Sundstrom has served for 11 years, a Swedish church now holding services in the English language, a delightful and religious people.

TRINITY, FRESNO, where the church, the city, the District, the Board of Home Missions and the Wesley Foundation have all combined to secure Christian educated leaders from one of our State supported colleges, and J. E. Vandagriff is desired for his 8th year.

RANDBURG CIRCUIT, where John Ovall scours the desert distances, and where during this year he has organized a church at Cantil and a class at "Twenty Mule Team Borax Mine". At Randsburg, where he lives, he and Mrs. Ovall keep it interesting in the upper strata, and the bootleggers keep it lively in the lower.

TRONA is 40 miles from the Owens Valley Railroad, far out on the desert, on the banks of Searles Lake, where William Freer, father of our supply at Coalinga, has been holding up the banner of Christ among the 1100 employees of an English Company busily engaged in making potash and borax from the black depths of Searles Lake. Every piece of property belongs to the Company, and nobody plans to stay there, where the mercury reaches 116 degrees in the shade, were there anything out of which to make a shade. A church and a parsonage are needed.

HIGH SIERRA EPWORTH LEAGUE INSTITUTE will this year be held on July 19-26, instead of July 1st, as formerly, on account of the change of date of holding this Conference. This will take it over into the time when canneries are running, and many of the young folks will feel it necessary to work while the opportunity is on. However, the fact that the Methodism of the Valley owns this camp, with its $80,000 worth of assets, its accommodation for religious groups, vacationists and summer homes; that the excellence of our Institute program over a series of years has been notable, and the appealing faculty announced for this year, is luring many from Southern California, lead us to believe that we will not fall short in our attendance of 335 this season. Royal Reisner, our Conference Young People's worker, has visited our Institute and our District at intervals, directing the energies of our young people.

DISTRICT COUNCIL: And may I tell you of the meeting we have once a month, at different places in the District? Pastors, their wives, laymen, gather in our District Council, the clearing house for the life and program of the church, where fellowship is finely realized, where we come to know each other and the life of the churches, where discriminating programs sharpen the wits and high idealism lifts the soul.

OWENS VALLEY, through which for countless ages torrents of water have rushed from the melting snows of the mountains, and in whose barren hills God has stored a great variety of minerals, early attracted cattle men, miners and ranchers. Here Methodism was planted at five places. Four churches and three parsonages were erected, and our work was well established. Meanwhile, far to the south, a giant city was growing by leaps and bounds, eager and thirsty for needed water. It reached out and took the water. The little group of 6,000 valley dwellers fought in vain to retain it. The story of this fight has now gone largely into history. Its animosities are dying down. As we look back over the struggle we see a small group, who loved their homes, their valley, their mountains, their community life, their comfortable existence, their freedom, in happy possession of all that they thought they required. On the other hand was dire necessity of water on the part of a million and a quarter people. Interests clashed. High values were set by the owners on the water. Sufficient generosity on the part of those who controlled the policy of the city, was lacking. The church was in the midst of the conflict, and was affected by it. However, it rendered a great and valuable ministry. Disintegration would have been worse without it. A just appraisal has now been made of all remaining property in the valley. Los Angeles has voted bonds, and will now purchase ranches, towns, and all immovable assets. Most of the people who constituted the permanent population will leave. However, others will come in. The city will spend vast amounts of money in development work, bringing in laborers from the outside. It is thought that for 3 years, the population of the towns of Lone Pine, Independence and Bishop, will not be less than now, though of a different character. Big Pine will likely be abandoned and possibly razed. If there are people in Owens Valley there will be need of the church. We will stay as long as the need exists, and the possibility of maintenance continues.

FINAL WORD: And now, Bishop Burns, I have come to the end of my term as leader of Methodism in this District. At the close of this Conference I hand back to you the responsibility with which you entrusted me six years ago. At the close of the Santa Barbara Conference I promised myself and my Master that I would move to Fresno and give myself with unstinted devotion to the work of Christ and the Church. I have tried to fulfill that vow. With what success, I must leave to the considerate judgment of yourself and the people among whom I have worked.

For the wonderful hospitality of parsonage homes and families, for kindnesses shown and courtesies innumerable on the part of ministers and laymen, which Mrs. Lewis and I have received, for fine fellowship, and for the privilege of sharing in the life which is beginning here but does not pass away, I am deeply grateful.

And may I express publicly my appreciation of Bishop Burns and of my brethren. They have been careful, considerate and Christian in handling the interests of the church and of the people which have been placed in their care. Whoever comes into the Cabinet in the coming year, will do the same. Their responsibilities will impel them to seek the presence and help of Him, in whose presence unworthy motives vanish away.

I go back to the pastorate wherever the Bishop indicates, happy in the thought that I have more years yet to dedicate to Him, who, when a boy of eighteen, intrigued me and since that time has been with me every step of the way.

CHAS. D. LEWIS.

PASADENA DISTRICT

New Supt.
Chas. F. Seitter

Retiring Supt.
W. C. Buckner

Three times during the year death has entered our parsonage homes, taking Mrs. B. J. Jordan, the wife of our pastor at Scott Church, Pasadena; George W. Irwin, supply pastor at Grace Church, Ontario; and the new born daughter of Elmer S. and Mrs. Andersen, of Rialto.

A new baby boy, James Harmon Reynolds, came to the parsonage home of C. S. Reynolds, of Las Vegas.

E. F. Gates, First Church, Alhambra, has undergone two major surgical operations during the year. He is steadily regaining his usual health and brings to this Conference one of the best reports of his ministry.

E. N. Askey, our pastor at Puente, was suddenly stricken ten days ago and lies at the Methodist Hospital in Los Angeles convalescing from a serious operation.

Pentecost: Pentecost has been the key word on the Pasadena District through these past nine wonderful months. It has unlocked the storehouse of spiritual energy until I dare say that at no time in our generation has there been such widespread emphasis upon spiritual things by the preachers, or such keen appreciation of spiritual values among the people as has characterized this unforgettable Conference year. Again and again has it been said to me, "Our pastor never preached so well before". Indeed! And why not? When, in the providence of God, we come to an hour of spiritual inventory, when preacher and people pause for meditation upon the deeper experiences of life, better preaching is inevitable.

Pasadena Plan: The Pasadena Methodist Council, led by First Church Pasadena, has gone steadily forward with its unique and comprehensive program for Pasadena Methodism.

One project has been completed at a cost of $61,000, and our colored people are now occupying their beautiful new brick church. The name has been changed from Scott Chapel to Scott Methodist Episcopal Church. It is well located and will enable them to grow into a strong church.

1. Scott, Pasadena. 2. Lancaster.

The second project, Washington Street, will go forward this fall on their splendid new site at Los Robles Avenue and Washington Street.

Other New Buildings: At Lancaster a neat, modern parsonage has been purchased at a cost of $3,900 and is occupied by the pastor. The church has been enlarged and remodeled at a cost of $12,000, so that it has not only been greatly improved in appearance, but now offers also, complete church school facilities, a pastor's study and more ample social equipment.

The new parsonage at Covina, completed this year at a cost of $7,500, is one of the most elegantly furnished homes owned by any church in the Conference.

First Church, Upland, has in hand cash and subscriptions totaling $41,864 toward a beautiful $75,000 church which they expect to build during the coming year.

Chino has adopted a gem of a plan including a new church and a new parsonage costing, all told, $35,000. They are now completing a subscription campaign to cover this amount.

Salary Changes: Four charges report increase in pastor's salary: Glendale, First $300; Las Vegas, $300; Azusa, $400; Washington Street, Pasadena, $600. Temple City decreases $500.

Religious Education: I have watched with great interest the program of Religious Education on the Pasadena District for the past 13 years. Taken as a whole, it is probably not excelled on any District in Methodism. Twelve of our churches employ Directors of Religious Education. Gradually our Pastors, Directors and local Councils of Religious Education are learning how to integrate this new and valuable element of leadership into the parish scheme. J. L. Corley and Royal Reisner are held in highest esteem among us for their ability and fidelity. The district leaders of the Epworth League and Women's Missionary Societies cannot be too highly commended for the faith and vision with which they are grasping the whole great scheme of correlating the various educational factors of the church. For the first time in six years the Church School leaders reported this year, almost universally, a complete corps of teachers. And they are better trained than ever before. The first fruit of this happy improvement was to be expected—a wholesome increase in average attendance. Every Sunday morning an army of 13,434 pupils marches into our Church School classes and under the leadership of the best equipped teachers the Church has ever known. First Church, Pasadena, still leads the district with an average attendance of 1215, but First Church, Glendale, with an average of 1076, and a rapidly growing school, looms as an early competitor for this place of honor.

The Pasadena District Young People's Convention, held this year at First Church, Redlands, was in all respects the most satisfactory within the memory of the writer. The Epworth Leagues of the District report 3426 active members. I could pick 1000 of them who could take over every Quarterly Conference office in the District today, and carry on with distinction and honor to themselves, the Church and their Christ.

World Service: While the World Service giving throughout the nation continues to decline, the Pasadena District steadily advances. Word came early in the year that the World Service Commission had allocated to the Pasadena District, askings amounting to $65,169 for the 9-month period of the short Conference year. No report of this was made to the Quarterly Conferences, but we followed our usual custom of allowing each Quarterly Conference to fix its own goal on the basis of its giving for the previous year. When I had made the complete round, I added up the goals and found, not $65,169 but $68,052. Last week the pastors sent me an estimate of the amount of this which would actually be paid by Conference time and the total is $1330 in excess of the askings. This, in the face of a hard year financially, gives ground for the exhibition of a little pardonable pride.

Brotherhood: The great Men's Council, held under the leadership of Bert E. Smith in February, was largely attended and a great success. If this movement shall succeed in pointing our men's organizations toward a well rounded program of activities and interests so that they will not drift so directly into the sole objective of political action, then we will all give thanks for ever more.

The New Preaching: What a day to preach! For evangelistic preaching. Not alone the sermon; but the mind and heart and program and objectives and expectations of the modern preacher must all be keyed to the high pitch of evangelism. What is there in the social gospel, what is there in the scheme of religious education, which is incompatible with the high glow of evangelism? Not a thing. Preaching which lays bare the sins of men against the social welfare, which condemns the perfidy of ignorance and prejudice, points as surely to the penitential altar as any theme of our fathers.

I have been putting into the hands of young men that inspiring volume by Joseph Fort Newton, "The New Preaching". I want him to kindle their hearts as he kindled mine when he says, "It is a tangled, troubled world in which we preach and our people listen. . . . It needs the Gospel of Christ, told in simple words and incarnated in lives of grace and truth; a gospel more gentle than its gentilities, more reasonable than its rationalism, more human than its humanism, more practical than its pragmatism, more real than its realism, and profounder than all its philosophies. . . . Truly it is a great day for the preacher, if he believes his religion, knows his age, loves it, lives in it, thinks in the rhythm of its deeper movements, speaks its dialect, feels the pathos of its quest and the thrill of its adventure. The preaching of the past was noble, stately, rich in beauty and power, in myriad keys and tones eloquent for God. The new preaching is more simple, direct, human, dipped and dyed in the colors of life, more artless in its eloquence, more intimate in its appeal; but it proclaims the same gospel which in its depth and power and richness, is equal today, as in all days ago, to every mortal need and every immortal longing. May the Lord of all good life melt our hearts with love, clear our minds with the bright vision of an emancipated faith, and touch our lips with lyric fire, that we may tell the truth as it is in Jesus, shaping our sermons after the pattern shown us on the mount." Hail, my brethren and good cheer! Let us carry on.

WALTER C. BUCKNER.

SAN DIEGO DISTRICT

Upon my appointment to the San Diego District last fall I immediately began to study our Methodist work in relation to the rapidly increasing population pouring into the vast section covered by this district, including all of California from Los Angeles south to the Mexican border and from the coast to the desert. In this region we have 15,449 Methodists, 60 charges, property valued at $2,082,250, counting simply churches and parsonages and no other institutions. These Methodists raised for benevolences last year $135,394 and for World Service alone $48,624, and for ministerial support more than another $150,000.

These are assets but more than that they constitute a sizable instrumentality for the molding of public opinion and for the Christianization of the world. Never once this Pentecostal year have we forgotten those heroic early Christians, who hurried every whither on the King's business, and we have cheered our own hearts by reminding ourselves of the evangelistic passion of Wesley, the zeal of Francis Asbury, who refused to be denied either by a smug culture, or a spiritual complacency of any kind.

I have freely and joyously drawn upon the reserve of experience, especially for my younger brethren seeking to be helpful to them in making suggestions for pastoral work, church management, personal evangelism, general reading and the understanding of the times. I have given very little time or thought these past nine months either to mergers or to federation. I have been intent on bringing our working forces to greater efficiency and to a higher state of enthusiasm. In one section of our district last year an epidemic of federation measles broke out but our churches have outlived that trouble and are recalling that Methodism is Christianity in earnest, with a clear recognition of the free will of man and the free grace of God, or it is nothing.

We have been calling upon our churches to go forward, feeling that the very name bestowed upon our office was given to remind us that our main business was not to preside but to lead. We have held two district wide rallies. We have tried to rally the man power, as Bert Smith calls it, of our churches and since Easter in one church alone the men have made 6,000 calls of an evangelistic character. We have honored our women of the several Aid Societies and of the Federated Aid and none of their work has been more effective than their calls. We have placed a strong emphasis on community visitation and personal evangelism and 45 charges reporting to me on the total calls made show that we have a record of 60,508! Among the pastors making 900 or more calls in this 9 months' period are Lee, 1300; Lawyer, 1100; Hoffman, 1011; Linder, 1000; Reinius, 917; Seaman, 900.

Our district League cabinet has gone up and down and across this district in an altogether amazing manner and aroused our young people to an activity they have never before shown. More than 500 paid delegates registered at Fullerton for the district convention and at the close of a passionate appeal by B. D. Snudden, 80 young people made their first decision for the Christian life.

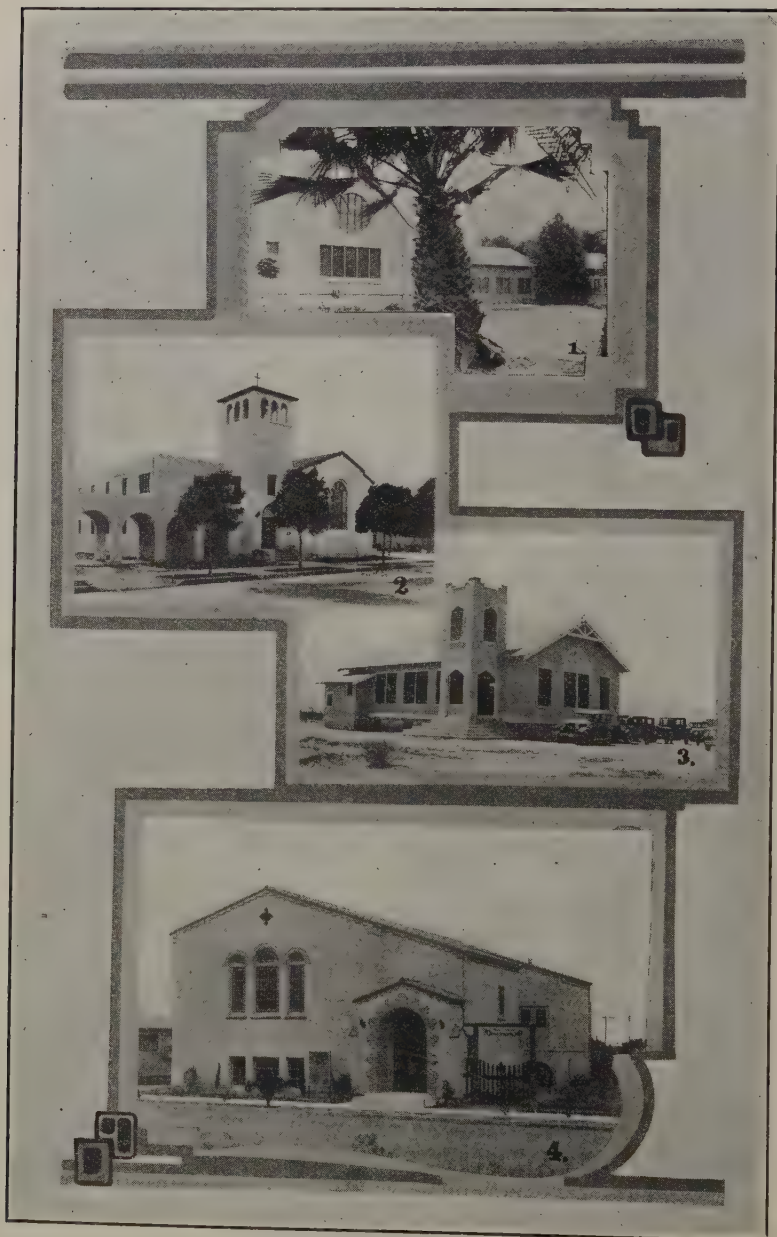

I am unable to give the total decisions for the Christian life, but the pastors' reports show a gain in full membership of 1048.

In San Diego I found a going organization in which the laymen and pastors of the several churches meet every month around the supper table and the reports are given from the churches both by laymen and pastors. It is called the Methodist Union and Missionary Society. It has made for a greater solidarity in the Methodism of San Diego. We have launched similar organizations in the Imperial group and in Orange County. I think Riverside County will yet have a similar gathering.

We have sought to improve the physical conditions of our property, and to provide for all indebtedness, to open new work and to keep in mind that the church is a great educational undertaking. We have just completed a survey of all the religious educational work of the district. In the fall we are to hold two educational conferences, aided by J. L. Corley and several experts from the educational board of the church at large. We have pressed the circulation of good literature including our Advocate and one of our laymen has started a movement to have each local church make an annual contribution for the pastor's library. Dr. A. L. Bramkamp is the originator of this idea. Brain fertilization is just as vitally necessary for good preaching as soil fertilization is for good oranges!

John Ashley at Arlington, has placed the service of worship and preaching before the school hour on Sundays and the scholars go direct from that inspirational meeting to their class rooms. I rather think we need to reorganize our entire Sunday program.

The salary increases are as follows: Anaheim-German, $300; Blythe, $500; Calexico, $500; Holtville, $200; Magnolia, $100; El Centro, $250;

Cardiff, $500; Asbury, San Diego, $100; National City, $300; Central Church, San Diego, $200; First Church, San Diego, $500; Richland Avenue, Santa Ana, $200; Fullerton, $100; Murietta, $500; San Marcos, $500.

And now for a few specific facts from individual charges:—

The Imperial Valley—Calexico—Q. P. Royer has proved himself the right man for the place. The old building has been moved to its new location and overhauled at a cost of about $5,000. $10,000 have been paid on the new corner market which will eventually finance a new church plant. Increase in World Service, 71%.

Holtville, John Engle, pastor. $10,000 have been pledged to be paid in cash at the completion of the new school plant and to meet the conditions of the gift of $3,000 from one of our generous Methodist laymen of the San Diego District. Brawley and El Centro have new church enterprises in prospect. A new parsonage will soon be under construction at Magnolia. The committee at Imperial, Heber and Verdi are just holding their own and the churches are not doing their best under hard conditions.

San Diego: Churches well located, well manned and the spirit of co-operation excellent. First Church's pulpit reaches the entire city through the preaching of Frank Linder, under whose leadership this charge has increased its membership from 1200 to 1900. Park Boulevard, Dow Hoffman, pastor. 50% increase in World Service. Congregation busy writing off the $30,000 debt. Men of the church have made 6,000 calls since Easter. Asbury, H. K. Holtzinger, pastor. Net increase in membership of 65, membership now 468. Average attendance at Sunday School 442. A new pipe organ was installed this year.

Point Loma, H. A. McPheeters, and Central, W. Clyde Beecher, have each dedicated new churches, costing approximately $20,000 each, and both pastors have done what at first seemed impossible.

Coronado is still retreating but W. A. Matson has made the retreat seem something like a Christian gesture. We intend to make a new approach to that fifteen year old problem.

National City has made remarkable progress under the leadership of Frank D. Lawyer, increasing its membership 20%, its salary $300. Chula Vista has had its best year. J. Hunter Smith is the patient, but persistent pastor. Santee is happy under the shepherding care of Carl M. Ross. The German Church, W. C. Schmutzler, holds a steady course and has made extensive repairs. Nestor, down Tia Juana way, is still responding to the leadership of that tireless layman, Robert S. Porter, and this year won the silver trophy in the Sunday School contest. This contest arranged by H. K. Holtzinger of Asbury Church has increased the efficiency of all the schools in San Diego. Inwood, which for 13 years has been unable to complete its building, is now arranging for this, aided by several neighboring churches and a committee headed by J. W. Mahood, pastor of Trinity Church. W. R. Weckerly is the devoted layman who has stayed by the staff all these years. Trinity Church has refinanced its property indebtedness reducing the interest rate 1% and paying $400 on the principal. Mission Hills, Leo Kline, pastor and Le Mesa, E. H. Nicholson, are well adapted to their fine residential neighborhoods.

Normal Heights Church, which has been designated a Home Missionary project for the district, this past year has received 100% co-operation from the charges of the district and its membership has rallied splendidly under the leadership of Earl H. Haydock. It now has on its constituency and membership list over 600 families and promises to become one of the strongest churches in the city.

Methodism owes a large debt of gratitude to Mr. Frank Lynch and especially to Mr. C. W. Wilson, who has been Special Treasurer handling the claims against this enterprise.

Orange County has some of the strongest churches in the Conference. Fullerton, B. D. Snudden, pastor, has reached the high-water mark of its history and now has the largest average attendance of any Sunday School in the district—651 and has had an increase of 103 in membership. R. W. Lee, pastor at White Temple, Anaheim, has begun a new Sunday School annex and the gain in membership is 142. At Orange, W. B. Cole, pastor, every department is flourishing and there is an increase over last year's World Service.

George A. Warmer has greatly strengthened every line of work at Santa Ana, and this past year has conducted what I consider the most comprehensive church night program on the Pacific Coast.

Richland Avenue has had a prosperous year. O. W. Reinius, pastor, was literally compelled to accept an increase in salary.

B. C. Voll, West Broadway Methodist Church (German), Anaheim, has had a good year and is invited to return at an increase of $300 in salary.

A. F. Hasse at Costa Mesa has made a fine start and his people are enthusiastic over his work.

The churches at Balboa, Newport and Tustin, supply appointments, have all done well.

Harry I. Smith, who has served as student pastor at Wintersburg this past year, and has greatly developed every department of the work, will give his entire time to school this coming year. The effectiveness of his work is evidenced by the fact that the charge is asking for a Conference appointment.

La Habra has invited Daniel Dundas to return for the fourth year and is planning a five-year program including a new building.

Huntington Beach, J. M. Barnhart, closes the year with a financial surplus in spite of retrenchment in the oil field, and the year closed with a great evangelistic rally on Monday night.

Floyd J. Seaman fits Garden Grove like a tailor made suit.

It is not too much to say that Yorba Linda, Grover C. Ralston, pastor, has had a resurrection this past year. The church swarms with young people, has captured its community, burned its mortgage, painted the parsonage, paid all its bills for the current year, subscribed in full for the budget of the coming year and has adopted an adequate building program. The contracts will be released July 15 and all work will be on a cash basis. A new financial plan will be used in the building of this plane. Instead of giving the church three-year pledges in the form of notes, bearing interest, the donors, if unable to pay cash, will borrow at the bank and give their notes to the bank and as an underwriting the Trustees of the church will give the bank a note for the entire amount.

The achievement has been possible because of the spirit of connectionalism on the district, registered in the helpfulness of Fullerton, Anaheim and Santa Ana churches and the personal leadership of George A. Warmer, who co-operated continually with the pastor and superintendent and was the speaker at one of the $5.00 banquets.

Santa Fe Springs, M. W. Beckwith, has refurnished the interior of the church building and moved back home.

In the Riverside group, Arlington, John N. Ashley, pastor, has made an especially fine record. This church has one of the most comprehensive young people's programs of any church in the Conference and its recreational work is admirably developed. Its real problem consisted in that the financing of their new church plant was provided for in small pledges extending over a period of ten years, without interest. It is not a large debt—approximately $1000 a year on the principal in ten years to be raised by special effort. This was accomplished by our patented, copyrighted, thoroughly protected, and vigorously worked $5.00 banquet plan.

First Church, Riverside, and the Methodists of Riverside generally cooperated with Arlington in the banquet.

First Church, Riverside, has had a good year. It has the second largest Sunday School in the district. Its Aid Society has made almost 3000 calls last year; its religious educational program has been admirably developed under the leadership of David C. Shipley in co-operation with the pastor. Samuel Hughes is clearing the way for a new church plant in this strategic center.

San Jacinto and Highgrove, supply charges, have had good years. Hemet has made the greatest gain in membership of any charge on the district, in percentage, 62 coming in at Easter time alone.

Grace Church, Riverside, Corona, Elsinore, Banning and Indio have gone forward.

R. C. Stroup, finishing three years at Murietta, has re-opened the work at Winchester and now Murietta is a flourishing three-point circuit.

The church at Blythe is no longer a problem, it is a going concern. The church was built as a community church during the pastorate of John Gabrielson. A dissatisfied sectarian group withdrew from its membership repudiating $3600 in pledges, which those staying by the stuff had to assume.

More than 18,000 of the 40,000 acres of irrigated land has been abandoned. But the tide has turned. The Federal Government has agreed to provide for the upkeep of the levee—$100,000 annually. The Boulder Dam has heartened the general public. Just at this juncture along came Arthur L. Nagel to take charge of the Methodist work and after a careful study of the situation with the District Superintendent decided to dig in. Already the charge has paid up two years of delinquent interest as well as all current bills, and the salary has been increased $500, 22 members came into the church Easter Sunday.

Escondido as a community has solved its water problem and the town and the region round about is entering upon a period of prosperity. This church is now absolutely clear of debt.

Oceanside must build and San Marcos aspires to become a Conference appointment.

At Cardiff the salary has been increased for the coming year and the charge will be separated from Encinitas, which will be left as a supply appointment.

The Goodwill Industries organized in San Diego is steadily gaining in strength and now has resources sufficient to provide for all the expenses except the salary of the Superintendent and plans are under way for taking care of this feature of the work so that the future of the Goodwill Industries of San Diego is guaranteed.

World Service has paid $35,159.

Woman's Foreign Missionary Society—$11,262. Last year, $18,942.

Woman's Home Missionary Society—$16,474, a gain for the like period last year of $2269.

In several of our charges epidemics of a mild character interfered with the attendance of our schools but the parsonage homes have been free from serious affliction and there have been no deaths. Three new Methodists have come to our parsonages—Bonnie Jean in the McPheeters home, Point Loma, Robert Thomas Kent at Brawley, and Markle Corbin Smith at Chula Vista.

The wedding bells rang in Santa Ana Easter evening and Mrs. George A. Warmer has been given a cordial welcome at First Church, Santa Ana.

And so the year closes, and also this report. No deficits on current expense, a considerable increase in membership and in benevolence giving and all of us, pastors and superintendent, eagerly await the close of Conference so that we may go on our vacations.

JAMES ALLEN GEISSINGER.

LOS ANGELES DISTRICT

URBAN TREND: In bold headlines in Sunday's Los Angeles "Times" we read, "Largest City of World Los Angeles' Destiny". An eminent mathematician in that article predicts the rise of this marvel city to stupendous heights—if not to first place in the world—in thirty-five years. The task is a staggering one. It is amazing that the church succeeds as well as it does.

LOS ANGELES PASTORS: Fifty-three Methodist pastors and the churches they represent in this Western Metropolis have labored these nine months, facing the issues of a growing and changing city. This short year has added unfavorable financial conditions and an increasingly large number of people out of employment. Being a Methodist minister in Los Angeles "calls for the strength of an ox, the tenacity of a bulldog, the versatility of a chameleon, the vision of an eagle, the melodies of a nightingale, the meekness of a lamb, the hide of a rhinoceros, the disposition of an angel, the resignation of an incurable, the loyalty of an apostle, the heroism of a martyr, the faithfulness of a prophet, the tenderness of a shepherd, the fervency of an evangelist, the devotion of a mother."

MEMBERSHIP: In spite of continued pruning of church records the district will show a net increase of over 500 in membership; 530 have been received into preparatory membership, 715 on confession of faith, 1173 by certificate, making a total of 2418.

WORLD SERVICE: The World Service will show an increase proportionately over last year's giving and there will not be a single church without World Service credit, with some notable advances.

$200,000 has been paid for buildings and improvements and there will be a slight increase in salaries for the coming Conference year.

WOMEN'S SOCIETIES: The Ladies' Aid Society is a virile force in each church. The fifty societies in the Los Angeles District have raised $46,000 during the year and made 34,000 calls.

The Woman's Foreign Missionary Society has handed me a voucher for $20,709, amount received since Sept. 1, 1929, to June 10, 1930; and the Women's Home Missionary Society has placed in my hands a voucher for $28,480, the amount paid from Sept. 1, 1929, to June 1, 1930.

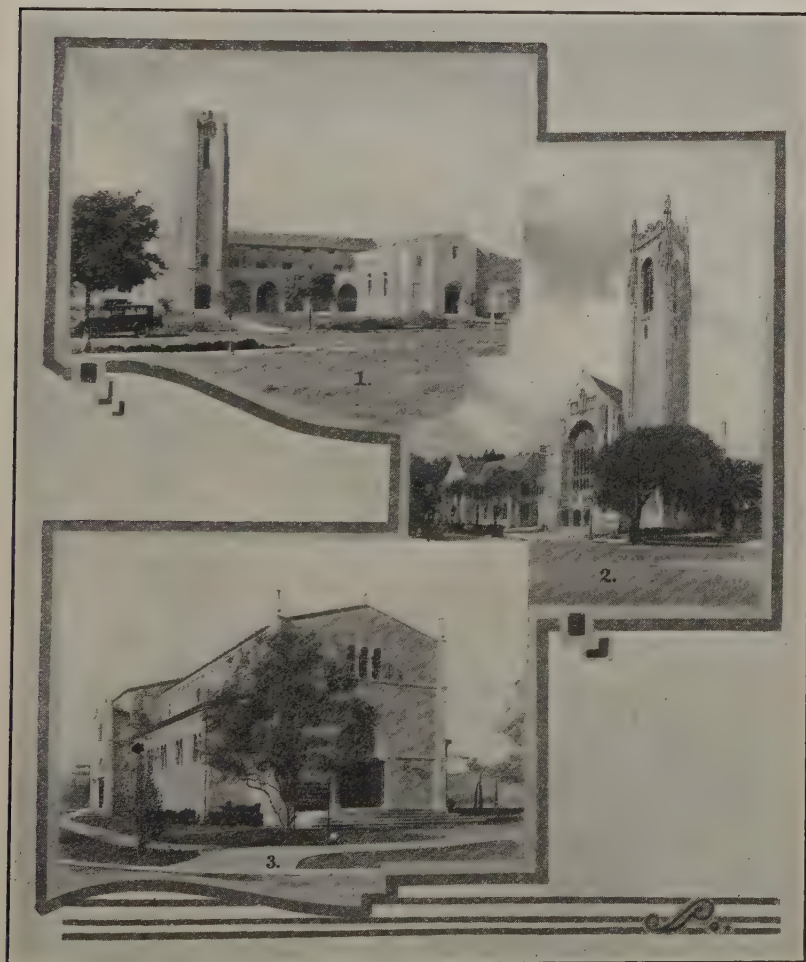

BROTHERHOOD: The Brotherhood Council held in First Church, Los Angeles, in February, has been of a very great assistance in reorganizing Brotherhoods and in the establishment of new ones, and throughout the city the men's work has been very much strengthened.

RAISED ON DEBT: Euclid Heights—$770. Bethel has refinanced the debt and are paying $800 per year. Eagle Rock is relocating the church, have reduced their most embarrassing debt by $15,000 and put spirit into the membership, which will enable them, with the assistance of the Home Board and the City Missionary Society to build in a reasonably short time. St. Paul's Church, $5,000; Sunnyside, $3,500; York Boulevard, $3,000; Melrose Park is now raising $7,600, with the help of the City Missionary Society and the Home Board, which will reduce their debt to $20,000 and from 8% to 6½% interest. Santa Barbara Avenue, $3,259. At Vermont Square, the pastor, C. O. Kimball, has conducted a most successful debt-raising campaign, with a year's preparation and seven weeks' intensive work. The membership and friends of that church have written down $95,000—$81,500 principal and the balance is interest. A most remarkable achievement!

DEDICATIONS: There have been three church dedications. The first, at Westwood, on December 22, which is ideally located near the Southern Branch of the University of California. The pastor, John Wesley Robinson, will report 175 members. The church school has grown so that it has been necessary to build a new unit to take care of one of the departments. On this $115,000 project there remains yet to be paid $11,000.

On Sunday, February 9, the first unit of the Pacific Palisades Church was dedicated at a total cost of $52,700, which is provided for. J. E.

1. Pacific Palisades. 2. Hollywood. 3. Westwood.

Dunning, who arrives in Long Beach today, after having motored back to Dickinson College, where he received the honorary degree of Doctor of Divinity, has led in bringing this important building enterprise to completion.

Our First Church, Hollywood, graces the corner of Highland Avenue and Franklin Street in Hollywood and is visible from most every direction. The church is distinctive and handsome in all particulars. The dedication was held in the sanctuary on Sunday, June 8, by Bishop Burns. Great credit is due the pastor, Charles F. Seitter, and his building committee and board and membership on bringing this enterprise to such a successful culmination.

At the outset of the year the Superintendents' Council allocated to the Methodist Episcopal Church a location at 83rd and Gramercy. C. V. Gustafson was appointed in December and the church now has a membership of 60; the church school reached an attendance of 232 on Easter Sunday. Through A. L. Baker's efforts and the backing of the City Missionary Society, six lots were purchased at the corner of 83rd and Gramercy, including an American Legion Building, which is being used for the service and activities of the church and will be ample until a new church can be built. The cost of this location was $13,500, and recently three lots have been sold, which makes the net cost $8500.

University Church: This church has a very large place in the hearts of Methodist ministers and laymen throughout the Conference, and all rejoice in the accomplishments of the year—the change in attitude, the lifting of the morale of the good people of the church, the cordial sympathy and co-operation of the University. A site was purchased at the edge of the campus of the University of Southern California; $75,000 raised in good subscriptions. This Conference last year voted the allocation of $35,000 Designated Gifts through World Service from the Home Mission Board, which has been granted, and last week the first check from Philadelphia was received, amounting to $1636. The first unit will cost $17,000 and it is expected that work will be commenced in a very short time. The pastor, Wm. C. Hodgson, has faithfully stayed with this project and has rejoiced to see discouragement give way to achievement and depression to inspiration. It is to be hoped that the entire Conference will respond during the next few months with the balance of the $35,000.

WILSHIRE CHURCH: Willsie Martin, pastor, during the year has launched its new building enterprise. The new location at 3rd and Arden has been purchased: Drs. Breeze and Lippman led in a campaign for raising funds and over $180,000 was secured. When the properties now held and used have been sold, then work on the new structure will commence. When completed this will add another great cathedral to Los Angeles Methodism.

SPECIAL INSTITUTIONS: President Von KleinSmid, and Trustees of the University of Southern California, are to be congratulated on the Semicentennial Anniversary held at Commencement time this month. It was the greatest event in the history of the University and we are proud of its Methodist traditions and rejoice in its achievements in non-sectarian and broader lines of education. We trust that both Church and University may be able to work together in a fine bit of co-operation that shall help in the development of Christian leadership.

The Los Angeles City Missionary Society is proving to be a valuable adjunct to the city work. The retrenchment of the Home Missionary and Church Extension Board, due to decreased World Service givings, throws a larger burden upon the individual district. This City Missionary Society is calculated as it grows to help immeasurably in the extension work of the district. It is absolutely necessary in order to insure success that adequate amounts be given to new projects. The Westwood Church is an outstanding illustration of this fact; and the decision on the part of the City Missionary Society to make its objective one or two outstanding enterprises per annum will furnish opportunity for additional enterprises like Westwood.

The Church of All Nations, an outstanding social service center, though hampered continuously for lack of funds, furnishes a fine opportunity for the expression of altruism. It is to be hoped that this center will have a larger place in the affections and generosity of our people and be able adequately to care for the enlarging interests.

The Hollenbeck Heights Social Center, which is under the supervision of Grace Church, Carl C. Seitter, pastor, shows 60,000 attendance in six months, the rehabilitation of delinquents, extensive club work among boys and girls and the like.

The Pacific Old Peoples' Home, J. H. Durbahn, Supt., is a growing institution and occupies a very peculiar and fitting place. The Institution is entirely filled and there are as many more on the waiting list.

The Goodwill Industries has been guided successfully by its Superintendent, F. H. Blair, through the period of unemployment and financial stringency.

The Methodist Hospital has had a good year. Great credit is due the representatives of the Women's Home Missionary Society and the Executive Committee, together with Mr. W. W. Gould, Comptroller. We do not know yet the ultimate outcome of this institution but hope that some way may be devised to save it to Methodism and give us an opportunity to render service in this direction, which is most important.

Our Young People: The District Epworth League has had a good year. The Superintendent has been delighted to meet with the Cabinet almost every month and to be continuously in the councils of this large group. The Annual Convention, held April 25, and the Retreat held in First Church, May 24 and 25, were largely attended and splendid results accrued.

Religious Education: This phase of our work is growing and I am happy to say is having a stronger place in the thought and expression of our people. Many of our churches now in the city have their Religious Educational program well outlined. There are several Directors of Religious Education on the staff of these churches and volunteer workers who are leading in this beneficent work. J. L. Corley and Royal Reisner render most valuable leadership here.

REPORT OF CHURCHES: Asbury has a net increase in membership in a community rapidly becoming a foreign-speaking district. A Brotherhood has been organized with 150 members, 25% of whom are not members of Asbury Church. This church shows an increase in World Service of over 30% for the nine-month period.

Belvedere and Emmanuel will be combined this Conference.

Calvary; Scott E. Winebrenner, the pastor, made 1800 pastoral calls; made a survey of charge to the extent of 2500 homes, found 100 who belonged to the Methodist Church in the East or South, who have not transferred their membership.

Crescent Heights, J. W. Neely, pastor. This church shows a decided increase in membership both in the church and church school, with 117 new members received into the church this past year.

Culver City—E. B. Cole, pastor, has had a year of continuous evangelism.

First Church. This great church continues to function in a great way. E. E. Helms returned May 1 from his trip to Patmos, Nebo, The Seven Churches, etc. The Mid-week Service increased in numbers until it reached more than a thousand and was moved six months ago into the church auditorium.

A letter from E. E. Helms tells of the following bequests left through the First Church by the will of Mrs. Mary Carpenter, which has just been probated: To World Service, $20,000; Woman's Home Missionary Society, $10,000 to be distributed as follows: David and Margaret Home, $4,000; Frances DePauw, $3,000; Jane Couch, $3,000; Church of All Nations, $5,000; Plaza Community Center, $5,000.

Florence Avenue—Russell Clay, pastor, has recently purchased a two manual Moller Pipe Organ.

Gardena. W. W. Kaler, pastor. A Sunday School bus gathers children and older persons for Sunday School. The Deaconess, Miss Butler, is in charge of the trips. The bus often brings from 45 to 50 people to the church.

Moneta Church, closed, was cared for by this church.

Garvanza. D. B. Loofbourrow. There has been a complete organization of the church school into departments, supplied with superintendents and teaching force, and the complete renovation of the building, thus making the facilities for work cheerful and inviting.

Hamilton. S. M. Beane, pastor, has carried forward the program of the church in a way that has met all claims in full and in advance of last year.

Harbor City. Wendell L. Miller. Have equipped their playground and now have the only recreation center in the town. This work is supervised, caring for a large number of children each day. This church has a membership of 76, with a Sunday School average of 174, Cradle Roll 123.

Highland Park—W. L. Y. Davis. Have installed a new pipe organ worth $5000. More people received into the church and finances have never been so easy. A new Brotherhood has been organized along lines recommended by Church School that has functioned unusually well.

Mount Olive—H. I. Rasmus, Jr. Reorganization of Sunday School and Epworth League and subsequent growth. Establishment of solvent financial condition. This church will exceed every goal for last year.

Normandie Avenue. C. J. Olsen. Every organization of the church has functioned exceptionally well. In their church program they have stressed evangelism.

Rosewood—J. M. Baxter. Has had a good year. They suffered a loss by fire in belfry last week of $4 000.

Robertson Boulevard Community Church (formerly St. Luke's). F. J. Oaten. The interior walls have been decorated, the woodwork newly painted, the whole interior draped—an outfit of quarter cut oak pews and pulpit to match; the choir provided with gowns, and a number of minor improvements.

St. Marks—Success of personal contact work and the value of education promotion. The consistent and constant calling through organized leadership has been of untold value.

Wesley Chapel—A. P. Shaw, pastor, have handled without great difficulty obligations incurred by purchase of $21,000 new church site. The Sunday School has been organized so as to make it far more efficient and the young people are held to the worship of the church, especially Sunday mornings.

West Los Angeles, H. S. Putnam, pastor. Have installed new pipe organ this year. Improvements made in parsonage to extent of $200 interior decorations. Also in Epworth League Chapel $100.

Woodcrest. World Service is double that of last year. 19 new members have been received; church attendance both morning and evening has grown. The Sunday School average attendance is above last year. Brotherhood just organized with 23 per cent at first meeting. The pastor will receive an increase in salary of $200 for next year.

VITAL STATISTICS: A daughter came to the parsonage home of Mr. and Mrs. Wendell L. Miller, Harbor City; and a son gladdens the hearts of Mr. and Mrs. R. Fred Moseley of Melrose Park Church. A daughter was born to Mr. and Mrs. Arthur T. Hobson of Echo Park Church, in October.

B. S. Haywood, on year's leave of absence, died suddenly in December, and two of the retired brethren, S. W. Carnes and A. C. Welch, have also joined the Church Triumphant. In the passing of Mrs. Lena Leonard Fisher, wife of John T. Fisher, we have suffered a great loss.

W. C. Eddy and Arthur T. Hobson have lost their honored fathers by death.

THE CLEARING HOUSE: This unique monthly meeting of the active pastors of Los Angeles District furnishes a fine opportunity for frank and full discussion of problems and for fellowship.

The city is an adventure, full of perils, but abounding in opportunities.

RESOLUTIONS

We wish to record our thanks to the Chamber of Commerce of Long Beach for the badges and programs which they provided;

To the Lang Transportation Company for free transportation for the members of the Conference;

To the Sparkletts Bottled Water Corporation for the bottled water and sanitary drinking cups which they kept at hand for the refreshment of the Conference;

To the Long Beach Typewriter and Desk Exchange, the Anderson Typewriter Company and the Burroughs Adding Machine Company for machines used during the Conference, which greatly expedited the work of our busy secretaries, and for all courtesies extended;

To the California College of Commerce for stenographers who brought much needed assistance;

To the Young Women's Christian Association and to the Young Men's Christian Association for the generosity with which they placed their staffs and equipment at the disposal of the Conference, thus adding greatly to the enjoyment of our stay in Long Beach;

To the Press of Long Beach we wish to express our appreciation of their generous publicity and kindly consideration.

We are deeply moved by the fine spirit of co-operation manifested by the other churches of Long Beach in opening their pulpits to us on Sunday. We give our thanks to the First Baptist Church of this city for placing their commodious auditorium at our disposal for certain sessions of our Conference.

First Church, Long Beach, has proven itself a true servant of this Conference by the generous and efficient way in which they have cared for our several needs through the good offices of our beloved pastor host, R. N. Merrill, and his efficient staff.

The caretakers, whose hours have been long and trying, have seen that the comforts of this splendid building have been ours both day and night.

We have always felt that the hearts of the people of this great church were exceptionally warm; but this year you have endeared yourself to us in such a loving way by the royal welcome, splendid entertainment of your church and homes, and the securing of courtesies for our benefit, that we can only say, "Thank you"; and may a double portion of His spirit rest upon you.

We heartily commend the Program Committee for the general theme selected and for the securing of such outstanding leaders as Dr. Samuel L. Hamilton of New York University in the field of Religious Education, and Dr. J. Hudson Ballard of Occidental College in the field of Psychology, who brought to us the most recent contributions of their respective subjects as applied to our task.

We would express our delight with the wealth and artistic presentation of the music during the Conference session.

Once again we have been amazed at the dispatch and efficiency with which the Secretary, Treasurer, and Statistician, and their assistants have discharged the arduous tasks assigned them. Our appreciation of this work of self-denial cannot be too strongly expressed.

Like the worker in Galilee who had toiled all day and was "dyed in the dye-stuffs in which he had been working" and was hungry for "Bread"—hungry "to know God"—so we came to this first Summer Conference.

And like him who ministered unto the needs of the worker in the dye stuffs, so His servant, our beloved Bishop, Charles Wesley Burns, brought us "Bread"—the Bread of Heaven. Our Bishop bowed with us before the Throne of Mercy, "Gave thanks unto our Father" and then by devotional address, sermon, kindly private word, and administrative tact, fairness and justice, broke it and gave us to eat to our great comfort and delight. Thus we leave for our homes and churches greatly strengthened and encouraged. May our Father in Heaven bless our Bishop and bless us in the common task this new church year, and in our relationships "May Jesus Christ be praised."

W. W. KALER.

BOARD OF EDUCATION

All meetings of the Board have been largely attended and marked by intense and intelligent interest. The annual meeting brought out an unusually large attendance and gave a new vision to many of the great educational task before the church.

During the year your Board has sought by repeated conferences to aid every agency charged with this Educational responsibility. It has moved out beyond denominational lines and here and now brings its hearty commendation of such educational movements as the Boy Scouts and the work for boys done by the Y. M. C. A.

WOMAN'S ORGANIZATIONS. Though not directly responsible for any of the educational work of our Women's Missionary Societies, it has sought, as the expression of your interest, to foster that work, and to correlate it with the other educational departments of the church. It has eagerly sought to find a solution to the problem of correlating all these cultural methods and so give unity to that educational work.

PACIFIC PALISADES ASSOCIATION. By the change of conference date this report comes before the big summer work. The experiment made last year of a School of Religion for pastors was so successful that another is planned for this season. Everything is also being done to make the Inter-denominational Conference on the Christian Way of Life, which year by year has proven itself of such value, to be this year still more worthwhile. The Association is making for you a great contribution year by year to the higher thinking and life of today.

YOUNG PEOPLE'S DEPARTMENT. No finer development of our work has come this year than that of the Young People's Department under the leadership of our director of this work, Royal H. Reisner, whose influence has been felt in every part of our conference. A mid-winter Institute was held at Camp Sierra, attended by a hundred and thirty-three, and four institutes have been planned for the summer, one having already been held at Mormon Lake, Arizona. The others come at Idyllwild Pines, July 12-19; at Camp Sierra, July 19-26, and at Pacific Palisades, August 23-30. These institutes give a wonderful opportunity for Christian training in spiritual culture and fellowship.

There came back to us as the result of Rally day last year $3946. We are, therefore, asking that once again you heartily join our young people and make the coming Rally Day a still greater success.

Two facts we must face: viz.: The need of a conference director of children's work, and the decreasing appropriation coming from the general Board of Education. The many-sided and difficult supervision required calls for a highly-trained specialist for the children's work. Other denominations have sensed this need and have provided for it. Your Board has unanimously voted to secure such leadership as soon as it can be financially provided for.

Owing to the decreasing World Service offerings and still more to the growing interest throughout the whole church in Religious Education which is causing conference after conference to ask for aid, the Chicago office has notified us that we must look for decreasing appropriations and provide for our own needs so as to enable it to meet the increasing demands. The Board at Chicago has been very generous with our conference. Of our total gifts to the Board of Education through World Service we receive back into this conference more than 50%. We therefore, through you, ask the Commission on Finance to make an increased appropriation to this work for the coming year. Let us remember that every dollar of the offerings of Rally Day comes back to us for work in our own field.

CONGRESS OF RELIGIOUS EDUCATION. One of the projects organized and promoted by our Conference Director is the California Congress of Religious Education. Annual three-day sessions are held. The purpose is to foster understanding and tolerance in respect to religious education among the various religious and educational groups. This year the Congress was entertained by Pomona College. A number of notable leaders were on the program, the attendance exceptionally good and the meetings marked by very deep interest.

CREATIVE SEMINAR. An event of great importance in our educational program has been tentatively arranged for our San Francisco Area in a series of ten-day conferences of the Seminary type, under the leadership of Drs. Boss, Forsyth, and Geer and Miss Mildred Moody, the best team of discussion leaders in our church. Our presiding bishop heartily approves of this and will be one of the leaders. Four groups will be formed and each will face the task of looking squarely under the light of our modern day at the fundamentals of our Christian religion and will also try to secure a more united and sympathetic understanding of the larger endeavors of the church today. Membership in the groups will be by special arrangement through the conference office and enrollment in each group will of necessity be strictly limited. And such conference is vital in view of the changed emphasis of Methodism. Time was when that emphasis was on a vital experience; today it is on correct opinion. But we must find the ground for the unity of both.

CHURCH SCHOOLS. You are familiar with the general condition of our church schools. There has been in most of the recent years a steady increase in enrollment, average attendance and contribution, though these have not kept pace with the increase in population in our Southland. There is a deepening sense of responsibility on the part of the workers in this field, and an increasing number are seeking better fitness for this important work in teacher training classes and church school institutes. The courses offered are more and more in harmony with the principles of true pedagogy. Your Board suggests these things to make this arm of the church of still greater value: The public installation of the teachers (special and beautiful service forms are available at our conference office); some form of teacher training class in all our churches; a more decided effort to bring our students into definite personal fellowship with Jesus and His church, and a determined effort through the school to deepen the religious life of the home.

VACATION BIBLE SCHOOLS. Through the untiring effort of our executive secretary, J. L. Corley, Vacation Bible Schools are finding a steadily enlarging place in the work of the churches, proving themselves of great value to the boys and girls of our communities. Last summer nearly 100 such schools were held in which our church took a conspicuous part.

SUMMER SCHOOLS. Closely allied to these as part of the summer program are the two schools for teachers and church workers to be held this year at Idyllwild and Pacific Palisades, schools sponsored by the Southern California Council of Religious Education but heartily joined in by your Board.

WESLEY FOUNDATION. As one of the larger interests of this Board the Wesley Foundation shares our deepest concern as one of the weightiest responsibilities resting on us, for no duty is more urgent than the spiritual culture of the student bodies at our State institutions. At our U.C.L.A. there are 700 who give our church as their preference, a group larger than the membership of the majority of our churches. For from this group will come many of the leaders in the coming years. Money and effort invested here will bring the greatest of returns. In cooperation with other Protestant bodies, with Romanist and Jewish co-religionists, this annual conference, through the University Religious Conference, is helping to surround that great student body with a spiritual atmosphere in which men and women may see clearly the solution of their life problems and find guidance in their religious perplexities.

The time has come when it is necessary to put this Foundation on a properly organized basis. You are therefore asked to endorse the plan of incorporating it as the Wesley Foundation of California.

MINISTERS OF EDUCATION. During the last few years there has been created within the church a new profession, that of Minister of Education. There is no question but that this new profession has come to stay. The fact that in the realm of public education leaders have been revising curricula, and raising the standards of professional training, makes it imperative that the church place renewed emphasis upon the matter of teaching material, school organization, and trained leadership. Herein lies the work of the minister of education.

At the present time many ministers, members of conferences, are regularly appointed to charges as ministers of education. Some of these have previously held charges, while others have not. Their educational qualification is determined by the conference of which they are members.

There are also many laymen, both men and women, giving full time to this work, being employed by the churches. Some of these have the highest training which the colleges and universities can give, along with years of experience while others are not really prepared to give adequate leadership in such an important field.

The problem is further complicated by the fact that many of our young people are looking to this calling as a life work. The fact that the church calls its young men and women to this service but makes no provision for such workers and gives no official sanction to the work makes it difficult for those in the field now to give wise and helpful counsel to these young people.

Furthermore, the very fact of the rapid development of the work of religious education has sometimes led to a misunderstanding between churches and ministers of education, and pastors and ministers of education. This, perhaps, was to be expected. The term "religious education" has frequently aroused prejudice. Many, therefore, feel that the time has come when the Church should give some sort of recognition to this new development and thereby put meaning and content into the term "religious education."

In the light of these facts it seems to your Board that it is high time that the Church take action looking to the official recognition of the office and work of the minister of education. We, therefore, present the following memorial to be presented to the General Conference, asking that provision be made for a Fellowship of Ministers of Education to be under the direction of the Board of Education and with the following provisions.

I. MINISTERS OF EDUCATION

1. A minister of education is one of suitable qualifications who has been led by the Holy Spirit to devote himself or herself to the work of religious education as a life work under the direction of the church and who, after the prescribed training, has been given a credential by the Board of Education of the Church and has been consecrated for this work.

2. In no way shall it be understood that the holding of a credential and consecration of a minister of education shall mean that said minister of education is eligible to the appointment to a charge as preacher in charge.

3. This provision shall not encroach upon the autonomy of a local church in its selection of members of its staff. Its purpose, however, is to establish a Fellowship of Ministers of Education to which only those who have met the requirements set forth by the Church shall be eligible.

II. A CANDIDATE FOR MINISTER OF EDUCATION

1. A candidate, before receiving a credential, must be a graduate of a college or university approved by the Board of Education, and must have had at least two years of graduate work in religious education. This provision does not apply to Ministers of Education now in service who may be approved for a credential by the Board of Education.

2. A candidate must meet such other requirements as may be laid down by the Board of Education. He or she must be recommended by the Quarterly Conference of the church of which he or she is a member, and by the Conference Board of Education, and must be approved by the Board of Education.

3. A candidate who has met the above requirements shall be entitled to a credential from the Board of Education.

4. A candidate who has received his or her credential and whose appointment has been requested by the Quarterly Conference of a local church shall be entitled to consecration.

3. The Pension Fund shall be provided for by an assessment upon each church employing a minister of education and upon each minister of education, this assessment being based upon the salary paid, the amount to be determined after careful study by the Board of Education.

Adopted by the Conference Board of Education, June 20th, 1930.

UNIVERSITY SOUTHERN CALIFORNIA—Our University comes to us with a great note of triumph. Through fifty years it has been steadily (at times rapidly) growing, until, with its enrollment of almost 16,000 students and its twenty departments it has come to be one of the outstanding universities in the country. During another year it has had great prosperity and its Semi-Centennial anniversary, just completed, has helped to give it a very large place in the educational world. Its graduation of thirteen hundred students at its recent Commencement, its dedication of four new buildings, one of them, the Hall of Philosophy, being at least one of the finest in the country, its securing of three million dollars in its recent financial campaign, the presence of official representatives from twenty-five foreign countries made this anniversary an unusual event.

Though our relation to it is somewhat changed legally, it is not vitally, and our interest must remain as keen as ever. We are still to think of it as our offspring and love it dearly, though it has outgrown its mother's apron strings, an institution we may well be proud of, for had the conference produced nothing else in this southland it would have made a contribution of greatest value to our life. The university faces today through the development of our public school and college institution a competition keener than ever and one which will grow keener as the years pass. And we need to take an attitude towards it not of criticism but of loyalty and give it the devotion of an alumnus for his alma mater. We shall do ourselves a great gain if we thus act.

It has grown to be a great Metropolitan University, taking its place in this regard alongside of Chicago and Columbia. It lies at the heart of the great city, a fact its leaders and authorities fully recognize, a fact which brings to them a very great responsibility, withal enlarging the University's opportunity and power. For into the heart of this teeming metropolis it is pouring a stream of richest life, a contribution it is thus making for the Church.

It has also grown into a distinctive International University, for over 700 students from foreign countries are in its student body, a number exceeded by only two other universities in this country, while through its affiliated College of International Relations it is helping in marked fashion to bring in a new international mind and day. The finest hour in its recent Commencement was its Convocation when the representatives from 25 nations were welcomed and brought their greetings.

You are specially interested in its School of Religion and will be glad to know there were 510 enrolled in its classes during the past year. Not so many as we had hoped took the distinctive theological course, due in part to the uncertain attitude of this conference to the school. One of the finest things this conference could do would be to put itself heart and soul back of this School of Religion, fostering it in every way possible. Why could not this school be organized into a separate college, though an integral part of the university, electing its own directors as does the School of Law or Medicine, and so being practically self-determining? If such were done would it not give this School a standing it does not now hold? Would it not draw to itself friends and funds in increasing ways? Would it not enable the conference to keep in vital touch with the University in the Church's own realm—Religion?

THE CHINA DEPUTATION. Last April there came to us a challenging appeal from the evangelical churches in China, both national and foreign, through the World's Sunday School Association, asking for help. As you know, the new government in China has completely secularized its school system, thus forbidding religious instruction in any schools below college grade, and there demanding that it always be voluntary. This has of course completely changed the missionary methods of education and has thrown upon the Christian Church in China a new and great responsibility. The leaders of the church there, among them our own Bishop Birney, have assumed this new responsibility; but they have no adequate provision for meeting it. The Church in China realizes that only through Christian training can its workers meet this new situation. And hence its appeal to us. What they desire is: A thoroughly up-to-date system harmonious with the Chinese genius. So they have sent to us in America and through the Association to us on the Pacific Coast asking that there be sent to them two experts in Religious Education who with two selected from their own field shall give a year to a thorough study and survey of their situation and then advise them as to the best method they themselves shall inaugurate, we not to set up something over them but to show them the way to set up their own organization. Your Board felt this to be one of the greatest opportunities by which it might serve the Kingdom and help our fellow Chinese Christians in this grave emergency. It meant sacrifice for us; for the Sunday School Association came asking that we set aside for this work for a year our own gifted leader, J. L. Corley, to go with another from another church to give this assistance. After mature deliberation your Board decided to respond to this call, provided it could be properly financed by the World's Sunday School Association and someone found who could in part take Brother Corley's place during his absence. Both these have been done, and now we ask you in the name of your Master to set apart this brother for this great work, to send him out with heartiest enthusiasm, your gift to your brothers in that great field. Seldom does such opportunity, such honor, come to a conference; but this is your great privilege at this hour.

ALFRED INWOOD.

UNIVERSITY CHURCH

On Page 26 of the 1929 Journal of this Conference will be found the resolutions presented by this committee. These resolutions were adopted unanimously. The Board at Philadelphia granted instead of the 25% asked for, $35,000, on condition that the first unit of the church shall cost not less than $150,000, and this sum shall be paid from designated gifts. This is 22½% of the cost of the building. With this promise from the Board, University Church at once began its building program; it bought a building site on 34th Street facing the campus, and entered upon a campaign for additional funds.

The church found that with the $35,000 paid in, and with all their assets they would need to have an additional $80,000 for building and on necessary loans, and $5,000 besides for furnishings. They, therefore, entered upon a campaign for the $85,000 and to date have secured in substantial pledges, $80,000. Many of these pledges are payable through fifty months. This necessitates a heavy loan. Reputable financing firms will not loan more than 50% of the cost of the building, so University Church is embarrassed in its plans until a major portion of the promised $35,000 is paid in.

Unfortunately, when the appeal came for designations, many of the churches had most of their money in, and without designation; it was too late to get much directed to University Church. At the time of the opening of Conference less than $3,000 had come in. With the architect's plans about completed University Church is unable to go on with the building until funds come from our churches.

Your committee highly commends the tenacious, heroic way the people of this church have held on through these discouraging years, and congratulates them on their emergence from a most difficult situation. Likewise it commends the present building program—the selection of building site, the plan of construction, the method of financing, and the general scheme of building. The educational unit is the building now proposed and planned; the auditorium will follow when financial conditions make it possible. The architect's plans provide for a five-story building, designed principally for religious education and social and recreational activities (though there is no gymnasium). It will care for a church of one thousand. The chapel which will seat about 450 will be used for the services of worship. The University is planning to make use of some of the rooms for their school of religion.

Through the following resolution this committee appeals for your support of University Church:

Whereas, University Church has a greater responsibility than any other church for the religious life of the students of the University of Southern California;

And whereas, the church is greatly handicapped in its activities, and the religious work among the students is necessarily neglected for lack of equipment;

And whereas, University Church will begin its construction and hurry the new church to completion as soon as it has received a liberal part of the promised $35,000 from the Conference,

Therefore, Be it resolved—

First: That every church in this Conference whose annual World Service Offerings exceed $300, and which is not now giving to some other designated project, direct a portion of its World Service Offering to University Church;

Second: That these personal designations be secured at once and that the money be paid in at the earliest possible date.

Our resources:

Money in Savings Bank	$33,796.90
Money in checking account	1,772.79
Bills receivable	1,800.00
Lots purchased for new building	19,000.00
Business lot (estimated value)	16,000.00
World Service grant ($35,000 less amount paid in)
Unpaid on subscriptions	66,195.00

Most of the members of your committee were present at the opening night of the new building program. It was a signal night. President von KleinSmid presided; all the district superintendents were present; Bishop Burns made a great address to an audience which filled the dining room and galleries. No one could question from the enthusiasm of that night that in a very few years this church will be offering a great ministry to the students of our University.

THE WESLEY FOUNDATION

The Wesley Foundation in our Conference has been established at the University of California at Los Angeles, the Los Angeles Junior College, the University of Arizona at Tucson, and the Fresno Teachers College.

The report of the Wesley Foundation at the University of California at Los Angeles and the Los Angeles Junior College should recognize two aspects:

First, it is a new venture at a new campus. Two years ago the work was started at the old campus on Vermont Avenue in connection with the Rosewood Church. Last year the work was carried on in a preliminary way under the direction of Dr. E. W. Blakeman, the Director of the Wesley Foundation at Berkeley.

Second, it is a part of the University Religious Conference, a new venture in religious organization and administration among students at a tax supported university. The University Religious Conference is a corporation under the laws of California. It is the co-ordinating agency for the Jews, Catholics and Protestants in an effort to unify the religious work among the students on the campuses at Westwood and at Vermont Avenue. The Executive Secretary of the University Religious Conference is Mr. Thos. Evans who gives to this venture the wisdom acquired through years of experience in this type of work. The Wesley Foundation shares the privileges, responsibilities and financial obligations of the University Religious Conference. The administrators and faculties of the University of California at Los Angeles and the Los Angeles Junior College co-operate with the University Religious Conference in every possible way. It is as though they said, "We will give you institutions representing many millions of dollars. We will equip them and operate them. We ask the University Religious Conference to supply the religious atmosphere and training which will permit our students to develop true religious habits, attitudes and sound character." In answer to this proposition the Wesley Foundation, co-operating with other religious groups in the University Religious Conference, is beginning a long term program. It will require time to perfect an organization, provide adequate equipment, and enlist efficient leadership.

The specific task of the Wesley Foundation is to meet the religious needs of 900 Methodist students, 700 at the University of California at Los Angeles, and 200 at the Los Angeles Junior College. Gradually organization, equipment, personnel and funds are being provided. Plans are in the making to relate the activities of the Methodist students to the work of the several churches represented. A definite campus program is planned in connection with the Westwood Community Methodist Church.

Of the 6,000 students at the University of California at Los Angeles, 4800 indicated a preference for some church. Jews, Catholics, and Protestants together are working out a common ground upon which to maintain an investigative and appreciative attitude in the study of religion. We are seeking an intellectual appreciation and scientific investigation of religion. We are trying to integrate religion with scientific truth and democratic social ideals. In an academic atmosphere we seek to guide the students in using religion to harmonize social ideals and personal culture without the loss of spiritual vision and values.

In the University of Tucson the Wesley Foundation work has been under the direction of Edwin V. Stricker. In an enrollment of 2,000 there is a Methodist constituency of 350. Up to the present time our church at Tucson has been two miles removed from the University. We now have a building well equipped for student work adjacent to the campus.

The Wesley Foundation interests at the Fresno Teachers College have been in charge of J. E. Vandagriff. Under his leadership a program of comity among the Congregationalists, Episcopalians and Methodists has been projected.

As the Wesley Foundation movement develops throughout the area it is expected that work will be undertaken at all of the tax supported educational institutions within the bounds of our Conference. This will require spiritual and educational statesmanship of a high order. It will also require an endowment sufficient to guarantee adequate support to leaders and a program on a par with that provided by the state.

The Wesley Foundation proposes to face squarely the question of religious education at state universities and colleges. The efficiency of the state educational program from the standpoint of its high grade of instruction in the various educational discipline cannot be questioned. A very large number of students in the state schools come from homes directly connected with the church. A recent survey shows that 85% of the students have a definite relationship or interest in the church. Seventy-five per cent of the teachers are members of some church. The gathering of such a large proportion of students and teachers definitely related to the church on one campus makes a strategic opportunity for religious culture.

The objectives of the Wesley Foundation movement are: first, to make available to students the means to a complete education at our state educational institutions; second, to relate personal and social attitudes to spiritual values; third, to encourage trained religious leadership; fourth, to interpret religion in terms of modern thought; fifth, to foster a vital Christian experience; sixth, to co-operate the campus activities of the Methodist students with the young people's activities of the local churches as represented in the Church School and Epworth League.

The activities of the Wesley Foundation center in personal counseling, classes in the study of the several phases of religion, Bible classes, discussion groups, and a social schedule on a different plane from the generally accepted practices of the campus.

Money is related to every enterprise of our Conference. This is realized more keenly in new work. There are three sources from which we secure funds for the Wesley Foundation, Conference Benevolences, special contributions from churches, and personal gifts. During the Conference year the Wesley Foundation at the University of California at Los Angeles has received the sum of $5,000, $2,400 from the Conference fund and $2,600 from church and individual gifts. This fund has been dispersed as follows: Salary $2500, expenses $350, our share of the University Religious Conference budget, $2150.

The Wesley Foundation at the University of Arizona has received the sum of $1,904, $600 from the Wesley Foundation Joint Committee, Chicago, $400 Mission money, and $94 in Conference Benevolences. This entire fund was applied on the salary of the Wesley Foundation Student Advisor.

We recommend the election of the following persons who, together with the Board of Managers shall constitute the Wesley Foundation Advisory Council at the University of California at Los Angeles: F. E. Edkhart, C. I. D. Moore, Ralph Lloyd, Harry McComb, Earl Miller, Harry F. Philp, F. A. Powell, E. W. Reynolds, George Warmer, John Oliver, and F. J. Woellner.

We recommend the election of the following persons as the Board of Managers of the Wesley Foundation at the University of Arizona at Tucson: The Superintendent of the Arizona District, the pastor of the First Church, Phoenix, Pastor at Tucson, C. C. Jenkins, Dr. J. F. Watkins, and H. F. Michael.

PACIFIC PALISADES ASSOCIATION

Owing to the fact that the last report of the Pacific Palisades Association was submitted to the Conference after the summer activities of 1929 and the further fact that we are meeting in June before the summer activities for 1930 have begun, the report of the Association for this Conference year must of necessity deal largely with construction and maintenance items and future plans and prospects.

Replacement is the word best describing the major operations on the Pacific Palisades grounds during the last nine months. Much obsolete equipment has been discarded and a better type of buildings and equipment is being installed. In the Assembly Grounds five new cottages have been erected. The interior of the Cafe has been finished and decorated and its seating capacity somewhat enlarged. Interiors have been redecorated and made both more attractive and more sanitary. The old tents and the furniture which went with them are gradually being replaced with an equipment which will minister more to the comfort of our guests. New classrooms and dormitories have also been provided in other of our centers.

The Beverly Boulevard entrance to the Assembly Grounds has been landscaped and an electric sign is being erected. Through the co-operation of the Automobile Club of Southern California, markers have been placed along the various drives to indicate location of the different grounds and accommodations.

To safeguard the danger from fire the undergrowth in the canyon has been removed, during the winter months, adding greatly to the safety not only of our own equipment but of the lives and property of those who come to us as guests.

Notwithstanding the fact that the winter months are the periods of light receipts, with heavy expenditure for maintenance and improvement, the finances of the Association have gradually improved. The deficit with which we always begin the summer season is being reduced this year by one-third.

The process of converting the 99-year leases into deeds has been making rapid progress throughout the year. At this time less than ten percent of the original leases remain outstanding. At the present rate, practically all these leases will be turned into deeds within a year, excepting only the few who really prefer the original form of tenure, and some which are involved in estates which cannot be closed.

Owing to the continued depression in real estate, slow progress is being made by our successor, the Pacific Land Corporation, Ltd., in the sale of the subdivided property. The opening of the summer has, however, brought some increased interest and a vigorous sales campaign is being continued in the endeavor to close out the unsold lots. Until this has been done and our reserved properties thereby completely freed from the Trust Indenture, any large expansion of our activities must of necessity wait.

Prospects for the summer are brighter than for many preceding years. On the last check of our registrations there was a twenty percent increase in the number of accommodations which had already been reserved for the season's activities as compared with reservations on the corresponding date for 1929. Interest in the Summer Schools and Assembly seems to be increasing and this season promises to be one of the best in our entire history.

Especially do we call the attention of the members of the Conference to the Summer School of Religion for Pastors and Staff workers planned for the three weeks lying between July 28th and August 15th. In view of the crucial missionary situation the courses this year center on the World Program of Christianity. Dr. Homer E. Wark for six years in the Boston School of Theology and author of the New Era in Missions is to be Dean of the School. He will have associated with him Dr. Kenneth Saunders of the Pacific School of Religion, who will offer a course on Current Thought Movements in the Religions of the East, and Professor Albion R. King of the University of Southern California, who will offer a course on Conflicts in Current Religious Thought. Subsidiary courses of great interest in connection with the Assembly program will also be offered during the term of the school and will be open to its registrants.

The Board of Trustees has under consideration a plan for free library service to all ministers and educators in the Southwest. This library service will be modeled after the General Theological Library of New England and will make available current literature in fields of Religion, Philosophy, and Social Sciences at the mere cost of postage. Questionnaires will be put in the hands of ministers shortly after adjournment of the Conference testing the interest and demand for such service. Final action of the Board will be conditioned largely upon the results of this preliminary investigation. The members of the Conference are asked to give immediate reply to the questions which will be submitted.

The year 1931 brings us to our Decennial Program. The Board of Trustees has already authorized plans which will make our tenth session a suitable commemoration of this anniversary. Already acceptances have been received from outstanding leaders in the religious and educational world who will make significant contributions to the program. The co-operation of the members of the Conference is solicited in giving wide publicity to this celebration.

In view of the fact that in the next two years the Pacific Palisades Association faces the renewal of a large part of its housing and equipment, our Board of Trustees feel that this is the time when the future relation of the Conference to Pacific Palisades should be carefully considered. If Pacific Palisades can become the permanent home of the Southern California Conference this fact should be taken into consideration in planning the new construction. With a view to making intelligent decision on this matter both in the interest of the Conference and of our organization the Board of Trustees of the Pacific Palisades Association request the appointment of a commission by this session of the Conference to confer with our Property Committee with a view to determining whether the Assembly Grounds can be adapted to meet the needs of the Conference and if so whether such an adaptation is desirable. This commission should report to the Conference session of 1931 at which session decisive action should be taken.

Our Board of Trustees is composed of five classes. One class retires each year. There will be not less than four new members to be elected before this Conference meets again. In accordance with the requirements of our Articles of Incorporation and By Laws we submit for the approval of this Conference the following list which we propose as eligibles to election to any vacancy which may occur during the official year of 1930 and 1931: Merle N. Smith, Clyde M. Crist, John Oliver, I. J. Reynolds, C. D. Lewis, A. V. Stoughton, C. F. Seitter, E. P. Clark, W. R. Morehouse, J. Lewis Gillies, L. M. Couch, R. C. Gillis, James B. Fox, F. G. H. Stevens, W. G. Cline, Oren B. Waite, A. Ray Moore, Ray S. Harker, Frank Taggart.

CONFERENCE BOARD OF HOME MISSIONS AND CHURCH EXTENSION

At the call of the Chairman and the Secretary three meetings were held during the year. A careful examination was made of all applications and the Disciplinary requirements were carefully observed. The records are carefully kept; the minutes being read and approved every meeting; the attendance of the Board, however, has not been as large as it should have been.

The officers are A. Ray Moore, Chairman; J. L. Gillies, Secretary; Charles E. Carver, Treasurer.

The Board of Home Missions and Church Extension has given us very prompt and cordial assistance in every way and there have been special visits by Drs. Kohlstedt, Richardson, Mueller, and the Western Representative, Dr. Torbet, all of whom have given valuable advice and assistance.

Again we call attention to the fact that churches which have received assistance in the hour of their need in past years and have grown strong and are able to do so now should return, if possible, to the Board the amounts of money which they received.

LOS ANGELES MISSIONARY AND CHURCH EXTENSION SOCIETY

The Los Angeles Missionary and Church Extension Society was incorporated 26 years ago. It had for its first founders: W. T. Somes, W. P. Ferguson, John L. Pitner, Geo. I. Cochran, A. W. Adkinson, K. W. King, F. A. Seymour, Robert McIntyre, W. M. Bowen, S. A. Thomson and F. M. Reiche. Of these original members, 4 are living: Geo. I. Cochran, W. M. Bowen, S. A. Thomson and F. M. Reiche. Geo. I. Cochran has been Treasurer through all these years.

At the time of the incorporation the Los Angeles District included practically the entire County of Los Angeles. In the first two years of its history almost the entire income of the Society was used in establishing the West Adams, Highland Park, and Huntington Park churches. All but 8 of the present churches in Los Angeles were either organized or assisted by the City Missionary Society, and 11 churches on the present Long Beach District were given substantial assistance in organization and building, and several in the Pasadena District.

During the 26 years of the organization about $550,000 have passed through the books. In these 26 years, 74 churches have been assisted, but 25 of these have been closed. In the past 10 years, 13 churches have been closed, and 5 new churches organized. Considerably more than half of the churches on the Los Angeles District at the present time are in territory which is deteriorating and classed in a survey as being below average or poorest territory in the city, and only 8 of the present churches of the city are located in what would be classified as best territory.

In addition to Methodism having to stand the brunt of the deterioration of territory, caused by the coming in of industry and business and foreign speaking people and the removal of homes, it has also had to stand the pull of the irregular Protestant churches, 90% of which, numbering 147, are located in this territory. Plainly the task before the City Missionary Society is to fortify strategic weak churches, and seek out new territory for new church organizations.

The outstanding work of this year has been the completion of the Westwood Church, which was dedicated December 22nd, 1929, and which has grown in its first six months to a membership close to 200, with a Sunday School that is averaging above the 150 mark. An additional building has been erected for Sunday School purposes. The total giving of the City Missionary Society to this project was about $84,000, this having been made possible by the magnificent subscription which came from First Church during the Loyalty Crusade.

The other outstanding project of the year was the organization of the South West Knoll Church. Church services and Sunday School began November first, with the organization of the church 2 months later. There is now a substantial membership, and a Sunday School averaging about 150. A very adequate piece of property has been purchased at 83rd Street and Gramercy Place, and there is much promise in the future for this newest organization.

Other fields are being surveyed, and it is hoped that every year in the future at least two new fields may be entered. This year there have been assisted, from the Extension funds, the following churches: Eagle Rock, $500; Gardena, $500; Melrose Park, $2,000; South West Knoll, $8,600; Sunnyside, $400; Westwood, $11,200; Woodcrest, $4,800; York Blvd., $1,500.

From the maintenance funds of the City Missionary Society and of the Board of Home Missions the following churches have been assisted: All Nations, Annandale, Belvedere, Calvary, Harbor City, Melrose Park, Saint Luke's, Saint Mark's, South West Knoll, Sunnyside, Union Avenue, Westwood and Woodcrest. In addition, the Executive Secretary has given considerable time to an extensive survey of the churches in general and of Methodism in particular in the city.

The Social Service program has been carried on by the Church of All Nations. During the year the following services have been rendered by the All Nations Foundation: Individuals reached—Clinic, 5,374; Nursery, 68; Children's Department (operated by the Woman's Home Missionary Society), 434; Community House, 125; Boys' Club, 717; making a total of 6,718 individuals served during the past year.

The income for the maintenance and expenditures of the All Nations Foundations, for the year from June 1st, 1929, to June 1st, 1930, is as follows: Institutional earnings, $16,965; Community Chest, $20,182; Woman's Home Missionary Society, $2,350; Board of Home Missions, $3,740; City Missionary Society, $6,100; Gifts, $3,196; Bills Payable, $2,462; making a total of $54,995.

PLAZA COMMUNITY CENTER

The Plaza Community Center, true to its name, is a central point at which two great national groups meet in friendly relation for clearer mutual understanding; and it is also a center from which radiate Christian goodwill and helpful ministry to the bodies, the minds and the souls of men. It is Methodism's expression of the Master's spirit of sympathy and loving helpfulness, which inspires confidence, mutual regard and true progress in brotherhood.

Because of financial stringency on every side, the past has been a difficult year. For the first time in years, we find ourselves facing a deficit for maintenance. A generous advance granted by the Community Chest had to be withdrawn; the receipts from the Board of Home Missions and Church Extension, likewise had to be reduced; this made a larger proportionate amount than ever to be raised from local individuals and organizations. Subscriptions made to the Building Fund, through the joint campaign, have slowed down perceptibly in their payment, making it impossible to pay off any appreciable amount on the principal, and continuing the payment of a heavy interest charge.

The work, both as regards volume and quality of service, has continued to advance. The clinic increase has necessitated securing a full-time assistant nurse. We were fortunate in securing Miss Jennie M. Gasser, one of our trained-nurse deaconesses to fill this important post. Moreover, Mrs. Martha Taylor Harrison, a social-service worker of long and wide experience has come to us as Social Service Director, assisting in the co-ordination of the efforts of our different departments, and linking us up in closer co-operation with outside agencies. Through our General Welfare Department, we have come into vital contact with a movement to improve housing conditions in general, and among our Mexican people in particular. Plans are being made through this constructive service to make possible not only the renting of proper homes at a moderate rental, but also the purchase of commodious and sanitary homes at prices and on terms such as our people can meet.

Our Christian Training School began the year with an enrollment of twenty-seven. Some of these came long distances to attend the classes, but were not able to continue throughout the year, on account of conflict with their daily work and home duties. It seems to us that in order to encourage those who would prepare themselves for larger Christian service, there should be made available some form of subsidy which would make for regular attendance and completion of the course.

The Children's Home continues filled to the limit of state permission, caring for eighteen orphan and half-orphan Mexican boys and girls. With the growth of the children, and the time coming for their leaving the home, the Children's Home Advisory Board is facing the serious problem of providing for the future welfare and usefulness of these young people. One great and crying need is the necessity for a permanent location. Larger and more commodious quarters must be found both for the sake of the children and those in charge of this important ministry.

The Plaza Community Center Club has functioned very effectively during the year, enlisting the sympathy and interest of an increasing number of Christian women, and securing considerable contributions for maintenance and extension of the work. We would mention their furnishing of the social room for the young people, and making a beginning of organization and recreational work among them. In the matter of publicity, the most effective means is to be given the opportunity of presenting our work before organized Sunday School classes, Epworth Leagues and church congregations, as well as interested service clubs. No specific appeal would be made for funds, but a simple statement of the work that is being accomplished, so that those who can and desire to help can do so. We welcome visitors, individually or in groups, to see what we are doing and where we are doing it.

The General Welfare department has been able to lighten the burden of mothers with fatherless children; has happily placed in American homes young girls with special problems or with an unfortunate past; has assumed supervision of the girl, in some cases, at the special request of the probation officer or another social agency; in a few cases has secured employment for men with families who were well nigh desperate because of long unemployment; and conferred with various government representatives and managers of employment offices regarding the unemployment situation. The Legal Advisory and Domestic Relations division has sought to reconcile estranged husbands and wives; has arranged for the care of the semi-orphan; prevented the foreclosure of contracts of various kinds; interceded for persons unjustly arrested (and others); co-operated with public defenders, probation officers, prosecutors, judges and lawyers; fought "shyster" lawyers, loan sharks and all others known to be exploiting the people; prayed with the sick and the afflicted; and pointed the erring ones to Christ.

We add some figures which will help to show the increasing volume of work being done.

The registrations in the General Welfare department were 5604, and in the Clinic 9625, making a grand total of 15,229. In the Clinic we received $2652 in admission fees and for medicines, but gave in free medicines and treatments, $1080. The total cost of our Clinic is about $6000 per year. Of the numbers treated, one-third are children; 1301 whooping-cough serum-treatments were administered; new patients numbered 1877. In the General Welfare, 571 visits were made in homes and hospitals; 109 families were given clothing; 130 families were given food; and employment was found for 334. Two workers have held 185 jail services; and Bibles, portions and tracts to the number of 771 were distributed.

During the year just past, a valuable property was transferred to us on the annuity basis, and we have received notice of two bequests by which our friends had remembered us. The death of both came rather unexpectedly, which emphasizes the importance of attending to these matters at the time that a person thinks of them, because we know not what a day may bring forth. We hope that many other friends of our work will remember us in making their wills, as also in the matter of giving cash or property on an annuity basis. We also ask for your interest and your prayers, that God may bless and use us, and that we may not fail Him and the Church.

LATIN-AMERICAN MISSION

This year we report 411 conversions which is but a part of the total number of decisions of the year. There have been 214 baptisms, 74 weddings and special meetings have been held in practically all of our charges. We now have 1616 full members, 610 preparatory members and members of all kinds, total 3100.

The Latin-American Mission accepts and pays its World Service quota in full. Its quota has been increased from about $1200 to $1740. Practically all of the charges also give their other benevolent allotments in full. The total annual giving in a decade has been increased from $3000 to $13,000. Total self-support from $1670 in a year to nearly $9,000 a year. Keen sacrifices are represented.

Pentecost every day is being carried out by 39 regular evangelistic workers and 35 regular educational workers, including the 16 at the Spanish-American Institute, 14 at the Frances DePauw Industrial School for Girls, of the Woman's Home Missionary Society and the 3 trained workers at the Plaza Center Children's Home. These 84 paid workers do not include 10 welfare workers, 25 local preachers, and 30 exhorters, 77 class leaders, and 130 regular volunteer Christian workers; a total in all of 346 consecrated personalities "using their powers in a friendly fashion."

The results of these labors on the 30 circuits, with 77 preaching places and ministering in 107 different centers during the year, dealing with 59,388 different persons, glow in the following statistics taken from their monthly reports: 11,484 services, 9,752 Gospel messages, with an attendance of 283,729 persons present. Our Mission personalities have traveled 234,069 miles, made 28,801 visits; written 10,512 letters; sold and given 748 Bibles and distributed 76,010 Christian books and tracts have been placed or sold.

The 42 Sunday Schools have a membership of 3,120 disciples. There are 342 members in the Ladies' Aid and Missionary Societies. The 26 "Offensive and defensive" Epworth Leagues—all active.

During last year, there were 417 public conversions, 214 baptisms, 74 weddings, 350 preparatory members received, 213 full members received. There are now 1,616 full members on the roll and 610 preparatory members, 874 non-resident members, making a total in all classes of 3,100, not counting 256 affiliated members and 4,056 adherents, a grand total of 7,412.

Work was secured for 706 needy persons, and help provided in the dark hours of 6,687 emergencies; medical attention given to 10,420; a total of 17,813 lives helped on the upward climb as they have been "helped to help themselves."

WORLD SERVICE AND SELF SUPPORT: During the year, the Mission gave to World Service and Other Benevolences, $3417. For self support, the giving was $3,553, and the total giving by the charges for all purposes during the year was $15,744.

We find ourselves lonely in the thought of the translation during the year of two noble friends, Dr. Frank P. Lawyer and Mr. Frank W. Wiessemann. Dr. Lawyer for years has been a sweet, popular and valuable worker, most of the time without compensation. He followed his dear helpmate last November but left his well-trained and noble spirited son, Dr. Paul Lawyer of the Plaza Community Center Clinic.

Mr. Wiessemann was for years the head of our local Spanish Board in Santa Ana. After months of suffering, he slipped away leaving behind his equally devoted wife and three children, Carl, Violet, and Helen.

To these and other dear friends, faithful unto death, such as the two recent donors to the Plaza through generous provisions in their wills, perchance the Comforter might say, "Well done" in the following lines:

"Some One"

"Here's to those dear some ones faithful and true,
Who never shirked when there was something to do,
Whose generous supply of love and cheer
Was given to all throughout the years.

"Whose gentle kindness and happy smile
Dispelled dull care for all the while,
So here's to some one faithful and true,
If you don't know it, that some one was you."

PACIFIC OLD PEOPLES' HOME

Through the last two years there has been increasing interest on the part of the United States, the State of California, and our larger cities, in Homes for the Aged; and recently a Department of Social Welfare of the State of California, including Homes, and care for the aged, has been organized. It has reported, that there are forty-two Old Folks Homes, exclusive of those caring only for the blind, deaf, or incurable, in the State of California. These have a total capacity of 3347, nearly all in private Old Folks Homes. Thousands of men and women, many of them eighty to ninety years old, are waiting for vacancies in these Homes. One of the greatest needs, and hardest to meet, is for more facilities to take care of the aged, who are chronically ill. In a conference, like the Southern California, every sunset finds some elderly man or woman, often a couple, suddenly deprived of their support, perhaps from some accident or because the last dollar of their savings is gone. It is extremely sad to see those, who have faced life together, forced to separate when they have nothing left but each other, experience showing that one or the other usually passes away after a few months of heartbreak.

Since the founding of the Pacific Old Peoples' Home, the family has steadily increased until every room was occupied and the present facilities, which provide accommodations for seventy people, have been entirely inadequate for years to meet the needs. More than seventy aged men and women have made application for membership during the past nine months, of whom, for lack of room, only four could be admitted.

The Board realizes that our Conference is very slow to see her opportunity to minister to the physical as well as to the intellectual and spiritual man, and yet the growing interest in the work of the Pacific Old Peoples' Home justifies the hope that the dream in the mind of the Board and the Superintendent will soon be realized in adequate buildings and equipment for the care of the needy aged of the churches of the Southern California Conference; and they would like to remind you again of the validity of the Home's appeal for funds, on the ground that it is one of the historic institutions of the Methodist Episcopal church in Southern California, and never before has made a public appeal. The support of our Home for the aged should be regarded as a privilege as well as a duty devolving upon the entire Conference. Many more living rooms, larger dining room and kitchen, an auditorium, larger infirmary or hospital, reception room, sun parlor, and better equipment, are a dire necessity.

The Superintendent's doings and wanderings during the last nine months: He prepared the new Manual, visited ten churches and gave nine addresses, attended thirty-seven Sunday school classes and several times taught the lesson, interviewed 103 prospective sojourners and seventy-four applicants for life membership of whom fifteen sojourners and four life members came to the Home. He conducted seven funerals, wrote 1100 letters with his own hand, distributed 1500 manuals, made loans, sold real estate, and exchanged bonds and stocks. As Treasurer he endeavored to keep the finances creditable to the Home, and assisted in creating a substantial reserve in the maintenance fund, as a perusal of the financial statement will verify. Being somewhat mechanical in mind and hand, he did most of the plumbing, gas, and electrical work, and in addition to all this, he made an educational cruise through the Near East and Continental Europe.

Our matron, Mrs Reecy Cattermole, and our head nurse, Miss Barbara Hessel, and all the helpers, have ministered to our family with thoughtful care and interest. To provide the necessities of life for the family, to keep the house clean and in order, to remain patient, to reprove firmly but kindly, is a large task.

There are thirty-seven life members and thirty-four sojourners in the Home family at this time. The average age of the life members is 77 1-6 years. On the average, five are in the infirmary under the nurse's care. The head nurse, who is a professional, is assisted by one or two practical nurses, as need requires. In all there are eleven employees in the Home. We are endeavoring to give every possible care to this family of seventy-one, of whom it may be said, that they live "in the Home by the side of the Road of Life." In the last nine months two life members have passed to their heavenly reward, and four new members have been received.

Each member of the Board of Directors has done his work diligently, sincerely, and gladly. The members of the Board have given their time without stint, and have shown a wholehearted interest in all deliberations concerning the management. Any worthy undertaking would prosper in such hands, and any great cause would be honored to have the backing of such a group of men.

METHODIST HOSPITAL OF SOUTHERN CALIFORNIA

The record for the past nine months at our Methodist Hospital is the most satisfactory that has been presented for years. While the financial problem has been very heavy, yet we can come to you today stating that the bond retirement, the gold note retirement, and all interest to July 1st has been fully paid. This means that beside the necessary interest, that $67,000 has been paid on reduction of debt itself since bond was written.

We acknowledge most gratefully the valuable assistance given by the Executive Committee. These gentlemen have from their wide experience of business, advised wisely and constantly.

Referring to Comptroller Gould and his system of tabulations and collections, you will be as satisfied as is the Hospital Board at the high commendation forwarded by Roger Babson of his system of operating statements. Possibly you are not aware that Roger Babson receives tabulations from 8,000 hospitals and similar institutions.

Miss Fannie Forth, acting Superintendent, with her efficient and tactful management has succeeded in maintaining a most harmonious atmosphere, which at times, is no small task. With only nine months to consider, we can report 4414 patients cared for, 915 babes raising musical notes, and the patient line has varied from 100 to 174 daily.

Our Training School is fully accredited. A choice group of young women are in the classes, and it will be of interest to you to know that recently when the Hollywood Hospital was obliged to discontinue its School of Nursing, at the request of the Superintendent and the class itself, twenty young women were transferred to our School of Nursing. So much for our reputation as a Training department.

Some replacements and repairs have been undertaken, and through the kindness of gentlemen of the Executive Board two wards have been completely renovated with paint, enamel and linoleum, at an expenditure of $706. Many of the rooms need new furnishings, and it is hoped that ten rooms may be made more attractive in the ensuing year.

The Hospital Guild with Mrs. James Donovan, Chairman, ably assisted by Mesdames Williams, Chapman and others, has done a marvelous amount of work. The women of various auxiliaries (averaging 14 in attendance weekly) have made garments (baby gowns, surgical gowns, masks, etc.) to a voucher valuation of $1807. 112 bolts of material have been used, and Mrs. Elder of Vernon Ave. made 111 surgeons' gowns. Do you grasp the economical feature for the institution, as well as the interest and devotion of our loyal women?

As far as we know, the ministers and their families have been quite satisfied with the 50% rate given, thus enabling more to receive care than would be possible otherwise with income on the present endowment. You, as well as we, should appreciate the thought of those who have given funds for endowment, for through these gifts the Hospital has been able to render exceedingly needful service to many. We trust that every minister is loyally supporting this Methodist institution that is struggling so valiantly to overcome this handicap of indebtedness, and step by step advancing to a safe position.

The progress made is attributed to united effort, loyal Board members, faithful and competent employees, skilled physicians, and hosts of loyal friends. Unitedly we propose to "carry on" that suffering ones may receive the care and attention needed in an increasing ratio, for the sake of Him whom we serve.

MRS. SILAS SPROWLS.
Secretary of Executive Committee.

CONFERENCE BOARD OF TRUSTEES

With the unceasing labors of your Board of Trustees, the splendid help of your advisory committee of laymen, the loyal co-operation of the pastors and the interest and sacrifice of the laymen in the churches, your treasurer is privileged to report that in four years your corporation assets have increased from $522,831 to $1,213,020 or an increase of 2 1-3 times in four years. This report is for nine months and the assets would be considerably higher if three additional months were included.

This has been a year of real encouragement. At the last session of the Conference you passed a resolution authorizing a campaign to raise an additional $600,000 for the endowment funds. In that resolution you set aside the first year as a time to advertise, to cultivate the field and to write annuities and wills. This we have tried to do. I do not know how much has been written into wills, but a good many thousand dollars have been reported to our office. For annuities we set ourselves a goal of $3,000 per week that we would try to write, but we are happy to report that it amounts to $8,600 for each week of this Conference year, or a total of $335,000 to date. The possibilities of annuities are unlimited. They do not immediately increase the income, but in the years to come they will greatly help in the solving of our problem. Utmost care is being used to guard against these prospects of the future diminishing the income of the present. The income of the present year will not show as large a relative gain as do the assets, but to offset any loss that might arise a fund has been set aside to care for all such contingencies.

The prospects for the future are bright. If we can raise, this year, $300,000 in cash subscriptions, the future of our Conference Claimants is absolutely assured. The question is frequently asked if it would not be possible to care for the entire needs by the writing of annuities and not have to put on a campaign for cash subscriptions. I wish we could say yes to that question, but it cannot be done. Annuities are not productive until after the death of the annuitant and it would be unfair for the retired preacher of the present to have to suffer for the sake of the men who will later come onto the fund. We must have $300,000 in subscriptions to tide over until there is a return coming from the annuities now being written.

Just a word as to the subscriptions in the campaign of 1924. 96.7% of the entire amount subscribed has been paid and instead of sending out further notices asking for payments on these pledges we will try to merge the remainder into the new campaign.

I have been asked to give some report of the affairs of your Conference office. The first duty of your treasurer is to keep the million dollars working so the largest return may come and still have safety for the funds. This is no little task in this day of hectic financial manipulations. We have endeavored always to stay on the safe side. Much larger returns might be obtained if we speculated, but these are trust funds and no stocks of any kind are ever purchased by your Board. Some have been given to us, but we never buy them. Speculative bargaining has no place in our office and never will. We now have a considerable amount of property that has been given to us, either on the annuity basis or otherwise, and great care has to be exercised to make it bring a good return. Thus far the returns have been pleasing to us.

The assets of the Hough Endowment Fund will show a decrease this year over last and a word of explanation should be given. No money has been lost but some of the income that would add to the cash cannot be counted until the end of the year and does not show in the nine months period. One interesting transaction in the Hough Fund should be recorded in this report. Among the parcels of land given by Rev.

and Mrs. A. M. Hough thirty years ago was a lot on First Street, Los Angeles, between Broadway and Hill Streets. Some years later your Board of Trustees erected a three-story building on this lot and leased it to a printing firm. Later this firm failed and for a number of years it has been leased to the City of Los Angeles for the offices of the Police Department. This lease will soon expire and early in this year we began to try to sell it, but could not find a buyer. We have now negotiated a 99-year lease and a limit height building is to be erected thereon as a part of the big building that is to be built at First and Broadway. The property came to us at a valuation of $15,000 and we will receive a 6% net income on a $50,000 valuation for the next 52 years, and 6% on a $100,000 valuation for the balance of the 99 years and it will still be the property of the Conference.

The office has another function about which the public knows very little but I have been asked to say a word regarding it. Sickness and death have entered many of the homes of our retired brethren and your office has been able to render much assistance to them. How glad we are that there is a fund from which help can come. Permit me to bring three cases with no names mentioned. One of our retired brethren dropped dead this year and, as in such cases, the police took charge of the body and for three days, awaiting the coroner's investigation, the family could not see him. Any money that he had must remain on his person until after the inquest. How fine it is that your representative could go to his widow and put into her hands a check sufficient to bury her loved one without further worry or anxiety. Or another widow who was about to lose her property and we were able to take it off her hands, greatly to her relief and without loss to her or ourselves. Or a retired preacher who had to have medical care and had no funds with which to obtain it. Our funds will not reach very far in such times, but it was a privilege to obtain those funds from some generous hearted friends and make that care possible. These are but a few of the many cases that pass through our office, but your hearts would be made glad if you knew all that your money is doing to relieve and make happy these deserving ones.

The office is also the custodian of all the benevolent funds of the Conference. Surveys are made, apportionments calculated and sent to the churches and upon receipt of the money, distributed to the various causes without delay. We have received gifts and written annuities for other boards of our church although they are not represented in our official task. Our office stands ready to write annuities or to take gifts for any board in the church and we are glad to do it. We want to make the office a place of service.

In closing this report will you allow me this personal word? It was with a good deal of hesitation that I accepted this office four years ago fearing the financial demands might keep me from doing the work my heart urges upon me, namely, preaching the gospel with an evangelistic message in it. How happy I am to report that with the fine courtesy of the men of this Conference I have been privileged to do as much of this work as ever before. Week after week I have preached in your churches and with but few exceptions have given an invitation and the response has been most gratifying. I do not believe the statement that our churches and our preachers are losing their zeal for spiritual things. One of the troubles is that we have loaded on to our preachers so many other things that they do not have much time left for evangelistic work. I believe the desire is greater today than for many years. Personally I have had to decline many invitations this year and practically all of them have had an urge for a spiritual message with an appeal.

Maybe this is not the message that should be put into a financial report, but I have a conviction that it is a most vital part of it. A spiritually minded church is interested in a financial program for the kingdom. With great thanksgiving to God for His blessings and with renewed courage by the co-operation and help of both preachers and laymen, I desire to press on to the completion of the task that has been set before us.

A. RAY MOORE.

SURVEY OF GERMAN CHURCH PROPERTY

On behalf of the committee on survey of the property of the First German Church at Los Angeles, which was raised last Conference and is designated as "The German Church Business Block" in our Minutes, we wish herewith to report the progress made.

There were two meetings held. A. Ray Moore was elected Chairman and R. Zurbuchen, Secretary. After due consideration of the general situation it was decided, as the first step, to engage the services of a reliable appraiser. L. M. Pratt of Pasadena was engaged and he made a thorough study of the whole situation covering the value of the property and the economic soundness of a project to erect upon said property a combination office building and multiple-story garage building. This able and exhaustive report containing fifteen typewritten pages is now in the hands of the committee and is being studied by its members. At this time we have no definite proposal to offer other than to ask the Conference to continue the Committee and to enlarge it to include the following: Bishop Charles Wesley Burns, the District Superintendent of the Los Angeles District, the Pastor of the First German Church of Los Angeles together with the Board of Trustees of said Church: P. Ruenitz, F. M. Reiche, Wm. Knickrehm, H. G. Steinman, Conrad Follendore—the Board of Trustees of the Southern California Annual Conference—F. D. Mather, E. W. Pasko, E. J. Inwood, A. Ray Moore, S. S. Sampson, Ray C. Harker, F. G. H. Stevens and two laymen at large, Frank S. Wallace and Charles F. Reiche.

These seventeen are to constitute a joint committee to consider this appraiser's report and all other matters concerning the best conservation of said property for the mutual benefit of the local church and of the Conference interests.

We further recommend that said committee be given power to act should occasion arise.

R. ZURBUCHEN.

WORLD SERVICE

Believing that no greater challenge has ever presented itself to the Methodist Episcopal Church than the World Service challenge, and further believing that the World Service giving is the true index of the soul of the church,

We therefore commend to both pastors and laymen careful and prayerful study of the challenge.

We make the following recommendations:

First. Objective. Whereas, the Methodist Episcopal Church has set an annual goal of $10,000,000 for World Service giving.

Therefore, be it resolved, that we of the Southern California Conference now in session, do heartily approve this goal, and do herewith pledge ourselves to unite our every effort with that of the whole church for the obtaining of this objective.

Second. Designated Gifts. Whereas, there has been and continues to be, much confusion both among the ministers and laymen regarding designated gifts,

Therefore, be it resolved that the District Superintendents be requested to call attention to the ruling of the last General Conference,—Discipline paragraph 455, section 6, in the First Quarterly Conference thus holding the church steady to this ruling.

And, Whereas, we believe that there is intrinsic value in certain designated gifts, especially under the parish plan, nevertheless, we are fully aware of the grave danger to the established work of the church involved in the multiplicity of projects for designation.

Therefore, we would discourage the various appeals that are coming to the pastors requesting designation for World Service credit, and we further recommend that only such projects approved by the respective Boards involved be encouraged among us.

We recommend that the Boards of Benevolence send to each pastor of the Southern California Conference a list of their approved projects within the bounds of the Conference and that where special projects relate particularly to a district, the pastors of the said district shall be notified by the Boards of the approval which has been granted for World Service credit for funds contributed to these projects.

Third. Education. And, Whereas, we believe that the heart of the Methodist Episcopal Church stands behind a World Service program,

And, Whereas, there is a lack of proper information regarding the World Service program of the church among the laity,

Therefore we recommend: (a) That a World Service Council shall be organized in each charge,

(b) That the pastors divide their membership into units and as far as practical the pastor shall present the World Service program of the church to these units, using the helps provided by the World Service Commission.

(c) We also recommend that where the church uses a calendar, at least one World Service item be inserted each week.

(d) We further recommend the use of the World Service Weekly Bulletin Service.

(e) We further recommend that the pastors use every means possible of bringing the World Service program to the full membership of the church. We would request the pastors to send in writing to the chairman of the Annual Conference of the World Service Commission, such methods used that have been effectual, and such incidents that would be of value in stirring the heart of the church.

(f) We further commend the use of plans outlined in the booklet published by the World Service office entitled, "What Shall We Do For World Service In My Church?"

Fourth. Fall of 1930. That World Service shall be given regular and proportional attention in each charge each month and that the months of September and October at the outset of the more active period of the year, be made an occasion for an increase in the number of contributors and a widespread understanding of the meaning of World Service.

SAMUEL HUGHES.

STATE OF THE CHURCH

The solution of all our personal, social and ecclesiastical problems lies in the spiritual realm. A deepened devotion to Christ inevitably results in an increased loyalty to the Christian Church. We rejoice in the impetus which has come to the church as a result of the recent emphasis on the personal experiences of Pentecost. We wish to call attention to the danger of losing the power of Pentecost now that the Nineteen Hundredth anniversary has past. We, therefore, recommend a continued emphasis of the power of the Holy Spirit in every phase of life.

The advance in the field of scientific social surveys is one of the most hopeful signs of the day. The studies of the Institute of Social and Religious Research under the leadership of Professor H. Paul Douglass, which have been the first to appear with special reference to Protestantism, reveal some appalling conditions. Many churches have inadequate and dilapidated religious educational buildings in communities with large numbers of children and young people, while some, in districts where there are few children and young people, have larger plants than they can use. We, therefore, recommend that the district location committees really function and that a scientific survey be made before any church is started or relocated. We also recommend that we assert to our people the principle "according to need" in the matter of church buildings and seek to create a consciousness of sin when we build larger plants than can be completely used.

The glory of Methodism has been that it has always been willing to co-operate and work with all Christians in building the Kingdom of God. The greatest enthusiasm in the last General Conference was shown during the discussion of Christian unity. A commission, upon which our body has the honor of being represented by two members, was raised to take the initiative in this urgent matter.

We, therefore, recommend that the administrative policy of our Conference be that of co-operation with other denominational groups; that Christian co-operation and unification be openly advocated; that the placing of new churches and the readjustment of old fields be directed by this principle: That local communities plan for and put into practice programs looking toward closer fellowship, understanding and co-operation between all agencies that have as their purpose, the building of the Kingdom.

The words of the Master: "He that saveth his life shall lose it; he that loseth his life for my sake shall find it" applies to institutions as well as individuals. Nothing can stop the advance of His Kingdom if we have the courage to practice as well as assert His teachings.

WORSHIP AND MUSIC

Worship is the heart of religion. Protestant religion has been losing its heart. It cannot hold its own, nor take proper forward movements if it consists only of an intellect and a mechanism. Preaching has been the central point in Protestant services and we would not have worship supersede it. We would have worship and preaching rank side by side in importance. Too many of our people imagine they have worshipped if they have been among those present at a service wherein they sat passive and listened to others who sang or prayed or preached.

Worship, the lifting of the heart to God, the contemplation of God with the feelings, may be formal or informal. Forms are to be regarded as aids to worship—not as clamps for its permanent imprisonment. We should be free to sweep forms aside whenever the free Spirit transcends.

Whenever we worship, formally or informally, the mind follows certain processes. We who direct worship should know these processes and be able to direct the minds of our people along the lines, not merely of least resistance, but of the greatest assistance. Several recent writers on Worship have taken the vision of Isaiah 6 as a pattern for the process of the worship experience. It embodies the successive steps of the presentation of God to the mind of the worshipper, his humiliation before God, purification, the perceiving of a task from God, and consecration to that task.

We should examine carefully our orders of service, which too frequently are but disorders, to ascertain whether they meet the needs of the soul and lead to the fulfillment of worship which is consecration to the service that God ordains, remembering that it is hopeless for one to seek to direct the worship of others unless he himself also worships with them.

Our commission does not presume to instruct our brethren, but proposes that we give earnest attention to this matter together. We will have a bibliography on Worship ready by September 1, which we will be pleased to send to any of the brethren who may desire. The books recommended will doubtless be procured for you by your local library if you do not care to purchase them.

We also invite you to send to us such orders of service as you may have found helpful in your own church or in some other church. The best of these will be formed into an exhibit for the next session of the Conference, with designations of those which seem to us most meritorious. The members of our commission who will have charge of the worship session of our work will be Merle N. Smith, L. A. Ferris, and Willsie Martin.

Since music is so important a means of religious expression as it is, it behooves every minister to study the power and results of music in its relation to the needs and the hearts of our people. Let no man say, because he has no musical talent, "It is not in my line," and think he can ignore this important channel of religious feeling. It is in the line of us all, and he who knows least about it has the greatest need to give it his attention. It is not necessary to have technical knowledge of music, but only heart-knowledge of its powers and limitations.

In every field of religious music, whether in the standard hymns, the so-called Gospel hymns, anthems, solos, organ music, there are the compositions of power to impress and help, and a flood of music without power.

It would be profitable for any minister to go through the Hymnal, (if necessary, with the help of his organist), and list the hymns which his congregation should know for their souls' health. He will be surprised at the wealth he will discover. It will also be helpful for him to date in his own hymnal each hymn he uses, so as to avoid too frequent repetition. It has been ascertained that the average congregation uses only twenty-five hymns. Gradually the minister can introduce those other hundreds of hymns his people should know. He should not let the choir choose the hymns, but should give them the numbers to rehearse. This cannot be done too rapidly, for there is as great a prejudice against learning a new hymn as against receiving a new idea. Multitudes of Methodists will expend against learning a new hymn ten times the energy it would take to learn it: yet in John's vision of the Heavenly City, we read not only of the singing of the songs of Moses and the Lamb, evidently familiar, but also, "They sang as it were a new song. And no man could learn that song but they which were redeemed."

Some of the newer hymnals are perfect marvels of beautiful religious expression in music, comprising all the hymns of the Christian centuries together with those of living writers. The books are rich in hymns of brotherhood, God in nature, world peace, fellowship, and the like, such as we so often desire. If our commission can counsel you as to the purchase of new song books, or other musical matters, we will be happy to do so. The members of the commission who will have charge of its musical activities are Brothers Blume, Coyne, Jennings, and Bayard.

If you adopt this report, we shall forward to the hymnal commission certain recommendations as to the new Methodist Hymnal. We will recommend that the index be placed either at the very beginning or the very end of the book; that the words of the stanzas be printed within the staves of the music; that only singable tunes be used, no matter whether the name of the composer be famous or not; that words and hymns which have long been associated shall not be separated without important reason; that the section of readings be compiled as for a Christian, and not a Jewish congregation; and that the hymnal contain a goodly number of the newer hymns on social service, world peace, God in nature, and similar subjects important to modern life; also that New Testament selections be included in the section of readings, and possibly even extra-Biblical material.

In the meantime, let us order our worship and our music so that whatever resources and forms we now have shall be used in the spirit and power of worship, so that God may be glorified through them.

L. R. BAYARD.

INTERNATIONALISM, DISARMAMENT AND PEACE

Christianity is not national but universal in its outlook. If Christianity means anything it means world brotherhood. Therefore, we stand for a Christian internationalism in which humanity is recognized as one great family, all men brothers, all nations neighbors, all races kindred. There is need for the Christianization of patriotism. A "100% Americanism" which sees no worth beyond our frontiers, which is military-minded, nationally intolerant, racially "superior" and commercially selfish, is un-American and un-Christian.

We rejoice in the results of the London Conference and in the statesmanship of Herbert Hoover and Ramsay MacDonald which initiated it. We confess our keen disappointment that the results achieved were not commensurate with the opportunity offered, and, in particular, that our delegates did not insist that the negotiations should proceed, as was originally planned, upon the basis of the Kellog-Briand pact outlawing war. We stand firmly for the prompt ratification of the London treaty by the Senate of the United States. In the language of Prime Minister MacDonald "We are willing to take the risks of war, we should be willing to take the risks of peace."

War is not inevitable. Barbarism can be mastered by Brotherhood. But will it? Are we to enter a new era of world improvement, or witness the sunset of civilization? It is not a question of abstract or theoretical pacifism. It is the war system that is the issue. The war system and the Prince of Peace do not belong in the same world and civilization can not contain both. The time has come to rid the world of the war system forever. The church of Jesus Christ, transcending races and nations, must furnish the mighty dynamic. As Christians we must earn the right in peace-time to oppose war in war-time. Let the church lead now in a warfare against war that shall challenge the imagination and the conscience of mankind. The church should declare that it will not, as a church, sanction war. The church cannot, without sin, engage in any activity alien to the spirit of Christ. We do not seek to bind any man's conscience but we urge upon our ministers prayerful consideration as to whether or not they shall participate as ministers of the Prince of Peace in war.

We register our conviction that the United States should have place in the World Court and in a League of Nations in some appropriate form. We condemn military training in schools and colleges, and all glorification of war. We protest against the identification of patriotism with militarism. We believe that the cost of war should be shared by every group and every individual, high and low, rich and poor. Conscription of life must be matched by conscription of labor and wealth. We urge that international trade relations be regulated and adjusted with peace in mind. We will co-operate in a campaign of education for peace, systematic and intensive, of the youth of the nation. Let us see to it that Methodism stands with unstained hands, if war is ever suffered to reappear.

MERLE N. SMITH.

SOCIAL SERVICE AND PUBLIC MORALS

"The aim of Christianity in personal living and in social relationships is that men may have life and have it more abundantly, giving to men, women and children a chance to unfold their own best powers as they see the greatest common good."

The gospel of Jesus Christ must be applied to all vital human relationships. No longer is it possible to narrow down Christian duty to the area of a cramped circle of life. Each year sees more and more of our acts brought under the sway of the spirit of Christ.

The Methodist Episcopal Church has no place for whisperings on the great moral and social issues of the day. Therefore CIGARETTE MENACE. We want to register our protest against the cigarette menace in our country. "Not since the days when public opinion arose in its might and smote the dangerous drug traffic, not since the days when the vender of harmful nostrums was swept from our streets, has this country witnessed an orgie of buncombe, quackery, downright falsehood and fraud as now marks the current campaign promoted by certain cigarette manufacturers to create a vast woman and child market for the use of their product, their chief objective being to put a cigarette in the mouth of every woman and youth in the United States".

We denounce the insidious cigarette campaigns now being carried on by the use of the radio, bill boards and public press. We protest against the heartless and destructive attempts to exploit the women and youth of our country in the interest of the few tobacco concerns whose god is their greed and whose product is the greatest menace to American youth today.

COMMERCIALIZED AMUSEMENTS. We further raise our protest against the ever-increasing menace of certain types of commercialized amusements such as the Marathon dance that are anti-Christian in that they tend to break down rather than build character.

MOONEY-BILLINGS CASE. An acknowledgement is hereby made of the reply of Gov. C. C. Young to the resolution adopted by the Southern California Annual Conference last year dealing with the Mooney and Billings case. We again emphatically register our plea for immediate justice in this case.

MARRIAGE AND THE HOME. The Methodist Episcopal Church has always stood for the sanctity of the home. She has always condemned the evils of adultery and broken homes. We rejoice, however, that the day has arrived when the Church is no longer content merely to raise the voice of condemnation. At last she is awake to the task of carefully preparing her young people for the duties and the responsibilities of married life.

We desire to commend the University of Southern California for including in its curriculum studies in family life and welfare, and the Institute of Family Relations, recently organized, to aid the pastors and people of this Conference in solving problems of domestic life. We especially desire to commend the careful and scientific study of Marriage and the Home now being made by the Federal Council of the Church of Christ in America, and we assure it of our interest and support in making available to our people the best experience of the race in matters of domestic ideals and conduct.

In the interest of a higher domestic morality we urge that state and national laws be so amended that regularly licensed physicians may not be hindered from imparting to married couples the most scientific and practical methods of birth control and family limitation.

We rejoice in the success of the three-day notice of intention to marry law in California and pledge our support against all movements looking toward its repeal or nullification.

We urge every pastor to make all possible effort to qualify himself as an intelligent counselor of his young people who come seeking competent guidance in the art of successful marriage and parenthood.

THE LIQUOR TRAFFIC MUST END. War has been declared in the United States. The organized liquor traffic has issued an ultimatum of defiance to organized society and established government. The enemy has unlimited strength and resources. It has no regard for decency and human ranks. And yet we accept the challenge and defy it to do its worst.

This war will not be confined to a struggle with the bootlegger alone. We must go into the home, the school and the church by way of education. Our children must know of the evils of liquor and the saloon. We must teach them what liquor will do to the individual and to society.

The church must help. Every Methodist preacher must enlist. We must expose the most vicious element in this entire problem—the respectable buyer of bootleg liquor.

Will Rogers, speaking over the radio from Chicago, June 22nd, 1930, said to his large audience: "The one simple way to put an end to this bootlegger business is to stop the respectable people from buying the stuff."

When the industrial and social leaders ignore and defy the laws of the land; when government, state and city officials forget their oath of office; and when even certain church leaders debauch their high calling in the interest of liquor; when these leaders sneeringly laugh at our laws and trample on the constitution of the land; it is high time for all good citizens within and without the church, to become militant and wide awake to this peril.

No man in the United States can possibly be a good citizen and buy bootleg liquor. No man can possibly make an acceptable officer anywhere in our land, if he buys or uses liquor in any form. In the war between the forces of good and evil it is high time that good people took a stand and said to the wets, "You 'shall not pass' into any official position, from president down to school trustee."

Prohibition is not the issue. That is settled forever. In spite of the Literary Digest, the wet press, the organizations against prohibition and law, we must keep before the American people the one major issue in this conflict—Liquor or law—anarchy or order—patriots or enemies.

We must expose the subtle lies and motives in this enemy propaganda coming from the wet press, the movies, the selfish and misguided; that the entire people may have a clear and proven course of education relative to the marvelous success of enforcement during the ten years past. We must also, as a church, do everything possible to inspire assurance that the next ten years will make greater progress. To this end we pledge every man and woman in Methodism. We shall continue to back our noble president one hundred per cent. We shall let him know that the Methodist Church is solidly behind him in his efforts to save the country from the lawless.

We rejoice in the transfer of the enforcement branch from the Treasury to the Justice Department. We have confidence in Attorney General Mitchell. We are delighted with the friendly act of the Canadian Government in refusing clearance to Canadian liquor designed for illegal entry into the United States. We continue our cooperation with the Anti-Saloon League and pledge our support to this mighty arm of the church.

THOMAS GRICE.

INDUSTRIAL RELATIONS

"The noblest study of mankind is man".

The program of civilization must be measured in terms of the enrichment and sacredness of personality. No economic system is sound that does not measure up to this ideal. The problems of labor and capital can only be solved by the application of the Golden Rule.

We plead for more democracy in industry where the working men will have a larger control over the conditions under which he works.

We look with deep concern on the problem of unemployment in this country.

While we own 60% of the world's gold—while the standard of living has been raised, and while there has been a wider distribution of the products of industry among the working classes, yet we have 3,700,000 unemployed. Something is wrong with an industrial system that permits this.

We look with favor upon some of the remedies proposed.

First—Some form of state insurance which will protect the worker during enforced periods of idleness.

Second—Elimination of the present method in vogue among some of our larger corporations where twice as many men are registered than are actually employed, and an insistence that each State shall take care of its own unemployed, thus stopping the migration of labor into sections where they are not needed. A program of decasualization must be instituted.

Third—That employers of labor so organize their business that, as far as possible, they may guarantee steady employment to their employees. It is encouraging to note that this movement has been started by several large industrial units, such as Proctor and Gamble, soap makers. Less than 10% added to the net earnings of our separate business would make adequate provision.

Fourth—The adjustment of industry so that the dead line shall not be reached at the age of 45, as in the case at present.

With the development of modern science and sanitation we have made possible a phenomenal lengthening of the average span of human life, at the same time we have shortened the working period. The law of simple justice demands that a solution be found.

The Christian Church recognizes the solidarity of the human family. The world is fast becoming a neighborhood. The doctrine of brotherhood must be applied to all races. What is wrong in America cannot be right in China. The sacrifice of human life for the amassing of huge fortunes is wrong anywhere in God's world.

We are living in days of business consolidations, wealth is becoming centralized in the hands of a few, putting into their hands tremendous power. On the other hand labor is strongly organized, and the one stands against the other. How can they be brought together so that they will both minister to the common good? Only when they are foundational in a Christian ethic, and charged with a spiritual dynamic.

THOS. L. BURDEN.

REPORT OF EDGAR J. EVANS, CONFERENCE EVANGELIST

For more than ten years it has been my privilege to serve you as Conference Evangelist. During those years I have taken as many meetings as it has been possible for me to take. My usual policy has been to begin Sunday night, run for two weeks and close Sunday morning. There have been times when I have worked three or four months without rest.

Many of you brethren have warned me that I could not keep up that pace. Last season I came to the same conclusion. As a result, during the past Conference year, I held but five meetings: Baldwin Park, Vincent, Garden Grove, La Harbra and Coalinga. The last meeting was a union effort with four churches uniting in the campaign. In each place we had a gracious blessing. The offering during the year amounted to $1138.

But the period from my usual busy schedule has not been spent in rest alone. It has been a time of active work along other lines. It has also been a time of study and of spiritual feasting. It has been a time of prayer and a seeking for guidance.

That there is a need for a real revival in the church today we are all agreed. As to the lines along which the Great Awakening will come we are not so much in agreement. We range from those who would turn back the wheels of time and use methods of yesterday in their conservatism, to those who have no concern in anything but dollars and numbers in their liberalism.

What a challenge for prayer the situation presents. As a church we need to wait upon God for guidance. For one I do not feel that He is leading us to turn backward and to resort to older methods. The Old Time religion is all right if it is old enough. Too many people who emphasize the need of the Old Time religion think merely of the theology, viewpoint and methods of fifty or a hundred years ago. We are all in favor of the Old Time religion if we mean by that the religion of Jesus Christ. No, we cannot turn backwards.

Neither can we go forward so fast that our work becomes superficial. If we are honest with ourselves and with God we must admit that there have been times when we have put too much emphasis on carefully worked out plans and our own power to carry them through. We have pushed on without waiting for guidance. We have failed to commit our ways unto the Lord and to trust Him, knowing that He would bring it to pass. As a result we have changed statistics but not hearts. We have made a good showing but we have not shown people the Christ. An evangelistic program that goes no deeper than that cannot satisfy the need of today nor the need of tomorrow.

What a challenge for prayer the situation presents. We need to wait upon God. "Except the Lord conduct the plan, the best-concerted schemes are vain and never can succeed". The past year has been a blessing to me because it has enabled me to seek His guidance and to wait upon Him to a degree that I have never done before in my ministry. I feel as though I am going into next season's work with a new spirit and a new faith because I have been walking with Him.

EDGAR J. EVANS.

REPORT OF W. C. McINTIRE, CONFERENCE EVANGELIST

During this Conference year I have held fourteen meetings, as follows:

- One in a Wesleyan Methodist Church, Bostonia;
- One in the National Military Home, West Los Angeles;
- One for the Volunteers of America, Terre Haute, Indiana;
- One for a Methodist Episcopal Church, South, in Lexington, Ky.;
- Nine in Methodist Episcopal Churches—Ocean Park, Calif.; Corbin, Ky.; Webb's Mills, New York; Ulster, Milan, North Towanda, Millerton, Jackson Center and Daggett, Penn.

One Campmeeting in Coshocton, Ohio.

In several meetings it has pleased God to grant most remarkable answers to prayer. Business and professional people, farmers, laborers, tradesmen, youth and old age—from respectable sinners down the social scale to criminals—alike have come to know the saving power of Jesus the Christ. Such transformations of life as I have seen this year have greatly strengthened my faith in this work to which God has called me. Personally I want to testify to the sweet consciousness of the Spirit's abiding presence and that Christ is dearer than ever to my heart.

I have received for my work $1560.

WARREN C. McINTIRE.

DEACONESS BOARD

"Another year, with its plans and opportunities, its defeats and victories, has been quietly folded away."

This can truthfully be said of the faithful service of the Deaconesses of our Conference, who have rendered a service that cannot be tabulated. That this is realized by our pastors will be recognized when you know that the Misses Brown, Boardman, Butler, Cooke, Haskins, Hewes, Hoge, Hills, Naylor, Ryan, Smith, Tarr and Cho are requested to be returned to same field. Miss Gasser was released from Asbury to become Nurse Deaconess at the Plaza, and Miss Ristine was released from Conference work to become Young Peoples' worker at Glendale. Miss Boardman was granted Sabbatical Leave in order to study and rest, and Miss Robertson was continued on Sabbatical Leave to study. Miss Kostenbader was granted Honorable Discharge at her request, and Leave of Absence was continued for Misses Williams and Wolfe for health reasons, and granted to Miss Hickman because of her mother's illness and need.

The transfers to our Conference of Miss Helen Schacht (nurse at David and Margaret Home) and Miss Lockhart of Cleveland have been requested, and the necessary procedure has been started. With mingled sorrow and joy we record the passing to their Heavenly Home of Miss Adelaide Applegate (in Dec. 1929) and Miss Nellie Sanborn (April 20, 1930). With utter abandon they gave themselves to the work of the Church. Young and old were their friends, and with their talents finely trained they gave of themselves without stint, fully deserving the love with which they were surrounded.

The work of the Deaconess is so varied, covering as it does relief, supplies, meetings conducted or addressed, Sunday School and training of children, that it is quite impossible to adequately report.

Looking in retrospect at the fruits of the year's work, let us not forget this little army of women who in "following the gleam" have given this untiring service, and labored with willing hands and loving hearts to lighten burdens and bring souls nearer to our Saviour, finding their joy and compensation in the "Inasmuch" of our Master.

MRS. SILAS SPROWLS.

CALIFORNIA STATE CHURCH FEDERATION

In his address before the Convention of his Diocese, Bishop E. L. Parson, of San Francisco, said, "The whole Christian world is today thinking of Unity. No ecclesiastical meeting of any consequence can be held without discussing it . . . A steady stream of books, and magazines and every now and then an explosive episode headlined in our papers all attest the fact that a change has come in ecclesiastical outlooks within a generation which is quite as momentous as any which science has brought into our general world view . . . It is becoming a matter of real consideration by the laymen of all the Churches. Under such circumstances, we can none of us escape contact with movements or events which have to do with unity. All of us as I have said, must make judgments, take a stand, think the thing out." With this purpose in view, the Federal Council was organized twenty-one years ago and the California State Church Federation, sixteen years ago.

In the United States there are 217 denominations and in the Federal Council of Churches there are only 27 denominations, in which are found 80% of all the Protestant church members in America. In the state of California there are 110 denominations, 17 of which are affiliated with the State Church Federation. These organizations have the largest number of church members, and are estimated to have between 80 and 90% of all the Protestant church members in the state. There are only seven church organizations that have churches in every state of the Union, Methodist Episcopal, Seventh Day Adventists, Salvation Army, Baptist—Northern and Southern Conventions, Presbyterian, Christian Science, Protestant Episcopal.

Probably the Denominational Superintendents' Council with headquarters at Los Angeles, Fresno and San Francisco, represents the most practical step of the church towards Christian Union. The Superintendents of the affiliated denominations compose its membership. The purpose of these organizations is well stated in the "Constitution and Principles" of the Council which meets in Los Angeles, as follows:

"It is the purpose of the Denominational Superintendents' Council, by conference and advice, to aid in the distribution of the churches and similar institutions over the area covered by the State Church Federation in such a way that each shall have a reasonable opportunity for growth and development, and that no community shall be over-churched and none left without adequate church facilities."

During the past six years the locations of over two hundred churches have been approved by the Denominational Superintendents' Council.

General Movements: During the past few months, with the approval of our committees, a cablegram was sent to Ambassador Stimson in London, in the interest of the reduction of the Navies; a letter to President Hoover supporting his position upon International Relations; two letters each have gone to both of our Senators, first on World Peace and second on a survey of social relations in the Textile Industry. From all of these persons we have received suitable answers. We also made a survey of the opinions of our Executive Committee, composed of eighty members, in reference to the Olympic games in Los Angeles; and afterwards requested the organization not to hold any contests on Sunday, during the hours usually devoted to worship by all denominations. We received a very sympathetic answer and a promise that the local committee would do what it could but that the local committee has not "much voice in the details of the program."

In connection with the Roman Catholics, Jews and Protestants, we made an appeal for the support of the starving children in China. Associated with the Golden Rule Foundation, we sent a letter to every clergyman in the State; Roman Catholic, Jew and Protestant. Our last report stated that over $12,000 had been received by the committee in New York.

Federation News: We publish three times a year a four page paper with an issue of 3500 copies, a copy of which is sent to every clergyman in the state; Protestant, Jew, Roman Catholic and to many laymen. A series of articles have been sent to all the church papers in the State. A number of articles have been published in the leading secular papers.

One of the most important movements we are engaged in, at the present time, is that of Weekday Religious Education. We have a well trained man in our office devoting his time as an Associate Secretary for Research Work in Religious Education. His time is paid for by a special contribution which cannot be used for any other purpose.

The work of religious education at U. C. L. A. which has been referred to by an eastern editor, as a "Miracle in California" would not have been organized as it is, had it not been for the State Church Federation. That institution is financed by the denominations which are cooperating and not by the funds of the State Church Federation.

The fact is that during the past few years the work of the Federation with its emphasis on church union, not church unity, is the most important church work of this generation; and I believe that in time the twenty-seven denominations connected with the Federal Council will be reduced to five.

Bishop James C. Baker of the Methodist Episcopal Church of Korea, recently stated that the unification of the two Methodist Episcopal Churches in Korea is greatly desired; and the native Christians hope that some method can be worked out by which this can be secured, without separating from the American churches, whose assistance and direction they greatly need.

At a meeting of the Presbyterian and Reformed denominations at Pittsburgh, recently, the committee of the conferring churches expressed themselves as approving "the organic union of these Churches at the earliest possible moment."

In Ohio, 3400 people attended the Annual Council of Churches and through a multitude of meetings there ran but a single theme—Christian unity.

The Lutherans of the world are engaged in a movement to unite 81,000,000 members in one organization.

At the Institution of International Relations held in Riverside last December, one of the most significant statements was made by Henry Morgenthau, formerly Ambassador to Turkey. He declared, "That never in the past has any nation had such an opportunity for unselfish services for the general good. We shall not rise to it unless we courageously and vigorously develop our moral characters to the same degree and to the similar heights as we have our commercial, scientific and physical achievements."

It has become a common saying in business that, "Competition is the life of the trade and the death of the trader." This is true of the churches; and unless the Christian churches federate and cooperate they will fail in the great task of Christianizing the world.

ANTI-SALOON LEAGUE, DEPARTMENT OF ARIZONA AND NEW MEXICO

The bitter fight waged by the wets has served to arouse and unify our dry forces generally.

A weakness in the wets argument for their so-called temperance campaign is that they offer no plan of sobriety other than to devise means for furnishing the people with more liquor. The Literary Digest Poll has fallen flat. Encouraged by the Digest Poll, our only wet newspaper with anything like a state-wide circulation attempted to stage a so-called wet and dry poll. They failed so miserably that their editorial policy is rapidly shifting toward a dry attitude.

At a recent election in the city of Phoenix, a complete non-partisan ticket for mayor and commissioners running upon an out and out dry, anti-vice platform were overwhelmingly elected. This ticket was selected and their campaign conducted by the dry committee selected from the various church groups of the city, with the Superintendent of the Anti-Saloon League as chairman. There has been a general tightening of enforcement by all legal agencies, brought into close co-operation under the leadership of the Anti-Saloon League of Arizona.

We continue to enjoy the unanimous backing of all denominations, Evangelical and Mormon, together with many prominent Roman Catholics. All of the Evangelical and Mormon churches are open to the appeal of the Superintendent of the Anti-Saloon League.

During this short Conference year a great improvement has come financially. On January 1st, 1930, we were carrying a back salary debt to the Superintendent of $3370. For the period of January 1st to June 1st we have paid all current expenses of every kind in full and reduced this debt by more than $1100.

There is no doubt that the present Whiskey Rebellion in America confronts us with necessity of fighting this whole battle over again. In the faith of God's leadership we are ready to fight, to win.

R. E. FARLEY.

PACIFIC-WESTERN BROADCASTING FEDERATION

America's leading philosopher, John Dewey, maintains that there is only one way to "attain the higher values by which civilization is to be ultimately measured." This, he says, "will be by mass achievement." That is to say, the answer to what the future holds is with the man in the street. The outcome of problems of government, of industry, of public health, of the status of the family, of education, of international relations and peace or war, are now to be determined by the common people, the masses.

This judgment of Professor Dewey is expressed as a conclusion following a discussion of what he calls "the intensification of efforts of special interests" to control "for their own ends" the press, the school, the radio—the instruments of mass communication. He says, "I know of nothing more significant than the fact that . . . There is a premium put on the control of popular opinions and beliefs,"—"an attempt at corruption of the source of public action."

There are three machine agencies of mass communication—the press, the motion picture, the radio. Mr. Hearst alleges he has 20,000,000 readers every day for his 25 or 27 newspapers. Into this vast multitude, he projects his ideas, his attitudes, his soul. Mr. Salmon O. Levinson, during the last few days, said to the speaker that the greatest need of Chicago was a great honest newspaper; an endowed newspaper, he said. Mr. Levinson, as you of course know, is the real author or initiator of the Kellogg-Briand peace pact. He sees how difficult it is to work for peace, among the statesmen, when the newspapers are working against it, among the people.

With the present tendency toward concentration of economic control in every field, shall the Church of Jesus Christ ignore the fact that possibly practically all the newspapers of the country may come into the control of one individual? Be he benevolent or malicious, he would to a large extent, dominate the mind and emotion of the whole people. That means tremendous power over public and group action, over your actions and mine.

The power of the motion picture over individual and group action is too well known to need comment. Slowly the churches are awakening to a menace to morals, to sound judgment, to international amity, to the Spirit of Jesus, which, in many cases is provided by movies and talkies produced with a view to box-office receipts only.

The radio is said by some far-sighted persons to have a greater potential influence than either the press or the movies. The day seems not far distant when newspapers will be placed before a facsimile transmitter and reprinted a thousand miles away within an hour after being issued in the sending city. The London Times would be available in Los Angeles and Long Beach sixty minutes after its publication in England.

With the advent of television, the arts having to do with mass communication (culture, inspiration, propaganda) will become more closely allied. There will doubtless be one great amphitheater of the air by which the publics of this and other nations will be amused or cultivated as a unit. Chains of theaters operating on fixed schedules offering their patrons visual and audible reproductions of events during their occurrences will be organized—events which the controlling commercial interests select, programs which the professional stage managers determine, under authority of great financial powers.

Radio broadcasting is not yet 10 years old. But today there are more than 12,000,000 receiving sets in the United States. The possible audience for one performance—be it a prize-fight or a Presidential inauguration—is enormous. Never in history has such an instrument been available for moulding opinion, and delivering into the hands of those in control the soul of the nation.

Ownership of facilities is the determinative factor in controlling communication. Whoever owns and controls a vehicle determines the destination of its passengers. And control of the vehicles of communication gives control of the thought-material communicated.

Do you know who owns the National Broadcasting Company? It is a subsidiary of the Radio Corporation of America.

Take a glance at the Radio Corporation of America. It was initially established for ship-to-shore communication, and in conjunction with a radio patent pool. It is now interested in motion picture production, distribution and exhibition; in the phonograph industry; in vaudeville; in music production; in television; in manufacturing and selling broadcasting and receiving equipment and vacuum tubes; in various other allied arts and industries; as well as in telegraphic and cable communications and in radio broadcasting.

It has absorbed the 700 Keith-Albee theaters; the Orpheum chain of theaters; the Pantages chain of theaters, in addition to chains of vaudeville and motion picture theaters elsewhere in the world. It has a string of subsidiaries as long as the list of instruments by which mass communication is carried on, and by which record communication is done.

The Columbia Broadcasting System is owned 50% by the Paramount-Famous-Lasky Corporation, and 50% by a few individuals. Occasional rumors have it that the National Broadcasting Co. will merge with the Columbia as soon as public sentiment will warrant. In case R. C. A. succeeds in absorbing Paramount, it will be inevitable.

After a joint announcement made by Adolph Zukor, of the Paramount-Famous-Lasky Corporation and William Paley of Columbia Broadcasting System that Paramount had absorbed half interest in Columbia, the announcement was made that the Radio Corporation had acquired the Pantages circuit, and, failing in immediate negotiations to absorb the Fox and Lukor film interests, the Radio Corporation agent was quoted in the press as saying: "We are going ahead with our competitive program more competitively than ever. We are going to buy and build theaters, and what competition we can't swallow into our organization, we'll dynamite out of the field."

In this critical situation is placed the Southern California Annual Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church. In your midst has been launched a movement, the influence of which is now national and international.

The Pacific-Western Broadcasting Federation, Ltd., a creature of the Conference, has been granted franchises to build the most complete and powerful broadcasting station, so we are advised by engineers rated as the best in the country, in the world. Two construction permits and four wave-lengths are held by the Federation, a recent appraisal of the commercial value of which is put at $5,000,000.

In Southern California, there is an educational pool and a pool of dramatic talent second only to that of New York City. With the various institutions and cities feeding into the great transmitter the best programs which could be developed in a center of culture and population which seems to give evidence of a future social, political, economic and international power of stupendous proportion, it will be possible to make a genuine contribution to human progress and happiness, of which this Conference will be justly proud.

A comprehensive program of religious, educational and social work which the Federation proposes will contribute vitally to bringing about that which a great divine speaks of as a "renaissance of spiritual life in general and of religion in particular, accompanied both by constructive social reformation and by a synthetic philosophy which will gather up the mass of new mental materials into a coherent whole and give life once more a unified meaning and interpretation," and to which he says there is no alternative but "the collapse of Western civilization." Many are oblivious to forces which portend decline. Others perceive that "during this next generation Christianity will probably have to fight for its life."

When a government delivers into the control of its nationals a medium for reaching and moulding the public mind, such as the radio, it entrusts them with the responsibility of creating the conditions out of which evolve the future. There seems to inhere in this remarkable instrument of mass communication incomparable opportunity for influencing not only contemporary psychology and culture, but destiny. And America must and will share in the process of this universal education. Shall her enlightenment be a sales talk, a song, and a band of jazz, or shall it be a dispelling of ignorance, or prejudice, of passion; a cultivating of the art of understanding; a developing of a better appreciation of the common humanity of earth's many races; and an ushering in of the era of peace?

GOOD WILL INDUSTRIES

Our Increases Over the Same Period Last Year:

- 10.3% in Store Sales.
- 31.9% in Salvage Sales.
- 19.3% in Wages paid.
- 11.9% in Hours Work given.
- 113% in Donations received.

Our Goodwill established and fostered the San Diego Goodwill Industries. We now operate 3 branches, 2 collection centers, 19 stores, garage, 39 trucks, 3 restaurants, 45 bed dormitory.

Employment bureau handled 22,964 applications for jobs, gave out 18,879 jobs. New applicants for jobs numbered 2749. 27 nationalities served.

Three chapel services for three different groups each morning—aggregate attendance—54,387.

Filipino Bible Class now in 11th consecutive year—meets every Sunday evening. Weekday Bible Classes for workers.

The year has brought serious difficulties and problems. Unemployment and perhaps financial fears caused income to shrink by 25% this Spring. Every Goodwill went on five days pay per week for three months and loyally made the sacrifice. Our building is badly overcrowded and growth means embarrassment.

Never have we had finer cooperation from our pastors and their people. Goodwill is a service arm of the church. Its World Service is Home Service; scientific and Christian. Goodwill is bound to develop just as every Methodist in Southern California, every friend of the handicapped and less fortunate—thinks "Goodwill" in terms of what the shop or home no longer needs. Not to be ministered unto, but to minister, it gathers up the fragments—and a multitude is fed and clothed and sheltered. In His Name, Goodwill Serves.

VII Memoirs In Memoriam

FRANK RAYMOND NEWMAN

Born to Benjamin F. and Mary Newman, in Colfax, Washington, January 2, 1892, Frank R. Newman grew to young manhood, a child of prayer. The constant petition of his devoted Christian mother was that the Lord would call her son into His ministry. While his father was not a Christian, he entered fully into the dying wish of the mother, who left her son when he was but five years of age. After the death of his wife, Mr. Newman cared for the little lad and assisted him to realize his sainted mother's ideal. At the age of 85 he came under the ministry of I. Frank Roach, in First Church, Long Beach, and gave his heart to God.

In 1914 Brother Newman graduated from State College, Pullman, Washington. After teaching one year in the High School at Endicott, Washington, he entered Stanford University and did post-graduate work. In 1917 he entered MacLay School of Theology, graduating in 1920.

At the 1917 session of our Conference he was admitted on trial, serving at Grace, Inglewood, and Moneta, as a student pastor. In 1920 he was ordained elder and admitted into full membership. He then served as pastor at Alamorio-Mulberry, Santee, Oceanside, Highgrove, San Jacinto and Del Rey.

Converted at 12 years of age, during a revival meeting held near his home, Brother Newman escaped many of the sins common to youth. Through the years of his growing young manhood he built a splendid character, which gave a very decided strength to his ministry. His conscientiousness, high sense of integrity, sympathy with the suffering, love of children, tender regard for old age, studiousness and diligence about his work, were traits that won the respect and esteem of the churches and communities where he served as pastor.

One aspect of his ministry was outstanding: his pastoral care of the sick and aged. His frequent visitation, reading of the Scriptures and prayers, made his ministry to the "shut-ins" of his parishes a benediction and blessing.

The earnestness of his own Christian life was reflected in his sacrificial service rendered to every interest of the Church, and diligent effort to win old and young to Christ. January 2, the day before his death, while celebrating his 38th birthday, he said: "I hope I may live a long, long time and win many souls for Christ." This was the high aim of Brother Newman's ministry.

In happy anticipation of the coming Sabbath, the last two hours of his life were spent in Bible study and preparation of his Sunday morning message. Suddenly, with no opportunity for "sad farewells", he was gone; he was "absent from the body and present with his Lord."

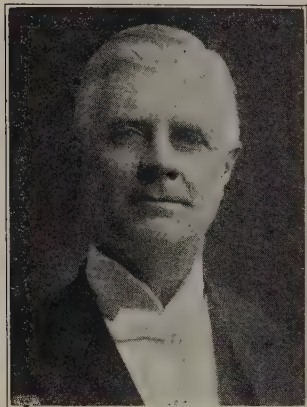

On June 25, 1918, he was united in marriage to Miss Edith May Bodley. As real lovers, for eleven years and six months they lived in beautiful and happy fellowship, sharing in holy comradeship the toils and victories of the ministry. His strong affection and tender devotion to his wife and little sons, is now a cherished memory and source of sweet comfort. To his children, Raymond Wesley, Homer Bodley, and David Bruce, aged 10, 8 and 4, respectively, he has left the legacy of an untarnished name, a godly life, the challenge of his high idealism and the example of a good minister of Jesus Christ.

The funeral was conducted by his District Superintendent, Charles D. Lewis, Monday, January 6th, in the Del Rey Church. Leonard Oechsli, L. E. Warren and J. U. Simmons, brother pastors, assisted in the service. In beautiful Alta Mesa Cemetery, near Palo Alto, the body of this consecrated servant of Christ awaits the resurrection morning. Though he fell in "the early manhood of his ministry" he had already earned an ample reward.

WARREN C. McINTIRE.

A. C. WELCH

Another veteran of the cross has found release. On Monday evening, January 20, 1930, our Lord spoke to A. C. Welch, "It is enough; come up higher". And without hesitancy his soul went out to be forevermore "at home" with Him who loved us and gave Himself for us.

Brother Welch was born April 26, 1859, in Harrison County, Ohio. At the age of fourteen he entered Scio College, where he not only completed the course but engaged also in graduate study. He manifested a special aptitude for learning and continued his studies in Mt. Union College, from which he won the two degrees—Ph.D. and D.D.

At the age of twenty-two he entered the East Ohio Conference. After fifteen years here, he served pastorates in Albuquerque, N. M.; Omaha, Neb.; and in the California Conference. In 1906 he transferred to the Southern California Conference, and for four years was the efficient and beloved pastor of the Upland Church. After serving pastorates in Redondo, East Hollywood, Lindsay, Cucamonga, San Dimas, Ocean Park and Arroyo Grande, in 1921 he retired from the active ranks and has made his home at Pacific Palisades. For four years past he has been ill; for six months seriously so—and suffering much. Two months ago he went to Upland and in the home of a former parishioner, Mrs. Dora Hilbert, received every possible attention until suffering was over and he went gladly to his crowning.

Early in his ministry he was married to Miss Florence Hollingshead, daughter of Dr. J. H. Hollingshead, Presiding Elder and prominent member of the East Ohio Conference. Throughout the years she has been his faithful helper, contributing much to the success of his pastorate. During these last months she has ministered to him with an abandon of love.

He was scholarly in his habits. Among his achievements is a volume under the title "Character Photography", in which he showed both literary skill and a discerning mind. He was also strong in evangelism. Following one of his revival meetings, 112 persons united with the church in full connection on one Sunday. He had an attractive personality and we will not soon forget the winsome charm of his smile. He has a multitude of friends. His going is mourned by a widely-scattered group who knew the sterling worth of his character. He will be welcomed yonder by a great company of those to whom he has been the messenger of God.

Soon—we shall meet him yonder in the presence of the King.

"This is the death of Death, to breathe away a breath

And know the end of strife, and taste the deathless life,

And joy without a fear, and smile without a tear,

And work—nor care to rest—and find the last the best".

(Maltby D. Babcock).

The funeral service was held from the Upland Methodist Church on Thursday, January 23. Alfred Inwood, A. Ray Moore, J. E. Dunning, W. A. Reynolds, F. D. Mather and J. A. Stavelly shared in the services. The pall bearers were C. R. Montague, S. J. Rogers, C. M. Crist, E. D. Raley, Harry Branton and Samuel Hughes.

BENJAMIN SHERWOOD HAYWOOD

There are three great human watersheds that determine the volume of power in a life—one is ancestry—one is the age and place and conditions under which we spend our days—one is the drive of the personal will. These three all contributed to produce in the career of our brother minister, Benjamin Sherwood Haywood, a life of singular beauty, usefulness and worth. He was born on a farm on Shawnee Prairie, on the Wabash, in Tippecanoe County, Indiana, during the throes of the titanic struggle between the Union and the Confederacy. His birthday was September 15, 1863.

The greatness of America is the harmonious blendings of the best blood of the old world. He happily illustrates that fact for as he succinctly puts it: "I was the youngest of eleven children, the eighth son of a Holland Dutch Irish father and an English mother." His first education and perhaps the most important part of it was thus begun where the miracle of seed time and harvest was annually witnessed, where life was simple and the emphasis was on the great essentials. It began in the loving circle of a good sized family. It is under the tutelage of brothers and sisters that we learn the lessons of democracy and good citizenship. He says: "The greatest thrills of my childhood are associated with an attendance at Barnum's Circus, the County Fair and an eccentric character known as Thorntown Cyrus." The public schools of Indiana furthered that training and life preparation. To-day men go to college because it is the custom, but in the yesterday, one went because of a thirst for knowledge that would not be denied. Thus stirred by a noble ambition for the best, he went first to Purdue University and then to Cornell College at Mt. Vernon, Iowa, where he graduated. Later he took work at Columbia University.

His first ambition was to study medicine and to be a physician. To assist himself through college and to complete his medical education, he taught school.

But God had other plans for him. Here was one who could heal the spiritual ills of men and illumine their hearts, and be a cure of souls. As he puts it: "I yielded to other influences and changed my life plans to a theological course." He did not choose the ministry for ease or financial advantage, but because he felt the call for service. It was to a sacrificial ministry that he devoted his life and talents.

He began his active ministry in the West Nebraska Conference, on the then frontier, on a traditional circuit comprising the southwest corner of Nebraska, the northwest corner of Kansas and a slice of Eastern Colorado. Each Sunday he traveled in a one horse buggy forty miles and preached four times. He was ordained a deacon by Bishop Goodsell and an Elder by Bishop Waldon.

On May 6, 1885, he was married, as he so felicitously phrased it, to "sweet hearted Harriet Porter, a Scotch girl," who has bravely, joyously, loving walked with him the road of an itinerant Methodist preacher. They have been a devoted couple, true comrades and chums. They have worked and sacrificed and rejoiced together, upborne by the beauty and power of a great love.

What a many sided ministry his has been! What an epic of spiritual adventure for Christ is contained even in the bare record of the places and dates where he served! What a host must have welcomed him through the gates into the City Four Square!

He served four charges in the West Nebraska Conference, Haigler-Alston, Oxford, Orleans, Holdrege. In the late 90's, he answered the call of the church and went as a missionary to Mexico, where he was stationed at Pachuca, that one has styled the dirtiest city in Mexico. Then he was appointed Presiding Elder of the Orizaba District.

In 1901 he was transferred to the Southern California Conference and began his first great pastorate at First Church, Riverside. Then his life long friend, Bishop Earl Cranston, drafted him for the Superintendency of the Porto Rico Mission in which arduous field he labored eight years. In 1912 he assumed the Superintendency of the Hospital work of the Woman's Home Missionary Society with headquarters in Washington, D. C. His greatest single piece of work in this field was raising $200,000 for Sibley Hospital, Washington.

In 1916, he returned home to Southern California and began a second notable five year pastorate at First Church, Riverside.

Then in succession he served two great pastorates of four years each, at Wilshire, Los Angeles, and White Temple, Anaheim. Last fall he asked for a Sabbatical Year of absence to make a trip around the world for the enrichment of his mind. His plans were made but the Great Captain of our Salvation closed that door to give him a journey to a nobler world.

In the full tide of his powers, he stepped from the pleasant room of time into the larger room in "Our Father's House", Sunday night, December 29th, 1929.

He leaves to mourn his departure, his devoted wife and their only child, Mrs. Mabel Evelyn Dye of Troy, Ohio, and his two grandchildren, Harvey Sellers and Mabel, who were the dear treasures of his heart and thought. Also one sister, Mrs. Sarah Quigel of Crawfordsville, Indiana. But beyond this near circle there is a mighty group of men and women who also love him for his beautiful and consecrated ministry.

He says "the most interesting experiences of my life have been the contact with some outstandingly helpful and notable lives, namely, the old type Methodist Presiding Elders, Frances Willard, Porfiro Diaz of Mexico, Bishops William Taylor and Charles C. McCabe, William McKinley, Theodore Roosevelt, Uncle Joe Cannon, Alexander Graham Bell, (inventor of the telephone), Gene Stratton Porter, Dr. Charles Welch (of grape juice fame), James Whitcomb Riley, William Jennings Bryan, Dr. John R. Mott and others."

He was a spiritually minded man, he had one supreme passion and that was to exalt Christ. He loved people, he was a real minister, being both a preacher and a pastor. He was a diligent, indefatigable worker, brotherly in all his relations, highly charitable in his estimates and sympathetic toward the underprivileged. He was always a gentleman. Thou, true Knight of Christ, Benjamin Sherwood Haywood, we hail and salute thee!

WILLSIE MARTIN.

JOHN JOSEPH POST

John Joseph Post, B.A., S.T.B., was born in Decatur, Illinois, May 18, 1870, and departed this life in Los Angeles, California, October 19, 1929, aged fifty-nine years, five months and a day. His father, Colonel John Pratt Post moved to Georgetown, Colorado, while Joe was an infant. Here he grew up; graduating from the local high school in 1888, and from Denver University in 1892. He was a life-long member of the Colorado Zeta Chapter of the Sigma Alpha Epsilon national fraternity, as are also his two sons. While in Denver University he was private secretary to Chancellor, now Bishop, McDowell, and also held the same office with Bishop Warren. In 1893 he represented the state of Colorado as Secretary of Educational Exhibits at the World's Fair in Chicago. Entering Boston University in this year, he became private secretary to Dr. Louis Albert Banks, the pastor of Hanson Place Church, Brooklyn, New York. Returning to Colorado, he graduated from the Iliff School of Theology, in 1896, with the degree of Bachelor of Sacred Theology, and was appointed pastor at Cheyenne Wells, Colorado. His other Colorado appointments were: Ordway, Goldfield, Julesburg, Kersey, Bald Mountain, Buena Vista, and St. Paul's, Colorado Springs. In 1909 he removed to Southern California and filled the following appointments here: Fallbrook, San Jacinto, Artesia, and Brawley. On October 25, 1900, he was united in marriage to Mary V. Chillson, who survives him and who labored with him in faithful and loving service sixteen years in our active ministry. Two sons—John Charles and Paul Gardner Post—blessed this union. Both boys are now successful business men in California.

Brother Post was assistant secretary of the Colorado Conference for a term of years. Revivals of religion attended his earnest preaching. He was a faithful and successful shepherd of the flock, true to his friends, true to his devoted family—true to Christ—and the writer and he were even as David and Jonathan. In 1917 ill health compelled his retirement in Brawley, where for thirteen years he served the government as rural delivery agent until his decease. A considerable company of the Imperial Valley Rural Route Carriers' Association, after making their rounds in their routes early in the morning, drove the one hundred thirty miles to attend the funeral services of Brother Post, the secretary of their organization, and their personal friend—a beautiful and impressive tribute.

Brother Post was "white as snow, and pure as gold", as a devoted friend worded his appreciation. He preached his last sermon shortly before his decease, in the Brawley Methodist Church, from the text: "I am the Vine, ye are the branches." After the sermon one member remarked, "He seemed to put his whole soul into that sermon!" He always did his utmost.

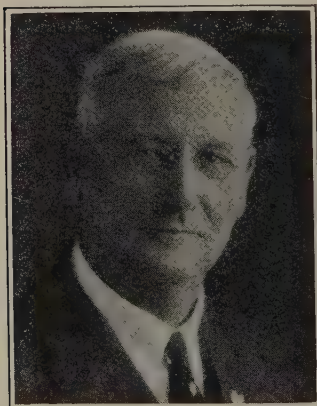

As the mists of Niagara rise in eternal incense to the Creator, so do the self-sacrificing lives of such as he make their Master's name glorious in the earth.

Impressive funeral services were held in our church at San Jacinto, with B. F. Davis of Riverside officiating.

GEORGE R. GRAFF.

SAMUEL WILSON CARNES

Brother Samuel Wilson Carnes came to the close of a fruitful life on the last night of 1929. He lacked six months of completing three score years and ten. He was older than most men when he entered the ministry, but his years in the pastorate were used to the full in a most faithful service.

This brother was born in Ohio, June 30, 1860. In 1882 he was married to Miss Mary M. Davis. Five years later he came with his wife to California where they have resided ever since. While a student in the University of Southern California he heard the call to the ministry, obeyed his Lord and joined this Conference, to which he has given more than thirty years of service.

The Conference minutes will show that several of the churches which he served developed into some of the strongest charges in the Conference. Brother Carnes was a layer of foundation. Substantial churches were built by him and by others upon these foundations. He was a pioneer preacher. Never satisfied with two services on Sunday, he used the afternoons to seek out new fields and begin new work. These he maintained through his pastorate and they have since become pastoral charges. Those who know the Conference will see at a glance from the list of charges held by this man of God, how enduring is the work he wrought:—Del Rosa; Anaheim; National City; Chino; Florence; Wintersburg; Elsinore; Tropico; Simi and Santa Susanna; Puente, Fallbrook; Mountain View; Ontario, Grace.

All this was briefly reviewed at the funeral service which was held in University Church on January 7. The pastor presided and words of consolation for the family and of high tribute to Brother Carnes were spoken by Brothers Gillies, Mather, Stevens, Davis, Oliver and Monkman. More than thirty members of the Conference were present and sang together "Am I a Soldier of the Cross?"

All too briefly is told the work of as faithful a pastor as ever served in the Conference and as conscientious a worker in the Master's Kingdom as ever labored in the state. "Servant of God, Well Done".

Through all the years of his ministry this brother was ably assisted by his wife. She shared every burden with him, and labored conscientiously through their long ministry together. Their only child, Welcome, is now a member of the New York East Conference. He came across the continent to attend his father's funeral service and spend a few weeks with his stricken mother. A niece, now Mrs. Edna Kelso, has been a member of the home since she was two years of age and has had all the claims of a daughter upon the love and care of Brother and Sister Carnes.

Brother Carnes was forced by ill health to take the Retired Relation in 1923. He was regular in attendance upon the Conference sessions and enjoyed them. After his retirement he and his wife moved to Los Angeles, into their home at 942 W. 35th St., and united with University Church. No man was more regular than he at the services, on Sundays and week days. If he was absent it was because of the condition of his health. His face was an inspiration to the preacher, his prayers were an uplift to the congregation, and his presence was a benediction upon the meetings.

To enter his home was to find a man of quiet manner and voice, cordial to the last degree, well read in the best books and papers, and always ready to intelligently discuss the issues of the day and especially the condition of the church of Christ.

The end of life came to Brother Carnes on this wise:

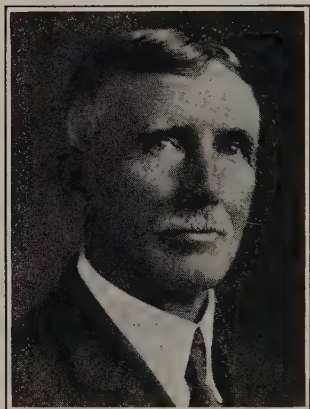

It was New Year's Eve, and there was a Watch Meeting in University Church, attended by about three-score people. At just one hour before midnight our brother was standing, giving his testimony in the Love Feast. Telling of his conversion and his call to the ministry, he paused an instant, looked at his wife who sat beside him, lifted his hands as if he saw a vision, fell back into his chair and in a moment was gone.

O, to be sure, the sudden death of one is a shock for the loved ones who survive, but who can think of a more fitting, a more glorious close of a life consecrated to the things of Christ, than to have it come in the Church, in the last hour of the year, and during the moment when the soul is endeavoring to express its joy in the Christian Faith, acknowledging a debt of gratitude to God for His unspeakable Gift, and declaring a confidence in the keeping power of the Good Father. It is a coronation greater than that of King or Emperor.

W. C. HODGSON.

THOMAS HEWITT DODD

Thomas Hewitt Dodd was born in Brampton, England, October 20th, 1864. He was educated in the schools of that country, and became a Local Preacher in the Wesleyan Church while a student at Clifton. He came to America in 1888, settling in Philadelphia, where he united with the Methodist Episcopal Church and was licensed as a Local Preacher. In 1892 he was admitted on trial in the Philadelphia Conference, continuing his studies at Crosier Seminary and Princeton College while serving in several pastorates. He was ordained Deacon in 1894 by Bishop Andrews, and Elder in 1896 by Bishop Hurst.

On April 25th, 1894, Brother Dodd was united in marriage to Miss Nora Elizabeth Yost. To this union one daughter was born—Claire, now Mrs. Claire Sherer, of Holtwood, Pennsylvania. The wife and daughter and one grandson survive the deceased, also several brothers and sisters in England.

Brother Dodd has served without break in the ministry of the Methodist Episcopal Church for 38 years. His ministerial record is as follows: Philadelphia Conference—Bethesda, Cochranville, Marshalton, Halifax, Portland, Kenneth Square, Siloam, Pottstown, Upland, Reading; Arizona Mission, 1913; Hayden, Kingman; Southern California Conference, 1920; Kingman; Union Avenue, Los Angeles; Woodcrest, Los Angeles; and Ajo, Arizona.

In 1913 he was transferred to the Arizona Mission and stationed at Hayden, where he built a beautiful little church. The following year he became pastor at Kingman, Arizona, and served this charge for 9½ years, building one of the best churches in the smaller cities of Arizona. From Kingman, Arizona, Brother Dodd was transferred to Union Avenue, Los Angeles, serving Union Avenue and Woodcrest for 1½ years. Five years ago he requested to be returned to Arizona, feeling that the service which he could render the mining camps and small cities of Arizona could be much greater than pastorates in a large city. At Ajo he immediately entered into plans for a new Federated Church, which was completed and built under his supervision. This church building is of Spanish Mission design, and is one of the most beautiful small church buildings found in the state.

Brother Dodd gave himself untiringly to the work of the ministry. He was especially strong in his personal contacts. People of all faiths and creeds were his friends, and they never forgot him. He seemed to be able to reach men in responsible positions and leaders in civic and commercial life. He succeeded in interesting these men in the work of the church. At Kingman, people for 150 miles around came to him for advice and spiritual guidance. On one occasion a sheep man came from a long distance, saying that he had not had Communion for many years, and requesting that he might be given the Sacrament of the Lord's Supper, and Brother Dodd, in his kind helpful spirit, made this possible. The commonplace things of life appealed to him, and he loved the common folks of the mines, of the railroads, of the desert spaces. In the church services he was a High Church man, and loved the formal and stately services. He was friendly and generous toward everybody, but at the same time he was independent and fearless.

It was his intention to ask for retirement at this Conference. He had been a sufferer for years, and this past year had been a very trying one for him. Going to Phoenix, Arizona, for special treatments, he became very ill, and on Sunday morning, May 25th, 1930, at Phoenix, departed this life. Special memorial and funeral services were held at Ajo on Thursday morning, May 29th, by A. L. Baker, and at Kingman, Friday morning, May 30th, by W. A. Betts, interment being in the Kingman cemetery. The Federated Church at Ajo, under Methodist supervision, has sustained a great loss in this good man. The community was deeply touched by his life, and everywhere were expressions of deep grief because of his going. A memorial tablet commemorating his service and his life will be erected in this church.

A. L. BAKER.

JAMES BLACKLEDGE

James Blackledge was a scholar and a Christian gentleman. His was the inheritance of an old English family, related to royalty. He was born in Durham, England, October 8, 1849, the son of Thomas and Ann Blackledge.

He left England as a young man and came to America, where in 1874 he entered and worked his way through Dickinson College at Carlisle, Pennsylvania. He had spent the two years previous at Drew Theological Seminary.

He joined the Philadelphia Conference in 1877, becoming Assistant Pastor of the First Church at Philadelphia. After serving four churches in that conference he was called to a professorship in the Anglo-Japanese College at Tokio, Japan, in 1882. Here in the next year came the culmination of a romance which began on the European trip where he had met Miss Katharine Treat of Zanesville, Wisconsin. Their friendship dated from their meeting at the Leaning Tower of Pisa, and the wedding occurred on the other side of the globe, at Yokohama, in our First Methodist Church, with the Rev. Robert Maclay as officiating clergyman.

Following the birth of their second child, blood poisoning was contracted, which left his wife a partial invalid until the end of her life. This, in connection with climatic difficulties, necessitated their leaving for the States, and in 1887 he was transferred to Southern California, after a brief pastorate in Rochester, New York. Here for two years he taught in our college of Theology, then located at San Fernando, and also preached in our church in that community and in surrounding towns.

In 1889 he was transferred to the California Conference and spent the next fourteen years there. Here he was engaged in school work in Berkeley, and San Rafael, acting as Professor of Chemistry at Mt. Tamalpais

Military Academy, and was Head Master of his own military school at Paralta Hall. Following this he studied medicine for two years in Hammond College in San Francisco. During this time he also had charge of our churches at Martinez, San Rafael, Pine Grove and Sonora.

In 1903 he returned to the membership of the Southern California Conference, and during the next twelve years preached at Easton, San Luis Obispo, San Pedro, Prospect Park, Hobart Boulevard, Normandie Avenue, East Lake, Chatsworth and Owensmouth. It was at Normandie Avenue where he made his greatest contribution to the conference by the building of the church plant.

For about twelve years, closing with his retirement from active work in 1922, he acted as professor of Hebrew in Maclay School of Theology at the University and was said by students to be an excellent teacher. He removed to Santa Monica about twelve years ago, where he gave his time and thought to his home and his invalid wife, whose death occurred in October, 1928.

For some months previous to his death he was cared for in a sanatorium in Los Angeles, and the end came November 7, 1929. He leaves as his only survivor his daughter, Mrs. Eva B. Young.

He was a man industrious, well informed, scholarly, friendly, able.

The services in his memory were conducted by A. Ray Moore, E. A. Healy and F. G. H. Stevens.

E. A. HEALY AND F. G. H. STEVENS.

MRS. B. J. JORDAN

Mrs. Priscilla Daniels Jordan, wife of B. J. Jordan, pastor of Scott Methodist Episcopal Church, Pasadena, California, was born near Yazoo City, Mississippi, July 6, 1892, and departed this life December 18, 1929 at the Methodist Hospital in Los Angeles.

She was the youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Alexander Daniels, both of whom died before she reached the years of maturity.

She was educated in the public schools of Mississippi and in Meridian Academy, one of the Secondary Schools under the supervision of the Freedmen's Aid Society of the Methodist Episcopal Church. After graduating she taught in the public schools of her native county until 1915 when she was married to B. J. Jordan with whom she had become acquainted while students together at Meridian Academy.

To this union were born four children, three of whom survive her.

She was an excellent mother, a faithful and devoted wife, an intelligent and efficient companion of her husband in his pastoral work both at Newport, Arkansas, and Pasadena. Her quiet and unassuming manner, and her generally kind and congenial spirit won for her friends from all with whom she came in contact.

She was never a woman of robust health, but was a faithful and persistent worker in spite of poor health. The heavy duties of home, her faithfulness in securing places for the unemployed in the community, together with the task of building the new church in which she was deeply interested along with her husband, gradually used up her physical strength and hastened the coming of the end. With simple faith and Christian fortitude she endured the sufferings of her last illness, manifested a mother's care toward her children, and with perfect confidence she committed her all to Him in whom from childhood she had believed; and slept away in the arms of Jesus.

On account of the fact that the new church was not completed many offers were made by both white and colored churches as a place for holding the funeral services. Finally the Friendship Baptist Church was selected on account of its nearness to the new church.

The funeral services were in charge of Walter C. Buckner, District Superintendent of the Pasadena District. Prayer was offered by Dr. G. H. Trever, former President of Gammon Theological Seminary. C. H. M. Sutherland read the scriptures. Short addresses were delivered by Merle N. Smith, Mrs. James Donovan, and Dr. J. Beverly F. Shaw, Mrs. Jordan's teacher at Meridian Academy. The funeral sermon was delivered by A. P. Shaw of Wesley Chapel, Los Angeles. Music was furnished by Scott Methodist Church choir. Solos were rendered by Mrs. Roberts and Mr. Aaron Jordan.

She was laid to rest in beautiful Mountain View Cemetery at Pasadena.

A. P. SHAW.

MRS. J. R. ANDREWS

Jennie Maria Andrews, nee Danielson, beloved wife of the veteran preacher of the gospel, J. R. Andrews, was called to her eternal reward Wednesday, April 9th, 1930, her age being 68 years, 10 months and 27 days. Sister Andrews, daughter of a Norwegian sea captain, was born in Norway, May 13th, 1861, and at the age of four migrated with her parents to America. They settled in Chicago, Ill., where Jennie spent her happy childhood and girlhood days. On Sept. 9th, 1880, she was united in marriage with the young Methodist preacher, J. R. Andrews, so if her life had been spared they would have celebrated their golden wedding next coming September. Instead of that she joined the glorious, redeemed bridal party of the Lamb of God.

During these nearly fifty years Sister Andrews has shared the vicissitudes—the joys and the sorrows, the successes and the failures—of an itinerant Methodist minister. Thus they have worked together in the states of Michigan, Wisconsin, Minnesota and California, the last charge being Easton, Calif. During the last fifteen years the family has made its home in Kingsburg, Brother Andrews retiring from the active ministry about 12 years ago. Sister Andrews was a pastor's helpmeet in the word's fullest sense. To her is due much of the credit for Brother Andrews' success in the ministry. A natural born leader she was for many years the efficient president of the Ladies Aid in this church, and all the charges they served felt the influence of her prayers, her wise counsel and her zeal.

God blessed Brother and Sister Andrews with a large family of fine children. Eight were born in this union, of which one died in infancy, and another, Mrs. Soffi Tucker, as adult. The other six are Mrs. Edith Olson of Oakland, Calif., Ray C., Gottfrid E., Miss Mable, Elmer J. and Julius V. Andrews, all of Kingsburg. She is also survived by nine grandchildren; one brother, G. F. Danielson, in St. Petersburg, Fla.; and other relatives in Portland, Oregon. A large number of neighbors and friends, and members of the Kingsburg Church, and of the churches where she served as a pastor's wife, will deeply miss and mourn "Mother Andrews", as she was lovingly often called.

Thoroughly converted when she was quite young, Sister Andrews knew God. She knew through actual experience of the saving grace of God, of the sustaining grace of God in the hour of trouble, and of the comforting grace of God in the hour of deep sorrow.

The funeral was held from the Kingsburg Church, Friday, April 11th. Charles D. Lewis, the District Superintendent of the Fresno District, gave the main address, a beautiful address that touched the heart of all present. H. F. Woodside, president of the Fresno District Council, brought greetings of sympathy from the Council. Other pastors who participated were E. G. Rosendahl, a lifelong friend of the family, Robert Wright of Parlier, Lawrence Warren of Selma, and the local pastor, C. H. Sundstrom. Many beautiful floral offerings and more than a dozen telegrams of condolence bespoke sympathy and friendship. Friends from near and far attended the beautiful service, greatly enhanced by the heart-felt singing of some of the gifted musicians of the church. Sister Andrews was tenderly laid to rest on an ideal spring day in the beautiful cemetery near the home she loved so well

"Into the eternal shadows that girds our life around,
 Into the infinite silence wherewith Death's shore is bound,
 Thou hast gone forth, beloved! and I were mean to weep,
 That thou hast left Life's shallows, and dost possess the deep!"

Peace be to the memory of "Mother Andrews."

C. H. SUNDSTROM.

MRS. DON W. NICHOLS

Anna Ruth Cubberly, daughter of Tobias and Hannah Cubberly, was born in St. Louis, Missouri, February 22, 1863; was united in marriage to Don W. Nichols at Louisiana, Mo., November 10, 1887; departed this life at South Pasadena, California, at the home of her daughter, Mrs. John Alman, on January 4, 1930 at 3 a.m. Mrs. Nichols was the mother of seven children, six sons and one daughter. Five of the sons passed away in early life. The eldest son and daughter are still living, Ruthvan B. Nichols, now in Shanghai, China, and Mrs. John E. Alman of South Pasadena.

At four years of age, Anna Ruth with her parents moved from St. Louis, Missouri, where she spent her girlhood and young womanhood. She was happily converted early in life, and when eleven years of age united with the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, where she served as Sunday School teacher, organist, director of young people's work and as a member of the choir. The evening of her marriage she transferred her membership from the Methodist Episcopal Church, South to membership with her husband in the Methodist Episcopal Church. After a reception tendered this young couple in the Seventh Street Methodist Episcopal Church, (A. H. Gunnett, an honored retired member of the Southern California Conference, being pastor) they took their departure the same evening as missionaries to Central China, where they spent 17 years of their life, laying the foundation for our Lord Christ in that land.

She was faithful from her childhood even unto death, obtaining the fulfillment of the promise, "Be thou faithful even unto death and I will give thee a crown of righteousness." She passed away saying, "I go—I go in triumph!" Thus she fell asleep to awake in the city of the redeemed. Sister Nichols leaves to mourn her departure, a husband, Don W. Nichols; a son, Ruthvan B. Nichols; a daughter, Mrs. John E. Alman; three grandchildren, John Alman Jr., Margaret Alman and Mary Elizabeth Nichols; two brothers and a sister and a host of friends. They mourn her going away, but rejoice that she is now with the Lord, whom she loved from her childhood and delighted in all His ways.

MRS. JOHN F. FISHER

On March the first, nineteen hundred and thirty, Lena Leonard Fisher, wife of John F. Fisher, Dean of the School of Religion of the University of Southern California, passed away at her home in Los Angeles. Bishop Charles Edward Locke paid high tribute to her at the service which was held in the First Methodist Church, saying, "If 'civilization is a good woman', as we confidently believe, then it is a woman like Lena Leonard Fisher, liberally endowed with many extraordinary gifts; a woman who was known for her faith, her sympathy, her hope, her patience, and her loveliness of character. Her remarkable versatility easily passed into the realm of genius. Her voice, her pen, her mind, her heart, were all in a determined, loving conspiracy to give her a remarkable personality." Others who participated in the memorial service were, President Emeritus George F. Bovard, President R. B. von KleinSmid, Merle N. Smith, Dr. John Snape of The Temple Baptist Church of Los Angeles, Dr. Herbert Booth Smith of the Immanuel Presbyterian Church, John Oliver, Mrs. J. G. Early, and Bruce R. Baxter.

Mrs. Fisher was the daughter of the late Dr. Adna Bradway Leonard, for twenty-five years Secretary of the Board of Foreign Missions of the Methodist Episcopal Church, and Caroline Kaiser Leonard; a sister of Bishop Adna W. Leonard, Mrs. May Leonard Woodruff, and Mrs. Lillian Antrim; and the mother of Leonarda Fisher Laing.

Living in the environment of a Methodist parsonage during her girlhood, and developing her natural ability for public speaking by attending Emerson College of Oratory, in Boston, Mrs. Fisher soon became a prominent leader in the church and particularly in the Woman's Foreign Missionary Society. As Director of the Woman's Foreign Missionary Society's Jubilee Celebration, she very successfully conducted this extensive program through five years, and with her efficient helpers, greatly increased the membership and contributions of that Society.

Mrs. Fisher became Professor of Comparative Religions and History of Missions in the University of Southern California in 1921, and had continued in this position until the time of her illness in November. Many knew her for her brilliant mind and because of her platform ability, but her chief attainment was the true mother-heart. The Southern California Conference, the University of Southern California, the city of Los Angeles, the entire Southwest, and all of Methodism will miss her.

Many audiences have been thrilled and inspired by her spiritually magnetic personality, and she was considered by many the most eloquent woman that Methodism has ever been privileged to count as one of its own. Baldwin-Wallace College honored her, and at the same time honored itself, in granting her the honorary degree of Doctor of Letters. This was in recognition of the ability which was hers as a writer, she being the author of three books published by the Methodist Book Concern. A tribute by the Southern California Methodist Ministers Association says, "Her world-wide travel brought her into vital touch with missionaries and churches in Japan, China, India, and many other countries; and we are glad that they were privileged to share with us in the benediction of this splendid woman, and to feel the warmth of her Christian eloquence".

Surely we have been blessed and are the better because Lena Leonard Fisher lived and served!

BRUCE R. BAXTER.

MRS. EMIL KLAWITER

Lydia Anna Klawiter, nee George, was born in Eldorado, Wisconsin, May 21, 1864 in a home of devoted Christian parents. A wealth of outstanding religious experiences had left indelible impressions in the life of every member of the family. In such an environment she consecrated her being at an early date to her Saviour Jesus Christ. On December 10, 1891 she was united in marriage to Emil Klawiter. As the wife of a Methodist minister she became a source of power in every congregation and the halo of her sweet influence lingered everywhere long after she had left the place. She was an ideal minister's wife and her husband's helpmeet in the best sense of the word. She shared his triumphs, but also helped him to bear his burdens with a smile. The spirit of her divine Master pervaded her life and found expression in many forms and ways.

For sixteen years she labored together with her husband within the bounds of the Chicago German Conference, serving a number of charges in the state of Wisconsin. In 1917 they were transferred to the California German Conference. Here they worked together in Santa Cruz, Los Angeles, Hollywood, Stockton, Oakland and, after the merger with Southern Conference, in Fresno. All these years were spent in the pastorate, but during five of these years they also had charge of the Pacific Old Peoples' Home in conjunction with pastoral oversight in Hollywood.

Last fall they retired from active service, having reached the age limit. They lived in Sierra Madre, but she had her membership in the Emmanuel (German) church in Pasadena. Here she endeared herself to everybody. Her end came suddenly without warning on February 21, after an illness of only a few moments. She leaves her husband, three sons and two grandchildren. Her body was laid to rest at the Forest Lawn Cemetery in Glendale.

F.W.ELGER.

MISS ADELAIDE APPLGATE

Deaconess

Miss Adelaide Applegate was graduated from the San Francisco Training School in 1901, and entered upon the work of a Deaconess.

After working in Salt Lake City, Utah, she came to the Los Angeles Home in 1913. She spent a few months in the Methodist Mission here, then went to Santa Barbara, and later to San Diego as a Parish Worker. Then she took three years Leave of Absence from any position, and finally asked for retirement.

After retirement she lived at Goshen, Ohio, her former home, and amongst relatives and friends until the call came to her to go to her heavenly home on Dec. 29, 1929.

She was laid to rest under the whispering trees in the family burial lot.

MRS. F. M. CHAMBERS.

MISS NELLIE L. SANBORN

Deaconess

Miss Nellie L. Sanborn was born in Lyons, Iowa, April 11th, 1860. After graduating from high school she taught for more than ten years in her home town of Lyons. From there she went to Des Moines, Iowa, and taught in the public schools for several years. After much prayer, she was led to give up her school and go into the Deaconess work. She took her training in the Lucy Webb Hays National Training School in Washington, D. C. She graduated and received her diploma from there May 29th, 1900. After her graduation she took up work in Des Moines, Iowa. While there she went abroad, visiting the Holy Land, Holland, Switzerland and a number of other places.

On her return she was appointed to Los Angeles, California, where she worked in the first Deaconess Home, and helped in the establishment of the First Methodist Episcopal hospital. Later she was appointed Field Deaconess, helping the ministers on their charges and speaking in many, many churches in the interests of the Deaconess work all over the Southern California Conference.

About twenty years ago the Board of the Woman's Home Missionary Society established an Emigrant Home at the harbor at San Pedro, and Miss Sanborn was put in charge there, where she labored faithfully for fourteen years, meeting all boats, "rain or shine", any time of day or night;—caring for the strangers, visiting the sick, and holding meetings for the "Sailor Boys".

Six years ago she retired and came to Pasadena and built a beautiful cottage on Glen Ave. where she and her only brother, W. E. Sanborn, lived together.

She united with the Lincoln Ave. Church and was a very faithful worker in the missionary societies and all activities of the church. Her whole life was as "Ointment poured forth."

Her Christian life was truly like that of the "woman with the Alabaster Box", for all things she did were in the name, and for the sake, of her Beloved Master, and will be a "Memorial of her".

On Easter Sunday she was at church and addressed the Sunday School, in the afternoon took flowers to a shut-in, and at the close of a perfect Easter she was called to her reward, April 20th, 1930.

Funeral services were held in the "Little Church of the Flowers" in beautiful Forest Lawn Cemetery at Glendale, conducted by C. V. Cowan (at her request), assisted by Clyde M. Crist and C. H. M. Sutherland.

She was laid to rest amid banks of beautiful flowers, and the services were attended by a large concourse of friends from all over Southern California.

MRS. C. V. COWAN.

RULES FOR EXAMINATIONS

1. Examinations in the Conference Courses of Study will be held the Tuesday preceding the opening of the Conference and at the seat of the Conference, and that afternoon at 4 o'clock the Board of Examiners will hold its annual meeting.

3. All candidates holding a bachelor degree from an accredited college or university shall be exempt from examination in all studies not biblical and theological, and all graduates from accredited theological seminaries shall be exempt from examination in theological and biblical studies. This exemption shall not, however, exclude examination on the Discipline. All candidates whether excused from other examination or not must take examination in this study. (See Discipline, par. 618, Sec. 4.) Certificates of such work must be sent the Registrar not later than Sept. 1st.

4. A syllabus of each book in the "Collateral Reading and Study" shall be presented to the respective examiner, but this rule shall not apply to the College and Seminary graduates excused from examination in the courses of study. But these latter must present to the Registrar a certificate giving the grade of each study for work done in college or seminary.

6. Sermons must be typewritten and sent to C. O. Kimball not later than Sept. 1st and should contain from 2000 to 3000 words. The paper used should be letter-size and should be folded, not rolled, when sent. Deduction will be made when the spelling, grammar or general execution is faulty.

7. A pre-requisite to being admitted to full membership in this conference shall be a Bachelor's Degree from an approved college or university and graduation from one of our theological seminaries or its equivalent from one of our schools duly recognized by the University Senate. Exceptions for special reasons may be allowed under this rule when endorsed by a two-thirds vote of the conference.

Henceforth the educational requirement for admission on trial into this conference shall be Senior standing in any of our accredited colleges and universities, this requirement being excepted in special cases by a two-thirds vote of the Board of Examiners and of the Conference; and in the case of the Mexican and other Latin American brethren in addition to the new and exacting courses of study in the vernacular, the candidate shall be expected to have completed, before admission into full membership in the Conference, a High School course in English or its equivalent in the vernacular, or three years of training in one of our training schools or universities.

9. The examiners and the Registrar will be glad to communicate with the under-graduates regarding studies. Enclose stamps for reply. The addresses of the examiners will be found in the List of Appointments.

Elan Waite of San Diego on How the Pastor can help the Brotherhood.

Mr. Ballinger turns the meeting back to President Powell, who in turn made a very interesting address, and then presented Dr. R. J. Taylor, who made a fine talk on his work among the students as the representative of our Church at the University of California at Westwood and the Junior College at Vermont Avenue.

President Powell gave an illuminated report of the work of the Brotherhood during the year past, and after singing, the meeting adjourned at 5:30 P.M.

The evening session convened while at the banquet, and Chairman Jenkins assumed the chair, and presented Ralph Hess of Arizona, who led the delegates in some good old-fashioned community songs, then called on Mr. Anderson to present the first showing of a movie talking picture to be used as the means of religious work among the churches, which was enjoyed by all. After Mr. Hess sang a solo, the Resolution Committee made its report, which was adopted. The resolutions adopted are as follows:

No. 1—Presented by President Powell:

Be It Resolved: That we approve and recommend to the voters at the November 4th election the support of Amendment No. 6 to the Constitution, to propose to the People of California that there be added to Article Thirteen thereof a section numbered 15/8 which reads: "Any Hospital or Sanatorium, charitable or otherwise, within the State of California, not organized or conducted for private profit, shall take and hold exempt from taxation, its properties and income, when such property and income are used exclusively for hospitals and sanatorium purposes. The Legislature shall prescribe the method of determining from time to time the tax exempt status of all hospitals and sanatoriums.

No. 2—Whereas the M. E. Church has always been a staunch supporter of Prohibition, and Law Enforcement, including the Wright Act, and the Courts of the U. S.

Therefore, we the Conference Brotherhood of the Southern California Annual Conference, pledge our support to all laws and agencies that shall uphold and support these movements.

No. 3—Whereas the next General Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church will be held in 1932, and

Whereas, Long Beach with its new auditorium and ample hotel accommodations will be able to adequately care for this gathering,

Therefore, We, the Conference Brotherhood of the Annual Conference of the Methodist Church of Southern California, extend to our Book Committee an urgent invitation to hold the next General Conference in Long Beach, Cal.

No. 4—Submitted by M. J. Bicknell:

Inasmuch as the fiscal year of our Southern California Annual Conference ends this year in June, a time of the year when many of our pastors have not taken their annual vacations, we, the members of the Conference Brotherhood of the Southern California Annual Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church, do hereby pledge ourselves to do all that we can to sustain the program of our respective churches during the vacation period, making possible a vacation for every pastor who may be moved to a new charge through this Conference session;

We further pledge ourselves to ask the aid of all members of our churches in carrying out proper financial support during the Summer season.

No. 5—Submitted by J. W. Sherwood:

We are glad that the Church Brotherhood movement is growing rapidly in many other Evangelical Denominations, and believe a spirit of brotherly love, unity and close co-operation should prevail in our efforts to secure civic righteousness in State and Municipal Government;

We therefore extend them our good wishes and believe that the Federated Church Brotherhood is a practical and commendable method of contact for the purpose of securing this end.

The Nominating Committee then reported the following officers selected for the coming year, which was unanimously adopted:

President, Charles F. Reiche, of Los Angeles.

Secretary, Clark Standiford, of Porterville.

Treasurer, W. R. Stewart, of Mesa, Arizona.

Total number of delegates present, 155.

Convention adjourned at 7:45 P.M.

Your committee, embarrassed by the thought that of these departed ones, so few were known to them personally do, hereby resolve that we put forth a strenuous effort this coming year to become better acquainted with the lives and duties of one another. The names of those who have entered into the life beyond are: Mrs. B. J. Jordan, Mrs. J. R. Andrews, Mrs. Don W. Nichols, Mrs. John F. Fisher and Mrs. Emil Klawiter.

We are especially honored in having known, and had as one among us, our own Mrs. Lena Leonard Fisher and realize the help and influence that comes from such a life for she inspired all with whom she came in contact to a deeper interest in the needs of the women of the world.

Resolved that these resolutions be made a part of the official record and that a copy of that portion relating to our departed members be sent to the bereaved families.

Respectfully submitted,

Mrs. C. E. Leitzell.

Mrs. L. O. Bostwick.

Mrs. E. D. Goddell.

Mrs. W. C. Loomis gave a prayer followed by a moment of silence in memory of the departed.

Greetings were sent to Mrs. Charles Wesley Burns, wife of the presiding Bishop, and also messages of sympathy to those who are sick and in sorrow.

The District Superintendents' wives were introduced and they, in turn, introduced the brides from their respective districts.

Mrs. Richard N. Merrill, the charming Conference hostess, with her associates, Mrs. Kemp Winkler and Mrs. Kenneth Danskin, arranged a most pleasing program. Mrs. Ruth Foster Herman, accompanied by Mrs. Lucy Bayles, gave a group of vocal solos. Mrs. O. G. Hinshaw gave two readings. Mrs. Dorothy Stearns Mayer closed the program with a group of Spanish songs.

The new officers were introduced and the meeting adjourned to the patio where delicious refreshments were served.

MRS. GLENN RANDALL PHILLIPS.

MINISTERS' WIVES ASSOCIATION

On June 27, 1930, a most delightful meeting of the Ministers' Wives Association of the Southern California Conference was held in the spacious Y.W.C.A. of Long Beach, California. Mrs. E. E. Marshall, President, capably presided over the meeting, which was opened with devotions by Mrs. E. F. Gates, taking part of the thirty-fourth Psalm for her theme. The regular business meeting followed with the reading of the minutes, and the treasurer reported $13.25 balance on hand.

A motion was made and carried that the ministers' wives should hold a banquet during next Conference session. The Woman's Aid Society of the First Methodist Church of Long Beach graciously offered their assistance. The women expressed unanimous approval of the plan to meet together during executive sessions of the Conference.

Mrs. George B. Cliff, chairman of the nominating committee, made the following report:

For President, Mrs. R. W. Lee; Vice President, Mrs. Frank Linder; Secretary, Mrs. J. N. Ashley; Treasurer, Mrs. Kemp J. Winkler.

Committee on Resolutions: Mrs. H. A. Ingham, Mrs. R. K. Swenerton, and Mrs. J. Maxwell Chamberlin.

Committee on Nominations: Mrs. H. C. Slater, Mrs. W. B. Cole, and Mrs. Charles A. Kent.

Committee on Place of Meeting and Program: Mrs. Richard N. Merrill, Mrs. H. I. Rasmus, Jr., and Mrs. W. C. Buckner.

Mrs. C. E. Leitzell read the following report of the Resolutions Committee, which on her motion, was unanimously adopted:

"Your committee on resolutions present the following report:

Resolved, that we express thanksgiving to our Heavenly Father for the blessed privilege of helping carry forward His work, however humbly, during the past year.

We voice our appreciation and gratitude to our hostess, Mrs. Richard N. Merrill, and her associates, Mesdames Kamp Winkler and K. L. Danskin, who have made our stay in this city most delightful and profitable, and to all those who have contributed to the joy of this afternoon's entertainment we give grateful thanks.

While death has been an unwelcome visitor in some of our parsonage homes yet we know that those bereft realize the comforting presence of the Holy Spirit. May the fragrance of their lives live on to bless all who knew them.

"The crop of resolutions never fails in these days. They are turned out of meetings in quantity production like Ford machines from the factory. They give a fine thrill especially to the mover and seconder and the committee which has labored to bring them forth. They create the illusion of doing business in big waters."

Aid for the Handicapped

Not with alms that humiliate, but with jobs that ennoble.

Goodwill employs daily more than 550 workers, most of whom are crippled, aged or otherwise incapacitated for work in normal industry.

These handicapped folk receive, not only work, with wages, but uplifting religious and educational training.

This worthwhile service to the needy is made possible by the discards sent through the medium of the Goodwill bag.

"In view of the action of the Book Committee, at its spring meeting in 1931, recommending that after the General Conference of 1932 the Advocates be published in not more than three places, the Southern California Conference expresses its earnest opinion and desire that the publication of The Christian Advocate in the San Francisco Area be continued.

The movements of population are toward the Pacific Coast; the Church on the Coast faces the Orient in an unique and intimate way; our distances are so great and our problems so distinctive that it is impossible to combine effectively with any other area. The Advocate is needed to bind the different portions of the San Francisco Area together and is an unique and almost indispensable means of publicity and intercommunication in this area.

We believe that to continue the publication of the California Edition is very vitally necessary to the work of Methodism in this far Western country."

The Class for admission into Full Membership, consisting of Harold E. Carlson, Nicolas Davila, Stanley R. Hopper and David C. Shipley were addressed by the Bishop following which he asked them the required Disciplinary Questions and the Conference stood as a token of their reception.

The Bishop spoke in part as follows:

"Before these men can be received, they must answer certain questions.

"If any of them has a reservation, or does not intend to answer these questions sincerely, he does not belong here. I do not mean that we will all agree in our interpretation, but it is expected that in substance we will agree.

"I am thinking of that passage in 2 Timothy 2:15, where the Apostle advises the young man to show himself approved unto God, a workman that needeth not to be ashamed.

"The ministry really implies the word 'study.' I am not referring to the study of books, you have already done that, but to study the whole business of the ministry and the whole idea of ministerial life.

"I want to say with all my soul that if any man should study his profession it is the Christian minister. Every man ought to be asking himself what is to be the ministry—what is to be my ministry? What should I do that I am not accomplishing for Jesus Christ?

"First, study to show thyself a worker. The ministry ought to be the job of a working man. I like that word 'working man.' It is an honorable word. It was made honorable by the fact that Our Lord Himself was a carpenter.

"If any man ought to be a worker, using his time, his talents and his energy, that man is the one whose business is to be a cure of souls.

"Every preacher ought to be a workman, a master workman.

"No man has a right to come to the pulpit unprepared. But in that preparation there ought to be some leeway for the work of the Holy Spirit. If a man has a thing written down so that the Holy Spirit hasn't a chance to say a thing between the sentences, he isn't prepared, and he is going to lose some of the best things he might ever say.

"Every man is to be a worker, a workman and a master workman, as far as possible, but the greatest work of master is self mastery.

"Then he is to be the kind of workman who is to be approved on high. Would I suggest for a moment that you didn't have any regard for the approval of your brethren? Certainly not. We don't want to depend on flattery, but we need honest approval from the people, and especially from the discerning.

"The man is a total failure, no matter how much applause or popularity he may have, but he is a total failure if God does not approve his ministry.

"Look to God for approval and in order to have God's approval, look to Him for guidance."

R. A. Blume, the Conference Soloist, rendered a selection.

The Conference stood as the sign of its reception of the new class and the service closed with prayer by Bishop Charles Bayard Mitchell, and a verse of "Blest Be the Tie that Binds."

Following the announcements of such appointment, a reporter or reporters of one or more Los Angeles papers telephoned to various officials of the Santa Barbara church asking them if they proposed to receive "that pacifist Ryland as a pastor" thus making it (in the mind of Dr. Ryland) impossible to work in that appointment. He therefore surrendered his credentials and at the session of 1918 withdrew.

The special committee on Group Insurance desires to make the following recommendations:

1. That this Conference continue with the plan of Group Insurance now in force, and that we urge every man to remain in the group for the benefit of all.

2. That the rate be $21.72 (as fixed by the Insurance Company) BUT that the men and churches are to pay $20.00 per year of this amount, and

3. That the balance of $1.72 per man be paid out of the dividend accruing to the Conference under this plan.

4. That we ask the Commission on Finance to send out to the churches a statement of the share of the church on the basis of $12.80 per year, the preacher paying $7.20, the clear understanding be given that this matter is purely voluntary with the church, and that this is not an "apportionment." Thus we comply with the law and enable the Conference to continue with the plan.

5. That we call the attention of the Conference to the fact that

(a) If any of the present members now in the Group Insurance should drop out they will have to take an examination in order to get back in (the fee for such examination being $1.00); but once in, neither age nor retirement will affect your insurance if your premium is paid annually.

(b) Members of the Conference who have had opportunity previously to enter the Group Insurance Plan but have not done so, will have to take examination and pay the $1.00 fee to now enter the Plan.

6. That new entrants, however, who have never had opportunity previously to join our Group Insurance can come in without examination and without the extra fee.

7. That we assure the Conference that it is the expectation of your committee, though not the promise, that in time the present rate should be reduced as the dividends come back to cut the net cost.

BOUNDARIES AND MERGING: The Secretary read the following communications from the California Conference and from our representatives in the recent Area meeting:

"At the recent session of the California Conference the following resolution was passed:

"That the Conference provide a Commission of Nine, three Superintendents, three pastors, and three laymen, to meet with a like Commission from the Southern California Conference to consider the entire question of change of boundary, mutual aid and/or unification of the two Conferences. Further, that if the Southern California Conference sees best to request of the General Conference an Enabling Act making possible the union of the two Conferences during the next quadrennium if they shall so decide, such action will meet with our hearty approval and cooperation: provided that five of the ministerial members of said Commission shall be designated as members of a Joint Commission on Boundaries for the two Conferences."

W. P. RANKIN, Secretary,
California Conference.

"At a meeting held in Sacramento, California, April 23, 1931, proposals were made concerning the relationship of the two English-speaking Conferences in the State of California. One item of this was concerning a change of boundaries and another had to do with consideration of a possible merger of the California and Southern California Conferences.

"This meeting at Sacramento was simply a conversation regarding items involved in the relationship of these two Conferences. Whatever may be done in the future will require considerable survey and study. Your Committee from the Southern California Conference suggests the appointment of a commission of nine—three Superintendents, three Pastors and three Laymen for a further survey and consideration of the proposals involved."

Reports

(a) District Superintendents

ARIZONA DISTRICT

The slump in the copper market has settled with such force on our "Baby State" that its untoward effect has been felt, as The Arizona Republic recently stated, by every merchant; every laborer; every homeowner throughout the entire State. Amidst the consequent clouds and discouragements due to such conditions the people called Methodists have not lost heart, nor have the ministers of the District ceased to proclaim the message of a positive Gospel and to annunciate the glorious hope of a final triumph over every evil and adverse experience of life. The laymen have manifested a like spirit in the face of grave difficulties and while there has been no possibility of financial advance for the next year there has been a determined purpose to hold to present standards. While our churches cannot be characterized as "The Gold Spots" of Arizona, they can truthfully be called the bright spots of the community life throughout the State.

Limited time prevents the mentioning of the many fine achievements of the personnel of the District but we cannot refrain from noting some important changes that have taken place.

Death has invaded our ranks and David Roberts, a beloved retired member of this Conference, passed triumphantly into the celestial abode of the redeemed. Sickness laid violent hands on Robert Coyne and he was compelled to give up his work at Globe some months ago. He is hoping to resume his labors with the beginning of the new year. Gordon C. Chapman, one of our California boys, has returned from Garrett and taken up the pastorate laid down by Bro. Coyne. Early in the Conference year, with the consent of Bishop Burns, Stanley S. McKee was changed from Clarkdale and appointed Assistant pastor at Tucson.

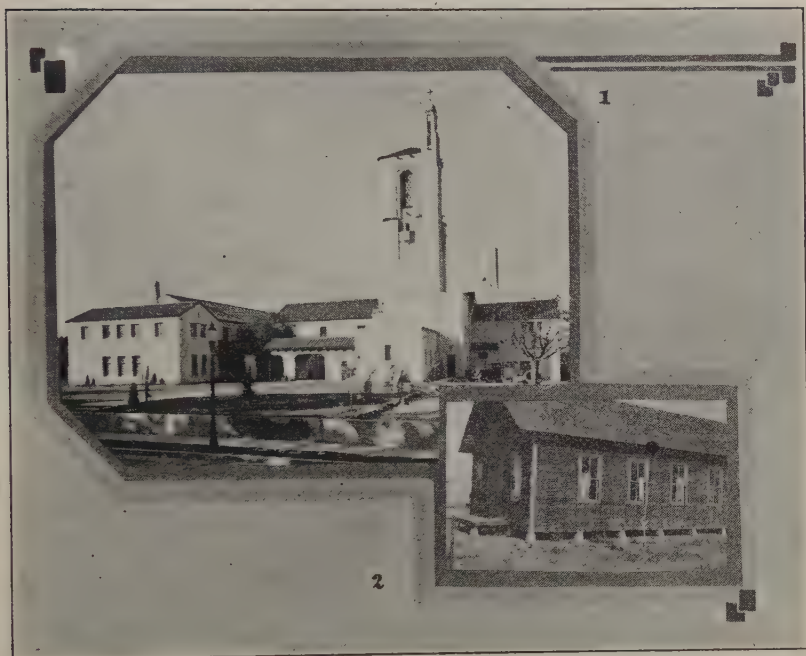

Mrs. S. J. Lindsay; Mrs. Stanley S. McKee and Mrs. Edwin S. Stricker have been seriously ill but in the good Providence of God they are with us today, excepting Mrs. Stricker, who is convalescing in her old home in Detroit, Michigan.

The parsonage at Yuma has been greatly enlivened by the arrival of a sweet little baby girl. The illumined countenance of Herbert Brooke publishes that event.

Dr. Walter Torbet, Western Representative of the Board of Home Missions and Church Extension, has given the District most valuable service. His management of the financial campaign at Tucson was an outstanding success. With untiring vigilance he has gone, with the District Superintendent, over the State and his plans are to come back in the early fall and help to save two extremely serious situations—Globe and Williams.

A new wing has been added to the Good Samaritan Hospital in Phoenix and it is now prepared to take care of its ever-increasing business. The work of the hospital will be presented by the manager, Mr. J. O. Sexson, later in the session.

The District Meeting, this year, was most helpful. All the pastors, excepting two, were present. One was detained by illness and the other by snow drifts. The two days' program was planned and carried out with the idea of cultivating a Divine passion for the winning of men to Christ.

1. Tucson.

2. Higley.

We have dedicated two churches this year and on both occasions Bishop Burns officiated. The little desert Church at Higley was dedicated May 2nd, free of debt and without a collection. Not a large enterprise but one that represents as high a type of Christian heroism and sacrifice as can be found anywhere in America. Bishop Burns preached an inspiring sermon to a fine congregation, many of whom are thanking God for a Bishop who is willing to taste with them some of the desert life in the interests of the Kingdom. Every pastor of the Salt River Valley was present, except, one, and showed his appreciation of the efforts of this loyal band by a word of congratulation.

Our second dedication was that of First Church, Tucson, on May 17th. This sanctuary is a gem of beauty and is a decided credit to the Methodism of the West. The Hedrick Memorial Chapel is so fragrant with sacred memories as to inspire a spirit of worship the moment one crosses its threshold. The chimes that are being placed in the stately tower of this church are also a memorial to Mrs. Hedrick as a loving gift from her devoted husband, Senator Elias Hedrick. After a masterful sermon by Bishop Burns, Dr. Torbet took charge of the collection; forty thousand dollars was quickly subscribed, which, with the grant of ten thousand dollars designated gifts by the Board of Home Missions, covers the entire indebtedness.

The Young Peoples' Institute, despite the hard times, was a decided success. The staff of instructors was composed of the pastors of the District assisted by Royal Reisner, Conference Director Epworth League and Young People's Work, and Richard N. Merrill, pastor First Church Long Beach, "Guest Preacher," whose warm hearted sermons, contacts and counsel with both pastors and young people gained him by the love and admiration of the entire group. The Institute was held at Granite Dells, five miles from Prescott, one of Arizona's superb beauty spots. Action was taken toward making this the permanent meeting place of the Institute, by securing a long time lease on the property upon which we may erect our buildings.

We are glad to report another progressive step that has been taken. For many years we have been making use of what the best lawyers in the State and elsewhere, declare to be a most pernicious law whereby individual pastors or District Superintendent may hold title to our property as a Corporation Sole. Legal steps have been taken and the matter is almost if not entirely completed, by which all of our church property will be conveyed, in trust, to the constituted Board of Trustees of the local church.

In practically every charge a sane and wholesome evangelistic endeavor, consisting of special meetings and personal visitation has been promoted with gratifying results. Reports have been so tardy in reaching me that I cannot make a definite statement regarding our increase in membership. That we have had a healthy increase there is no doubt but there has been such an exodus on account of unemployment that, I fear, it will seriously affect our net increase. Tucson and Williams are the banner churches in accessions.

The Brotherhoods of the District are steadily keeping step to their marching orders. Mr. E. Dow Bancroft, that devoted laymen, covered the great area of the District from Yuma to Douglas, and from Douglas to Winslow and back to Phoenix, speaking to large dinner meetings of men. Dr. Bert Smith says—"the best organized Brotherhood in our connection".

Our churches are placing major emphasis on Religious Education and the latest methods are in operation in Church Schools and Epworth Leagues in spite of limited equipment in many places. Ajo leads in statistics with a gain in Church School enrollment of almost 100 per cent.

We appeal to this Conference to keep in mind that this inland empire, that we call Arizona, is one of the greatest opportunities of the Church to mould and fashion a State in the making. One year and nine months have taught me that which I did not know before, namely that the Commonwealth of Arizona is a veritable missionary field and in a sense it must ever be so because of the fluctuating conditions connected with the mining camps. Methodism has always been looked upon as being the foremost denomination in her efforts to capture new territory for our Lord. This cannot be said of our great connection as regards this land of mystery and ancient lore. Here is how some of our sister Communions see Arizona. Our Presbyterian brethren put into Arizona $90,000 a year in ministerial support; The Northern Baptist $25,000; the Methodist Church South, $20,000; the Southern Baptist, $10,000 and the Methodist Episcopal, $2,700. During my term on this District the ministers have offered no word of complaint about their meager support, so what I am saying is not to be charged up to this loyal body of preachers and their wives. I am assuming the responsibility of saying that in view of the opportunity afforded and the character of the men at work in the field the missionary support is a reproach to our great Church. As a District of the Southern California Conference, Arizona is receiving about one-third of the missionary support that she received as a Mission Conference. We are appealing for legislation that will permit the Board of Home Missions and Church Extension Society, to cut red tape and break precedents to enable her to give Arizona a fair chance to do that which any man who knows the field ought to be done. This Conference ought to lend a hand to this child of ours. First Church, Long Beach, in which we are being so loyally entertained at this time, has through its pastor, for two years been giving us financial assistance, which this year saved us from the humiliating shame and sorrow of having to close two churches.

The depression is upon us. Unemployment is in the ascendancy. Many of our stalwart officials and best supporters are working but three and four days a week. Men are constantly being turned off but we will not be discouraged. Rather will we thank God and take courage and go out into the new year with a holy and irrevocable determination that by the grace of God we shall overcome to His Glory and the exaltation of the Lord Christ.

WILL A. BETTS.

FRESNO DISTRICT

This report at the end of my first year on the Fresno district is a partial record of perhaps the most difficult year in its history. It has been a hard year but it has also been a good year.

Soon after conference, Brother J. T. Carson, supply pastor at Alpaugh, was called home to his reward. Sorrow and disappointment came to Brother and Sister Bennett of Livingston when the little one who came to them was not permitted to tarry. For the past few weeks Clyde McFarland, son of Brother and Sister Harry McFarland of Dinuba, has been at the point of death, but at latest report is thought to be out of danger.

The Fresno district, except for the Owen's River Valley, is a geographical unit. This is a source of strength and weakness. Its strength is that it makes possible a unified district program and builds up a strong and warm fellowship. Around the monthly district meetings it has been possible to build a district program during the past year. Real gains have been registered by approaching our problems together and at the same time. The weakness of our geographical location is that we are cut off from the rest of the conference and tend to become isolated, preventing that free and natural intercourse with the rest of the conference so essential to healthy life and broad outlook.

We have been forced throughout the year to face the hard and grueling facts of the economic depression, but we try not to talk too much about them. It would not be a fair report of the district to ignore these unfavorable economic conditions. Many statistical items will naturally register a loss. In World Service giving, the totals are approximately $16,000 this year, as against $13,480 for last year. Taking into account the nine-months year, we are just about maintaining the last year's level, which under the circumstances is a real victory.

The Campaign of Appreciation has been about 85 per cent subscribed. Knowing the sacrifices that have been made by pastors and laymen, and particularly the pastors, we are proud of this record and fully expect to reach our goal 100 per cent when all the churches have completed their campaigns.

Considering these records in World Service and the Campaign of Appreciation, it is with real distress that I have received the reports showing a large number of men coming to conference with salaries far in arrears. It is with pardonable pride, however, that we have seen these men willing to suffer loss themselves that the missionaries and the old preachers might be cared for. I will not dwell upon this for I know these men and I know they would resent my indulging in any heroics on their behalf. They are a happy and contented group of men who have learned to walk through hardship with their people, teaching the world that life is more than meat and drink. With Paul they can say, "I have learned in whatsoever state I am, therewith to be content. I know both how to be abased and I know how to abound—both to be full and to be hungry."

The two-day conventions on "The World Meaning of Christianity" put on by the Board of Foreign Missions at Fresno and Bakersfield in January, were outstanding events of the year. Record attendance was attained. Every preacher on the district attended one of these conventions. Careful preparation brought out large groups of laymen. The program was of such superior quality as to require a great spiritual uplift. One outcome of these conventions is the adoption of a district parish abroad. A district on the mission field will be apportioned out of the churches so that every charge will have a specific piece of work to support. This is an attempt on our part to interpret the slogan of Dr. John R. Mott to a gathering of representatives of all the mission boards of England, when he said, "We must transform our budgets into projects. There is nothing to fire the hearts of a would-be giver in a list of figures or in the thought that he is helping to keep a cause from dying; a project, a plan for advance, is what is needed." We hope in this way to put flesh and blood into the term "World Service".

A three-days' conference on Rural Problems, under the leadership of Dr. Mark Dawber of the Board of Home Missions, held at Kingsburg in February, has set before us definite objectives in the way of co-operation, experimentation in the use of the larger parish plan, correlation of our work with other denominations. A specific project growing out of this conference is a district survey to be carried out by sub-district groups in an attempt to avoid over-lapping in certain fields and neglect in others, working toward a wiser use of missionary money. Two specific projects are now before us, illustrating our line of procedure. One of these is the Owen's River Valley.

A meeting of representatives of the various religious bodies of the Valley was held recently at Independence, when there were also present a synodal representative of the Presbyterian Church, the Bishop of the Protestant Episcopal Church and the Superintendent of the Fresno District of the Methodist Church. At this meeting an organization was perfected for the purpose, first, of presenting a united front on the part of the religious and fraternal bodies of the Valley in their dealings with the water board of the City of Los Angeles regarding property, and secondly, of providing for a means of co-operation in meeting the religious needs of the Valley in the future without competition and over-lapping. At present the three major religious bodies of the Valley are laying out increasing sums of missionary money to care for a decreasing constituency. Plans are already about perfected for the co-operation of the Episcopal Church and the Methodist Church at Lone Pine.

In this connection it should be said concerning the situation in Owen's River Valley, that the churches are carrying on and going ahead in spite of the uncertainty that prevails. The courage and optimism of these people is amazing. Most of the churches have closed the year with all claims met in full and some with cash balances to carry over. In fact the only church on the Fresno district that has had the courage to vote an increase in salary for the coming year is the church at Lone Pine! There is great uncertainty in the future, and only time can tell what the final outcome will be.

The other specific project illustrating the evils of over-lapping, is the situation at Dinuba. Here is a town of 2700 population in which there are 22 different religious organizations; two of these are Methodist Churches. There is in the town one church building large enough to contain the entire population,—men, women and children, at one time. We went into Dinuba after the Methodist Church South and other denominations were well established. There was a time when we would have said that it is inexpedient to send in young men supported by missionary money to compete with sister denominations in such a situation. I have myself come to the place where I feel that it is positively sinful and contrary to the will of God! After careful counsel with Bishop Burns and representatives of the Board of Home Missions, we have sold the property to the Baptist Church—thereby preventing the erection of another church building in the town, to replace the one destroyed by fire—and have transferred the membership to the Methodist Church South. Instead of two small struggling churches, burdened with debt, we will have one strong church to be known as the First Methodist Church of Dinuba.

Porterville.

BUILDINGS AND IMPROVEMENTS: A splendid new educational plant has been erected at Porterville at a total cost of $30,000. The building was dedicated on June 7 by Bishop Burns. It will provide adequate facilities for a fully departmentalized school of 800 pupils and for a program of social and recreational activities. The worship unit has undergone extensive alterations and when completed will be in architectural harmony with the new building. The two units will provide one of the best working plants in the Valley. More than $10,000 was paid in cash during the year on this building project and the balance provided for in subscriptions with a wide margin for safety. The church reports all obligations paid in full for the year with a 20 per cent increase in giving to World Service. To the credit of this church be it said, they have provided themselves with a fine plant but not at the expense of the missionary program of the church.

At Merced, new pews, redecorating and other alterations have transformed the appearance of the auditorium. Independence and Lone Pine churches have also undergone extensive repairs.

Small buildings providing additional facilities for Church School work have been erected at Kingsburg and Corcoran, both entirely paid for when completed.

DEBT PAYING: In spite of adverse financial circumstances, a number of churches have made marked reductions in their indebtedness. Notable among the achievements of the year is First Church, Fresno. With a budget for current expenses totaling $32,897, an increase of $7,000 over the year before, they are reporting all conference, World Service and local expense claims met in full, including a $1,700 safety margin on bonded indebtedness. Mrs. A. V. Lisenby helped to lift the load here by making a notable gift of $7,000 to the debt fund this year, conditional upon the congregation paying the balance due. This gift is to be followed by another of $5,000 next year and another of $3,000 the following year. Through the generosity of this good woman, the faith and loyalty of the congregation, and the leadership of the pastor, the heavy obligation of $17,400 in principal and interest this year will be met, and the light of hope and courage thrown on the pathway of the future. This is indeed a notable achievement.

Delano has an equally commendable achievement in that the indebtedness has been reduced in the past two years from $21,000 to $17,000 and this past year from $17,000 to $13,000. In another year they hope to reduce it to such proportions as will make possible a board loan which will greatly reduce interest rates. Interest and principal payments this year have been a third more than the entire local budget. Others who have made creditable reduction in debts are First Church, Bakersfield, Merced and Sanger. Altogether 16 churches have paid $18,867 on old indebtedness in addition to interest payments, and 19 churches have spent $16,170 on buildings and improvements, or a total of $35,027 on these two items.

At least a word must be here given to Camp Sierra. This district institution is the home of winter and summer institutes which have now become conference institutions. Large numbers of young people gathered here last Christmas time from the entire conference for winter institute. Many families spend their summers here under wholesome surroundings. The Episcopal Church has erected a chapel on the grounds and holds its annual convention here. A summer school of music is being proposed, running for six weeks during the summer. We anticipate a large attendance at the summer institute to be held August 8 to 15.

Reports on the Woman's Home and Foreign Missionaries Societies show a slight increase in giving over last year. The Women's Aid Societies have done splendid service in work of visitation as well as being a tower of strength financially. In many cases they have thrown their entire financial resources into the local budget in order to stabilize and maintain the central organization of the church. The success of the Federated Women's Aid Society in their quarterly district meetings is perhaps unique in the conference. The attendance on these meetings has varied from 250 to 300 and enthusiasm has run high.

While there has been no concerted evangelistic program, many churches have had successful meetings or visitation campaigns. I have myself conducted three series of evangelistic meetings in the small churches where evangelists are not always willing to go. We look forward to making this the major emphasis for the coming year. It is our conviction that the time is ripe for it. This is Methodism's sole reason for her existence as a separate denomination. I am perfectly willing to go on record as maintaining that the test of the success of my personal leadership is the degree of success with which I may be able to lead the ministers of the district out into a sane but passionate campaign for the winning of boys and girls, men and women for Christ. If we can place this emphasis at the center of our church school program, our summer and winter institutes, as well as our adult program, God will again honor Methodism with victories that shall fire us with a contagious enthusiasm for the bringing of the Kingdom of God on earth.

LEONARD OECHSLI.

LONG BEACH DISTRICT

The one great sorrow of the Long Beach District this year was the passing of Mrs. Waldo S. Reinoehl, wife of our pastor at Paso Robles, and daughter of Brother and Sister Samuel Hughes. This young mistress of the parsonage was the ideal preacher's wife but she served beyond her strength. Old and young alike enjoyed the radiance of her sunshine experience and her like will not soon be seen again.

Lincoln A. Ferris, the prince of preachers and brother beloved, will lay down the weapons of active Christian Warfare after thirty-seven years in the front ranks. Words fail to chronicle the records of his deeds. Foremost among the preachers of America he has held a place of continued influence, and multitudes in every walk of life live better lives because of him. The Santa Barbara Church has had the benediction of his closing pastorate. Many have been added to its membership under his labors, and the debt reduced from $110,000 to $80,000. It is hoped that after a rest he may be among us as a preacher at large, showing the rest of us how to preach.

During the year three of our retired men, living in the District, have been called home, E. W. Pasko, Wm. F. Lusk and Burton Hamlin.

Last year I was compelled to report an absolute dearth of new babies in the parsonage homes. This year shows marked improvement with six additions. I have the pleasure of reporting an increase of one each as follows: Abbe's at Sherman Oaks; Trotter's at Hollywood; Lomax' at Arroyo Grande; Huebner's at Lynwood; Gilbert's at South Gate; and a young Conference Evangelist at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ted Evans.

The three outstanding projects in which the whole District participated were, Broadcasting, Evangelism and the Campaign of Appreciation.

Believing that a program of devotion and inspirational messages broadcast for the benefit of the District and other listeners would offset some of the religious freaks now on the air, the Superintendent arranged for a weekly broadcast each Sunday morning from 8:30 to 9:00, asking the various churches of the District to provide the programs. This was continued for one year and was terminated only because of the conviction that in the stress of financial depression the money might better be used on some other cause. The station staff with their usual methods of checking the number of listeners gave as their estimate that he had for each broadcast an audience of at least 50,000. If this estimate is true, then 2,600,000 listened to our programs.

Every church of the District participated in the Campaign of Personal Visitation Evangelism with the result that up to and including Easter day 2705 persons had been received into full membership and 500 into Preparatory membership. There will be a net increase in the full members of the district of more than 1300. A discouraging feature of our work is the continual moving of the people from place to place without changing their church affiliations, resulting in large numbers being placed each year on the inactive and non-resident list.

The net increase in full members for the year in the first thirteen churches is as follows:

Huntington Park, 180; Grace, Long Beach, 122; Maywood, 115; San Pedro, First, 78; North Long Beach, 69; Torrance, 63; Sherman Oaks, 62; Lynwood, 58; East Long Beach, 56; First, Long Beach, 47; Wilmington, 44; California Heights, 43; Santa Paula, 40.

The Superintendent of the Long Beach District does not rate the importance of churches by their size and reports the following small churches as having the largest per cent of net increase: California Heights; Grandview, San Pedro; Shaw Mission; N. Los Angeles, and Grace, Inglewood.

As is usually the case, the Long Beach District was the first over the top in the Campaign of Appreciation. Its quota of $64,500 has been pledged in full. Every church, but one, participated in the Campaign.

The pastors' reports indicate a payment of around $65,000 on World Service; $50,000 has been paid on old debts and a like amount in interest on the debts that still remain.

The Women's organizations have continued with their usual degree of devotion and activity.

The Women's Aid Societies nearly all belong to the District Federation, many of them having taken this step during the year. The calls made by the members of this organization total 65,000, and they brightened sick rooms with 12,909 bouquets. They have raised $43,697, and filled 4,530 Good Will Bags.

The Women's Foreign Missionary Society has raised $29,769 and the Women's Home Missionary Society $27,837 cash with $4,978 in supplies.

The work of the Long Beach District Brotherhood has proceeded with persistent growth and some organizations have undertaken definite tasks of exceptional merit.

It will be difficult to find more enthusiastic young people than those of the Long Beach District. The Epworth League is well organized into Sub-Districts and the District Convention recently held at Whittier was of unusual interest. The District Cabinet is emphasizing the spiritual side of their task.

Several helpful meetings of the pastors and their wives have been held during the year, notably the meeting at Santa Monica, which had nearly 100% attendance.

The Harbor Group Missionary Society has continued to function in a helpful manner. Two new churches have been organized. California Heights, Long Beach, was organized during the year and reports a membership of 43. Terminal Island was organized with a membership of 23 and is connected with the San Pedro Larger Parish.

Three young men will be received into the Conference on trial from the Long Beach District—Fletcher Scharer, Clarence E. Miller and Chester Lewis.

The troublesome debt at Roscoe, with the assistance of designated funds from the District, is being reduced. The financial crash has postponed the building of the new church at Venice and a very desirable lot has been secured and the church looks into the future with optimism.

Maywood presents one of the finest opportunities for growth and development in the Conference but it must have help. In the midst of an industrial section with a population of 25,000, an efficient plant must be somehow secured. With an attendance in Sunday School of 450 and a net increase in church membership of 115, makes it worthy of assistance.

Huntington Park had 2180 in Sunday School on Rally Day.

Lennox, Inglewood, has the money pledged and is ready to start on its new Sunday School plant.

San Pedro, First Church continues to minister in a fine way to men of the fleet. The pastor, Fred H. Ross, leaves in a few days for a four-months' Evangelistic Campaign in Australia.

The name of Cahuenga Park Charge has been changed to Sherman Oaks. This church had 80 members at the beginning of the year and has received 80 new members. The financial budget last year was $1100; this year, $2600.

Hynes doubled its World Service giving.

East Long Beach Women's Aid raised $1793.

Shaw Mission, our colored church, has taken on new life, increasing their membership from 30 to 49 and builded a new social hall.

Artesia burned their mortgage June 7 and the church is out of debt. Paso Robles installed and paid for a fine Estey pipe organ at a cost of $800; the original cost of the organ was $7,500.

Belmont Heights has paid $3000 more on its debt.

Chatsworth has a Boys' Club in which there is a Jew, a Catholic, a Buddhist and several varieties of Protestants.

Ocean Park paid $1000 on its mortgage.

North Long Beach subscribed 249% on its Campaign of Appreciation quota.

Seventeen different denominations are represented in the fellowship of Magnolia Park Church.

A high spot in the spiritual life of the year was the ministration of Bishop Burns during Holy Week, at which time he spoke each evening to a large audience made up of the Methodist Churches of Long Beach. During the week he made many extra addresses.

In closing my report I wish to express my appreciation for the hearty co-operation of all the pastors which, as far as I know, has been 100%.

In my administrative work I have been closely associated with R. N. Merrill of this church and his advice from time to time has been very helpful. He has provided funds for needy projects and substituted for the District Superintendent at the Santa Monica District Meeting.

With thanks to the Heavenly Father for a place of continued service I close my second annual report.

W. C. LOOMIS.

LOS ANGELES DISTRICT

There has been no change in the pastoral appointments. At the meeting of the Book Committee held in April, A. P. Shaw was elected Editor of the Southwest Christian Advocate. He has already begun his duties but is present at Conference to give 14th and final report for Wesley Church.

VITAL STATISTICS: There have been no deaths in the parsonage homes. Dr. Guenther, supply associate of South Hollywood, suffered the loss of his wife by death. Also, the mother of C. H. Sundstrom passed away.

We keenly feel the loss of W. W. Sampson and Harry McCombs, two of our most prominent laymen, allied with all of the vital church and civic interests of Los Angeles.

Dean E. A. Healy is recovering nicely from his serious accident of several months ago.

All rejoice that A. Ray Moore is well and strong again.

Mrs. Arthur T. Hobson, Mrs. Carl Seitter, and Mrs. M. W. Beckwith, who were ill, made splendid recoveries.

Barbara Jean Enyeart of the Bethel parsonage was critically ill for over a month.

William McKinley Walker recovered satisfactorily from a surgical operation.

We have suffered the loss of two of our retired brethren: C. B. Allen and F. M. Warrington.

Robert Buffum Robinson, Richard Gordon Eddy, Wilbur Allen Shaw and William Harold Butler came to gladden the hearts of their parents.

In February, Cloyd V. Gustafson was united in marriage to Miss Dana Berg.

ACHIEVEMENTS. I am sure we would all feel that the outstanding achievement of the year was the relocation of the Wilshire Church—the purchase of the All Soul's Congregational Church on Wilshire and Plymouth Boulevards. A location on this greatest of Boulevards has been the dream for many years. On January 27, by Quarterly Conference action, the deal was sanctioned. On March 24 the Wilshire Methodist Episcopal Church secured title to this property, which was occupied on February 15 for the first time. This $500,000 church plant was especially related to our Methodist branch of the church in appropriate dedication ceremony, conducted by the Residential Bishop, Charles Wesley Burns, Palm Sunday.

University Church, which is in a peculiar sense related to the whole Conference, is now completing the first unit, costing approximately $170,000, of their new church plant, the cornerstone being laid May 24.

Harbor City has been compelled to build a temporary unit to house additional departments in the growing church school, which averages in attendance 90% of the enrollment, and 50% increase in church membership.

Melrose Park has refinanced its former embarrassing debt, having paid during the year $7,326 on same.

Grace Church has been able to liquidate an encumbrance of $2500 of many years' standing.

The Home Missions Board has come to the rescue in both of these instances.

Florence avenue dedicated a new pipe organ on November 2.

The Westwood Church, organized but a year and a half ago, has grown to a membership of 246, with an average attendance in the church school of 175. There is only $10,000 due on the $125,000 church building. A temporary structure has been erected during the year to house church school departments. A new parsonage costing $17,000 has been purchased.

Rosewood has reduced their debt by $4,000; St. Paul's by $6,000; Calvary by $1,125; Eagle Rock by $1,000; Gardena, $2,374; Sunnyside by $970; Vermont Square by $9,200. Vincent has expended $1,100 on improvements.

Southwest Knoll, the infant church of the District, has increased its church school 65% during the year, and the membership 75%. A new $4,000 parsonage is being erected.

Paid on old indebtedness $74,707; paid on buildings and improvements, $87,776.

STATUS OF MEMBERSHIP. Total members received during year:

By Certificate	1,479
On Confession of Faith	697
Total	2,176

The pastors report 693 decisions for the Christian life. A revelation of the shifting population in Southern California is the fact that with 2176 received into full membership in our fifty churches, we have a net increase in membership of only about 500.

The financial results in all departments have been amazingly satisfactory. I have marveled at the amounts of money raised in this year of financial depression. In the fifty reports of pastors to me, as of June 15, only four report a contemplated bonafide deficit at Conference time. The Fourth Quarterly Conferences fixed the salaries at the same figure for next year as this, excepting one, which increases the amount, and four which are to pay less.

CAMPAIGN OF APPRECIATION. The Campaign of Appreciation reached a successful culmination, the District subscribing 105% of its quota.

WORLD SERVICE. World Service will show an increase of about $10,000 over last year and the present year goals, with two exceptions have been accepted by the Quarterly Conferences for next year.

Our people have manifested a wonderful loyalty and given evidence of unusual sacrificial giving.

UNITED FORWARD MOVEMENT. The United Forward Movement gave great impetus to our year's work.

The Clearing House in regular monthly breakfast meetings and in two retreats has furnished opportunity for fine fellowship.

SPECIAL INSTITUTIONS. The University of Southern California has had another great year.

The Methodist Hospital is making progress. This is the crucial year, but with the W.H.M.S. able this week to pay in full the $25,000 due, with increasing patronage and economical administration the institution will be saved.

The Los Angeles City Missionary Society has continued to give valuable assistance to our City Missionary demands.

The Church of All Nations has the very highest standing among the City's Social Service plants.

The Hollenbeck Heights Social Center functions in a large and successful way, especially among the youth in the Grace Church Parish.

The Spanish American Institute grips the hearts of all who come to know of its constructive work. Additional funds for expansion are sorely needed.

The Pacific Old People's Home, significantly solvent, is entitled to the loving and practical interest and giving of our members and friends. A new building program, quietly conducted, involving $250,000, is now under way.

The Good Will Industries have ministered in a very necessary and successful way, in addition to its regular work, in that of relieving the unemployment situation.

The Women's Societies have never been stronger.

The Brotherhood Movement has been greatly augmented during the year.

Religious Education in church school and Young People's work has contributed in a vital way to a successful church year.

The University Religious Conference, incorporated three years ago, while still in the experimental stage, takes permanent form. The first unit of a completed $300,000 plant is being started this summer. Without any hint of compromise, Protestants, Catholics and Jews are banded together that students may be rallied to the faith they need, each working for his own group in friendliness.

The Wesley Foundation work has been placed on a more permanent basis.

The Pacific Palisades Association in summer assembly last season gave a splendid array of talent and promises for this year a program equal to the best.

COMITY. It is neither the mission nor the province of the Methodist Church to occupy every open field. In these days we play the game of comity, and, may I say that, in Los Angeles we are doing that very thing in a fine way and are thus conserving in leadership, finance and good will.

Protestant Christianity must get together to be saved.

WANTED: A NEW SPIRIT! "If the note of triumph and jubilation is lacking in the life and testimony of the church today, . . . may it not be because this curse of spiritual defeatism lies upon it like a paralysis!" (Editorial in the Christian Advocate, February 12, 1931.)

Upon which Dr. F. R. Bayley of Baltimore comments:

"The editor of the Christian Advocate does well to raise a question about the paralysis of defeatism, but what has caused it? Too much diagnosis and too little remedy! Diagnosis, theological, social, political, religious! Diagnosis, editorial, episcopal, pastoral and professorial, expert and inexpert, much would-be expert! Diagnosis, for several years, has been such a favorite indoor sport as to become almost a disease itself. The doctors have examined and thumped and blood-counted and X-rayed the Church until it seems really an evidence of divine life within that it has strength enough left even to wiggle a toe. Editors, especially those of the non-denominational press, have surveyed it from head to foot; the fundamentalists have listened to its heart; the modernists have examined its brain; the World Service agents have commented on its vision; and all to such lengths and so repeatedly that some of us may be excused for thinking that 'the whole head is sick, and the whole heart faint. From the sole of the foot even unto the head there is no soundness in it; but wounds, and bruises, and putrifying sores.'"

The spirit of defeatism, the inferiority-complex, is not the present need. We need to emphasize our triumphs, to publish significant accomplishments, sacrifice in obscure and neglected and needy fields. Our ministers and people have a difficult enough task in these perplexing days. We are not total failures; the battle goes well on many fields and the heroism of the fathers still lives in the fearless gallantry of many of the Sons!

We need to sound a rallying chord, "We see not yet all things . . . but we see Jesus." He is a conquering Christ, not a defeatist!

Dr. William Pierson Merrill of the Brick Presbyterian Church, New York City, celebrating the fortieth anniversary of his ordination, preached a marvelous sermon on "Beliefs That Grow More Sure." He traces his experiences and service through the forty years and witnesses to the fact he is surer now. His belief is in a personal God, in Jesus our Lord, in the Church, the glory of the life and adventure of the Spirit. His final note is one of thanksgiving: "I look back over these forty years of ministry in the Church of Jesus our Lord, and send up to God the favorite simple prayer of my Saint and hero John Chrysostom, 'God be praised for everything!'"

We do not need more and better churches, more money, more members, per se., but our essential need is more genuine spirituality. There should be a fellowship of prayer to the effect that we may keep our beloved Methodism in the very front ranks of the religion of Jesus as supreme in its ethical character, and worthy of application to the foremost needs of our generation.

PASADENA DISTRICT

At the close of the last session of the Annual Conference the Apostles were scattered abroad throughout the Pasadena District from Glendale to Yucaipa and beyond the Sierra Madra Range as far as Las Vegas, which is desert. Meaningful indeed is the story of the Acts of these Apostles and the Believers who sit under the rafters of their Synagogues.

Books were read, prayers were said. Sermons were preached that reproved, rebuked, enlightened, inspired, convicted, moved, and saved. Souls were counselled, encouraged, and directed to God and the Church. Churches received new members as follows: up to 25—Altadena and Azusa; Chino, Cucamonga and Del Rosa; Emmanuel, El Monte and La Verne; Montrose and Needles; Ontario-Grace, Pacific Avenue and Puente; Rialto and Rosemead. From 25 to 40—Baldwin Park; Colton, Covina and Hartzell; Monterey Park and North Glendale; Redlands Grace, Upland, Scott and Yucaipa. From 40 to 50—Central Avenue, Glendora and Highland; Lincoln Avenue and Pomona First; San Dimas and South Pasadena; Temple City and Trinity. From 50 to 75—Holliston Avenue, Lancaster and Monrovia; Ontario, First and Victorville. From 75 to 100—Washington Street. From 100 to 150—Alhambra First, Las Vegas, Marengo Avenue, and Redlands First. From 200 to 225—Pasadena First and San Bernardino. Above 300—Glendale First, making a total of 2750 members and probationers received this year. Let us thank God.

Believers were strengthened, the sick were visited, the bereaved comforted, and the lovers married. In our church schools, children were taught, youth directed, and adults advised to the number of 24,000. People were organized and inspired to action. Calls were made—calls by the hundreds, thousands, tens of thousands, by preachers and people. Thirteen pastors made less than 400 calls. Five made between 400 and 500. Eight made between 600 and 800. Nine between 800 and 1000. Seven between 1000 and 1200, and two above 1700; a total of 31,550 calls by our pastors. The Women's Aids report calls in excess of 75,000, and they distributed almost 12,000 bouquets. Some flower show! 2,744 Goodwill bags and several truck loads of other materials were sent to the Goodwill Industries, while thousands of books and pamphlets were shipped to the Philippine Islands. This is genuine human interest material. It has the fragrance of those words of Jesus where he is saying, "I was sick, and ye visited me." Conjure up in your minds, if you will, the fresh courage and faith that followed in the wake of those calls, the exquisite delight that was brooded in the fragrance of those thousands of flowers, the eager idle hands set working, and the opportunities for cheap merchandise that came to multitudes of poor people out of the Goodwill bags, and the souls that may be saved from atheism by the good books that were shipped to our Philippine brethren.

Some 3,000 Leaguers worshipped on Sunday evenings, carried on a vast variety of activities in the local churches, supported the pastors, organized institutes and retreats, practiced and promoted prohibition, and published volumes of League news and reams on international goodwill. They constitute the major hope of the church and the world.

The Acts of the Apostles and the Believers that sit under the rafters of their Synagogues include the raising of money—money to preach the Gospel on the Pasadena District, in school houses in the wide open spaces, in mountain towns in the Rockies and the Blue Ridge, in the wheat belt, the cotton fields, and the coal mines. In Little Mexico in Los Angeles, Little Africa in Chicago, Little Italy in Manhattan Island. Money to preach the Gospel in Gay Paree, in Soviet Russia which has lifted up its heel against our God, in Constantinople, that ancient Christian city that fell before the Turk a half millennium ago, in Jerusalem where they led our Prophet to Calvary and there hung him on the Cross that by his Grace now enfolds all mankind in its warm arms. Money to preach the Gospel in Asia and Africa, South America and the Islands of the Seas. Money to teach the unknowing, heal the sick, mother the orphan, feed the hungry, house old age, pension the Veterans of the Cross and open the doors of higher education to aspiring youth—all this, and vastly more, done by money raised for salaries in excess of $120,000, for World Service $75,000; for W.H.M.S. $36,000; for W.F.M.S. $29,000; for Conference Claimants $15,000; and subscriptions of $76,000 for the Appreciation Campaign. Other monies were raised for repairs and renovations amounting to $50,000. Money to pay debts. Money to erect new churches—notably by Harry Branton and his people at Chino for their delectable House of God, by James A. Stavely and his people at Upland for their Temple that is to be, and by John Oliver and his people for their new educational unit at Trinity.

Chino.

All these glorious works were done by the Apostles: Anderson and Ashley; Barker, Burgess and Burnham; Branton, Broughton and Butterfield; Cliff and Cole; Chase, Carroll and Chamberlain; Davis and Elger; Gates and Gabrielson; Handy, Haydock, Holmes, Hughes and Hudson; Ingham and Inwood; Kent, Kimball and Kleinfelter; Lawrence, Lewis and Levedahl; Morris and McBride; Oliver; Raley and Rice; Reynolds, Rogers and Ruckman; Shamel, Schaeffer and Shrode; Scott, Slater and

Smith; Steed, Stavelly, Stranberg and Stockton; Wenz, Watson and Young—all of whom could say with their Master:

"The Spirit of the Lord is upon me:
For he has consecrated me to preach
the Gospel to the poor,
He has sent me to proclaim the release for captives
And recovery of sight for the blind,
To free the oppressed,
To proclaim the Lord's year of favor."

These men, whether in the large charges or the small, went about doing good, every man according to his opportunity, and it happens, therefore, that no more is due to those in the larger charges than to those in the smaller ones, since every man worked hard, did his best, felt the urge of the spirit, shared the needs of the people, and was moved by the Passion of our Lord.

Aside from minor ailments, general good health prevailed in our parsonages. However, the ravages of poor health drove E. F. Gates from First Church, Alhambra, where the exacting duties of that great and growing charge endangered his life. A. J. Hughes and Mrs. Elmer Anderson were in hospitals for major operations and Mrs. J. N. Holmes for general treatment and rest. All are recovered, for which we thank God. In only one case did death stretch forth its hand and take a member of one of our parsonage families—Mrs. Branton—wife of Brother Harry Branton of Chino. In an hour that they thought not, she was snatched suddenly away. Tonight we place our hearts by the side of the hearts of Brother Branton and his two sons and say: "The God of all Comfort comfort you." No children have been born to our parsonage homes.

The Superintendent and his wife have been enveloped in an air of loving-kindness and goodness both by God and the preachers and their families, for which mercies deep gratitude is hereby expressed.

This fractional record of the Acts of the Apostles and Believers on the Pasadena District closes with the affirmation that they were all done in the Name and Power of Christ, in whom they live, yet not they, but Christ liveth in them, for the life they now live they live by faith in the Son of God who loved them and gave himself for them, to whom be glory and honor and majesty and power, both now and forever. Amen.

CHARLES F. SEITTER.

SAN DIEGO DISTRICT

I shall report 6,000 miles a minute, speaking geographically, as the San Diego district contains 60,000 square miles of Methodist responsibility (the state of Ohio covers but 41,000 square miles,) and this past year I have worn out a full set of six-ply tires, trying to bring the district to the highest possible efficiency.

The saying—"A time of financial depression is always a time of spiritual opportunity" has guided all our work this past year and the final reports will show gains on every front and retreat nowhere. We have followed the strategy of the great Marshall Foch, who, when the right and left wings of his huge army were crumpling up under merciless attacks, ordered his troops to advance. We have taken counsel of faith and gone forward. We have refused to be of "those who draw back." And, personally, I have kept in touch with our some sixty churches and men either by letter or address or personal conference every day this past year, insisting upon a more comprehensive and passionate evangelism. A few of our pastors and some of our laymen have shown symptoms of ecclesiastical blues, and a few churches have sagged in spiritual doldrums but not for long.

The morale of the San Diego district at the close of this difficult year is excellent. We have a fine group of pastors on this district and a fine group of laymen back of them and not a single pastor, so far as I know, has been drawn into any unChristianlike attitude toward his laity, and I think it would be easily possible to send every pastor back to his present field, if that should be thought wise by the presiding bishop.

We started the year with a conference of the entire district on religious education and evangelism, a conference lasting three days, and, as a result all of our work—the regular services, our religious education, church night programs, vacation schools, young peoples' meetings and our evangelism have been toned up. The reports show substantial gains in membership, together with 1,617 first decisions for the Christian life. And this without any reference at all or bearing upon the tabernacle meetings for community evangelism conducted in different sections of our district.

It will be recalled that some of the brethren, even some of our most courageous pastors, felt at the beginning of the year that because of the financial depression we should postpone our $300,000 Campaign of Appreciation for the retired preachers' fund. The event proves that they were taking counsel of their fears, for this campaign is now one of the splendid achievements of Southern California Methodism! San Diego district reports will show, I think, a 100 per cent record. I think not a church but will come up to the challenge within the period, and two of our churches have done phenomenally—Indio—the asking was $144 and that church raised $278, and Garden Grove, the asking was $1440 and they raised $2400. Many churches went beyond their goals.

Our World Service up to this time, and the conference reports will doubtless go beyond my figures—totals $44,365 as against $35,159 for last year. The W. F. M. S. also shows a gain, $16,751 as against, $12,549. The W. H. M. S. raised last year $16,504 and this, $17,176.67. Money raised by the Aid Societies was $29,731.

There will be fewer deficits on current expense accounts this year than ever before in the history of the district. One small church, receiving missionary help, voted at the fourth quarterly conference to cut back on salary and two other churches since their quarterly conferences have attempted to do the same, which is without warrant in Methodism law and usage—the Fourth Quarterly Conference being alone empowered to fix the minimum of salary allowance. But on the other hand several other churches have substantially increased the pastor's allowance.

We have taken the precaution to advise all our pastors and churches to be conservative in launching upon building campaigns or increased expenditures now, even though both labor and building materials are low in price; but even so there has been considerably activity on the building line on the "pay as you go" plan. Santa Fe Springs has built a beautiful new social hall at a cost of $6,000, paid for. Holtville, debt of $3,200 on the property paid off, and new church school and social hall, costing $9,600, built and paid for. Yorba Linda made over into a gem of a Gothic building interiorly, as a cost of $10,000, paid for. Normal Heights parsonage rebuilt and made cozy and habitable by donated labor and $1,500 in cash and even the furnishings are paid for within $125. Magnolia parsonage, rebuilt and paid for. The Inwood church, rebuilt at a cost of $2,500 and will be paid for, when Bishop Burns can find time to dedicate it. Newport Beach and Balboa churches have completed their merger, purchased a new site at $11,000, have paid $3,000 on this site and have $2,500 more available in pledges. The latest district venture is the new church at Encinitas, where a bungalow church is nearing completion and will be paid for by the time of dedication. Anaheim, White Temple has built an addition to their plant in the shape of a men's room and the church at Fullerton has donated a chapel and cottage to the Mexican work in that city.

1. Santa Fe Springs. 2. Holtville. 3. Yorba Linda. 4. Inwood.

Besides these building expenditures, the churches of the district have paid $13,860 on improvements of their properties, and $28,564 on property indebtedness. The Normal Heights Church debt has been reduced by $22,000, to $42,000, $14,161 of this amount being World Service designation from the churches of the district, $4,000 from the local congregation, and the remainder from concessions of the creditors.

The Epworth Leagues of the district have had a good year and the work of the district organization has been greatly strengthened. The Brotherhood movement has shown advance and the Federated Aid Societies have become a real force, reporting from the several Aid Societies 36,470 calls.

The Goodwill Industries of an Diego, our baby Philanthropy, is increasingly building itself into the needs of the city, serving milk and bread, and furnishing employment to hundreds besides all of its work of salvage.

There have been no deaths in our parsonage families this past year, and little sickness. H. H. Weyant has been compelled to quit the work on account of heart trouble. E. H. Nicholson will ask for the retired relation on account of a diminution of strength. Mrs. Carl Ross is now in the hospital at San Diego suffering from a serious infection, but is convalescing. As far as I know, no serious domestic infelicities, one marriage—J. W. Grande has taken unto himself a wife, one birth, Mary Katherine Beecher. A fine group of preachers we have on the San Diego district inspired by God-given helpmeets and supported by loyal laymen, and bishop, all these preachers are here expectantly and praying for bigger and better appointments and the churches are here, most of them at least, by representatives, insisting upon abler prophets and shepherds than they are able to pay for and we are expecting you to work these Methodist miracles by your episcopal magic and administrative genius.

I take it that we Methodists still believe in personal testimony based upon personal experience. In the two years that I have been in the superintendency I have had a growing conviction that a district superintendent has a large spiritual opportunity and responsibility, for he is surely more than a man seeking to learn the will of the churches and pastors and set to a certain established technique. Surely he has his measure of responsibility for the development of the spiritual life of the churches and preachers.

And my personal testimony is that, in line with this view of the district superintendency I have tried to be faithful this past year to the testimony of Jesus, the total view of life as given by our Lord both in His teachings and His example. I have tried to keep the whole redemptional purpose of God in Christ at focus in my own mind, and this great gospel and the lofty spiritual ideals of Jesus I have tried to lay upon the hearts of our preachers and people alike. How glad we must all be that in this time of upheaval and anarchy and disintegration, we have a program, a way of life and hope to commend to the whole world. Brethren, Christianity is at grips with the whole world as never before. As never before Jesus confronts the ambitions and purposes of men crying to them "Whither goest thou?" He is not only searching the hearts and motives of individuals but appraising our economic and political orders as never before. Any evangelism less radical or less comprehensive than the total aspiration and peril of man is inadequate.

If we fail at this deep or this high spiritual level, as you will, we fail utterly. And, please God, we shall not fail. We Christians were never so numerous, never so entrenched, never so rich in material goods. The doors of the world were never so far flung back to our messengers. Mankind has never been in sorer straits; never before were the hearts of men so plastic, their minds so baffled; never was the common man so big with hope. In this day of the Lord we dare not falter. We must not fail.

JAMES ALLEN GEISSINGER.

(b) Standing Committees and Boards

RESOLUTIONS

We wish to express our thanks to the Press for the accuracy and the fullness of the reports published both in the local papers and through the national news-gathering agencies.

The Chamber of Commerce of Long Beach has done everything possible to create an atmosphere of hospitality to our members while in the City of Long Beach.

The thoughtful courtesy of the Sparkletts Water Company in providing ice water proved acceptable indeed to the members of the Conference and to their friends.

The tasks of our secretaries have been greatly lightened by the splendid generosity of the Burroughs Adding Machine Company, the Sunstrand Adding Machine Company, and the Long Beach Typewriter and Desk Exchange.

The lovely flowers that graced the platform at all times contributed to our delight; and to the thoughtful friends who brought these floral gifts we express our hearty thanks.

The co-operation of the Y.W.C.A. who placed at our disposal their equipment, especially their dining rooms, greatly added to our comfort.

We record our great appreciation and sincere thanks to the Honorable Phil D. Swing, member of Congress for the 11th District, who made clear to us his fearless stand against those deplorable conditions just over the Mexican Border, brought about by the evil elements of two nations, which jeopardize the physical, moral and spiritual wellbeing of both nations.

Our sister churches of Long Beach who have so graciously opened their churches to us, have once again demonstrated their spirit of fraternal regard. Again the First Church of Long Beach has endeared itself to the heart of every member of our conference by the gracious welcome she has given us. The pastor, Richard N. Merrill, together with his entire staff of workers whose names I shall read to you, has so thoughtfully and carefully made every preparation for our comfort that nothing was overlooked. The generosity of the officary of this great church which has for the second successive time placed at our disposal their splendid plant has compelled us to say once again, We thank you!

We express to the Spanish American Institute who so generously furnished for us our Conference Programs, our great sense of debt.

We commend most heartily the Program Committee for its arrangement of a very heavy schedule to our advantage and delight. Every interest has been considered. We are especially pleased with the recognition of the young people's work of the conference, and with the large place it has had on our program. We appreciate the Committee's selection of Dr. Lynn Harold Hough, world preacher and noted author, and present occupant of the chair of Homiletics of Drew Theological Seminary, who brought to us in his addresses the fine fruits of a highly disciplined intelligence. We rejoice in the pre-eminent place Dr. Hough gave the Lord Jesus Christ in the world today and the world tomorrow.

We express to Mrs. Dorothy Stearns Mayer, director of music of our hostess church, our very great appreciation for the arrangement, wealth, variety and appropriateness of the musical programs, both instrumental and vocal. To Miss Lillian Marie Brandvig, organist of the church, and to the guest organists who gave so freely of their wonderful talents that rich pleasure and profit might be ours, we express our gratitude. And for the place of honor accorded members of our conference in directing the congregational singing, and in quartette and solo numbers, we here make known our thanks.

Our Secretary, Frank Stevens, and his assistants have again placed us deeply in their debt for the efficiency and dispatch with which they have discharged their arduous labors. Our Treasurer, M. W. Beckwith, our Statistician, O. W. Renius, and their assistants have toiled behind the scenes, untiring and patient. The tellers who brought from time to time the hopes and fears, the successes and failures of many of the men of this conference have done their work well. To all these with deeper feeling than mere words can express, we say, Thank you!

To many of us the presiding Bishop was a comparative stranger at the beginning of this session of our Annual Conference. We came to Long Beach, keenly feeling the need of a great leader to bring us through a session that we felt would be difficult. We came praying that the right bishop had been sent to us. And now, at the close of this fifty-sixth session of the Southern California Annual Conference, we desire to express to Bishop Frederick D. Leete our high appreciation of the statesmanlike manner in which he has administered the conference; for his great brotherly heart; for his kindly and wholesome advice; and for his impartial and wise decisions. Bishop Leete's deeply spiritual and soul-warming morning addresses have so gripped us that we can truly say, a man of God has been sent to help us. We shall return to the work of the year better and more earnest men because of the presence of this prophet of God in our midst.

W. W. KALER, Chairman.

BOARD OF EDUCATION

J. L. CORLEY. Our report today begins where the report of last year ended; for then you stood and by prayer and good-will commissioned J. L. Corley to go for you to China to help your brothers there reorganize their religious educational forces to meet their new day. He went in your name and for almost a year has rendered conspicuous service. He finishes his work in China the last day of August and returns to us via Europe, your Board having extended his time to enable him to do this. He will come back to us with new zeal and larger experience to take up his work among us and we ask his re-appointment to this work.

H. V. MATHER. We were fortunate in being able to get Dr. H. V. Mather, a gifted layman, to give us, with the consent of the Council of Religious Education of Southern California, part time service; and no one could have taken up his work in finer fashion than he, and we wish in this formal way to express our hearty appreciation of the service rendered by him and he has consented to continue to help until J. L. Corley's return.

SOUTHERN CALIFORNIA COUNCIL OF RELIGIOUS EDUCATION. This arrangement has tied us up most closely to the Southern California Council of Religious Education which has not only helped us in our need, but has all along been in heartiest cooperation with us in our distinctive work, and your Board has reciprocated this Christian spirit and done what it could to assist in this larger interdenominational field. This organization is doing fine constructive work and is worthy of your heartiest support.

MINISTERS OF EDUCATION. Last year we presented a memorial on "Ministers of Education." It could not be acted on then but was printed in the journal that all might study it. We present it again, slightly changed to meet the suggestion of men of the California Conference, but substantially the same. (See "Memorials.")

WEEK-DAY RELIGIOUS EDUCATION. There is to come before you one who will speak of the fine experiment being made in this city regarding week-day religious instruction. It is one response to the constant effort of the Board to find some solution to this urgent problem—the adequate and scientific religious training of our boys and girls.

UNIFIED PROGRAMS. We are glad to report that unified programs in religious education are making progress in our Conference. Church schools are experimenting with programs that seek to correlate all the elements of religious education into a single unified approach to each age group, combining in one form or other the regular Sunday School lesson, worship, missionary education, social service products, recreation and mid-week activities.

YOUNG PEOPLE'S WORK. No keener interest has been shown by us than that in the work of our young people as functioning through our Epworth Leagues and no finer co-operation could have been shown than that by the young people themselves. They themselves have assumed heavy financial burdens, sharing with us the difficulty arising through declining World Service funds. Under the leadership of Royal H. Reisner, they have sought in every way to find for themselves the Christian way of life. In Institute and in Conference, leaders and general membership have sought the answer to their own pressing heart questions as to personal life and Christian service. Seven hundred thirteen of them have enrolled in the various institutes of the Conference and many more have gathered in district and sub-district rallies. Fine institutes to which your attention will be called by others are planned for this summer. Youth is in a questioning, inquiring mood today. Ancient moral standards are doubted. Traditional opinions are criticised. The core of Christian behavior is not found in a deep experience as heretofore but in social activities. Life is in the flux. But youth is dreaming its dreams and some day will catch the visions of the Spirit and find again for itself a rich experience growing out of an abiding sense of God.

ROYAL H. REISNER. We are glad that our young hosts have had such a leader as Royal Reisner but he is going again to school and so we lose him. The Board holds him in high esteem and wishes him every success in his broadening cultural life. We also give a most cordial welcome to his successor, Mr. Jas. McGiffin, who for eight years has directed this work in the California Conference.

RALLY DAY. We urge that every pastor this year will give Rally Day the first place in his immediate plans, remembering that the total amount of this offering comes back to us. Last year our churches raised in this way $4,334, all returned to us, 65 per cent of which went into the distinctively young people's work. We ask the conference to request the Board of Education to return to us all this offering.

CREATIVE SEMINAR. Two outstanding educational events have taken place this year. The first, a seminar held in Pasadena October 20 to 29, under the direction of Dr. Charles Boss, head of the Research Bureau of the Board of Education. For ten days the selected group of ministers faced themselves, their task and the pressing problems of their own lives and of their churches and under the guidance of Doctors Boss and Forsyth came to a better understanding of their ministry. They caught a new vision, and found fresh inspiration for their task. A fine group of seventeen came from the California Conference, and twenty from our own Conference, fully half of whom were at all the sessions.

ANNUAL EDUCATION DAY. The second event was that of the annual educational day held in the First Church, Los Angeles, January 27. The Conference Board felt that the educational task of the church was so important that it ought to be brought to the attention of as large a part as possible of our Methodist constituency. We hope to make such a day permanent.

WESLEY FOUNDATION. One of the major interests in this Conference is the Wesley Foundation through which the church seeks to make religion more vital in the campus life of our students at the state educational institutions; to create an education mind in our local churches and to cooperate with other religionists in the spiritual culture of the student youth. This is what the Foundation is trying to do at the University of California at Los Angeles, the Los Angeles Junior College, the Fresno Teachers College, the San Diego Teachers College, and the University of Arizona. At present we are hampered with a lack of equipment and financial support but a fine beginning has been made. Some day the Conference must gird itself for this task. The most advanced program of creative cooperation in religion connected with a state university is that of the University of California Religious Conference at Westwood. Here, in cooperation with other Protestant bodies, with Roman Catholics and Jews, our Wesley Foundation is providing leadership and organization and personal guidance to meet the moral and spiritual need of the students. And we cannot speak too highly of the work done by R. J. and Mrs. Taylor, especially in offering the finest social environment in which the student might face his personal religious problems and find sure guidance.

The Foundation offers these as its great objectives: To guide college youth in attaining a normal Christian experience while pursuing their studies making religion a most vital factor in their lives; to counsel and aid churches to offer their college youth a church life through which they may cultivate faith, moral earnestness and spiritual vision; to awaken in the churches a sense of their responsibility toward their student members and by public recognition on their going away to or return from college, show their deep interest.

These are some of the great objectives, but they are enough to call forth our keen interest and our best financial support.

We recommend the following to compose the Board of Managers of the Wesley Foundation at the University of California, Los Angeles: F. A. Powell, F. E. Eckhart, I. S. Leavitt, Ralph B. Lloyd, Earl J. Miller, C. I. D. Moore, John Oliver, E. W. Reynolds, Chas. A. Kent, W. C. Buckner, Alfred Inwood, George A. Warmer, F. P. Woellner, Mrs. Paul Helms, Mrs. J. B. Lorbeer, A. L. Hickson, Beach Vasey, F. W. Curl, Donald P. Condit. And as the Board of Managers: Henri A. Lindsey, Frank S. Wallace, J. Lewis Gillies, Willsie Martin. And for the Board at the University of Arizona: Will A. Betts, C. R. Montague, C. C. Jenkins, J. F. Walker, E. R. Row, E. W. Stricker.

UNIVERSITY SOUTHERN CALIFORNIA. Our interest is deep in the Wesley Foundation; it is deeper still in our own University. Its continued prosperity—its large and growing student body—its expanding program—its broadening life as shown in its widening curricula—its steady advancing scholarship—its far-reaching influence in international relations—and its positive religious emphasis make it a University of outstanding influence.

For its outreach is immense. Touching vitally all the surrounding life, it seeks to serve that life in the finest way, lift professional standards, seeking to create the highest ideals in political and municipal administration, giving a higher concept to business, extending an open hand and heart to men of alien race and ever holding before its student body the highest standards of personal character. It is one of the finest and most far-reaching forces in the higher life of our Southland, a University of keenest interest to us, a University that must fill us with pride and gladness. For it is the offspring of this great body.

Its student enrollment for 1930-31 was over 17,000, its summer schools last year enrolling more than 5,300, a number increased 500 in the session just begun.

At its recent commencement it granted over 1,400 degrees, two of them honorary to men of this Conference.

It has erected during this year its Physical Education Building at a cost of $1,000,000, and recently broke ground for its Memorial Library Building to cost over a million. And its program calls for a new building each year for several years.

In its School of Religion under the Deanship of John F. Fisher, 491 were enrolled this year, 17 of them proceeding to the M.Th. Degree, and many other fitting themselves for some distinctive form of Christian service. Through its integration with other schools of the University system this School can offer many other than mere theological courses and so can prepare youth for the finest service in the kingdom.

A noteworthy feature in the university life is its spiritual emphasis. Its daily devotional chapel services conducted by one of us, Bruce R. Baxter, services now voluntary, and through the radio now shared by many outside the student body, have become very popular and have constantly held before the students the highest ideals of personal living. Its Young Men's and Young Men's Christian Associations have just closed a very successful year, while the high note sounded by President von KleinSmid in his baccalaureate address as he challenged the graduates to faith in God, without which he said there could be no faith in life nor in men, marked the spiritual concern of the University. It is the earnest purpose of the President and his associates ever to keep these high religious ideals before the students.

It is to this great University we must look for our coming leadership. It has given us much of our choicest material and will continue to do so. If the past has any meaning, it is: Our future as a Conference largely lies in the lap of this great school.

THE BOARD OF EDUCATION. No Board of our Church has taken a deeper interest in its task than has this one. These busy ministers and laymen have given time without stint to this work and in every way sought to develop this important branch of church activity.

Our Church schools have not gained much in number but they have in quality, due to the constant oversight of the director and the chairmen of the different departments.

The interest of the Board has been not only in the mechanics of the church school, but in its clear and dominant spiritual emphasis and co-operating with the Southern California Council of Religious Education it has sought to foster leadership training schools. Sixty-one such have been held within the bounds of our Conference and about the same number of classes in local churches, with an enrollment of over 1,500 of our Methodist workers.

Its Elementary Department also, under the direction of its chairmen, is available to the very smallest school for conference and help, and its committee on adult education is developing plans by which this important section of Church school life may be greatly strengthened.

During the summer months we Methodists pool our efforts with the other denominations in Southern California and co-operate with the Southern California Council of Religious Education in its summer schools for leadership training. This summer there will be four such: Idyllwild Pines Adult School July 6th to 19th; Pacific Palisades July 20 to 31; Idyllwild Older Girls School August 3 to 15; and Older Boys August 17th to 21st. And all these schools are heartily commended to our churches as valuable aids in their work.

An interesting situation has developed in Arizona: We can co-operate with the Adult Education Department of the State Board of Education, securing their teachers as instructors in certain of our leadership training classes, and this without cost to the training class itself.

But we now face a grave emergency. The Board at Chicago has notified us that owing to decreased World Service income and increasing needs of other and weaker conferences there must be a large decrease in the amount appropriated to this conference for this work. A telegram just to hand notifies us that our amount will be but $500. This staggers us and we do not know what to do. We have gone carefully over our budget and cannot see where we can reduce that but little and carry on as at present. We had hoped to plan advance. That now is impossible. But we must maintain the work at its present efficiency. We have built up a work that has challenged the attention of the whole church and we must not let this fine structure be undermined. Our only resource is the churches. The Commission on Finance is not able in fairness to all to propose to you an added appropriation to last year's for our work. So we come with the earnest plea that the conference will see its way clear to favor an additional appropriation of 2c per member.

In closing I would turn your face away from finance—urgent, imperative, tragic as that is—and have you catch the vision of the upturned faces of youth, eager, radiant, hopeful, expectant. That's the vision your board catches and which it would have you see.

ALFRED INWOOD.

UNIVERSITY CHURCH

After years of purpose and plan and promise, University Church is now far on the way to completion of their new building. This is the first unit, the educational, of the great church that is to be.

LOCATION. The new 100-foot Hoover Street is this week being cut through, connecting with Figueroa Street at the intersection of Exposition. This new street crosses the intersection of 34th street and University Avenue, at an angle of almost forty-five degrees, making a wide plaza. This will be the entrance to University Park, and at that corner is the new church. The former president's home, now the building occupied by the School of Religion is on the corner; the present new church building is two lots west. The plan now is for the auditorium of the church to stand on that corner. There is no more strategic location for any University church anywhere.

THE STRUCTURE. This unit will care for a Sunday School of 1200. There are five floors, with large assembly rooms and individual class rooms for all the departments. One large room is designed especially for students, where they may have their own selected furnishings, their pennants, etc. There is a fine dining room, and kitchenettes on different floors. A small automatic elevator runs the full height of the building. The chapel which will seat 476 is a beautiful room. The structure is in keeping with the best buildings of the campus; it is Italian-Romanesque architecture. Prof. C. Raimond Johnson of the University is architect, and The Wm. Simpson Company are contractors. They have promised to complete the structure September 1st. The dedication will be about two weeks after the University opens.

THE COST. The contractor's estimate was $145,090. This does not include certain fixtures, tintings, pews, and other furnishings, and of course does not include the lots. The total cost, including architect's fees, will be close to $175,000.

FINANCING. The precarious condition of many financing institutions made every bank wary, and it was with great difficulty that a necessary loan was secured. The last $25,000 was temporary, and will be due on August 10th. This is the greatest worry to the church now. It has $30,000 in property which is worth what the appraisal states, but cannot now be sold and is of little use as security for a loan. The members of the church subscribed $76,000, and are more than paid up to date on their pledges running over 50 months. These members have paid heroically. The world service designations have come in slowly. Some churches have done handsomely. But after two years less than $9,136 of the $35,000 has come to the treasurer of University Church.

Highest praise has come to the committee of the wisdom in selecting the present site, in building the educational structure first, and in the general plan of building. The committee believes great credit is due the patient and painstaking pastor and people for their persistence and victory. This church will be a great credit to the University; and it will render a service to the student body for years and years to come.

Your committee believes University Church is entitled to every dollar of the promised $35,000, and deserves the careful consideration of every pastor until this money is turned in. And unless it comes in speedily the church will face grave difficulties and embarrassment.

The building now being erected is the very least that could be practically undertaken now; and it is the very most that the finances would warrant University Church building at this time.

PACIFIC PALISADES ASSOCIATION

The year at Pacific Palisades has had many encouraging features. While our summer activities for 1930 suffered greatly from the effects of the infantile paralysis scare and from the general business stagnation, the percentage of shrinkage in our attendance was much less than that reported from the other beach communities about Santa Monica, and from Catalina. The combined program of activities was generally pronounced the most satisfactory we have presented. The improvements in housing and equipment won high praise from our guests and are winning for us increased patronage as evidenced by the increase in the number of groups which have already reserved space on our grounds during the year.

Difficulties, however, are by no means all overcome. The prostration of the real estate market has imposed serious burdens on the Pacific Land Corporation, our successor in the real estate interests. Carrying charges on outstanding bonds and the mounting taxes accrue steadily. These have been met promptly, notwithstanding the fact that the year has brought the lowest sales record on subdivided properties in the history of the enterprise. This prolongation of the sales period affects the Pacific Palisades Association in that it inevitably decreases any possible final participation in net profits, and delays the day when our own properties can be freed from the Trust Indenture.

The outstanding achievement of the year along financial lines has been the transfer of the beach properties, including our own 500 feet, to the State of California at a price equalling $300 per front foot. From the proceeds of this sale and from other collections, about three quarters of a million dollars of bonded indebtedness have been retired, thus very greatly increasing the safety of the entire project. The major part of the proceeds of the sale were required, however, to cover the bond redemption and other expenses in connection with the transaction. The amount of the release price of our portion will ultimately come back to the Association upon the closing of the trust indenture and meantime the Association will receive interest at 6 per cent on the deferred payment.

The Board of Trustees has authorized a program for the replacement of obsolete housing and equipment, which program has gone steadily forward during the year. This includes the gradual replacement of the tents with different types of housing, all having permanent roof and much of it equipped with full modern plumbing. New and better furniture and bedding are also gradually being installed. New classrooms and administration offices have been provided and the roads in the Assembly Grounds and between the Institute Grounds and the athletic field have been resurfaced. As fast as funds are made available and demand justifies, the equipment will go forward. The rapidity with which this can be accomplished will depend somewhat on the action of this Conference on the report of the Commission on Conference Location.

The Pacific Palisades Association in renewing its invitation to the Conference to make Pacific Palisades its home is moved by the following considerations:

First. It is believed that by fixing on Pacific Palisades, the Conference will solve the problem of entertainment which the coming of the laymen into the Annual Conference, will make increasingly difficult.

Second. The scope of the Association's development program cannot be determined intelligently until its relation to Conference entertainment has been settled.

Third. Selection of Pacific Palisades by the Conference would go far to justify the development of a plant which could be offered to similar denominational and educational groups needing a meeting place with modern equipment especially adapted to their needs.

Fourth. The Conference by coming to Pacific Palisades could without increasing the expense to itself, turn a patronage to one of its own organizations which now goes largely to commercial hotels, lodging houses and eating places in no way identified with the church.

Fifth. Should the Conference come to Pacific Palisades, the great bulk of its members could be entertained within a distance not to exceed the length of five city blocks from its place of meeting and none of its members would need to be housed at distances greater than those found in Santa Barbara, Long Beach or Los Angeles.

Should the Conference decide to come as soon as its arrangement with our present host will permit, our Board of Trustees with the cooperation of the local church will provide an equipment for the adequate and convenient housing of all guests, committees and other official bodies connected with the Conference work so that their efficiency will be fully conserved.

Plans for the summer are completed and the programs for the Summer Schools and Assembly meeting July 6th to August 14th have been distributed. Prospects for attendance are better than we had feared, though it is hard to see how a decided shrink can be avoided in view of existing financial conditions. The program speaks for itself and needs no commendation from me.

The School of Religion for Pastors and Staff Workers presenting Dr. John R. Van Pelt formerly of Boston University, now of Gammon, and President Earl Enycart Harper, of Evansville College, offers courses of special interest to the members of this body. The School of Choral Music for choir leaders and directors should prove of great value to those interested in the leadership of music in our churches.

The Interdenominational Conference on the Christian Way of Life, meeting August 14th to 23rd inclusive, will this year have for one of its chief attractions, Dr. James Moffatt, the famous translator of the Bible, who will speak daily throughout the session. Dr. C. Y. Cheng, of Shanghai, General Secretary of the National Christian Council, is also to be with us for three days. We predict this will be one of the finest sessions in the history of the Conference.

Five members of our Board of Trustees must be elected before the next session of this body. In accordance with the requirements of our Articles of Incorporation and By-Laws we submit for the approval of this Conference the following list in addition to the present members of the Board, which we propose as eligibles to election to any vacancy which may occur during the official year of 1931-32:

Walter Armacost, E. F. Gates, A. L. Baker, Bishop Charles Wesley Burns, E. L. Koenig, C. D. Lewis, A. V. Stoughton, C. F. Seitter, E. P. Clark, W. R. Morehouse, R. C. Gillis, James B. Fox, F. G. H. LOS ANGELES MISSIONARY AND CHURCH EXTENSION SOCIETY

The Los Angeles Missionary and Church Extension Society has assisted the following churches from Extension Funds the past year: Calvary, Gardena, Harbor City and Melrose Park; and from Missionary Maintenance Funds: Annandale, Belvedere, Calvary, Church of All Nations, Harbor City, Melrose Park, Saint Luke's, Saint Mark's, Southwest Knoll, Sunnyside, Union Avenue, Vernon Avenue, Westland, Westwood and Woodcrest.

The Nursery served 48 individual children, with 7500 meals and 3600 quarts of milk. There were 3900 visits made in homes, and the Clinic served 6337 individuals, with the aid of 42 doctors and 15 departments, and the total service in the Clinic for the past year was 31,338.

The City Missionary Society desires to report to the Conference a change of policy adopted by the Board of Trustees at its regular meeting on June 10th, 1931, as follows:

1. That for such time as the Los Angeles Missionary and Church Extension Society shall remain practically within the Los Angeles District, the Executive Secretary of the Society should be the District Superintendent of the Los Angeles District.

2. That the Assistant Secretary or Field Man or by whatever name he may be known, should be an active man to be mutually agreed upon by the District Superintendent and the Society.

3. That the District Superintendent as Executive Secretary, with the aid of Miss Avery, the Cashier, shall carry on the work of the Society for a few months, without the expense of an Assistant Secretary, during which period there will be ample time to make a suitable selection.

This change of policy has been brought about by the failure of the Society to get its borders extended to include the entire area of the City of Los Angeles. The Los Angeles District at the present time covers only about 60% of the City. This effort on the part of the City Missionary Society was begun three years ago, and during the past year by the appointment of a committee including representatives from the Los Angeles, Pasadena and Long Beach Districts, which committee met with the District Superintendents in two sessions for a study of the whole missionary situation in Southern California.

The City Missionary Society has gone on record favoring a metropolitan district, such as prevails in Chicago, New York, Philadelphia and other Eastern cities, but since this has not met with the approval of the Bishop and the Cabinet, the Board of Trustees of the City Missionary Society has been compelled to change the policy concerning the employment of an Executive Secretary.

It is the hope of the entire Board of Trustees of the City Missionary Society that very soon the enlarged zone of activities shall be made possible, and a united continuous program adopted for Church Extension throughout the metropolitan area, which will challenge laymen and pastors to meet our responsibilities.

The Trustees of the Los Angeles Missionary and Church Extension Society are elected by the Annual Conference, and the following nominations are presented for your approval:

Bishop Charles Wesley Burns, Bruce R. Baxter, Robert A. Brown, W. G. Cline, Geo. I. Cochran, Louis A. Copeland, Mrs. Walter Harrison Fisher, Marcus L. Godfrey, J. Lewis Gillies, John H. Graham, W. A. Greenwald, Lewis Thurber Guild, J. P. Harker, Elmer Ellsworth Helms, Paul H. Helms, W. C. Hodgson, Henri A. Lindsey, Ralph B. Lloyd, Arthur M. Loomis, Willsie Martin, Robert A. McKibben, A. Ray Moore, C. I. D. Moore, J. Wesley Neely, J. W. Oakley, Geo. L. Palmer, Glenn R. Phillips, Harry Philp, Charles F. Reiche, John Wesley Robinson, C. J. Shepherd, Mrs. Silas Sprowls, M. M. Welch, Rudolph Zurbuchen.

PLAZA COMMUNITY CENTER

Once more the Plaza Community Center has broken its yearly record for the volume of Christian service rendered to the Mexican people of this Southern California region. The last few months there has been special need for proper understanding and sympathetic interest concerning our Mexican friends. We have been called upon for special services in saving them from the loss of their little homes, in avoiding unjust deportations, and in supplying the vital needs in time of prolonged unemployment and consequent destitution. All the additional demands in this time of distress have been met by a personnel decreased on account of the financial necessities in the case. All this has been made possible through the sacrificing consecration and devotion of the workers, who have gladly risen to the occasion by giving additional time and strength to the task.

Further evidence of this devotion is manifested in the action of the entire Plaza staff voluntarily offering to the Board the return of one-tenth of their salaries each month to the organization for meeting maintenance costs and carrying on the work. The Plaza Community Center believes that no organization of the church has the right to accept Christian money unless it is rendering a distinctively Christian service in a distinctively Christian way. There are at least two reasons why this should be so; first, because people need moral and spiritual help, and unless the Church through its institutions shall give such aid through these contacts which furnish such a fine opportunity for it, who will do it? Second, because only in this way will Christ and His Church receive the credit which belong to them for this manifestation of brotherly interest and whole-hearted helpfulness. We simply aim to manifest the spirit of the Master in these temporal and physical ways, but we want the ones helped to know whose spirit actuates our service.

Our Clinic is carried on through the splendid volunteer service of eleven Christian physicians, highly reputable and competent in their profession and specialization work, eight of whom belong to the Methodist Church. During the year we lost Dr. G. L. Blanchard, who for ten years gave of himself and his services so generously to this work. We have been fortunate, indeed, in having his place filled by Dr. A. M. Wilkinson who is President of our United Methodist Brotherhood in Los Angeles. Those who attend our Clinic remark about the wonderful treatment they receive, and often speak appreciatingly of the help which they get from the prayer with which the Clinic work is always opened. To high-class medical and professional aid, is added Christian sympathy and personal interest. During the past year, free care and treatments to the amount of $1561 was given to a total of 2731 free patients. The total clinic registrations were 9756.

Our Children's Home is providing Christian training for eighteen Mexican boys and girls, who are orphans or half-orphans from Protestant Mexican homes. We have now been in operation along this line for eight years, filling a very great need, inasmuch as we are the only evangelical Home for Protestant Mexican children. Before the establishment of this Home, boys and girls from Protestant Mexican families were being turned over to Catholic Institutions. We have now moved to our own permanent location, where we have ample and adequate facilities for carrying on this special work, and where we can extend our services to include the care of as many as thirty boys and girls. The cost of maintenance, as compared with a number of other children's homes in the State, is the lowest by more than $10.00 per month per child. We are very proud of the competent and economical management, as well as the fine work which is being done with our boys and girls.

Our Christian Training School had an enrollment of 25 last fall, and included students from Anaheim, Fillmore, Whittier and Monrovia, as well as Los Angeles. The courses closed on Monday, June 15th. All instruction is given in Spanish, for the benefit of those of our special Christian workers who do not understand English, but who are desirous of receiving Christian education in doctrines and methods from the evangelical viewpoint, thus preparing them for a larger service in their respective local churches.

The General Welfare Department continues its service of Christian helpfulness along as many different lines as there are demands—Legal Aid, Free Employment for women, Business and domestic consultations and adjustments, Naturalization and deportation, Temporary Relief and Rehabilitation. The varieties of the demands in this department call for unusual ability and versatility, coupled with a real interest in those whom we help. This last year, there were 6690 registrations in this department. Employment was found for 273; 260 families received food, clothing and other relief; 138 jail services were held. Conscientious and capable Christian attorneys contribute their invaluable services to this important work, and there is also cooperation with the Mexican Consulate in various cases during the year.

In our Clinic and General Welfare departments, we have surpassed our former records by 1217, registering during the past year 16,446. This great volume of work has been made possible through the continued faithfulness of our many individual friends, together with the splendid efforts of the good women who form our Plaza Community Center Club. This Club has raised $500 for our Children's Home during this year, and is doing much to give proper publicity to the general work of our Center. We hereby express our thanks to the Board of Home Missions, these local organizations, and all the many friends who have helped us to "carry on," during this most difficult year of our history. We shall close this report with a statement from the Social Service Commission of Los Angeles, following a thorough investigation of our work.

"The Plaza Community Center is doing a constructive piece of work in the community, ministering to the spiritual, physical, intellectual, social and industrial needs of the Latin Americans. There is a large percentage of Mexicans in this community, and in teaching these people the principles and practices of good, honest and industrious citizenship, the Center is meeting a well-defined need in the community, as well as helping to promote a spirit of good-will between the two neighboring countries."

SPANISH AMERICAN INSTITUTE

Some twelve years ago, in the Mexican quarter of Santa Paula, a deputy sheriff was murdered. The community, being stirred with indignation arose in protest against this offensive group of gamblers, bootleggers, and undesirable citizens constituting the Mexican colony. Their homes were in box cars and shacks. They were an offense to the best in the civic life. Then it was that a better spirit prevailed, and the Evangelical Churches of the community united in an effort to reach these people with a social and saving Gospel.

Two years ago a boy from this same Mexican group came to the Institute, having a record of a juvenile tendency to crime. It was an experiment purely. The Institute is not a detention home. A few months after he had entered our school, I visited Santa Paula and met there one of the outstanding citizens, who asked me this question: "How do you so quickly change the lives of your boys? The boy that was sent from Santa Paula because we could not do anything with him locally, has lately been writing home, and a new note is in his letters. He has a new outlook on life." My answer was in that case, as in all others: "We are in the Institute to build character. We teach mathematics, printing, and many other branches of industrial and academic training, but the main reason for the school is its impact upon the life of a boy, by which he is faced toward his better self, toward a life that may be one of usefulness, and a Christ who will be his leader."

During the past year each of our five dormitories has been filled, and an overflow cared for. In spite of the depression our boys have averaged a higher rate of individual support than in any previous record. It will be interesting to note that twenty boys have paid $30.00 a month, and the payment from the amount down has brought the average to slightly over $17.00 a month per boy for the school year.

A new program in the printshop, by which we hope to make it commercially self-supporting, has been introduced. We are reducing our overhead by cutting salaries, and combining teaching forces to the extent of approximately $5000.

One of the important matters pertaining to the work of the Institute is the follow-up and development of the Alumni group. This organization, with the concurrence of our governing board, added one of its members to the directorate. The Alumni Association has also designated a scholarship, and has chosen a scholarship secretary.

During this past year we have had three of our boys attending the Junior College in Compton, four miles from the Gardena Institute. We are pleased to report that these boys have made splendid records, and have demonstrated the effectiveness of the college preparatory work of the Institute.

The eighteen years in which the school has been in existence has demonstrated the value of its educational purposes. The Mexican comes from a country where the majority of its people are illiterate, and where education for everyone is a new idea. The government of Mexico is today extending public education. The border states, notwithstanding the exodus in recent months of many thousands, still continues to be the home of a great multitude of Mexicans, for whom education is the one hope by which they may be lifted out of superstition, and given a new outlook. This education, to be effective, must be under sympathetic conditions. The Institute offers this spirit.

It is our conviction that we should carry forward our training through the Junior College and our lately developed Commercial school—which adds an extra year to the student's opportunity—so that when a boy leaves our institution, he will be prepared to take his place in a way that he could not if we completed our work with high school training only. It is our duty to follow through, beginning with the smaller boys, and inculcating the principles of the good life, leading steadily on through the grades and the handcraft departments, and vocationally illuminating the path, until, through the advanced classes, we have a prepared and trained Alumni, ready for useful service and leadership among their people. We must never forget that all history reveals no more terrible bondage than the four centuries in the background of our students. Patience that comes only from love will be able to go through with this task.

The Spanish American Institute has its future wrapped up in the heart attitude and friendship of our people, of whom you of the Southern California Conference represent the best. I am beginning my third year at Gardena, with added confidence that this work is well worth the while. To me it offers a pastoral responsibility, as well as an educational highway. I never think of it without having the word of the Master come vividly into the foreground. When on a day He stood up to speak in Nazareth, of which one had said, "Can any good thing come out of Nazareth?" He made pronouncement of that eternal hope, which may be linked up with any town, however socially lowered by sin, with any life, however broken be its existence when He said: "The spirit of the Lord is upon me, because He hath anointed me to preach the Gospel to the poor. He hath sent me to heal the broken hearted, to preach deliverance to the captives, and recovering of sight to the blind, to set at liberty them that are bruised."

LATIN AMERICAN MISSION

"Launch Out" was the Master's challenge to His discouraged pioneer group of disciples. It is His word to us in this pioneer work. The Bishops and Board of Home Missions have combined the Southwest Spanish Mission with the Latin American Mission, thus adding fifteen charges with 876 full members. The combined roster and report have not been fully organized as yet. The following report shows simply the launching out as reported by the Latin American Mission up until now.

PROPERTY: Noteworthy improvements and repairs have been done to our properties at San Francisco Italian, Calexico Mexican, Long Beach, Sacramento American Center. A good property has been dedicated at Fullerton, a fine new church awaits dedication at Ventura, Bakersfield is nearing completion, and the Watts Campaign now on is the major project until finished.

ORGANIZATION AND RESULT: The command to "Launch Out" is being obeyed by 39 regular paid workers, besides 10 welfare workers, 31 local preachers, 32 exhorters, 49 class leaders, and 130 regular volunteer Christian workers who are launching out into expanding fields.

The results of these labors on 30 circuits with 77 preaching places and dealing with 70,301 different persons leap forth in the following facts taken from their monthly reports: 8,789 meetings, 9,752 gospel messages, with an attendance of 303,981 persons present. The workers have traveled 197,736 miles, made 40,633 visits, written 5,153 letters, sold and given 444 Bibles, distributed 56,451 tracts and Christian books.

The 46 Sunday Schools enroll 3,274 disciples. There are 391 members in the Ladies' Aid Societies, the 44 Epworth and Junior Leagues are especially launching out in the evangelism of youth.

There have been 476 public conversions, 156 baptisms, 293 weddings. There are now enrolled 1,593 full members, 744 preparatory members, 919 non-resident members, making a total in all classes of 3,256. This does not include 335 affiliated members and 456 adherents, a grand total of 10,202, which is an increase over last year of over 40 per cent. These foreign-speaking churches "Launch Out."

In this year of crisis and distress, work was secured for 715, aid was given in time of need to 2,822, and medical aid was given to 8,119, a total 11,656 who have been helped to "Launch Out" once more on Life's sea.

The Latin American Mission was the first and only Mission or District in the San Francisco Area in the last report to show World Service paid in full. The quota has been increased from $1,200 to $1,740. The total annual giving in a decade has launched out from $3,000 to $15,000.

DEACONESS BOARD

The record of another year's faithful work is completed. Perhaps not all are realizing that the deaconesses are appointed by the Bishop (same as the ministers) by the ruling of the General Conference. The Executive Committee of the Conference Deaconess Board recommend these appointments to the Bishop.

The appointments for the year appear on another page. There are eighteen deaconesses in our Conference actively engaged, and four on leave of absence. Besides, several from other Conferences are amongst us as visitors, drawn by the lure of California, and ready for work when an opening occurs.

Our deaconesses have been engaged in parish work, secretarial, nursery clinic, hospital cases, religious education, Director of Young People's Department, and Director of Children's Work, and Superintendent of Deaconess Home.

Letters of high appreciation from their pastors in asking for their reappointment furnish fine tribute to service rendered.

These specialized and trained workers have done an incalculable work in training the children and directing youth. At the last session of their department, at the Church of All Nations, the children represented ten nationalities. Truly the nations of the world are our parish.

Our deaconesses have constantly served in giving relief in sickness and suffering, and never in the past has there been the demand, the heart breaking demand for the assistance, of this year. The need for supplies, milk for the children, money with which to meet pressing bills of those out of employment, and in families of our own children, have called for something more than a miscellaneous giving.

It is easy to serve with those in joyful circumstances; but the nerve tension and heart strain of meeting continually those who are suffering and in need, is not quite realized.

We give tribute to those faithful women who are doing what we cannot do and giving themselves in labors of love for our Master.

PACIFIC OLD PEOPLES' HOME

The year 1930-1931 has been one of varied experiences in your Home for the Aged. There have been trial and triumph, sorrow and joy, sickness and health. There have also been deaths. Though the experiences have been varied, the Lord has been good to your guests. Those who died were of ripe old age, sheaves ready for the harvest. They have only exchanged the temporary Home provided for them by you for an Eternal home provided by their Heavenly Father.

The Home closed the year certain of having done good work and encouraged to continue it. Those whom you have placed in charge of your Home for the Aged feel that you may well be encouraged by its past success and expect a greater future.

Chapel exercises are held every morning. Many members of the conference, and some other ministers have preached and lectured to our family. Epworth Leagues of the different churches under the capable leadership of Miss Wheeler, and other societies, have been kindly considerate of the religious welfare of the old people, and frequently visit the Home to hold devotional services.

It is to be expected that people of advanced age will be feeble and frequently ill. Many are quite old when they enter the Home. The residents have at times suffered from sickness. Sometimes it is very difficult to find adequate help besides our trained and practical nurses to care for them. Our standards of caring for the sick are very high; we realize that these guests of the church should be tenderly cared for in illness, and therefore always seek the most competent, kindest of helpers. It is a pleasure to report to you that notwithstanding frequent illnesses and many difficulties, your guests have been cared for in a way of which you may be proud. The average age of the life members is 78½ years; one-half of them are over 80 and one-eighth have passed the 85th milestone.

Finances are always vital. The Home has been maintained, it has grown, it has no debt, and yet not one of the churches of the Southern California conference has ever contributed to its support! This fact explains why the entrance fee is high. It is not a charitable institution; people who come to live with us, and those who come to board with us, pay their own way. Up to the present our great church has been doing no organized charitable work for aged people in this conference, though it is probable that no equal area in the United States contains so large a percentage of old people. Homes for the Aged which admit them for a low fee have either charitable sustentation or a substantial endowment.

Notwithstanding, we have many applicants for admission, even on these terms, to whom we must reply that there is no room. The Home is filled to its capacity for life members. Because of this fact the Trustees and superintendent are impelled to urge this conference to action in behalf of enlarged accommodations for the worthy men and women to whom "the grasshopper has become a burden." We must arouse the interest of our churches and people in this institution.

Pacific Old Peoples Home must not be regarded as a corporation outside the conference. It is identical with the conference, the corporation is the conference itself. When we try to enlist the interest of those who own its property and control its management, do not look upon us as intruders and exploiters. Any church is liable to need the kindly offices of the Home at any time for some worthy aged man or woman. In order to care for any respectable portion of those who are our responsibility we need the new building which will cost $250,000 and an enlarged endowment fund.

Under authority of the conference, some years ago we planned for an addition; an administration building and auditorium, with sanatorium-solarium on the top floor, where the infirm and sick can have hospitalization under the best of care. Various other "causes" seemed to have the right of way, and we waited the completion of the Campaign of Appreciation. Now we want to raise the money to triple the present accommodations; instead of 70 we would care for 210.

The trustees plan to seek the funds needed, not by collections in the churches, but by personal presentation of our work and our plans. If pastors will admit our representatives to their pulpits and permit us to tell the story, we believe there will be found men and women who will gladly give the money. Superintendent J. H. Durbahn and Vice-President L. T. Guild are appointed to represent the Home in pulpits, to dinner clubs, midweek meetings, to individuals. First of all we want to put literature in the hands of people who will read it. The need and the management are forceful solicitors. Surely there are people who will feel the responsibility of this great work and will respond to the fascinating story of this deeply Christian enterprise. We will supply pulpits (no collection) will speak briefly; would like to address groups of ministers or laymen.

Brethren, give us a chance in this work of the Master!

METHODIST HOSPITAL OF SOUTHERN CALIFORNIA

The period covered by this presentation marks the Twenty-eighth Anniversary of Methodism's activity in conducting what is now an outstanding hospital among all institutions of healing—operating solely upon the time tested theory that community service is justified.

During a most unusual period of economic readjustment and in the face of financial stringency that has challenged established and recognized leadership, the indomitable spirit of the membership of the Woman's Home Missionary Society of this Southern California Conference has not only "carried on" in the truest sense, but they have "carried beyond." In the raising of twenty-five thousand dollars to provide for payment of interest on capital indebtedness and a substantial portion of an original bond, these courageous women deserve the plaudits of good and true Methodists everywhere.

5,676 patients occupied hospital beds during the year and each received an average of ten continuous days' service of around the clock time. In giving this attention to our guests an organization of eighty-three student nurses and an employed personnel of eighty-seven salaried employees were required. Many persons, lacking in information of fact, complain of hospital rates. Our average earned hospital bill for last year was exactly sixty-five dollars per patient served or an average of six dollars and fifty cents per day inclusive of all services rendered by this modern hospital. Fabric of service comprises nursing of sufficient quantity by both students and graduates, the planning and serving of balanced diet comprising the right food constituents and of proper nutritive value to the patient being served, the study of pathological specimens obtained for the purpose and sent to a laboratory where they are examined and studied by highly skilled persons whose opinion is sought by the physician in making his diagnosis and outlining treatment, of a trip to the Roentgen Ray Department where a work of visible and most interesting character is carried on, of having a tracing resembling a jig saw puzzle made of your heart action, this being called a cardiogram, of an experienced masseur to give treatments that bring quick and lasting relief, of having tests made to determine body incineration and elimination, all being essential and component parts of a balanced hospital service of today and all being provided for in our hospital at the obviously low average cost as above referred to.

The physical condition of our property needs immediate attention toward rehabilitation. Much of the furnishings are worn out and must be replaced. Thorough repairs when justified by the cost to make are being resorted to. One entire section of the second floor of the hospital has been completely rehabilitated and as fast as the work can be carried on and financed, a continuation of such program is contemplated. Rates are being studied and lowered in some degree. Hospital rates, like charges for everything else, can be made too low which results in such curtailment of service as to be harmful.

Sup't.

GOOD SAMARITAN HOSPITAL

I feel that my report to this Conference is an inventory for the past year, showing our accomplishments and indicting the direction in which we are going. It is useless for me to tell you that the past year has been an extremely trying one.

For the first time in my eight years of reporting to the Conference do I report that we failed, for the calendar year of 1930 from which most of the figures for this report are taken, to make a very material progress in the number of patients in our Institution and the amount of business done. This is due more to the fact that for seven months of the year we were building our new wing, built at a cost of more than $250,000, adding seventy-five more beds to our hospital, and the noise and confusion driving away many patients who wished to come to us but did not on that account, rather than the general financial conditions. But after all those problems and troubles we have today one of the most beautiful buildings, as well arranged and equipped as you will find anywhere, rooms that are beautifully furnished with the thought of making a nice, cheerful homelike bedroom instead of the old plain institutional type of hospital room, bright cheerful colors with the color scheme running through the entire floor with painting, furniture, rugs and drapery to match in a beautiful color scheme, corridors that are cheerful, latest lighting devices, accoustical plastering, and flooring of rubber tiling, a roof garden over the entire wing with a modern elevator so that patients from anywhere in the building can be taken to enjoy the scenery, the sunshine or the glorious Arizona nights.

In this wing also is located our training school, including assembly room, Dietetic class room, Demonstration room, lecture room, all well and modernly equipped, also record rooms, new laboratory, ladies sewing room and a physical therapy department.

I am happy indeed to report to you that for this program we have received into our treasury, donations for that purpose totaling $92,377.86. We took this forward step and built the new wing because of a definite conviction that it was badly needed. We are located in the midst of a county with more than 150,000 population and we have the only Protestant hospital, and not only do we serve this county but receive many patients from all over the State, and we felt it our duty to measure up to the opportunity that was ours. Our next year's report, which will date from the first of this year, will, I am sure, prove to you that our judgment was right.

During the past year we cared for 3,167 patients of which 1,391 were surgery cases. The income from these patients represent $150,868.72 and the expenses were $154,923.37 or a loss of $3,954.65. Well, that is not at all bad. Yes, we lost money, not only in comparison with other years, but very faithfully and actually, but we are not downhearted. We feel that we did our duty and will ask you to remember that while we lost the above amount we actually spent for charity work $22,791.75. This was a material increase in our charity work but conditions demanded that we give these unfortunate people, who were so badly in need of our services, what they must have.

I am sure you will be interested in the most important point in any hospital today, which is the mortality rate. Our rate was .032 per cent and when we consider the many serious cases we have handled and know the interest we have taken in them and the care they have received, we feel that record is something to be proud of.

Would it interest you to know how many people it took to handle our work? Our regular pay roll numbers ninety-seven, to take the proper care of our establishment with its varied activities keeping us all busy.

The hospital today represents an investment of more than $815,000. To value the grounds as they were valued by the appraiser who loaned us money, would throw the valuation to more than $875,000 with an indebtedness of some $275,000.

Never will I forget that the hospital was founded on faith and love of service to humanity, inspired by the precepts and examples of our Blessed Master "who went about teaching, preaching and healing the sick." They were all impressed with the idea of the Church and hospital affiliation and the great need of such a combination of Christian service and work. We have met with many obstacles and have fought many hard battles but with faith and courage to dare and to do we have grown and prospered by the guidance of "Him who does all things well."

J. O. SEXSON, Manager.

CONFERENCE BOARD OF TRUSTEES

This has been a very peculiar year, and yet in many respects it has been the most blessed that your Treasurer has ever experienced. It is not an easy thing to go down into the Valley and shadow of Death, but it is a glorious thing to know the joy that comes with the new strength after a walk on the brink of that Valley. Better yet is the unspeakable joy that comes from some weeks of privilege of real communion that the busy days that preceded did not allow. It is also something to know that your friends care whether you get well or not. Altogether, I am exceedingly thankful for the year.

Needless to say, we have faced many problems financially. Perhaps none of us have ever seen a year with more hazards than this one has contained, and yet I feel that we have cause for great rejoicing in what has happened. The Campaign of Appreciation was one of the most astonishing successes that any of us have ever seen. It is almost unthinkable that in such a time of depression so much money could be raised. Your Treasurer has had much of praise given him on account of the success, but he knows where the credit belongs. It was a great privilege to help set up an organization, to see that the people received information and inspiration, but the hard task was out in the field, and that is where the real praise belongs.

There are preachers in this Conference that put over this Campaign who knew at the time that if they did so their own salary would be in jeopardy, but they never faltered. There are laymen and preachers that gave to this fund who could ill afford to do so, and if the retired preachers and widows could know of the love that prompted these sacrifices, they would be most happy. I would like to give special credit to the six District Superintendents who forgot about their own work to see that this was accomplished; to the six laymen who acted as District leaders—J. O. Sexson, R. O. Deacon, F. W. Curl, F. H. Ballinger, F. P. Taggart and S. W. McColloch, and to Elmer E. Helms as Chairman of the Campaign. No one will ever know of the days and nights these men gave that we might rejoice in this day. To these leaders, to the faithful pastors and loyal laymen, we give most hearty thanks.

You will be interested to know that of the $600,000 in annuities needed, $560,000 has been written, and of the $300,000 in cash subscriptions, we need less than $10,000 to complete the task. Had we delayed six, or even three months, this campaign would have been a failure, so that the word "Rejoice" should be written very large in our minds and hearts. However, the old question arises—"Will it be paid?" All I can say is that while only one-sixth of it is due at this time, which is less than $50,000, yet we have received $84,970 of it to date, and of course we are rejoicing.

Rumors are hard things to understand, and much harder to control. The rumor has been going everywhere that our office has lost heavily during this year. The only real loss that I know our office has sustained is two appendices and a pair of tonsils. These have meant financial loss, but not to the Conference funds! Seriously, there have been times this year when we have had great anxiety as to the outcome of some of our investments, but I can truthfully say that up to this moment we have not had any losses in principal. You will see by the financial statement that we have considerable interest due, but with care this can be collected. We have had one case of embezzlement by a Mortgage Company that failed, where they cashed a mortgage of $14,000 belonging to us, but we are assured that we will be paid back most of this, and quite likely we will receive the whole of it. This case is before the Grand Jury at this time. When this Mortgage Company failed the word went far and wide that our losses would be great. Here are facts: We held three Trust Deeds with them, but all of them have first class security and we hold all the papers. There will be no loss there. We also held three issues of Bonds. One for $5,000 has been paid in full, both principal and interest. A second one is safe and we are receiving our dividends. The third one has been reorganized and the Receiver holds cash to pay the coupons July first.

I am aware of the fact that a mere statement of mine that we have not sustained losses, may not go unchallenged. Questions have been asked me within a week regarding some issues that went into default some years ago, and in which some of the Conference funds were invested. That this rumor may go no further, permit me to give specific answer to it. One of these in question is the Imperial Cotton Mills. This issue was purchased by our office 8 years ago, and later it failed. The question has been asked repeatedly—"Did you not sustain a loss in this?" The facts are that we do not have all of our money back, but from time to time liquidating checks have been received, and we now lack but $400 of having all of it. We have assurances that we will receive the entire amount.

Another troublesome issue was that of the Cleveland Discount Company, whose bonds we purchased in 1922. One month after our purchase the Company was placed in the hands of a Receiver and their President sent to the penitentiary. These bonds looked like a real loss, but later we traded them into another Company, and the prospects seem good that we will entirely liquidate the old issue and come out without a loss.

You are entitled to all these facts, but I would not go into them in such detail if it were not for the fact that confidence must be restored. Some of our annuitants have written in to know how the losses would affect them. Every dollar of annuity interest has been and will be paid on the date when due. As a matter of caution we have had, within three months, a careful study of all our properties, every bond has been investigated, and all our holdings have been checked. With conditions as they are in the business world we feel very thankful that our funds are in as good condition as they are. We have property that is not worth as much today as when we took it over, but upon the advice of the best informed men we could find, our Board has decided to accept the reduced income for the time being, and not sacrifice in the sale of our property. This is no time for hysteria, but it is a time for a constructive program, and that is the endeavor of your Board of Trustees. Leaving the personal element out, I do not know where you could find a Board that gives more time and more constructive thinking to the needs of your funds, than does your Board of Trustees, and every minute of that time is given without remuneration.

This year, for the first time, we are putting into your hands and into the Minutes, a copy of the Auditor's condensed statement. It will not be easy to compare it with last year, for a different system has been used, but you will notice that our gross Assets have increased $154,258, and that our total Assets in the Conference and Hough Endowment Funds have now reached a little more than a million and a half dollars.

Our Board and the Conference sustained a real loss this year in the death of our Brother, E. W. Pasko. For 15 years he faithfully helped in the work of this Board, and we greatly miss his unflinching loyalty and wise counsel. The Board elected Hardy A. Ingham to fill out the year.

How can we thank all of you for your patience and kindly cooperation? This Conference has a big task in providing an adequate Pension Fund, but we are greatly encouraged and believe we are on the high road to a successful solution of the problem.

A. RAY MOORE.

SURVEY OF GERMAN CHURCH PROPERTY

Your Commission met on June 12, 1931. Fifteen members were present. There was a free exchange of thought concerning the possibilities of the property of the First German Church and its relation to the conference. There was a fine brotherly spirit throughout this discussion. The time does not seem opportune to join our recourses in any proposed building plan to make the property productive of income. Our canvass of the situation, however, was productive of good will. Many questions were clarified and there was mutual understanding of each other's problems and viewpoint. It was clear on the part of the Trustees of the German Church that they are deeply indebted to this Conference for taking care of the retired ministers of the former German Conference, and that in some way they must bear their proportionate share of this burden at the earliest possible time. It was equally clear on the part of the Trustees of this conference that nothing should be done that would in any way hinder the progress and missionary activity of the First German Church of Los Angeles. Subsequently the Quarterly Conference of said church adopted the following resolutions:

"At the time of the merger of the California German Conference with the two adjacent conferences, two pronouncements were made to which this Quarterly Conference should relate itself.

1. In order to offset the insufficient funds which the California German Conference brought over to the Southern California Conference to take care of the German retired ministers, certain income properties (total $492,500) were listed from which it is expected that said deficiency shall be made up. Of this amount $250,000 was listed against the First German Church of Los Angeles. Through some inadvertence this matter was never brought before this Quarterly Conference, nor has this Conference ever expressed its attitude toward this matter.

2. In said merger it was also stated that the German work should not be neglected. This church has for many years strongly supported the German work, spending thousands of dollars in purchasing properties, helping to finance and supplementing the meager salaries of the ministers doing the missionary work among the German people. Added to this we face the fact that we are almost alone among the Protestant churches of this growing city who are making an effort to win the German speaking people for the Kingdom of Christ. This puts us under obligation not to retrench but rather to expand the work with which we believe God and the Church has charged us. We thus have before us two major obligations, one toward the support of the Retired Ministers' Fund which is now caring for our German ministers at a sacrifice, the other toward our continued support of missionary work among the German speaking people of Los Angeles.

BE IT THEREFORE RESOLVED by this Quarterly Conference met this Fourteenth Day of June, 1931:

1. That we make no disposition of our property without first consulting the Commission on Survey of the First German Church property.
2. That we continue to carry on to our best ability, missionary work among the German speaking people of Los Angeles and within the Bounds of our Conference.
3. That as soon as we are able, and it seems wise, to sell or otherwise dispose of our property, we make adjustment with the Retired Ministers' Fund of the Southern California Conference that shall be brotherly, fair and equitable."

RUDOLPH ZURBUCHEN.

COMMISSION ON FINANCE

Report No. 1

The Commission recommends that the apportionment for the Missionary and Evangelistic Society be fixed at $20,000 (exclusive of the Los Angeles District) and that the distribution of receipts be left to the Missionary and Evangelistic Society. This is the same apportionment as last year.

Report No. 2

It is recommended that the authorized expenses of the Commission for the year 1931-32 be fixed as follows:

Our portion of the salary of A. Ray Moore, Treasurer	$ 600
For bookkeeping and Accounting	1,200
For Stationery and Postage	520
Our Share of Rent	480
Area Expenses	2,000
Total	$4,800

Report No. 3

The Commission recommends that the apportionment set by the Los Angeles Missionary and Church Extension Society for the churches of the city be accepted and approved by the Conference.

Report No. 4

The Commission recommends that the request of the Harbor District Home Missionary Society for an apportionment of 50 cents per member to the churches in the Harbor District for Church Extension work, be approved. The churches included are those of Long Beach, Wilmington and San Pedro.

Report No. 5

The Commission recommends that the apportionment for the support of the State Church Federation be fixed on the basis of four cents per member for the entire Conference, exclusive of the Arizona District, and that the entire amount be sent down to the churches according to the regular manner of apportionment.

Report No. 6

The Commission recommends that the charges of the Southern California Conference be requested to contribute the following amounts to the support of the Religious Educational work being carried on by our church for the students enrolled at our State Institutions of learning:

State University at Berkeley	$ 700
State Teachers College at Fresno	600
State University at Los Angeles	2,700
Wesley Foundation Work in Arizona	200

(All monies received from Arizona to be used for the work in that State.)

"In view of the fact that the above apportionment will not meet the needs of the Wesley Foundation work of the Conference, we recommend that the churches co-operate with the Board of Managers in securing supplementary funds."

Report No. 7

The Commission recommends that the report of the Conference Stewards be accepted, and that the amount asked by them for Conference Claimants be apportioned to the churches by the commission—provided that the amount asked shall not be less than $25 for each year of service, which is the legal rate computed from our statistics according to the order of the General Conference.

Report No. 8

The Commission recommends that the salaries of the District Superintendents be fixed for the coming year at $4,000, and that in addition they be allowed $400 for traveling expenses and $600 toward house rent. $500 is also recommended to apply on the rent of an office for the District Superintendents in the Methodist Headquarters at Los Angeles.

It is further recommended that where a District makes further provision for house rent or traveling expenses, said amount be added to the quota asked from the charges of that District, and sent down to the charges as a separate item.

Report No. 9

The Commission recommends that the sum of $3,000 be apportioned the churches for the support of the Church School work of our Conference under the direction of the Board of Education.

Report No. 10

The Commission recommends that the grade discovered by the examination of the statistics on membership and total giving for the past three years be used as a basis for apportionment to the Districts. They are as follows: Arizona, 5%; Fresno, 8%; Long Beach, 21.5%; Los Angeles, 24%; Pasadena, 25.5%; San Diego, 16%.

Report No. 11.

The Commission recommends that on account of the emergency that has arisen at the Spanish American Institute and the Plaza Community Center, they be allowed to make private solicitation for funds for these institutions.

Report No. 12

The Commission recommends that the Pacific Old People's Home be allowed to solicit annuities, estate notes, wills and other funds by personal solicitation for the purpose of erecting a new building at the cost of $250,000.

Report No. 13

The Commission recommends that for the Entertainment and Travel Fund the following amounts be the basis for the apportionment:

Conference Minutes	$2,300
Entertainment and Travel	5,500
Printing, Postage and Clerical help for Treasurer & Statistician....	400
Deficit for two years	300
Total	$8,500

EQUALIZATION OF SALARIES

Two years ago, in the report on the State of the Church, the following recommendation was made: "In order to lessen the restlessness and unbrotherliness in our fellowship, and live, as well as preach the gospel of service, we recommend that a commission of seven be appointed to study all suggested solutions of other conferences, as well as our own, and bring in a plan or plans looking toward a minimum salary and a more equitable distribution of all salaries." Such a committee was raised and after careful and prayerful work they submit the following:

1. The Name shall be the Fellowship Fund of the Southern California Conference.
2. We recommend that all effective members of the Southern California Conference shall be participating members of this fund.
3. We suggest that, for administrative purposes, the Missionary and Evangelistic Society of this Conference be merged with the Fellowship Fund, it being expressly understood that this in no way affects the apportionment to the churches for the Missionary and Evangelistic Fund.
4. We earnestly recommend a minimum salary schedule as follows:
 - (a) All single men in full time appointments shall receive $1200 and living quarters.
 - (b) Married men in full time appointments shall receive $1500 and parsonage.

(c) Married men, in our traveling connection for four years or more, shall receive $1800 and parsonage, with $100 additional for each of the first two children.

5. We recommend that all effective members of the conference contribute to the Fund the following percentages of their cash salary:

Under \$1999, $\frac{1}{2}\%$; \$2000 to \$2999, 1%; \$3000 to \$3999, $1\frac{1}{2}\%$; \$4000 to \$4999, 2%; \$5000 and over, $2\frac{1}{2}\%$.

In the event a member owns his home, or pays cash rent, the actual rent paid shall be deducted from cash salary, to determine the basis of his share in the Fund.

6. We request the Cabinet to readjust charges, particularly by forming circuits, in order that minimum salaries may be provided.

7. We recommend that the Fellowship Fund be administered by the Commission on Finance, in accordance with the provisions of the Discipline, Paragraph 378, Sec. 9.

8. We also recommend that one year from this date all payments be made to this fund quarterly in advance, and, further, we suggest that all who can do so, begin this year to pay quarterly in advance.

9. We ask you to anticipate the time when all money received from the Board of Home Missions Maintenance Fund shall be used for extension work only, and that, in the strategic points of the Conference.

10. We desire to commend most heartily the faithful work of the Conference Relations Committee, with the Board of Ministerial Instruction, in safeguarding the doorway to the Conference. We urge that constant diligence be given, that our standard salary minimum may not serve as a refuge for inefficiency and ministerial indolence.

And to that end we recommend that the Annual Conference appoint for each district a Committee of three laymen, three pastors and the District Superintendent whose duty it shall be to investigate each pastoral charge to which appropriations are proposed, and recommend such appropriations to the Commission on Finance only when in the judgment of the committee such charges have done all in their power to meet such standards.

Finally, brethren, we believe the time has come, and now is, when we should lay in this great conference foundations of brotherly understanding, of sacrificial devotion, of mutual helpfulness, to the end that we may build an house not made with hands, but made with hearts attuned to the will of God, made with confidence in our brethren who are true yoke-fellows in the Gospel, and made of faith unfeigned in the ability of Jesus Christ to establish the Kingdom of God on earth.

S. S. SAMPSON, Chairman.

STATE OF THE CHURCH

No one can deny that the Christian Church is now facing problems and conditions which seem to call for an almost impossible power if they are to be solved for the Master. In the face of these facts many people have lost hope. They point to the decline in membership statistics as a sign that we are losing ground. They believe that the Sunday evening attendance problem is an indication that we are losing power. They consider the tragic decrease in World Service as a sign of increased selfishness among our people. Furthermore they point to the apparent breakdown of law enforcement; the acute economic conditions and the serious international difficulties as indications of the impotency of the Church in modern life. It is true that we must frankly face these facts. However something else should be said. In the first place, problems are not new. The Christian Church has always faced a crisis of some kind. In fact it is always at its best and grows in power in proportion as it attempts to solve some perplexing problem. Then, too, it should be remembered that a mere recognition and definition of the condition is in itself an indication of progress.

Never before has the Church been better equipped to solve these things. We have better buildings and more finances. We have better trained ministers and laymen with a clearer vision of the issues involved. The only question is whether we have the spiritual daring to face the problems before us. There is no room for defeatism in the Christian Church. We must remember the words of the Master who said, "Everything is possible for one who has faith," and go forward in that spirit.

The task of the Church is essentially a regenerative one. The individual must have new motives and new ideals with a power sufficient to live up to them. Society must be transformed. It must have new social motives and social ideals. Both individuals and society must become "new creatures in Christ Jesus." The Church can never be content until this regenerative process is actually transforming every phase of life. The spirit of Christ must permeate all life. We must have a "new heaven and a new earth."

This can be accomplished only when men are willing to give themselves in sacrificial service for the things which they profess to believe. It means that we will be through with merely stating sweeping generalities and will proclaim specific ways in which we can change life to make it more Christlike. We must face particular issues.

The hour has struck when we must call men to give their first and supreme allegiance to Jesus. Jesus sent away men who would not give Him first place in their lives. Our greatest problem today is the same thing. Men are willing and glad to have Christ but they want him to be secondary. Unfortunately even our nation through the recent supreme court decision says that it will accept as citizens only those people who put the government first. Many people find the same principle involved in participation in modern business and social life. Our Church must take its stand beside His words, "Seek ye FIRST the Kingdom of God," and aggressively proclaim that message. We must call our people to a new heroism, the heroism of actually putting Jesus first in practice as well as belief, regardless of the cost. Nothing can stop the advance of His kingdom if we all give Him first place in our lives.

RUSSELL E. CLAY.

COMMISSION ON WORSHIP AND MUSIC

Your commission has during the past year sent to the General Conference Commission in charge of the new Hymnal the recommendations which you voted at the last session of this Annual Conference. We also prepared a bibliography on Worship for any who might desire it. At this session there is an exhibit of Orders of Worship used in various churches, which may prove helpful.

We wish now to sound a rallying call—that our entire Conference join in a renewed reality and earnestness in all our worship, whether it be private or public, personal or congregational.

The current discussion about Orders of Worship is interesting and valuable; yet it is a discussion concerning the forms through which this intense and powerful spiritual force shall be manifested: for as to worship itself, there is no discussion. We are all agreed.

Individually and collectively we have need to repent of the lukewarmness and indifference with which we have lifted up our hearts unto the Lord. All of us need to resolve that the congregations we shall next year lead into the presence of God shall be uplifted to the very throne of grace by the spiritual power which shall characterize our leadership in this precious and potent act of the soul. Reality, intense reality, the reality of a human spirit touched with God's Holy Spirit must pervade whatever we do in this matter, whether our prayer is newly brought forth from the treasury of our hearts, or whether it be an ancient outpouring of the human soul toward God, enriched by the devotion of worshipping multitudes through half a thousand years. If this anointing of the Spirit of God is upon our hearts and our lips, the question as to what Order of Service we shall use will become a quite secondary matter.

Therefore, let all our music be sung and played as unto the Lord. Let the musician and the singer go to their places with all the eager earnestness of the prophetic preacher going to his pulpit. When we approach God through extemporaneous prayer, let us feel that we are indeed in the presence of all the holiness and love and power of the King in his beauty. And when we use ritual exhortation or prayer in which many "shall agree on earth as touching anything that they shall ask," let it be uttered not as a mere expression of intellectual good taste in worship, but with all the richest and warmest feelings of the Methodist heart.

Yet the matter of our Orders of Worship, while secondary, is nevertheless important. We read often in these days concerning the psychological processes through which a perfect act of worship is consummated: yet many of us could testify of high moments in which certain of these experiences were ours, even though we were not conscious of the previous steps in the classical worship series. However, these seemingly omitted stages of worship were present as understood, implied, included elements, although not consciously identified. Therefore, in planning or selecting an Order of Worship, why should we not choose such expressions of song or prayer or praise as will most easily and naturally assist us to ascend unto the holy place of the Lord?

No Order of Worship should be considered as a rigid and petrified thing, capable of no substitution. The genius of Methodism is to adapt to our own use or to new uses whatever has proven useful; and to set aside such methods or measures as are no longer effective. Therefore, whatever Order of Worship we may use, it must always be subject to changes, additions or omissions, or complete setting aside, as the Spirit and the occasion may direct. Used in such manner, none of these Orders or observances now under consideration will lead to formalism or rigidity.

Of the proposed Orders of Worship for the Methodist Episcopal Church recommended by the General Conference Commission on Worship and Music, we consider the first Order of the series to be the richest and most practicable for the ordinary church.

The resounding instrument of the earlier Methodism was abounding joy in the service of the Lord. In these latter years we have too often hung that particular harp upon the willows, whence our brethren of the so-called Pentecostal sects have plucked it down, and have sounded it to their great profit, power and advantage. We believe that the joyful praise of God should once more express our principal emphasis in worship, and should again bring vitality into our prayer-meetings, even though the especial topic for the occasion might thereby receive somewhat less extended treatment. The word "faith" is found in the Old Testament only twice; but those ancient pages resound with exhortations to praise the Lord, to bless the Lord, to give thanks unto God. As a consequence, perhaps, the words "faithful," "faithfully," and "faithfulness" frequently occur. We moderns have overlooked the great spiritual law that to bless and praise the Lord, and to give thanks unto his name, are the mightiest, surest, and speediest methods of developing faith—that faith of which in this our day there is at least no surplus.

With your approval, your Commission will, therefore, recommend to the General Conference Commission which is working on the new Hymnal, that they include a plentiful number of hymns of joy and praise; and that those selected be not only such as are expressed in the vocabulary of 18th Century Methodism, but also those written in the speech of the 20th Century. There is no orchestrated edition of our present Hymnal: hence we will suggest that the new Hymnal be printed in an orchestral edition, so that our church orchestras will no longer be compelled to turn to less worthy collections in order to find music ready prepared for their especial use.

LYMAN R. BAYARD.

INTERNATIONALISM, DISARMAMENT, AND PEACE

Christianity must finally rule international relations or else it will ultimately become futile as a personal experience. If we are to be true to our supreme allegiance to Jesus Christ we must bring both our social attitudes and our national policies and practices into conformity to his principles. He taught and practiced love and good will as the only basis for social relations. In a world which talks peace and trusts mainly the sword we must follow Christ whenever there is a conflict of loyalties. There are some issues to-day which demand that we define our attitudes as Americans and as Methodists.

1. Compulsory military training is a violation of the traditions of Americanism and of freedom of conscience for many Christians. It should therefore have no place in our educational institutions.

2. President Hoover's recommendation of a moratorium on reparation and international debt payments is a constructive step for the doing away with international suspicion and ill will and for the promotion of mutual understanding, and should receive our unqualified approval and support. Furthermore, we believe that peace will be uncertain until the treaty of Versailles is reopened with reference to the elements of equity and justice for all nations.

3. The World Court and the League of Nations, constituting the best present available means of international organization and including practically the whole world except Russia, Turkey, Abyssinia, Mexico, and the United States, should be joined by this country at the earliest possible moment.

4. We regard the recent decision of the United States Supreme Court in the MacIntosh case as a direct blow at the constitutional guarantee of freedom of conscience. By this decision no person who gives his supreme loyalty to God is eligible to citizenship.

5. We believe that our present high tariff barrier, resulting in the concentration of the world's wealth in America and in reprisals on the part of other nations, is a menace to the peace of the world, and should therefore be revised downward.

6. Inasmuch as participation in war is, for many in our church, a denial of their supreme loyalty to Jesus Christ, and inasmuch as the United States Government in the Kellogg-Briand Peace Pact, and our church in General Conference statements, have both renounced the war method of settling international disputes, we affirm the right of our members to refuse, on the basis of conscience, to support any war. Exemption from military service should be granted all those for whom such service is a repudiation of their Christian principles.

7. In the event of war conscription of property, wealth and labor should accompany conscription of life.

8. The time has come for the United States to show the sincerity of its peace professions by taking an active part in the Disarmament Conference to be held at Geneva, next February. We believe that a fair proportion of civilians, as well as military technicians, should be appointed on the American delegation.

9. Furthermore, it is our conviction that an attitude of personal justice and brotherliness toward those of other races in our own communities is an acid test of our sincerity in passing peace resolutions.

We recommend that the secretary be instructed to transmit the appropriate sections of this report to the individuals and legislative and administrative bodies involved, and to the press.

W. A. MATSON.

SOCIAL SERVICE AND PUBLIC MORALS

"By the necessary law of its life the gospel of the individual Christian must expand. It cannot remain within itself. If it does it dies. If it is to expand it must push out into that realm which we call the social. On the other hand, the expansion of religion thus outward urges upon us the need of ever increasing the force at the center, so that the evangelists and teachers and pastors who labor to deepen the inner spring of religious purpose must in the last analysis be those to whom we look for power which will bring about social regeneration."

The flood of social consequences which followed the financial debacle of 1929 is still on the rise and will continue to rise for another year, regardless of what might happen to business. What are these social consequences? To the average Mr. Babbitt the problem is one loss in market values and volume, decline in production, the passing of dividends. The most obvious result to the welfare worker is the family breakage, and sickness started by the loss of income; delinquency both juvenile and adult; desertion and general unhappiness.

The problem comes back again and again to that assertion of Emerson, that the chief products of a community is not its experts, its manufactured goods, its wealth, but rather the kind of people it turns out.

There are things worse than physical hunger, yet there are those active in the affairs of the world today who would counsel the curtailing of splendid progress of all character-building agencies within and without the church that the physical needs of man might be met. It is not a choice between the body or the spirit. It is a problem of both.

With one boy in every one hundred carrying a record of delinquency in these days of unemployment, idleness and home privation, there has never been a time in the life of the American people when skillfully organized leisure-time activities of a character building nature were more necessary. Local Programs of Religious Education Institutes, camps, the YMCA, YWCA, Scout Camps, Settlements, Community Houses, and Playgrounds.

WHEREAS persons interested in the vice resorts on the California-Mexican border are continuing their efforts to increase the hours of border regulations to a twenty-four hour period; and

WHEREAS, the removal of the present border restrictions will mean the increase of vice, drinking, gambling, and immorality in the border cities maintained for these purposes, increasing the amount of money taken from legitimate business and spent for vice and corruption, as well as the obvious increase in moral injury to our American people, therefore be it

RESOLVED, that the Southern California Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church protest all efforts to increase the hours for crossing the United States-Mexico border, and be it further

RESOLVED that a copy of this resolution be sent by our secretary to the President of the United States, and to Hon. S. Lowman, Asst. Secy. of the Treasury Department, urging them to use their efforts to maintain the present restrictive regulations.

2. GAMBLING SHIPS. IT IS RECOGNIZED by the moral forces of Southern California that the operation, maintenance and keeping of the so-called gambling ships off the shores at Long Beach, Ventura and elsewhere, are the illegal, immoral and pernicious acts of certain men.

It is further recognized that the agencies of law enforcing bodies have been more or less baffled in proceeding in a legal manner sufficient to cope with, or halt, the operations of these gambling vessels.

In view of the fact that the State penal statutes and local ordinances fall short of absolutely and forever doing away with the gambling ships off the shores of the state of California and in view of the fact that we are aware that an emergency exists, we commend the stand heretofore taken by civic leaders throughout Southern California and in particular the City Prosecutor of Long Beach, in condemning and censoring and pronouncing as wrong and evil, the operation, maintenance and keeping of the gambling ships off the shores of our state; and that definite action shall be taken which shall call this emergency to the attention of the executive and legislative branches of our national government for the purpose of obtaining immediate relief.

3. ALIEN REPRESENTATION. We concur in the unanimous action of the Board of Temperance, Prohibition and Public Morals and with the action of the New York East Conference in supporting the Sparks-Capper Amendment resolution which is designed to stop counting the aliens in the population taken to determine representation in the legislature, and we furthermore urge the acceptance of the principle by the states in securing representation to the state legislatures.

4. MARRIAGE AND THE HOME. We are pleased to note the increasing interest of religious and educational groups in the problems of marriage and home life. We heartily commend the Federal Council of Churches for its careful study and sane pronouncements in this field, and urge its continued activity.

We desire to commend those pastors who follow the practices of making a searching examination into the spiritual and intellectual fitness of their brides and grooms before taking the solemn vows of marriage. We urge that all ministers make themselves familiar with the vast amount of accumulated facts relative to successful family life and that they make this information available to every couple they marry.

It is our earnest conviction that when the Christian ideal of marriage is fortified by thorough training of brides and grooms and by careful pastoral supervision, that divorce and domestic discord will become much less of a problem than they are today.

We furthermore pledge to the ministers of the State of Nevada our utmost efforts by intelligently counselling our young people to the end that we will help make unnecessary and eventually impossible the Reno divorce mill.

5. TOBACCO EVIL. The enticing and seductive advertising by radio, press and billboard of the malicious and greedy tobacco interests have missed no opportunity to aim their poison darts directly at their intended victims, the youth of the world, regardless of sex, and we who oppose their nefarious and enslaving schemes must likewise appeal to the youth, enlisting its vision, its courage, its idealism and its indomitable enthusiasm in a determined combat with a conscience less enemy.

6. THE BABY KILLING CAMPAIGN. "Sixty per cent of all babies born of cigarette-smoking mothers die before they reach the age of two, due primarily to nicotine poisoning".

This startling statement was made by Dr. Charles D. Barber, of Lansing, Michigan, before the annual convention of the American Association for Medico-Physical Research.

"A baby born of a cigarette-smoking mother is sick", he declared. "It is poisoned and may die within two weeks of birth. The post mortem examination shows degeneration of the liver, heart and other organs."

7. CHURCH IN INDUSTRY. We further concur in the plan to have a joint committee of the denominations which would set up several interdenominational commissions to study the general theme of "The Church and Industry", to the end that we seek an interdenominational conference of the Church and Industry in the spring of 1932 or as soon thereafter as is possible. We recommend that the new conference committee on social problems, internationalism and state of the church be commissioned to cooperate with other denominations in this study.

7. LIQUOR. Liquor is still one of the half dozen major issues and problems. It is still the hideous, heartless, damnable thing that it has always been.

It still bribes and corrupts legislators, officers, judges, good citizens, youth. The Methodist Church, with other churches, must do more than pass resolutions. We must stand by our President in his fight for enforcement. We must expose the motives of those who are trying to misrepresent him.

We must preach, organize and teach in all our churches that our children may know all the evils of liquor. We must insist that the law of the state, requiring public school teachers to teach the evil effects of alcohol in all the schools, be enforced.

We must commend, encourage and strengthen the hearts of judges, officers and newspapers striving to do their duty in this issue.

We are resolved to say to our congregations that so far as we have the power, the evil of liquor shall end.

R. A. McKIBBEN.

INDUSTRIAL RELATIONS

The value of any institution must be measured in terms of character production. One of the dangers in modern industry is to subordinate man to the machine, and to evaluate him in terms of material efficiency. Against this tendency the church must take her stand and insist on the sacredness of personality.

We are passing through a period of severe economic readjustment. Various causes have been given and numerous solutions offered. A Christian ethic demands specific remedies and not mere palliatives.

We believe that before prosperity can come to America, the finance of Europe must be stabilized. We are against the building of high tariff walls, thus crippling the buying power of sister nations. The creation of world markets for our goods involves the opportunity for others to sell to us. A bankrupt Europe will never spell a prosperous America.

We highly commend the action of President Hoover in working for a year's suspension of Germany's debts. We believe that this is an important step toward economic recovery and the restoration of good will.

We stand for the best devisable program of employment insurance so that every man may be guaranteed a livelihood in times of economic stress.

We also believe that a more equitable distribution of wealth would aid in a final solution.

At a time when the American Legion is insisting upon the conscription of wealth as well as men in the event of war, we should demand no less as a peace time program. Wealth can better stand the strain of being staggered than men with meager income. We, as a church, are opposed to any solution which would involve the lowering of the standards of living or the cutting of wages while the wealth of our country is left untouched.

Finally, the church of today is faced with a challenge to bring into practical effect, the spirit, the program, and the method of Jesus.

THOS. L. BURDEN.

COMITY WITH THE METHODIST EPISCOPAL CHURCH, SOUTH

Some years, in the past, the Methodist Episcopal Church and the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, in Sanger, united as a Methodist Episcopal Church; while in exchange the English-speaking Methodist Episcopal Church in Kingsburg was united with the Methodist Episcopal Church, South. Since that time, the Swedish Methodist Episcopal Church in Kingsburg has become an English speaking Church. The Church, South, now claims that we are again in competition with them. Accordingly, they claim that the Methodist Episcopal Church is indebted to them on one comity count. This bit of history is essential to make clear the justice of the comity arrangement just completed in Dinuba.

At the beginning of the present negotiations, the proposition was made that the two Methodist Churches in Dinuba should be united as a Church, South, and the two in Redlands, Grace and the Church, South, should become one under the supervision of the Methodist Episcopal Church. During the negotiations, the bishop of the Church, South, called attention to the present situation in Kingsburg and requested that the two churches in Dinuba be united as a Church, South, in order to be fair in the comity arrangement of the two denominations. After careful discussion and full deliberation, it was unanimously decided to grant this request and hence, the two Methodist Churches in Dinuba will become officially a Methodist Episcopal Church, South, on July first.

Your committee recommends that this Conference shall confirm its action in the matter of uniting the two Methodist Churches in Dinuba, under the Church, South.

COMMISSION ON THEOLOGICAL EDUCATION ON THE PACIFIC COAST

The entire Commission on Theological Education on the Pacific Coast met in Sacramento, Cal., April 23, 1931. The members from the Portland and San Francisco Areas, together with the two Bishops, were present. Reports were received from the Northwest and from the two California Conferences.

The Chairman of the Southern California group reported that he had written some fifty letters to ministers, laymen and educators in his Conference. The majority of the replies suggested preference for a site adjacent to the University of Southern California. The Ministers all reported in favor of one Interdenominational School for the Coast; the educators suggested Berkeley as a location or, if in the South, at the University of Southern California or the Pacific Palisades. All of the men seemed open-minded in the matter of location and auspices.

No decision was reached and a desire was expressed for further study.

J. LEWIS GILLIES.

PERMANENT LOCATION OF CONFERENCE

Your Committee on the Permanent Location of the Conference, after considerable consideration, submits the following principles which it believes to be basic:

1. The Conference should be as centrally located as possible, to the end that the assessment for entertainment and travel be kept within due bounds, and that it may be possible for laymen easily to attend the sessions as delegates and visitors.

2. The site selected should offer abundant facilities for pleasant entainment, such as housing and meals, and also ample auditorium facilities for large gatherings and rooms for committee sessions and attractive quarters for the Bishop and cabinet.

3. The site should be such as will permit the families of ministers from the hot, interior valleys to enjoy a refreshing vacation during the Conference session.

4. The site should be free from the distractions of a great city, so that a better Conference solidarity and esprit du corps might be created.

5. Bearing these facts in mind, your Committee recommends that the Conference continue at First Church Long Beach for the next session.

6. But the committee does recommend that the invitation of the Pacific Palisades Association for a permanent location for the conference home be accepted for the session of 1933.

7. That a commission of five be raised by the Conference to cooperate with the Board of Trustees of the Pacific Palisades Association for the development of equipment adequate for the needs of the Conference.

WILLSIE MARTIN.

METHODIST EMBLEM

Your Committee has met during the year. We believe that from the standpoint of publicity the proposal to adopt a universal emblem or sign by the churches composing the Southern California Conference is well worth while. We have inquired as to designs and prices and find that permanent enamel signs both dignified and artistic in appearance can be purchased in quantity for less than had been anticipated.

However, the matter is not pressing, and in view of the financial straits in which many of our churches find themselves and the fact that every available dollar is urgently needed elsewhere we deem it inexpedient to bring this matter before the Conference at this time.

Therefore we recommend that the Committee be continued for one year to make further investigation and to bring in a report at the session of 1932.

W. C. EDDY.

HISTORICAL SOCIETY

Your committee submits five recommendations:

1. A careful study by every pastor of the "Church Roll and Pastoral Assignments" in the Conference Minutes, with a view to making corrections by placing same in hands of Secretary W. C. Botkin. This record is very valuable.

2. An accurate preparation of the Pastoral and Statistical Record" in the old "Ideal" Church Record to be found in nearly every charge. This conspectus is very important.

3. A permanent bound volume of local history in every charge, a portion of which may well be devoted to the preservation of newspaper clippings and other printed matter of church interest.

4. The binding in a permanent form each year of a file of the church bulletin and special programs.

5. The annual observance is a worthy way of a "Founders Day" celebrating the date of organization of each church.

You have been told ad nauseam that the pastor is the "key" man. Nevertheless your committee suggests that the success of our effort to rescue historical data already all but lost, depends entirely upon the interest taken by each pastor in securing and recording the facts concerning his own charge and the charges which he has served.

C. O. KIMBALL.

CALIFORNIA STATE CHURCH FEDERATION

The last Annual Meeting of the Federation held in Los Angeles, September 30, 1930, was the most largely attended in the seventeen years of the history of the organization.

The three Comity Councils composed of Superintendents of the denominations with headquarters in San Francisco, Fresno and Los Angeles are most effective in promoting real cooperation in church work and doing away with unwise and wasteful competition. During the past seven years about 250 communities have been allocated to individual denominations, into which the other denominations after consultation, have agreed not to enter until a community is large enough to support more than one church. In this manner over-churched communities are decreasing and unchurched communities are being served. One of the most conspicuous successes for community church work is at Hoover Dam, where the leading denominations have agreed to build and support one church to be used for worship, religious education and social service. This is especially significant inasmuch as it is understood that the population of the town during the construction of the Dam will reach to about five or six thousand, and afterwards, become a town of about two or three hundred.

Another very important work which is being promoted by the Federation is "Weekday Religious Education." The plan is in harmony with the State laws and in no way interferes with the regular school session. The Long Beach school has secured 80% of the children in the Grammar School grades reached by this school. One grade has enrolled 100%. This movement is widespread throughout the entire country, and today there are more than three hundred thousand children receiving religious instruction in weekday schools.

The Secretary has done what he could in the interest of legislative matters approved by the committee on that subject, by letters, telegrams and a visit to Sacramento. International relations has received constant attention and on the approval of the special committee, letters have been sent to the President of the United States and members of the United States Senate; assuring them of the interest of the churches in world peace and the world court.

Plans were arranged for evangelistic promotion meetings by Dr. Goodell of the Federal Council; engagements were made for Dr. Zahniser on his visit to the coast in the interest of the Federal Council of Churches of Christ in America in Religious Education; and Dr. Bert E. Smith, Secretary of the Interdenominational Council on Men's Work who is planning for a Council to be held in Los Angeles, January, 1932.

The Secretary has sent articles on various subjects connected with church federation to all the State Church papers, and published three issues of the Federation News with a total of 11,000 copies. These papers have gone to all the effective clergymen of all denominations in the State, a total of 2650, and to many laymen. The Secretary has made addresses on Sundays and other days upon Cooperation in Christian work. Our postage indicates we have sent out 13,338 pieces of mail during the year.

Dr. Dawber, the Secretary of Rural Churches of the Methodist Episcopal Church, writes, "We are gradually beginning to realize that we cannot make much progress if we continue our individual competitive program of over-lapping and independent activities." He also says, "Thousands of town and country churches are too feeble and they have become a drain upon the life of the community rather than a ministry to it."

Our policy has been to carry out as far as possible, what Rev. Tallmadge Root, for many years Secretary of the Massachusetts Church Federation says, is the motto of their organization, "Keep the facts before the people until the people change the facts."

F. M. LARKIN.

ANTI-SALOON LEAGUE OF ARIZONA

After eleven years of indifference and apathy toward Prohibition in the Government and the Church, dry America has finally come to the realization, that if we are to retain the 18th Amendment we must fight. Nationally this realization has encouraged inconsequential and untrained persons to promote impromptu organizations, which is resulting in a divided leadership that is endangering financial support by an increased overhead. Locally in Arizona the Anti-Saloon League has the united support of all Evangelical and Mormon Churches and the co-operation of many Catholic laymen. The W. C. T. U. and the Anti-Saloon League work together in close co-operation, and these two organizations are the only Temperance movements serving the people of Arizona.

Upon July 1st of this year the State Superintendent will be relieved of the necessity of a divided administration. For many years the states of Arizona and New Mexico have been under one state superintendent. During this year the importance and influence of the League has grown to a degree, that the superintendent has been able to organize a separate state league in New Mexico and a state superintendent for that state will be installed very soon.

This conference year has seen the hardest fought battles in the State Legislatures of both the states that we have ever gone through. In New Mexico the Wets tried every move from repeal and referendum through to a state distillery and dispensary, and in Arizona a bill to submit a referendum. We were successful in defeating them at every turn. In Arizona, using the bill as a vehicle for education of public sentiment, we introduced a bill to prohibit the possession of liquor. To our own surprise it passed the Lower House. While we were not able to pass the Senate, with this advanced step for enforcement, the campaign has served to rally and solidify our forces in a splendid way.

Contrary to the idea conveyed in the public press, we now have a compulsory rule requiring the teaching of scientific temperance in the public schools.

This has been a very difficult year financially, both due to the effect of the depression and the fact that the National League has not been able to help us as usual. Under the circumstances the people of the state have responded nobly to our appeal, and we are glad to cast our lot with the brethren in the pastorate and share with them the sacrifices necessary during this period.

The greatest battle is yet ahead, and we will win, because God is on his Throne, and the Church is once again alive to the danger, with which a well organized and highly financed minority confronts us.

CALIFORNIA ANTI-SALOON LEAGUE

Your organization, the California Anti-Saloon League, begs to report what we believe to be real progress.

Thirty-three years ago, when the California Anti-Saloon League was organized, California was the wildest of the wild and woolly west. Saloons were on every corner and blind pigs flourished everywhere.

In 1911, through the efforts of the League, the Wyllie Local Option law was passed. The law provided that municipalities and supervisorial districts could, by vote of the people, abolish the saloon and brothel in their territory. We have almost forgotten those dark days.

Under the Wyllie law the League waged war upon the traffic and made three-fourths of the territory of the state bone dry before the 18th Amendment to the Constitution was adopted.

In 1914 a state wide vote brought about under the initiative law was taken and the wets won by 169,245 majority. In 1916 a second attempt was made, led by the Anti-Saloon League and the W. C. T. U. Again the wets won by a majority of only 101,561.

In 1918, when the campaign centered around the election of a legislature who would decide whether or not California should ratify the 18th Amendment, by a large majority an Assembly was elected that ratified, and California became the 24th state to ratify the 18th Amendment.

In 1920 the Harris Bill, passed by the previous legislature, was referred by the wets. That was prior to the passing of the Volstead Act and a very much stronger bill than the Volstead Act. The Harris Bill was defeated by 67,062 votes.

In 1920 the Wright Bill, the Volstead Act for California, was passed and in 1921 the wets again referred this bill and it was sustained by the drys by a majority of 33,943 votes. I count a change of 99,005 votes.

In 1926 the wets initiated a measure to repeal the Wright Law. This the drys won by 66,617 majority, a gain of 29,671 for the drys.

In 1930 the wets again tried to put an initiative bill on the ballot to repeal the Wright Law, but they could not muster enough signatures to get the bill on the ballot. That same year, 1930, under the leadership of the Anti-Saloon League and the W. C. T. U. the driest legislature that we have ever had was elected.

During the session following the election, in 1931, nine wet bills were introduced and they all died "a-bornin'"—killed in committee—not one of them ever came to a vote in either house.

That is in brief the report of our stewardship.

In the past you have trusted the temperance cause to the leadership of the California Anti-Saloon League and the W. C. T. U. and we have made continuous progress. All that we ask now is that you will continue to trust the leadership of the two organizations that have never failed you. Open the doors of your churches to the League so that the people may have an opportunity to support them in their strenuous battle, and we will have in 1932 the most sweeping victory that California has ever had.

There may be, as there always is, new organizations of mushroom growth, with fantastic and spectacular titles, that will help out on the arousements, but the two organizations that must do the organizing and follow up work are the Anti-Saloon League and the W. C. T. U. and they are the only organizations that the liquor people fear.

There was held in Washington, in December, 1930, a meeting of representatives of 33 national welfare organizations for the purpose of making a unified program for the campaign of 1932. This meeting appointed a sub-committee for the purpose of drafting fifty individuals to become the committee of strategy for 1932. This committee of strategy met June 26.

That is the only official organization representing the thirty-three dry national organizations and their direction should be taken by us all. United we stand, divided we fall.

Three-fourths of the territory in the state of California was made dry by Local Option ordinances. One of these ordinances, known as the Gandier Ordinance for Los Angeles, was tested by all the courts of California and then by the Supreme Court of the United States and upheld in every case without a dissenting voice.

Immediately after the rendering of this decision by the Supreme Court, the prohibition department of the government recalled the physician's prescription blanks for Los Angeles City and substituted one in harmony with the Gandier ordinance. This law has been lying dormant since this decision in the City of Los Angeles itself. The City Council elected June 2nd, with one exception pledged themselves in writing that they would see to it that the Gandier ordinance was enforced.

The Gandier ordinance is a bone dry ordinance. The definition of the ordinance is: "The term 'alcoholic liquor' as used in liquors and any other liquid or mixture of liquor which contains more than one-half of one per cent by volume of alcohol and which is not so mixed with other drugs as to prevent its use as a beverage."

The decision of the Supreme Court of the United States on the Gandier Law places its approval on all the local ordinances in California and when Los Angeles begins to enforce that law, other municipalities will follow suit.

The Federal government has never sincerely tried to enforce the 18th Amendment until now, and we only have to point to the actions of the last few weeks to show that the federal government is in dead earnest. The conviction of Al Capone—altogether 139 other people in and out of Chicago are indicted with him—shows the determination of the federal government to enforce the law.

You as citizens can urge your city authorities to enforce their own local ordinances and thus will California be doing her part in concurrent enforcement.

RADIO BROADCASTING

With the action of the Federal Radio Commission, last Friday, denying the application of the Pacific-Western Broadcasting Federation, Ltd., for extension of time to construct KPWF and W6XAL, the commercialization of radio in America may be said to have become virtually completed, unless and until Congress acts effectively. Of course there are a few broadcasting stations in the country not operated for pecuniary profit, but for those which are not, most are propaganda stations, with a very small number operated by the people through states and municipalities or non-propaganda agencies. And these are decreasing very rapidly under the administration of the present Federal Radio Commission. This commission has, in fact, deleted fifty-three (53) since Feb. 25, 1927 when first taking office.

Look for a moment at the psychology of the situation.

Civilization is differentiated from barbarism by one thing—the development of the arts of communication. The most primitive society is impossible without language and some facility of intercourse. The invention of writing has been characterized as the greatest single event in the emancipation of mankind from savagery. Modern history dates from the invention of the printing press. It is no fortuitous occurrence that standards of contemporary civilizations are in direct relation to the advancement or backwardness of developments in mass communication. The degree of literacy or illiteracy of the masses represents the degree of their progress, in the main, in the humanities and sciences and in religion. Even the superficial student cannot fail to observe that the great epochs in human affairs have been correlated with advances in the arts of communication. Take away writing, the printing press, the platform, the pulpit, the picture, the radio, and other media of reaching the public eye and ear and mind, and what is the consequence—reversion to barbarism, to savagery. Religion could effect no counteraction, no interference, no salvation. Civilization would disappear.

Here is another observation just as fundamental: Whoever controls the traffic in what the public sees, hears, says and thinks, controls the public! If, for example William Randolph Hearst owned all the media of communication, all the world would be his. Such a thing as social organization would not only be directed by him, it would be possible only upon his sufferance. Whether or not he would be benevolent, he would be the most powerful despot in the annals of humankind.

Let us apply this to the new giant of communication. Broadcasting may easily prove to be the most potent and revolutionary development in history. Whether broadcasting will become a tool of enlightenment and inspiration under disinterested control, or a medium of selfish greed and public corruption in the hands of one dominant concern, as it is now fast becoming, will determine the stupendous issue whether it will bring world chaos or world order. There is hardly a problem in America or the world today so great as the problem of the control of broadcasting.

It is no news to as intelligent a group as this Conference that the three machine agents of mass communication—press, radio, movies—are in the control of exploiters. To call attention to the motion picture and talkies, among such learned persons, is to stimulate unpleasant reaction. You know full well how the film has been used “to glut the maw of vultures.”

While I would hardly be so naive as to discredit the value of the daily newspaper and the weekly or monthly journal together with many books, on the other hand, I would hardly be so dull and dishonest as to maintain that these values came anywhere near approximately their highest and best. The social mission of the press is unrecognized, not to say prostituted to private business ends.

As to the radio, not until the Supreme Court decision of April 27th, last, has there been even an indication of legal restraint on the predatory movement toward national and world monopoly by the dominant commercial group. And in line with its general policy, the Federal Radio Commission has surmounted this obstacle to monopoly of the air, and seems determined to administer the law in private, as opposed to the public interest. As Paul Hutchinson recently wrote in the Christian Century relative to the freedom of the air—“with the broadcasting of any material to a national audience dependent upon the goodwill of a commercial despotism.”

At first sight, all this may appear to be of interest only to students, theorists, radicals, legislators. As a matter of fact, it is of vital consequence to every believer in Christ and every defender of democracy. It is precisely at this point where the springs of religion and democracy flow, or where the decline and deterioration of religion and democracy begin.

The fact of the power of a psychological environment conducive to tobacco smoking by the women when press, radio, movies, bill-boards, and all the other media of communication are organized to sell cigarettes, should be as well known to the citizenry and their leaders as the irresistible power of the tropics to change the physical constitution of an Eskimo. Knowledge of this fact, and its application, is making fortunes for a few.

Why should not the same principles be recognized by the church of Jesus Christ and made to apply in bringing the Kingdom of God? Why is it necessary for the children of the world to be wiser in their generation than the children of light?

It was this realization that led to the incorporation of the Pacific-Western Broadcasting Federation, Ltd.—the radio enterprise initiated by the Southern California conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church. May I be permitted to tell one or two of its achievements?

It brought the issue of ownership and control of radio to the attention of a certain university president who after some hesitation adopted the idea and plan sponsored by this conference. He was asked to commit himself and did so in the following words:

“It is essential that there be separate stations where these elements of cultural values which are of great importance can be handled.”

This university president was destined to become Secretary of the Interior Department with vast powers in molding the national educational policy. Under his supervision as an original incorporator of the Pacific-Western Broadcasting Federation, and its Vice-President, he actively championed its principles and to some extent its cause, submitting to its management important correspondence and acting upon suggestions issuing from its office.

One result of this and the work of the Payne Fund was the calling of a conference on radio education at Washington, May 24, 1929, at which time Secretary Wilbur raised the basic question, "Who should do it?" He spoke of control of broadcasting. From this conference there resulted the appointment of a committee called the "Advisory Committee on Education by Radio". In its printed report one will find due credit given the Pacific-Western, and many pages of matter quoted verbatim from material issued by our office. It was a fundamental step.

About one year ago, a memorandum was published by our office which was circulated widely and had consequences little dreamed of. The school of citizenship of an Eastern university asked if we could supply 400 copies to be used in classes. The Foreign Policy Association of New York, The National League of Women Voters, the administrative committee of the Federal Council of Churches and numerous other groups in this country and elsewhere were appalled at its revelations. The United States Commissioner of Education called a conference of educators which met October 13, last, at Chicago.

At this conference, the Pacific-Western urged that Congress be petitioned for special legislation to save radio for the American people. The resolution unanimously passed. A bill was introduced at the last session to set apart a certain portion of radio frequencies for public use. It will be re-introduced at the coming session or written into the Cuzen's communication's bill. At this Chicago conference, a committee was ordered constituted by the United States Commission of Education, to push the legislation through. It is The National Committee on Education by Radio, and is quite representative of the influential educational groups in the country.

A question respecting its support of course arose. The Payne Fund which had come to take interest in the critical situation made a grant of $40,000 a year for five years to sustain the work of the committee. It may be of interest to the conference to learn that the executive officer of this Fund had been in correspondence with our Pasadena office, had conferred with the speaker about the situation several times and had written for a number of copies of this memorandum among the trustees of the Fund. It also may be of interest to the conference to learn that a portion of this same publication was printed in one of the first issues of the weekly bulletin, "Education by Radio".

Many influences have been set to work which have reached into other lands. The League of Nations, a representative of the Canadian Radio League, the Reichs Rundfunk Gesellschaft, and other persons or concerns in Asia, Europe, Africa, the Americas, and the islands of the sea have not only taken interest in the Pacific-Western, but in some cases have called on us for advice and services of one type or another relating to public policy toward the control of broadcasting.

The great influence, of course, has been at home. Our Congressional files must be ten inches thick. Of recent months, there have been appearing in certain periodicals studies of the radio situation, such as the series you doubtless read in The Christian Century, by Dr. Paul Hutchinson. I think I may say that the Pacific-Western is responsible for this series; and undoubtedly supplied a vast bulk of source material for it. In the May Scribner's one might observe the influence of our ideal, our movement, our very phraseology.

In short, this enterprise to which you gave birth has been the spear-head of the movement to save a portion of the radio spectrum for genuine public service, not subservient to commercial expediency and private pecuniary profit, nor to politics, nor to any partisan or sectarian or propagandic agencies. Of course there have been other powerful influences at work. These, however, have been prompted if not inspired by the Pacific-Western.

The most interesting feature of the past four years' work is the opposition it has aroused.

Just as soon as an application was filed with the Federal Radio Commission for a $50,000 construction permit, the Los Angeles Chamber of Commerce became interested. Its manager wired the Commission not to grant the application. A certain bank president refused to accept the account of the new organization, although many thousands of dollars have been expended. Another branch of the same banking chain told one of our contributors that if he gave further to this work, his credit would be discontinued. It has not been seven days since a person doing business at the same branch told the speaker that if a contribution were made the name of the corporation must not be written in the check because of the implications in that person's business affairs.

Prior to a public hearing we had in Washington last April, representatives of the local Radio Corporation of America, (N. B. C.) chain stations had a spy out endeavoring to develop damaging evidence against us. Our competitors have carried on a reprehensible campaign, resorting to trickery, device and misrepresentation to discredit our work. Personal attacks have been made. Attempts have been made to procure valuable papers from our office until we felt justified in calling upon the police for protection. Time and again we have had reason to suspect a certain "patriotic" organization.

The question arises with respect to the reason for this opposition. We were not competitors of Chambers of Commerce or of banking institutions. Why should they oppose us? The answer is not difficult to find.

We had been awarded two construction permits to build the most complete and powerful radio broadcasting station in existence. Three of the thirty-four short waves available for all nations for international relay broadcasting had been assigned to us—the only ones in America in disinterested control. Not only were these awards worth millions of dollars by any commercial appraisal, but they gave power to mold destiny. While some of our directors gave unmistakable signs of nervousness in the contemplation of such power in their control, and some dropped out of the picture when it was manifest that we were under hostile fire, the Board of Directors made bold their plans not to discriminate against unpopular ideas or groups, but to discuss both sides of such matters as entrance of the United States into the League of Nations, naturalization of resources; causes and cure of unemployment, of crime, of war, without fear or favor.

It was simply inevitable that the Pacific-Western should suffer when its plans for enlightenment of the public mind concerning public affairs were realized, and when it put up such a determined fight through America to bring fundamental issues relative to control of radio to the fore.

The attitude is well expressed in a letter from one of the members of the House of Representatives, under date of June 22, 1931, in which he says:

"Your folder states 'The Pacific-Western is governed by a self-perpetuating Board of Directors.' This might lead anywhere. Suppose your Board of Directors should have favored the adoption of the League of Nations without reservations, or should favor the reduction of the tariff, which is the only known means to prevent the lowering of our standard of living to that of other nations?"

This United States Congressman does not believe in democracy. He has insufficient confidence in humanity. He cannot trust the people. He joins dictators, tyrants, despots in the faith that government of the people, by the people and for the people is wrong. The right theory of political economy presumably was expressed to me by a United States Senator in an amazing remark which I quote from accurate memory:

"I do not believe in so much education for the people. Are we not taught that they were ordained of God to be hewers of wood and drawers of water?" It is better for us to do their thinking."

This attitude of the senator is now an accepted, although often unconscious creed. Dictatorships have sprung up in at least twenty nations, outstanding among which are the dictatorship of an autocrat in Italy, of "the proletariat" in Russia, and should I say of "big business" in America?

Tyrants cannot rule an educated people. "What enslaves the masses is their own ignorance" (George). Intelligence is the foundation of useful public opinion, which, when organized, is democracy. It is the hypothesis of an enlightened religion.

If democracies die, if religion perishes, it will be because of the non-use, the misuse, the abuse of the media of communication—their prostitution to private ends. If, on the other hand, we are to see a renaissance of religion and democracy, we must either enter the field of mass communication by press, radio, movie and the like or, we must put men into public office who will compel the recognition of the social mission of these masters of men by making them genuine utilities—the voice and expression of an organized, intelligent hope for a better day.

GOODWILL INDUSTRIES—SOUTHERN CALIFORNIA

In a year of financial distress and unemployment Goodwill has actively served the church and the community in a larger way than ever before. 1,474 different persons, an average of 520 per day, were given 1,048,647 hours of work (21.5% more than last year) for which they were paid $337,147.94, an increase of .003%. Our 24 stores made 516,764 sales amounting to $274,141.46, a decrease of .01%. Total receipts from all sources were $489,331.86, of this 1% came from Community Chest and 8% from donations. In the hardest part of the year, Sears, Roebuck & Co. employees donated $11,934.40 for employment relief. 7,357.7 tons of paper (82% increase) and 2,231.4 tons of rags (132% increase) brought $116,759.96 with 6.9% decrease, owing to lower salvage prices. This meant more work and less returns for it. 78,840 new bag contributors were added, bringing the number of bag holders to 282,267. Our fleet of trucks increased from 39 to 48 and made 353,090 effective calls. Recently more than 8,000 calls per week have been made. 3,611,391 copies of the Goodwill News were distributed. Our district visitors talked to 254,083 persons and our staff made 613 public addresses.

From the Production Department report we glean a few interesting statistics:

259,621 bags sorted from which were renovated or made 358,102 garments, 5,341 toys, 57,951 pairs shoes, 263 sewing machines, 10,102 quilts & pillows, 339 phonographs, 1,445 gas heaters, 1,521 scooters, etc., 11,707 pieces of furniture, 4,561 dolls, 769 cook stoves, 211 bicycles, 892 baby buggies, 4,188 clocks, 11,299 pieces of silverware, 1,096 electric irons, 690 bird cages, 1,969 electric lamps, 3,608 umbrellas.

Our Welfare Department reports services as follows:

Educational classes held (English and Spanish)	312
Attendance at educational classes	2,773
Total number educational sessions	573
Total attendance at educational sessions	8,873

Religious work was greatly stimulated by a ten days' series of meetings in January, with Dr. E. J. Helms of Boston in charge. Through the year 1,250 religious meetings were held with an aggregate attendance of 99,187; 911 of these were morning chapel services. 113 ministers of 19 different denominations spoke in our chapels. 30 were our own Methodist ministers. The Filipino work has gone steadily on among a changing and difficult group of men. Our church has a heavy obligation in this direction.

During the year Goodwill has projected plans for a new building and rejoices in the addition to its staff of our own E. F. Gates who assumes responsibility for the financing and development of these plans. Already a new site has been given and great progress is expected during the next few months.

The San Bernardino branch has extended its work into Redlands and Riverside, with collection centers in many of the smaller cities. Santa Ana branch has developed a store at Huntington Beach and collections from the coast towns. Long Beach has grown extensively this past year, developing its group of contributors and its industrial work.

We are most grateful for the fine cooperation of every pastor, the interest and help of the women of our churches, and the liberal support of the communities where we serve.

GOODWILL INDUSTRIES OF SAN DIEGO COUNTY

During the year 1929 Dr. George B. Mangold of the Department of Sociology of University of Southern California was requested to make a survey of social conditions and social agencies in San Diego County. This survey was conducted under the joint auspices of the Community Welfare Council of San Diego, the San Diego County Welfare Commission and the City of San Diego. This report stated that San Diego had no consistent plan for the salvage of used clothing, furniture and other goods that are discarded and should be reclaimed. Further it expressed the conclusion that no agency then in San Diego was fitted either by virtue of its management or its staff to conduct this valuable enterprise. It then recommended that a Goodwill Industries should be established to meet the need and carry on in San Diego the work of reclaiming men and things.

This report was brought to the attention of Frederic H. Blair, Superintendent of the Goodwill Industries of Southern California and Pacific Coast Representative of the Bureau of Goodwill Industries. Extensive investigations were made and negotiations conducted and finally, with the approval of the Methodist Union of San Diego and the hearty support of James Allen Geissinger, Superintendent of the San Diego District, the Goodwill was opened in San Diego on January 1, 1930. Myron Insko, then Assistant Superintendent of the Goodwill Industries of Southern California, was selected as the Superintendent of the new enterprise. The initial stock and equipment were supplied by the Goodwill Industries of Southern California.

That there is a real need for Goodwill in San Diego has been amply demonstrated by its accomplishments during its first year of operation. In spite of discouraging economic conditions it made real progress. During its first twelve months of operation 172 different persons received "Not Charity but a Chance" at the Goodwill plant. A total of 23,248 hours of opportunity labor were given to the self-respecting, aged, handicapped and needy folk of San Diego and $6,271 were paid in wages. The Goodwill trucks made 4707 calls and brought in 6757 bags of salvaged materials. From the sale of reclaimed, renovated materials through the Goodwill stores we received $7,427.15 and the sale of salvage brought in an additional $1,334.27. Donations from friends totalled $692.00 making the total income for the first year of operation $9,453.42. However, in spite of every economy we closed the year with a deficit of more than $400.

The Goodwill Industries of San Diego County has been incorporated as a non-profit social service organization with a strong local board of directors. E. Dow Hoffman is President; Mr. John W. Mott, Vice-President; Mrs. M. Lamont, Secretary and Mr. C. W. Wilson, Treasurer. We are looking forward to a larger field of usefulness during 1931.

REPORT OF CONFERENCE EVANGELIST

E. J. EVANS

During the past year, I held meetings in Costa Mesa, Hanford, Tular, Las Vegas, Moorpark, Garden Grove, Chesterfield Square Los Angeles, Grace Riverside, and Asbury San Diego. Perhaps the most significant thing which happened in connection with my work during the past year was the thing which happened to me.

If many branches of the church have literally stood still, as regards a deep evangelistic emphasis, the church organizations have not stood still. Machinery has become more complicated. Programs have been enlarged from year to year. The pressure to keep these programs going, in every denomination, has fallen upon every leader in the church, from those occupying the highest positions to those occupying the lowest.

The result has been inevitable. We have fallen into the danger of counting heads rather than hearts. In many cases we have coaxed people, rather than challenged them. We have tried to fire their imagination without persuading them to search their hearts. Until today there is a multitude of people who look upon Christianity as a program to be followed rather than a life to be lived and a romance to be shared.

Jesus had to decide between helping a multitude or changing a handful. He deliberately chose the handful and He spent most of His time for three years in changing them.

The past two years have been years of inward heart searching. As I have seen the trend and been conscious of the danger, I find myself not so much criticising church leaders as searching my own life to see where I am falling short.

Last year I mentioned in my report that I had been doing a lot of reading and had been greatly blessed spiritually. May I be more definite today? Through a suggestion I read Twice Born Ministers and other of Shoemaker's books. Through his influence I read more devotional books than I had read in the previous five or six years. I began to realize that I had been concerning myself more about methods to bring about the Kingdom of God than truly seeking first the Kingdom and his righteousness knowing that all these things (including methods) would be added unto me.

In an interview with Walter Frazer he turned to me and asked rather bluntly, "Mr. Evans, are you a surrendered man?" The question took me so much by surprise that I tried to bluff him. And I was trying to bluff myself at the same time. For I know now—and back in the dim recesses of my consciousness I knew then—that my life was not completely surrendered; that it was entirely too self-centered rather than Christ-centered; that I had never stepped out absolutely on faith believing that God could work through me better than I could work out my own plans and then take them to Him for His O.K.; that there were many sins in my own life, such as pride, envy, censoriousness and uncharitableness, which I had never squarely faced; that I had not been really honest with myself about a lot of things.

A few weeks ago I realized that the crisis of my life had come. I got out of my bed and knelt down at my bedside and gave myself to Him in a way that I had never done before. I wish I could tell you the joy that flooded my soul. I do not consider that experience was my conversion any more than John Wesley considered his experience at Aldersgate Street was his conversion—although he did talk at times as though it was. But brethren I know that new light and new joy and new peace and new power flooded my soul at that time and every hour since that time.

I'm thankful that three days after I had my experience my wife had a similar experience.

We have decided at least one thing definitely—we are stepping out absolutely on faith as far as finances are concerned. From now on we expect to tell the Lord and not committees our needs. I have tried to be fair about finances during the entire time I have been in evangelistic work. When you realize that our salary this year was $1715 without a parsonage, you'll appreciate that fact. Nevertheless we feel now that our work will be strengthened if we keep our fingers entirely out of the financial side of it. We are going to put more time on personal interviews and make our meetings more of a spiritual clinic than a drive of any kind. I will not take further time to go into details but I will be glad to talk to any of you brethren who would. Thank you for this opportunity to share with you and to witness unto Him.

E. J. EVANS.

REPORT OF WARREN C. McINTIRE, CONFERENCE EVANGELIST

During this Conference year I have worked in nineteen meetings, as follows:

Three Camp meetings: Penn Grove, Ky.; Mt. Vernon, Va.; and Bentleyville, Penn.; Six Prayer Conferences: One for the Methodist Episcopal Church, So., Morrisville, Mo.; Five in Methodist Episcopal Churches; Denison, Texas; San Luis Obispo, Cal.; Columbia Cross Roads, Jackson Center and Millerton, Penn. Ten Revivals: One for the Wesleyan Methodist Church in Los Angeles, Cal.; One for the Methodist Episcopal Church, So., and Asbury College, in Wilmore, Ky.; A Union Tent Meeting for four Methodist Episcopal Churches, So., in Irvine, Ky., A Union Meeting for the Methodist Episcopal Church and Methodist Episcopal Church, So., in Clarksburg, Maryland; Six in Methodist Episcopal Churches—Bethel, Los Angeles, Cal.; Grayville, Ill.; Erie, Nelson, Presheo and New Albany, Penn.

It has been my privilege this year to persuade more than 1300 precious souls to seek God and obtain the forgiveness of their sins or the cleansing of their hearts. To God Triune, I give all the honor and praise and glory. Repeatedly I have seen it demonstrated that the Gospel of Christ is still mighty in its appeal and that the atonement of the Son of God has lost none of its power to save teachers, students, doctors, musicians, preachers, business men, laborers, social favorites and social outcasts—any one and every one who will seek the Lord in penitence and with faith. Village churches crowded to the doors and large city churches filled to capacity have alike told the story of human hearts hungry to know the love and forgiveness of Christ and the comfort of the Holy Spirit.

This has been a year of wonderful fellowship with Christ and my spiritual life has been enlarged. Providence has given me journeying mercy over some 15,000 miles of travel and strength for my labors, and for this I am grateful; but above these blessings I am grateful for the abiding presence of the Holy Spirit and the comforting consciousness that Christ is my Saviour. I am happy in my soul and greatly enjoying this work to which the Lord has called me.

I have received for my work $2728.

WARREN C. McINTIRE.

MAYNARD W. BECKWITH, Conference Treasurer.

MISSIONARY AND EVANGELISTIC SOCIETY

The Missionary and Evangelistic Society was organized in 1906, and the first payments were made into the Society in 1907. It was organized to help the needy places of our Conference and to stimulate the evangelistic program of the Church. Before it came into existence this work was carried on by the Woman's Home Missionary Society, through what they called their Frontier Work, and much of thanks is due them for the work they did in that needy field. Their work having grown to such proportions that they felt they could no longer carry this burden, the Conference organized this Society. At first the offerings were very small, but as the Conference grew and the need became more apparent, the churches began to send in larger contributions to it.

This is the 25th Anniversary of this Society, and it seems appropriate to give just a brief summary of its workings. During the 25 years, not counting what will come in at this session, there has been paid into its treasury the sum of $244,329, and the collections at this session will put it over the $250,000 mark.

I wish there was time and space to tell of what it has done; of the churches it has saved from being closed; of the pastors to whom it has brought aid when nothing else was in sight; of the District Superintendents whose hearts have been made glad when they found some preacher and his family without any money and knew they could draw on this Fund for a little aid. It is the story of a definite missionary character, and yet in these later years very little has been said about it. More than that, the question is frequently asked as to whether it is worth while any more, and whether it is rightly administered.

Personally, I know of no fund in this Conference that is needed more than this one. This year we have had the greatest need possible. Pastors who have had almost no salary have found that a check from this Fund has saved the day. The District Superintendents make the order on the Treasurer, and this year they have had a hard time to make it reach over the needs. This Society is worthy of our best thought and gift.

At a meeting of the Executive Board held two weeks ago, it was decided that soon after Conference a committee of the Board will be appointed to bring in to the next session of the Conference a revised Constitution and By-Laws, as the one made 25 years ago is obsolete and does not meet the needs of the present day.

Memoirs

In Memoriam

DAVID ROBERTS

David Roberts was born in Wales, May 27, 1853. He came to America in 1874, settling in New York, where he received his education, studying in Clacarak College and Hudson River Institute. He afterwards studied also in the University of Boston School of Theology. While at Boston he served student charges, and joined the Southern California Conference in 1888. After serving for six years in California he became a missionary in Arizona.

Brother Roberts was married September 3rd, 1895, to Miss Clarissa Salkeld, who for thirty-five years has been his esteemed companion, sharing with him the interests of the very important work he was doing, and affording him the strong support, the value of which no man can appreciate who has not known the intimate companionship of an efficient and faithful wife. "Her price is above rubies."

The union of Brother and Sister Roberts was blessed with three daughters, two of whom Mrs. Earl Smith and Miss Vida Roberts survive the father and live in Glendale. The other daughter, Mrs. Eleanor Carolyn Blackledge, about two years ago preceded the father to the other world.

The first years of Brother Roberts ministry were spent in California; though at an early date he became a missionary to Arizona. This was at a time when Arizona was a particularly difficult field. The missionary of those pioneer days was confronted with hardships and challenges that tried the spirit of the bravest and most heroic men.

In Arizona he served the following charges:—Safford, Tombstone, Bisbee and Benson, Needles, Williams, Mesa, Glendale and Chandler. He retired in 1922 and has since made his home with his family in Glendale, where his death occurred Aug. 5, 1930.

Brother Roberts has proven himself a true missionary to a great and needy field, at a time when the field was especially difficult and when competent workers were exceedingly difficult to procure. He left a fine record for service and proved himself a true hero of the cross. In the mining camps and pioneer towns he has comforted many wavering hearts and has inspired joy and courage where otherwise failure might have prevailed.

Many hearts will today bow in sorrow at the thought of the departure of this good man. This sorrow will be changed into a benediction as in loving appreciation they are reminded of the fine Christian life of this good minister of Jesus Christ.

R. E. WRIGHT.

J. A. H. WILSON

John Abraham Hamilton Wilson, a retired minister of the Southern California Annual Conference, died in Los Angeles, California, on the 14th day of September, 1930. He was born in Grafton, West Virginia, January 11th, 1844. He was well born. His ancestors were Scotch. To them he was indebted for that physical and intellectual robustness which made him, in some respects, more than an ordinary man.

While yet a lad, he responded to the President's call for volunteers to crush the Rebellion and save the Union, enlisting in Company B of the Seventeenth Regiment of West Virginia Infantry, and serving during the entire period of the war.

Returning to peaceable pursuits, he completed his college course, studied law, was admitted to practice, and began what he supposed would be his life work.

By reason of his training in the law, in the foundation principles of which he was well grounded, he was fitted to achieve distinction in that noble profession. But so unmistakably did the call of God come to him to preach the gospel of Jesus Christ that he turned away from the attractions and emoluments of a legal career to become a Methodist itinerant. He joined the West Virginia Conference in 1873, was transferred into the Central Illinois Conference in 1879, thence into the Southwest Kansas Conference in 1891, and into the Southern California Conference in 1896. His pastorates in this Conference were Porterville; Grace, Los Angeles; Garvanza and Glendora. In 1905, on account of the failing health of Mrs. Wilson, he was granted the supernumerary relation, and in 1909 the retired relation.

In 1873 he was united in marriage with Miss Emma Ward, a young woman of culture, refinement and many accomplishments, who, for thirty-two years, shared with him the labors of the pastorate, and then, after five years of broken health and failing strength, one December day in 1910, passed through "the doors that swing inward" into "the house not made with hands, eternal in the heavens."

On the 12th day of September 1912, the writer of this memoir pronounced John A. H. Wilson and Miss Elizabeth Bonar husband and wife together. During the eighteen years of their marital relation she was always the loving and loved companion, the faithful helpmate and the devoted wife, caring for him as his strength decreased, as devotedly as a mother would care for her child.

Brother Wilson's penetrating and acquisitive mind enabled him not only to grasp and weigh the teachings and theories of the theologians, but better than that, to become well acquainted with God's plan of human redemption, and the truths of divine revelation. As a preacher he was positive. He voiced no doubts and sounded no uncertain notes. And he loved to preach. Not long after his wife's death he told his District Superintendent that he would be glad to take a small charge without salary and pay his own traveling expenses. He was immediately appointed supply to the Mountain View Church, now the Temple City Church, where he so inspired the people with the spirit of service and liberality as to cause them to buy an acre of ground and to erect thereon a beautiful bungalow church, toward the cost of which he donated one hundred dollars, and also gave them a piano.

He so loved his ministerial brethren that he left all his property for the benefit of retired preachers and their wives and widows, depriving himself of many of the comforts of life so that the amount thus left should be as large as possible. Under that sometimes brusque exterior was a heart of tenderness, sympathy and love.

Brother Wilson was a man of profound convictions, which he was not backward in expressing, and if necessary defending. It can be said of him as truly as it was said of Scotland's John Knox, "He never feared the face of man." He has gone to his reward. We hope to meet him bye and bye.

FRANKLIN D. MATHER.

E. N. ASKEY

Edwin Nelson Askey was born in Rockland, Pennsylvania, December 21st, 1865, and spent his boyhood days in Pennsylvania, attending the public schools and Grove City College. He was married to Pauline Williams, October 1st, 1891. To this union were born three boys—Harrison, Vincent and John Martin. The year of his marriage, 1891, he was received into the Erie Conference, and was ordained Deacon in 1893 by Bishop Hurst, and received the ordination of Elder in 1895 at the hands of Bishop Vincent, going with his young wife to his first appointment in 1891, at Fertigs, then serving the following charges in the Erie Conference: Sligo, New Bethlehem, Cattarungus, Oakland Avenue and Sharon. In 1911 there came a strong appeal to go West, and he was transferred to the Puget Sound Conference, where he served Hoquiam First Church; Trinity, Bellingham; Epworth, Tacoma; and Centralia. He was transferred to the Southern California Conference in 1923, and stationed at Prescott, Arizona; thence to Rialto, and later to Puente.

Brother Askey's ministry has been signalized by earnest deep evangelistic work. Especially in the early years of his ministry he had great revival meetings which touched the lives of many people, so that even today living in California there are numerous friends and church people who came into the fellowship with Christ through his endeavor. In all of the pastorates which he served, he, with his dear wife, were much beloved. There was a sanity and simplicity about his whole personality which at once convinced men and women of his sincerity, and he gave himself in a sacrificial way to his people.

Brother Askey was always a man of great physical vitality, seldom ill, and when suddenly he was taken with his last illness it did not seem possible to him that in a few weeks' time he would slip away to his Heavenly Home. Entering the hospital in early June he was given only a few months of respite from the call of the Death Angel to prepare his heart and mind for that mysterious event. When the writer saw him a few days before his death, Brother Askey said to him: "I did not realize that I could come down to death feeling as I do, because I am now reconciled and comforted and ready to go whenever the Father shall call." His faith and courage in these last days was that of a great personality.

His service in the Southern California Conference has not been long, but he is leaving behind him the sorrowing hearts of a multitude of friends among the ministry and laymen, who in their sorrow today are glad because he touched their lives and became their friend. And the sympathy and prayers and love of all these go out to the dear wife and the three sons who survive.

Funeral services were held November 21st, 1930, at the Community Methodist Church, Puente. A. L. Baker was in charge of the service and was assisted by Dr. Riley of the Erie Conference, M. G. Wenz, pastor of the local church, Dr. Landen of the Puget Sound Conference, and Walter C. Loomis, Superintendent of the Long Beach District.

A. L. BAKER.

F. R. HOLCOMB

Francis R. Holcomb was born at Windham, Ohio, June 4, 1841, the son of Chester R. Holcomb and Adeline S. Holcomb, natives of Connecticut. Three years later the family moved to Muscatine, Iowa. Here at the age of 25 he was married to Annie L. Johnson of Bellevue, Michigan. To this marriage three children were born, all of whom survive him. They are C. E. Holcomb of Fullerton, Mrs. Mary Case of Orange, and Mrs. Annie Gardiner of Roscoe. His wife died in 1875.

In 1878 he entered the Iowa Conference. The year previous he was married to Mrs. Elizabeth A. Shepard at Muscatine. In 1888 they were transferred to the Southern California Conference and stationed at Fullerton. Other appointments held by him in the Conference were Anaheim and Garden Grove. He took the Supernumerary Relation in '94 and the Retired Relation in 1904. On his retirement he made his home at Fullerton where he had been the organizer of the church.

After his retirement he engaged in ranching for a number of years and then later moved into the town where he took active part in church and religious work. He was also financially interested as bank director of the principal bank of Fullerton until about two years ago.

While giving but few years to the ministry in this Conference he was known as a brother beloved and one who did foundation work.

Besides the three children, Brother Holcomb is survived by five grandchildren, Mrs. Gladys Gardiner Elder, Chester M. Gardiner, Mrs. Lola Case Blaikie, John Francis Holcomb and James Willis Holcomb. Three great-grandchildren also survive. They are William F. Blaikie, Jackie Blaikie and James Willis Holcomb, Jr.

Funeral services were held at our Fullerton church with the pastor, B. D. Snudden, officiating, and his body was laid to rest at the Loma Vista Cemetery.

B. D. SNUDDEN.

WM. F. LUSK

William F. Lusk, son of Mr. and Mrs. Norman Lusk, was born in New York City, July 18, 1881. When William was six years old the family moved to Los Angeles, California, where he grew to manhood, obtaining his education in the elementary and secondary schools of that city. He graduated from the school of theology in the University of Southern California and entered the ministry of the Methodist Episcopal Church.

He conducted religious services in the small community of Huntington Park before it had any organized body of religious workers, and had the assistance of Miss Alice Freeman who came regularly from Los Angeles to play the piano for him and otherwise assist him in his work. The young pastor and his assistant were married at Ontario, Cal., in June, 1904, and continued their work at Huntington Park, where the First Methodist Church was organized in February, 1905. The congregation consisted of eleven persons, including the pastor and his wife. Public worship was conducted and Sunday School work carried on in a tent at the northwest corner of Rugby and Clarendon streets until a strong wind destroyed the tent. At this corner our first church was subsequently erected. After the destruction of the tent, services were conducted for awhile in the office of the Huntington Park Signal.

In September, 1906, Brother Lusk was appointed to the pastorate of the Central Methodist Church in Long Beach, where he served three years. He then gave three years of service to the Methodist Church in Santa Maria, and this was followed by a pastorate of three years at San Dimas. This concluded his active relation to the ministry. Brother Lusk went into business, working as a salesman in the middle west, the family residence being for a time in Long Beach, and thereafter until the present time in Huntington Park. Here their sons grew to manhood.

Brother Lusk's health was broken many years ago, but idleness was impossible to a man of his temperament. After two years of service as an adult probation officer in Los Angeles, he gave himself to newspaper work, for which he had decided talent. For awhile he owned "The Park News." Brother Lusk attracted notice as the editor of what was known as "Dad's Column." This column was always eagerly read, first in "The Park Sun," then in "The Park News" and for the past five years in the "Huntington Park Signal."

The Signal editor tells us that thousands of letters received at the office have acknowledged the pleasure and inspiration afforded by the daily meditations of our preacher-philosopher. "Dad's Column" was an unfailing fount of moral and spiritual wisdom, giving comfort and courage and cheer to discouraged and suffering souls. To moral and spiritual insight he added clarity of statement. How wonderful that, while fighting in sickness and pain what he knew to be a losing battle with death, he should have been daily a messenger of hope and sunshine to a host of tempted and troubled people. Toiling bravely on beneath his growing burden of bodily affliction, his meditations became more markedly religious in tone, more spiritual and vital, more radiant with faith and hope. He was repeating the experience of the psalmist who said, "My heart and my flesh fail; but God is the strength of my heart, and my portion forever."

At 9:30 o'clock Tuesday night, March the 17th, he went through the portal that stands between the seen and the unseen world, leaving behind a multitude of friends who mourn his going and who tender sympathy and best wishes to those most intimately bereaved, his widow, Mrs. Alice Freeman Lusk; his sons, Freeman, John and George; his brother, Mr. D. H. Lusk of Houston, Texas, and his sister, Mrs. D. Hodges, of Los Angeles, California.

FRANK B. COWGILL.

C. B. ALLEN

Charles B. Allen was born in Whiteville, Missouri, August 20, 1863. He was the son of Nelson McDowell Allen and Biddie Ann Mackie. Both his father and his paternal grandfather were Baptist preachers. His mother's father was a Methodist preacher, and this influence, brought into his life when he was a mere lad, eventually led him into the membership and the ministry of the Methodist Church. His mother died when he was only nine years old, and from that time until the establishment of his own home he knew little of home life.

His Christian life began at so early an age that he could scarcely point to its beginning. Early, too, he felt the call to the ministry of Jesus Christ. When he was but fifteen years old he was frequently called upon to exhort and preach in the country churches near his home.

In order to obtain the educational equipment needed for his life work, he went to Illinois and worked on a farm, thereby earning his support and enabling him to attend Hedding College. In 1885 he was admitted on trial in the Illinois Conference. He transferred to Central Illinois Conference in order to attend Garrett Biblical Institute. He soon experienced an acute throat trouble which was to cause him much serious difficulty in his preaching ministry in succeeding years, and at the advice of a physician he went to the plains of Nebraska. A few years later, his health having improved, he was back in Garrett.

Finally the continuance of his throat affection convinced him that he could not continue the work of preaching, and in 1894 he entered the medical school of Northwestern University, from which he was graduated four years later with the M. D. degree. But his heart was in the work of the Kingdom, and he could not think of departing from the task to which he had first put his hand. He resolved that he would use this new medical training as a medical missionary in a non-Christian land. He was eager to serve, full of enthusiasm, and always ambitious far beyond the resources of his physical strength. His wife, the companion of forty-two years, has remarked that through practically all their life together he was a continual sufferer. Very reluctantly, therefore, he was forced to abandon this new hope of medical service abroad, because of inadequate physical strength.

In 1903 he suffered a severe fall that threatened to put a period to his activities altogether. It left him with a blood clot on his spine, and caused him excruciating suffering. Yet his indomitable will would not surrender. For six years he was unable to walk except with the aid of crutches or cane; yet he filled pastorates in the Rock River conference during all that time, with the exception of the first eighteen months.

In 1909 he first came to California, hoping to find benefit in the change of climate; but the conditions at Bishop, where he then went, were unfavorable to his health, and he returned to Kansas. In 1911 he returned to California, first to the California conference, then very soon to the Southern California, where the remainder of his life was spent. In this conference he served pastorates at Coronado, Huntington Beach, Selma, San Luis Obispo, Bardsdale, Lamanda Park (Hartzell Memorial), Oceanside, and Highgrove. In 1923 he was retired, after having given thirty-one years to the effective relation in the face of handicaps that would have overwhelmed anyone less stout-hearted than he.

Even after his retirement he did a little supply work, and then made several trips to Hawaii as ship physician on one of the liners of the Los Angeles Steamship Company; but he was so weakened by the effects of the old injury to his spine and from the first effects of the disease which eventually caused his death, that he was compelled to relinquish this, his last active work. His last years were spent in his home at Pacific Palisades, where he enjoyed the comradeship of his devoted wife and son. For the past two years he was bedfast almost continuously. Yet so indomitable was his will, he refused to let anyone do for him anything that he could do himself.

Brother Allen's coronation came December 10, 1930, at his home. Funeral services were conducted December 12, in Hartzell Memorial Church, Pasadena, by his pastor, J. E. Dunning, assisted by Alfred Inwood and A. W. Shamel. Interment was made in Mountain View Cemetery, Altadena.

What a story of suffering! But the glory lies in the triumphant faith, the abundant courage, the unceasing patience, the spirit of joy and hope that marked him daily. He was always ready to say, with Paul, "For our light affliction, which is for the moment, worketh for us more and more exceedingly an eternal weight of glory; while we look not at the things which are seen, but at the things which are not seen; for the things which are seen are temporal; but the things which are not seen are eternal." Truly "he endureth as seeing him who is invisible." During the months of patient suffering his life was a ministry of joy, faith, courage to all who came into his sick-room, and they were many, as well as to the community at large.

In 1888 Charles B. Allen was united in marriage to Mary Boswell of Union Hill, Illinois, who survives him. Happy union, resulting in a beautiful companionship and a truly Christian home. Equal to the courage and patience of the sufferer was the loving, quiet, patient attention of Sister Allen. Two children survive their father, Mrs. Frances Michel and the little granddaughter, Majel, of Pacific Palisades, and Robert McDowell, now a student in Asbury College.

JAMES EDWIN DUNNING.

E. W. PASKO

Reporter, editor, student, research worker, minister, social service expert—thus is summed up the life of Edgar W. Pasko, which began in Rochester, New York, August 11, 1861.

In New York City and in Salem, Massachusetts he worked as reporter and editor. When 23 years of age he was married in New York to Miss Hattie E. Byram and he and his helpmeet traveled together for forty-six years. Spending two years in medical school, he finally faced the question of the ministry and entered Drew Theological School in 1887. His high scholarship brought to him the reward of one of the two fellowships, and that same scholarship was used in verifying the Hebrew in Strong's "Concordance of the Bible."

Choosing the Genesee Conference as his place of labor, he worked there from 1890 to 1896 when, on account of his wife's health, he came to California, and while acting as a supply organized the Lamanda Park Church. Admitted to the Southern California Conference in the fall of '96 he spent four years at Lamanda Park. His other pastorate included High-grove, Cucamonga, Union Avenue, Garvanza, Inglewood, Perris, Larchmont Heights, Kings River, Coalinga.

While at Lamanda Park he led in the first fight for the so-called "Sanitary District" by which rural communities were authorized to put out the legalized liquor traffic. That victory embittered the liquor traffic against him, but that experience stood him in good stead in his later reform work in the fight for a dry and moral California.

For fifteen years he acted as one of the Trustees of the Conference, and none was more careful or wise than he in the husbanding and administration of these funds.

During the past eight years, while he has held the Retired Relation, his has been an active life. Five years of the time he put in as pastor of the Community Church in Tujunga, and of the Tujunga Terrace Church. He took time to browse among his books, for he was a student indeed and he loved the keen clash of brain against brain. In the community he worked in service club, Boy Scout and charity organization. No pastor but what found him an assistant indeed, loving, helpful, never critical.

Facing the gates that swing but one way, a few days before his death on December 6th, he wrote out "What my religion means to me."

"It means 'location.' I am some one, a definite item in the totality of things. I am not a mechanical atom, or electron of force, or a leaf—but some one. The Infinite is my Father, and all His sons and daughters my relatives. I am and I will be eternally. (2) It means favor. I am the recipient of the definite grace of God in an experienced salvation, and an heir of the uttermost glory. (3) It means contact. I am in absolute touch with the Infinite One. I know Him as vividly as I know the world about me, as profoundly as my self-consciousness, as richly as my feelings. And this is life eternal. (4) It means partnership. I am one of many, inter-related, interacting, interworking out the Infinite plan of the ages and of the universe: a partner with God and men."

There at Tujunga, his home, he became a close friend of John Steven McGroarty. At a largely attended funeral held in that Community Church, among those who took part were F. D. Mather, his associate in the Genesee Conference, E. M. Wilson of the Presbyterian Church, Superintendent W. C. Loomis and F. G. H. Stevens, but no tribute could surpass the one paid to him by his friend of another faith, but the same faith, John Steven McGroarty.

Always his preaching bore the exultant, joyous note, and his life was but his preaching in action. And to his wife and his daughters, Ruth and Beth, his memory is a blessing.

While his body was laid to rest in beautiful Inglewood Cemetery that community at Tujunga said that he is to live in another way. For on the green Verdugo hillside where he started and so often led the Easter Sunrise Service, this community has planned to dedicate a park about that peak, to bear his name and to shed forth his spirit.

F. G. H. STEVENS.

BURTON HAMLIN

Burton Hamlin was born in Pine Island, Minn., March 6, 1871. At the age of 15 he came with his parents to California and located in San Diego. From High School he entered the University of Southern California, from which he graduated in 1907.

He entered the Southern California Conference and was appointed to East 38th St. Church, Los Angeles. While there he married Ida I. Glass in 1908. He held charges at Kernville, Ingomar, Livingston, and Caruthers on the Fresno District, Normal Heights, Fallbrook and Highgrove on the San Diego District. In 1925 because of failing health he took the Retired Relation. He took up his residence in Inglewood where he and Mrs. Hamlin actively identified themselves in the work of the Church.

Though a continual sufferer he never complained, but was always hopeful and cheerful. Finally, just a week before the Christmas Chimes rang, he slipped peacefully away into the eternal world. On December 23rd he was laid to rest in the Inglewood Park Cemetery amid numerous tokens of esteem from a host of sorrowing friends.

He was one of God's noblemen—just, unassuming, almost timid but absolutely consecrated to the Lord. It was his lot to serve hard and difficult fields, yet he did it with noble grace and courage. He literally wore himself out in the service of the Church.

His home life was ideal, full of deep, filial devotion and hospitable to the highest degree. Both Brother and Sister Hamlin were earnest workers in the Church which they supremely loved and were a constant inspiration to the pastor. This influence will live on through the years, and his loving words and noble acts will be immortalized in the lives of those who knew him best and loved him most.

THOS. L. BURDEN.

J. A. JACKSON

John A. Jackson was born in Stockport, England, in 1868. He remained in England until the age of eleven years, when, with his parents, he crossed the ocean and came to reside in Toronto, Canada, where he received his early training. At the age of fifteen he was brought to see his need of Christ and was converted in the Salvation Army, with which organization he was associated for several years. Feeling the call of God to dedicate his life to the ministry of the Gospel, he entered the theological department of McGill University, Montreal, in 1889; and after four years graduated with the degree of S. T. L. At this period, being greatly impressed with the needs of the mission field, he was led to take up the study of medicine at the University of Toronto, in order that he might become a medical missionary.

In 1897 he married Miss Caroline Mary Hook, of Toronto, Canada, and the young couple went to minister to the Pacific Coast Indians in British Columbia. His health failing at the conclusion of one year's work he was forced to give up his labors in this field and to return to Toronto.

After an illness lasting two years, recovering sufficiently, he became the pastor of Perth Avenue Methodist Church in Toronto, where he served four years. A second illness after this period led him to seek the climate of Southern California where he arrived in 1904. His life was again despaired of after reaching this state. At one time, while a patient in the California Lutheran Hospital, it was considered impossible for him to live through the night. Through the mercy of God his life was spared, and following his recovery he became a member of the Southern California Annual Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church. He served the following charges: Highland Park, Los Angeles, 1906-1909; San Fernando, 1909-1912; Fullerton, 1912-1914. New churches were built during his pastorates at Highland Park and San Fernando.

For various reasons, feeling that he might have greater opportunities for serving the Master, he resumed the practice of medicine, and in 1914 he became associated with the Los Angeles General Hospital. While there he constantly witnessed for Christ and had the joy of seeing a number of souls brought into the Light through his personal work. In 1917 he went to Anaheim where he remained in the practice of medicine until 1924, when his wife's ill health forced him to return to Los Angeles. He again became a member of the staff of the Los Angeles General Hospital, where he continued his ministry of blessing. He was privileged to serve there until the summer of 1930 when his final illness overtook him. In spite of his weakness his spirit was high, his courage strong, and his faith in Him Who "doeth all things well" unshaken. His sick room became a benediction to all those who visited him. On August 26, 1930, at 6:21 p. m., he entered triumphantly through the shining gates of the eternal city into the presence of the Master that he loved and whom he had so long and faithfully served.

Separated from him for a little while are his widow and his son, Dr.

John L. Jackson, a resident physician of the Los Angeles General Hospital.

The funeral service, held on August 29th, was a demonstration of faith and hope triumphant. Addresses were delivered by three of his warm personal friends, the Rev. H. C. Waddell, Director of the Evangelical Prayer Union, Dr. Wm. P. White, and the writer. Here are some of the tributes paid to this "beloved physician" and faithful minister of Christ. He was "a good man and full of the Holy Ghost and of faith." He was altogether loyal in his life's relationships, profound in his convictions, and intense in his hopefulness. To him the Bible was the word of God. He lived a life of prayer. A brother physician said that whenever he thought of Dr. Jackson he thought of Jesus Christ.

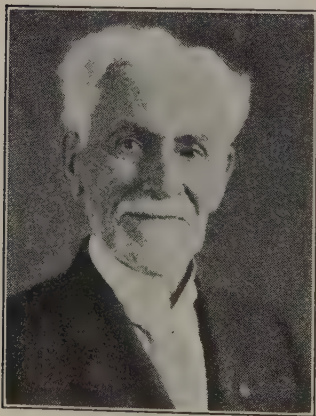

His was a fruitful ministry. There labors in Africa today a medical missionary whom he led to Christ during his San Fernando pastorate. He was devoted to the Evangelical Prayer Union with its fellowship Covenant, "By the grace of God the Father, I give myself in the name of the Lord Jesus Christ to the life and ministry and promotion of prayer in the Holy Spirit." He was a highly valued speaker at its monthly all-day meetings.

Loving hands of kindred souls bore his body to its place of rest among the "Whispering Pines" in the beautiful Forest Lawn Memorial Park, Glendale, there to await the resurrection of life.

JOHN NICHOLSON.

W. G. COWAN

On March 17, 1931, William Guy Cowan passed to his reward at Los Angeles, California. Born of Staunch Presbyterian stock of the old school on January 13, 1839, near Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania, our brother was educated in the Presbyterian schools in his home state.

During the Civil War, he served three years in Company "G" of the 140th Pennsylvania, Army of the Potomac. His name is engraved on the bronze tablet at Gettysburg. In the three years of his service under "the colors," it is said that he never failed to answer call for duty and never answered to sick call. It was the same indomitable will that characterized his work in the army which was shown all through the ninety-two years of his life.

He joined the Methodist Episcopal Church in New Philadelphia, Ohio, and felt the call to preach from the very beginning. He served the church as a minister most loyally for over sixty-five years. His particular task seemed to be the building and furnishing of churches and parsonages under the most trying conditions and those who knew him well say that invariably he left his charges in better financial and spiritual condition than when he took them. Brother Cowan lived in close communion with his God and it was to be expected that when he opened his eyes just a few minutes before the end of this earthly life he should say, "The angels have come for me," and with a sweet peace spread over his tranquil face, he was gone to receive his crown.

Brother Cowan began his ministry in the Missouri Conference in 1876 and transferred to the Southern California Conference in 1886, remaining here until the time of his going.

Funeral services were held in Long Beach with his pastor, Richard N. Merrill, officiating and Alfred Inwood bringing a message. E. J. Inwood and Walter C. Loomis offered prayers. Pastors of the churches in Long Beach carried the body to its last resting place.

RICHARD N. MERRILL.

J. S. KLINE

James Snodgrass Kline was born in Pittsburgh, Pa., December 21st, 1831. Later his family moved to Des Moines, Iowa, where his father, Adam Kline, a local minister, was a missionary in charge of the Mission for the Osage Indians. For several years after his father's death, he assisted in caring for his mother and younger brothers on the family farm.

He received his later education at Mount Pleasant College, Mt. Pleasant, Iowa. After he left college, he was received on trial in the Kansas-Nebraska Conference in 1859 and served two years as pastor of Columbus, Grasshopper and Valley Falls, Kansas. He was admitted to full membership in the Conference and ordained as Deacon in 1861. From 1861 until 1881, he held various charges in Kansas with the exception of the years from 1863 to 1865, during which time he served as Chaplain of the 11th Kansas Cavalry Regiment.

In 1866 he married Mary Frances Dodge, with whom he lived in mutual love and devotion for over 67 years until her demise in 1927.

He was mustered into the United States Army as recruiting officer with the rank of Second Lieutenant in August, 1862. Was appointed chaplain of his regiment in October, 1862. From August 8, 1863 until January, 1864 he was chaplain of the U. S. General Hospital, Kansas City, Mo. From April, 1865 until July 17, 1865, he was engaged with his regiment in warfare against the Indians on the North Fork of the Colorado, after which date he was mustered out of the army.

He joined the Southern California Conference in 1881. His first appointment was Bakersfield, where he served 3 years. His other appointments in the Southern California Conference were Visalia, Grangeville, Santa Monica, and Fairview. In 1890 he retired from active service. For a number of years, he lived in Los Angeles, and then spent the last years of his long useful life, a helpless invalid at Hermosa Beach, from which place, at the age of 99½ years, he entered into his eternal rest on June 19th.

After his retirement he was a member of Asbury Church Quarterly Conference. He was affiliated with the Masonic and Eastern Star Lodges and the Grand Army of the Republic. For many years he was the oldest minister in age and membership of the Southern California Conference.

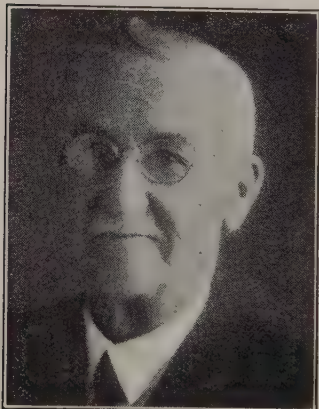

His life, both in health and illness, to all who knew and loved him, was an example of unfailing patience, faith, love and devotion to all things of spiritual value.

The funeral service was held on June 22, at Asbury Church, Los Angeles, with the following ministers participating: S. A. Thomson, C. E. Boyer, F. D. Mather, D. Roland Martin and H. C. Slater.

H. C. SLATER.

F. M. WARRINGTON

F. M. Warrington was born in Kentucky in 1850. He was a graduate of the College of Liberal Arts of the Northwestern University and of the Boston University School of Theology. He joined the Illinois Conference in 1875, and in 1878 was transferred to the Minnesota Conference. From 1879 to 1882, he served several churches in Nevada.

In 1887 he was transferred to the Southern California Conference, where he served the following charges: Cambria, Santa Monica, Central Ave., Los Angeles, Bellevue Ave., Los Angeles, Hueneme, Ensenada, Beaumont, and Banning, Simi, Redondo, Hynes. In 1906 he was granted the Supernumerary Relation and in 1909 he was granted the Retired Relation. He died January 6, 1931.

On May 1, 1890, he was married to Miss Fanny Lebus who lived but a few years and died March 2, 1893. The funeral services of Brother Warrington were conducted by C. E. Leitzell, Associate Pastor of First Church of Los Angeles where Brother Warrington held his Quarterly Conference relationship. He was a man of fine character and utterly devoted to the Christian ministry, but suffered almost all his adult life from ill health which made very difficult the performance of his duties as a pastor. His brother, his only survivor, is Rev. L. P. Warrington, a retired minister of the Illinois Conference.

MRS. TRANQUILINO GOMEZ

Carmen Loera, wife of Tranquilino Gomez, pastor of the Fillmore Mexican Methodist Church, always lived between Two Worlds. She was born on the border at Juarez, October 6, 1896. She was never strong physically. She crossed the line between time and eternity, June 26, 1930, in the beautiful Ventura Valley at Fillmore.

Coming to California in 1922, she received Christ and was baptized by Leandro Lopez, pastor at Fullerton, while her future husband was pastor at Artesia. The wedding on June 22, 1924, was performed by Paul F. Huebner, in the Artesia English-speaking church.

Carmen had never been far from the Kingdom. Sweet, sunny, self-sacrificing, she was an ideal pioneer pastor's wife. All loved her. She was the mother of four lovely children. Ezequiel has been a student in the Plaza Children's Home and is now in the Spanish American Institute. Eliza is a student at Frances DePauw School for Girls.

Mr. and Mrs. Geo. N. King of Bardsdale, patron saints of the Fillmore Mexican work, led in beautiful arrangements for the funeral services which were attended by a large company.

Carmen Gomez to the last moment left a testimony, radiant and full of faith. Concerned for her children and husband, she pointed them to Jesus. She wanted nothing around her bed except the Bible and her flowers. She has passed the doorway into Another Room.

VERNON M. McCOMBS.

MRS. C. W. HARSHMAN

Avanelle C. Cory was born near Lafayette, Indiana, February 27, 1865. A student of Purdue University, she received the degrees of Bachelor of Science and Master of Science. Holding a life teacher's certificate in three states, she taught for six years.

She became the happy bride of Charles W. Harshman, June 23, 1891, and immediately became the loving mistress of the manse in her husband's work.

Three children were born into the home: Major Clarence C. Harshman, San Francisco; Mrs. Baldwin M. Woods, Berkeley; and Harry C. Harshman, New York City. These along with their father mourn her passing.

Avanelle C. Cory gave her heart to the Lord and her life to the church at the early age of twelve. An accomplished musician and a gifted speaker, she was especially efficient in the work of the Woman's Home and Foreign Missionary Societies, not only in her home church but throughout the Conference.

Hers was no static membership. Her husband's work was her work. She was a wise counselor and a sympathetic helpmeet. Her home was hospitality personalized. Unselfish devotion to others was her outstanding characteristic. The needy of all classes found her a friend.

After two and a half years of intense suffering, she passed away in great peace in her home in Los Angeles, December 18, 1930. Knowing the homey touches her loved ones delight in, she went a little in advance to help the Father prepare that heavenly house and make it a home over against the family reunion in the skies.

W. L. Y. DAVIS.

MRS. ISAAC JEWELL

Mrs. Isaac Jewell (Ada Estelle Carter) was born in Maryland in 1860, was married to Isaac Jewell, a minister in Wilmington Conference, in 1883, at Queenstown, Maryland. She served with him in Wilmington Conference until 1894, when on account of Mrs. Jewell's health they came to the Southern California Conference, serving the following appointments: Perris, Santa Ana, Fresno, San Bernardino, North Pasadena, Covina, Colton. Here Brother Jewell, while engaged in a building enterprise contracted the disease which led to his death in 1908. The church was dedicated and has since been known as the "Jewell Memorial." In this church Mrs. Jewell has since retained her membership.

Aside from her work in the local churches of which her husband was pastor, Mrs. Jewell's chief interest was the Woman's Home Missionary Society. For several years she was president of the San Diego District. Under her leadership that district became one of the leading districts of the W.H.M.S. of our Southern California Conference. She was also a member of the Board of Trustees of the Conference W.H.M.S. Clear in her thinking she had the power of seeing through the problems brought before that body, and the ability to help solve those problems. She was invaluable as a member of the conference board, and for years edited its annual report.

Mrs. Jewell held a warm place in the hearts not only of the First Methodist Church of Pasadena, but in the hearts of the entire Southern California Conference; she was a woman of rare ability, highly cultured, with a keen mind. She was an honored member of the Shakespeare and Browning Clubs of Pasadena; however, her great love and devotion was given to church activities.

But to us who knew and loved her so much, her great work in the W.H.M.S. was accomplished as conference secretary of evangelism, which office she resigned last fall after giving sixteen years of untiring effort to this line of our work. Hers was a deeply spiritual nature, gifted in prayer; spending much time in the "upper room" with her blessed Master.

Through her leadership the Southern California Conference of the W.H.M.S. led our entire United States in evangelism, for she believed that evangelism was the foundation stone on which this society rested.

Not only will our missionary societies miss her, but our entire church; she was so faithful, dependable. After years of suffering she "rests from her labors, but her works do follow her."

MARY MARTIN NORTHRUP.

MRS. WALDO S. REINOEHL

Some lives are too precious to be hidden, even by death. They laid her body in beautiful Santa Barbara cemetery between the mountains and the sea, but they could not lay away the beautiful spirit nor the life fragrance of Alice Dora Reinoehl. Such a life does not end with the grave.

She was the daughter of Brother and Sister Samuel Hughes of First Church Riverside, and was born in Tulare, California, June 1st, 1905. At six years of age she definitely dedicated her life to Christ, said she wanted to give her life for service and never for a moment did she waver in that decision. She graduated from the Santa Barbara High School and from the University of Southern California.

She was a rose sent from Heaven and very early the fragrance of her life began to be felt. She was a joy to her parents, a blessing to her professors, and an inspiration to her fellow students. Her sunny smile and deep consecration gave her a ready entrance into the lives of all who knew her. She honored her Christ with a beautiful consecration and she rejoiced to introduce people to Him. Early in her college life she joined the Student Volunteers and twice they sent her east to represent the University, once to Indianapolis and again to New York City.

Her life came into its fullest bloom when she plighted her love with Waldo S. Reinoehl and together they dedicated their lives and love to God and the Church. On December 18th, 1927, they were united in marriage by Bishop Charles Wesley Burns at the close of the dedication of the First Methodist Episcopal Church of Santa Barbara, her father being the pastor of the church at the time.

Brother and Sister Reinoehl were appointed to Paso Robles by the Southern California Conference in 1929 and by their devotion to the task they soon won the hearts of the entire community. No two people ever loved each other more nor were happier in their work than were Waldo and Alice and it is no wonder the community loved them and were so shocked by her going.

Palm Sunday, 1931, was a great day for them and their church. It was a foretaste of Heaven, and Heaven was nearer than they knew for Alice was stricken the next week and on April 8th, 1931, in spite of all that human hands could do, she slipped away to the Father's house. It was her coronation day.

Services were held in Paso Robles on the morning of April 10th, conducted by the ministers of the community and a second service was held in the afternoon in the First Methodist Episcopal Church of Santa Barbara conducted by Lincoln A. Ferris and Howard C. Taylor. District Superintendent Walter C. Loomis spoke at both services and referred to her as his ideal of a pastor's wife.

The stem of a beautiful flower has been broken, but the all-pervading perfume still lingers.

A. RAY MOORE.

MRS. EDWARD HOSKYN

Martha P. Hoskyn was born in Somonock, Ill., February 13, 1848. When she was seven years old she moved with her parents to Iowa.

She was converted at the age of eleven years and through her long life was a joyous and enthusiastic worker in the church.

She became the bride of Edward Hoskyn on November 2, 1871. They were a pair of happy lovers and congenial laborers in Christ's Kingdom until he was taken to his Heavenly Mansion January 2, 1928.

Mrs. Hoskyn was a devoted student of the Bible and taught in the Sunday School fifty-eight years.

She was also particularly useful and generous in the Woman's Missionary Societies.

Brother and Sister Hoskyn spent the last years of their lives in Glendale and were greatly loved by the people of First Church. They were generous donors to the building enterprise and Mrs. Hoskyn placed the beautiful revolving cross upon the tower of the church as a memorial to her husband whom she now joins in the eternal city.

Her death occurred at Glendale, Feb. 1, 1931.

She leaves two sons, Albert E. and Fred B. Hoskyn, their wives and three grandchildren to mourn her loss.

WILL A. BETTS.

MRS. HARRY BRANTON

The members of the Conference were shocked and saddened at the news of the hospital accident, which on January 21st, 1931, terminated the earthly existence of the beloved wife of Harry Branton. Immediately our tenderest sympathies and most earnest prayers were centered in the occupants of the motherless parsonage at Chino.

Sister Branton was born in Ludden, North Dakota, May 24th, 1886. She graduated from high school and from a business college in Sioux City, Iowa, and later took work at Morningside College and passed the state teachers' examination and taught school in that state.

She entered the sisterhood of our ministry on May 25th, 1909, when she was united in holy matrimony with Harry Branton. Two sons were born of this union, Allan now 19 and Ralph 9, both of whom feel deeply the tragic going of mother. She is also survived by her parents and two brothers all of whom live in Orange County, California.

Sister Branton was a blessedly saved soul. She had the spiritual mother heart and was never happier than when surrounded by a company of young folks, especially girls, whose fellowship she always made devotional. Prayer was her native spiritual breath and atmosphered all her ministries in love. She mothered the youth in every church of which her husband was pastor, and gave her life without stint to the needy of every parish. Her life was fragrant with spiritual beauty. The divine aroma of her personality perfumed every parsonage and helped to sanctify every human relation.

She lived in the secret place of the Most High. Her faith and hope and courage were in Him. Four days before her death, she said in a letter to a loved friend: "This is the fifth time I must go through 'the valley and the shadow of death.' But, 'I fear no evil' for God is near me."

Her body was tenderly and lovingly laid to rest in the cemetery at Santa Ana amid the tears and affections of a beloved company of members of the Chino Church and friends of the family and suffering loved ones.

"Fold her in thy arms, O Lord,
And ever let her be
A messenger of love
Between our aching hearts and Thee!"

JOHN OLIVER.

MRS. A. W. CUMMINGS

Alice Stone Cummings, widow of Brother A. W. Cummings, devoted mother, faithful follower of her Lord, went to her heavenly reward Sunday evening, June 7, 1931.

Mrs. Cummings was born in Iowa, August 27, 1868. In childhood she moved to Kansas in a covered wagon. Here she grew to womanhood, became a teacher and married A. W. Cummings. After a fruitful ministry in Kansas, they came to California in 1910. From then until their retirement in 1923 they served faithfully and capably charges of our Conference.

Mrs. Cummings was a woman of deep devotion and complete consecration to the work of her Lord. She joined the Epworth League when it was organized. She met her husband at a District Epworth League gathering. How she loved the church and how jealous she was for the spiritual interests of Methodism!

Her four children, Mrs. Madge E. Black, Ralph S. Cummings, a teacher in the Chino schools, Ruth and Esther Cummings are a credit to the love and devotion of such a mother.

The funeral was held in the Garvanza church on June 10, 1931. Here, in one of the churches where she and her husband served together and from which he was buried, with many old friends in attendance, loving tribute was paid to her life and character by A. Ray Moore, Charles D. Lewis, and Alfred Inwood.

On Sunday evening just before the final summons she seemed to be talking with her departed husband. That was a foretaste of Heaven, and now in the presence of Him whom they both loved so well, they serve in His Everlasting Kingdom.

FRED H. ROSS.

All candidates holding a bachelor degree from an accredited college or university shall be exempt from examination in all studies not biblical and theological, and all graduates from accredited theological seminaries shall be exempt from examination in theological and biblical studies. This exemption shall not, however, exclude examination on the Discipline. All candidates whether excused from other examination or not must take examination in this study. (See Discipline, par. 618, Sec. 4.) Certificates of such work must be sent the Registrar not later than Sept. 1st.

4. A syllabus of each book in the "Collateral Reading and Study" shall be presented to the respective examiner, but this rule shall not apply to the College and Seminary graduates excused from examination in the courses of study. But these latter must present to the Registrar a certificate giving the grade of each study for work done in college or seminary.

6. Sermons must be typewritten and sent to C. O. Kimball not later than June 1st and should contain from 2000 to 3000 words. The paper used should be letter-size and should be folded, not rolled, when sent. Deduction will be made when the spelling, grammar or general execution is faulty.

MEMORIALS TO GENERAL CONFERENCE

EXEMPTION FROM MILITARY SERVICE

With full appreciation of the heroic sacrifices of all those who have conscientiously and unselfishly served their country in times of war, but with the belief that the time has come in the unfolding light of the new day for the settlement of human conflicts by pacific means, and

Because we as Christians owe our first and supreme allegiance to Jesus Christ.

Because the Methodist Episcopal Church in her General Conference of 1928 has declared: "We renounce war as an instrument of national policy,"

Because our nation led the nations of the world in signing the Paris Peace Pact, and the Constitution of the United States, Article 6, Section 2, provides that: "This Constitution and the laws of the United States which shall be made in pursuance thereof and all treaties made under authority of the United States shall be the Supreme Law of the land."

Thus making the Paris Pact the supreme law of the land which de- clares: "The high contracting parties agree that the settlement of all disputes or conflict—shall never be sought except by pacific means."

Therefore we, the Southern California Conference, memorialize the General Conference which convenes in Atlantic City in May, 1932; to petition the United States Government to grant exemption from military service to such citizens who are members of the Methodist Episcopal Church, as conscientiously believe that participation in war is a denial of their supreme allegiance to Jesus Christ.

CONFERENCE BOUNDARIES

We respectfully request the correction of Paragraph 547, (75), by striking out the words:

"Beginning at the mouth of the Carmel River on Carmel Bay; thence; and substituting therefor the words:

"Beginning with the Southern Line of Monterey County, running from the Southeast corner of Monterey County Northerly along the Eastern boundaries of Monterey, San Benito and Santa Clara Counties."

DIVORCE

We are deeply concerned over the growth of the divorce evil, and it is with humility and shame that we view the action of some states which hasten family separations through easy and immediate divorce; and on account of the confusion growing out of different standards in different states and the tragic injustices such fluctuating standards bring to innocent parties, and especially to children,

We, the Southern California Conference memorialize the General Conference of 1932 to take vigorous progressive action to secure a unified Federal law on marriage and divorce. We believe conditions call for a constitutional amendment.

Further we memorialize the General Conference to change and clarify the statement on Divorce in Paragraph 70 of the Discipline of 1928.

CHANGE IN APOSTLES' CREED

Change in the Apostles' Creed to correct and clarify the archaic phrase "holy catholic" to read "the church universal" or "the universal Christian church."

Whereas, the Apostles' Creed now recites our belief in "the holy catholic church" and,

Whereas this phrase is now commonly accepted in the English-speaking world as usually signifying the Roman Catholic Church, and,

Whereas this phrase is therefore confusing and often embarrassing today to vast numbers of Christian converts, and,

Whereas a change to "the church universal" or "the universal Christian church" has already been made in the creed as translated into the language of our world church, thus simplifying and clarifying the creed of our faith,

Therefore, we would respectfully memorialize the General Conference of 1932 to make such change as shall intelligently, directly and simply affirm our belief in the universal Christian church.

MINISTERS OF EDUCATION

Whereas: There has in recent years been created within the Church a new profession, that of Minister of Education, a new profession evidently come to stay, and further, in the realm of public education leaders have been revising curricula, and raising standards of professional training, it becomes imperative that the Church in its great task of Teaching, organization and leadership should give proper place to its Ministers of Education. And

Whereas: At the present time many ministers, members of Annual Conference, are regularly appointed to charges as Ministers of Education, some of whom have previously held charges as pastors, while others have not; and all such should have their educational qualifications determined by the conference of which they are members. And

Whereas: There are also many laymen, both men and women, being employed by the churches, giving full time to this work, some of whom have had the highest training that colleges and universities can give along with years of experience, while others are not really prepared to give adequate leadership in such an important field. And

Whereas: The problem is further complicated by the fact that many of our young people are looking to this calling as a life work, the church calling them to this service, but making no provision for such workers and giving no official sanction to the work, thus making it difficult for leaders of youth to give wise and helpful counsel to these young people. And

Whereas: The rapid development of the work of Religious Education has sometimes led to misunderstanding between churches and ministers of education or between pastors and such ministers, the term "religious education" seeming to create prejudice in the minds of some, it seems to your Board of Education that the time has come when the church should give due recognition to this new form of service.

Therefore, Be It Resolved, That we the Southern California Annual Conference respectfully memorialize the General Conference to be held in Atlantic City, May 1932, to consider the following new legislation to be known as Chapter IV of art IV of the Discipline.

I. MINISTERS OF EDUCATION

1. A minister of education is one of suitable qualifications who has been led by the Holy Spirit to devote himself or herself to the work of religious education as a life work under the direction of the church and who, after the prescribed training, has been given a credential by the Board of Education of the church and has been consecrated for this work.

2. In no way shall it be understood that the holding of a credential and consecration of a minister of education shall mean that said minister of education is eligible to the appointment to a charge as preacher in charge.

3. This provision shall not encroach upon the autonomy of a local church in its selection of members of its staff. Its purpose, however, is to establish a Fellowship of Ministers of Education to which only those who have met the requirements set forth by the church shall be eligible.

II. A CANDIDATE FOR MINISTER OF EDUCATION

1. A candidate, before receiving a credential, must be a graduate of a college or university approved by the Board of Education, and must have had at least two years of graduate work in religious education. This provision does not apply to Ministers of Education now in service who may be approved for a credential by the Board of Education.

2. A candidate must meet such other requirements as may be laid down by the Board of Education. He or she must be recommended by the Quarterly Conference of the church of which he or she is a member, and by the Conference Board of Education, and must be approved by the Board of Education.

3. A candidate who has met the above requirements shall be entitled to a credential from the Board of Education.

6. The Conference Board of Education shall annually approve the standing of ministers of education within the confines of the conference and upon such approval the Board of Education shall annually renew the credentials of such ministers of education.

III. MINISTERS OF EDUCATION

1. When a local church selects a minister of education from the Fellowship of Ministers of Education, he or she may be appointed by the appointing powers of the conference in which the church is located.

2. The duties of a minister of education shall be those which the law of the church now specifies.

3. The provision of this article shall not be construed to prevent members of any annual conference from becoming members of the Fellowship of Ministers of Education of the Methodist Episcopal Church, providing they have met all requirements.

IV. MINISTERS OF EDUCATION OF THE BOARD OF EDUCATION

BROTHERHOOD IN MINISTERIAL SUPPORT

Dear Fathers and Brethren:

The Southern California Conference comes to you with a Memorial on one of the most needful and outstanding calls of our beloved Methodism, the call for legislation that will make for brotherhood in an equity of Ministerial Support.

Our bishops, last year, made a strong, insistent appeal to the church and world leaders for a more just and equitable distribution of wealth in the following positive language: 'We cannot escape the conclusion that a more equitable distribution of wealth is basic to any genuine and permanent improvement of the welfare of mankind as a whole.

"We would insist that some way should and must be found, and, if necessary, new principles of social justice be accepted and applied, that will place all men, the weak as well as the strong, on a basis of Christian brotherhood."

This heartening message has been given much personal emphasis in our pulpits. But it is up to the church herself to seek for that grace and spiritual power to lead in the accomplishment of this spiritual enterprise, and to begin with Christian adjustments in ministerial support so as to make our ideal of brotherhood to function in this field also.

In this distressing period of social and economic depression and adjustment, many of our highest salaried preachers and pastors have been asking themselves the question, if they have the right to a support that runs up into the thousands of dollars while devoted laymen in their churches struggle with a very meagre and uncertain wage, and while many of our own brethren in the ministry of equal consecration and devotion are at their wit's end trying to live respectably and to educate sons and daughters on salaries out of all proportion to their actual needs.

We earnestly and prayerfully ask the General Conference to blaze the way to give every family on earth a just equity in the things the Heavenly Father has made possible for his earth-born children, by taking the lead in helping to program our ministry in a financial equity that spells Christian Brotherhood. The new Pension Plan guarantees social, even-handed justice to the retired ministers of the future; and we now ask for legislation that will capitalize and distribute our ministerial support in brotherly love; and, to this end, we suggest the following:

(1) That each Annual Conference be requested to set a minimum salary and to exercise itself in brotherly fellowship on the part of preachers and churches to sustain a good average support.

(2) That the salaries of preachers in special appointment be published in the General and Annual Conference Journals.

(3) That an equitable assessment on all salaries above the average salary of the Annual Conference be used to brother all members of the Conference in an economic fellowship, and thus to guarantee each family a stable and comfortable support. Those members of the Annual Conference in special appointments to share proportionately in assessments and awards.

(4) That we ask our bishops and all General Conference officers to share in this fellowship that our Methodist Brotherhood in financial support may be complete, that we may challenge capitalists and wage earners everywhere to adjust their industrial program on the Christian principle of brotherhood.

(5) That the Commission on Adequate Support and Equitable Apportionment be continued, and be given adequate funds to make General Conference legislation effective.

Dear Fathers and Brethren, help us to adopt a solid foundation in Christ for the exercise of real brotherhood in the field of our own finances, and, then we can challenge the pagan program of unrestrained greed in the field of business economics, and the industrial atheism of communism, and lead our beloved country and the world in the establishment of a Christian social order.

COMMITTEE ON COMMUNICATION

Resolved by the Southern California Conference that we memorialize the General Conference to create a Committee on Communication to investigate such media of mass appeal as press, radio and motion picture with a view to their recognition of and adaptation to their social mission.

CHANGING NAME OF QUARTERLY CONFERENCE

Changing the name of the "Quarterly Conference" to "Local Conference" or "Local Church Conference." P. 107. ff.

Whereas the logic of our Conferences,—General, Central, and District—would properly designate the local church conference as such and not as "Quarterly" as now; and

Whereas the times of holding such local conferences varies throughout the church, rarely now occurring regularly each and every quarter.

Therefore, we respectfully memorialize the General Conference of 1932 to make such changes in the wording of the Discipline as shall consistently designate the present Quarterly Conference as "Local Church Conference."

10

TO MAKE ELECTION OF DISTRICT SUPERINTENDENTS LEGAL

Whereas: The desirability of enlisting the pastors and laymen more closely in the common tasks of the church is apparent to the advanced students of the trend of our times, and

Whereas: we believe it would be conducive to a more general initiative on the part of congregations and pastors, creating a more general interest in the administrative problems, and therefore secure a more united support of all our church enterprises,

Therefore; be it resolved by the Southern California Conference that we ask the General Conference to secure such legislation as may be required to authorize the election of District Superintendents by the Annual Conferences.

IN FOREIGN-SPEAKING CHURCHES THE REQUIREMENT ONLY OF ACTIVE MEMBERSHIP IN AN EVANGELIC CHURCH FOR ELECTION TO LOCAL CHURCH OFFICES

Whereas, Comity in foreign-speaking churches and missions of necessity implies that our Bilingual pastors shall minister to members of all and various evangelical churches, and

Whereas, the most suitable officers and superintendents of departments and organizations of such local foreign-speaking church are very often members of other than such local foreign-speaking church, or of any Methodist church;

Therefore, we respectfully memorialize General Conference to provide that, consistent with interdenominational comity and in the interests of the best possible leadership in our foreign-speaking churches, it shall be required, simply, that officers and superintendents therein shall be required to be active members of some recognized evangelical church.

BOARD OF CHURCH LOCATION

Par. 404:

There shall be in each District of an Annual Conference, a Board of Church Location consisting of the District Superintendent and three ministers and three laymen nominated by the District Superintendent and elected by the Conference. All questions relating to the selection of new church and parsonage locations, and to the erection or extensive remodeling of churches and parsonages shall be submitted to this Board.

It shall be the duty of this Board to study carefully the entire situation in connection with each project, as well as the financial soundness of the undertaking, and report to the Quarterly Conference its conclusions as to the feasibility of the enterprise. The decision of the Board shall be final unless overruled by the Annual Conference, and any church which disregards the decision of this Board shall be ineligible to receive aid from Conference or Home Missions Board.

TERM TENURE FOR EPISCOPACY

Whereas: The last General Conference handed down an Amendment, which was adopted by almost unanimous vote of all the Annual Conferences, enabling the Mission Conferences to elect General Superintendents for term of years, instead of life; and

Whereas, three Mission Conferences have elected such General Superintendents for terms of four years or less, by which token, both the General Conference, in permitting, and the Mission Conferences in accepting the suggestion of Term Tenure, have by such acts, approved of same in principle;

Therefore, be it resolved by the Southern California Conference, assembled in Annual Session, at Long Beach, California, June the 23rd, 1931, that we endorse Term Tenure in principle, and ask the General Conference of 1932, to adopt a Term Tenure of eight years, with the privilege of reelection, as the law of our church.

And be it further resolved, that if it should be decided that such legislation would be unconstitutional, then we ask that a Constitutional Amendment embodying term tenure be submitted by the General Conference for the approval of the Annual Conferences, during the following quadrennium.

SUPPORT OF LOCAL RETIRED PREACHERS

Whereas, there is an increasing number of small churches in our various conferences which can be served only by local preachers or by retired members of the conference, who can do part time work, and

Whereas, with the increased educational requirements many men are not admitted to conference membership but are asked as local preachers to supply the small and medium charges, and

Whereas, there is no definite provision for any pension plan for such retired men except the suggestion and authority as given in Paragraphs 275 and 515, Section 6, which are not mandatory, therefore

Be it resolved, that we petition the General Conference to pass legislation making it obligatory for annual conferences to put upon their retired list retired local preachers who may have served ten consecutive years or more (giving their entire time to the work of the church), and the widows and minor children of such deceased local preachers, and providing that these local preachers shall receive two-thirds ($\frac{2}{3}$) and the widows one-half ($\frac{1}{2}$) of the rate provided for those who have been retired from the Effective Membership in the Conference.

CHANGE OF EPISCOPAL RESIDENCE

We hereby memorialize the General Conference of 1932 to designate Los Angeles as the location of the Episcopal residence of this Area.

In each district where no district brotherhood has been formed, or where said District Brotherhood ceases or fails to meet at least once in each Conference year, the Vice-President for such district shall be elected by the delegates from such district, at the annual meeting of this Conference Brotherhood, in such manner and as they shall deem advisable. In case of such election, the Vice-President thus elected shall hold office until a President of the District Brotherhood of his district has been elected, or until his successor has been chosen by the delegates from his district, at the annual meeting of this Conference Brotherhood, as hereinabove provided. The Resolutions Committee presented the following:

1. Whereas, the greatest social and moral problem that confronts the Christian Church, as well as the people of America today, is the enforcement of the Eighteenth Amendment to the Constitution of the United States, the Volstead Act supporting the same, and the other national and state legislation intended to prohibit an outlawed alcoholic liquor traffic; and

2. "Whereas, the overwhelming majority of the people of the United States has, on numerous occasions, expressed their approval of such laws; and

3. "Whereas, the President of the United States of America has faithfully and loyally represented such majority of the people of this nation for such enforcement against the most thoroughly organized minority, backed by an unscrupulous purchasable press, financed beyond measure with blood money, seeking gain at the cost of human life; and

4. "Whereas, it is not only our right and privilege, as Christian men of this nation, to loyally and truly uphold and support the President in this trying hour with our prayers, as well as with our voice, and our vote at the ballot box;

"Therefore, Be It Resolved that the representatives of the Brotherhood of the Southern California Annual Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church, do here and now pledge our unqualified support and allegiance to President Hoover in this trying contest."

"RESOLVED: That we urge a more loyal attitude by our Members of Congress to our citizenship by giving favorable and immediate preference to action on certain bills now buried in Committees, notably, the National Educational Bill, the Alien Representation Bill, the World Court legislation, and the insistence on obligations of aliens to become citizens, and thereafter exercising right of franchise."

"Resolved that the Brotherhood places itself on record as favoring a Pacific Coast religious paper, such as the Advocate, be continued."

"Resolved that we thank President Reiche, all of his officers and aids for giving us a program such as we believe is in keeping with what a Brotherhood meeting should be."

"Resolved, that we tender our heart felt thanks to the Trustees and members of the First Baptist Church of Long Beach for opening their doors for our Brotherhood meeting."

"Resolved that the Brotherhood should hold, in addition to its one day meeting, one big rousing night meeting at its Annual Conference."

"Whereas, the Tobacco Companies have insulted the public by surrounding tobacco with subtle advertising such as 'Picturing a beautiful girl in a bathing suit, smoking a cigaret', 'Not a cough in a carload', 'Keep Kissable'; 'Reach for a Lucky instead of a Sweet', 'An Intelligent Choice', thereby sublimating the tobacco effects,

"Therefore, be it Resolved that we condemn the practice and pray that the youth and public may be saved therefrom and protected against any newspaper taking advertising of this character."

The election of officers was held, resulting in the election of Charles F. Reiche, President; Clark Standiford, Secretary; W. R. Stewart, Treasurer.

The session adjourned.

PRESIDENT'S REPORT

The work of the past year in the Conference has been carried on entirely by the District Organizations.

You have just heard the reports of the representatives of these districts and are therefore familiar with what has been accomplished.

During the fall of last year tentative arrangements were made for a series of four meetings in each district of the Conference to be carried on under the direction of E. Dow Bancroft of the Chicago Office. However, because of the Campaign of Appreciation then being conducted throughout the Conference and other conflicting matters, dates could not be arranged to carry out this program.

As noted in the report of the Arizona District, Mr. Bancroft was able to hold meetings in that district and no doubt the outstanding work in Brotherhood activities for the year has been carried on in the Arizona District.

The Brotherhoods in the Los Angeles District are closely affiliated with the United Church Brotherhood movement and co-operate in this larger enterprise rather than attempting to carry on an independent service program.

The Long Beach, Fresno, and San Diego Districts are of course, greatly handicapped in carrying on any definite district work, because of the scattered territories involved and the practical impossibility of functioning as a unit.

There is a definite place however, for our Conference Brotherhood in getting together as we are doing today and in listening to some of the outstanding leaders in the Brotherhood Movement of Southern California and getting the benefit of their knowledge and experience. If we profit from this knowledge and experience as we should, we ought to be able to go back to the tasks in our local Brotherhoods with renewed zeal and a greater inspiration for putting on adequate programs to meet the community needs than ever before.

There is also a definite place for our organization in assisting the local Brotherhood through a series of District Councils held annually in co-operation with the Conference and National Officers. To this end, we have secured tentative dates from the Brotherhood Office at Chicago, for such a series of District Councils to be held in October under the direction of Dr. Bert E. Smith, tentative schedule as follows: Arizona, October 12, 1931; Fresno, October 19th, 1931; Long Beach, October 14th, 1931; Los Angeles, October 16th, 1931; Pasadena, October 13th, 1931; San Diego, October 15th, 1931.

We have the tentative promises of the Chicago Office that E. Dow Bancroft will be available for a series of meetings (four) in each district during the spring of 1932. This series of meetings will be similar to the ones conducted last year in the Arizona District. These meetings, of course, will be much more intensive than the District Councils and will get at the local problems in each community.

We will ask your consideration and approval of this tentative program as we do not feel that it should be attempted without your earnest and enthusiastic support.

We also feel that we should have your approval in advance, so that the new officers will be able to go to work at once on a definite program, and that the work will not be permitted to lag. The fact that no program had been arranged in advance at the beginning of this year, and the further fact that the Ministerial Conference had made definite plans for its Campaign of Appreciation and other matters, made it practically impossible for your officers to do what they had hoped and wanted to do during the year. We found ourselves stalemated and we do not want to see this occur again.

We feel however, that we have done something worth while in arranging what we feel is a real Brotherhood program for your consideration at this annual meeting, and in laying a foundation for the coming year's work which we trust will result in a greater Brotherhood movement throughout our Southern California Conference Methodism.

CHARLES F. REICHE.

WOMEN'S ORGANIZATIONS

Thursday—Afternoon Sessions

The Joint Annual Program of the Conference Women's Organizations, Woman's Aid, Woman's Home and Foreign Missionary Societies, was given before a house filled to overflowing on Thursday afternoon.

Mrs. Cora M. Cassill, corresponding secretary of the Woman's Foreign Missionary Society as the presiding officer introduced Mrs. Frederick D. Leete, wife of Bishop Leete, and Mrs. Charles L. Mead, wife of Bishop Mead.

National and Conference officers were seated on the platform and introduced as were the Missionaries and Deaconesses. Mrs. Silas Sprowls, National Trustee of the W. H. M. S., led the devotional service and Madame Mildrid Bruns of First Methodist Church, Hollywood, gave much pleasure with her group of songs.

Reports of the three organizations of more than $450,000 raised showed the activities and achievements of the women of the church in their work among thousands at home and abroad.

Bishop Frederick D. Leete was the speaker of the afternoon and in his address paid tribute to the women saying that woman's greatest career is in the home and in the service of the Lord Jesus Christ.

Resolutions were passed favoring the World Court, commendation of President Hoover for his fearless stand on law observance and enforcement, and protesting against the increasing use of tobacco advertising among women.

MRS. L. F. SEDGWICK, Rec. Sec. W.H.M.S.

WOMANS AID FEDERATION

The Methodist Aid Federation filled the auditorium of the First Christian Church at the morning session. The program included the reports of the five districts of the Southern California Conference Federation and showed an advance along all lines—philanthropic work done, calls made and money raised. A membership of 15,088 was reported and a grand total of $179,024.86 money raised last year.

A change in the Constitution and By-Laws was voted removing the two-year time-limit on the Conference Officers.

At 1:45 P. M. 2500 people gathered to hear the program presented by the three Women's Societies.

Mrs. Cora M. Cassill, Conference Corresponding Secretary of the Women's Foreign Missionary Society, introduced Mrs. Leete and Mrs. Meade and presented them with flowers.

Mrs. Snudden introduced two outgoing missionaries, Miss Jessie Marguerite Twinem, and Miss Irma Chlater.

Bishop Leete delivered an address on the importance of woman's work and the day had its culmination in the evening meeting when Dr. Lynn Harold Hough spoke on the theme, "A Tale of Great Women".

The day will long be remembered by those who, in the words of Bishop Leete, "have found the highest fulfillment of a woman's career in a life of Christian Service".

The Banquet of the Ministers' Wives' Association was held in the Junior room of the First Methodist Church, Long Beach, Thursday evening, June 25th, 1931. Two hundred ministers' wives and daughters were seated at beautifully appointed tables. A most delicious dinner was served by the ladies of the Church.

Meade, the wife of Bishop Meade; Mrs. Hough, the mother of Dr. Lynn Harold Hough, who is inspiring us with his addresses; Mrs. Will A. Brown, who has recently returned from South America. The Secretary read a letter of greeting from Mrs. Charles Wesley Burns, the wife of our resident Bishop. The Secretary was instructed to send to Mrs. Burns a note of greeting from our Association.

The Toastmistress, Mrs. Lee, introduced Mrs. Dorothy Mayer, who delighted us with her two groups of vocal solos. She was accompanied by Miss Lillian Brandvig. Mrs. Lee then introduced our three speakers of the evening. Mrs. Will A. Betts spoke on the subject: "The Romance of a Parsonage Chair;" Mrs. Walter Loomis spoke on, "The Pew and the P. K.;" and Mrs. W. A. Reynolds spoke on, "A Bride's Reaction to the Parsonage." Mrs. F. L. Your Committee on Resolutions wish to tender the following report:

1. We hereby express our deep appreciation and thanks to our gracious host and hostess, Doctor and Mrs. Richard N. Merrill and to all who have worked with them in extending the fine courtesies that have made our Conference time in Long Beach so pleasant and profitable.

2. Inasmuch as the Association decided last year that a banquet be held at this session of the Conference we heartily extend our sincere thanks to the Ladies' Aid Society of this church for the generous way in which they have assisted in making that occasion a success, and to Mrs. Dorothy Mayer, and Miss Lillian Brandvig for the splendid music rendered.

3. During the year death has taken from us several of our number, leaving empty places and saddened hearts, and to their bereaved ones we wish to extend our deepest sympathy. Not all of these departed were known to all of us, but the influence of their lives will remain as a holy memory. Surely we have been blessed and are better because these faithful ones have lived and served. The names of those who have entered into the life beyond are: Mrs. Tranquilino Gomez, Mrs. Isaac Jewell, Mrs. C. W. Harshman, Mrs. Edward Hoskyn, Mrs. Harry Branton, Mrs. Waldo Reinoehl, Mrs. A. W. Mrs. J. Maxwell Chamberlin.

It was moved and carried that the above report be accepted.

Mrs. C. F. Seitter read an interesting paper compiled of suggestions sent to her by the ministers' wives on her district. She then led a very interesting discussion on, "Problems of a Preacher's Wife." In conclusion Mrs. Seitter read a poem, a parody on Kipling's "If" written by Mrs. Golder Lawrence.

The meeting was adjourned to be called again Monday morning, June 29, at eleven o'clock.

June 29, 1931

The meeting was opened by the singing of a hymn. Mrs. George Cliff led the opening prayer. Mrs. Loomis then took charge of a very interesting program. Mrs. Danskin spoke on, "Why I Married a Preacher." Mrs. Carol Smith spoke on, "The Joys of a Pastor's Wife." Mrs. Young

Following this the ministers' wives were entertained by a very interesting debate on the question, Resolved: The Pastor's Wife is more obligated to the Church than other women. Mrs. Lowe, Mrs. Tabor, Mrs. Toothaker and Mrs. Huebner spoke. Mrs. Lincoln Ferris rendered several beautiful piano solos. The Ministers' Wives Quartet sang for the meeting.

After a few suggestions as to a similar program for the following year the President declared the meeting adjourned.

1. "In view of the action of the Book Committee, at its spring meeting in 1931, recommending that after the General Conference of 1932 the Advocates be published in not more than three places, the Southern California Conference expresses its earnest opinion and desire that the publication of The Christian Advocate in the San Francisco Area be continued.

"The movements of population are toward the Pacific Coast; the Church on the Coast faces the Orient in an unique and intimate way; our distances are so great and our problems so distinctive that it is impossible to combine effectively with any other area. The Advocate is needed to bind the different portions of the San Francisco Area together and is a unique and almost indispensable means of publicity and inter-communication in this area.

"We believe that to continue the publication of the California Edition is very vitally necessary to the work of Methodism in this far Western country."

The resolution was adopted by the Conference.

2. "Resolved that we urge our church membership everywhere, to use all possible influence toward educating our citizens, particularly the youth of our land, concerning the deadly evils of alcohol and tobacco, and that we protest against the increasing use of pictures of attractive young girls, on the bill boards, and magazines, in the advertising of cigarettes, and that we use our influence with the publishers of these newspapers and magazines, against the use of their columns for such advertising.

The resolution was adopted by the Conference.

3. "Whereas, Vierling Kersey, Supt. of Public Instruction for California, has announced his purpose to stress the instruction in the Public Schools throughout the state on the harmful effects of alcohol and tobacco, by placing in the curriculum books vital information dealing with these subjects.

"We, the delegates to the Lay Electoral Conference of the Southern California Methodist Conference, commend him for his wise course, and congratulate him on his decision and suggest that a copy of this resolution be mailed to Mr. Kersey."

The resolution was approved by the Conference.

4. "Believing in the 18th Amendment,

"Resolved that we regard the person buying liquors as morally guilty as the seller and should be equally punished. We advocate the passage of the necessary legislation to make this effective and be it further resolved that we oppose all candidates who favor repeal or modification of the 18th Amendment."

The resolution was approved by the Conference.

5. The resolution concerning the general supervision of Brotherhoods was presented by Mr. White and it was moved, seconded and carried, that the resolution be approved.

"Whereas the Men's Movement of Methodism is not primarily a Board of Education project, but majors on the task of organizing and enlisting the total manhood of the Church in support of all the essential causes of the Church, therefore,

"Be it resolved that we, members of the Lay Electoral Conference of the Southern California Conference meeting in Long Beach, California, Friday, June 26, 1931, do memorialize the next General Conference to strike out Paragraphs 498, section 6, Discipline 1928, which places general supervision of all Brotherhoods, etc., in the Board of Education, and in its place make new legislation which will place this work not under the Board of Education but under an Inter-Board Commission on Men's Work of 37 carefully selected leaders of the church to be chosen as follows:

A. One representative from each Area in the United States to be selected by the Bishop of the Area and the Executive Secretary of the Commission on Men's Work.

"B. Two members to be selected by each of the Affiliated Boards.

"C. The remainder of the Commission to be selected at large by the Executive Committee of the Commission on Men's Work.

"D. That the Corresponding Secretaries of the affiliated Boards be considered advisory members of said Commission.

"And be it further resolved that the affiliated Boards assist in providing the assured income for the Commission on Men's Work and that this be supplemented by voluntary Sustaining Memberships."

It was moved, seconded and carried that a vote of thanks be given to the Presbyterians for the use of their church for the Lay Conference, and that $10 be presented to the janitor.

It was moved, seconded and carried that the Secretary, together with a committee selected by him, shall arrange to expedite the business of

THIRD DAY

Thursday, June 30, 1932

Morning Session

The Bishop called the Conference to order at 8:30 a. m.

The hymn, "Dear Lord and Father of Mankind," was sung, the scripture was read, the Lord's Prayer repeated, and "Break Thou the Bread of Life" was sung.

The Bishop led the devotional half hour, taking as his subject, "The Chief Task of the Church Today."

"Be it Resolved; that the Secretary of this Conference be instructed to convey the love and appreciation of this body to Dr. Dennett and to assure him that though he retire from the Editorial chair July 1st, its interest in his welfare shall prayerfully follow him."

Joint Session Arrangements: The Secretary stated that credentials for the laymen who are representing our churches in joint session with the Conference had been received by him. In view of the fact that this is the first of such joint sessions, and in view of the alternate provisions for representation as provided by the recent General Conference, he stated that he had asked the following five laymen to assist in checking over the credentials in preparation for the gathering of the laymen on Friday morning: H. C. Harter, of Long Beach district; I. J. Reynolds, W. O. Thompson from the Pasadena District, and L. B. Mallory and Clark Standiford of the Fresno District. He further stated that if it met with the approval of the Conference and of the laymen, this committee working with him would accept credentials for any delegate elected by the church, whether such election was held by regular call, by the Quarterly Conference or by the church congregation, thus interpreting the intent of the church. If no such election was held, then in accordance with General Conference action, the delegates elected to the Lay Electoral Conference of last year would be recognized as the regular delegate, if present.

The Conference, for its part, approved of this tentative arrangement and instructed the Secretary to arrange for the formal reception of the lay delegates, he to choose his committee. He later announced the committee to assist him as follows: E. J. Inwood, the oldest member of the Conference in length of service; C. F. Seitter, secretary of the cabinet; R. N. Merrill, pastor host; F. B. Cowgill, of the retired men, and J. W. Robinson, Jr., from the younger group.

Announcement was made that the laymen would meet in the Junior department at 8 o'clock on Friday morning for organization, the formal reception to occur at 8:45.

E. D. Hoffman was excused from the session today for a funeral.

Registrar's Report: Rule 20 being suspended, Alfred Inwood, as Registrar, presented the report showing the joint recommendations of the Board of Ministerial Instruction and the Committee on Conference Relations.

The men were represented by Frank Linder of the Conference Relations Committee and by the Superintendents.

The proper disciplinary motions were made covering the actions necessary in the report and the report was adopted.

Those to be admitted into full membership and those to be received on trial were introduced to the Conference, it being understood that the vote on admission into Full Membership depended upon the answering of the proper disciplinary questions.

"Whereas Kennel Club race track and horse race track gambling have been and are being inaugurated in different sections of Southern California with open gambling on the option basis, which is an attempt to evade the state gambling laws, as the basis of operation;

"Therefore, be it resolved, that we protest against these race track activities, and that we petition the District Attorney and all officials having authority to end these gambling activities. If it be necessary to change the State laws to do this we pledge ourselves to aid in any way we can."

H. M. Boys reported the work of the Methodist Book Concern.

Reception of Laymen and Joint Session: The committee having in charge the presentation of the laymen for the Joint Session, reported that the lay delegates, about 150 in number, had organized and were ready to take their places in the Joint Session of the Conference.

The central part of the church was cleared.

While the congregation stood and sang "Faith Of Our Fathers" and "I Love Thy Kingdom, Lord," the laymen marched in side by side with their pastors.

The committee presented Wilmot T. Smith of San Bernardino, the newly elected president of the Lay Delegates, and the delegation of laymen were thus ready to be received as official members of the Conference.

The Bishop spoke, reviewing the progress of the church in the fulfillment of its heart's desire to become democratic, and stated that this was another step toward that goal. He gave words of welcome and greeting to the laymen now becoming members of the Conference.

On behalf of the laymen, Wilmot T. Smith, their new president, responded.

The Bishop then gave the Devotional Address of the morning to the Joint Conference, reading from the last verses of Isaiah 40, and using as his theme the Korean interpretation of our word "morale"—"keeping your wind up." He showed how that during each succeeding decade of our national history there had been an increase in church membership exceeding the increase in population. That during the past twenty-year period there had been a decided increase in our per capita giving, and that the present lowered moral and economic standard was no different from other periods in the past. "It is the time in which we need to intellectually keep our wind up for the only sure hope is a Christian hope."

The Bishop then prayed and the joint conference sang "Be Strong," and the joint session of the Southern California Annual Conference began its work.

By General Conference action, the officers of the Annual Conference became the officers of the Joint Session.

John Oliver introduced the following resolution and it was adopted:

"The great and honored Lincoln declared that which is morally wrong can never be made politically right, and

"Whereas, trifling and morally blind politicians purpose to give voice and vote to the racketeers and drunkard makers who would sell the flag for a drink and trample the constitution in the dust for unholy profits and selfish gratification; and

"Whereas, we are the moral and spiritual descendants of those of our forefathers who outlawed dueling, put an end to slavery, gave Cuba her liberty, sent millions of sons to make the world safe from war, and voted to outlaw the liquor traffic by taking our government out of its degrading partnership; therefore, be it

"Resolved, that we pledge ourselves and call upon our citizens everywhere to put human sobriety and social welfare above party loyalty, and refuse to support any candidate for any office who is not publicly pledged and outspoken in his support of that great forward looking piece of legislation, the 18th amendment, and his personal habits must be in keeping with his public utterances to secure our support,

"Resolved, further, that as the wet section of the press is dead in trespasses and sin in lack of respect for this moral and spiritual movement, and as the only voice which seems to be heard in the managerial and editorial sanctums is the metallic voice of money, that we ask all our business men and publicity agents to refuse to advertise in any of their columns, and we will use our influence to keep such purveyors of lawlessness out of the homes of our people.

"Resolved, that we commend our young people for their vision and stand for the completion of this great Christian crusade.

"Resolved, that we pledge our support to the Anti-Saloon League and commend the wisdom of its leadership.

"We go from this conference to brighten the spiritual fires and to quicken the moral and civil conscience in every community in which we are appointed to serve, to create and recreate that fine spirit of Christian Americanism which has ever been the glory of the flag and the bulwark of American manhood, and the sure guarantee of moral and political progress."

World Service: Willsie Martin presented the following report of the Special Committee on World Service and it was adopted:

The new legislation providing much wider latitude in the designation of gifts by churches, groups or individuals offers a splendid opportunity for the stimulation of World Service giving, but needs to be safeguarded in the interests of balanced support of all our World Service agencies.

We, therefore, recommend that pastors and local churches keep carefully in mind the pro-rata distribution of their total giving to World Services causes on the accepted basis of approximately 37½% to the Board of Foreign Missions, 37½% to the Board of Home Missions, and 25% to the other Boards.

Your committee recommends the following policy touching local projects proposed for designated gifts under World Service.

1. That only such claims be advanced as can be reasonably expected to be honored by the Board of Home Missions and Church Extension and the giving of the charges in this Conference. That this implies that those projects should be very limited in number and very urgent as to need.
2. That those projects already begun under promise of World Service aid and which will be jeopardized if these promises be not fulfilled should have priority in designation.
3. That this committee be asked to confer with the Cabinet and representatives of the Board of Home Missions to ascertain what projects are in this category of imperative need and to consider and report its findings to this session of this Conference.
4. Further, we recommend that there be a continuance committee composed of the Bishop, the District Superintendents and seven others to be selected by the Bishop. We recommend that this committee be vested with full power to make needed designations to promote all the interests of World Service.
5. Believing whole heartedly in the adequate support of racial work, but also believing that racial work is the responsibility of the entire church and should not be shouldered on local Conferences, we recommend that the per cent of designation from within this Conference for such work be determined by a recognition of the principle of such proportional responsibility.

Resolved that we ask our churches to designate enough out of the portion belonging to the Board of Education, approximately 15%, to cover the needs of our Conference Educational office and the Wesley Foundation within our Area.

Resolved further that we ask the Commission on Finance to send out to each church a suggested amount so as to fully cover these items.

Invitation To Conference: E. P. Clarke extended the invitation of Riverside Chamber of Commerce, the City of Riverside and the Churches of Riverside to this Conference to hold its 1933 session in their city.

The announcements were made and the Conference adjourned with benediction by Bishop Miller, at 12:34, for the purpose of having a photograph taken of this first session of the Joint Conference.

Guy Talbott, who had been booked for an address be placed on the Saturday afternoon program. In response to this suggestion Brother Talbott stated that it would be impossible for him to be present on Saturday, but urged that each pastor preach consistently the pronouncements made in the report of the committee on Social Problems, International Relations, and State of the Church, and that this would accomplish what he would have suggested had his address been given.

"It is thirty years since I stood at the bar of the only conference to which I ever belonged. I have been asked a good many times, especially by young men, whether now after these years, in the light of different conditions, I would again choose to go into the ministry, and I have had no hesitation in saying as I say to you now, that if I felt the summons as I did then and as I still do, I would count no opportunity and no task of greater significance than the task of the ministry. We are not worthy of our calling but never was there a time when there was more need of what the church of Jesus Christ can bring to human life, and never was there a greater challenge to us and of course parallel with the challenge, opportunity."

"The fellowship of our brethren in the ministry is a very lovely fellowship."

"What John Wesley has to say about deportment at conference is very important. It may degenerate into a group of gossipers, or it may reach up to be a session of refreshing and renewing—the members quickening one another in their purposes and vision as they come together."

"We cannot escape being administrators."

"It is a wonderful thing to learn to deal with people."

"Some of the best advice in regard to church work came to me from young people. You can't get it unless you respect their minds. Ask them to share with you in planning, expecting that you will find their minds releasing new light."

"We need to talk over with men in our community the significance of the church, the task to which it is called, the meaning of the spiritual life in this day—and to deliberately and patiently and consistently work to enlist men who may not seem to be very open at the beginning."

"Then we are pastors. That is at the heart of our work. One of the questions which will be asked in a few minutes is 'Will you visit from house to house?' Many men imagine that they can be ministers without being pastors. This is one of the great dangers into which the younger men are apt to fall and one with the older men. No man is brilliant enough to be a good minister of Jesus Christ without being a pastor."

"The greatest privilege of your ministry will be the privilege of sharing in the life of your people."

"I should despair of any man's enthusiasm in the pulpit if he is not in confidential relationship with his people."

"It doesn't make any difference whether you preach great sermons. It makes a great difference whether people through you find help in their problems, their difficulties, and quickening for their lives."

"Some preachers do not realize that at the very center of their task is the responsibility for teaching."

"The loftiest act of the human spirit is the act of worship. And the central responsibility of the minister is to share in the worship of his people, and organize it according to his best vision that the resources of God shall be loose in that congregation."

"Public prayer.—How important is it!"

"We ought to prepare as carefully for our pastoral prayer as we do for our sermon."

"President Elliott of Harvard says 'I believe that public prayer is the loftiest office of speech.'"

"There are these four things I want to emphasize: The work as an administrator, dealing with men and enlisting men in the work; the work of the minister as a pastor, in that unspeakably precious privilege, comradeship in the greatest hours of our people; the work of a teacher, forming the mind of our community according to the mind of Christ; the work of a worshipper, catching others up into fellowship with us as together we open life in adoration and in praise,—the result of seeing in God the source of all goodness and truth and beauty and love and life."

"I rejoice with you that God has called you to this ministry. I cannot imagine any loftier calling. May you fulfill it worthily!"

At the close of the address, the young men were called to the front, the regular disciplinary questions were asked and satisfactorily answered, and by unanimous vote of the conference, Zenas D. Bancroft, Ford L. Gilbert and Paul I. Hershey were admitted into Full Membership in the conference.

The hymn "Be Strong" was sung and the Conference closed with the benediction by the bishop, at 12:52.

Forged Checks: Attention was called to the fact that a man by the name of George Ackerman was using his relationship to a minister to secure endorsement to his checks, and the other members of the conference were warned concerning him.

Committee on Committees: John Gabrielson offered the following amendment to the Conference Rules of Order and it was adopted:

"Resolved that Rule No. 5 of the Conference Rules be changed so as to read:

Freedom of Speech: Russell Clay introduced the following resolution and it was adopted:

Conference Location: Willsie Martin reported for the Committee on Permanent Location of the Conference that in view of the fact that Pacific Palisades could not care for us, he moved that the action of last year fixing Pacific Palisades as our permanent location be reconsidered. This was done and the action was rescinded.

The committee further requested that the conference state its desire as to whether they should continue the planning for some other location for the seat of the conference.

The committee appointed to cooperate with the Pacific Palisades Association in the matter of equipment reported that it was still possible to go to Pacific Palisades if we desired to accept the accommodations as they now are, but recommended that the conference do not go unless they do so by three-fourths vote. The vote was taken and, falling short of even a majority vote, the decision was against going to Pacific Palisades for the coming year.

An invitation was extended by Frank Linder for the conference to meet next year at San Diego.

Having refused to make any declaration until after the conference attitude toward going to Pacific Palisades was decided, R. N. Merrill gave an invitation to the conference to make Long Beach the seat of the conference for the next four years.

Willsie Martin for the Committee on Permanent Seat of the Conference, reported that their committee recommended that Long Beach be fixed as the permanent place of meeting for four years, and the report of that committee was adopted, carrying with it the acceptance of the invitation.

On motion of John Barnhart, the Secretary was instructed to express to Riverside and San Diego the appreciation of the Conference for their invitations.

The Bishop resumed the chair.

As a Continuation Committee on the matter of Designated Gifts, the Bishop reappointed the committee which has been working on the matter during the conference.

John Tunncliffe, Western Representative of the Board of Foreign Missions, who works without a salary, was introduced and spoke briefly.

Organization Session of the Lay Conference

Pursuant to the action of the ministerial members of the Southern California Annual Conference which had suggested that its Secretary, F. G. H. Stevens, and a temporary credential committee which he had appointed, should assist in the organization of the lay members of the conference, if they agreed thereto, Secretary Stevens called the Lay Members of the Conference together for organization in the Junior Department of the First Methodist Episcopal Church, Long Beach, California, at 8 a.m., July 1, 1932.

Prayer was offered by John Turner of Lindsay, California.

Secretary Stevens stated the action of the Ministerial conference, and upon motion such action was approved and he was asked to complete the organization. He announced that the following persons, at his request, had been acting as the temporary credentials committee: Clark Standiford, W. O. Thompson, I. J. Reynolds, H. C. Harter, and L. B. Mallory. To this committee were added Mrs. E. C. Stroup and Mrs. Hattie King.

They retired to complete their report and a recess was declared.

The credential committee, through its regular report and its later supplemental report, showed a total of 149 Lay Members present. (See list of charges and delegates in the regular proceedings of the Joint Session for Friday morning).

The temporary presiding officer suggested that in view of the fact that the ministerial conference was awaiting the coming of the laymen, that only the president be elected at this time, the organization to be completed later in the day. His suggestion was accepted, and nominations were made for president. The three nominees were asked to retire, and after a count vote, Wilmot T. Smith was declared elected. He was immediately introduced and took the chair.

It was then ordered that we adjourn to meet in the first Joint Session. The Lay delegates were joined by their pastors, and together marched to the reserved section of the main auditorium. (For full account of their reception and further proceedings of the Joint Session, see regular Minutes for Friday morning).

Adjourned Session

The Lay Conference met for an adjourned session, following the close of the afternoon Joint Session.

Organization of the Lay Conference was completed by the election of Mrs. Tray Le Roque of Los Angeles, as Secretary, and G. L. Mowry of Torrance as Treasurer.

VI

Reports

(a) District Superintendents

ARIZONA DISTRICT

Bishop Baker, on behalf of Arizona Methodism, I bring you a most sincere and hearty welcome to the San Francisco Area and to the Presidency of the Southern California Conference. Some of these California sages will tell you that Arizona is but an appendix to the royalty of California, but please do not believe them. Geographically Arizona is the fifth largest state in the Union and constitutes about 60% of the area of the Southern California Conference. When you visit this Inland Empire you will be greeted by a company of as sturdy and faithful Methodists as can be found on the American Continent.

The year now closing has brought us much trouble, many perplexities and difficult problems, but with it all we come to the seat of Conference claiming victory in the name of our Master and Lord.

Time is not at my disposal to permit the paying of a tribute to each pastor, but this much must be said. On the average you will not discover a more loyal and efficient band of ministers on any district. Facing, as they have this year, unparalleled difficulties; difficulties that in some cases has meant an insufficiency of the proper kind of food on the table, yet not one word of complaint has come to me from any man among them. They have endured their hardships as good soldiers of the Cross of Christ, not a man breaking under the strain in either spirit, mind or body.

Some of the Parsonage Family Circles have been enlarged during the year. If you look over the Arizona pastors it will not be necessary to mention their names for the expression on their faces will say—"I'm one of them." Margaret Jean Ewan registered at the Tempe parsonage. Thoburn Francis Thompson introduced himself at the Mesa parsonage and took the best room. Walter Merrill Harvey rang the bell at the Kingman parsonage and informed Gerald and Mrs. Harvey that he had adopted them as his parents and wished them to put his room in order. All of these little angels arrived during the month of May. Early in June the Yuma parsonage was visited by a beautiful baby girl. She tarried but a little while and went back to her heavenly home. Brother and Sister Brooke have our deepest sympathy in the loss of this precious treasure.

The Annual District Meeting, although deluged by rain, had nearly 100% attendance of ministers. One of the delightful features of this gathering was the visit of the body to the Good Samaritan Hospital. After being shown through the institution we were entertained by Mr. and Mrs. Sexson and the hospital to a most excellent luncheon.

We were encouraged and helped by our guests of honor at this meeting. Mrs. Charles F. Van de Water, President of the Conference Federation of Woman's Aid, with her usual grace, sunny smile and charming personality captured our women to say nothing about the men. As a result of her visit the Arizona Aid Societies are now in the Federation.

Dr. Ezra Cox of the Board of Home Missions, with his solemn face and big heart, brought us some most entertaining messages.

Walter C. Loomis, Superintendent of the Long Beach District, was the special guest of the District Brotherhood, and regardless of his short stature and boyish looks he inspired our men folk to greater endeavor and more unselfish service in the interests of the Kingdom.

The major note of the meeting was Evangelism, and for two days this theme was accentuated by A. Ray Moore, our Conference treasurer. The warmth of his messages and personality sent us back to our tasks with strengthened purposes to hold up the Cross as the only remedy for the world's hurt.

All of these guests did us good and brought to us a little clearer conception of the fact that we Arizonians are really a vital part of this great Conference.

Arizona Methodists wish to acknowledge their appreciation of the kindness that has been shown to them by some of the California brethren. Especially do they desire to convey their deepest gratitude for the brotherly love and Christian generosity of the pastor and officary of our First Church in Long Beach. For three successive years these splendid people have been so generous in their financial support of the work in Arizona that three of our Churches have been saved from having to close their doors because of inability to pay a living support to a pastor.

Owing to suspended operations of the copper mines and the universal depression, at least two of our churches will have to be closed temporarily and others must be joined in circuits until conditions are improved. In all of these cases the pastors are in no way responsible for this apparent backward step. They have labored earnestly and efficiently, but untoward circumstances have carried their constituencies from them.

In one of our churches, at the close of the Fourth Quarterly Conference, a trustee arose and spoke as follows: "Brother Betts, we are just a little company of very poor people, but on behalf of the church I want to say: We love our pastor. We believe in him. We want him back but we have nothing to offer him. However, as a church we want to ask the District Superintendent to speak a good word for him to the Bishop and Cabinet. He is sincere from center to circumference and is going to make good in the ministry."

In another church, where a living salary for the minister was not and is not yet in sight, the Superintendent was interviewed by a company of college girls who offered to do the janitor work for the coming year that the pastor might have the money usually used for that purpose.

The Good Samaritan Hospital is doing a fine piece of Christian service under the excellent leadership of Mr. J. O. Sexson. This institution is making a heroic struggle to weather the storm of adverse conditions that rushed in upon it in the midst of the construction of the new wing which now makes the building complete. It is a beautiful structure; a decided credit to the church and a blessing to the constituency it serves. Mr. Sexson will make his report later in the session.

Property Improvements have been made in thirteen of the churches at an aggregate cost of three thousand dollars. $15,273 have been paid on old indebtedness. The church at Tucson did the seemingly impossible by reducing its debt to the tune of $10,000.

Our World Service, at the last report, warrants me in saying that the district will probably reach the standard of last year's giving. Because of the failure of reports to arrive from some of the charges it is impossible to give definite figures at this time.

The Epworth League Institute, Rector W. Johnson, Dean, met at Granite Delis June 16-22. The total registration was 118. The Institute theme, "Discovering, Accepting and Living the Christian Life," was not only considered and discussed but practiced during these days of high privilege which were marked by numerous decisions to accept the way of the Man of Galilee, and many commitments to His program of life.

Sunday, October 25th, Bishop Charles Wesley Burns preached at Globe in the morning and with Dr. Torbet led in securing sufficient subscriptions to provide for the entire indebtedness with a goodly margin to meet interest and cover shrinkage. If the plan proposed for the Board of Home Missions to make a loan to lift the mortgage that is bearing the shameful and life-strangling rate of 10% interest, is carried out, this burdened but loyal people will be able to save their beautiful church and preserve the honor of Methodism in Arizona. Following this service the writer took Bishop Burns for a little ride of one hundred and twenty-five miles to Tucson, where at 6:30 he addressed a couple hundred of Wesley Foundation Students. At 7:30 he preached to a great congregation and dedicated a ten thousand dollar set of Degan Chimes, the gift of love made by Senator Elias Hedrick in memory of his devoted wife and beloved father and mother. At the close of this service a reception was tendered to the Bishop, and at 10:30 we set our faces toward Phoenix, driving one hundred and thirty-five miles, allowing Bishop Burns to get into a comfortable bed at 2:00 A. M., where he could sleep the sleep of the just until 5:30 the same morning when he would arise to catch his train for Los Angeles.

During The Lenten Season each church on the District conducted some form of evangelistic endeavor. It was my privilege to devote three months in assisting the brethren in special services. Following Easter, pastors' reports brought the gracious news that the number of accessions to the church was a bit over four hundred, and nearly 70% of these came on confession of faith.

This great mining state has been sorely tried this year, but we are thanking God and taking new courage because our people have been pressing up to the heart of the Infinite and as a result the spiritual temperature of the church has never been higher than it is at this hour.

I would be more than ungrateful if I did not acknowledge the kindly consideration and gracious hospitality that has been extended to me during the past three years on this district. Mere words cannot fully express my gratitude to both ministers and laymen for their many acts of kindness. So nearly universal has this been that it would be difficult to remember the hard experiences that have been met along the journey. Thanking our Heavenly Father for the privilege of working in His vineyard and praying that the coming year may bring to our beloved church the world over a rich harvest of spiritual achievements, I respectfully submit this report.

WILL A. BETTS.

FRESNO DISTRICT

The work of the year on the Fresno District has centered around three major projects as embraced in the program adopted by the district council at the beginning of the year, namely, a district Parish Abroad, Evangelism and the Partnership Program.

The Parish Abroad. The Asahan District of Sumatra has been assigned by the Board of Foreign Missions as the Parish Abroad of the Fresno District. Every church on the district by quarterly conference action voted to participate and assume financial responsibility for its share of the budget. Some one or more nationals on the field were assigned to each church for interest, prayer and support, with a special correspondent to stimulate interest. We are attempting to lay a foundation for giving, based upon interest and information concerning real and specific needs. While the plan has not yet been in operation long enough to test its ultimate value, we believe it is pedagogically sound. In spite of tremendous economic pressure in every charge (only nine men on the district having received their salaries in full) the giving to World Service will exceed $13,000 as against $16,000 last year—a decrease of only 15%, which we feel is a splendid record under the circumstances.

Evangelism. A district-wide program of mass and visitation evangelism climaxing at Easter time, resulted in the accession of 878 persons, an increase over last year of 16%. Revival meetings, reminiscent of former years in Methodism, were held at several points on the district, notably at Parlier, Porterville, Reedley, Sanger and Tulare. It is our conviction that the times are ripe for a spiritual awakening and we hope that it may come soon. We expect to continue to make this the chief emphasis during the coming year.

The Partnership Program had for its objectives: First, the initiation of a program of education in stewardship which we hope to carry on during the coming year; and secondly, to provide help and inspiration to churches and pastors in meeting a trying financial situation—particularly in closing up the finances of the current conference year. A team of laymen from the district assisted in holding five group meetings which were attended by pastors and laymen from practically every charge of the district, one group travelling all the way from Independence and Lone Pine to Bakersfield. The helpfulness of these meetings is indicated by the request that we arrange for a two-day laymen's retreat in the Fall, for the consideration of problems of the Kingdom from the laymen's viewpoint.

Property. Economic conditions on the district are reflected in deficits in salaries, world service and conference apportionments. It is a rather remarkable fact that in spite of the very difficult financial situation; there has been paid on indebtedness the sum of $26,786. The Women's Aid Societies have raised over $20,000, and in most cases have contributed largely to the local budget as well as to the World Service and conference apportionments. Fresno First Church has again met all obligations on bonded indebtedness in full and has added to its equipment a young people's department by remodeling the balcony of the gymnasium, this latter expense being provided for by the young people themselves. Merced has beautified its social hall almost beyond recognition. Calwa Church, Fresno, and Kingsburg have redecorated the inside of their property and painted and landscaped the exterior, adding greatly to the attractiveness of the property. Taft has secured a frame building for scout work and religious education by buying a house and moving it onto the lot adjoining the church. Independence and Lone Pine have made extensive repairs on property. A fire completely destroyed our church and parsonage at Caruthers. Fortunately there was sufficient insurance to make possible rebuilding. Brother and Sister Hartsell suffered considerable personal loss and have received some aid from all parts of the district. The Congregational Church at Tipton has been turned over to us and will be put on a circuit with Poplar.

Personals: The parsonage homes of Brother and Sister E. C. Burgess, and Brother and Sister J. W. Grande have each been blessed with the coming of a son. Brother and Sister L. E. Warren have taken a baby girl into their home to help keep them young. Our sympathies go out to Brother and Sister B. C. Brewster of Parlier in the loss of their daughter Alice, and to Brother and Sister E. O. Smith of Irwin in the tragic loss of their son Robert.

A few weeks ago J. T. Miller of Porterville was transferred to Cleveland, Ohio, in exchange with Harry G. Earle, whom we welcome to this conference. Last week L. O. Dabritz was transferred to the California Conference in exchange with Albert E. Raugust. Stephen Kiser, returned missionary from North Africa, has been supplying this year at Alpaugh and Earlimart. George Cliff, Jr., with his bride, has been stationed for several months at Kings River, where his father began his ministry some years ago. Harold Cunningham, our young Lochinvar, has returned, we hope, successfully, out of the east with his bride.

Trinity Church, Fresno. We believe the conference should have a frank statement about the situation at Trinity, Fresno. A small but faithful and devoted group of approximately 125 persons has carried on a heroic but uphill fight against tremendous odds. Had prosperity returned and anticipated populations been realized the outcome might have been different. An informal conference was held in February at which were represented Trinity Church, by its official members; Fresno Methodism by the pastors and representatives from each church; Fresno district by several ministers; the Conference Board of Home Missions, the Board of Home Missions by its western representative; the district superintendent; with Bishop Burns presiding. The consensus of opinion of this group was that we should endeavor to dispose of the property at the best possible advantage. Some of the considerations leading to this decision were as follows:

1. The mounting deficit of the local budget due to the heavy operating costs of the plant and insufficient support. The small group of 125 persons was attempting to carry a budget of $9,000 and liquidate an indebtedness of $45,000.

2. There appeared to be no source of appeal for outside assistance.

3. One of the main purposes in maintaining the church was to provide care for the spiritual life of the students of the State College. It was immediately apparent that the necessity of building a constituency capable of carrying the budget and indebtedness would preclude for many years to come the possibility of a pastor carrying out any very extensive program for the students. The very object for which the church was being carried on, seemed to be defeated.

4. The present plan of approaching the students through a regularly organized church with Sunday worship and week-end activities is seriously hampered by the fact that approximately 90% of the students of State College are away over week-ends.

The Trinity Church quarterly conference accepted the suggestion of the Conference and made every effort to sell the property, but thus far without success. What the outcome will be is problematical. Our present proposal is that we drastically cut operating expenses and carry on in an effort to find some solution to the problem. The possible solution may be along the line of some kind of inter-denominational program for work among students, or possibly by carrying on until such time as the property can be sold to advantage, saving enough to establish a student center on a less pretentious but more effective scale.

Owens River Valley, oddly enough, is the spot on the district least affected by the depression. Enrollment in the schools continues about the same and there seems to be no marked change. The City of Los Angeles continues to demonstrate its ability as a past master at procrastination and evasion in its settlements with the churches. We may yet have to employ the only language they seem capable of understanding by bringing suit against the "City of the Angels." Our hope is to maintain one Protestant Church in each town of the valley.

Camp Sierra has suffered a severe set-back in that a number of buildings, including the administration building, were injured or completely destroyed by the heavy snows last winter. The Association has plans for rebuilding in time.

The year has been a gruelling one. We have not been able to change economic conditions but we have tried to overcome them. We have not been able to meet our goals. With a note of sadness men have said to me, "If I do not go to conference with all claims met in full it will be the first time in my ministerial experience." Many are having this experience and it has hurt. And yet we do not come to conference with a sense of defeat. We have done our best and that is victory. The record of these men is a noble one. All along the line they have stood, unmoved and uncomplaining. With Paul I can say, truthfully, "I reckon that the sufferings of this present time are not to be compared with the glory that shall be revealed in you."

LEONARD OECHSLI.

LONG BEACH DISTRICT

The Long Beach District has suffered financially with the rest of the country. As a result of this most of the pastors are short on their salaries and some churches owe them more than they have paid, but in spite of this no word of complaint has come to my ears. The heroism of the saddle-bag pastors is again to the fore. Every church has maintained some form of relief work and in some localities our church has had charge of the entire organization. The church ministering to physical need in the name of Christ has turned the attention of people from purely worldly help to that which is inspired by the spiritual motive.

Our parsonages have been comparatively free from serious illness. Don S. Ford, our pastor at Santa Barbara, has been the greatest sufferer, finally submitting to a serious operation which has kept him from his pulpit several months. He is now convalescing satisfactorily and expects to be able for full work during the coming year.

Two of our honored veterans have answered the Conference roll-call of heaven—B. C. Cory and William Clague; one retired preacher's wife, Mrs. W. H. Fulford, has answered the summons.

Two parsonage weddings have brightened the year. Earl D. Carter was married by the Superintendent to Miss Eleanor Thompson. Later in the year he had the pleasure of uniting S. S. Sampson and Kathleen Gibson.

On account of the depression the parsonage babies show a decrease from six last year to one this year. This fortunate youngster is Clarence Miller, Jr., of South Gate.

Our pastor at Paso Robles, Waldo S. Reinoehl, was accepted for the mission field and four months ago had his life ambition fulfilled as he sailed away for Malaya.

Several new projects have been organized during the year. A new church of 23 members and an Epworth League at Creston; a new young people's organization at Oceana; an Epworth League at Piru; a new Sunday School at Naples, a brotherhood at Ocean Park; and a Woman's Foreign Missionary Society at Grace, Inglewood. Two new buildings have been erected—a Sunday School plant at Lennox costing around $3000 and a Sunday School addition at Terminal Island. Most of the money for the Terminal Island building was raised by Fred Ross and Charles H. Poole by giving lectures on Australia. If it were not for the implications this new addition would be named the Ross-Poole Hall.

What I believe to be the most profitable fourteen weeks of my ministry were spent in leading revival meetings, spending one week at each church, preaching each night during the week and three times on Sunday. These churches were Estrella, Shandon, Creston, San Miguel, Paso Robles, San Luis Obispo, Santa Maria, Oceano, Arroyo Grande, Lompoc, Santa Paula, Fillmore, Bardsdale and Piru. Statistics will not show the total results of these meetings as there were spiritual by-products in every locality. During the Paso Robles series, the Federated Ladies Aid of the Long Beach District furnished the paint and volunteer workers painted the church at Creston and the parsonage at San Miguel. Sixty-four new members were received into the church on the final day at Paso Robles with twenty baptisms. As a result of the co-operation of the churches interested the Arroyo Grande Camp Meeting has been revived and will be held for one week immediately following the Epworth League Institute at the same place, which begins July 9. This is to be a camping Institute and a camping Camp Meeting. Bring your own equipment and fool Old Man Depression. Bishop Charles Edward Locke will preach July 24.

Many weeks of revival meetings have been held by the various churches; unique among these efforts was the Co-Operative Six Weeks Campaign conducted by Canoga Park, San Fernando and Tujunga. The pastors of these three churches conducted the services themselves, interchanging and spending two weeks at each church with very fine results.

The women's organizations have continued with their usual enthusiasm and devotion. The Women's Missionary Societies show financial returns far above the expectations for these peculiar times. The Women's Aid reports 75,000 calls made and 10,000 Goodwill bags sent in. The Harbor Missionary Society has completed a payment on a lot for the North Long Beach Church and furnished them with the deed.

The Goodwill Industries of Long Beach have prospered under the direction of Wray Andrew. The young people of the district show renewed interest in the spiritual aspect of Epworth League work. The District Convention at Huntington Park was made up of a group of serious-minded young people intent on the task of making the world Christian.

Closing Highlights. The Women's Aid of Atlantic Avenue, Long Beach, made 6,539 calls; Grace Church, Long Beach, 9,071 calls; and First Church, Long Beach, 11,567 calls.

"The Followers of the Golden Cross" is an organization instituted by the pastor at Maywood which has resulted in a fine attendance of boys and girls at the church service. It is a movement which could well be extended throughout the church.

Burbank First Church sent in 1053 Goodwill bags; Torrance raised $150 for relief work by selling doughnuts. Moral: If your church needs dough—use doughnuts. Davidson City spent $250 on a sprinkling system and the planting of shrubs.

San Miguel has kept its present pastor three years, the longest pastorate but one in 45 years of its history. Seventeen new members were received this year, being the largest number received in any year in the past twenty years. Hynes had a net increase in membership of 21%. Seventy people began the Christian life in Santa Paula meetings. $5,073 has been paid on the Roscoe debt. Sepulveda sends a petition, signed by every member of the church, for the return of the pastor. Sherman Oaks has tripled its membership during the present pastorate. San Pedro continues its fine work among the sailors. The pastor at Tujunga made 1500 calls, mostly on sick people, and the Tujunga church sent in 1119 Goodwill bags. Huntington Park has the largest Sunday School in the Conference with an average attendance during the year of 1259.

The pastor at Arroyo Grande conducted a municipal wood yard, issuing 1189 meal tickets, each representing an hour's work by some stranded traveller.

The Relief Committee of the Santa Monica First Church travelled 792 miles and contributed supplies, cash and professional service valued at $6,872.

Incomplete returns make a statistical report for the district unreliable and no attempt is being made in this report to give a record of increases or decreases in membership or contributions.

The year has been highly satisfactory from a spiritual standpoint. Someone has said that the only place laughter may be seen these days is on the stage, and that paid for. I have found plenty of holy mirth about the tables of 56 quarterly conferences inspired by a mixture of macaroni and spaghetti in "potluck" style. Men who were wealthy a year ago sat side by side with the man who has been out of work for a half a dozen months and both have looked into the future with an optimistic faith and courage such as we have not seen in recent years.

The Long Beach District goes into the new year with a determination to build on spiritual foundations and to conquer in the name of the adventurous Christ.

W. C. LOOMIS.

LOS ANGELES DISTRICT

"In the great city, with its vast problems of human relationships, we must seek for moorings of the mind and spirit. The unceasing drift of the metropolis will overwhelm the individual unless he finds psychic and emotional anchorage," are the words of Rabbi Louis I. Newman.

The ministers of the Los Angeles District, together with their groups, have added another year to the favored task of furnishing a spiritual atmosphere to a restless, rushing, material civilization, and to make some progress in the Christianizing of the social order. I desire publicly to record my high appreciation of the splendid sympathetic cooperation of the ministers and laymen of the Los Angeles District. They have responded in a very fine way to all the appeals, and the reports which have come to me are most heartening.

I am sure also we would want to mention our good wives. They really are the "power behind the throne". They have helped greatly to make us what we are, and they share the honors of success with us. The following is typical of the requests in one week of a minister's wife: To give a devotional talk at a missionary convention; to act as judge in a temperance contest; to entertain the Epworth League; to write up a fiftieth-wedding anniversary; to bake a cake for a supper; to examine papers in a high school contest; to write a toast for a high school banquet; to be chairman of a decorating committee; to play for the evening prayer meeting; to be chairman of a committee for a special program; to drill a missionary pageant; to call at the hospital on some sick folk; and she had time for a few other little things, such as her housekeeping!

And it has not been easy this year, and at times it has been harassing and perplexing, for a willing people have been unable to furnish what their hearts desire to give in funds. But all have shown a wholesome willingness and a marvelous resourcefulness. Though they have said: "Silver and gold have we none", they have also added: "But such as we have we give unto you".

Ministry of Helpfulness: The improvement in the worship service in our sanctuaries has been most marked. The increasing numbers attending our churches are certainly finding food for their souls. Our pastors have sought to change the attitude of hesitancy on the part of many to attend church because they could pay little or nothing, and have succeeded.

Every Methodist church in the city launched simultaneously a welfare department, and in a most successful way have ministered to the many in their parishes having need of help. One pastor voiced the procedure of all when he said: "We have laid aside logic and gotten the help to the people."

Finances: Where churches have mortgage debts and embarrassing tax and assessment obligations, the situation has been exceedingly trying. Even so, some of these churches have reduced their indebtedness, and all I think have kept up payment of interest.

The first unit of University church's new plant was dedicated October 4th of last year, and a new parsonage completed at Southwest Community church.

University

Our pastors are proving good cooperators with their church groups in suggesting and helping to work out salary adjustments, and our laymen are manifesting a splendid spirit in endeavors to do what is right and fair.

Where adequate financial plans have been in vogue and have become the settled policy and practice of the church there has been less embarrassment in the maintaining of budget payments. How to interest any considerable number of our vast numbers of non-contributing members, is our constant problem.

If now, in these days, we might challenge all who are on our church rolls, and really impress our new members as they are received, with the solemn obligation they assume, it would be worth while. "Will you be loyal to the Methodist Episcopal Church and uphold it by your prayer, your presence, your gifts and your service?" was the question asked us at the altars of our churches, and to this we replied—"I will." To fail in this vow is to vote to close the church.

We could do no better than to inaugurate and systematically work out a crusade of loyalty in this regard. With an adequate (Disciplinary) financial plan, having stewardship at its center, using our keenest business sense and spiritualizing our finances, losing sight of quotas and goals, in a consecrated enthusiasm to give the gospel of redemption to all, we would exceed anything yet done in and through the church.

Olympic Games and Religion: Hundreds of thousands of visitors are expected to visit Los Angeles this summer, attending the Olympic Games. The Protestant Churches, 500 in number, under the Church Federation, set up plans many months ago, under an Olympiad of Religion. Our Methodist Churches have cooperated one hundred per cent. The results so far in pre-Easter programs, each church carrying out its own plans, have added over 12,000 members, our denomination receiving 2,500.

A great summer campaign is under way, with at least four great Hollywood Bowl events. The first one, Sunday evening, July 10th, our Resident Bishop will give the keynote sermon. July 24th to August 14th, in a great tent at Wilshire and Fairfax Avenues, Bishop Arthur J. Moore, of the Southern Methodist Church, will be the preacher.

The School Board, I understand, estimates that 100,000 new people will be added to our Los Angeles Public Schools, as a result of the hosts of visitors who will become permanent residents. These numbers will add greatly to our church constituency. Our pastors will carry on this summer with open churches and hospitality to the visitors. This will serve a double purpose, as indicated by the timely word recently given publicly by Roger Babson: "A spiritual revival is a necessary condition of a genuine economic recovery", he told the representatives of a score of denominations assembled in New York on a conference on evangelism, under the auspices of the Federal Council of the Churches of Christ in America. Mr. Babson declared that "The need of the hour is more self-control, more unselfishness, more faith, and more courage," and described these as "spiritual qualities which cannot be secured from bankers or stores, but only from vital religion." Mr. Babson further said: "For churches to close this summer is like hospitals closing during an epidemic. I say this because an epidemic of fear, such as is raging today, is as dangerous as an epidemic of flu such as raged in 1918."

Women's Societies: The Woman's Aid and Missionary Societies maintain their work on the same high level as always. Their beautiful and helpful social service, calling, flowers, welfare, have been more extensive than ever. At the meeting of the District Federation of Ladies Aid Societies held a month ago, no pessimistic note was sounded, and the 45 Societies reported no slump in financial returns for the year.

Combination and Comity: It has been impossible in the last two years to carry out an ideal which had been launched, to unite in two or three sections small churches into one strong unit. We have been caught both ways in this, viz., no real estate market when we might sell, and no money in our treasury to purchase sites or build.

For instance, here are the survey results of an eastern section of the city. Between Los Angeles River and Atlantic Boulevard there is an approximate population of 157,000, only about one-eighth of which is native white Protestant stock, meaning that we face here in Los Angeles upon the east-side, one of the most striking and challenging missionary problems anywhere upon the Pacific Coast, with 35,000 Jews, 70,000 Mexicans, 5,000 Japanese, 10,000 Russians, together with smaller numbers of Armenians and Syrians.

In all of these sections there must soon be a practical working out of the comity idea. It is useless and extravagant, both in leadership and finances, for the several major denominations to occupy all fields. The progress being made in reaching this ideal is really most satisfactory. The Superintendents' Council contribute largely to fostering this sentiment.

Wesley Foundation and Religious Conference: Our Wesley Foundation continues to contribute to the religious culture of 1,000 Methodist students in the University of California at Los Angeles, and a proportionate number of students at the Junior College. On March 30th occurred the dedication of the University Religious Center of the University Religious Conference. In this building are the offices of the advisors of the Catholic, Jewish, and various branches of Protestant Churches. Here we find a splendid experiment which is working out quite well, where there is cooperation without compromise.

Our church schools like our church services have shown a marked increase. The Epworth League held a most successful convention at Gardena in April.

Institutions. These are trying days for our Institutions, and it amazes how they are able to carry on and meet the situation so courageously. The Los Angeles City Missionary Society has given financial help to a few of our projects. We have conserved at every point possible. The meeting of our budget is now almost entirely dependent on payments from apportionments to churches.

The All Nations Foundation's Child Welfare Bureau is to participate in a gift of $38,000 from an unknown donor. This to cover a period of three years beginning July first.

The Spanish-American Institute holds a high place in the thinking of our people. The Lincoln Day exercises were among the best ever held. The Hollenbeck Heights Social Center, the Methodist Hospital, the Goodwill Industries, the Pacific Palisades Association, all continue their work with but one handicap—and that is funds.

The commencement at the University of Southern California, a great week of events, marked the close of another year of conspicuous achievement. In the School of Religion ten of our young ministers received degrees.

Vital Statistics. Early in the year L. E. Jordan was transferred from the Lexington Conference and appointed to Wesley Chapel.

Little Virginia June has come to Grace Church parsonage, rejoicing the hearts of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Seitter and Carolyn.

To Mr. and Mrs. R. Fred Moseley there has been a new arrival—Rebecca Louise.

David Shipley, pastor of Union Avenue Church, brings his new bride, the former Miss Mildred Davidson, of First Church, Hollywood, to this Conference session.

Four of our ablest men have fallen in death. Dean E. A. Healy, who tarried with us so long and whose life was such a benediction. He was loved and honored by all. Dean John F. Fisher followed soon after the death of his distinguished wife—Lena Leonard Fisher. He was the fine Christian gentleman, and filled the office of Dean of the School of Religion at the University of Southern California for eleven years with great acceptability.

John M. Baxter, with but one pastorate with us, Rosewood, and that for three and a half years, has endeared himself not only to his own members, but to his brother ministers. His passing on January 15th was triumphant. His son, Bruce R. Baxter, the present Dean of the School of Religion of the University of Southern California, has splendidly finished out the year at Rosewood.

Mrs. J. A. Stavely, wife of J. A. Stavely, of Saint Paul's, passed away January 20th. Mrs. Stavely gave years of marked service to the Woman's Foreign Missionary Society in the Central West, as well as here on the Coast.

Brother C. E. Sweet, successful mission worker at the helm of the Fifth Street Mission many years, after years of lingering illness, was laid to rest a few days ago in Los Angeles. Dr. Alexander Hardie was seriously ill but is now slowly recovering his strength.

We have missed very much from our women's conferences during the year Mrs. Margaret Locke Coates, several years president of our Woman's Home Missionary Society, who has been ill. We are glad to report improvement in her health.

Closing Words. With the touch of tenderness and deep feeling upon us in the loss of these servants of God, we are reminded anew of the grace granted us to be ministers of Christ. It is wonderful work at any time, but is it not more so in times like these, when the human need is so evident?

That must have been a wonderful scene in the General Conference, when Senior Bishop William Fraser McDowell, dressed for the occasion with a red necktie, as he said, was retiring from the office of Bishop. Doctor Olson, in a word of appreciation concerning the Bishop, said—"The finest and best product that God has to show the world is a living personality. With dignity and power you have disclosed in your own life the reach of the gospel you profess". In the Bishop's reply, he said—"This is no day in my life for black ties or crepe or any of the sounds of mourning or moaning of the bar, or whatever it is that does moan when certain things take place. I am wanting to make just as much of a festival of it as possible." He then traced his career from an ordinary small town merchant's son going through college on an average of $300 a year, giving fifty years in the ministry of Jesus Christ's Church, and more than a quarter of a century as a Bishop. He said, "I have walked with the elect, and I go toward the morning. That kind of thing cannot happen except in God's world, to one of God's children, and I do not think it can happen outside of the Church of Christ."

Before the panic of the nineties some friends of Bishop McDowell advised him to make investments with them, and all his savings were wiped out. Alongside his beautiful but worthless stock certificates he laid his diploma, his Phi Beta Kappa key, his ordination certificates. And when his friends who had been wealthy saluted him by saying, "Well, the panic hit you, too," he would reply, "Why no, it never touched me. It took away my savings, but it never touched me. I have a treasure that panics can never reach." So as he laid down his high office he closed by saying, "I want you to feel with me how good it is that there is a world in which men can come to this kind of an hour, with the sun smiting them in the face, and light stretching out ahead, and all the drums beating and all the bands playing, and all the banners waving, banners below and banners above, that God has kept a man in a path of life and will lead him on to the morning."

At another time recently Bishop McDowell had said, "This generation is disturbed and distracted. It is trying to find a way, trying too largely to find some other way. Looking at the age, it is easy to be confused and perplexed. Looking at Jesus Christ, in His fulness of wisdom, grace and power, hope returns, courage grows, and faith bears into life even as His did, because it can go into it with Him."

So for us—"See the Christ stand!"

J. L. GILLIES.

PASADENA DISTRICT

Bishop McDowell tells of a student who came to his room and announced that he proposed to write an essay on "The World and All It Contains". Bishop McDowell said, "I got up and opened a window. No room is large enough for an idea of that dimension."

Likewise ten minutes is not time enough in which to recount the doings of fifty preachers and their families and 21,000 Methodists and a host of constituents. All that can be done is to open a window and release a few statistics, symbols of the immeasurably great facts behind them. Back of these figures are human personalities, world-girdling causes, and God. It was thus that Jesus used statistics. There was joy in heaven over one sinner that repented, one man was worth more than many sheep, one sparrow could not fall to the ground without the Father. It was one coin that was lost, one sheep that went astray, and one son that wandered into a far country. If, then, we will unleash our imaginations as figures are presented we shall see eternal personalities and the ongoings of God's redemptive plan.

To begin then, we salute our Young People. There are over 3000 in our various Leagues, and many more in our Church Schools. Their activities in their home churches and the district affairs have been numerous. They conducted devotional services, fellowship meetings, morning watch meetings, singing parties, evangelistic campaigns, missionary and temperance studies, and generally supported their pastors. Last Fall the district cabinet conducted coaching conferences for the sub-district officers. The mid-winter Roundup was held at Camp Bethel, attended by about 100 purposeful young people, led by a corps of excellent group-discussion leaders. These young people are asking questions of life, they are seeking its meaning, and they are seriously trying to find a way to remedy their own and the world's ills.

The Church Schools of the district are engaged in a great work. The total enrollment is about 25,000 with an average attendance of some 12,000 each Sunday. Heaven's blessing on the more than 2,000 officers and teachers who labor in this fruitful field.

The Depression and Welfare Work. In a few short, swift strokes Jesus sketched a vivid picture of the last Great Assize, in which the determining factor of destiny will be whether or not one has ministered to the needs of one's fellowmen. Never before in our day has the church had a clearer call to demonstrate this element of Christianlikeness than now. For ten years we lived in a Fool's Paradise and did not have the spiritual eyes to see Christ once more on Calvary between the twin thieves of Greed and Hate. The Nation planted its feet squarely on material prosperity which it thought would never end. Suddenly a shudder ran through its foundations and our boasted economic structure crumpled. Millions of men were plunged into moral and financial cemeteries. The church which slept while the nation went to moral economic ruin began to awaken to its chance and responsibility and organized to feed the hungry and clothe the naked. In some churches a room has been turned into a food and clothes store whence the hungry are fed and the naked clothed. Literally hundreds of people have worked, thousands have contributed, and tens of thousands of pounds of food and thousands of articles of clothing have been distributed. Employment agencies have been set going and literally years of work have been found for the unemployed.

Salaries. In the wreckage of our laymen's fortunes is to be found the ruin of our pastor's salaries. Unpaid salaries in 23 churches aggregate $7,330—about 4.6 per cent. Several pastors returned part of their salaries to help relieve overstrained budgets. Twenty-seven churches have reduced their salaries for next year. Reductions total $15,000, approximately 8 per cent. I gladly testify to the Christian spirit of pastors and laymen. They are taking the economic shock together. All causes have suffered, including World Service, on which were paid $65,000, as compared with $80,423 last year, approximately 85% of the district goal. The Woman's Foreign Missionary Society raised $24,036, and the Woman's Home Missionary Society $30,604.

Debts. The economic debacle has aggravated the woes of churches that have debts, especially in towns where the banks have failed. So far the "for sale" sign has not been hung on any of our churches, but we are keeping our eyes on the sheriff. The plight of these churches is trying, but I witness to the courage of the pastors and laymen. In spite of the depression several churches have paid on their indebtedness a total of $69,735, as follows: Baldwin Park, $700; Chino, $1,000; Lancaster, $317; Las Vegas, $100; Montebello, $1,000; Pasadena, First, $232; Monrovia, $3,000; Holliston, $65,000; Scott, $5,086; Puente, $100; Rialto, $75; Temple City, $805. In debt-paying campaigns Monrovia raised in cash and subscriptions $11,000 and Marengo Ave., Alhambra, $16,500. Perhaps the most notable achievement of the year in this connection was Holliston Ave. and Scott Chapel. Over a year ago the Superintendent sought to evolve a plan to pay the indebtedness on these two churches which totalled $185,000. Calling to his aid the Pasadena Methodist Council, a plan was finally adopted, but not before the bank had served notice that foreclosure proceedings were about to begin. According to the plan Holliston was immediately asked to raise $50,000 in cash and pledges on her $162,000 debt, with more to be raised by her later. A. J. Hughes, pastor, then did what most of us believed impossible. He asked the members of his church to visit him in his office in July and August and talk over the situation. What kind of magic he employed is a secret, but it worked. He secured the subscriptions. The Pasadena Methodist Council got together other funds with the result that the Holliston debt has been reduced from $162,000 to $97,000, and Scott from $23,500 to $19,000, and both of them refinanced on better terms at a lower rate of interest. The church in general owes a debt of gratitude to the spirit and generosity of First and Washington Street churches for their peculiar parts in this notable achievement.

New Buildings and Other Improvements. On Sunday, May 15, the superintendent had the honor of dedicating the new Religious Education Hall of Trinity, Pomona. The building is of Tudor Gothic design, beautiful, commodious, well-appointed, the last word in Christian education physical equipment. Furnished, it cost $61,000, all of which was provided before the contract was let. Hearty congratulations, John Oliver and Trinity. Upland has wrecked their old building and are about to begin the erection of a new one on a cash basis. Incurring new debts on the Pasadena district this year is Anathema. Congratulations, Irvin Engle and Upland.

Pipe organs were dedicated at Chino, LaVerne and Las Vegas, and improvements in other churches were as follows: Marengo Ave., Alhambra, $200; Altadena, $500; Del Rosa, $270; Central Glendale, $150; North Glendale, $275; Glendora, $300; Highland, $97; Needles, $80; Grace, Ontario, $97; Pasadena, First, $1,067; Holliston Ave., Pasadena, $600; Lincoln Ave., Pasadena, $150; Washington Street, Pasadena, $2,500; Grace, Redlands, $100; San Bernardino, $100; San Dimas, $320.

Evangelism. Most of the pastors conducted evangelistic campaigns of one type or another with excellent effect on the spiritual life of the churches. Probably the most successful campaign was conducted by Evangelist Ted Evans at Hartzell Memorial, Pasadena. The special meetings totalled 78 weeks in length. There were received into the churches by preparatory, confession of faith, and certificate 1,800 new members, as compared with 2,741 last year. The desire of the pastors and many of the laymen to build on earth the City of God has not grown cold. There seems, however, to have been something of a sense of futility, a beating of fists against a stone wall. But that there has been genuine searching of hearts and fresh surrenders to Christ and his will, I also know. That we have not achieved more is a sore dis-truss to us. Our hearts weep. Still we believe God will give us the power to win. We humbly ask for another chance. People are hungry for a more satisfying experience. I believe we must preach a deeper and more penetrating gospel.

Calls. Nothing can take the place of proper personal contact. The best way to win people to Christ and his church is to go a witnessing. The pastors of the district reported 27,000 calls. The Woman's Aids and organized classes reported 75,000 calls, 11,642 bouquets, 4,220 goodwill and organized classes reported 75,000 calls, 11,642 bouquets, 4,220 good-3,510 delicacies to the sick, 1,336 letters to the sick and bereaved, and $27,682 raised.

Quests. Two vitalizing "Quests" were conducted by the preachers and their wives under the leadership of the Superintendent at Balboa Island, at which the intellectual and spiritual tides ran high.

Vital Statistics. Death has not invaded any of our parsonage homes during this year. Thank God. F. G. Watson had to take a rest through November and December, but is well again. George B. Cliff underwent severe operations and recovered rapidly. Mrs. R. B. Scott went to a sanitarium for treatment but is now recuperating at home. Otherwise, the health of the parsonage folk has been as usual. A lovely little laddie came to gladden the hearts of Claude and Mrs. Young, and a beautiful little lassie joined the quartet around Henry and Mrs. Stockton's hearthstone. Blessings on them. We record with deep sorrow the passing of F. D. Mather, retired minister. His was a long, useful and vital life.

Dr. H. I. Rasmus, able preacher and successful pastor and administrator, had a few happy years in the retired relation. In March after a few days' illness, he passed away. He leaves a son, Harry, a member of this Conference.

After being "allowed of God to be put in trust with the Gospel" for forty years, W. L. Y. Davis retires from the active ministry. This decision takes from our active ranks a brilliant mind, an eloquent tongue, a Christian gentleman, an Apostle of Love. He will be greatly missed. We imagine, however, that his trenchant and fluent pen will still contribute inspiring editorials to the Los Angeles Times, and that other literary activities will keep the learned Doctor busy. Blessings on him and his fine family.

AND SO FORTH. The cordiality and friendliness with which the superintendent and his wife have been received into the parsonage homes have been genuine and generous, and have afforded unbounded happiness to the District Travellers. Thank you, friends.

This fractional report closes with profound gratitude and thanksgiving to Almighty God for His love and care and guidance.

SAN DIEGO DISTRICT

It is my exceeding great joy to bring you tonight greetings of hope and courage and optimism from the far stretches of the San Diego District. And, Bishop, I speak for all the laity as well as the preachers of this district our hearty welcome to you. Already you have made your way into our hearts and we are glad not only for your spirit of comradeship and your fine social idealism, but also for your large knowledge of kingdom interests and your quick understanding of local problems and needs.

It has been a hard year for our churches financially, but we have tried to buy up our great spiritual opportunity by a sacrificial giving of ourselves to our total task. Pastors and laymen, we have rejoiced that we have a gospel and a program for this time of intellectual confusion, shifting of moral standards and general spiritual deflation.

The deadline for the adjournment of this conference has been set for the eve of Independence Day, this 156th year of our national existence. We hope to return to our homes for the fireworks, although we may have some before we leave. We are glad for those boys of '76 and the constitution makers, but above all are we glad for our spiritual forebears who in the period of depression and godlessness following the war of the Revolution, preached God and righteousness and judgment, and built into the American hearts and minds and characters the spiritual convictions that have always been the glory of American life and institutions. In those days, as in these, men dreamed of being rich over night. They were dominated by a subtle materialism and French infidelity. A consuming love for gold then as now swayed human hearts and often as now swamped personal and civic morals. But those prophets of the long trail had religion and imparted it and never wearied in their witness to Jesus and the eternal spiritual order. And we, like them, must not fail to meet the present day challenge of human need. On our district by many special meetings and conferences we have kept the examples of these early American prophets before us and have carried on undis-

Early in the year we set ourselves, after much conference and prayer, to a new and passionate campaign of discipling men and women and to building up all kingdom interests. The laity, men as well as women, have joined with the pastors in this line of advance and as a result we will report a net increase in membership and many hundreds of first decisions for the Christian life.

It may be said that we give no more place to the layman with a hatchet bent on cutting and slashing budgets out of a frenzy of fear and a poverty complex than we to do the preacher with a hammer. In one quarterly conference a woman suggested that they get along without a pastor for a year and save that overhead, but I suggested to her that I could not see that we would dispel the gloom in her mind and in the community by turning out all the lights.

At any rate in the San Diego district we have refused to be thrown into a panic by any brother or board or pastor suffering from ecclesiastical blues. And as a result, while we have had adjustments in many of our budgets, the total deficit on pastors' salaries this year will not reach five per cent, and the salaries of the entire district will not be reduced, according to quarterly conference action, by more than that for next year.

The time limitations placed upon this report make it impossible to individualize the story of the year's work. That is too bad, for it spoils some good stories I might tell of welfare work done this past year under the leadership of our pastors.

I must mention several property achievements: Encinitas has completed and dedicated their new building at a cost of $12,000, all paid for but $2,500, E. Sedweek, pastor; Newport-Balboa, now known as "Christ Church by the Sea," has been refinanced as to its new site and expects to launch an active campaign for the first unit of the new building July 1st. This has been possible, largely through the generous cooperation of Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Stevens of Pasadena; Russell Stroup, pastor. By the cooperation of the churches of San Diego we were able to have Bishop Burns dedicate the church at Inwood; all claims provided for; W. R. Weckerly, pastor. Point Loma, Myron Insko, pastor, has built and paid for a Scout Hut, used as social hall and church school room. Huntington Beach has built a new addition to its church school plant; John Engle, pastor and plasterer. Hemet, W. A. Jennings, pastor, has refinanced its debt, reducing it to $10,000, placed at a very low rate of interest.

Encinitas

We have appointed this year the only woman pastor on the district, Mrs. Harriet Schultz, at Encanto, and she has at once led in a complete house-cleaning and refurbishing of the plant, inside and out, three coats of paint, and that and the landscaping of the ground without cost to the budget. Cardiff, "the Church of the Roses," has landscaped the grounds, secured new pews and made the church much more attractive. all paid for; S. C. Schaeffer, pastor.

For the third year the church at Banning has given the pastor his annual gift of books, brain fertilizer, and through the ingenuity of the pastor, Crawford Trotter, 100,000 letters have been sent out across the U. S. urging other churches to do like-wise. No preacher dead at the top need look wistfully towards Banning. First Church, Riverside, Samuel Hughes pastor, at least momentarily forgot about the depression and by the initiative of one thoughtful layman who still had a little laid by for a time of stringency, cleared up an overhang on current expenses of previous years and a small property investment totalling $10,000.

A check on the average attendance upon our church schools shows that across the district there has been an increase of 5%, or 505.

The W. F. M. S. reports $15,209, an increase of $568 over last year; W. H. M. S. $13,545. The Aid Societies have raised $33,077. In co-operation with our Goodwill Industries in San Diego, the Aid societies, led by Mrs. Lamont, our district president, are seeking to secure 1,000 associate members at $1 each.

The Goodwill Industries has become one of the outstanding philanthropies of San Diego, participating in the Community Chest funds. In this, the second year of its history, this organization, under the indefatigable leadership of Myron Insko, who is also pastor of the Point Loma church, has paid out $10,423.17 in cash and clothing wages, has given 50,360 hours of opportunity labor to the handicapped and needy, and has distributed 8569 bags among the people of San Diego.

The Brotherhoods of the district have been active in evangelism and are now organizing to prevent the repeal of the Wright Law.

Death has not come to any of our parsonage families the past year, for which we are grateful. There has been little sickness, although Mrs. W. C. Schmutzler, wife of our German pastor in San Diego, has been bedfast for months with a broken hip. We are glad to say that she is once more about, but on crutches.

August 12th, 1931, Rev. Arthur Nagle, our pastor at Blythe, who has something like a score of school teachers in the membership of his church, wisely invited one of them to cast in her lot with him as a permanent help-meet in the work of the itinerancy, Miss Alice Willmarth by name, a teacher in the high school and daughter of J. Scott Willmarth, who officiated at the wedding.

The stork called at the parsonage of First Church, Santa Ana, during the year and bestowed a baby girl, Jean Alma, upon the happy parents. As Jean Alma's father is a pastor and her maternal grandfather also, and as her older brother, George Warmer, Jr., is an applicant at this session of our conference for admission on trial, I presume some day she will marry some Methodist preacher, and mayhap a Methodist bishop.

We have two other young men besides George Warmer, Jr., coming up from our district for admission. Lawson Watkin, our supply pastor at Tustin, and James Hughes, a brother of Sam and Alf, and better looking than either. We have several pairs of brothers in this conference, but it remained for the Hughes family to present us with triplets.

The morale of our district was never better. Both our pastors and our laymen have gone forward undaunted and have made a truly memorable record this past year and as superintendent I am grateful to them and proud of them and pray God's blessing upon them and the guidance of His spirit as we go into the new year. And whether this depression shall lift this coming year or continue, as one good sister assures me it will, until 1949, you will find the San Diego district churches and pastors pressing forward, for Christianity is the religion of the forward swing.

J. A. GEISSINGER.

(b) Standing Committee and Boards

RESOLUTIONS

We are grateful that providentially by the action of the committee of the General Conference on Assignment, our "Brother in Christ," Bishop James Chamberlain Baker was assigned as General Superintendent of the San Francisco Area.

We desire to record our deep appreciation of his brotherly spirit, his kindly toleration, his friendly smile, his saving grave of humor, and his eagerness to give every one the opportunity of self-expression on matters before the conference, and we do appreciate his wise decisions on points of order at issue. We rejoice in his ability to expedite the business of the conference without loss of time or goodwill. As an administrator and executive he has won our confidence and whole-hearted approval.

More than this: He has broken and served for our soul's satisfaction "the Bread of Heaven." His sermons and devotional addresses have revealed his "inner spirit" and we have found it "Christlike." His sermons and devotional addresses have also given us an appreciation of his wide and comprehensive reading and thorough study of, and sympathetic understanding of human affairs. His keen analyses of present world conditions and problems have given us the "Forward Look" and we face homeward tonight more hopeful of the future, and for the future with the Lord Jesus Christ as "Good Shepherd" of the flock of humanity.

"Blessings upon him and his wife"—the First Lady of the Area whose democratic spirit and kindly thought of others has already endeared her to the women-folk of our parsonages and our churches, and to those of us so fortunate as to share in her acquaintance during their brief visit among us.

For the third consecutive year we voice our grateful appreciation to Richard N. Merrill, pastor of First Church, Long Beach, and to his official board and Conference Entertainment Committee and to the members and constituency of his church for the generous hospitality we have enjoyed. Pastor and people have proven to be "a gracious conference host"; and have made us feel their eagerness to serve our every need.

We pay our respectful thanks especially to the Conference Entertainment Committee (F. W. Curl, H. C. Harter, C. E. Davis, W. D. Culbertson and Mrs. Myrta Harshaw and Mrs. Bert L. Johnson) also to the church staff and to the corps of ushers and to Mrs. Mary Millner and the young people of the church who so graciously waited upon us in the registration and information office; and to the young people who acted as platform-pages, doormen for the Cabinet and as postoffice and checkroom clerks, and as private secretaries and telephone operators behind the scenes. We also commend the church troop of the Boy Scouts of America, and we thank the church membership and constituency for their hospitable and glad care of our honored Veterans—the Retired Brothers and Sisters of our fraternity.

And to the co-operating churches and welfare agencies of Long Beach sharing with First Church in the conference entertainment and hospitality, we offer our grateful thanks; especially would we mention the First Baptist Church, the First Christian Church, the First Congregational Church, the Young Woman's Christian Association and the Young Men's Christian Association for the free use of their buildings and equipment for certain conference programs.

We express our grateful thanks to the City Government of Long Beach and voice our sincere appreciation of its Department Officials for providing us with souvenir programs, special parking space and privileges, and extending police courtesies; and for providing us with recreational facilities; but especially for the free use of the beautiful, new and spacious municipal auditorium for our Conference Sunday Services of Worship.

The newspapers of Long Beach deserve worthy mention, especially the publications, "The Press-Telegram" and "The Sun" for giving us generous space and publicity, and for reporting our programs and conference actions and pronouncements on the problems of the day to the news channels of the nation.

Certain Long Beach business concerns have added to the comfort and enjoyment of this 1932 session:

We would thank Mr. O. F. Hurst, proprietor, who installed the Ampli-phone system; and the Sparkletts Bottled Water Company for their contribution; and those hotels and apartment houses extending the courtesy of special rates to members of the conference.

Mention should also be made of the valuable service of accommodation and mercy rendered the Conference by our own Methodist Hospital of Southern California, for equipping temporary emergency hospital and rest rooms and staffing them with trained nurses.

To the Conference Program Committee which was responsible for the division of time and assignment of various conference interests and program-speakers, we express our sincere thanks for the conservation of time, the variety and interest of the programs and the distinguished speakers and artists secured for our edification and entertainment.

The Committee on Resolutions feels itself justified that mention be made of at least the program-highlights: namely:

On one occasion, five Bishops of our own Church and one from our sister church, the Methodist Episcopal Church South, appeared before the Conference and had some part in the proceedings on Conference Wednesday: Bishops Baker, Robinson, Badley, Miller and Locke of our own Church and Bishop Moore of the Church, South.

We are deeply grateful to the Players Guild of First Church, Pasadena, for a remarkable dramatic presentation of Upton Sinclair's "Wet Parade," and to the Laudista Choir of First Church, Glendale we express our grateful thanks for an enjoyable and inspirational sacred program.

We would most heartily include the splendid choir of our hostess church for the sacred music furnished on other conference occasions.

We would include in our expression of appreciation the organ programs of Miss Lillian Marie Brandvig and Miss Anne Aaronson and the help of the Belmont Heights Orchestra and the Inglewood quartette.

We would highly compliment the Conference Program Committee for securing Dr. C. B. Sylvester, and his successors upon the platform and in the pulpit—Bishop George Miller, Dr. G. Bromley Oxnam, Dr. Channing Richardson, Bruce R. Baxter, S. S. Sampson, Bishop Brenton Thornburn Badley, Dr. E. Guy Talbott, J. Stitt Wilson, Mr. James Corson, Bishop Joshwant R. Chitambar, Walter Buckner and our own Resident Bishop.

But this report would not be complete without special mention of our true appreciation of the honor and privilege accorded us as participants in the greatest historic event of American Methodism—The Seating of Laymen in the Annual Conference. We made mention of "American Methodism" for the reason that it was here on the free soil of the American continent, that this new found liberty of our Methodism was nurtured and brought to fruition. We gladly welcome our Lay Members to a seat beside us, and to the privileges of the floor of the conference. And we do appreciate their Christian response, their brotherly interest and hearty co-operation in a greater program for Methodism and the Kingdom of the Conquering and Unconquerable Christ.

And here we would mention our appreciation of the valuable services of board and agency representatives:

Mr. John Tunnicliff, representative "without pay" of the boards of Home Mission and Church Extension and Foreign Missions on the Pacific coast in matters of annuity gifts: William H. Fry, superintendent of the Hawaii Mission and W. M. Jeffers, field representative of the Board of Pensions and Relief, both of whom are members of this annual conference, Dr. Edward Laird Mills, editor of the Coast Christian Advocate and Mr. Howard M. Boys, representative of the Book Concern; and Dr. Walter A. Torbet, Western representative of the Board of Home Missions and Church Extension.

To A. Ray Moore and his staff of assistants, we express our sincere gratitude for a wise and statesmanlike handling of the financial affairs of the conference. Our "beloved A. R. Moore" is a steward of treasures who has no need to be ashamed nor even apologetic.

Also, we are not unmindful of the worthwhile and exacting work of the Conference officers: the Secretary, F. G. H. Stevens and his assistants; the Statistical Secretary, O. W. Reinius and his assistants; our postmaster, John Engle, and our Chorister, Robert J. Coyne and our organist, Lyman R. Bayard.

We record our sincere appreciation of our "Brethren-in-Christ" who hold among us the office of District Superintendent. We desire to record our appreciation of their brotherly interest and sympathetic understanding of local church, pastoral, and conference problems and their earnest Christian endeavor to make acceptable appointments and to lessen the disappointments of a most trying church year.

REPORT OF EXECUTIVE SECRETARY SOUTHERN CALIFORNIA CONFERENCE BOARD OF EDUCATION

This is but a brief and fragmentary statement about our work in the Church School field.

Methodism came into being as an expression of the fact that the "religion of experience" is essential to a vital, dynamic Christianity. But an adequate fruitful Christian experience, Methodism has always claimed, depends upon proper nurture, guidance, stimulation and development.

Bishop Leonard said, "Nothing will serve better to prevent our workers being whipped about by every wind of doctrine, than the training courses offered by our Board of Education".

In the past the various denominations carried on their leadership training independently but now nearly all of the denominations in our territory are joining in the Standard Schools, through the Southern California Council of Religious Education. During the past twelve months fifty such schools were conducted, more than one thousand Methodist leaders being enrolled. In addition sixty local church training classes were conducted.

From eighty-four conferences in Methodism, 14,160 credits were reported in a single year, Southern California standing first in the list with 2,832. We have the record in our office of 5500 workers in this Conference who have completed one or more of these studies.

Interdenominational Relationships: The Southern California Council of Religious Education, of which our own Dr. H. V. Mather is now the Executive Secretary, serves as our medium of contact with the educational forces of our sister denominations. The Council was created by the denominations and is their agency through which they work together in training work, summer conferences, vacation Church Schools, missionary projects, weekday church schools, community councils, etc., etc. It performs an invaluable service, deserves our loyalty and support.

Weekday Church Schools: Your attention should be directed to the continued success of the Interchurch Weekday School conducted by Miss Abernethy in Long Beach. This school demonstrates clearly how the great majority of the children in our public schools can be brought regularly under the inspiring influence of a rich Christian personality and an excellent teacher. Eighty per cent of the children of these grades are coming regularly under this rich religious influence.

For eight years the struggle has gone on to start this work in California. Long Beach is holding before us a splendid demonstration of its feasibility. Other communities are seriously considering the introduction of similar weekday religious education.

Rally Day and Education Week: Rally Day last fall was a wonderful success.

Over ninety per cent of the churches received and returned offerings totaling $4875. To this annual event we must continue to look for resources to make possible the continuance of our work with our children and young people. We most earnestly ask you now to look forward to October 2-9 to make it a great challenging, rallying week for all your forces, and that on Sunday, October 2—Rally Day—you give every organization the opportunity to give toward the support of your work of Christian education throughout the Conference.

The Los Angeles Preacher's meeting recently urged our Board of Education to conduct a conference-wide educational campaign on prohibition.

General Conference has made our Board responsible for education in the cause of disarmament and peace.

The new lesson materials and young people's units, the finest ever prepared for making religion real and effective, need interpretation, and how to use them needs constant explanation.

The Social Action conference calls upon our Board to aid community groups, brought together to face the present social economic emergency, furnishing resource, men and materials and suggesting project activities.

There is very great need that we give strong and unremitting emphasis to religious training in the home.

We propose the creation of a circulating library, available to the entire Conference, to help meet these needs.

A coordinating agency—not so much in an organized sense as in ideas, ideals, objectives, and, in a measure, in materials and their use—this is our conception of the function of the Conference Board of Education.

The chief objective of all creation is to bring to perfection the characters and lives of human beings. This is the business of Christian religious education. Whenever or wherever anything is found that harms or helps, hinders or enhances the best development of human personality, it becomes immediately the duty of religious education to study and create ways and means by which the harmful and injurious is overcome and the helpful is enlarged. This we believe was Jesus' method and the surest method to bring the reign of righteousness and peace—God's kingdom on the earth.

DEPARTMENT OF EPWORTH LEAGUE AND YOUNG PEOPLE'S WORK

As a new man coming into your midst your courtesy and hospitality has been more than could be expected.

The sacrificial spirit and devotion to their responsibilities by conference and district officers has made possible the results accomplished by this department during the past year.

In taking over the work as your director we faced two situations:

First, a request from your Conference Board of Epworth League and Young People's Work, and from local pastors, for a more efficient type of conference, district and sub-district organization. We discovered an overlapping of activities and unnecessary expenditure of time and money. We have now instituted a new type of organization. Two things being paramount in our thinking; first, that young people should not be taken away from their local chapters unnecessarily; and second, that conference, district and sub-district organizations should only exist to help promote a more efficient program in the local church.

The second situation which confronted us was the need of an effective training program for leaders in local churches. The success or failure of the life centered program will depend upon leaders who understand and know how to use the material and method. We are happy to say that plans for such a training program are now under way.

The office of the Department has carried on in a very helpful way, giving information and assistance, as well as keeping adequate records and providing a source of supplies and materials for local churches. In carrying on our office responsibilities some 26,858 letters have been written in response to requests for helps and materials, and in the interest of the department program in general.

Because of the enormous territory of the conference the department deemed it wise to confine the director's activities in local church cultivation to three districts, so this year we have endeavored to cover San Diego, Fresno and Arizona districts. In doing this we have traveled 29,778 miles, contacted 48 local churches, 22 sub-district meetings, 25 district gatherings, 19 conference, 24 meetings in the interest of the Conference Board of Education, and 12 miscellaneous gatherings. Contacts with interdenominational and interracial groups are continually made and at present we are cooperating with the World Council of Youth Program. Numerous Gospel Team meetings have also been conducted in local churches.

A good portion of time has been spent assisting in the preparing of Institute and Convention programs. The district conventions took on new and far reaching meaning this year under such leaders as J. Stitt Wilson, Bruce Baxter, and Carl Knopf, and others.

Back of all our plans and endeavors has ever been the dominating purposes:

1. To help grow personalities which are really and genuinely Christian, and to help youth face the reality of life and feel their responsibility of taking the Sermon on the Mount and the experiences of Jesus from the place where it is a day dream only, a nice ideal, and making it a practical program of Christian living in all areas of our lives.
2. To help youth discover and relate themselves to the responsibilities of church leadership.

In viewing these objectives we have endeavored to stress:

1. Every young person having a personal relationship to Jesus Christ if they are to be Christ like.
2. That this is attained by a day by day experience of facing up to real life situations and making all areas of their lives Christian, and

3. By identifying themselves with those agencies and movements that are at work in the world which are endeavoring to bring to pass a Christian social and economic order.

PACIFIC PALISADES ASSOCIATION

At the Conference session of 1931, Pacific Palisades Association reported to you the completion of the sale of its beach to the State of California. That transaction seemed to assure our institutional future. Our liabilities were underwritten. The obligations of our successor to us were being promptly met. The sale of the beach brought to us interest bearing securities which seemed to promise more comfortable income margins than we had ever had. But the events of the year have radically changed this pleasing picture. Owing to complete collapse of the sales program and the impossibility of collecting on contracts, our successor has been, and is, unable to meet the burden of carrying charges combined with its obligations to us. Proceeds from the beach sale were absorbed by the release price for retirement of bonds under the trust indenture, legal and sales expense, and payment of accumulated indebtedness against the enterprise, which had been inherited from the Pacific Palisades Association. In its endeavor to carry through its undertaking, their successor has invested in the enterprise during the four years of its ownership approximately $1,000,000 above the total collections therefrom and can make no further advances.

To meet this difficult, even desperate situation, the Pacific Land Corporation with our cooperation, asked for and received the consent of the bondholders to a modification of the trust indenture which permits the creation of a Special Reserve Fund into which all collections above the first twenty-five per cent from new sales may be placed until an amount totaling $400,000 has been so allocated within the next three years. From this fund, if created, all bond interest charges, all taxes and special assessments will be paid. It is hoped in this way to cure the existing delinquency for the second installment of the 1931-32 taxes and to provide for all bond interest and future tax and assessment charges during a three year period. On the success of this hangs the life of the Pacific Land Corporation and upon its life depends our own, since only as the Corporation succeeds in retiring its bonds can our properties be freed from the lien of the indenture.

In the confidence that we should receive regular contract payments as they fell due, the Association a year ago invited the Southern California Annual Conference to make Pacific Palisades its permanent home beginning in 1933. We believed the improvement program then contemplated would put our equipment into condition satisfactorily to house this body. This improvement program is now impossible. In the light of existing conditions and with no prospect of successful collections during the current year, we face the necessity of asking leave to withdraw temporarily our invitation to the Conference, hoping to renew it at such time as conditions will permit the carrying out of our original plans for its housing. Should the Conference, however, wish to come to us as we are and with existing equipment, we shall gladly welcome it and shall do our utmost to provide adequate facilities for its work, though we believe better provision can be made for its comfort elsewhere.

Meanwhile, the Association is carrying on in the face of financial difficulties and the active hostility of a group which seeks to destroy it. These opponents organized locally as the Pacific Palisades Property Owners Association, and in December submitted their complaints and demands to us. These our Board of Trustees believe to be unfounded in fact and entirely unreasonable. Both the demands and the reply of our Board have been put into the hands of the membership of this Conference. Unconvinced by the reply, the Property Owners Association sponsored a suit, and individuals have filed that suit in the Superior Court of Los Angeles County, alleging that the Pacific Palisades Association is a trust for the benefit of all property owners, demanding that the Pacific Palisades Association be set aside and that the court place the property in the hands of a new organization formed from the Property Owners to be known as "Tract 9300 Association." The Pacific Land Corporation and the California Trust Company are joined with the Pacific Palisades Association as defendants in the suit. The preliminary hearing in the Law and Motion Department of the Superior Court was set for June 15th before Judge Douglas Edmunds. Our attorneys demurred to the Complaint on the ground that it entirely failed to establish the alleged trust and therefore should be thrown out. The Court sustained the demurrer in every particular but gave the plaintiff's twenty days in which to amend their Complaint if possible. Our attorneys assure us that there is no occasion for anxiety either as to the merits of the case or its outcome.

Notwithstanding these conditions, the Pacific Palisades Summer Schools and Assembly are offered for the summer of 1932, opening July 5th with Bishop Baker as speaker. The program presents a study of the existing world chaos, and of various suggestions looking toward recovery. The School of Religion for Pastors will be in session July 25th to August 6th. President E. Guy Cutshall of Iliff School of Theology and Professor W. J. Lowstuter of Boston University School of Theology will offer attractive courses. It is probable that the groups coming to our grounds this summer will be smaller than in previous years. We, therefore, particularly urge all pastors to cooperate by calling the attention of their people to the vacation facilities offered on our grounds. Rates have been reduced and a special clergy rate has been made applicable to all types of housing, excepting the six cottages.

This will be a critical year and Methodism must now make up its mind whether the institution and property which are growing up at Pacific Palisades are worth preserving. With conference cooperation we believe they can be saved, unless eaten up by carrying charges during a prolonged depression. Certainly the institution can make an important contribution to the inevitable reorganization of our social and religious life.

A new class in our Board of Trustees is to be elected this year. This Conference must approve the nominees. We recommend the approval of the following as eligible: Bishop James C. Baker, A. J. Hughes, E. L. Koenig, C. D. Lewis, A. V. Stoughton, W. R. Morehouse, James B. Fox, F. G. H. Stevens, Glen Randall Phillips, A. Ray Moore, Ray C. Harker, James E. Dunning, Frank Taggart, A. W. Nelson, George M. McBride, John Anson Ford.

LOS ANGELES MISSIONARY AND CHURCH EXTENSION SOCIETY

We have all been delighted with the very high compliment paid the All Nations Foundation by a donor who has investigated thoroughly for many months the work of the Child Welfare Bureau of the Foundation, and found from the work already accomplished in that department, and what it is now doing, and the prospects for the future, he is amply justified in granting a total of $38,000 during the next four years. Payments will begin with July of this year. The Superintendent of the Foundation and members of the Staff have provided certain economies during the year that have helped to keep nearer within the budget.

The All Nations Foundation is seeking to bring the kindly Christian ministry to those who are among the less fortunate in these trying times, through its various units of service, as follows: 28,000 Clinic services; 5,000 days of care have been given to children of working mothers; there has been a total attendance of 22,000 children in kindergarten classes; 21,000 girls and women in organized clubs; 45,000 boys in leisure time activities; and a Daily Vacation Bible School of over 200 enrolled. In addition to this, hundreds of baskets of food have been given out, and hundreds have been clothed. All this has been made possible by the 150 volunteer lay men and women who have generously contributed of their time, energy and fine Christian spirit.

The total income at All Nations for the years is as follows: service fees, $18,975.58; Woman's Home Missionary Society, $2,100; Community Chest, $19,951.02; Board of Home Missions, $4,936.25; and gifts, $5,964.27, or a total of $51,927.12; and the expenditures for the year amounted to $52,120.06.

The financial statement for the year is as follows:

It has been necessary for the City Missionary Society to furnish larger amounts on maintenance to various needy churches than is usual. This is due to the fact of the decrease of the allotments from the Board of Home Missions and Church Extension, and the increasing demands due to failure to meet church budgets in the local organizations. The Society is almost entirely dependent for its moneys on the receipts from apporportionments to the various churches in the City.

The Society has given the benefits of its credit to the University Church in making possible the completion of the first unit, and we have assisted Culver City and Annandale Churches out of our Extension Fund. We have regretted our inability to help other churches in their great need, owing to the fact of limited returns on our Methodist Extension Fund subscriptions. From missionary maintenance funds we have assisted Annandale, Bethel Trinity, Calvary, Church of All Nations, Compton Avenue, Harbor City, Melrose Park, Robertson Boulevard, Saint Mark's, South West Community, Sunnyside, Union Avenue, Westland and Woodcrest.

The members of our Board of Trustees manifest vital interest in the work of the City Society with their time, their service, and their money.

The following nominations of Trustees to be elected by the Annual Conference are herewith presented: Bishop James C. Baker, Bruce R. Baxter, Robert A. Brown, R. W. Bruce, W. G. Cline, Geo. I. Cochran, Louis A. Copeland, Clyde M. Crist, M. L. Godfrey, J. Lewis Gillies, John H. Graham, W. A. Greenwald, L. T. Guild, J. P. Harker, E. E. Helms, Paul H. Helms, W. C. Hodgson, H. A. UNIVERSITY CHURCH

The first unit of University Church is completed and has been occupied since October 4, 1931. After nine months the congregation is completely satisfied with the structure which is in every way adequate.

Great credit is due the architect, Professor Raimond C. Johnson, and the Plans Committee.

A new building unfinished is a blemish, and no church is finished until it is furnished. There was little of the furniture in the old church which could be used. The rugs were re-made, the old chairs were stained or varnished. The old pews with semi-circular seating could not be utilized in the rectangular auditorium and the organ could not be remodeled and used. After much advertising and many inquiries both pews and organ were sold for less than $500.

The total cost of land, contractor's price of building, architect fees, carpets, pews, lighting fixtures, art-glass windows, organ, etc., bring a total of $202,100. Of this there remains unpaid, in notes and installments on furnishings, about $88,000. Our resources are, good subscriptions, $34,000; property, $15,000; and the unpaid balance of money promised through World Service, $16,200.

Many of the subscriptions have been cancelled because the subscribers have suffered serious losses. Property which two years ago was appraised at $30,000 is probably worth less than half that amount now.

University Church will be able to handle its obligations if the $16,000 still left unpaid in promised World Service designations is forthcoming. The greatest embarrassment is the heavy interest charge, and the sooner the money comes from the Conference the more can be paid on principal.

University Church is grateful to all churches which have so splendidly responded to its repeated appeal for help. Without this, success would have been impossible. This society is also under deep obligation to the Los Angeles Missionary and Church Extension Society for its credit in endorsing the note at the bank; without this credit a loan would have been impossible, and without the loan there would be no new church at the campus.

It is very gratifying to note what the new building has done for the church. Somewhat divided on many issues it is now completely united. This last year has been the first in nearly a decade in which the members received were more than those dismissed. This past year three persons have joined for everyone who has left. For the first eight months in the new building not one Sunday passed without one or more persons uniting with the church. The Sunday School attendance during the past year has been twenty-seven per cent higher than the preceding year. The outlook for the coming year is the brightest in the history of University Church. Its officials are optimistic and its members are all very happy. Plans are being made for cooperative work between leaders in the School of Religion of the University of Southern California and leaders in the church, for an intensive work among University students.

This Committee believes that University Church is just in expecting the balance of the promised $35,000 and is entitled to the support of the Conference members in getting the money designated.

PLAZA COMMUNITY CENTER

The question is often asked as to whether there will be need for the services rendered at the Plaza Community Center in view of the large numbers of Mexican people who have returned to Mexico from Southern California. The answer is that this past year has seen the largest volume of work done in the history of our institution. Of the 385,000 Mexicans in Southern California, some 45,000 have left for Mexico. Coming down to the Mexican population in Los Angeles, itself, out of a former Mexican population of 160,000, 140,000 remain. For many years there will be a real need for the Christian ministry which our Church is rendering.

With all similar institutions, we have suffered greatly in the great decrease in financial support. We receive approximately one-fourth of our maintenance from our Board of Home Missions and Church Extension; the remaining three-fourths must be raised locally in contributions from interested individuals, churches, church organizations, etc. The raising of these funds has been made next to impossible, due to the fact that World Service credit could not be granted for these contributions which had to be made directly to us. We are hoping that recent General Conference action will make possible an easier situation for these Home Missionary institutions.

We cannot praise too highly the fidelity and consecration of our paid staff at the Plaza Community Center, as well as the large group of volunteer workers. Our Board has faithfully stood by and has sought to solve the difficult financial problems presented throughout this trying year. Every possible economy has been practiced and the co-operation of all has been enlisted to cut down expense at the same time that the largest volume of work has been taken care of.

Our Children's Home provides Christian training and home life for eighteen Mexican boys and girls. The per capita maintenance cost is surprisingly low. We are in need of additional friends who will assist in the care of these individual children. In a number of cases there is no support received for them, inasmuch as they have neither parents nor guardians. In other instances, a very small monthly payment is made by hard-working mother or guardian. The Home is located at No. 72 West Alegria Street in Sierra Madre. We have a wonderful location here, which was secured at a real bargain. We are in special need of contributions to help us in meeting obligations assumed in the purchase of this property.

Our Christian Training School for the past year has had the largest enrollment in its history, numbering 45 students, who came from Anaheim, Santa Ana, Whittier, San Fernando and Monrovia, as well as Los Angeles and Pasadena. Five denominations were represented. Interdenominational co-operation was further evidenced this year by our being able to secure a very fine addition to the faculty from the Presbyterian Mexican Church, in the person of the Rev. H. Pure. Moreover, we received a generous contribution from the Presbyterian Board of Home Missions for carrying on this work.

Our Clinic and General Welfare Departments continue in their Christian service, meeting the unusual as well as the usual needs of our Mexican people. All former records were again broken, as the total registrations for the past year reached 17,939. In the Clinic there were 2,677 free patients, receiving free medical care to the amount of $1,534.45. In the Welfare Department, 296 families were given food and other relief, employment was found for 771 women, in addition to the thousands of consultations, and assistance given in legal, business and domestic affairs.

The ladies' auxiliary, under the name of the Plaza Community Center Club, has functioned very efficiently during this past year, under most difficult circumstances. In their own way, they have raised funds which have helped to meet the emergencies which have arisen during the twelve months.

We earnestly urge all of our pastors and people to visit the Plaza Community Center, in order to gain first-hand knowledge of just what we are doing, how we are doing it, and where we are doing it. We are located at the corner of Sunset Blvd. and Los Angeles Street, on the north side of the old Plaza.

SPANISH AMERICAN INSTITUTE

The Latin American World consists of a multitude of people to be evangelized and assimilated into the wholesome life of the Kingdom of God.

Mexico is near at hand. Into our nation, state and locality they have come in great numbers. Asset or liability, which shall they be?

Some twenty years ago under your authority the Spanish American Institute was authorized, organized and has been maintained. It aims to share with promising Mexican boys, our knowledge of Christ and the resources of the Spirit, that they may in turn become Christian leaders of their people.

In order to achieve even better than in the days that are gone, the President, Dr. A. C. Stevens, and the Directors have planned three lines of emphasis during the coming year.

First, a more careful selection of boys who, in the Mexican churches, have already manifested Christian interest.

Second, a stronger proportionate religious emphasis in the local program.

Third, a more careful follow up, to preserve among the Alumni a continued Christian activity.

It has been frequently thought among us and among our constituency that greater use might be made of the public schools for part of the instruction of our boys. It seems now to be the opinion of those closest to our work that it is not wise to do it. Accordingly, it is the intention to provide still, upon our own campus, the schooling of the boys as well as their other social activities. The effort will be made to secure for them contacts in the Mexican churches and with Christian people of their own race.

At the close of 1930 the prospect of increasing financial difficulties led the Board, at the suggestion of Dr. Stevens, to reduce the budget for the following year, by the amount of $10,000.

Plans have been presented and authorized by the Board for still further reductions both in number of employees and of the salaries paid, but also in the number of boys that may be accommodated. Uncertain of the income for next year, contracts could not be made committing the board to specific payments, but a salary schedule has been approved under which we expect to operate.

The attitude of the faculty in willing cooperation and sacrifice and in the assumption of added duties, all in the finest spirit and led always by the President, has made it much easier to carry on.

Our Lincoln Day was notable in the program presented, the large attendance, the manifest interest and the subscriptions secured. This day is an annual occasion of great value to the Institute and the pastors and laymen are requested to make every effort to attend and bring with them friends whose interest is sure to be aroused.

We are happy in the devotion, the ability, the Christian passion and the fine success of the President, Dr. A. C. Stevens, who at the request of the Board, was by Bishop Baker appointed to the leadership of the Institute, for another year, at the recent session of the California Conference.

We recommend that the conference request the Board of Home Missions and Church Extension to appropriate in its program of financing, $24,000 for the support of the Institute for the coming year. If this shall be done, we plan to pass all moneys received through its treasury and to make the Institute an asset for the Board even beyond this amount.

We urgently request that pastors permit Dr. Stevens access to their pulpits to preach and to get before the people the fine human appeal which the Institute always makes.

Pray for the Institution. Open the way for its success among the people and it will turn into the life of Southern California a constant stream of useful and dynamic young men to help Christ to make a better world.

The printing department, under the direction of Earle Wood, is now turning out the finest printing that is produced in Southern California. It is working on a commercial basis and has reached the place where it is not a liability on the funds of the Institute save for a small amount which goes for payment of the printing instructor.

C. D. LEWIS.

THE LATIN AMERICAN MISSION

With welcome to Bishop and Mrs. Baker in this great missionary area, and thanks to God and His generous and prayerful missionary spirits, we recognize that the year has been one of victory. The field of the Latin American Mission now extends to the Mississippi River. We have visited all circuits.

More than ever, the communities are appreciating their Mexican pastors. The program is enlarging and all results but full members and finances had a good increase. The loss of several points and one circuit accounts for some retreat.

The statistics for the year show 38 regular pastors on 45 circuits with 54 paid workers, 37 local preachers and 136 voluntary workers. The labors of the regular workers total 47,436 visits, traveling 266,572 miles and writing 9343 letters. There were 1015 decisions for Christ, 388 baptisms, 657 preparatory members received. The workers ministered in 240 preaching places, dealing with 96,583 different persons, delivering nearly 5,000 Gospel messages to a total of 301,283; 2,597 copies of God's Word put out and 86,333 Christian books and tracts. 65 Sunday Schools have a membership of 4,730 and the 52 Epworth Leagues have 1,478 members. Loving ministry in cases of need was given to 31,375 and the total giving was $15,286. There are now 2,319 full members.

We are dealing at the center of the life of 140 millions of Latin people. We quote the great Mexican deliverer, Benito Juarez, as he cheered his heroic patriots on to liberty, "We have friends within and without our country who by their prayers, their money and their efforts are aiding us. Redouble then your efforts."

VERNON M. McCOMBS, Superintendent.

PACIFIC OLD PEOPLE'S HOME

Jesus was a forward looking leader and His long look produced the matchless charter of social activities which He gave His disciples. It was a strenuous program, which would tax the most diligent efforts of the ablest organizers and demand the constant liberty of the followers of the Founder.

The Methodist Episcopal Church had a tardy awakening to her duty to the sick, the aged and the child life of the nation. There has been an entire willingness to relegate the amelioration of human suffering to civic and philanthropic agencies.

Methodism was jolted from her absolute neglect of her sick forty-five years ago by that now heroic editorial of Dr. J. M. Buckley, which had for its direct fruitage the princely gift of Mr. Seney, to be followed later by the splendid gifts of Mr. and Mrs. William Halls, Jr., which made possible the great Methodist Episcopal Hospital of Brooklyn.

The three decades of this century have witnessed the foundation and fostering of thirty-seven of the forty-four homes for the aged of our Methodism. The rapid increase of Methodist Homes in one brief decade indicates that the denomination begins to see the need of the aged, and the beauty of the sunset years, yet notwithstanding the splendid impetus in this work, there are ten persons refused the comforts of these Homes to one admitted.

Southern California Methodism made a belated beginning of this work to provide a haven for the worthy men and women of the denomination.

In the face of great financial stringency and a year of economic readjustments, the courageous spirit of the Board of Management and Trustees of The Pacific Old Peoples' Home has carried on. The Home has been maintained, it has grown some, it has no debt, and yet not one of the churches of the Southern California Conference has ever contributed to its support, with the exception of a five hundred annuity bond and ten dollars collection. This fact explains why the entrance fee is high and very little charity work can be done. It is not a charitable institution. People who come to live with us and those who come to board with us pay mostly their own way, in this conference, though it is probable that no equal area in the United States contains so large a percentage of old people.

Dr. L. T. Guild who was appointed a year ago to represent the Home in pulpits, dinner clubs, mid-week meetings, and to individuals, did very effective work in publicizing our Home in putting literature in the hands of people who will read it and also in forceful presentation in the pulpit.

Southern California has so great a number of aged people who need and desire Christian surroundings in their declining years that we ought now to begin some more adequate provision for them.

Repairs and renewals are made according to needs with careful economy. Rates for board were lowered, but still many rooms are vacant. We have many applications for admission but nearly all are persons in need of charity, who have lost their money with only a heavily encumbered home left as resources.

The Board of Trustees has given its valuable time free of charge. They deserve the appreciation of every friend of the Home.

The employees from the matron and the head nurse to the last of their assistants have given themselves unstintedly to their work and have rendered excellent services.

The religious atmosphere of the Home is a comfort and a pleasure. The superintendent conducts the family worship and also takes part in the prayer meetings on Wednesday evenings and they are seasons of refreshing. At the chapel services Sunday mornings we have listened to the presentation of God's word by the associate pastor, Dr. John C. Guenther and have often felt God's presence.

Personally, I will confess that this year has been the most strenuous of my work in the service of the institution; especially on account of the great financial depression it was not an easy task to be the treasurer, but it has been a labor of love.

To the Board of Trustees, to the different organizations, especially to the young people of the Los Angeles district Epworth League, who have shown such an interest in the Home, the Home workers and the Home family, I feel deeply indebted for the kind consideration in the work.

METHODIST HOSPITAL OF SOUTHERN CALIFORNIA

In presenting this twenty-ninth annual report of the Methodist Hospital of Southern California we, of the hospital, voice a consciousness of stewardship. Community in spirit, the personnel is tuned to the needs of the patient and in harmony with the professional and scientific practices of the day. Inspired by the love for man and in the Name of the Master, founded by the Woman's Home Missionary Society, the Society has continued to manifest interest and zeal in the hospital by sacrificial giving and labors of love.

The character of effort is symbolized by an institutional being of two hundred and fifty beds and equipment, and a Nurses' School comprising approximately one hundred students and trained supervisors.

Our fiscal year dates forward from July first to June thirtieth constituting a period of endless activity in receiving and caring for the sick and injured. Each of you will do well to better know and understand the methods of conduct of a well regulated Nurses' School and to evaluate the spiritual life and professional development and character growth of the well poised nurse. Upon graduation her material reward is nominal but this is balanced by the satisfaction of work well done.

During the year drawing to a close our wards and rooms have echoed with the audible expression of thanks and appreciation from 4,337 patients ministered to by trained lay and professional workers numbering 172. Each patient received an average of nine and two-tenths bed day service, the total bed days mounting to 38,830. Earned income from this service will amount to $232,000, or an average nearing $53.50 per patient served. These brief facts tend to refute the common impression that hospital charges are too high. They likewise strengthen our belief in the classification of our hospital as being charitable.

A final accounting of record will soon be made and from the experience of eleven months, prophecy is made that this year's work will be conducted without an operating deficit. Such an accomplishment will have been made possible only by drastic economies effecting the entire policy of operation. Our single and sincere regret is the failure to have been able to make large financial contribution to the retirement of capital bonded and interest indebtedness.

Rehabilitation of three sections of floors has taken place during the last year. Additions have been made to scientific equipment. These costs have been borne by the hospital and financed out of income. Since rehabilitating the Department of Obstetrics an increase of two hundred per cent is noted in the patronage of the department. But a small beginning has been made in meeting the need for complete plant maintenance. We contemplate a continuation of building and equipment improvement so long as earnings will finance such work or until the job is well done.

What of the future?

Are we to bear with silent fortitude the constant burden of debt? Or, will relief come through united effort of prayer and action by a Methodism determined to carry on?

One million dollars is needed to retire debt and to provide endowment, the endowment in turn to produce an income to be used only in promoting the charitable work of the hospital.

C. C. HURIN, Supt.

GOOD SAMARITAN HOSPITAL

For the past nine years in making this annual report to the Conference, it has always been a question in my mind whether I should be a pessimist or an optimist; report the good or bad; tell you of praise or criticism; be proud of our accomplishments or extremely humble over our failures. This year I have decided to give you some of both sides.

We have made a wonderful development, the product of faithful and diligent employees, loyal board members, skilled physicians and a host of interested friends.

During the past year we cared for 3,439 patients, an increase of a little over ten per cent. We always keep in mind that in all of our problems, that the patient is always first and must be considered above everything else. To care for this many patients it was necessary for us to expend $163,565.89 and we received from patients only $157,001.54, or a loss of $6,564.33 in our operating account. These figures do not include donations, totaling $19,795.19, which, if added to the above, would leave a net profit of $13,230.86.

I wonder if any other organization or private business could make a better report than that and I wish to call your attention to the fact that the charity work of the hospital the past year, as taken from the books by the auditor, amounted to $25,185.71, an increase of $7,817.45 over any previous year.

We have always prided ourselves in the belief that we could run an institution and balance the budget. But we are now frank to say that the demands for help, the calls for service and free work the past year under the most trying times we have ever experienced, were too strong for us and we had to report the above loss on operating expense.

But we are proud of our loss. We know it was justified. We want to carry our part and do everything possible for those poor unfortunates who need our service in times like this. We are also proud to quote Dr. Moots, the representative of the American College of Surgeons, who, after his annual examination, states, "I do not know a hospital in the United States that has made the progress you have in the past year."

Some of the items I feel will be of interest to you are the following: Cost per patient day, $5.61. This item includes free patients and interest charge. The patient day receipts reduced the past year 22 cents per day over the previous year, due to many patients taking a ward instead of a private room. To offset this 22 cents per day reduction, we reduced our operating expense per patient day 50 cents over the previous year. Interest charges 56 cents per patient day. Heat, light and power 36 cents per patient day.

Our last audit as of December 31st, 1931, not including value of grounds, which grounds are very valuable and consist of about seven acres in the city, give a valuation of $790,077.89 with total indebtedness of $282,490.91, making a surplus on buildings and equipment of $507,586.98. $32,000 of this is divided about equally between current bills and long time notes. $250,000 of this indebtedness was placed on the hospital some two years ago to build our new addition. Some people are now criticising us for that move. We knew at that time, that the need was there and we acted accordingly and we feel it will be badly needed again soon. However, that debt has caused us a great deal of concern during the past year because on June 15th just past the first payment on principal of this indebtedness was due. The bond house in St. Louis has consented to set forward our payments three years. We have been forced to materially reduce expenses. We have consolidated several positions and have reduced salaries approximately 30 per cent, and many of our employees are taking a six weeks or two months vacation with only two weeks pay.

The past year has been one of unprecedented depression, of universal financial break-down, of dire economic distress. Innumerable banks have broken, countless business firms have gone into bankruptcy and railroads and other commercial business houses have been threatened with failure. But the Good Samaritan Hospital has decreased her debts, carried a load of more than $30,000 of unpaid bills from people unable to meet this obligation for the time being, has rendered over $25,000 of unremunerative service, has increased her patronage and entered the new year with the spirit of hope and courage.

DEACONESS BOARD

In his stimulating and dynamic book, "The Science of Power," Benjamin Kidd, has a chapter on the place of woman in the coming civilization. The Methodist Episcopal Church, long before the famous author, caught the vision of women at work building the new society. Recognizing the possibilities of Christian ministry by consecrated womanhood it called young women to a specialized field of service as deaconesses.

The history of the Southern California Conference has many glorious pages written by these patient, gentle, burden-bearing ministers of Jesus. And your Deaconess Board is convinced that this type of ministry is not receiving the consideration it merits.

If the signs of the times do not lie, service to the distressed, the anxious, the burdened, the needy will be more in demand than ever.

That the type of work done by our deaconesses is of high value, is shown by the expressions coming from the fields where these consecrated women work—especially from the areas represented by the church of All Nations, the Plaza Community Center, and the Goodwill Industries. Among the polyglot population of the great city the deaconess is the connecting link between the church and the multitudes for whom Christ died. Indeed, these women are angels of mercy in nurseries, clinics, hospital cases, homes of need, and to the friendless in their hours of sorrow.

Then these specially trained workers have been serving as church parish visitors, secretaries, Directors of Young Peoples' Work, and Ministers of Religious Education. In one church this year, during the pastors severe illness, the deaconess "carried on so heroically as to win the hearty commendation of the church officials, the members and the congregation."

Nearly six thousand dollars in supplies have been furnished to individuals and families in need.

We desire to pay tribute to three of our retiring deaconesses, one of last year and two of this year. Miss Mamie Dodge, cook, retired last year, gave years of service as parish worker, and later officiated as chaplain at the hospital in Phoenix, Arizona.

Miss Demis Smith, who has served in the First Church of Los Angeles for the past 25 years, ministering in the name of Jesus to all who needed her help.

Miss Bertha Barber, was superintendent of our girls school at Aurora, Ill., for 25 years, since which time she has been in charge of the employment bureau at the Goodwill Industries, Los Angeles.

One of the tragic things for which the church cannot excuse itself is that, having called young women to dedicate themselves to this work, it has made no provision for their support in old age. It cannot speak effectively about justice for the aged in industry unless it shall care for its own. Old age pensions simply spells justice toward the worker whether in a factory or in the church.

CONFERENCE BOARD OF TRUSTEES

This has been a year that your Treasurer will not soon forget. The economic pressure has been so great, and in the midst of it our leader and counselor was stricken and went home to his coronation. Franklin D. Mather was an unusual man. He was not only a Christian gentleman, a Christian leader and thinker, but he was a statesman and financier. His going is a personal loss to me, and this Conference will never fully realize the loss that it has sustained. He knew values as few men do, which made him invaluable as a counselor. For 25 years he served this Conference as a Trustee, and for more than 20 years was the President of the Board. Our steps must be a bit longer and our judgment a bit better if we are to fill the gap and carry on. Brother Harry C. Slater was chosen by your Board to fill out the term, and his name will be presented to this session for election as one of your Trustees.

It will not be easy to make this report. To give you the true facts and conditions without giving fright, is not an easy thing to do under the terrific strain of the financial situation. You are entitled to the facts, and we purpose to give them to you. Your Board of Trustees has worked diligently and well, but its members have not relied entirely upon their own judgment, but have counselled with the best financial minds of Southern California. Even with this care being taken, some mistakes have been made, for no one is able in these times to tell what is the best thing to do in all cases.

We are glad, however, to bring you a note of thanksgiving. With concern after concern going out of business, with banks closing in many places, with every philanthropic and charitable institution suffering greatly, and some of them having to quit entirely, with our own Methodist Book Concern showing a deficit for the year, and with most of our national boards of the church far in arrears, we have every reason to give thanks today when we can bring you a report that does not show a deficit, but a small profit. We are far from happy over the showing, for it will be more than $20,000 less than last year, but we are happy to say that every bill of every kind has been paid in full, and we are coming to this session with the credit of the Conference showing no blot or stain on it.

For the first time in the history of this Conference the last payment to the claimants had to be cut in two, and not until last week was the final payment made. We have been asked many times why this could have happened, when the minutes of last year show a sufficient sum to pay these claims for the entire year. The reasons are these: Knowing the financial conditions of many of our claimants at Conference time last year, and knowing that some of them would suffer if the rate was reduced, I asked the Board of Trustees to vote, from a surplus fund we had been accumulating through the years, a sufficient sum to maintain the rate of $25 per year of service for another year. This your Board consented to do, and no one foresaw the hardship it would create. In ordinary times it would have been easy to care for this additional amount, but with a falling money market, with the inability to cash in on investments, this surplus already having been invested, it was impossible to call this money in, and therefore impossible to pay the claimants by that much. While it was necessary to take additional time in order to care for this amount, yet we are glad to say that every dollar paid into the fund from apportionments or from profits on investments, was paid to the claimants. No money has been lost by the transaction, the claimants have profited by it, but from the criticisms that have come, both from the church and the claimants, I doubt if it has been worth the trouble.

We are presenting to you today the statement of our Auditors. Every year our accounts are carefully audited by Certified Public Accountants, and not one dollar comes in or goes out of our office that does not come under their review. For the protection of those who have given us money on annuity contracts, a copy of the Auditor's report is filed with the Insurance Commissioner of the State.

Upon the best advice obtainable, we are not trying to sell any of our real estate, but we are endeavoring to get out of it as much profit as possible. We have almost no unimproved property, just one small lot. You will note that the value of our real estate has increased considerably since last year. There are three reasons for this: One is that we have had additional gifts of property; second, that deeds have been given us for property on which we held mortgages; and, third, we have exchanged unimproved for improved, thus bettering our position. So far we have not foreclosed on any one, but we have tried to deal with those in trouble in a way that would be fair to them and at the same time safeguard our interests.

We do not deal in stocks, although we have a few that have been given to us. We have never purchased any, and do not intend to do so. We have had a good deal of difficulty with our bonds, and some of them are in jeopardy at this time. We are glad to report that conditions are some better, and some of our holdings have worked out better than we anticipated. We believe we will be able to work out most of our bond holdings with but a minimum of loss.

It has been a trying year, and we are not sure we have reached the end of the difficulties, but we are encouraged by recent developments. We still believe this fund can be put on a sound financial basis. The present economic condition has given us a temporary set-back, but with patience and care it should work out satisfactorily. We are expecting that some genuine sacrifices will have to be put into it, but it offers a challenge to this Conference. When the World War was declared, one of the cities of Germany had a great building started, which had to be left standing uncompleted. For years after the war it still stood as a spectre to taunt them, but one day it was finished, and today it stands as a great monument to their patience and sacrifice, and on the top of it there was put these four significant words—IN SPITE OF EVERYTHING. This Fund for the Retired Preachers must not fail. It must be carried to a successful conclusion.

Your Treasurer has worked for three years on a plan for the funding of the accumulated years of the men now in the active service, so that when they come to retire their years would not be a liability on the Conference. The plan was to have been presented to this session of the Conference, but conditions are not right for it being started at this time. We could, however, suggest the appointment of a committee of five laymen and five preachers, to work with the Treasurer, so that at the first possible moment such a plan may be presented. Our only hope is in getting some way to stop the increase that will come with each succeeding year.

COMMISSION ON FINANCE

In presenting the report of the Commission on Finance we are privileged for the first time to have the consideration of the laymen to help us in this field. There never was a time when the decisions as to the financial program of the Church needed more expert and painstaking consideration than this year, and secondly there never was a time when such large opportunities for service awaited the response of a united church. In both these fields the cooperation of the laymen may be the keynote to success.

According to the action of the Conference last year asking the Commission to investigate the overhead expenses, the Commission has entered thoroughly into the spirit of the request. In the days of the creation of the Commission, its chief business, was to examine the many new fields waiting for the cooperation of active and aggressive churches in furthering the interests of the Kingdom with their gifts. This year the problem was to conserve our resources to the utmost.

In order to accomplish these ends your commission appointed small committees from their membership, both laymen and ministers to consider the reduction of running expenses, possible reductions in the new apportionments, more equitable methods of distributing the travel and entertainment fund.

Conference Claimants: The largest item on our apportionments is for Conference Claimants. Those who are our Conference Claimants are the retired members of our Conference, the widows and minor children of deceased Conference members. In accordance with the orders of the General Conference this is figured on the basis of so much per year for the years spent in the active ministry. Last year our estimates were on the basis of $25.00 per year of service for our retired brethren, (and proportionately for widows and orphans). Our recommendation for this year is at the rate of $20.00 per year of active service. This is a reduction of one fifth,—20%. Our fear is that even with this reduction the total assessment will be as large as last year for two reasons that are beyond our control, the return from our permanent investments will show a shrinkage in common with all such investments, and the other item is the years added by the retirement of many men from the active ranks this year. The people who suffer if the apportionment is not met are the old saint of God whose day's work is finished, or the widow who shared his toil, or the little children of some good soldier who has fallen in the fight.

District Superintendents: The Committee appointed to consider reductions in next year's apportionments gave a great amount of attention to the question of reducing the number of districts, and keeping the salaries of the Superintendents at a point where their efficiency would not be impaired, or the other alternative of reducing salaries and probably keeping the districts as they are. The committee decided at first on a reduction in the number of districts, but when the injustice of forcing this situation on a new Bishop, utterly unfamiliar with our problems was recognized, the idea of reducing the districts this year was abandoned, and the other alternative selected. It was finally agreed that for the coming year the salary of the District Superintendents be set at $3600 with $600 for traveling expenses, and $720 for house rent, making a total of $4920 for each superintendent. That $500 be allowed for rent at the Headquarters, and that District Parsonage assessments be discontinued. This is a reduction altogether of 15 per cent.

The Commission requests me to state to the Conference that the District Superintendents declined to vote on the question of their salaries; but pledged their cooperation to the Commission in seeking an adjustment of all these matters.

—3—

Conference Church Schools and Wesley Foundation: The Commission recommends that we eliminate these items from our Conference apportionments, and ask instead the designation from the Board of Education of $11,000 to cover these items; and that the Treasurer of our Conference be asked to indicate the amount necessary for each Church to designate in World Service money to raise this amount. The items are as follows:

To cover apportionment for Church Schools	$3,000
To cover askings of Board of Education	3,000
Wesley Foundation at Berkeley	700
Wesley Foundation at Fresno	600
Wesley Foundation at Los Angeles (U.C.L.A.)	2,700
Wesley Foundation at Tempe (State Teachers)	200
Wesley Foundation at Tucson (State University)	200
Wesley Foundation at Stanford	600	$11,000

—4—

City Missionary Society. We recommend to the City Missionary Society that their askings be not more than $12,000, a reduction of 20 per cent.

—5—

M. and E. The apportionment for Missionary and Evangelistic Society shall be $18,000, a reduction of 10 per cent.

—6—

Office Expense. We recommend that the Commission and Area Expense account shall be called "Office Expense" and that the amount shall be apportioned as follows:

Our Portion of Salary of Treasurer	$ 500
Our Bookkeeping and Accounting	2,000
For Stationery and Postage	520
Our Share of Rent	480
Our Share of Area Expense	500	$4,000

This is a reduction of 20 per cent.

—7—

Annual Conference Expense Fund. We recommend that for next year entertainment and travel allowance be at the rate of $1.50 per day for entertainment, and travel at the rate of 1 cent a mile for 200 miles or less, and 2 cents for distances over 200 miles, plus $2.00 per night for one night each way for those traveling over 350 miles each way, this for both laymen and ministers. This is a reduction of 17½ per cent.

For publication of Minutes, $1800. Number to be published, 4,000 instead of 5,100.

For this year, we recommend that the treasurer be assured of our support in administering the fund to the most needy cases, men coming long distances, and on small salaries; and further that for this year, those more able to do so relinquish their claim against this fund.

—8—

Church Federation: The apportionment for State Church Federation shall be $2,700, a reduction of 28 per cent.

—9—

General Conference Expense. The apportionment for General Conference Expense shall be set at $2,600, a reduction of 25 per cent.

In order to complete the item of overhead expense, we are glad to report that the committee tabulated all the items of expenses of the office in the headquarters, and reported that careful scrutiny was being exercised over all expenditures, and that salaries were being reduced wherever possible in conformity with the lowered standards incident to the depression.

HARRY W. WHITE.

Supplemental Report on the Items Referred to the Commission on Finance.

A special meeting of the Commission on Finance was called at 1:30 Thursday afternoon to consider the items referred to it on the motion of Andrew W. Shamel on Wednesday morning. Twelve members were present, and Edward W. Stricker was elected Chairman pro tem.

Andrew W. Shamel was invited to attend and express his views on the items submitted.

After a full discussion it was decided:

1. That in the matter of the merging of the offices of the Board of Education and "The Young Peoples Work", we recommend that they stay as they are.

2. That in the matter of the reduction of the districts from 6 to 4 it was recommended that a commission be appointed to go into the whole subject of the reduction of Districts; and that they report their recommendations in the matter to the Conference next year. It was further decided that we recommend that the six districts be continued for this year.

THE FELLOWSHIP FUND

Revised Plan of Organization and Administration

Name

1. The name of this Fund shall be the Fellowship Fund.
2. We recommend that all effective members of the Southern California Conference shall be participating members of this fund, except those who are employed in the regular annual missions.

Minimums

3. We recommend for participating members a minimum salary schedule as follows:
 - a. Single men in full time appointments: $1,000 and living quarters.
 - b. Married men in full time appointments: $1,350 and parsonage.
 - c. Married men in our traveling connection for four years or more: $1,600 and parsonage.
 - d. (1) To participants receiving a sub-minimum salary, a grant of $50 shall be made at the birth of each child.
 - (2) Additions shall be made to the amount of minimum salary on account of children, as follows: $50 for each child five years of age or under; $100 for each child between the ages of six and twelve years inclusive; and, on unanimous recommendation of the District Fellowship Fund Committee, $125 for each dependant child between the ages of thirteen and twenty years inclusive.
 - e. The minimum salary schedule shall be fixed by the Annual Conference each year for the succeeding year, upon recommendation of the Commission on Finance and the Fellowship Fund Committee, changes from year to year to be consonant with the fluctuation of economic factors involved.

Bases of Sharing

 - a. We recommend that all participating members contribute to the fund quarterly in advance the following percentages of their cash salary, inclusive of cash income from Missionary and Evangelistic Fund, City Missionary Society and Board of Home Missions: Under \$1,999, $\frac{1}{2}$ per cent; \$2,000 to \$2,999, 1 per cent; \$3,000 to \$3,999, $1\frac{1}{2}$ per cent; \$4,000 to \$4,999, 2 per cent; \$5,000 and over, $2\frac{1}{2}$ per cent.
 - b. In the event a member owns his home, or pays cash rent, the actual rental value or rent paid shall be deducted from cash salary to determine the basis of his share in the Fund.

Adjustments

5. We request the District Superintendents to readjust charges, particularly by forming circuits, in order to provide self-sustaining charges paying at least a minimum salary.

Administration

6.
 - a. We recommend that the Fellowship Fund be administered by the Fellowship Fund Committee, composed of five participating ministers, under the direction and subject to the approval of the Commission on Finance.
 - b. We recommend that 10 per cent of all receipts be set aside for emergency needs, the funds thus secured to be expended for such needs as they arise, or at the time of the Annual Conference.
 - c. We recommend that the Annual Conference appoint for each district a committee of three laymen, three pastors and the District Superintendent, whose duty it shall be to investigate each pastoral charge to which appropriations are proposed, and recommend such appropriations to the Fellowship Fund Committee and the Commission of Finance only when in the judgment of the committee such charges have done all in their power to meet such standards.
 - d. Nothing in this plan prevents payments from the fund to any participant who receives a sub-minimum salary, whether he or anyone else anticipated that such would be the case at the beginning of the conference year.

Standards in the Ministry

7 We heartily commend the faithful work of the Conference Relations Committee and the Board of Ministerial Instruction in safeguarding the doorway to the Conference. We urge continued and constant diligence in order that our standard salary minimum may not serve as a refuge for inefficiency and ministerial indolence.

F. M. TOOTHAKER.

GERMAN MERGER

Your commission desires to report that every possible step is being taken to conserve the property interests involved in the merger with the California German Conference, but this business requires patience and time. To the end that all the values inherent in this merger may be saved to this Conference it is important that the commission that effected the plans for the merger shall be continued until this work is completed. We therefore request the continuance of this commission.

Your commission desires to submit the minutes of its meeting as a matter of official record:

"The Commission on Merger of the California German Conference with the Southern California Conference met in the Chamber of Commerce on June 8, 1932. Present: E. J. Inwood, Willsie Martin, A. Ray Moore, J. H. Durbahn, W. C. Schmutzler, R. Zurbuchen, and H. D. Kamp.

"After considering various reports it was resolved that A. Ray Moore and J. H. Durbahn be a committee on property formerly vested in the California German Conference, located within the bounds of the California Conference.

J. H. Durbahn reported for our property in Stockton that he had written to Professor Schilpp who is on the staff of the College of the Pacific and also supplying our small congregation in Stockton. No reply has been received to date. Thus the status of this property remains unchanged.

"W. C. Schmutzler reported that the church and income property in San Diego now belongs to the Southern California Conference. Finally, it was resolved that because of unfinished business this commission on Merger be continued for another year."

H. D. KAMP, Secretary,
WILLSIE MARTIN, Chairman.

SOCIAL PROBLEMS, INTERNATIONAL RELATIONS AND STATE OF THE CHURCH

The General Conference of the Church meeting in Atlantic City considered in a truly Christian seriousness most of the world's painful needs, the summarization of which has been committed to this committee of the Annual Conference. We urge each lay and clerical member of this Annual Conference to study at once these General Conference pronouncements, to the end that he may know intimately their significance and proceed to make them effective in his community service. For the first time the Church has concerned itself with certain vital issues of life, and no Methodist may lack courage in declaring as well as living Christ-like attitudes in every realm. Included within this report are many of the vital pronouncements of our last General Conference.

Economic Situation. The present economic crisis comes as both a spur and a rebuke to the Christian Church operating within, and supported by, the present social order, and all too largely conforming to it.

It is basic in the religion of Jesus that mankind is one great family, organically bound together, sharing the Father's love, its members finding their greatest joy in mutual service for the common good. Whatever be our social pattern, the people who call themselves Christian are bound by their profession to live by this vision, and to kindle its flame in all whom they touch. By its light we see clearly that human values must take precedence over all others. The human fact outweighs the property fact, the ecclesiastical fact, the traditional fact, and the institutional fact.

The least definition with which the Christian conscience can be satisfied is that society is an organized cooperation for providing the largest possible measure of life for the greatest possible number of its members. Our present social order fails even to approximate this definition. Viewed in the large we cannot escape the conclusion that a more equitable distribution of wealth is basic.

The present industrial order is unchristian, unethical and anti-social because it is a direct appeal to selfishness. We ask that our Christian leaders direct the attention of our people, especially the young, to the difference between profits of honest toil and the securing of something for nothing by the devices of chance. Selfishness is never morally right, never Christian, and eventually never benefits anybody. A satisfactory social organism cannot grow out of an unsocial seed.

The present calamity is becoming increasingly threatening, so that it makes imperative a reconstruction of our economic order. We must stir the conscience of mankind to create a social way of life in which all men have opportunity to develop their capacities to the fullest possible extent.

Suggestive Action. We urge the appointment of a Commission by the President of the United States, under the authority of the Congress, to consist of representatives of the Executive and Legislative Departments of the Federal Government, distinguished leaders in Labor, Industry and Agriculture and outstanding Professors of Economics and Social Sciences in our Universities to report concerning remedies for the present economic disorders, and to consider the following propositions.

1. The replacement of our present policy of unplanned competitive industrialism by a planned industrialism definitely aiming at the assurance of economic security.
2. Modification of our Anti-Trust Laws.
3. The granting of the right of industry to organize in a definite way and regulate itself under Federal supervision.
4. The creating and empowering of a Commission or Commissions to regulate the industries organized under this permissive law.
5. The offsetting of technological and general unemployment by shortening the hours of labor.
6. The introduction of compulsory unemployment insurance, accident and disability insurance, the old age pensions, planned and administered on the sound basis of actuarial experience.
7. The abolition of child labor.
8. The investigation of the needs of the Nation for public works to be carried on by Federal, State and municipal agencies in periods of business depression and unemployment.
9. The suppression of gambling. In none of its forms is it a greater danger to organized society than in the form of stock gambling, with the pyramiding of false values, which crush the innocent in their fall, and destroy true values without regard to the interest of the legitimate investor. Stock speculation in its various forms, short selling of securities and market pool manipulations, disturb the confidence of the people and the business structure and constitute a serious injustice to legitimate industry, commerce and finance, frequently depriving useful corporations and individuals of that access to credit which is essential to prosperity.

Social Urges. 1. We oppose all forms of race discrimination and demand that our Church shall operate without discrimination against any person on account of either race or nation.

2. We urge upon our national and local governments that they plan and provide for adequate housing so as to make possible better home-building and the elimination of slums.

3. We urgently request National supervision of both the production and distribution of moving pictures. We vigorously protest the block-booking system in vogue and deplore an impression created abroad concerning American customs and institutions. The billboard advertising is often worse than the pictures, the shorts more salacious than the features. At no time has the industry made any reasonable attempt to enact the moral codes so often press-paraded from the office of the movie czar, Mr. Will Hays. Until hypocrisy is less flagrant, or adequate nationwide machinery is set up to correct the same, we call upon our people to establish boards of review wherever possible that the morals of growing children may have some safeguard. This statement is made in the interest of decency and social health for our own and future generations.

4. "Men who never differ from the majority never find themselves denied the constitutional right of free speech, free press, and free assembly. But men whose Americanism is real do not flinch from the duty of defending the right of even men whose opinions they despise."

The American answer to hunger and unrest is not suppression nor police violence, but through public and free discussions of perplexing problems confronting all of us for which no one individual or group has the complete solution. We stand for the constitutional rights of free speech, free assembly, and free press as essential rights of citizenship. We urge every pastor and church to promote adult education through studying present economic conditions, and prepare people for a constructive rather than a destructive solution of our present difficulties.

5. We hold that lynching is inhuman, irrational, and thoroughly criminal. We are unalterably opposed to it under any circumstances and will use every resource at our command to end it everywhere.

6. "Through enticing and seductive advertising by radio, press and billboards, the malicious and greedy tobacco interests have missed no opportunity to aim their poison darts directly at their intended victims, the youth of the world, regardless of sex, and we who oppose their nefarious and enslaving schemes must likewise appeal to the youth, enlisting its vision, its courage, its idealism and its indomitable enthusiasm in a determined combat with a conscienceless enemy.

7. We urge federal and state authorities to repress radio broadcasting of degrading nature and to restrict within reasonable limits the commercialization of all communications by air.

8. We heartily commend the "Methodist Federation for Social Service" and urge all our leaders to subscribe for the Bulletin, while at the same time we endorse the pamphlets of the Delaware Conference entitled, "The Significance of Jesus Christ in the Modern World," together with those of the "Call to Social Action Conference" so recently held in Chicago.

9. We perceive that many workers both in the city and country are suffering from unemployment without adequate opportunity to make their condition known; hence, we heartily endorse hearings and urge our pastors and churches to give the fullest possible cooperation to such hearings in every part of our country.

10. We condemn recent numerous arrests and imprisonment of men throughout the state on "suspicion of criminal syndicalism," as a violation of fundamental human rights; and we urge the repeal of the California Criminal Syndicalism law in the interest of that for which we plead in this utterance.

Prohibition. We deeply deplore the fact that the two major political parties have failed to write into their platforms adequate statements dealing with the apparent beginnings of the collapse of our civilization. We are more than sorry to see them use the prohibition issue as a smoke screen so that the people may not be so conscious of their failure to face, along with the facts concerning the Eighteenth Amendment, other overwhelming economic and social issues. We are chagrined that the men nominated for President by our major political parties are consenting to a moral retreat in connection with prohibition and are willing to run on a platform which is not clear cut, statesmanlike, nor forward looking. In fact, "if Congress and the old political parties do not move soon, will it not be timely to call for a changed political alignment and a new liberal political party to stand for economic justice based upon Christian ethics, and also upon those standards of sobriety, temperance, and moral reform for which the church has always stood?"

A determined effort is being made to repeal the California Enforcement act of the Eighteenth Amendment, known as the "Wright Act," and in such effort we see a great danger to the moral and spiritual forces of our Commonwealth. Should the Wright Act be repealed, all possibility of state enforcement of the Eighteenth Amendment to the Constitution of the United States would practically cease, and the work of a lifetime or more would be abrogated. We have slumbered too long. We must arouse ourselves, put on the armor of righteousness, gird ourselves for the conflict, realize the tremendous importance of the Wright Act on our statute books, and by the use of every honest means available,—organization, cooperation, distribution of literature, speaking, preaching, personal contacts, use of the ballot, etc.—administer such a stinging defeat to these forces of lawlessness that they shall never again raise their voice in nullification. Let our watchword be, "The Wright Act is right and shall not be repealed."

We, the Southern California Methodist Episcopal Conference, request the District Superintendents to call for a report in their Quarterly Conferences from the Temperance Superintendents in every Sunday School in the Conference, and do all in their power to have this education carried on effectively in each church.

World Peace. We approach the question of world peace with the conviction that great and effective actions are now necessary. Experience teaches us all war is futile in achieving any Christian values for life, that hate and malevolence as well as murder, the cherished instruments of war, cannot work for any true good to any nation, and cannot and must not be sanctioned by any Christian hearing the words of the Master, "They that take the sword shall perish by the sword."

Relative to the subject of world peace we feel that we should stand in harmony with the expressions of our last two General Conferences, in the declaration that "we set ourselves to create the will to peace, the conditions for peace, and the organization of peace." We see no hope for the new way except as among the institutions of civilization, peace machinery shall become as effective and forceful as have been the organizations of political and military factors for ages.

We believe that the sole guilt for the World War does not rest with the German nation and that justice demands that the League of Nations should modify the charge to the effect found in an article of the Versailles Treaty.

We also agree with the contention that further reparations, based upon the article should not be demanded of the German people and are convinced that in the interest of prosperity and of peace, the United States might be willing to work for a readjustment of the war debt agreements, bringing them into harmony with the present economic situation with a drastic reduction of armaments and military expenditures.

We also stand opposed to the military training in the high schools and to compulsory military training in colleges and universities, and recommend that the agencies of our church be used for peace and not for war.

We also recommend that since 59 governments of the world signed the Pact of Paris, that direct steps be taken to abolish the weapons designed primarily for aggressive purposes. The Versailles Treaty in forcing the disarmament of Germany solemnly declared it was done "in order to render possible an initiation of limitation of armaments of all nations." We believe that the signatories to that treaty are morally and legally bound to general reduction of armaments.

We feel that the President of the United States and the Secretary of State are to be commended for taking the position that our government will not recognize any situation, treaty, or agreement, which may be brought about by any treaty agreements in contravention to the Peace Pact, and rejoice that the same was ratified by the Council of the League of Nations.

We would urge the United States to ratify the World Court protocols and also to enter the League of Nations with such Senate reservations as would harmonize with the constitution of the League and the Paris Pact.

We also heartily agree with the General Conference recommendation for education for peace and the modification of the present Immigration Act.

We also rejoice that the General Conference did make our own the expressions of the Executive Committee of the Federal Council of Churches, relative to naturalization, citizenship and the rights of those who have a conscience that forbids participation in war.

We urge Methodists everywhere to take definite and strong positions with reference to these questions and help to create the will and the technique for peace.

G. A. WARMER.

GOOD WILL INDUSTRIES

Goodwill Industries was called into the Kingdom of Service for such a time as this when unemployment and distress has sapped the strength and weakened the morale of thousands. With its program of work and wages for the handicapped and needy, supplemented by the spiritual inspiration which is so important a part of its work, Goodwill has faithfully represented the church and done its service this past year. In this Conference from scores of towns and cities have come the bags and materials, cast-offs from more than 300,000 homes, given to provide more than 2000 different persons with over a million hours of work for which they received over $350,000. Our own Goodwills have done one-sixth of all the business done by the thirty-eight Goodwill Industries in America.

We did a total business last year of $516,000 with a deficit of only $17,000, the first in its history. An average of 511 persons per day were given employment. There are active and efficient branches at Santa Ana, San Bernardino, and Long Beach. San Diego is an independent organization, which doubled its 1930 record in 1931 and is steadily moving forward under Myron Insko's leadership.

In each of these Goodwills there is shown a fine cooperation with local organizations. Los Angeles is in the Community Chest, though for only about one and a half per cent of its budget. San Diego has been taken into the Chest. It also cooperates with the County. Santa Ana was selected by a civic emergency relief committee to conduct a splendid wood-yard project, the most constructive effort of that city. San Bernardino has been the only organization there supplying work as a relief measure. Long Beach is capturing the interest of the whole city as it overcomes obstacles and serves the community 100 per cent.

Goodwill is not one of the Conference benevolences in the matter of financial support, but its supporters are most surely our church members. About 93 per cent of its income came from the sale of renovated and salvaged articles last year. The cash donations must be increased for many of the beneficiaries are not able to fully earn what they must receive. In Los Angeles the Sears Roebuck Company and employees most generously contributed from their unemployment fund and most heartily approved our methods. If all of our church members would support these Goodwills of our own Methodism instead of distributing too generally to similar organizations, a much larger work could be done.

San Diego has a new truck and pressing machine. Long Beach was given laundry equipment and is purchasing a complete shoe repair outfit. San Bernardino has added several small trucks. Los Angeles has had to buy several new trucks for replacements.

The most ambitious program has been that of Los Angeles for a new building under the direction of E. F. Gates. A splendid new site was secured by gift, worth $50,000. Plans for the new building have been drawn, and he reports that half the amount for a $50,000 first unit is in sight in gifts, pledges, or bequests, and that the new unit should be under construction by early next year.

Credit enough cannot be given to the Ladies Aid Societies and other women's organizations of the church for their tireless efforts in behalf of Goodwill.

We desire every church to feel that Goodwill is part of our great Methodist program. This year distant churches and circuits have gathered and sent old clothing to the nearest Goodwills, often arranging for its transportation. Goodwill is a great City Missions Barrel, which all can help fill. The rummage sale is a relic of careless, unthinking, financial and relief methods. Goodwill is socially scientific, is Golden Rule Christian in its motives and methods.

F. H. BLAIR.

CALIFORNIA STATE CHURCH FEDERATION

In the California State Church Federation there are representatives of the denominations in the state representing 80 per cent of the total Protestant church members.

Without doubt, the denominational Superintendents Council, of which there are four in the state, affiliated with the State Church Federation represent the most significant work of the Protestant Christian churches in this generation. During the past six months there have been discussed no less than 218 questions, in which all Protestant denominations are especially interested. One of the most important departments of their work is the allocating of communities to denominations and denominational community churches, thus eliminating competition, saving missionary money and making more effective the work of the churches. A survey of the United States shows that more people will attend one church and one Sunday School in a community, than the combined attendance of four churches in a similar community. A study of the allocations in California through the organization of the State Church Federation indicates that the denominations are saving at least $50,000 annually.

Four of the most significant organizations in the state have been the outcome of the work of the California State Church Federation: the Federated Church in the Yosemite National Park; the Institution of International Relations which was once a department of the California State Church Federation; the movement which resulted in the Hoover Dam Interdenominational Council, which has the support of ten denominations and the cooperation of the contractors of the great Hoover Dam. This movement is now supported by the National Missionary Societies. Possibly the most significant institution is the University Religious Center at U.C.L.A. This has well been called, "An Historical Religious Event"; and by an eastern paper, "A Miracle in California." It provides a center, cooperatively used by Protestants, Jews and Roman Catholics. The building cost $50,000.

In harmony with the actions of the annual meeting, the Executive Committee and the departments, the Executive Secretary has written articles for various papers on World Disarmament, International Relations and other national questions approved by this organization, and letters to the President of the United States, the California Senators and twenty-four other members of Congress. In order to promote these movements, we have published three issues of the Federation News, with a circulation of 2500 copies, going to the clergymen in the state—a total of about 2600—and to many laymen. In addition, we have sought publicity in frequent articles sent to all the denominational church papers in the State. Wide publicity has been given to the University Religious Center at U.C.L.A., articles have appeared not only in local papers but in eastern papers, including the Boston Transcript and also the British Weekly, published in London.

Week Day Religious Education outside of the public schools is one of the causes which we are promoting to the full extent of our financial ability.

A large advance has been made in cooperation with the Superintendents of the Mexican work throughout the United States. The Superintendents are now members of the Superintendents Council.

Owing to the standing of the State Church Federation and its effective methods of putting forward movements in which the churches are interested, the Executive Secretary has been called upon to take part in various organizations for public welfare. He has accepted these positions only in harmony with the resolutions of the annual meeting, or after consultation with members of the Executive Committee. He is a member of the State Board of Strategy for Prohibition and of the Southern California Board, of which he is chairman of the publicity committee. He is also a member of the Board of Golden Rule Foundation, the Non-hoarding Society in the interest of employment, and the Los Angeles World Court Committee.

We are glad to report that because of the cooperation of the denominations and the assistance of individual contributors, we have all our bills paid to date. We are facing, however, a serious situation and earnestly request all affiliated denominations to make as large contributions as possible for the finances for the coming year. Our budget is fixed by the annual meeting and our accounts are audited annually by a certified public accountant.

PERMANENT SEAT OF THE CONFERENCE

A year ago the Pacific Palisades Association in all good faith extended an invitation to make the Pacific Palisades the permanent seat of this Conference after 1932, (which invitation was accepted by this Conference); the Association giving assurance that necessary improvements could be made by that time so as to care for the Conference in an adequate fashion. But economic conditions have made it impossible for the Pacific Palisades Association to make these improvements and since, moreover, there seems to be no likelihood that these improvements can be guaranteed for the immediate future, your Committee on the Permanent Seat of the Conference recommends that the action of the last Annual Conference on this matter be reconsidered and rescinded.

WILLSIE MARTIN.

COMMISSION TO COOPERATE WITH THE PACIFIC PALISADES BOARD ON EQUIPMENT FOR ENTER- TAINMENT OF ANNUAL CONFERENCE

This commission was appointed in pursuance of the action of the 1931 session of the conference (See 1931 Minutes, pp 30 and 109), Report of the Committee on Permanent Location of the Conference, Sec. 7:

"That a commission of five be raised by the Conference to cooperate with the Board of Trustees of the Pacific Palisades Association for the development of equipment adequate for the needs of the Conference."

Technically this places very definite limitation upon the function of the commission. In view of the report of the Pacific Palisades Association, the Commission reports that the Association has found it impossible to make the contemplated improvements, and that there are no prospects that this can be done during the coming year.

It is the judgment of the Commission, however, that it would be possible for the Conference to be entertained at Pacific Palisades next year with the present physical equipment. We should frankly face the fact that this could not be done with the same comforts and conveniences that some other places offer. Nevertheless, if the Conference generally is willing to go cheerfully to Pacific Palisades next year, it would greatly hearten the Trustees, encourage the community, and help to stabilize the institution for future service. To go in any other spirit would be fatal. Therefore we recommend that a vote be taken on the question of holding the next session of the conference at Pacific Palisades, and that a three-fourths affirmative vote of the members present and voting be required to carry the question.

HISTORICAL SOCIETY

Immediately after adjournment of conference last year, each district superintendent was requested to call the attention of the first quarterly conference of every charge to the five recommendations made in our report, printed on page 109 of the Minutes of 1931. All replied but one, saying that they would take pleasure in doing so. No results are known to your committee. Without such cooperation on the part of superintendents, pastors and local conferences, little can be accomplished. We therefore ask that the annual conference request that the consideration of these five recommendations be made a part of the order of business of the first quarterly conference in each charge:

1. A careful study by every pastor of the "Church Roll and Pastoral Assignments" in the Conference Minutes, with a view to making corrections by placing same in hands of Secretary W. C. Botkin. This record is very valuable.

2. An accurate preparation of the Pastoral and Statistical Record in the old "Ideal" Church Record to be found in nearly every charge. This conspectus is very important.

3. A permanent bound volume of local history in every charge, a portion of which may well be devoted to the preservation of newspaper clippings and other printed matter of church interest.

4. The binding in a permanent form each year of a file of the church bulletin and special programs.

5. The annual observance in a worthy way of a "Founders Day" celebrating the date of organization of each church.

You have been told ad nauseam that the pastor is the "key" man. Nevertheless your committee suggests that the success of our effort to rescue historical data already all but lost, depends entirely upon the interest taken by each pastor in securing and recording the facts concerning his own charge and the charges which he has served.

WORSHIP AND MUSIC

Your Commission is privileged to report that the General Conference Commission on Worship and Music has revised the suggested Orders of Service which they had sent out for the evaluation of the church; and as a result of the reactions received they have issued two later suggested Orders of Service, with the John Wesley Service offered for occasional use. The two new Orders are considerably simplified from the ones previously issued. Your Commission recommends Order No. 1 for the use of most of our churches. These can be secured in leaflet form from the Book Concern, and can be fastened inside the Hymn Book covers for the use of our congregations. The General Conference Commission has also prepared a Worship Service Booklet, a pamphlet on the Minister as a Leader in Public Worship, a List of Anthems, Scripture Sentences and Responses, and a Book of Choral Responses. These offer us much information and help.

If, however, the minister prefers to formulate his own worship service, we urgently advise that the fundamental elements of a worship experience be embodied in the service, in psychological order. Our services should present the thought of God to the soul of the worshipper; and the consequent experience of humiliation and repentance before God should be followed by assurances of the divine forgiveness to whomsoever is truly repentant. Then should follow: praise and thanks to the Lord to whom belong mercies and forgivenesses; the perceiving of God's plan and purpose for us in life; and the consecration of ourselves to fulfill that high calling, and to do that holy will.

The Commission on the Revision of the Hymnal reports that some two hundred hymns have been removed, generally because they were defective in poetic expression, were inferior duplicates of other hymns, or were little used. No favorite by any writer has been excluded. There is no diminution of Methodist emphasis. One hundred sixty-three hymns from other hymnals have been accepted, some of which are the stirring recent hymns of service and brotherhood. There will be in the new Hymnal a section of the so-called Gospel Songs, in which will be included the highest kind of evangelistic hymns. Some seventy-six tunes have been replaced by new tunes or adaptations. The responsive readings will contain a number of New Testament readings, and some authorities have pronounced them the best collection of such readings in existence. We therefore await with high anticipation the publication of the new Methodist Hymnal.

Your Commission would call your attention to the great value of an overlooked musical resource in our present Hymnal. The chant as a form of musical worship is almost entirely unused in our churches. Yet this is practically the only form in which the Scripture can be sung without first being turned into verse, which process means a distinct loss in the power and authority of the Scriptural language. The chant, which requires no soloists, might well be often used in the place of the usual anthem, to the enrichment of the worshipful nature of our services, and to the elimination of the element of personal display.

We would also commend to our brethren the occasional use of periods of silent worship in prayer or meditation; and the use of directed prayer—the minister suggesting certain objects of petition, with intervals of silence for the prayers of the people. Affirmations wherein our faith is positively expressed, especially in Scriptural language, can also be made exceedingly helpful. We recommend, also, that on certain occasions the congregations be dismissed at the conclusion of the sermon, so that its message may remain in memory as the climax of the spiritual impressions received.

We who are ministers have need, also, to remember that we must be not merely conductors of the worship of others, but participants with our people in the experiences which we seek to have the occasion bring to them. Unless we ourselves feel what we wish our people to feel, and go with them to the heights they should attain, the service will be a performance instead of an offering of ourselves unto God.

In one of the Devotional Meetings of the recent General Conference, Bishop Baker quoted W. A. Brown as defining worship thus: "Worship is the reverent outgoing of the spirit toward God, the result of seeing in Him the source of truth and beauty, of holiness and goodness, of life and love." And Dr. Betts has written, "Worship is the active will and purpose to realize in one's own self the highest qualities ascribed to the Being worshipped."

To assist the upreach of man's soul towards God, he needs and uses many methods and agencies—lights and darkenesses, ceremonial, ritual, art, architecture, music, eloquence. All these have their place and their uplifting power. Yet ever the human mind tends to stop at the means and its technique instead of going onward and upward towards God, and ever those who employ these agencies tend to fall into that snare, and to become self-conscious instead of God-conscious. This becomes true of ritual, of architecture, of music—yea, even of the sermon. Whenever any method, any agency employed, distracts attention to itself or to the person through whom it is expressed, instead of directing the soul to God, we must transform it or the persons expressing it; or it will become to the possible worshipper a snare instead of an aid; and we shall hear once more a holy and terrible voice in the temple, "Take these things hence." Therefore,

"Direct us, O Lord, in all our doings, with Thy most gracious favor, and further us with Thy continual help; that in all our works begun, continued, and ended in Thee, we may glorify Thy holy Name, and finally, by Thy mercy, obtain everlasting life: through Jesus Christ, our Lord. Amen."

REPORT OF CONFERENCE EVANGELIST, WARREN C. McINTIRE

During this Conference year I have worked in eighteen meetings as follows:

Five Camp meetings—Delanco, New Jersey; Sharon Center, Ohio; Bonnie, Illinois; Bentleyville, Pennsylvania; and Washburn, North Dakota. One winter Holiness Convention in Brooklyn, New York; one Prayer Conference for the Union Gospel Church in Wilksburg, Pennsylvania; Eleven Revivals: Two for Wesleyan Methodist churches in Willow Grove, Pennsylvania and Camden, New Jersey; one for a Methodist Episcopal Church, South, in Salvisa, Kentucky; seven in Methodist Episcopal churches: Science Hill, Kentucky; Salem, Ohio; Washington, Gastonville, Edwards Chapel, Oakmont and Ridgway, Pennsylvania; one in the Methodist Episcopal Church in Cranbury, New Jersey, with two Presbyterian churches cooperating.

I close the year with thanksgiving to God for the good Providence and the riches of Grace that have attended my way. Such manifestations of the power of God as I have witnessed this year will never pass from my memory. The Holy Spirit working with pungent conviction and strong persuasion, penitent souls confessing their sins and receiving the pardoning peace of Christ, believing children of the Lord making their consecration and receiving the baptism with the Holy Ghost, people saved from every level of society, churches revived in every department, and young people called of God into His ministry. Again and again I have seen just such revivals as gave birth to our Methodism. My faith in the Gospel of Christ as the hope of this day has been greatly encouraged as I have seen the revival presence and power of the Holy Spirit visit churches and homes where a praying people had put their sacrifice on the altar and believed the Lord for victory.

Personally I rejoice in the presence and peace of Christ which abides in my heart. I am especially thankful for some remarkable answers to prayer and the special help of the Spirit that brought victory in several hard places. I am as happy as a man can be in this ministry of evangelism to which my Lord has called me.

I have received for my work $2,310.70.

WARREN C. McINTIRE.

REPORT OF CONFERENCE EVANGELIST E. J. EVANS

Last year, in my report to this Conference, I made the statement that we were stepping out on faith—especially as far as finances were concerned. Therefore, last year we determined that we would eliminate any possibility of unfairness upon our part. We determined to have nothing whatever to do with the finances. We followed that plan the entire year, not even meeting with finance committees in the different churches where meetings were held. Our total offerings last year amounted to $652.96.

From out of that experience however I believe that we have been guided towards the formation of a new plan, which is not ready for presentation. I believe it will make possible a large number of meetings which, for financial reasons, were impossible last year.

Last season it was our good fortune to work at Puente, Culver City, Yorba Linda, Belmont Heights, Westland, Chesterfield Square and Hartzell Memorial. We feel that our work was greatly blessed in each place.

Most of us believe that we are witnessing the end of one age and the beginning of another. We do not know what the new age will be. It is not too much to expect that it will recognize the rights of man as being more important than the rights of property, co-operation a better method than selfish competition, love a more powerful weapon than force, and brotherhood a better watchword than monetary profit.

It is a challenge to a new type of evangelism. A gospel that is not big enough to save society is not big enough to save the individual. And a gospel that is big enough to redeem the individual is big enough to redeem his social relations.

Memoirs

In Memoriam

JOSEPH HAMILTON HENRY

Joseph Hamilton Henry was born near Addison, Pennsylvania, March 7, 1844, and although he had travelled far, yet 88 years and six days later he passed to his reward from the same community in which he was born. He was of Scotch Irish ancestry and belonged to the same family as Patrick Henry. Patriotism ran in his veins and when the Civil War broke out he tried to enlist, but finding that he was too young, he served the government in other capacities until he was of age and then enlisted. His first day in the service gave evidence of his loyalty to principle. Meeting a squad of drunken soldiers he was told that he would have to join them in their drinking. This he refused to do, saying that his mother had taught him not to drink, whereupon the soldiers told him that he would have to drink or fight. Removing his coat, he said, "I came to fight and I might as well begin," and during his three years of service he never swerved from his principles of right.

His early education was obtained in the vicinity of his home, but after teaching school for a time he entered Mount Union College. He entered the Pittsburg Conference in 1869, serving a number of charges in that Conference. In 1887 he transferred to the Southern California Conference, where for 30 years he did most acceptable work, retiring in 1909.

In 1870 he was married to Miss Callie Stone and to them was born one daughter, Mrs. Winona Crawford of Glendale, California. Coming to Southern California in 1887 when Los Angeles was little more than a village, Brother Henry and family began making what proved to be a real contribution to the spiritual life of our southland. With a genial spirit, a soul full of the music of heaven, this man of God went about doing good. He was a wonderful singer and everywhere he went he carried the sunshine of a Christ-like life. Earnest in his presentation of the gospel, eager to help people in trouble, kindly in his demeanor, he made a great place for himself wherever he went. He was an inspiration to every Conference session that he attended. None of the members of the Conference in those days will ever forget him.

Retirement did not mean quitting for him. Bereft of his companion he felt that his active days in the ministry were over, but he never quit preaching. In 1921 he was married to Miss Aurelia Brooke of Addison, Penn., and moving from Southern California he again took up his residence in Pennsylvania. Immediately his friends of other days petitioned him to preach again. Accepting their invitation he again poured out his soul in the towns of Addison, Summerfield and Roscoe. For 53 years he sang and preached the message of love. Thousands heard his word and hundreds gave their lives into the keeping of the Great Leader of men.

The spirit was willing but the strength would not carry on longer and amidst the scenes of his active work, both in early and later life, he went home to his coronation. He was never known to complain, but always trusted in the "Good Father". The funeral service was held from the church where he had been the pastor, it being conducted by three friends, the Reverends Pollock, Wineman and Spangler. Appropriate to this tall soldier of God his body rests on the mountain side in the beautiful Memorial Park of Addison, Pennsylvania.

JOHN FREDERICK FISHER

John Frederick Fisher was born in Jefferson County, Ohio, on October the 15th, 1859. He was a graduate of Mount Union College, Alliance, Ohio, and Drew Theological Seminary, and had studied in Western Reserve University. He was ordained into the Methodist Episcopal ministry in 1884 and served in the North-East

Ohio Conference, as successful pastor, superintendent of the Akron and Cleveland Districts, and superintendent of the Children's Aid Society of Cleveland. In 1921 he was appointed Dean of the School of Religion in the University of Southern California, and transferred into the Southern California Conference. In 1896 he was married to Lena Leonard, whose death occurred in March, 1929. Dr. Fisher is survived by a son, Eugene Fisher of Cleveland, and a daughter, Mrs. Alan Kemp Laing of Cincinnati.

In the passing of Dean Fisher the University, the community, and the church at large have suffered a great loss. For ten years, as Dean of the School of Religion and as teacher of the classes in Systematic and New Testament Theology, he came into vital contact with many young men and women who were preparing for definite religious service. Upon them and upon the entire university family there has been placed the stamp of a noble, Christian character. The phrase which has been most often used regarding him is that "he was a Christian gentleman."

I quote from the University daily paper: "There are faculty members who take a leading interest in university affairs and day after day present constructive ideas. There are faculty members who win the loyalty of battalions of friends by sheer grace of personal contact. There are faculty members who occupy positions of fame in the outside world. Once or twice in a decade there comes to an institution one who is all of these. He lives quietly, silently, does all of these things, then, leaves. When he is gone those around him realize that a patriarch has passed.

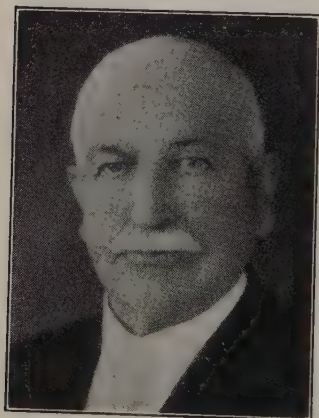

Dean Fisher died yesterday. He was a patriarch." John Frederick Fisher is not dead. He lives forever.

The memorial services for Dean Fisher were held in the First Methodist Episcopal Church of Los Angeles on the morning of September the 28th. A large company of friends from the University, the Church, the Conference, and the Community gathered to do him honor. Tributes of the high esteem in which he was held were brought by Elmer Ellsworth Helms, President R. B. von KleinSmid, George F. Bovard, William Hodgson, J. Lewis Gillies, and Bruce R. Baxter. Dean Fisher was borne to the beautiful Forest Lawn Memorial Park Mausoleum by eight young men, members of his Systematic Theology class in the School of Religion. He will be greatly missed in the Conference, in the University and in the church at large.

BRUCE R. BAXTER.

BENJAMIN CHARLES CORY

God sent Benjamin Charles Cory into a farm home in Belmont County, Ohio, on September 7, 1851. On September 25, 1931, the call of God came to enter the eternal home and receive the crown of "Saint Immortal." Early in life Brother Cory began to fit himself for the service of God in the ministry of the Methodist Episcopal Church. In 1875 he entered Cornell College, at Mount Vernon, Iowa, and in 1879 he became a member of the Upper Iowa Conference. During all these years he has served in the ministry with painstaking fidelity to the task assigned him. After 42 years of unbroken service he retired from the active ministry in 1921. He did not allow himself a long rest, however, for in 1925 he became supply pastor of the Grand View Church, in San Pedro, where he served successfully until the close of the Conference year, 1931.

Eight years of Brother Cory's ministry were given to the Upper Iowa and Northwest Iowa Conferences. Since 1887 he has served various pastorates in the Southern California Conference, including some of our strongest churches. His appointments in this Conference were as follows: Central Church, San Diego; First Church, Redlands; First Church, Pomona; First Church, Riverside; Santa Barbara; Santa Ana; Vincent, Los Angeles; Orange; Asbury, Los Angeles; San Fernando; Tropic; Arlington Heights, Los Angeles, and finally Grand View, San Pedro. In addition to his work in the pastorate he served for two years as the first Superintendent and Secretary of the Methodist Hospital, and for a period of twenty-five years he was a trustee of the University of Southern California. Wherever he served he left this testimony, that he was a preacher with an evangelistic message that won men and women, boys and girls for the Lord and a faithful pastor to whom all could look for spiritual guidance.

On October 2, 1879, at Mount Vernon, Iowa, Benjamin C. Cory and Caroline Elizabeth Ward were united in marriage. Mrs. Cory remains to carry on sustained by the abiding presence of the Divine Comforter.

She will also have the companionship and loving care of four children: Miss Mable Cory, of San Pedro; Mrs. Thomas McDougall, of Carpinteria; Arthur C. Cory, of Inglewood, and Mrs. Helen C. Park of San Pedro. In addition six grandchildren survive to cherish the memory of one who loved boys and girls with the love inspired by His Lord and Christ.

For several weeks Brother Cory had been seriously ill. He had undergone one operation, and expected once again to place himself under the surgeon's knife. However, his soul was longing for the homeland. To some of us who called to see him he expressed a desire that God might call him in the silent hours of the night. "I am ready, my suitcase is packed for a journey around the worlds," were his words. God, the Chief Surgeon, granted his earnest desire and released his eager soul early in the morning, on September 25, and his eyes now behold the glories of the Christ whom he loved and served.

The funeral service was conducted in our Vincent Church, Monday, September 28, at 2 o'clock. The following of his brethren in the ministry took part in the service: W. C. Eddy, Alfred Inwood, W. C. Loomis, Clyde M. Crist, George W. White, John Gabrielson, and Ford Gilbert. The interment took place in Inglewood Cemetery.

JOHN GABRIELSON.

WILLIAM CLAGUE

On July 5, 1864, William Clague opened his eyes to the beauties of the Isle of Man. On December 7, 1931, from his home in Long Beach, Brother Clague took his departure to the Isles of God. It has been said of our Manxmen that the very nature of their surroundings in that island home brings them the ability to laugh in the face of storms and to expect the sunshine that must surely come upon the morrow. William Clague had such inheritance.

Under twenty-three years of age he left the island home to take up his residence in the Dominion of Canada. After two years in the Dominion he came to Minnesota where he began his ministry in the Methodist Episcopal Church in 1891. Shortly after coming to Minnesota, Brother Clague was joined by Alice Gelling, who followed him from the Old Country to become his wife in St. Paul, Minnesota, October 17, 1891. To the Clagues there were born five children, one of whom died in infancy, the other four surviving their father. After three pastorates in the Minnesota Conference, a transfer to Southern California was made. After serving four charges in California, the supernumerary relation had to be taken by Brother Clague in 1905. In 1910 he retired. For years, however, both he and his wife had not been in very good health and so it was impossible for him to ever get back into the active relationship.

As the earthly part of him weakened, the spiritual strength of our brother seemed to increase. The smile stayed with him and the note of good cheer and encouragement was always on his lips as he came in contact with his brethren.

To within a week of the time he was taken seriously sick, he was faithful in his attendance upon First Church, Long Beach. He always had a good word for the officials and the pastors and spoke kindly of his brethren in the ministry who meant more to him than they understood.

Long Beach ministers had part in the funeral services which were held on December 10, 1931.

R. N. MERRILL.

FRANKLIN D. MATHER

It was four score years ago, September 26, 1851, that God loaned Franklin D. Mather to earth, and when on March 19 he was called to give an account of that stewardship, he could answer that the task was well done.

It was in western New York that he was born, and it was there that he had his call to the ministry. An old fashioned call it was, carrying with it the "Woe is me if I preach not the gospel," as he himself so often expressed it.

So he gave his all in answer to that call. To his training in the district school of his day, and in the academy, and to his study in the law, during which time his call came to the ministry, he added the work of a devoted student in his study. Later in his ministry, in 1899, he added to that wealth of knowledge by taking two years of supernumerary relation, which he spent in the study of law, in George Washington University at Washington, D. C., working in the Census Bureau to pay his expenses, and at the end of the course received his degree of Doctor of Civil Law.

Knowing that the mind could not do it all, he took care of what was already a valuable endowment for the ministry—a strong, sturdy body. Those of you who knew him only in later years, can readily understand when I tell you that back of that stocky-built, broad-shouldered body, was a physique of iron. When only 18 years of age, he could lift 500 pounds. Here in the West, in the old camp meeting days at Long Beach, he would spend hours at a time beyond the breakers—an expert swimmer. Not until the last few years did he have anything but perfect health.

Answering when God spoke, he went into the Genesee Conference in 1879 and served two two-year pastorates at Lincoln and Springwater. In 1883 he was transferred to the Southern California Conference and spent two years as pastor at Pomona, where at that time we had but one church. He returned to his home conference again for four years, but the lure of the West drew him back to Southern California in '89, and for 43 years he has worked in and out among us.

Just previous to coming to Southern California Conference the first time in 1881, he was married to Miss Clara P. Dewey, and through the years she has served with him, a pastor's wife indeed, going to the very limit in spite of her own lack of physical strength.

To name the appointments would be to bring up pastorates that have been exacting, but pastorates that have always been met with a cheeriness and to which he has always given his very best. Deliberately he planned his ministry that it should not consist of long pastorates. So the story includes San Luis Obispo, Santa Paula, Fresno, Colton, Monrovia, Alhambra, a second pastorate at Monrovia, Ontario, Lincoln Avenue Pasadena. Then for six years he guided the activities of the Pasadena District as its District Superintendent. None was more honored and respected. And we men of that district knew, as the churches knew, that he did for them, and for us, and for the kingdom, his very best.

Will any of us ever forget that session at San Diego, when, with more men than places, the cabinet was wrestling with the problem. Finally Dr. Mather untangled it with that greatness of heart and that willingness to sacrifice, so characteristic of him. Instead of securing for himself what could easily have been done, as he finished his work in the cabinet,—that is a good appointment, he stepped out and took the retired relation that some of his brothers might have a fairer chance.

But a man of his mind and vision could not stay still. Already he was known on the conference floor as a leader in debate, one whose alert and legal mind could untangle problems. His training rightly put him on the Board of Examiners, and his ability resulted in his choice as Treasurer of the Huntington Beach Association and as Conference Treasurer. For 27 years he has been a member of the Conference Board of Trustees, and for 20 years of that time has been its president, having attended 164 out of 197 meetings during his membership. There we knew him as one who was clear cut in his analysis of business matters, always willing to listen to his brethren, and was much more apt to say if necessary, "I was wrong" than to ever say later, "I knew I was right."

His was a love for democracy and for a square deal. It was because of this that the Conference twice honored him and itself by sending him to the General Conference in 1904 and 1912.

Reaching out for other tasks to perform, he gladly took a church near at hand on several occasions and carried it on well, even while holding the retired relation.

Deeply interested as he was in civic matters, his fellow citizens in Pasadena recognized that fact and for two different terms in 1919 and 1921 they sent him as their representative in the State Assembly. Here he voted for the King Bill and stood like a rock against the so-called "Billion dollar lobby".

He was a member of no fraternal order, but for a quarter of a century held membership in that finest of Pasadena's literary organizations, "The New Century Club".

At the close of his active pastorate, he built a home for his wife and himself at 501 E. Howard Street, Pasadena, where they have lived for 22 years, the only home they ever owned. From that home they went to the home of their son in Upland and celebrated their Golden Wedding anniversary last October. To this home he came back from the hospital, and from that home which he loved, he slipped out to that other home which he himself loved and taught others to love, even more.

Behind him there tarry his wife of more than half a century, his son, Wiley W., in whom he took a father's deep pride; his older sister, herself the widow of a Methodist minister of Genesee Conference, now living in Massachusetts; three grandsons and one granddaughter. And he leaves, too, those of us whom he has fathered, pastored, brothered. He has been to us an example. Through his life we have learned to know God better.

F. G. H. STEVENS.

HENRY IRVING RASMUS

Henry Irving Rasmus, fifth son of Christian Rasmussen and Caroline Henrietta Holm, was born in the "City of Brotherly Love", Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, April 30, 1859.

When he was yet a lad, his parents gathered the members of the family into a covered wagon and crossed the continent, pausing for a brief time in Montana; and settling, finally, in the vicinity of Walla Walla, Washington.

With an early interest in and marked ability for debate and dramatics, it was not until he married Margaret Sniff on February 3, 1884, that he decided to give himself to the ministry of Jesus Christ. Always a man of superb physical strength with sinew of soul to match, in his early ministry he fought evil with such fearless vigor that his life was threatened constantly by those who trafficked in crime.

At the age of thirty, he was appointed Presiding Elder of the Spokane District of the Columbia River Conference; and two years later, followed Dr. Shanklin as minister of First Church, Spokane.

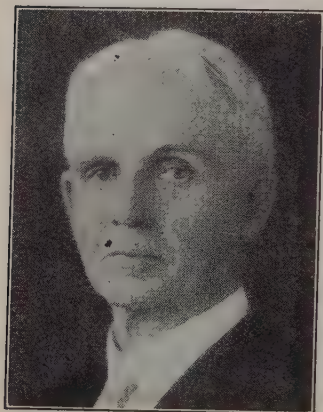

He was elected a member of the General Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church held in Omaha in 1892, and was the youngest delegate attending that Conference. He was elected a second time to the General Conference held in Des Moines in 1920.

The degree of Doctor of Divinity was conferred upon him by Portland University and was the first degree given by that institution and was received without solicitation, either personal or at the request of an organization. Later in his ministry, he received the degree of Doctor of Laws.

Dr. Rasmus served for five years at Grace Church, Portland, Oregon; five years at Oak Park and South Park Avenue in Chicago, Illinois; held a second pastorate in First Church Spokane, Washington, of eight years before he entered the Southern California Conference. In the latter, he served First Church, Long Beach, six years during which time eight young men entered the ministry; as the Superintendent of the San Diego District for six years; and as the minister of the First Church, Glendale, for two years from which pastorate he retired.

The years of retirement were a constant benediction to those who came within the circle of his ministry. He took up the work of the Mt. Olive Methodist Episcopal Church in Hollywood for a few weeks in 1929, between Brother Wimberley's ministry and that of his son in this church, and so endeared himself to the members of the congregation that, upon the son's arrival, the Official Board elected him Minister Emeritus.

The latter years have been neither idle nor fruitless. His wise counsel, his radiant faith, his unwillingness to compromise with evil, his unflinching belief that truth alone makes right and his strength of purpose to back up his convictions at any cost, and the power of his preaching have rendered the closing years, as well as the earlier ones, years of moment and splendid accomplishment.

He went out, as one should, like a King going to possess his Kingdom. Toward the end, he whispered the words, "Jesus, my Savior" and then, just before he passed, to the loved ones in his immediate presence, and to the absent ones, also, we may be sure, "The Lord bless you all."

He leaves to revere his memory as precious, the widow, without whom, he said many times, his ministry would not have been possible; three daughters, Mrs. E. Z. Smith, of Spokane, Washington; Mrs. Ward N. Fancher, of Spokane, Washington; Mrs. Wm. H. Wagner, Jr., of Chicago, Ill.; a son, Henry Irving Rasmus, Jr., of Hollywood, Calif., and a sister, Lena Bradbury, of San Fernando, California.

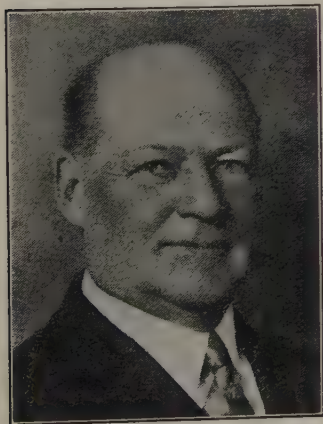

As he thought of the task which Jesus Christ committed to His disciples everywhere, his parting words to the brethren in the ministry, whom he loved so dearly, could be expressed, probably, in the words he had inscribed upon his letter heads when he was Superintendent of the San Diego District:

"We must not, we cannot fail."

H. I. RASMUS, JR.

JOHN MATTHEW BAXTER

John Matthew Baxter, who died January the 15th, was born in Oberlin, Ohio, August 28, 1867. His parents were devout, God fearing English Wesleyan people and dedicated him to the Christian ministry. Having received a definite call to that life work, he entered upon his preparation at Baldwin-Wallace University and Oberlin Theological Seminary. In later years, in the midst of his active ministry, Baldwin-Wallace conferred upon him the honorary degree of Doctor of Divinity. September 17, 1891, he married Nina K. Bartleson, and took her to his first Methodist Conference appointment, Rock Run, where the parsonage was a log cabin and the annual salary was $350, part of which was given in food supplies. Later pastorates in the North Ohio and North-East Ohio Conferences were Republic; Green Spring (where he served for nine years); Cardington; 20th Street, Lorain; Bellevue; North Hill, Akron; Brooklyn Memorial, Cleveland; and Coshocton. In 1921 he and Bruce (his son) made a four months' trip together to Palestine and Egypt. For many years he was a member of the North-East Ohio Conference Committee on Conference Claimants, which administered the funds for the retired ministers and widows. He was a long time member of the Board of Trustees of Lakeside, with special responsibility for the program of the Bible Conference. He belonged to the Masonic Bodies, including Knights Templar and 32 degree. He was a member of the Rotary Club of Coshocton.

In December, 1927, he came to the pastorate of the Rosewood Church, in exchange with Dr. I. B. Harper. The membership of the church has been more than doubled and for the first two years a record was maintained of receiving members every Sunday. He remained in the active ministry to the end, having a fear of inactivity following retirement. He was peculiarly a pastoral minister. He entered deeply into the experiences of people in need. In times of sorrow he was most helpful. His kindly spirit and earnest Christian character have given inspiration to a multitude of people. Of him we say in the phraseology of Charles Wesley's hymn, "Servant of God, well done."

The memorial service was conducted by J. Lewis Gillies, on the afternoon of January the 18th, in the Rosewood Church. Expressions of highest esteem and admiration were given in brief talks by Dr. Thomas Hambly, a former associate in the ministry in Ohio; President R. B. von KleinSmid; Lewis T. Guild and A. Ray Moore. Bishop Charles Wesley Burns gave the address and paid a beautiful tribute to the place Brother Baxter had made for himself in the Southern California Conference. The committal service was read by Bishop Burns and Dr. John B. Jones of the North-East Ohio Conference. The interment was in Forest Lawn Memorial Park, Glendale, just at the close of a beautiful day, but it was not the close of a beautiful life; it was the beginning of a larger ministry.

BRUCE R. BAXTER.

EZRA A. HEALY

Ezra Anthony Healy was of the sixth generation from William Healy, who landed in America in 1640, twenty years after the arrival of the Mayflower. The grandfather of our dean was a member of the Genesee Conference in New York and was sent as a missionary to Canada by Bishop George.

He was born in Smith Falls, Ontario, March 25, 1844, and was therefore in his eighty-eighth year when death took him. In 1872 he was graduated from Victoria University; and from his Alma Mater he subsequently received the degrees of Master of Arts and Doctor of Sacred Theology. Following his graduation he was married to Mary Priscilla Edmunds; and thus the twain have traveled together life's pathway for almost three score years. Two children were born of this marriage, a son, who passed away in childhood, and Winifred Healy, who lives with her mother in Los Angeles. He entered the ministry of the Methodist Church in 1867, and served as successful pastor at Stratford, Mitchel and Montreal, Canada, until 1878, when he moved to Grand Forks, Dakota Territory.

He became a founder and charter trustee of the University of North Dakota.

The only pastorate in the States served by him before coming to California was at Drayton, North Dakota, then Dakota Territory. He helped to found the town and organize the church of which he was pastor for four years. Then for sixteen years he was out of the active ministry, traveling, often in the employ of the government, seeking the recovery of his health. He saw the uninhabited prairies change to settlements and civilization.

Coming to California in 1890, he became that year a member of the Conference, and served for thirty-six years in effective relation. These years were divided almost equally between the pastorate and the deanship of Maclay School of Theology. He was pastor of our churches at Long Beach, Ontario, Asbury, First San Diego, the combined Simpson and Westlake, Westlake and University. George F. Bovard describes him, "A wise administrator, an able preacher, a pastor beloved." The many calls for his services in his later years to officiate at funerals indicate the way he built himself into the hearts of his people.

From 1895 to 1927 Dean Healy was a trustee of our University of Southern California, and served at times as president and as secretary. The last five years of his life he was an honorary trustee. For fourteen years he was Dean of the Maclay School of Theology and ten years more Dean Emeritus.

His conference recognized him as one of its strongest members; the University counted him invaluable in counsel; his students remember him with deepest affection; his parishioners cherish every memory of him. He was a strong preacher, an inspiring teacher, a trusted advisor, a loyal friend.

After many weeks suffering from an accident, and during which he made a brave fight for life, our great and good brother passed away on August 17, 1931. The funeral services were conducted in the old University Church, where for seven years he was pastor and where his membership remained to the end of his life. Messages were brought by several representatives of the University and the Conference, and three great hymns of the church were sung by members of the Conference.

And thus has passed from us one of our greatest men. Dean Healy led without domineering; he argued without antagonizing; he inspired in others an enthusiasm for their own work. To meet him was to admire him; to visit with him was to feel his strong personality; to know him was to love him.

From university presidents and professors, from preachers and students, judges and statesmen have come messages from which are extracted these phrases: "He leaves an impression on the University never to be erased;" "The teacher of the classroom . . . has been our counsellor through all the years;" "His felicitous speech was equalled only by his clear thinking;" "He brought to me what I now know was the most priceless counsel;" "The best type Methodism could produce;" "To know him was to admire, love and respect him;" "Marked by sound scholarship, kindly humor, capacity for friendship, and nobility of character;" "To the end he saw the Invisible; his faith in the sure supernatural was his song in the night;" "He walked with God."

W. C. HODGSON.

MRS. W. H. FULFORD

Lily Prince, wife of W. H. Fulford, entered into the spiritual realm on March 17th, 1932. She had fought bravely for nearly four months to throw off the dread disease. Up to mid-December she kept to her teaching and was hopeful almost to the last that she would return, but the hold was too strong.

She was born January 22, 1872, at Gambier, Ohio, and the family came to California in 1890, settling in what is now North Hollywood. The Prince family were early adherents of the Episcopal Church, but soon came into the fellowship of the Methodist Church and they have been devoted members of different churches in our Conference. She is survived by three sisters, Louise Thorpe, Alice Anderson, Ida Parrish, three brothers, Geo. H. Prince and Alfred Prince of North Hollywood, Fred Prince, of San Fernando, besides her husband and daughter, Mary.

For six years she taught school in Los Angeles before she married W. H. Fulford on July 10, 1901. They began homemaking in the parsonage at Satcoy, Ventura County, where Brother Fulford was pastor. Later charges were at Reedley, San Miguel, Chino, Bardsdale, Moorpark, Taft, Caruthers. When retired in 1915 they came to Moorpark to make their home and the family have given large service to the community in many different ways. A natural teacher, Mrs. Fulford again found a place for her ability and she taught for many years in the local school. For a few months she was Postmistress and more recently she had taught in the Center School, just west of Moorpark.

Whenever the call came to serve in the home, the church or community, she was one who put herself into the task with the self-abandon which eventually captured her earthly career, but those who knew her will always find comfort in the assurance of her entrance into the City of God. Evidencing this, her daughter Mary, also a teacher, but a vocalist of ability, sang in the Easter Service less than two weeks after her mother had departed this life. It was a beautiful testimony.

The funeral services were held in the Moorpark Church, which had had such an intimate part in the life of the family for so many years and were in charge of the pastor, Harry G. Banks, and Archie D. Butters, of Santa Paula, who had been acquainted with the family for a long time, having been in the same church as young people. The interment was at Rosedale Cemetery in Los Angeles, where a short service was conducted by Glenn R. Phillips, her former pastor at Moorpark.

HARRY G. BANKS.

MRS. WILLIAM PITTENGER

Winnie Clude Osborne was born at New Brighton, Pennsylvania, October 1, 1845, and went to her heavenly home from Eagle Rock, California, Sunday afternoon, August 2, 1931, lacking two months of being eighty-six years of age.

She never could remember when she did not love Jesus, and when a little girl of tender years she definitely dedicated her life to His service, and faithfully followed Him the rest of her earthly life. From babyhood until her death, she was happier in Sunday School and church than anywhere else.

There weren't colleges for women in those early days but she attended the public schools at New Brighton and began her teaching when she was only fifteen.

In 1863 a young veteran of the Civil War, William Pittenger, who was soon to be ordained to the Methodist ministry, lectured in the New Brighton church, giving the account of his thrilling war experiences. It was a case of love at first sight. Six months later, after several visits between, they were married, May 17, 1864.

For forty years Mother Pittenger was a faithful and loving wife, sharing the joys and sorrows of an itinerant life without complaint and with an unflinching trust in God. She was greatly beloved in all their charges and her prayers and sunny spirit greatly sustained her husband and availed much for the success of the church. No interest in the church ever suffered that was committed to their care.

Their itinerancy of forty years began at Massilon, Ohio, in 1864. They also served Cadiz and Mount Union, Ohio. In 1870 they were transferred to the New Jersey Conference, in which Brother Pittenger filled a number of prominent appointments, including Princeton and Bordentown, and was twice appointed to Vineland. In 1889 he was transferred to the Southern California Conference in which they served the following charges: National City, Ventura, Colton, Fallbrook and Burbank.

It was on a Sunday morning, when the Death Angel hovered over the little home in Fallbrook, April 24, 1904, and took away the beloved companion and father.

It was on a Sunday afternoon twenty-seven years later when the mother was called, and went home to be forever with her husband and the children who had preceded her.

Was it not the first day of the week that the Savior appeared from the empty tomb? Was it not on the Sabbath day, the day of all the week that our Master performed many of His miracles? Was it not the day of the week as a little girl and all through her life, Winnie Osborne longed for. Was it a coincidence that our Lord selected the best day of all days to send His holy angels to take to Heaven these dearly beloved servants?

When Brother Pittenger laid down his work, our sister did not cease her toil. She seemed to feel that now that he had gone, she must do the work of two. Early and late she tirelessly gave herself to advancing the Kingdom of our Lord. There was no part of the church life with which she was unfamiliar.

She would not approve of extravagant eulogy, but it is difficult to find language to measure the infinite value to a human life of a consecrated mother. Her daughters have been trying through all these twenty-seven years of her widowhood, to pay her back in kind, the love and devotion and tender care which they received from her when they were children.

A traveler tells us he read on a moss-covered tombstone in a quaint little English churchyard these words, "Think what a man ought to be, and he was that." When we think of Mother Pittenger, we "think of what a woman ought to be and she was that."

Her last attendance at church was on Children's Day, June 14. She enjoyed seeing the little folks have their part in the services. She spoke of this several times later. In a few days she was compelled to take to her bed and during the eight weeks that followed everything that human skill could accomplish and tender nursing suggest to favor her return to health was done. But the Master had need of her in a wider field of usefulness.

Only three daughters, Mrs. Anna Robinson of Claremont, Mrs. Emma Durbin of Los Angeles and Mrs. Mary Wayman of Fallbrook and four grandchildren, Morse, Katherine and Alta Robinson and James Wayman of her immediate relatives survive, but her friends can be counted into the thousands.

Funeral services were conducted in the church at Fallbrook, Tuesday afternoon, August 4, 1931, by Wm. McKinley Walker, assisted by E. R. Kelly. The interment was in the Fallbrook cemetery.

WM. MCKINLEY WALKER.

MRS. JAMES A. STAVELY

Viola Troutman was born in Indiana. When but a child her parents moved to Kansas. The Troutman home was a sanctuary where there was true devotion to Christ, and the truth of the Gospel was early instilled into her mind. To this teaching she gave ready acceptance. Her heritage included that of the sturdy pioneer. The process of subduing the frontier entailed many hardships. Then there was that other pioneering adventure whose fierce conflict rid the state of the open saloon. Out of these struggles there came the fire of heroic purpose to attempt great things for God and man—a flame that burned steadily to the last.

For her life work Miss Troutman chose the teaching profession and her eighteen years in the chair of history in the Topeka High School left an indelible impress upon her students. In those days her home—where she ministered to the needs of her aged father—was a center to which youth turned seeking and finding sympathy and wise counsel.

Then came the call into a wider sphere and she became one of the secretaries of the Topeka Branch of the Woman's Foreign Missionary Society. For seven years in full time ministry, with a statesman's wisdom, with a prophet's trumpet voice, and with the passion of a saint, she went everywhere through that wide domain of seven states, overcoming obstacles, and achieving results that sometimes seemed incredible. It was her warm heart and fertile brain that originated the plans for the Golden Jubilee of the Woman's Foreign Missionary Society. Through twelve years she was an honored and trusted counselor in the General Executive Committee of that great Society.

In recognition of Miss Troutman's scholastic attainment, Baker University in 1909, conferred upon her the honorary degree of Master of Arts. In 1904 and again in 1912 she was elected delegate to the General Conference.

Sixteen years ago she became the wife of James A. Stavely. As minister's wife she served in Parsons, Kansas; Kansas City District; Phoenix, Arizona; Redlands; Upland; St. Pauls, Los Angeles, and everywhere her life glowed with holy light and the people loved her with deep devotion. It was in the home that she felt she had come to her highest privilege of service. She took into her heart the three motherless children. To passionate love she added perfect understanding. As she gave, so she received. These children, now grown to manhood and womanhood, with sorrowing hearts, rise up to call her blessed.

When the call came Mrs. Stavely was more than conqueror. Her solicitude was for others. "I am not unhappy and you must not be unhappy," she said. So her spirit passed to be with God, January 20, 1932. Funeral services were conducted January 25, from St. Paul's Church by the District Superintendent, J. L. Gillies. Loving tributes to the strength and beauty of her character were paid by W. A. Brown, A. Ray Moore, and the writer.

CHARLES B. DALTON.

MRS. REINHARD STEINBACH

Sidonia E. Steinbach, wife of Reinhard Steinbach, went to her reward on October 9, 1931, in Oakland, California.

She was the daughter of Rev. Hermann Brueck. Born in the City of New York, February 17, 1856, she came with her parents to California, where under the guidance of Providence she found a place of a useful life. She became the wife of Reinhard Steinbach August 13, 1880. For forty-three years she labored with her husband in various places in German congregations mostly around the San Francisco Bay, but also in Los Angeles First German Church.

Sister Steinbach was a wise counselor to her husband, a loving mother to her children with fine sentiments and unreserved unselfishness in helping others. At the celebration of their fiftieth anniversary of marriage and again at her burial it was very perceptible how beloved she was.

The number of those present at both times was very large. "Blessed are the dead who die in the Lord; even so saith the Spirit; for they rest from their labors and their works do follow them."

Her survivors in the family are her husband, Brother Steinbach; her children, Hermann Steinbach, Reinhard Steinbach, Albert Steinbach and Mrs. Marie Hoch; four grandchildren and a brother, Carl Brueck of Stockton, California.

WILLIAM SCHULDT.

MRS. A. B. MORRISON

Mrs. Anna Loweny Morrison, widow of A. B. Morrison, died Tuesday night, December 29, 1931, at her home on North Central Avenue, Glendale, aged 93. Funeral services were held the following Saturday, with interment at Rosedale Cemetery.

She was born in Wellsborough, Pa., her father being a lawyer and one of the founders of Wells College. In her home life and as the wife of Rev. Mr. Morrison, Mrs. Morrison had a wide acquaintance among well known personages.

Rev. and Mrs. Morrison came to Glendale twenty-four years ago and founded the Pacific Avenue Methodist Episcopal Church, and were active in the religious circles of the city.

Surviving her are a sister, Mary L. Russell of Glendale, a brother-in-law, Frank Foster of Los Angeles; a cousin, Roland Morris of Philadelphia, who was consul to Japan during the World War, and two nieces in the east.

MRS. MARION M. BOVARD

Mrs. Jean Allen Bovard, widow of Dr. Marion M. Bovard, founder and first president of the University of Southern California, and herself a member of that institution's first faculty, died May 2, 1932, at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Marian Shibley, in Berkeley.

Since her husband's death Mrs. Bovard had been making her residence for periods of several months at a time with her two daughters and with her son, Porteus Bovard of San Francisco. Recently she had been living in Los Angeles with Mrs. William Armstrong, having left to visit Mrs. Shibley only two weeks before her death.

Mrs. Bovard was 77 years of age. She was born in Greencastle, Indiana, and received her education at De Pauw University. She was a member of the first class of women admitted to that university, their admittance being regarded as an experiment at the time, the matriculation of additional women students in the future to be contingent on the success of this first class.

She was graduated when she was only 19 years of age, and immediately after her graduation she was married to Dr. Bovard. The young couple intended to become missionaries to the Indians in Arizona and shortly after their wedding they set out to make the round-about journey, first to San Francisco, then by ship to San Pedro and then by stage east again to Arizona.

When they reached the Colorado River, however, the Indians were on the warpath, and their honeymoon journey ended by their turning back to Riverside, where they settled, Dr. Bovard founding and becoming pastor of the First Methodist Episcopal Church there.

After two years in Riverside Mrs. Bovard came to Los Angeles with her husband. Here he became pastor of the First Church and then several years later embarked on the ambitious project of founding the University of Southern California. In this he had the aid and advice of his wife, who became an instructor in English on his first faculty.

She did not remain an instructor very long, her social duties as wife of president becoming an increasing task as the university grew, for in those days all the official entertaining at the university was done by the president and his wife. At DePauw, Mrs. Bovard had been a member of Kappa Alpha Theta Sorority, and she founded the chapter of that sorority at U.S.C.

In addition to her three children, Mrs. William Armstrong, of Los Angeles, Mrs. Marian Shipley of Berkeley and Porteus Bovard of San Francisco, she leaves four grandchildren.

(a) Plan of Conference Examinations

BOARD OF MINISTERIAL INSTRUCTION

Geo. A. Warmer, Chairman, 613 Spurgeon St., Santa Ana; Alfred Inwood, Registrar, 1490 Oxford Ave., Pasadena; John N. Ashley, J. L. Corley, C. C. Douglas, Don S. Ford, W. T. Gilliland, John G. Hill, C. O. Kimball, Carl Knopf, Charles A. Kent, Glenn R. Phillips, R. J. Taylor, J. Scott Willmarth, B. D. Snudden, W. L. Y. Davis.

RULES FOR EXAMINATIONS

1. Examinations in the Conference Courses of Study will be held the Tuesday preceding the opening of the Conference and at the seat of the Conference, and that afternoon at 4 o'clock the Board of Examiners will hold its annual meeting.

3. All candidates holding a bachelor degree from an accredited college or university shall be exempt from examination in all studies not biblical and theological, and all graduates from accredited theological seminaries shall be exempt from examination in theological and biblical studies. This exemption shall not, however, exclude examination on the Discipline. All candidates whether excused from other examination or not must take examination in this study. (See Discipline, par. 618, Sec. 4.) Certificates of such work must be sent the Registrar not later than Sept. 1st.

4. A syllabus of each book in the "Collateral Reading and Study" shall be presented to the respective examiner, but this rule shall not apply to the College and Seminary graduates excused from examination in the courses of study. But these latter must present to the Registrar a certificate giving the grade of each study for work done in college or seminary.

6. Sermons must be typewritten and sent to C. O. Kimball not later than June 1st and should contain from 2000 to 3000 words. The paper used should be letter-size and should be folded, not rolled, when sent. Deduction will be made when the spelling, grammar or general execution is faulty.

7. The examiners and the Registrar will be glad to communicate with the under-graduates regarding studies. Enclose stamps for reply. The addresses of the examiners will be found in the List of Appointments.

(b) Conference Rules of Order

1. The Conference shall meet at 8:30 a.m. and open with devotional exercises and the regular business session shall begin at 9:00 a. m. and close at 12:30 p. m.

3. Members are strictly forbidden to remain in the vestibules during devotional exercises.

4. The Memorial Service shall be held at the Tuesday afternoon session of the Conference immediately following the Communion Service and shall include the calling of the Roll of the Honored Dead.

5. The Conference shall select a Committee on Committees the duty of which shall be, in consultation with the District Superintendents, to name all Standing Committees of the Annual Conference the selection of which has not already been provided for by legislation, or by direct vote of the Conference.
6. When a member wishes to speak he must arise and address the Chair and shall not proceed until he is properly recognized by the presiding officer.

11. All motions to lay on the table, to take from the table, to indefinitely postpone, shall be taken without debate, but the one who offers a formal motion or resolution shall have five minutes to close the debate and this right shall not be forfeited by a motion ordering the previous question or to lay on the table.
12. No member shall speak on any question more than once until all who wish to do so have spoken, nor shall a member speak more than ten minutes except by permission of the conference, nor shall it be in order to move the previous question nor move to lay on the table at the close of a speech in which the pending question has been discussed.
13. The following motions may take precedence of the original motion or precedence of each other in the order here named: (1) To adjourn to a given time. (2) To adjourn indefinitely. 17. The yeas and nays may be taken on any motion on the call of one-third of the members present.
18. All reports prepared for adoption shall be presented in duplicate, each copy of which shall be written on typewriter, using only one side of the paper.
19. The Committee on Conference Relations shall consist of nine members who shall be elected for a term of three years, but it shall be divided into three classes of three members each, one class to be elected annually.
20. All applications for admission into this Conference on Trial, into full membership, or from other denominations, and all changes of relation of members shall be considered in executive session, and no one shall be admitted into the Conference except by a two-thirds vote.

WOMEN'S ORGANIZATIONS

The auditorium was well filled on Thursday afternoon for the anniversary program of the conference women's organizations—the Woman's Aid, the Woman's Home and Foreign Missionary Societies.

The meeting was called to order by Mrs. C. F. Van de Water, President of Conference Federated Woman's Aid Societies. Mrs. James C. Baker, wife of the presiding bishop, was guest of honor. Other introductions included the national, conference and district officers, also missionaries and deaconesses.

The praise service led by Mrs. Earl Dickinson and the vocal numbers by Mrs. Mabel Steinecker were an inspiration. Mrs. Emma Stroup brought a reassuring message on the things that abide. The world is to be overcome by a victorious faith; by hope, the anchor which holds us secure; and by love which is the greatest of all—for Love is God.

For the Woman's Home Missionary Society, Mrs. L. F. Sedgwick outlined the various activities of the year, stressing the splendid spirit of cooperation. The reports of each organization showed a purpose to hold steady and press forward. The combined receipts total some $225,000 for work at home and abroad.

Dr. Bruce Baxter, in his address on the primacy of the church in the community and in the individual life, urged his hearers to set a high goal motivated by faith, hope and love.

Mrs. Cora M. Cassill graciously gave her time to Bishop Brenton Thoburn Badley, who spoke for the Woman's Foreign Missionary Society. Carrying his audience to India by vivid illustrations, Bishop Badley described the work of village evangelists and the sacrificial devotion of the Indian Christians. These transformations are a "spiritual triumph, for a deep spiritual life is throbbing at the heart of it all."

MRS. CORA M. CASSILL.

WOMEN'S AID FEDERATION

Two thousand women gathered at First Christian Church, Long Beach, for the meeting of the Women's Aid, Thursday morning, June 30, the President, Mrs. C. F. Van de Water in the chair. The program consisted largely of the reports of the Districts.

This past year has seen the organization of a new district federation in Arizona, its President being Mrs. Will A. Betts of Phoenix.

The report of the Conference Corresponding Secretary showed 288 societies with a membership totalling 16,443, 238,569 calls made, $158,598.66 raised and 20,164 Goodwill bags distributed. The report of the nominating committee was read by Mrs. Luther Rice, as follows: For President, Mrs. Walter C. Loomis; Vice-President, Mrs. C. J. Oleson; Secretary, Mrs. R. A. McKibben; Treasurer, Mrs. D. B. Loofbourrow; Resolutions Committee, Mrs. W. A. Reynolds, Mrs. J.

Earl Vandagriff, Mrs. Maynard W. Beckwith; Nominating Committee, Mrs. C. R. Montague, Mrs. H. I. Rasmus, Jr., Mrs. Golder Lawrence.

It was moved, seconded and carried to accept the report, and the secretary was authorized to cast a ballot for the candidates nominated. The ballot was cast, and the new officers were declared elected.

Mrs. C. R. Montague read the report of the Resolutions Committee, as follows:

"The Committee on Resolutions submit the following report. 1. We are indeed grateful to our host, Dr. Merrill; to Rev. and Mrs. Danskin and the faithful and efficient staff of workers who have so graciously cared for our every comfort while in attendance at the Conference. We greatly miss the presence of Mrs. Merrill, but cherish her in our thought. It has been a joy to welcome to our number the wife of our new resident Bishop, Mrs. Baker, and we thank her for her gracious and sympathetic words. The bond of a common task has already made a large place for her in our hearts.

"2. We wish to thank the Young Woman's Christian Association for their gracious hospitality. We also wish to express our gratitude to the women of the Congregational Church for their part in the making of our annual banquet such a pleasant and profitable occasion. Our appreciation is also extended to Mrs. Steinacker and Miss Aaronson for the music so beautifully given.

"3. Each year death takes from us several of our number, but the outstanding service and consecrated leadership of these godly women live on as a benediction upon us all. Five of our number have answered the call this year, leaving saddened hearts and empty places. To their families and loved ones we wish to extend our deepest sympathy. Those who have departed during the year are: Mrs. J. A. Stavely, Mrs. M. M. Bovard, Mrs. W. H. Fulford, Mrs. Wm. Pittenger, Mrs. A. B. Morrison.

"Respectfully submitted

MRS. C. R. MONTAGUE,
MRS. E. DOW HOFFMAN,
MRS. W. A. JENNINGS."

It was moved and carried to accept the report of the Resolutions Committee.

The brides were asked to stand. They were introduced.

New officers were presented.

Mrs. Merle N. Smith gave a very interesting talk on side lights of the General Conference.

Miss Islah Rogers delighted us with two solos.

Her experiences in North Africa were vividly told by Mrs. Stephen Kiser.

A most interesting program was closed by a narrative of some unusual experiences Mrs. J. L. Corley had had during her recent year in China.

MRS. GROSS W. ALEXANDER, Secretary.
